QUICK HITS

- The Texans closed out 2023 with a 79-66 comeback win at Loyola Marymount.
- The team's second half field goal percentage of 65.1 percent is the squad's best since last February.
- KiAndre Gaddy became the second Texan this season and fifth in program history to be named WAC Player of the Week on Tuesday.
- KiAndre Gaddy turned in his program-record fifth double-double of the season with 24 points and 12 boards.
- Jakorie Smith teamed up with Gaddy to be the first Texan duo of the season to post 20 points each with Smith tallying 21 against the Lions.
- Emmanuel Innocenti had the most well-balanced game as a Texan this season recording a season-best eight assists along with six points and six boards.
- The Texans lead the WAC in fewest points allowed (63.2) and free throw percentage (74.2).
- Gaddy ranks in the top six of the WAC in five different statistical categories, leading the league in offensive boards and double-doubles.
- Smith ranks within the top six in the league in three categories
- Tarleton State is playing in its 99th game as an NCAA Division I institution and is 50-48 in their first 98 contests.
- After two conference games, the Texans are 2nd in the WAC Resume System, their highest ranking in program history.
- Joseph Jones was named the acting head coach on Dec. 19. He had been filling in for coach Gillispie since Nov. 18 due to medical circumstances.
- The Texans will hit the road yet again for its first back-to-back trip of their conference slate with California Baptist on Jan. 11 and GCU on the 13th.

ABOUT THE MATCHUP

- The Mavericks fell at #21 Texas, on New Years Day, 79-62. Kade Douglas led UTA with 17 points off the bench with five made threes.
- Phillip Russell has bursted on the scene after being allowed to play
- Head coach KT Turner is in his first season as a D1 head coach after spending 18 seasons as an assistant coach at 13 different schools.

LOOK WHO'S HOT

5 KIANDRE GADDY

Gaddy broke the Texan D1 record with his fifth double-double of the season with 24 points and 12 boards at LMU. He passed Tahj Small who has four in 2021-22. Gaddy posted his 10th 10-plus point effort and set a new career high against the Lions.

6 JAKORIE SMITH

Smith teamed up with Gaddy to be the first Texan duo this season to score 20 points each. Friday was the eighth time this season Smith scored in double figures and his third 20-plus effort of the season. Smith made three from deep at a 50 percent rate against LMU.

9 EMMANUEL INNOCENTI

Innocenti's 6-6-8 mark was the first of at least five points, rebounds and assists in a game since Shamir Bogues against SAGU last Feb. 28. His eight assists ties for the second most in Tarleton's D1 era. Montre Gipson's 14 on 2/9/21 is the single gamr D1 Texan record.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

GAMES PLAYED AS NCAA DIVISION I INSTITUTION

Tarleton State is in year four of its reclassification from Division I to Division II. The Texans have played 98 total games since beginning the transition in 2020. The Purple and White are 50-48 in their first 97 games. Coach Gillispie's first season was the first year of Tarleton's transition. He has been on the bench for 89 of the 98 before coach Jones has been the acting head coach for the last eight this season.

TEXANS RECORD WHEN SHOOTING 50 PERCENT OR BETTER

Tarleton State has not lost in its Division I era when the team shoots 50 percent or better from the floor. The squad is 4-0 this season when shooting the mark. Tarleton has shot greater than 60 percent in just two games, both of which were victories.

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH THE SAME LINEUP

After turning trio of different lineups in the first three games, the Texans have used the same lineup as the third game for 11 times this season. Coach Jones has used the same lineup 9 times and has never used a different starting five in his nine game career. Lue Williams and Jakorie Smith have started every game this season. Gaddy, Innocenti and Barnes have started all but one this season. Benjamin and Moussa have been responsible for the other two starts this year.

- Tarleton earned its first MTE title with a 59-40 win over CSU-Bakersfield in the SoCal Challenge Championship game.
- Last season, Tarleton State was invited to participate in the Paradise Jam, in the US Virgin Islands.
- The Texans reached the championship game after a pair of victories over ACC's Boston College and MVC's Belmont.
- TSU fell in the title game to Drake, finishing the week 2-1 and securing the program's first win over a power five team.

