GAME NOTES

A WIN WOULD...

- ★ Keep Little Rock in contention for a first-round bye in the Sun Belt Tournament.
- ★ Mark Little Rock's seventh consecutive win.
- ★ Record a Trojan win in the final conference meeting between Little Rock and UTA.
- ★ Register Joe Foley's 831st career win as a head coach.
- ★ Give Joe Foley his 375th win as head coach of the Trojans.
- ★ Be better than a loss.

IT ALL COMES DOWN TO THIS

Two games to decide whether Little Rock finishes anywhere between 1st and 7th in the Sun Belt standings this season. In one of the wilder finishes to the Sun Belt in recent years, a lot is at stake over the final two games - not just for the Trojans but for all teams in the league.

THINGS ARE HEATING UP

Who said February was a cold month? Little Rock is making February a month of hot instead of cold as the Trojans enter this game having won six straight games. That includes a heartfelt 88-36 win over Champion Christian on Valentine's Day. The streak started immediately after UTA's last win over Little Rock.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Let's simplify this for you. Little Rock's defense is good. So good, opponents have only managed 196 assists off the Trojans, a mark that is so low it ranks Little Rock second in the nation. Meanwhile opponents have only managed 119 steals, ranking fifth-fewest in the nation, while the 50 blocks Trojan opponents have recorded ranks as the 16th-fewest in the country.

FLY IN THE OINTMENT

Little Rock seems to be the fly in the ointment for other teams. The Trojans have limited opposing teams to just 205 offensive rebounds, the 13th-fewest in the nation.

PUNISHED FOR MISTAKES

Teams that face Little Rock are often forced into mistakes and then punished for them. Trojan opponents are averaging 17.7 turnovers per game (a mark that ranks Little Rock 86th in the nation) and have a turnover rate of 22.3%, ranking Little Rock 49th nationally. Then the Trojans turn those turnovers into points and find success with that formula. Entering this game, Little Rock is 13-2 and has 13 wins in 22 games when scoring more or the same amount of points off turnovers as their opponents.

IT'S ALL ABOUT BALANCE

And Trojan opponents are struggling to find it this year. That is because teams that face Little Rock this season have a 0.56 assist-to-turnover ratio, a mark that ranks Little Rock 17th in the nation.

CONTROLLING THE PLAY

Little Rock opponents are finding it hard to move the ball against the Trojans (this really is no surprise to us here in The Rock). Trojan opponents are averaging just 9.8 assists per game, a mark that ranks 14th in the nation for Little Rock's defense. This is notable considering Arkansas State ranks 33rd nationally in assists per game (15.6) and has one of the nation's best assisted shot rate (60.8%), ranking 56th.

TRAVELING TROJANS FIND SUCCESS

Little Rock continues its traveling February schedule with a trip to Texas this week. The Trojans head to the Lone Star State having won five straight road games.

COMING THROUGH IN THE CLUTCH

The Trojans enter this game with a 3-0 record in close calls, having won a trio of games decided by three points or less. That includes a 68-66 win over Troy on Jan. 20 and a 51-50 win over Louisiana on Feb. 3.

EFFECTIVE DEFENSE...

Little Rock opponents often get frustrated when facing the Trojans and it's not hard to see why. In conference play this season, the Trojans lead the Sun Belt by allowing just 58.2 ppg. The next best scoring defense in league play this season is Louisiana, who is allowing 61.9 ppg.

...IT'S WHAT LITTLE ROCK PLAYS

Defense does still exist in the Sun Belt and it usually comes with "Little Rock" written across the chest. Trojan opponents are averaging 57.3 points per game (ranking 50th in the nation) while UT Arlington is allowing an average of 65.7 ppg, ranking 210th in the nation.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT

ABOUT UT ARLINGTON

- ★ The Mavericks are 16-6, 10-3 in Sun Belt Conference play and are one game behind Troy in the Sun Belt standings.
- ★ UT Arlington is right behind Little Rock in the Sun Belt ranks in terms of fewest turnovers.
- ★ The Mavs rank 23rd in the nation in 3-point field goal defense.
- ★ UTA leads the Sun Belt in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.11) and fewest turnovers per game (14.1).
- ★ UT Arlington's scoring offense ranks 94th in the nation, averaging 68.9 ppg but that only slates them as sixth in the Sun Belt.
- ★ Starr Jacobs has been the star of the Mavs, leading the league by averaging 20.4 ppg. That ranks 15th nationally.
- ★ Jacobs also ranks in the top 25 nationally and leads the Sun Belt in field goal percentage (54.9%, ranking 22nd) and in field goals made (180, ranking 25th).
- ★ Katie Ferrell, presumably working on her doctorate with as many years as it seems she's been in a UTA uniform, ranks 69th nationally and third in the Sun Belt by averaging 4.5 assists per game.
- ★ Terryn Milton ranks 10th nationally and leads the Sun Belt with a 2.60 assist-to-turnover ratio while Ferrell ranks 29th nationally and second in the Sun Belt (2.27).

SERIES HISTORY VS. UT ARLINGTON

- ★ This will be the 20th meeting between the two Sun Belt foes that won't be in the Sun Belt next year. Little Rock leads the overall series, 12-7.
- ★ Little Rock and UT Arlington have split each of the last 10 meetings between the two teams.
- ★ The meetings in Arlington have trended towards the Trojans with Little Rock holding a 6-3 advantage and winning the last meeting in the Metroplex.
- ★ The last time a winning team scored more than 60 points in a game played in Arlington in this series was back in 2019.

IF YA CAN'T BEAT 'EM...

Watch them leave? As Little Rock embarks on its final season of Sun Belt Conference play, the other teams must be releasing a sigh of relief. That is because since the Jack Stephens Center opened (2005-06 season), Little Rock (men and women combined) has won more Sun Belt Championships (regular season, tournament and combined) than any other Sun Belt program over that time frame. That includes other programs that have already left the Sun Belt Conference.

