GAME STORYLINES

Jax-State-Chattanooga Renew Hardwood Series: For the first time since 1999, Jacksonville State and Chattanooga will face off in women's hoops action on Wednesday in McKenzie Arena on the Chattanooga campus. The Gamecocks, who are on the second leg of a five-game road trip, enter the contest searching for the elusive first win of the season after dropping the first eight games of the season. The Lady Mocs are off to a fast 7-1 start with the lone setback to Saint Mary's (CA). UTC has a pair of impressive wins over Southeastern Conference foes - Alabama (72-58) and perennial power Tennessee (80-71).

The Jax State-UTC Series: Tonight's midweek contest at McKenzie Arena will be the sixth meeting all time between Jax State and UTC and the first meeting since 1999. The Lady Mocs have claimed the first five meetings between the two schools that are separated by 114 miles. JSU and UTC met twice in 1996 (1/31/96 & 11/30/96) and once in 1997 and 1998. The last two UTC wins were by a combined 11 points. JSU dropped an 84-80 decision to the Lady Mocs in the 1998 meeting and fell to UTC, 80-73, in the last visit to Chattanooga, Tenn. in 1999.

Tennessee Connections: Two members on the Gamecocks' roster are Tennessee natives along with JSU Head Coach Annette Watts. Sophomore Briana Morrow hails from Nashville, Tenn. as she prepped at Glenclyff High School. Freshman Destiny James is a product of Bartlett, Tenn. and Bartlett High School. Watts is a graduate of East Tennessee State and started her coaching career in the Tennessee high school ranks at Greeneville High School. JSU assistant coach Yvette Sparks also has Tennessee ties as she spent four seasons at Belmont from 2006-2010 before moving over to Davidson Academy to coach for one season before coming on board at JSU in 2011.

JSU Treks To Jacksonville, Fla. For UNF Holiday Classic: Following the UTC contest, JSU will depart for Jacksonville, Fla. and take part in the Hampton Inn Oceanfront Holiday Classic, hosted by the University of North Florida, on Dec. 14 and Dec. 15. Jax State will face host-UNF in the opening contest and take on Campbell to wrap up the two-day event.

HEAD COACH ANNETTE WATTS • THIRD SEASON • EAST TENNESSEE STATE, 1981

Annette Watts, with more than 22 years of coaching experience at both the high school and collegiate level, became the program's 11th coach when she came onboard in May of 2010.

In 2011-12, Watts had a mixture of veteran players along with a talented group of young players that now have a season of collegiate action under their belt. One of those new faces in the program was Briana Morrow, who was named to the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer Team after leading the Gamecocks in the scoring column and ranked among the top freshmen in the OVC in scoring and rebounding. Morrow was named the OVC Freshman of the Week four times during 2011-12. Watts, who has instilled academic success in the program, had five players named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll for the 2011-12 academic year.

Watts used those years under her belt in her first season at JSU as she began the process of moving the women's basketball program to the next level. She guided her first Gamecock squad to the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament - the first appearance for JSU since 2009. JSU advanced to the second round after downing Tennessee State in the opening round. Watts' first season ended with a 10-21 overall mark and 6-12 in league play. She moved past the 150 career wins plateau in her first season at JSU with a win over Morehead State.

Watts spent the nine years as the head coach at Davidson from 2001-10, where she was the winningest head coach in the program's history, and led the Wildcats to five-straight winning seasons. She enters her first season in charge of the Gamecocks with an overall mark of 144-121. After nine seasons in the Southern Conference, she compiled 102 wins. Last season, the Wildcats posted a 14-15 overall mark and 12-8 within the league to finish fourth in the final standings.

Watts has served on a staff that has made the Women's NCAA Division I Final Four, as well as coached a high school team to the state quarterfinals, and also led Davidson to its first-ever postseason appearance with a trip to the 2006-07 WNIT.

The East Tennessee-native was named the 2005 Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the league's media, the first Davidson coach to earn SoCon Coach of the Year honors, after leading the Wildcats to a school-record 18 wins. Davidson also had a school-record 14 conference victories and earned the second seed in the SoCon Tournament, the highest seed ever for Davidson in its 13 trips to the league tourney that season.