BENCH PLAY FACTOR

- The Texans started the season with at least one player off the bench recording 10-plus points in nine straight games dating back to last year.
- The streak was snapped on 11/20 against Austin Peay, Adam Moussa was the leading scorer of the bench with 3.
- Bubu Benjamin added 16 and co-led the team in points at Bradley to become the fourth of the stretch to lead the Texans in scoring playing off the bench in the season opener.
- Izzy Miles and Dario Domingos scored 11 and 10, respectively off the bench for the Texans against UNT Dallas.
- KiAndre Gaddy posted 17 points and 14 rebounds off the bench against FIU.
- Barnes is the second straight junior college transfer to lead the team in scoring on opening night in his first game as a Texan.

IN-SEASON TOURNAMENT TITLES LEADS TO CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Seven of the previous 10 NCAA Tournament Champions won their in-season tournament that season.
- Thankfully for the rest of the NCAA, the Texans are not eligible this season due to its final year of reclassification.

JAKORIE SMITH HERO RUN

- On 11/9 against FIU in Jakorie Smith's 34-point effort, he posted 15 straight Texans points in 5:56 of action, known as a hero run.
- His 15-point run is the second longest in the nation this season trailing only Drake's Tucker DeVries who posted 17-straight in 10:21.

2ND TEXAN TO SIGN PRO CONTRACT

- Shakur Daniel became the second Texan from the Division I era to sign a professional contract.
- Daniel signed with AD FENIKS 2010 of the Macedonian Superleague.

- Posted his first professional double-double with 10 points and 10 boards on Oct. 9 against Vardar.
- He has notched double-figure scoring totals in three of his first eight games.
- Daniel has played in eight games averaging 8.3 points, 5.6 rebounds and 2.6 assists while playing 33.1 minutes per game.

NEW NUMBERS RULE

- The NCAA announced that any numbers from 0-99 are now all legal.
- Previously, only number 0-5, 10-15, 20-25, 30-35, 40-45, and 50-55 were allowed.
- Seven of the Texans 21 players are currently wearing previously illegal numbers for the first time in program history.
- Four of the five returners elected to change their numbers after last season, with Jakorie Smith choosing number 6.

TEXANS FORCING TURNOVERS

- The Texans have developed a reputation for having tight defense.
- In 82 of the 97 Division I games in program history, Tarleton has forced the same or more turnovers than its opponents.
- The Texans have won 44 of those games.

FIRST WAC TOURNAMENT WIN

- Last season, the Texans earned the seventh seed in the WAC Postseason Tournament in their first season eligible to appear.
- The Texans drew 10-seeded UTRGV and knocked them off for the first time of the season in the third meeting, 74-70.
- Jakorie Smith posted a season-high 26 points dominating the Vaquero defense.

FIRST POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT APP.

- After a first round win at the WAC Tournament, the Texans earned their first invite to a national postseason tournament.
- Tarleton State accepted its bid to the CBI and received a seven seed.
- The Texans faced 10-seeded Radford. The Highlanders got the best of the Texans in OT, 72-70. Radford reached the final four of the 16-team tournament before falling to the eventual champion, Charlotte.
- The Texans were one of two WAC schools to accept the invite with the other being Southern Utah, earning the number four seed.

MEET THE ASSISTANTS

- Gillispie added three new faces to his staff over the summer: Damon Archibald, Luke Adams and Randy Pulley.
- Damon Archibald is familiar with Gillispie as two of his sons played for Gillispie in the past few years. Tydan played at Tarleton last season.
- Luke Adams enters the staff after playing for Gillispie at Texas Tech.
- Randy Pulley is the most recent hire coming to the Texans after two seasons at Virginia State University. He played a season at each Saint Louis and Missouri in the early 2000s before entering the coaching ranks.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Six of the Texans first seven regular season games were on the road.
- Tarleton opened on the road for the third straight year, but the first in the Eastern United States.