BYE, BYE, BYE (BYE)

More than just immortal lyrics from *Nsync, with the Sun Belt approaching the last few weeks of the season, all eyes are on the byes. The top four seeds in the 2022 Sun Belt Tournament in Pensacola will receive a first round bye. Little Rock enters this game in a tie for third with App State but the Trojans would not win out in a tiebreaker with the Mountaineers.

TIEBREAKERS

Here's a look at how tiebreakers will be solved:

Two Teams Tie Breaking Formula

- Highest win-loss percentage of head-to-head competition during the regular season.
- Each teams' win-loss percentage vs. the team occupying the highest position in the final regular-season standings, and then continuing down through the standings until one teams gains an advantage.
- When arriving at another group of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to that group's own tie-breaking procedure), rather than the performance against individual tied teams.
- If the records are the same against all teams, then the seeded position would be determined by a toss of the coin by the Sun Belt Conference Commissioner.

Three or More Teams Tie Breaking Formula

- Highest win-loss percentage of the tied teams against each other is first considered.
- Each teams' win-loss percentage vs. the team occupying the highest position in the final regular-season standings, and then continuing down through the standings until one teams gains an advantage.
- When arriving at another group of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the collective tied teams as a group (prior to that group's own tie-breaking procedure), rather than the performance against individual tied teams.
- If there is still a tie, the seeded position of the teams will be determined by a draw conducted by the Sun Belt Conference Commissioner.
- For all ties involving three or more teams, once the tie is broken and the highest-seeded team is determined, the remaining tied teams will revert back to the beginning of the applicable tiebreaker.

GAME NOTES

WE DON'T SHARE WELL WITH OTHERS

Little Rock doesn't like to share with others. That is why opponents are finding out it is difficult to get their hands on the ball. Little Rock opponents are averaging just 6.0 steals per game, a mark that ranks Little Rock 28th in the nation. Meanwhile opponents are recording just a 7.4% steal rate, a mark that ranks 29th in the nation.

DEATH. TAXES. JOE FOLEY'S DEFENSE.

If there's one thing coaches don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense. If there's two things they don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense twice in the same weekend. That is because Little Rock and Joe Foley have set the standard when it comes to the Trojans defensive efforts, ranking in the top two of the conference in 10 of the past 11 years in scoring defense while ranking in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense in nine of past 11 years.

The 2021-22 season is shaping up to be no different as Little Rock leads the Sun Belt and ranks 50th in the nation in scoring defense entering this game.

MAYBE DON'T SHOOT WHEN GUARDED BY DJ?

Just some food for thought for Little Rock opponents. That's because the Trojan senior ranks among the national and Sun Belt Conference leaders in blocked shots per game and blocked shots this season.

Dariel Johnson in the Statistical Rankings

Category	Nat'l	SBC	Stat
Blocked Shots per game	122	5	1.32
Blocked Shots	138	5	29

BLOCK PARTY

Dariel Johnson threw herself a block party in Little Rock's game on Feb. 5 at ULM. Johnson recorded a career-high five blocks in that game, the most any Trojan player has recorded since Taylor Gault blocked six shots against Troy on Nov. 29, 2012.

That also ranks tied for third for the most blocked shots a Sun Belt player has recorded in a single game this season.

MAYRA MOVES UP TO EIGHTH

After her four-assist performance against Arkansas State on Feb. 12, Mayra Caicedo moved up to eighth all-time in career assists (in just her second season with Little Rock's Team), passing Tori Lasker (2017-20). She enters this game with 284 career assists and needs only 28 to move up to seventh, matching the 312 career assists Chastity Reed recorded from 2007-11.

ROAD WARRIORS

Home is where the heart is. That must be true for the Trojans over the final month of the season as Little Rock's Team will play nearly anywhere but Little Rock. The Sun Belt Conference has deemed the Trojans to play on the road in all but one league game over the months of February and March with only a Feb. 12 date against Arkansas State on the books in conference play.

REBOUNDING FROM A TO Z

Little Rock junior Azaria Robinson broke a 41-year old school record on Feb. 8 when she hauled in 22 rebounds in a win over Philander Smith. Robinson's mark broke the old school record of 21 boards set by Kay Gathright on Jan. 27, 1981 over the University of the Ozarks, a mark she matched a few weeks later against Philander Smith as well on Feb. 17, 1981.

But it wasn't just Robinson in that game. Dariel Johnson brought down 16 boards (one shy of her career high) and the Trojans as a team registered 52 total rebounds - the most a Little Rock team has recorded since 2016 (51 at Tulsa on Dec. 18, 2016).

HOME, SWEET, HOME

Little Rock is fond of the Jack Stephens Center and it isn't a place at which teams prefer to play. That's because the Trojans finished the 2021-22 season with an 8-4 home record. That's a remarkable stretch considering talented teams like Auburn, Coastal Carolina and Memphis have all left The Jack disappointed.

GAME NOTES

TOP 140 RPI

It comes as no surprise that in the RPI ratings (as released by WarrenNolan.com), Little Rock is ranked in the top 140 nationally and third in the Sun Belt. Trailing only UT Arlington (No. 69), Troy (No. 82), and Louisiana (No. 124), Little Rock is ranked 138th in the most recent RPI ranking of all 344 Division I programs. Arkansas State ranks No. 285.

The Sun Belt as a conference ranks 19th of all the Division I conferences (dropping two spots in the past week), while the Ohio Valley is close behind at No. 23.

NOTHING BUT NET

While we're on the subject of no surprises, Little Rock enters this game with one of the highest NET rankings of any Sun Belt school. The Trojans come in at No. 167 which ranks fourth among the 12 Sun Belt schools, behind only Troy (No. 117), UTA (No. 136) and Louisiana (No. 166). The Sun Belt has five teams ranked in the top 200 of the latest NET ratings. Texas State ranks No. 237.

LIMIT THE MISTAKES

With an average of just 15.9 turnovers per game, Little Rock is in the top tenth in the nation - ranking 174th overall - in the fewest turnovers it is committing per game. That also includes an 19.7% turnover rate, a mark that ranks 194th in the country. The turnover rate is the percentage of plays where a turnover is committed. Both of those statistical numbers dropped AFTER playing at No. 17/15 Texas A&M.

