Coaching Staff

Diane Seymour, head coach.....	7
Erin Clute, assistant coach .....	8
Lindsay Scanlan, assistant coach.....	9

Diane Seymour

Head Coach · 9th Season · UT Arlington (1989)

Diane Seymour has been the head coach of the UT Arlington volleyball program since 2004. Seymour is no stranger to the Mavericks program after coming to UT Arlington in 1984 as a student-athlete and later spending eight years (1996-2003) as an assistant coach.

Overall, Seymour has had ties to the UTA program that stretch back nearly three decades, helping lead them to more than 400 victories, seven Southland Conference championships, six NCAA Tournament appearances, and a No. 7 national ranking at the end of the 1988 season.

Seymour has directed UT Arlington to four double-figure win totals in SLC play. Her squads have totaled a 64-54 conference record in seven seasons. She notched her 100th career victory in 2010 in a five-set match at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (9/25/10).

Seymour returned to her alma mater in 1996 as an assistant coach on Janine Smith's staff. In her eight years as an assistant, the team captured two regular season championships, two SLC Tournament titles and made two trips to the NCAA Tournament while never finishing lower than fourth in the conference.

After a successful year in an interim role in 2004, director of athletics Pete Carlon named Seymour the sixth head coach in UT Arlington history on Nov. 22, 2004.

Defense has always been the forté of Seymour and 2006 was no different as the Mavs set a new SLC record with 2,887 digs. The digs total is also the second-highest mark in the NCAA since the 2001 season. Individually, libero Ashley Smith (03-06) re-wrote the UT Arlington and SLC record books with 863 digs, the second highest single-season digs total in NCAA history.

As a student-athlete, Seymour came to UT Arlington in 1984, but missed all of the season after undergoing knee surgery. She worked her way into the lineup in 1985 and contributed 18 kills, 24 digs, and 12 service aces in 24 matches as the team went on to go 28-4 to make the school's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Seymour captained the 1988 squad to 30-4 record and a No. 7 ranking in the final AVCA poll. The team earned tournament wins over Pepperdine and Kentucky before being eliminated by eventual national champion Texas. Seymour finished her playing career with 48 kills, 95 service aces and 433 digs in 119 matches and 313 sets. Including her redshirt season, the Mavs went 140-41 during her playing tenure.

Seymour came to UT Arlington after earning all-state honors at Arlington High School in 1983. Seymour earned a bachelor's degree from UT Arlington in 1989. After her playing career ended, Seymour worked closely with several of the top club teams in Texas while guiding many teams to the National Tournament.

Erin Clute

Assistant Coach · 13th Season · TCU (2000)

Erin Clute has been the assistant volleyball coach at UT Arlington since 2000. Clute came to UT Arlington after serving as an assistant coach at Trinity Valley School in Fort Worth in 1998-99.

During her coaching tenure at UT Arlington, Clute has mentored 30 Southland All-Conference performers, including eight first team selections. In 2010, Amanda Aguilera (first team), Alicia Shaffer (second team) and Bianca Sauls (second team) were all honored by the league. In 2009, Tara Frantz (first team), Emily Shearin (second team) and Bianca Sauls (honorable mention) all received recognition. The previous year, Amanda Aguilera became the sixth UT Arlington freshman to earn first team All-Southland Conference honors and the first since 1990.

Other top performers Clute has coached at UT Arlington include Olaya Pazo (SLC Player of the Year, 2002), Carol Bozikis (SLC Newcomer of the Year, 2001) and Caley Smith (SLC Freshman of the Year, 2001). Clute has coached 31 Southland Conference Player of the Week selections and nine SLC All-Tournament team picks.

In her time as an assistant with the Mavericks, UT Arlington has won 202 matches, a SLC regular season crown (2001), two Southland Conference Tournament championships (2001, 2002) and made two appearances at the NCAA Tournament (2001, 2002).