- TSU will compete in the SoCal Challenge during Thanksgiving Week.
- The Texans hosted UNT Dallas on Nov. 11 as the first home game of the season and the only home game during the month of November.

LEGENDARY REISMAN SET TO RETIRE

- Tarleton State Athletic Director, Lonn Reisman announced that he will be retiring in the spring of 2024.
- Lonn Reisman is Tarleton's all-time wins leader with 654 victories after 30 years as the head men's basketball coach.
- Reisman will conclude his 31-year tenure as AD as Tarleton finishes its reclassification process in July.

2022-23 SEASON IN REVIEW

- Last season, highlighted by the squad's first CBI appearance and WAC appearance and win, the Texans were 17-17 overall and 9-9 in conference play.
- Freddy Hicks earned second team All-WAC and defensive standout Shamir Bogues earned his second consecutive selection to the All-WAC defensive team.
- The Texans big home win was against Grand Canyon 82-61, giving the Lopes trouble inside Wisdom Gym.
- Coach Gillispie finished his 11th season as an NCAA head coach totaling 189 wins.

PRESEASON NUMBER SIX

- The Texans were ranked sixth in the WAC in the preseason coaches poll.
- With the WAC Tournament only taking the top eight teams this season, the Texans will need to avoid the bottom three as projected in order to earn a bid to the mid-March Tournament in Las Vegas.
- The preseason ranking is better than the previous two seasons, but is tied for the highest with its Division I debut season in 2020-21.

WIDE DYNAMIC

- The Texans come from all across the country and the world, representing five countries and nine states.
- Freshman Traivar Jackson became the first Alaskan to attend Tarleton State, making the University have at least one student from 49 of the 50 states.
- The four countries represented outside of the US are Switzerland, Italy, Egypt and Canada.
- Tarleton has eight Texan natives on its roster, followed by two Alabama natives as the second most popular pipeline.

TEAM EGYPT FIBA WORLD CUP

- Adam Moussa was selected to play for Team Egypt in the 2023 FIBA World Cup.
- Moussa averaged 2.0 points in 11.8 minutes while playing in five games.
- Moussa shared the court with current NBA player, Patrick Gardner.

20-GAME CONFERENCE SEASON

- Last season with 13 WAC teams, each program played six teams twice and six teams once.
- With the departure of Sam Houston and New Mexico State, the WAC has shrunk to 11 teams.
- As a result, the WAC elected to play a double-round robin in conference play totaling 20 games, the most in the history of the WAC.

AMONG THE BEST IN TEXAS AT HOME

- In 2023, the Texans two home losses were the fourth lowest among D1 Texas school. The two were fewer than Baylor, TCU and Texas Tech.
- Last season, the Texans were seventh among Texas D1 schools in home win percentages (.857), ahead of Baylor, TCU and Texas Tech.
- The Texans 12 home wins were eighth among D1s in Texas just more than Texas Tech.
- In the past two seasons the combined winning percentage (.759) ranks tenth, ahead of TCU.

TARLETON NEARLY UPSETS #8 TENNESSEE

- Tarleton State traveled to the Rocky Top and nearly pulled off the comeback of the year against #8 Tennessee.
- Trailing by 14 at the half, the Texans defense locked out the Vols forcing them to shoot 2-for-17 in the first 16 minutes of the second half.
- With four minutes remaining, Tarleton was trailing by just six.
- Devon Barnes was one of three Texans to score in double-figures with 12.

TARLETON SNAPS STREAK AGAINST JAX STATE

- Tarleton State fell in a heartbreaker to the Gamecocks, 68-65.
- Devon Barnes led the Texans with 20 points.
- Emmanuel Innocenti posted game highs with nine boards, four steals and tied with Smith with four helpers.
- The Texans led for 37 minutes and JSU only led for 57 seconds.
- Lue Williams drove through a sea of traffic and found himself an open three-pointer for the tie that fell just short.