VALUE ADD

Sali Kourouma joining Little Rock's team has been one of the most impactful additions to any Sun Belt team this year, scoring 20 or more points in three of her first five games and instantly becoming a difference maker on the court.

Not just that, her 37.7% Usage Percentage - detailing the percentage of plays during her time on the floor that a player used by either shooting, getting to the line or committing a turnover - ranks third in the nation and leads the Sun Belt Conference. Additionally, Kourouma ranks in the top 10% in the nation in Player Efficiency Rating (18.4) which is an advanced statistic that estimates the per minute value of a player from the box score stats.

LITTLE ROCK STANDS ALONE...

As the only team from the state of Arkansas to win at Vanderbilt's Memorial Gym this season. The Trojans shut the Dores down in a 56-40 win on Nov. 12. Overall this season (men and women combined), Vanderbilt is 2-1 against teams from Arkansas with both the Commodore men and women registering wins in league play.

LAST TRIP AROUND THE SUN

With great fanfare, Little Rock Athletics announced on Dec. 9 that the Trojans would be moving to the Ohio Valley Conference on July 1, 2022. This will take Little Rock's Team from the far-flung Sun Belt and move the Trojans into a more regionally-aligned and geographically focused conference where there is only one institution further than a six hour drive. Only five of the soon-to-be 15 Sun Belt schools are located within a six hour drive with six school located more than 10 hours away.

Once it joins the league this July, Little Rock will become the league's eighth institution, joining Eastern Illinois, Morehead State, Southeast Missouri State, SIU Edwardsville, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin, and will become just the 22nd member the 74-year old conference has had.

FINISHING .500 IN SEC PLAY

Little Rock ended the early part of its schedule by going .500 in games against Southeastern Conference opponents with wins over Auburn and Vanderbilt while falling to Arkansas and Texas A&M.

THE TROJANS ARE STILL ALL ALONE

Little Rock is the only non-P5 team this season to record multiple wins over Southeastern Conference opponents. While some other teams have managed to claim wins against the competitive league, Little Rock is the only team to have found repeated success against the SEC. Two wins just means more than one. Coincidentally, the two wins came over Vanderbilt and Auburn and marks more wins over SEC foes than those two teams had combined last season.

A FIRST FOR THE SEASON

With a 68-66 win on Jan. 20 at Troy, Little Rock recorded a first for the season. That marked the first time this season Little Rock had rallied back from a halftime deficit for a win. Little Rock trailed 26-20 at halftime and trailed 45-40 through three quarters before out-scoring Troy, 28-21, in the final frame.

Little Rock now has three wins after trailing at half this season, including erasing a 10-point halftime deficit and 13-point third quarter deficit in a 73-69 win at Arkansas State on Feb. 19.

GAME NOTES

YOU DIDN'T REALIZE MAYRA WAS THIS FAST

Mayra Caicedo is fast, really fast. But she set a new standard for speed becoming the fastest player in Little Rock history to record 200 career assists. Caicedo recorded her 200th career assist in a 57-49 win over Auburn on Nov. 24, 2021, her 31st game played in the Maroon and Silver. That was faster than Heather Morris recording her 200th career assist in her 47th game played.

EFFECTIVE DEFENSE - PART II

Little Rock often is effective in their defense but that was really on display in the Trojans' win over Central Arkansas on Dec. 4. The Maroon & Silver held UCA to just one assist while forcing 27 turnovers. That suffocating ratio was nearly replicated on Feb. 3 in Lafayette, Louisiana when the Trojans limited Louisiana to four assists and 18 turnovers and again on Feb. 14 when Champion Christian was held to just four assists and 25 turnovers.

IT WASN'T THE FIRST...

When Little Rock beat Auburn on Nov. 24, that win was big but wasn't necessarily be a first. With the win over Vanderbilt already on the books, the Trojans victory over Auburn marked the third time in program history that Little Rock has registered multiple wins over Power 5 teams in a single season. It first happened in 2008 (Oklahoma State, at Ole Miss) and then again in 2014 (at LSU, Oklahoma).

SALI WENT BACK-TO-BACK

Little Rock forward Sali Kourouma repeated as the Sun Belt's Player of the Week in the first two weeks of play. Kourouma averaged 28.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as the Trojans claimed a pair of wins over Memphis and Arkansas-Pine Bluff. She scored 56 points in all, including a career-high 32 points in Little Rock's 55-50 win over Memphis. The redshirt sophomore shot an impressive 43.2% (19-for-44) and a dominating 78.9% (15 of 19) from the charity stripe on the week while averaging 28.0 minutes per game. She recorded five steal and one block, helping the Trojans prevent Memphis from hitting a field goal in the final six-plus minutes of the game last Thursday.

POWERFUL DUBS

Little Rock's 57-49 win over Auburn on Nov. 24 was nothing new for the Trojans. That is because it is the 13th time that Little Rock's Team has claimed a win over a Power 5 program. On Nov. 12, Little Rock made Vandy the fourth Power 5 program to lose to the Trojans on multiple occasions, joining the likes of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M.

ANCHOR UP?

With a dominating 56-40 win over the Commodores on Nov. 12, Little Rock registered a sweep of the home-and-home series between the Trojans and Vanderbilt. That marked the second straight year Little Rock has topped Vandy and brings Little Rock's all-time record against the 'Dores to 2-0.

GAME NOTES

NOT HER FIRST ACTION IN THE NATURAL STATE

After two seasons at New Mexico and in the Mountain West Conference, Azaria Robinson has joined Little Rock's Team. But when the Trojans tip off the season on Nov. 9, it won't be her first action in the Natural State. As a member of the Lobos, Robinson played at Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and saw six minutes of action. She'll see the Golden Lions once more on Nov. 16 when UAPB visits the Jack Stephens Center.