In her first four years at the helm of the Wildcats' program, Davidson's record improved every season. After Davidson finished 9-19 in the 2000-01 season, Watts was brought in to turn the program around. As witnessed by her career record, the win totals increased from 10 in Watts' first year to 18 by her fourth season.

Watts' players have excelled off the court as well as she coached 26 players at Davidson that were named to the conference academic honor roll. While at the North Carolina-based school, Watts mentored eight All-SOCon players and seven players reached the 1,000-point career scoring mark in the Watts system. She had four newcomers during her time at DC that were named to the league's All-Freshman Team and one player named the top freshman of the year.

Prior to arriving at Davidson, Watts spent two seasons as head coach at Jackson County Comprehensive High School in Jefferson, Ga. She guided that team to the 2001 state quarterfinals and compiled an overall record of 38-20 in two years as head coach of the Lady Panthers. Her success on the court at Jackson County earned her Coach of the Year honors from the Jackson Herald News.

Before her stint at Jackson, Watts spent two seasons as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach Kay Yow at N.C. State. While with the Wolfpack, she was responsible for scouting opposing teams and recruiting, as well as on-floor coaching. Watts helped lead the 1997-98 Wolfpack squad to its first Final Four appearance. During her two-year tenure in Raleigh, the Wolfpack went 42-19 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament both years.

As a collegiate athlete, Coach Watts spent four seasons at East Tennessee State University where she played guard for the Lady Bucs. She received a bachelor of science degree from ETSU in 1981. Watts continued her post-graduate work at East Tennessee State, earning a master's degree in secondary math education in 1985.

After departing ETSU, Watts taught and coached basketball at Greeneville (Tenn.) High School for eight years. Active in the Greeneville community, she headed up the Lady Devil (YMCA) Basketball Camp for seven years.

Watts then moved south from Greeneville and served as head women's coach and full-time teacher at Robert Wood Johnson Comprehensive High School in Gainesville, Ga., where she compiled a career mark of 125-51. She was named Gainesville Times Coach of the Year three times (1992, '95 and '96) and also served as director of the Lady Knight Basketball Camp from 1990-95.

In addition to her wealth of coaching experience, Watts was also selected to a three-year term as a member of the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee for Division I women's basketball. She has also represented the SoCon as a member of the WBCA conference captains for three years. Watts is also a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletic Administrators.

JACKSONVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

NEW STAFF MEMBERS

There will be new faces on the Jax State bench this season as Watts brought in a pair of staff members in the off season. Jason Williams comes to JSU program after eight years at Belmont Abbey College, an NCAA Division II school located in Charlotte, N.C. Williams was on the Crusaders' men's basketball coaching staff. The final piece of the coaching staff was added when Courtney Payne came on board in August. A native of Scottsboro, Ala., Payne joins JSU after spending one season as varsity girls head coach at Shades Mountain Christian School in the Birmingham, Ala. area. A graduate of Scottsboro High School and Snead State Community College, Payne finished her undergraduate studies in 2007 at The University of Alabama. Payne moved on to her second Southeastern Conference program after graduating from UA as she spent time at Louisiana State University as a Strength and Conditioning Intern in 2007. While at LSU, she was mentored by Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Melissa Moore. That season, LSU advanced to the Women's Final Four.

BASKETBALL BLOODLINES

Three members of the 2012-13 JSU women's basketball squad have siblings or relatives that have played major college basketball or are still playing at the collegiate level. Newcomers Marikate Gardler, Destiny James and Sydney Brown all have basketball bloodlines. Gardler's sister, Meghan, played at the University of Connecticut from 2006-10 and was a member of the 2010 NCAA National Championship Huskie squad and is currently playing professional basketball overseas. Gardler's father, Harrison and brother, Chris, attended Saint Joseph University and played for the Hawks of St. Joseph. James' older sister, Jasmine is a member of the University of Georgia women's basketball program. Brown, who hails from the Bluegrass State, is a relative of former University of Kentucky standout and current member of the Detroit Pistons, Tayshaun Prince.