- Lue Williams led the team with 16 points in 16 minutes of action.
- Bubu Benjamin crashed the boards with six rebounds.
- Three different players each tallied three steals.

SMITH STUNS UTRGV AT BUZZER

- Tarleton State trailed by two with 4.1 ticks remaining in the game. After a quick inbound pass Devon Barnes found Jakorie Smith on the sideline across from the Texan bench where Smith let it fly and beat the buzzer to win the game, 77-75.

- With the win, the Texans are 2-0 in the WAC for the first time since joining in 2020.
- KiAndre Gaddy posted his third double-double with 18 points, 10 rebounds and seven blocks.
- For the first time in the D1 era, all five of the Texans starting lineup scored in double-figures.

AXED THE JACKS IN NAC

- Tarleton State traveled to Nacogdoches and came home the victors, 68-66 in the WAC opener.
- After a back-and-forth affair where both teams each held a nine-point lead, Tarleton held a 67-61 advantage with 16.1 seconds. Free throws, a turnover and more free throws led to a 67-66 game with 11.6 seconds. Jakorie Smith iced SFA making one at the line.
- The Jacks failed to convert on a pair of free throws to tie the game and after grabbing the rebound on the missed shot, were unable to complete the comeback with the final shot from the corner clanking off the rim as the buzzer sounded.
- Lue Williams led all with 18 points and 9 boards.
- The Texans handed the Jacks just their 20th home loss in the past 11 seasons.

SOCAL CHALLENGE FIRST ROUND VICTORY

- Tarleton battled in the first half before taking control throughout the second half to advance to Wednesday's championship game with a 66-59 victory over Austin Peay.
- The Texans went back-and-forth in the first half with the Governors taking a 37-35 lead into the break.
- Tarleton preached defense in the intermission and their defense didn't disappoint in the second half, not allowing APU to ever gain the lead back.

OPENING THE SOCAL CHALLENGE

- The Bradley Braves bested the Texans, 86-63 on Tuesday night in Peoria.
- Lue Williams led the team in nearly every category and co-led in points with Bubu Benjamin (16).
- For the ninth straight game a Texan scored in double figures off the bench with 16 from Benjamin.
- Bradley would go on to win the surf division of the challenge with a pair of wins against Tulane and UTEP in So. Cal.

BILLY GILLISPIE

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Four-time NCAA Tournament and 12-time Coach of the Year head coach Billy Gillispie will begin his fourth year as the head coach of the Tarleton Men's Basketball program in 2023-24.

In Gillispie's third campaign with the Texans, he guided the squad to their first postseason as a member of NCAA Division I and its first WAC Tournament. Tarleton earned a bid to the College Basketball Invitational as a seventh seed for the first time in program history. In their first WAC Tournament game, the Texans took down tenth-seeded UTRGV, 74-70. Tarleton dropped the following day to second-seeded Utah Valley at the New Orleans Arena in Las Vegas. He touted a 12-2 home record, Tarleton's best winning percentage since 2016-17 and the most wins since 2017-18. The Texans knocked off eventual NCAA Tournament team, Grand Canyon, 81-62 as part of its four games against eventual 2023 NCAA Tournament teams. In the preseason, the team traveled for its first games outside of the continental United States at St. Thomas of the U.S. Virgin Islands.

At the 2022 Paradise Jam, Gillispie's team reached the finals after a pair of victories over Belmont and Boston College. The Texans fell by seven to Drake to finish as runner-ups in their first appearance in the invitational. Tarleton's top opponent of the season came in December when the Texans traveled to Waco for a matchup with the 12th ranked team in the country, Baylor. Tarleton finished its non-conference slate, 8-8 while touting a 4-0 record at Wisdom Gym. The Texans won their first five conference home games to be one of the last two teams in the WAC to be undefeated at home. Tarleton finished its conference campaign, 9-9 in part of a 17-1 overall season record. In conference play the Texans swept the home-and-home matchups with UT-Arlington and Southern Utah.

