KYLE KELLER

HEAD COACH | 8TH SEASON

Kyle Keller enters his eighth season in charge of the Lumberjack basketball program. Keller is coming off a 19-13 season campaign.

Over the past two decades the Lumberjacks set the standard in the State of Texas and sport the best winning percentage among NCAA Division I programs within the state.

Keller and company continue to raise the bar and over the past four seasons have compiled an overall record of 85-31 which ranks 13th best in all of NCAA Division I level. Keller is the fastest coach in SFA history to record 100 wins and now has an all-time record of 159-70 plus a conference mark of 96-41. Since his arrival to Nacogdoches, the Jacks have only enhanced the "Giant Killers" label with victories at No. 1 Duke, LSU, and Baylor.

Keller is widely known for the aggressive "PRESS U" style system.

Offensively, the Jacks have averaged over 80 points three times in his tenure. Last year his team was 10th in the country in 3-point percentage. Defensively, the Jacks have led NCAA Division I in 2018 and 2020 in steals and forced turnovers per game.

Keller brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the Lumberjack sidelines. Keller was an assistant coach for two Naismith Hall of Fame coaches: Bill Self at Kansas and Eddie Sutton at his alma mater Oklahoma State. He started his coaching career at Louisiana Tech and served as head coach at Tyler Junior College. Keller served as an assistant coach at Texas-San Antonio and Texas A&M.

Keller has coached 31 former players that have reached the NBA level, including former SFA Lumberjack Kevon Harris who currently plays for the Orlando Magic. Keller has coached 20 All-Conference honored players in his seven years on the SFA bench.

Overall, Keller has participated in 31 NCAA tournament games, been a part of 21 tournament wins: One Final Four, three Elite 8's, and seven Sweet 16 games.

Among active head coaches, Keller ranks in the top 20 in wins. He led SFA to its highest finish in the AP poll at No. 26 in 2019-2020.