GAMECOCKS' LEADING SCORER RETURNS

It is very rare to have a freshman leading the way in scoring and rebounding for an NCAA Division I program, but last season with so many new faces in the JSU program, first-year player Briana Morrow paced the Gamecock offense and led the squad on the boards. The rising sophomore from Nashville, Tenn. finished the season scoring 11.4 points per game and ranked second on the team in rebounds with a 7.5 per contest mark. Following her stellar freshman campaign, Morrow was named to the OVC All Newcomer Team. She was selected as the league's Newcomer of the Week four times (Dec. 6, Dec. 20, Jan. 10 and Feb. 7).

Morrow scored in double figures in 17 of the 28 games played and in nine OVC games. The 5-foot-11 forward posted five double-doubles and scored a season-best 25 points at Jacksonville on Dec. 15 of 2011. Morrow's best OVC performance came against Tennessee State on Jan. 7 with 14 points and 16 rebounds.

GOING TO THE GLASS UNDER WATTS

One of the benchmarks of an Annette Watts program is going to the glass and winning the rebounding edge in each contest. In the first two seasons under Watts, the Gamecocks have averaged 39.8 rebounds per game and have a slim +0.8 rebounding margin over the opposition in the first 60 games of the Watts regime. JSU has been one of the top programs in the Ohio Valley Conference in rebounding in the last two seasons. In 2010-11, Watts' first year at Jax State, her squad ranked fourth in the OVC in offensive and defensive rebounds and averaged 39.3 boards per game and equaled the opponents with a +0.0 margin.

In 2011-12, JSU averaged over 40 rebounds per contest and once again were listed among the league leaders in the rebounding category. JSU finished with a +1.6 rebounding lead over its opponents last season and ranked second in the OVC in rebound margin. JSU led the OVC in offensive rebounding percentage with a .390 mark. In OVC games only, Jax State out-rebounded OVC foes by a +4.3 margin, which ranked second in the league.

Prior to Watts' arrival, JSU ranked eighth and ninth respectively in the OVC in offensive and defensive rebounds. The Gamecocks were listed tenth among the 11 teams in the league in 2009-10.

REBOUNDING EDGE

JSU has out-rebounded its opponent in six of the first eight games this season. Kennesaw State and Lipscomb are the two squads tie to date to pull down more rebounds than the Gamecocks this season. KSU out-rebounded JSU, 48-36, while Lipscomb has a +7 (39-32) edge on the glass. Gamecock opponents are pulling down +0.1 rebounds as JSU averages 39.2 per game. Jax State pulled down a season-best 48 rebounds on two occasions - at Alabama and at Georgia State. The Red and White rank third in the Ohio Valley Conference in rebounding margin behind SIU Edwardsville and Eastern Kentucky.

The Gamecocks are averaging 15.0 offensive rebounds, which ranks second among OVC teams. JSU scored a season-high 27 points off 26 offensive boards at Georgia State and had 23 offensive rebounds versus Jacksonville.

SEEING DOUBLE

Sophomore Briana Morrow turned in her second double-double performance of the season and her seventh of her career against Jacksonville. Morrow, from Nashville, Tenn., led all scorers with 15 points and 18 rebounds. It marked the second time this season that she has pulled down double digit boards. She grabbed a career-best 19 rebounds against Georgia State on Nov. 14, along with 15 points.

CANTRELL CONTRIBUTES DOUBLE DIGITS

Sophomore Miranda Cantrell has sparked the Gamecock offense in the last three games. After sitting out the season opener at Alabama, due to an injury in the preseason, the post player from College Park, Ga. shares the team lead in scoring with a 9.2 per game mark. Cantrell has turned in a trio of consecutive double figure point totals dating back to the Samford contest. She established a new career high versus SU with 12 points and put together back-to-back 10-point efforts against Jacksonville and Kennesaw State.