At the season's end two of Gillispie's players were honored by the WAC, both of which were sophomores. Freddy Hicks was named second team All-WAC and Shamir Bogues earned a selection to the WAC All-Defensive team. Bogues earned the honor in each of his first two seasons with the Texans. Additionally, Hicks was the only Texan to receive a weekly honor from the conference. Following averaging 23.5 points per game in the first two games of the Paradise Jam, he was named the WAC Player of the Week on November 21.

Once again, Gillispie's defensive team prevailed as one of the best in the league. Tarleton led the WAC in steals (9.71) and largest positive turnover margin (+5.68), allowed the third fewest rebounds per game (33.29) and allowed the fourth fewest points per game (67.88).

Gillispie started his second season by emitting Tarleton in full across the national radar. The Texans began the 2021-22 campaign by playing six of their first seven games away from home in a series of high-profile matchups. Tarleton's November slate included a trip to Allen Fieldhouse to face eventual National Champion Kansas, a showdown in Spokane with No. 1 overall seed Gonzaga and visits to Sweet 16 participant Michigan, Stanford and Wichita State. The Texans firmly held serve in each matchup and captured the imaginations of the college basketball world with near-upsets of the Wolverines and Bulldogs.

Tarleton built one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country in 2021-22. The Texans were one of only four teams to face two No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament (Kansas, Gonzaga). Following the Texans' game at Gonzaga on Nov. 29, the program ranked No. 1 in strength of schedule according to the Pomeroy College Basketball Ratings. The Texans finished the season ranked 15th nationally and tops among all mid-major programs in the category. Additionally, Tarleton's 2021-22 opponents combined for 11 combined NCAA Tournament victories, by far the most in the WAC.

The robust start to non-conference play carried over into December and the start of WAC play. Tarleton won seven of its next nine games following its trip to Spokane. The Texans went on to finish .500 in conference play at 9-9. The team's conference victories came via a memorable home sweep of east Texas rivals Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin, season sweeps of Chicago State, Lamar and UTRGV and a road win at Dixie State.

Individually, Gillispie coached Shamir Bogues to the All-WAC Defensive Team and mentored Montre Gipson to All-WAC second team recognition. Bogues became the first player in Tarleton basketball history to be selected to the All-Defensive Team and was one of five players to receive the honor. Gillispie's accolade signified the third postseason All-WAC honor of his two-year Texan career. Tarleton also cleaned up a trio of weekly WAC accolades under Gillispie's leadership. He coached Noah McDavid to two sets of WAC Freshman of the Week credentials (Jan. 10, Jan. 29) and saw Tahj Small receive WAC Player of the Week recognition on Jan. 10 following the Texans' home sweep of SHSU and SFA.

Gillispie's defensive mettle was on full display once again. The Texans finished the season fifth among all D1 programs in turnover percent differential (+6.4), ninth in turnover margin (+4.1), 11th in turnovers forced (505) and 14th in turnovers forced per game (16.3). Tarleton ranked second in the WAC in all four categories.

In Gillispie's first season with the Texans to a .500 record (10-10) in the inaugural Division I season while going 5-7 in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The five conference wins ranked fifth in the WAC.

In an unprecedented season trying to navigate coaching during COVID-19, Gillispie and the Texans won seven of their last nine games, including three straight conference wins to end the season. Tarleton had nine games canceled due to COVID-19 on the season, including games against eventual national champion Baylor and road games at then-No. 1 Gonzaga and then-No. 1 Kansas. The nine cancellations were top 10 in the country for a program.

Tarleton's first Division I victory came on Nov. 25 with a 103-48 victory over Dallas Christian. The first Division I and WAC victory came on Jan. 29 in a 70-62 road win at Utah Valley. Tarleton also downed three-time defending WAC champion New Mexico State, 64-55, on Feb. 27 inside Wisdom Gym and followed the victory up with a road sweep at UTRGV to close out the regular season.