FIRST OPPONENTS, NOW TEAMMATES

Azaria Robinson is not the only Mountain West player to transfer so she could be part of Little Rock's Team. Raziya Potter spent three seasons at San Jose State (albeit the Spartans only played four games in a COVID-shortened 2020-21 season) and faced off against Robinson in Mountain West play. Now the tandem will have to work together as part of the Trojans roster.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Standing at 5-foot-11, Little Rock forward Angelique Francis may not be the tallest player on the floor but she casts an imposing figure. With her muscles bulging out of her sleeveless jersey, there is little doubt who is the most physical player on the court. But look closely at those sleeveless arms and you will see the fading scars of a past that gives a glimpse at the adversity she is still overcoming to this day.

Those scars tell the story of a past that has been focused on survival between abusive relationships and multiple suicide attempts. It is a story she is just now coming to terms with in order to tell others, refocusing her life from merely trying to survive to wanting to help others mired in the darkness from which she has broken free. Read more about Angelique's story here.

FOLEY CLAIMS WIN NO. 800

Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley is just the fifth active Division I head coach - and 16th coach overall - to surpass the 800 career wins mark. Already a Hall of Fame coach, he is continuing to cement his name as one of the best coaches in the game.

AND RANKS AMONG THE BEST

Joe Foley is currently fourth on the active coaches list in terms of all-time wins as the GOAT consistently builds a winning program year-in and year-out at Little Rock. That puts the Trojans leader among the top names the sport has to offer.

THE GOAT IS A SUN BELT RECORD HOLDER

Joe Foley has won 225 games in Sun Belt Conference play over the course of his 19 years at Little Rock, holding the record for the most wins in conference play in the league. Additionally, he has a .700 winning percentage (225-95) in Sun Belt games, a mark that is the highest of any active Sun Belt head coach and ranking 10th all-time in Sun Belt history.

JOE FOLEY

Head Coach | 19th Season | Central Arkansas (1979)

Joe Foley, the 2010, 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and 2010 Russell Athletic/WBCA Regional Coach of the Year, has led the Little Rock Women's Basketball program to 20-win seasons 11 of the last 14 years, outright Sun Belt Conference West Division titles in the final six years the Sun Belt had divisions, three Sun Belt regular-season championships, post-season appearances in 10 of the last 12 years – including five NCAA berths – and Sun Belt Conference Tournament titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2018. Foley has recorded an 816-285-274 (.741) career record and a 345-193 (.638) record at Little Rock as he begins his 19th season in 2021-22. He has led the Trojans to the semi-finals of the Sun Belt Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years.

The Hall of Fame coach reached a remarkable milestone during the 2019-20 season when he recorded his 800th career victory – one of only five active head coaches to reach that plateau. In that season, Kyra Collier claimed first team All-Sun Belt honors marking the seventh consecutive year a Trojan has been represented on the first team. Little Rock has placed a Trojan on the league's all-conference teams list every single season Foley has guided Little Rock's Team.

Foley earned his 700th career victory in the NCAA Tournament's first round in 2015, and he signed a contract extension in April 2015 that will keep him as the Trojans' head coach through the 2023-24 season.

In his tenure at Little Rock, Foley has compiled the most overall wins (29) and conference victories (18) in a season while producing the school's first All-Sun Belt Conference selection in Alicia Cash in 2004. He also recruited back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year winners in Renee Renz (2006) and Kim Sitzmann (2007). No other Sun Belt Conference school has achieved this feat. Foley also coached the school's first-ever Honorable Mention All-America honoree in Chastity Reed in 2010. His Trojan student-athletes have earned 23 All-Conference selections.

Foley began his coaching career at the high school level as both the boys and girls basketball coach at Oxford (Ark.) High School from 1979-81, and then at Morrilton High School as an assistant for the boys team until 1984.

Foley has earned many personal accolades during his career. He has been named national coach of the year twice, region or district coach of the year seven times, chosen to be on the 1994 United States Olympic Festival coaching staff and was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2002.

Foley earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Central Arkansas in 1979. He is married to the former Chris Fields of Alpena, Ark. The couple has two children, C.J. and Miranda.

"I'd rather be audited by the IRS, have a colonoscopy and a dentist appointment on the same day than play against a team coached by Joe Foley."
- Mike Neighbors, Arkansas Head Coach

The above quote was from the 2019 game. After last year's contest, which Arkansas won 80-70, Neighbors said "I'd like to add going to the DMV to the list."

1 MISSOURI STATE 76, LITTLE ROCK 62

Nov. 9, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,743

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Missouri State averaged over 103 points in its two exhibitions and entered Tuesday's season-opener looking to prove it belonged in the Top 25 polls after back-to-back Sweet 16 runs. They left thankful for a fourth-quarter run that prevented the Lady Bears from being another victim of Little Rock's suffocating defense.

The host Trojans (0-1) threatened an early-season upset with a late third quarter lead but eventually fell to the near unanimous choice to win the Missouri Valley Conference in a 76-62 battle Tuesday night in front of 1,743 at the Jack Stephens Center.

For Little Rock, it was an all-out effort that saw the Maroon and Silver challenge Missouri State from the opening tip. The Lady Bears only briefly flirted with a double-digit lead a couple times before Little Rock would battle back and bring the Bears back to the reality that is Trojan Basketball.

But after losing two starters to injury in the fourth quarter - both Dariel Johnson and Mayra Caicedo are expected to return for Little Rock's next game at Vanderbilt - Missouri State (1-0) was able to use numbers to its advantage and pull away for the win.

New faces led the way for the Trojans as Raziya Potter led Little Rock's Team with 16 points while Sali Kourouma added another 15. Krystan Vornes, making her first appearance since a season-ending knee injury in March, flirted with a double-double by scoring 10 points and grabbing eight boards.

Overall, Little Rock shot 40% (26-for-65) from the field and ended the game even with Missouri State in rebounds, 34-34. The Trojans refused to back down in a physical game that saw seven lead changes.

2 LITTLE ROCK 56, VANDERBILT 40

Nov. 12, 2021 • Nashville, Tenn. • 1,633

NASHVILLE - At the end of the first quarter, Vanderbilt was searching for answers on how to stop Little Rock's Sali Kourouma. Thirty minutes later, they were still had no solution.