McLIN MAKING IT HAPPEN

Freshman guard Destany McLin has definitely progressed and adapted to the college game effectively and has seen her playing time increase over the past two games. McLin had her best game of her young Gamecock career against Jacksonville and nearly posted a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds. She pulled down six defensive boards and was 5-of-11 from the field, including a three-point basket vs. JU. McLin also dished out a pair of assists in the game and credited with two steals in the Samford game.

The Athens, Ala.-native earned her first career start at Lipscomb and matched her career-high in points with 11 points and scoring six of those points in the second half.

YOUNG GAMECOCKS

The Gamecocks will start the 2012-13 season as the youngest team in the Ohio Valley Conference. Head coach Annette Watts has a combined 11 sophomores and freshmen on her third JSU squad. The roster features five freshmen and six sophomores, in which five of them gain valuable minutes as a freshman. The five sophomores - Briana Morrow, Candace Morton, Miranda Cantrell, Gia Banks and Brianna Buckner accounted for 43% of JSU's scoring last season. Morrow led the team in scoring with an 11.4 scoring mark in her rookie season.

JSU PICKED SIXTH IN OVC'S EAST DIVISION

The Ohio Valley Conference announced its annual preseason prognostications for the 2012-13 women's basketball season at the league's media day in October. Jacksonville State was picked sixth in the East Division by the conference's coaches and sports information directors.

With the addition of Belmont University, the OVC now has 12 competing institutions and has two divisions in the league. The Gamecocks are grouped with the Bruins of BU, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State, Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech.

The Golden Eagles of TTU were picked as the preseason favorite in the OVC East Division, followed by ECU in the second slot. Belmont, Morehead State and Tennessee State were slated three through five.

Defending OVC Champion UT Martin was a unanimous selection to win the West Division. Eastern Illinois and SIU Edwardsville claimed the second and third spots among the West squads. Murray State, Austin Peay and Southeast Missouri round out the West Division.

JAX STATE SUFFERS SETBACK TO LIPSCOMB

With both teams searching for its first win of the season, Lipscomb used nine three pointers in the first half alone to turn back Jacksonville State, 67-54, on Sunday in Allen Arena on the LU campus.

The win by LU snapped a six-game losing skid, while JSU dropped its eight consecutive game to start to the season.

The Lady Bison finished the first half 10-of-24 from the field with nine of those made baskets from beyond the three-point arc. LU's first nine baskets were three-point shots and the lone bucket inside the arc came with 53 seconds left in the first half. The Purple and Gold added four points from the free throw line. LU completed the contest with a 13-of-26 performance from behind the arc with four made treys in the second half. The 13 made three-pointers is the most since UT Martin scorched the nets for 16 made three pointers last February.

LU entered the game shooting just 29 percent from behind the three-point line and only knocking down 5.7 treys per game. Freshman Presley Stastny led LU's three-point barrage with four made treys. Stastny finished with 17 points in 33 minutes of action. Alex Banks recorded a game-high 18 points in the win for LU. Hannah Phillips added 11 points and nine rebounds. For just the second time this season, JSU was out-rebounded by the opposition, 39-32.

Jax State, trailing 33-25, at the halftime break had a solid shooting start with a 39 percent effort and erased LU's 11-point, 25-14 lead at the 5:09 mark of the half and got within a basket at 27-25 after an 11-2 run over a four-minute frame. LU would push the deficit back out to eight points after scoring the final six points.

After LU pushed the lead out to as many as 11 points on two occasions in the first five minutes of the second half and took a 45-34 lead at the 14:23 mark. Jax State would put together a 10-0 scoring run that covered the next three minutes to get within a point at 45-44 nearing the midway point of the half. LU would extend the JSU deficit back out to 11 points at 59-48 with 6:43 left in the game. LU connected on free throws down the stretch and turned in a 14-of-22 showing at the free throw line in the final 20 minutes.

Junior Dashauna Truss and freshman Destany McLin led the Gamecocks' second half charge as the pair combined for 16 of the 29 points in the second half. Truss, from Jacksonville, Fla., finished with a team-high 12 points. She has now scored in double figures in three consecutive games. Truss was also credited with three assists. McLin, who made her first career start, made the most of it with 11 total points and three buckets in the second half. The rest of the Gamecocks were limited in scoring as they hit just 33 percent from the field in the final 20 minutes and did not record a field goal in the game's final 2:41.