Due to NCAA Division I transition rules, Tarleton does not qualify for NCAA statistical rankings. Had they been eligible, the Texans would have ranked first in the nation in steals per game (10.5), second in the nation in turnovers forced per game (19.5), and 15th in the nation in points allowed (62.3).

Individually, Gillispie recruited and coached four all-WAC selections, including the Freshman of the Year in Freddy Hicks. Montre' Gipson was selected to the All-WAC Newcomer Team while Gipson, Shakur Daniel and Tahj Small were named Honorable Mention All-WAC.

Gillispie became Tarleton's 15th head coach on March 30, 2020 as the Texans began their transition to NCAA Division I and joined the WAC. Gillispie has served in the same capacity at Kentucky, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Texas El Paso (UTEP). The veteran head coach has 13 years of experience as a collegiate head coach with eight of the years coming at the NCAA Division I level. Gillispie has a career Division I record of 148-108 while taking three different teams to the NCAA Tournament (Kentucky, Texas A&M, UTEP). Gillispie is a two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year (2005, 2007), co-SEC Coach of the Year (2008), WAC Coach of the Year (2004), a finalist for the NABC National Coach of the Year (2004), and the National JUCO Coach of the Year (2019). He's also a three-time NIT/CAC and five-time TABC Coach of the Year.

"Coach Gillispie has shown to truly be genuine in the way he cares about helping student-athletes achieve great success both on and off the court," said Dr. Hurley. "After a national search and an extensive interview process, we are confident that Coach Gillispie's experience and commitment to Tarleton and our community make him the right person to build on the storied success of Texan basketball."

"I would like to welcome Billy Gillispie to Tarleton and back to The Texas A&M System family," said Chancellor Sharp. "Coach Gillispie had tremendous success at Texas A&M and I am confident we will see that same level of success at Tarleton."

Known as an elite recruiter, Gillispie once managed to put together four straight national top-25 recruiting classes from 2005-09. He also had the sixth-ranked recruiting class at Baylor as an assistant in 1996. In Gillispie's career, he has helped recruit over 30 players that advanced to the NBA and NFL and 102 players that played professionally.

With 20 years of experience as a high school head coach in Texas and a Division I assistant, including under legendary head coach Bill Self at Tulsa and Illinois, Gillispie got his first collegiate head coaching job at UTEP from 2002-04. In just his second year leading the Miners, Gillispie lifted the team to an 18-win improvement – the best in the NCAA – and claimed the WAC regular season title, the WAC Coach of the Year award, and advanced to his first NCAA Tournament. It was UTEP's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1992.

After two seasons at UTEP, Gillispie was hired by Texas A&M where he once again had one of the biggest turnarounds in the country. In his first season with the Aggies, Gillispie led his new team to a 21-10 record – a 14-win increase from the season before – and advanced to the NIT Quarterfinals. The turnaround garnered his first career Big 12 Coach of the Year award. In year two (2005-06), Texas A&M finished 22-9 and fourth in the Big 12 while claiming a No. 12 seed in the first NCAA Tournament appearance for the Aggies since 1987. Gillispie picked up his first tournament win in an opening-round upset over Jim Boeheim's No. 5-seed Syracuse Orangemen.

Gillispie's best season came in 2006-07 when he won a career-high 27 games with the Aggies, finished second in the Big 12, and won his second Big 12 Coach of the Year award in three seasons. Gillispie led the Aggies into storied Allen Fieldhouse to take on the defending Big 12 Champion No. 6 Kansas Jayhawks and became the first visiting team from the Big 12 South Division to leave with a victory. Less than 48 hours later, Gillispie topped the Kevin Durant-led No. 25 Texas Longhorns for his second straight ranked victory. The Aggies finished the season ranked No. 6 by ESPN/USA Today, which was a then-Texas A&M record.