Kourouma, in just her second game in a Little Rock uniform, scored 30 points and kept the host Commodores (1-1) at bay in a 56-40 win for the Trojans (1-1) at Vanderbilt. That included an 11-point outburst by Kourouma in the first quarter to go along with a 9-for-16 performance from the field and hitting 10 of 12 free throws in a dominating performance.

The win gives Little Rock a sweep of the home-and-home series with Vanderbilt that began with an 82-74 win last season in Little Rock. It marked the second straight day a Sun Belt team had toppled a program from the Southeastern Conference after Georgia Southern beat Auburn Thursday night. Auburn visits Little Rock on Nov. 24.

Little Rock shot 40 percent from the field for the second straight game but even more impressive was the Trojans defense which turned 20 Vanderbilt turnovers into 22 points. The Maroon and Silver further punished the Commodores, going to the line eight times and connecting on 13 of 16 free throw attempts (81.3 percent).

Kourouma scored 15 points in her Little Rock debut and doubled that output Friday night against Vanderbilt. She was perfect from the free throw line for three quarters, going 10 of 12 from the charity stripe overall.

Mayra Caicedo scored eight points and dished out five assists while Dariel Johnson and Krystan Vornes both scored six. Angelique Francis led the Trojans in rebounds with six. The tall Trojans controlled the pace of play in the paint, out-scoring Vandy 24-14 in that zone.

3 LITTLE ROCK 73, UA-PINE BLUFF 63

Nov. 16, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 747

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock utilized a 17-rebound advantage including a career-high 14 rebounds by Angelique Francis as the Trojans topped Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 73-63, Tuesday night at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Trojans (2-1) shot 40% or better for the third straight game this season and held a 41-28 halftime lead but it was the 48 rebounds that highlighted Little Rock's first meeting against UAPB since 2005. Francis' 14 rebounds led all players while Dariel Johnson added 10 boards.

"We won that game because of our rebounding," Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley said after the game.

Sali Kourouma once again led the offensive effort for Little Rock, scoring 24 points while also bringing down six offensive rebounds and swiping four steals. Tia Harvey scored 12 points for the Trojans.

Little Rock led by as much as 16 in the first half before UAPB challenged the Trojans with varying defenses in hopes of throwing the Trojans off-guard. That lead would get trimmed down to as little as six after Khadijah Brown scored a pair of baskets in the lane within 20 seconds of each other, but that would be as close as the Lions would get.

The Trojans responded with a 9-2 run that included a 3-pointer from Harvey to regain a double-digit lead at 48-37 late in the third quarter. With the lead trimmed back to single digits entering the fourth quarter, Little Rock used another 9-2 run to pull away. With the Trojans out-rebounding UAPB 12-6 in the final quarter, the Maroon and Silver kept UAPB at bay to clinch the win.

The Golden Lions (0-3) were led by Brown's 19 points while Zaay Green and Tyeisha Juhan both added 12 points each.

4 LITTLE ROCK 55, MEMPHIS 50

Nov. 18, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 763

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Joe Foley coached teams are known for their stifling defense. As the final seconds ticked off the scoreboard at the Jack Stephens Center Thursday evening, Memphis was left gasping for air.

Little Rock (3-1) held Memphis (2-1) without a field goal for the final six minutes of the game and closed things out on a 10-1 run as the host Trojans pulled out the 55-50 win.

It didn't come without drama. Memphis led by as much as six in the final quarter before the Trojans began to chip away at the lead. Sali Kourouma's second-chance jumper in the paint tied the game with 2:54 left as part of her 32-point night that went along with 10 rebounds as she recorded her first career double-double.

When Memphis sniffed at a chance for a comeback, the long arms of Dariel Johnson blocked any light of hope for the Tigers. A put back by Dariel Johnson with 22 seconds left made it a two-possession game. Her third block of the game came 10 seconds later and put to bed any hopes of a Memphis comeback on the night.

The Tigers, tired of seeing Johnson after five-rebound, three-block and two-steal night followed up on her 17-rebound and four-block performance against Memphis a year ago, had no solutions to get around the long arms on her 6-foot-1 frame.

That defensive position included providing enough pressure on Memphis that the Tigers only shot 10% (1-for-10) from the field in the fourth quarter. That came after a third quarter where UM shot 58.3% (7 of 12) and out-scored Little Rock, 20-15.

5 LITTLE ROCK 57, AUBURN 49

Nov. 24, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 656

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Mayra Caicedo couldn't miss on Wednesday. Little Rock's senior point guard was 5-for-5 from the field, dished out eight assists and hit two critical free throws in the final minute as the Trojans topped Auburn, 57-49, for their second win over a Power 5 program this season.

Prior to Caicedo's trip to the line with 58 seconds to play, Little Rock (4-1) had struggled from the charity stripe, shooting just 38% at the time. But in that final minute, everything changed. Caicedo drilled her two shots, the Trojans hit 5 of 6 down the stretch and Little Rock turned a one-possession game into a nearly double-digit win.

It marked the second straight game the Maroon and Silver used a lock down defense to shutdown a comeback attempt after preventing Memphis from scoring a field goal in the final six minutes last week. This time, Auburn (2-3) fell prey to the defensive efforts orchestrated by Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley. That defense made up for what the team described as an offensive effort that still needed work.

"We got the win but we know we have to be better," Caicedo said. "We will learn from this and use it to get better. I'm glad we got the win and thought we played well in some areas."

Despite the desire to improve, Little Rock shot 45.8% from the field, forced 17 turnovers and blocked three shots. But the Trojans entered the final minute of play having allowed Auburn to creep back within reach after leading by as much as 13 earlier in the half.

Krystan Vornes was a big part of the outcome for Little Rock, registering her first double-double of the season as she recorded 14 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Sali Kourouma, the nation's fourth-leading scorer, led all players with 16 points and shot over 58% from the field.