TWELVE HOME GAMES HIGHLIGHT 2012-13 SCHEDULE

Twelve home dates and a pair of road games against Southeastern Conference opponents are apart of the 2012-13 schedule for the Jacksonville State women's basketball team.

The Gamecocks will play four consecutive home games that spans over the final week of November and opens December play before tipping off the Ohio Valley Conference slate at home on Dec. 29 against Tennessee Tech. JSU will host in-state rival Samford for its home opener on Nov. 19, before taking on a duo of Atlantic Sun Conference foes - Jacksonville and Kennesaw State on Nov. 25 and Nov. 28 respectively. The four-game homestand wraps up on Dec. 7 as Reinhardt College visits Pete Mathews Coliseum.

The OVC moved to divisional play for this season and JSU is slated for the East Division. The Gamecocks will play home-and-home contests with TTU, Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State and league newcomer-Belmont.

JSU will visit West Division foes - UT Martin, who won the conference for a second-straight year last year, Eastern Illinois and SIU Edwardsville. Murray State, Austin Peay and Southeast Missouri will travel to Jacksonville from the West Division.

GAMECOCKS RETURN TO JACKSONVILLE ... FLORIDA'S VERSION

For the Second season in a row, the Gamecocks will travel to the state of Florida's city of Jacksonville to compete in the University of North Florida-hosted Hampton Inn/UNF Osprey Holiday Classic on Dec. 14 and 15. Last season, JSU faced Florida International and host-UNF. The 2012-13 field includes the Ospreys of UNF, Jax State, Campbell and Maryland Eastern Shore. JSU squares off with UNF on the opening day (Dec. 14) and will wrap up the two-day event against Campbell.

NEW DIVISIONS

With the addition of Belmont for the 2012-13 season, the Ohio Valley Conference will move to divisional play for both men and women's basketball regular-season schedules. The East Division will include Belmont, Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State, Morehead State, Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech. The West Division will consist of Austin Peay, Eastern Illinois, Murray State, Southeast Missouri, SIU Edwardsville and UT Martin.

In the sports of men's and women's basketball, the top team in each division based on conference winning percentage automatically earns a berth in the OVC Basketball Championship. The next six teams with the highest winning percentage will also earn a bid, regardless of division. The No. 1 seed will go to the divisional winner with the top conference winning percentage, while the No. 2 seed will automatically go to the other divisional winner. The remaining six teams will be seeded 3-8 by conference winning percentage, regardless of division.

TRUSS TURNING IT ON

Junior guard Dashauna Truss has raised her scoring average by almost four points with three consecutive double figure scoring games. Truss, a transfer from Stetson University, started slow in the first five games, only averaging 3.0 points per game. In the last three games, she posted a season-best 14 points to lead the Gamecocks in the Reinhardt contest. Prior to that contest, Truss tallied 13 points against Kennesaw State. Against Lipscomb, the Jacksonville, Fla.-native turned in 12 points, with ten coming in the second half. In the last three games, Truss is averaging 13 points per game and dishing out three assists.

FIRST CAREER STARTS

With five freshmen on the this year's squad, three of them have earned a spot in the starting line up through the first eight games of the season. Center Peyton Hisel started the first seven games in the post, while guard Destiny James was penciled in as one of the starting guards versus Reinhardt. Guard Destiny McLin garnered a spot in the starting five against Lipscomb. Hisel, from Lexington, Ky., finished her first collegiate game with seven points and four rebounds at Alabama. James, who hails from Bartlett, Tenn. tallied seven points and a trio of steals in her starting debut. McLin, the Athens, Ala.-product compiled 11 points at Lipscomb.

FREE THROW LINE PRODUCTION

The Gamecocks have excelled at the free throw line this season with a 69.9 shooting percentage at the charity stripe. Jax State is averaging 11.6 made free throws per game and has registered double digit made free throws in five of the eight games. JSU turned in a season-best 18 made free throws in the season opener at Alabama and made 17-of-26 at the line against Mercer.