Texas A&M advanced to its second straight NCAA Tournament, this time as a No. 3 seed. The Aggies topped Penn in the opening round and followed with a second-round win over Rick Pitino's No. 6-seed Louisville Cardinals to advance to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1980.

In his three seasons at Texas A&M, Gillispie coached three future NBA players, including a pair of first-round picks in Acie Law IV (11th pick) and Antoine Wright (15th pick). He also coached a future NFL second-round draft pick in dual-sport athlete Martellus Bennett.

After three seasons at Texas A&M, Gillispie was hired to lead the Kentucky Wildcats where he racked up a 40-27 record over two seasons and reached his fourth NCAA Tournament, including his third straight appearance. In his first season, Gillispie led the Wildcats to a 12-4 mark in the SEC and was named the Co-SEC Coach of the Year. Gillispie coached six future NBA draft picks, including first-round selection and current Los Angeles Clipper Patrick Patterson (14th pick).

After Kentucky, Gillispie signed on at Texas Tech but resigned after one season due to health reasons. In 2018, Gillispie underwent a successful kidney transplant.

A rejuvenated Gillispie made a triumphant return to the sidelines at his alma mater Ranger Junior College. Over the last four seasons at Ranger College, Gillispie went 103-24 and took the Rangers to the NJCAA national title game in 2019, where he was named the JUCO National Coach of the Year.

"I cannot wait to get started," Gillispie said. "At Tarleton, we will be inheriting an ultra-successful program that Lonn and Chris Reisman established as well as countless others that have poured their hearts and souls into Texan Basketball for more than 30 years. No program has been more successful during that time. We will try our hardest every day to honor the efforts that have been made as we move into a new era of Division I basketball and make every one of the Tarleton faithful proud."

JOSEPH JONES

ACTING HEAD COACH • EIGHTH GAME

When the 2023-24 season began, Joseph Jones started his fourth year as an assistant coach for Tarleton men's basketball. However, little did he know, he would fill in coach Gillispie's role after the fourth game of the season.

The night before the Texans opened the SoCal Challenge in San Juan Capistrano, Calif., xGillispie left the team due to medical circumstances and Jones filled in his absence. Tarleton State knocked off Austin Peay and Cal State Bakersfield to earn the SoCal Challenge Sand Division title, the Texans' first Multi-team event (MTE) title.

The Texans led by Jones returned to Texas to upset Stephen F. Austin in Nacogdoches followed by a buzzer-beating victory against UTRGV at home to open WAC play 2-0 for the first time in program history.

The Purple and White added a pair of wins against Hardin-Simmons and Sterling College to build a six-game winning streak, the longest in program history. He engineered six of the Texans first eight wins, totaling an 8-2 record the Texans' best start in the D1 era.

Jones joined the Texan coaching staff midseason in 2020-21, as Gillispie hired the former Texas A&M Hall of Famer on Jan. 4, a week before conference play began.

In his third season as a member of Gillispie's staff, his defensive intensity helped lead the prolific Texan defense to lead the WAC in steals and turnover margin. The Texans averaged 9.7 steals per game and a +5.68 turnover margin.

The Texans notched one of its best home records in school history. Tarleton boasted a 12-2 record at Wisdom Gym, its best winning percentage since 2016-17. The squad won their first nine home games extending the win streak into February. Jones helped guide the team to a pair of wins at the Paradise Jam and a runner-up finish for the first time in school history.

For the second-straight season, Jones helped guide sophomore Shamir Bogues to the WAC All-Defensive Team. Freddy Hicks also earned individual recognition as a second-team All-WAC selection.

Jones was known as a defensive force in College Station and brought that same mentality to Tarleton during his first full season as an assistant coach in 2021-22. The Texans finished the season fifth among all D1 programs in turnover percent differential (+6.4), ninth in turnover margin (+4.1), 11th in turnovers forced (505) and 14th in turnovers forced per game (16.3). Tarleton ranked second in the WAC in all four categories.