6 ABILENE CHRISTIAN 66, LITTLE ROCK 61

Nov. 27, 2021 • Tulsa, Okla. • 11 a.m.

TULSA, Okla. - For thirty minutes, Little Rock went shot-for-shot with one of the nation's top 3-point shooting teams. But that momentum was halted in a cold fourth quarter where the Trojans were scoreless for over seven minutes in a 66-61 loss to Abilene Christian Saturday morning at the ORU Thanksgiving Classic in Tulsa.

The loss, Little Rock's first since Nov. 9, witnessed just 14.3% shooting in the final period for the Trojans (4-2). That besmirched an otherwise impressive shooting day where Little Rock was 42% from the field (21-for-50) and had a 53% mark entering that final quarter.

With a 56-49 lead entering the final frame, Little Rock was unable to stop a 14-0 run by Abilene Christian (4-1) that was mostly self-inflicted. ACU only made two field goals in the final period - one of which came from 3-point range - but the Wildcats made 12 free throws on 16 attempts over the final 10 minutes.

Krystan Vornes led the Trojans with her second consecutive double-double, scoring 15 points and matching a career-high 16 rebounds while Raziya Potter scored a game-high 16 points, including all five points for Little Rock in the final quarter. Vornes and Potter led all players with two blocks each.

Amari Conn posted a career-high 11 points while hitting 3 of 4 shots from behind the 3-point line.

Jamie Bonnarens led Abilene Christian with 16 points while Tatum Barber scored 13 and Kamryn Mraz added 12. The Wildcats, the sixth-leading 3-point shooting team in the country, made 11 baskets from 3-point range out of 20 made field goals overall.

ORAL ROBERTS 74, LITTLE ROCK 56
 Nov. 28, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,565

TULSA, Okla. – Krystan Vornes fell one rebound shy of her third straight double-double but cold shooting in the second and third quarters led to a 74-56 loss at Oral Roberts Sunday afternoon.

Vornes scored 13 points and brought down nine rebounds in nearly 31 minutes on the court while Mayra Caicedo added 10 points. Angelique Francis scored a season-high seven points and matched Vornes' 3-for-4 effort at the charity stripe while also bringing down seven rebounds.

Little Rock (4-3) hit a season-high six 3-pointers and shot 31.6% behind the arc but committed 14 turnovers and was out-rebounded 40-34.

While Little Rock shot 33.8% (22 of 65) overall, the Trojans were just 7 of 32 (21.8%) from the floor over the middle two quarters and only scored 18 points in that time span. On the other side, Oral Roberts (2-4) put up 39 points and shot 55.6% in the same 20-minute period as it won its second consecutive game.

Little Rock trailed by just four at halftime, 30-24, and cut it to a one-possession game early in the third quarter when Vornes hit one of two free throws.

But that is when ORU turned on the pressure and the Trojans went cold as the Golden Eagles mounted a 13-0 run that put the game out of reach. Oral Roberts extended its lead to as much as 22 early in the fourth quarter.

Tirzah Moore and Katie Scott both had 13 points to lead Oral Roberts while Keni Jo Lippe scored 12 and Hannah Cooper added 11.

#17/18 TEXAS A&M 65, LITTLE ROCK 50
 Dec. 1, 2021 • College Station, Texas • 6,414

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – Raziya Potter scored a career-high 23 points and Little Rock out-scored No. 17/15 Texas A&M in the second half but the host Aggies held off a Trojans rally in a 65-50 decision Wednesday morning in front of 6,414 fans at Reed Arena.

Little Rock (4-4) trailed by as much as 21 before Daniel Johnson's drive to the basket and conventional three-point play early in the fourth quarter cut the Aggie lead to single digits. That capped a run where the Texas A&M (8-0) was held scoreless for over eight non-consecutive minutes in the third quarter as the Trojans slowly crept back into contention.

Potter and Sali Kourouma teamed up to score 16 of Little Rock's 18 points in the third quarter, a period in which the Trojans doubled up the Aggies in scoring and held A&M to just one made field goal. The Trojans went on an 11-0 run in the third quarter that even an A&M timeout midway through couldn't stop.

With the exception of the second quarter, Little Rock went shot-for-shot against the nationally-ranked Aggies. That quarter was detrimental and put the Trojans in a hole that proved to be too deep to overcome as Little Rock shot just 20% from the field and was limited to six points.

Texas A&M, the nation's best 3-point shooting team, proved why that notation was so by shooting 47.1% from behind the line by hitting 8 of 17 long-range shots. A&M shot 48.2% (24-for-52) from the field overall.

But the pesky Trojans continued to be a fly in the ointment of A&M, forcing 17 Aggie turnovers, blocking four shots – three by Johnson – and only trailing in rebounds by five, 38-33. Angelique Francis led the Trojans with nine boards.

LITTLE ROCK 62, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 38
 Dec. 4, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2 p.m.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – For 10 minutes, Central Arkansas went shot-for-shot with Little Rock. For the next 30 minutes, they struggled to get shots against the defensive-minded Trojans.

Little Rock (5-4) kept the visiting Sugar Bears (3-4) in single digits in each of the final three quarters and limited Central Arkansas to just 6 of 22 shooting (27%) during that stretch in a 62-38 shutdown in the most recent installment of the Governor's I-40 Showdown between the two teams.

The Trojan defense was so suffocating that UCA only made six field goals in the final three quarters after making six field goals in the first 10 minutes. UCA's struggles came in part as Little Rock forced 27 turnovers and allowed the Sugar Bears to dish out just one single assist.

On the other end of the court, Sali Kourouma was in routine form with 20 points, four rebounds and two steals. Amari Conn scored 14 points mostly from long-range while Raziya Potter added 12 points and four rebounds.

Daniel Johnson was relentless on the boards, grabbing seven rebounds and swiping three steals while adding six points.

Little Rock shot only 34.9% in the game on 22 of 63 shooting but was successful from long range as they hit 3-pointers at a 42.1% clip, dropping a season-high eight long-range shots on 19 attempts. Conn led that facet of the game as she drained a quartet of 3-pointers.