Jax State ranks among the Ohio Valley Conference leaders in free throw shooting behind Belmont and Murray State.

LIMITING TURNOVERS

Over the last four games, JSU has limited its turnovers and has a +4.3 turnover margin during that span of games. Since the Jacksonville contest, the Gamecocks are averaging 15.5 turnover per game and forcing 19.8 miscues by the opposition. In the first four games of the season, the Red and White were averaging 27.5 turnovers per game, which is a difference of 12 turnovers between the two four-game periods.

DIFFERENT LINE UPS

JSU Head Coach Annette Watts has used five different starting line ups this season. Watts and staff utilized the line up of guards Dashauna Truss, Candance Morton, Amanda McCarthy and forwards Briana Morrow and Peyton Hisel for the first three games. Sophomore Marikate Gardler replaced Morton in the line up after she had an injury in the Mercer contest. Sophomore Miranda Cantrell, who sparked the offense coming off the bench has started the last three games. Destiny James and Destiny McLin were inserted into the line up against Reinhardt and Lipscomb respectively. Truss, McCarthy and Briana Morrow have been mainstays in the starting unit.

JAM-PACKED SCHEDULE

Tonight's trip to Chattanooga, Tenn. is the second leg of a five-game road trip over a 12-day span for Jax State. The December road trip began last Sunday at Lipscomb and will end on Thursday, Dec. 20 in Starkville, Miss. against Southeastern Conference foe, Mississippi State. Sandwiched between tonight's trip and the trip to the Magnolia State, the Gamecocks will venture down to Jacksonville, Fla. on Thursday to prep for two games at the Hampton Inn Oceanfront Holiday Classic, hosted by the University of North Florida. JSU will take on host-UNF on Friday, Dec. 14 at 2:30 CST before facing Campbell on Saturday, Dec. 15 to wrap up the two-day event.

JSU's contest with the Lady Bulldogs of MSU will conclude the squad's pre-Christmas slate and non-conference portion of the 2012-13 schedule.

OVC ACTION ON THE HORIZON

After the Gamecocks complete their five-game road trip and the pre-Christmas slate, they will return to action on Saturday, Dec. 29, hosting Ohio Valley Conference rival Tennessee Tech at 2 p.m. Following the TTU match up, JSU will travel to Martin, Tenn. for a 2 p.m. New Year's Eve matinee with UT Martin, the defending OVC Champion.

GAMECOCKS INK TWO IN FALL PERIOD

Jacksonville State women's basketball coach Annette Watts wrapped up the fall signing period by inking two for the 2013-14 squad.

Guards Kelly Naughton and Briana Benson signed National Letters of Intent during the early signing period to join the Gamecock program for next season. Naughton is a native of Elk Grove, Ill., while Benson is from Jonesboro, Ga.

"My staff worked hard to garner two very good guards," said Annette Watts. "Both players specialize in scoring or creating scoring opportunities for teammates. They will immediately fit into our offensive system. We are extremely excited about both players."

Naughton, a 5-7 guard plays at Elk Grove High School and had a breakout junior season. She registered five double-figure games as a junior, including a 21-point effort against Glenbrook North High School. Naughton also is active on the AAU circuit, playing for the Illinois Hustle. She is coached by Kathie Swanson at EGHHS.

Watts describes Naughton as a feisty point guard, who can distribute the ball as well as score.

"She is a true student athlete with a 4.94 GPA and an impressive 27 ACT score. Her basketball IQ matches her academic IQ, high and always hungry to do more," added Watts.

Benson preps at Jonesboro High School in the Peach State. Listed as a 5-8 guard, Benson helped lead JHS to a spot in the semifinals of the state tournament. She has continued to guide JHS as a senior this season with a 10.7 scoring average and four rebounds per contest. She has also scored 15 and 11 points respectively so far this season.

Watts is keen on Benson's three-point shooting ability along with her efforts on the defensive end of the floor.

"She is a solid shooting guard with good speed and looks to be a force on the defensive end as well," mentioned Watts.