He began the season by helping Tarleton navigate one of the most challenging Division I nonconference schedules in the country. The Texans played six of their first seven games away from home in a series of high-profile matchups against the likes of eventual National Champion Kansas, No. 1 overall seed Gonzaga and Sweet 16 participants: Michigan, Stanford and Wichita State. The Texans were one of only four teams to face two eventual No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament (Kansas, Gonzaga).

Following the early-season gauntlet of games, the Texans won seven of their next nine contests and went on to finish .500 in WAC play at 9-9 with Jones in an assistant coaching role. The team's conference victories came via a memorable home sweep of east Texas rivals Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin, season sweeps of Chicago State, Lamar and UTRGV and a road win at Dixie State.

Individually, Jones helped coach Shamir Bogues to the All-WAC Defensive Team and Montre Gipson to All-WAC second team recognition. Bogues became the first player in Tarleton basketball history to be selected to the All-Defensive Team and was one of five players to receive the honor. Gipson's accolade signified the third postseason All-WAC honor of his two-year Texan career.

In 2020-21, Jones helped coach the Texans to eight of their 10 wins during the inaugural Division I season once he was hired. Jones helped develop and coach four all-WAC selections, including the Freshman of the Year in Freddy Hicks. Montre' Gipson was selected to the All-WAC Newcomer Team while Gipson, Shakur Daniel and Tahj Small were named Honorable Mention All-WAC.

His defensive credentials were on full display in his first winter in Stephenville. Due to NCAA Division I transition rules, Tarleton does not qualify for NCAA statistical rankings. Had they been eligible, the Texans would have ranked first in the nation in steals per game (10.5), second in the nation in turnovers forced per game (19.5), and 15th in the nation in points allowed (62.3).

Jones, a professional basketball player for the last 14 years ended his career in Puerto Rico and came to Tarleton as one of Gillispie's former standout players at Texas A&M. He was inducted into the Texas A&M Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019. Gillispie coached Jones at Texas A&M for his first three seasons.

Jones committed to Texas A&M after a standout high school career at Normangee High School. During his four-year career at Texas A&M where he graduated a semester early, Jones helped lead the Aggies to a 95-37 record with a trip to the NIT Quarterfinals, three NCAA Tournament appearances and an NCAA Sweet 16 birth.

"What an exciting time for Tarleton basketball to have Joseph Jones join our staff," said Gillispie in 2021. "I could not be happier. Joe is one of the best human beings I have ever met. He started every game I coached at Texas A&M and was a great leader from his very first day as a first-year player. He is one of the smartest players I have ever coached. His spirit towards team and life is unmatched. All Joe ever wanted to do was prepare and win. He will be a tremendous asset to each of our young players."

At Texas A&M, Jones earned All-Big 12 honors every season and was a member of the Big 12 All-Freshman Team in 2005 as well as a NABC All-District honoree in 2006, 2007 and 2008. Academically, he was a member of the All-Big 12 Academic Team in 2006 and ultimately graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in agricultural leadership and development in 2007. Entering his senior season, Jones was featured on the front cover of Sports Illustrated with Texas Longhorns player D.J. Augustin.

Jones filled the Texas A&M record books with his name, as he finished his career third on the Aggie all-time points list (1,679), second in made free throws (480), sixth in rebounds (843), seventh in field goals (588), seventh in blocked shots (96) and second in games started (131).

After his collegiate career in College Station, Jones joined the Houston Rockets 2008 Summer League team before beginning his career overseas. In 2008, Jones signed with Le Havre in France. He has since played in France, Israel, Spain, and Iran. Jones played last for Santeros de Aguada in Puerto Rico, where he won the BSN Championship in 2019.

During his career, Jones posted a career high 35 points as an Aggie against North Texas on 12/6/05 during his sophomore season. He posted a career-high 19 rebounds against North Texas as well as in 2019 with Santeros de Aguada. Jones tallied four blocks in two separate games as an Aggie freshman, the most in his career. Jones six steals against Southern as a sophomore was his most at any level.