After limiting UCA to just nine points in the second quarter, Little Rock doubled up its opponent in the third frame for the second straight game, outscoring the Sugar Bears 16-8. The Trojans surged in the fourth quarter, shooting 45.5% in the final frame.

13 LITTLE ROCK 68, TROY 66 Jan. 20, 2022 • Troy, Ala. • 1,801

TROY, Ala. - With six seconds and trailing by just two, Troy's Jasmine Robinson raced down the court and shot up a last-second chance for a tie and to send the game into overtime. That shot went straight into the outstretched arms of Dariel Johnson and secured the 68-66 win for Little Rock.

That registered Johnson's third block of the game - a season high - which came alongside a career-high 14 points while Raziya Potter dropped a career-high 24 points as Little Rock (7-6, 2-1 Sun Belt) claimed a win in its last trip to Troy. Meanwhile Troy (13-7, 4-2) fell from the top of the Sun Belt standings as they lost for the second time in three games.

It was more than just a block and a pair of career-highs to propel Little Rock to the win, however. Little Rock trailing 45-40 entering the fourth quarter and outscored Troy 28-21 over the final frame. Johnson and Tia Harvey each scored seven points in that quarter, hitting key shots in the clutch. Harvey was making her first appearance in a game since Dec. 1 having finally recovered from an ankle injury and finished with 11 points.

Mayra Caicedo dished out nine assists as Little Rock posted an 18-13 assist-to-turnover ratio while forcing 20 turnovers out of Troy, scoring 23 points off those turnovers.

That capped off a high-scoring second half, one that was the complete opposite of its predecessor. Little Rock out-scored Troy, 48-40, in the second half after the two teams scored a combined 46 points in the first half. Troy was led by Robinson's 16 points but seven of those came from the free throw line. She ended the night 4 of 10 from the field, with the last of her 10 shots going straight into Johnson's block.

14 LITTLE ROCK 74, SOUTH ALABAMA 52 Jan. 22, 2022 • Mobile, Ala. • 315

MOBILE, Ala. - Little Rock had three players score a game-high 15 points and led wire-to-wire in a dominant 74-52 win at South Alabama Saturday afternoon at the Mitchell Center.

Angelique Francis, Sali Kourouma and Mayra Caicedo each dropped 15 on the box score while Dariel Johnson added 10 points as the Trojans (8-6, 3-1 Sun Belt) remained atop the Sun Belt standings after sweeping the week's action in Alabama. South Alabama (8-9, 2-2) lost their seventh straight home game against Little Rock.

The Trojans used a 39-26 rebounding advantage and scored 40 points in the paint to control the game in the lane on both ends, grabbing 17 offensive rebounds in the process. Raziya Potter, whose nine points and eight rebounds barely missed out on a double-double, grabbed six offensive boards.

Little Rock started out red-hot from long range, hitting 4 of 7 shots from beyond the arc including a trio from Caicedo. Then entering the second half and holding a 13-point lead after the intermission, the Trojans worked an inside game with 11 of their 14 made baskets in the second half coming in the lane. The Jaguars couldn't stop the Trojan attack from any point on the floor.

All nine Trojans that dressed out scored points, including Hailey Hohenacker registering her first career collegiate points on a layup late in the game.

Francis tied a career-high with her 15 points while also drawing two of the four charges the Jaguars were called for. Caicedo set new career-highs in points (15) and 3-pointers made (3). Kourouma, who was limited to one point at Troy on Thursday, returned to her regular form with her 15-point performance.

2021-22 LITTLE ROCK GAME NOTES

2021-22 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

16 UT ARLINGTON 64, LITTLE ROCK 53 Jan. 29, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,901

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Raziya Potter scored 16 of her 23 points in the second half but the Potter-led Little Rock rally fell short in a 64-53 loss to UT Arlington Saturday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Trojans (8-8, 3-3 Sun Belt) used a 20-2 run in the third quarter to cut UTA's lead to just two at 43-41 with 31 seconds left in the period. Potter led that effort with eight points in that run before the Mavericks (13-5, 7-2), who never trailed in the game, stopped the hosts come-back effort.

Sali Kourouma nearly registered a double-double with 15 points and nine rebounds while Angelique Francis, who also scored eight points in that third quarter run, tallied nine points overall and seven boards.

UT Arlington was able to end the third quarter with a traditional three-point play by Starr Jacobs, sending the game into the final quarter with a 46-41 Maverick advantage. Jacobs, who led all players with 24 points, scored nine of that total in the final quarter.

That furious rally in the third quarter featured 64.3% shooting by the Trojans, a mark that buoyed the 42.3% the team shot overall. But that third quarter was effort was required after falling behind early with UTA holding a 20-6 advantage after one quarter of play.

It marked the second straight game the Trojans had to fight back from a large deficit, trailing Texas State by 19 points four minutes into the third quarter on Thursday. That game was extended into triple overtime. In Saturday's game, UTA held a 20-point lead at a nearly identical point.

17 LITTLE ROCK 51, LOUISIANA 50 Feb. 3, 2022 • Lafayette, La. • 303

LAFAYETTE, La. - Tia Harvey finished Thursday's game just one point shy of reaching double figures. Turns out she and the Trojans only needed nine points out of the Little Rock sophomore guard.

Harvey hit both of her free throws with three seconds remaining to vault Little Rock from a one-point deficit to a one-point lead and eventual win as the Trojans edged Louisiana, 51-50, at the Cajundome Thursday evening.

Daniel Johnson recorded her first career double-double as she tied a career-high 14 points while grabbing 11 rebounds, using a mixture of 3-point shooting and free throws of her own to lead all players in scoring. Azaria Robinson scored a career-high 12 points.

The win, Little Rock's third in a row on the road, handed Louisiana its first loss since Jan. 20 and marked the first for the Trojans over the Cajuns since before the pandemic began. It marked Joe Foley's 825th career win and was the only game in the Sun Belt Conference Thursday as a roof leak postponed Thursday's Arkansas State at ULM game.