A member of TCU's first volleyball team in 1996, Clute finished her freshman campaign with 245 kills on 673 attacks for a .211 hitting percentage. She also tallied 54 total blocks.

In a match against the Mavericks in Texas Hall, Clute posted eight kills in 18 attempts (.333 attack percentage) in the 1996 UTA/Jason's Deli Invitational. She played her high school career at Waxahachie High School where she was a two-time team Most Valuable Player and first team all-district selection. In addition, Clute was named the District 15-4A Hitter of the Year in 1995.

Clute coached club volleyball for 12 years for the North Dallas Junior Volleyball Association and Metroplex Juniors Volleyball Association. Her club coaching experience includes guiding eight teams to the Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships.

Lindsay Scanlan

Assistant Coach · 3rd Season · Arkansas (2010)

Lindsay Scanlan has been an assistant coach for the UT Arlington volleyball program since 2010.

During her first season with the Mavericks, Scanlan helped coach three players to All-Southland Conference selections and helped UT Arlington finish with a 10-6 record in SLC play.

Scanlan, originally from Rockwall, Texas, came to UT Arlington after four years as the starting setter at Arkansas, where she graduated in the spring of 2010 with a double major in criminology and sociology.

She finished her collegiate volleyball career with the Razorbacks as the school's third all-time leader in career assists (2,825) and ranks fifth in career assists per set (7.12). She notched a career-high 60 assists during her senior season against Alabama (10/9/09), which marked the fourth highest total in the Southeastern Conference. Also during her senior campaign, she was awarded the SEC Community Service Award.

Scanlan was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient and recorded at least 400 assists in all four seasons while playing in over 300 sets during her Razorback career.

She was a two-sport standout in high school (Rockwall) also excelling in basketball. She was a four-time all-district selection in volleyball and was named the district MVP as a senior in 2005. In addition, Scanlan played for the Dallas Force club team earning MVP honors following her senior year. She helped the Force to three consecutive national championships in 2004-06.

Scanlan also played on the Rockwall basketball team that made an appearance at the state tournament.

COLLEGE PARK CENTER

For the first time in its history, UT Arlington finally has an events arena to call home. The College Park Center opened February 1, 2012 with a school-record crowd of 6,228 attending a men’s and women’s basketball doubleheader sweep of UTSA. The CPC represents a dream come true for a generation of alumni, faculty, staff, and community members. And for the next generation of students, it offers a vision of great things to come.

The $78 million, 218,000-square-foot facility is a transformational jewel for the campus of 33,000 students and a catalyst for revitalization in the city’s central business district. It provides a new home court for the UTA’s basketball and volleyball teams, which previously played in Texas Hall, and also gives the city of Arlington a signature facility for high-profile events and entertainment, conferences, and community activities.

College Park Center can accommodate up to 6,750 guests for a center-stage concert and 7,000 for traditional court-based athletics events. The state-of-the-art practice and competition facility promises to create opportunities to schedule high-profile competition, enhance recruiting, and attract significantly larger audiences and media coverage.

As part of its commitment to academic excellence, the University has devoted significant space to an academic support study center with a study hall, computer lab, group study room, and areas for academic advising.

UT Arlington References
The UT Arlington Athletic Department respectfully asks your cooperation in referring to the University’s sports programs as UT Arlington. UT-Arlington, Texas-Arlington and Texas Arlington are among the versions that are incorrect in referring to our athletic programs. Feel free to use the abbreviation UTA for second references. Also, although we are officially the Mavericks, using Mavs on second reference is also acceptable. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 50th year of intercollegiate competition at the close of the 2011-12 season, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation’s best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation’s most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC’s student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. In men’s basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 29 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women’s basketball, Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three NCAA postseason tournaments during its history.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation’s 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition. Today the WAC has grown to a ten-team league, including: Denver, Idaho, New Mexico State, San Jose State, Seattle, UT Arlington, UTSA, Texas State, and Utah State.