Little Rock (9-8, 4-3 Sun Belt) led by as much as eight late in the third quarter before Louisiana (12-5, 4-3) used a 7-0 fourth quarter run to trim Little Rock's lead to one at 45-44. The two teams would trade baskets and free throws before Louisiana's Lanay Wheaton, who led the Cajuns with 14 points, gave the hosts the 50-49 lead on a jump shot in the lane with 49 seconds to go.

But Wheaton would foul out 43 seconds later as Tia Harvey drove into the lane as the final seconds began to tick away on the clock, drawing the foul and sending herself to the line for the pivotal free throws.

MONROE, La. - Little Rock had four different players reach double figures as the Trojans secured their fourth straight road victory in a 64-47 win at ULM Saturday afternoon.

Potter's 22 points led the Trojans (10-8, 5-3 Sun Belt) while Tia Harvey scored 14 points. The Potter-Harvey duo were responsible for five of Little Rock's six 3-pointers in the game while Daniel Johnson, who scored 10 points and grabbed a career-high five blocks, hit the other 3-pointer.

Azaria Robinson barely missed her first career double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds while Johnson, who grabbed nine boards as well, nearly registered a double-double in her second consecutive game.

ULM (4-18, 0-8) was led by Kyren Whittington's 25 points. While Linda van Schaik scored eight.

19 LITTLE ROCK 56, PHILANDER SMITH 49

Feb. 8, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 702

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Azaria Robinson took advantage of a cold shooting night by both teams and broke a 41-year old Little Rock record as she hauled in 22 total rebounds in the Trojans' 56-49 win over Philander Smith Tuesday evening.

Robinson's haul tops the 21 rebounds Kay Gathright grabbed on two separate occasions during the 1980-81 season - first against the College (now University) of the Ozarks and then against Philander Smith. She finished with her first career double-double as she led Little Rock (11-8) with 15 points. She grabbed 11 on the offensive side and 11 on the defensive boards.

Daniel Johnson had a notable performance herself, pouring in 10 points and 16 rebounds as she claimed her second career double-double and third consecutive game scoring in double figures. She also registered three blocks, totaling eight blocks for the senior over the past two games. Raziya Potter added 12 points.

The combined effort by Robinson and Johnson led a season-high 52 rebounds for the Trojans as Philander Smith (19-6) hit just 20 of 57 shot attempts (35.1%) in the game. That marked the most rebounds for the Trojans as a team in a single game since 2016.

Rakia Lane led all players with 20 points for the Panthers while De'Vena Smith scored 11.

Little Rock continues its unexpected three-game homestand on Saturday when the Trojans host Arkansas State at 2 p.m. Saturday's contest marks Homecoming for the university.

20 LITTLE ROCK 64, ARKANSAS STATE 55

Feb. 12, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,269

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Raziya Potter scored 18 points and tied a season-high two blocks, leading a shutdown defensive effort that stymied Arkansas State in a 64-55 win Saturday. The Trojans celebrated the win as the university celebrated Homecoming.

The Red Wolves (11-13, 4-7 Sun Belt), which averaged 79 points per game and 42.6% from the field entering this game, was stymied throughout as A-State shot an anemic 28.6% (16 of 56) from the field, their lowest shooting mark in over a year.

But that was nothing new for Little Rock (12-8, 6-3) as the Trojans held their 10th opponent of the season to under 60 points. Little Rock is 10-0 in those games.

The end result was also nothing new for Arkansas State, a team that likens the Jack Stephens Center to a House of Horrors. The Red Wolves have never won a game at the Jack Stephens Center and as the final seconds ticked down Saturday, so did A-State's chances of ever winning a Sun Belt game in the arena. Little Rock will move to the Ohio Valley Conference beginning on July 1.

Potter's effort also came with four rebounds and a career-high four made 3-pointers as the senior guard got hot and rarely stopped from the field. She came off the bench, scoring her 18 points in less than 30 minutes and shot 58% (7-for-12) from the field with a 57% mark (4-for-7) from 3-point range.

She was joined in double figures by Mayra Caicedo's 14 points while Daniel Johnson scored 10 points and grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Every Trojan to see time on the court scored at least four points while five of the seven players in the rotation was credited with at least one steal or block on ASU.

2021-22 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

22 LITTLE ROCK 73, ARKANSAS STATE 69 Feb. 19, 2022 • Jonesboro, Ark. • 693

JONESBORO, Ark. - Sali Kourouma led all players with 22 points and was one of five Trojans in double figures as Little Rock rallied back from a 13-point second half deficit for a 73-69 win at Arkansas State Saturday afternoon.

Little Rock (14-8, 7-3 Sun Belt) swept its in-state rival for the second straight year and in the final conference meeting between the two foes. Meanwhile Arkansas State (11-14, 4-8) lost to Little Rock for the eighth time in 10 games. Kourouma recorded her second career double-double as she grabbed 11 rebounds to go with her game-high 22 points.

Trailing by 13 points early in the third quarter, Little Rock mounted a 16-2 run that turned a 48-35 deficit into a 51-50 lead. The Trojans would have to do the same in the fourth quarter, finding themselves in an eight-point hole at the 62-54 mark before embarking on a 16-3 run to go up by five with 47 seconds to go.

The Red Wolves had plenty of chances to retake the lead but never would, committing three fouls and missing a 3-point shot in the final eight seconds of game play.

Mayra Caicedo, who scored 13 points, hit a crucial free throw with 2.2 seconds remaining and Kourouma hit a pair of free throws with 1.8 seconds to go to seal the win. The output by Kourouma was the most in a Sun Belt game for the Trojan forward while Caicedo's 13 points fell just two shy of matching a career-high. Tia Harvey scored 11 points and dished out a career-high seven assists while Raziya Potter and Daniel Johnson both scored 10.

Shooting 49.1% from the field, Little Rock was effective on offense and continually worked the ball against A-State's zone, recording 19 assists on 28 made baskets. It marked the second straight game and the first time against a Sun Belt opponent this season that Little Rock had five players reach double figures.
