• Stephan Jaeger (Munich, Germany) became the second UTC player to shoot under par for the season. His one-under par total, 71.67 scoring average, is behind Jonathan Hodge's (2006-09) 71.41 in his 2007-08 All-American campaign.

• The Mocs have won 14 titles in Guhne's five-plus seasons with a high of five in 2007-08. The last team win was the 2010 Cleveland Golf Palmetto Int. There have been eight medalists under his watch with two this season. Freshman Chris Robb (Aberdeenshire, Scotland) won the season's second event shooting nine under at the Springhill Suites Collegiate (9/13-14) at the Country Club of S.C. Jaeger dominated the LSU National Invitational winning by seven strokes over runner-up Vince India of Iowa, the No. 7 player in the country at the time.

JUNE

• The 2011 NCAA Colorado Regional was the fifth straight NCAA Regional appearance for Chattanooga. UTC advanced to the 2009 NCAA Championship at Inverness through the South Central Regional at the site of this year's finals, Karsten Creek Golf Club in Stillwater, Okla.

• The Mocs earned six mentions in league awards this season. Jaeger repeated as the conference Golfer of the Year, while posting his third straight All-SoCon team along with the first for sophomore Steven Fox (Hendersonville, Tenn.) and freshman Benni Weilguni (Langelois, Austria). Weilguni and Davis Bunn (Knoxville, Tenn.) were All-Freshman selections.

• Jaeger earned his third PING All-East Region nod in as many years at UTC. Jaeger joins former teammate Derek Rende (2007-10) as the only Mocs to garner three all-region mentions.

• Chattanooga dominated SoCon awards this spring. A UTC student-athlete has captured Golfer of the Week honors following all four events in which it competed. Weilguni won it March 9th, while Jaeger won it three consecutive weeks from March 23-April 6. Jaeger was also the March Golfer of the Month.

• Scoring by hole type with national ranking:

Scoring Team	Rank	Individual
Par 5	4.79	19 Stephan Jaeger, 4.64 (28th)
Par 4	4.15	22 Steven Fox, 4.11
Par 3	3.22	45 Stephan Jaeger, 3.04 (16th)

• As a team, UTC had 13 par or better rounds this season which ties 2006-07 for second best in school history. The low is the opening round 280 (E) at the Cleveland Golf Palmetto Intercollegiate. The low against par came in the final round of the Bank of Tennessee Intercollegiate (-6 - 282).

• Individually, the Mocs had 61 par or better rounds led by Jaeger's 18. That's a new season high for Jaeger and ties former teammate Fredrik Qvicker (2007-10) for second-best at UTC behind Hodge's 21 in 2007-08. Jaeger now has 47 for his career which is also tied with Qvicker for third most in the record books behind Hodge (64) and Rende (54). Fox's 13 this year is three more than his previous high of 10 last year.

• Jaeger does own one school record - career scoring average (72.44). His 92 total counting scores rank fifth all-time, while his percentage (92.9%) is fourth. He counted in all 30 rounds played this season and is just the fourth UTC golfer to turn the trick with Rende, 34 of 34 in 2009-10, and Matt Brock (2001-04) who did it twice.

• Weilguni had an outstanding spring after a slow start to his career. He made the season's turn shooting 75.0 strokes per round in the fall. Weilguni averaged a stellar 72.78 in the spring portion of the slate with two of his three top 10s. Over a four-tournament stretch (Bank of Tenn. Int.-Linger Longer Inv.), Weilguni shot three under through 12 rounds with eight of 11 par or better rounds.

The other four are from Europe (Simon Forslund - Sweden, Stephan Jaeger - Germany, Chris Robb - Scotland, Benni Weilguni - Austria).

• All five starters return in 2011-12 along with two reserves. Forslund and Lockhart are leaving the program, while top Scottish junior Liam Johnston is the lone addition. Johnston was runner-up in the Scottish Boys Match Play in April.

SEASON IN REVIEW

• Chattanooga opened the season tying for eighth at the prestigious Carpet Capital Collegiate Classic. Jaeger tied for 15th at 217 (+1).

• The Mocs finished second at the Springhill Suites Collegiate at the Country Club of South Carolina. UTC shot 866 (284-287-295) led by medalist Chris Robb's nine-under par 207. Robb carded rounds of 66, 69 and 72 to capture a win in just his second collegiate event.

• Chattanooga finished tied for seventh at the Mason Rudolph Intercollegiate at the Vanderbilt Legends Club. The Mocs shot 858 (290-282-286) and the five finished within four shots of each led by Bunn at +2 (80-67-68=215). Fox shot 216 (+3) followed by Chris Robb at 217 (+4), Stephan Jaeger at 218 (+5) and Simon Forslund at 219 (+6).

• Chattanooga ended the fall on a high note with a third-place finish at the Bank of Tennessee Intercollegiate. UTC shot level par 864 which was its best in five events. Jaeger notched a top five tying for fourth with a five-under par 211. Weilguni was one shot back tying for eighth at 212 (-4). Chattanooga beat the likes of Wake Forest (3 shots), Tennessee (9), Michigan (9), North Carolina (12), host ETSU (14) and Virginia Tech (15) among others. Thirteen of the 14 teams in the field played in 2010 NCAA Regional action.

• Chattanooga tied for fourth at the Cleveland Golf Palmetto Intercollegiate shooting 866 at Palmetto Golf Club. UTC opened with an even-par total of 280 following with 294 and 292. Weilguni ended up fourth shooting 210 (E). He started out with his season-best round of 67 (-3) and ended with a 70 (E). His fourth-place finish beat six top 100 golfers including No. 5 Bobby Wyatt of Alabama (15 shots).

• The Mocs ended in sixth at the Furman Intercollegiate shooting 878 at Furman Golf Club. UTC shot the low round of the second round with a 286 (-2) but was hampered by its opening round 303. Jaeger tied for 10th at one-under par 215 shooting rounds of 74, 69 and 72. He scored par or better on 33 of his last 36 holes.

• Chattanooga claimed second place at the Linger Longer Invitational with an even-par 864. No. 3 Alabama (-18) won the event on the backs of Cory Whitsett (-13) and Bud Cauley (-12) combining to shoot 25 under. UTC beat No. 13 Georgia and No. 15 Stanford by two shots and 2010 NCAA Semi-Finalist Florida State by eight. Jaeger tied for fourth shooting 211, minus five. He beat five top 100 collegiate golfers including Georgia's Russell Henley by eight shots. Henley is the No. 11 player in the world according to the R&A World Amateur Golf Rankings.

• The Mocs made it back-to-back second-place finishes this time at the LSU National Invitational. UTC was runner-up by a single stroke to No. 9 LSU on its home course, while topping its third top 15 program in a week in beating No. 12 Iowa by six. Jaeger won his first collegiate event shooting seven-under par 209 to beat a field that included 10 nationally-ranked players including one in the top 10. He was the lone player under par beating No. 7 Vince India (Iowa) who was runner up by seven shots.

• Chattanooga finished third at the SoCon Championship after leading at the end of the first two rounds. UTC shot three-over par 867 (287-288-292). Fox tied for fourth at two-under 214 including a final round 68 (-4). Jaeger tied for eighth at 216 (E).

• The Mocs ended their season finishing ninth at the NCAA Colorado Regional shooting one-under par 863. The sub-par total was the first of the season for the team although it did register two level par efforts (Bank of Tenn. Int. & Linger Longer Invite). Jaeger was low for UTC tying for 16th at one under, while Robb was a shot back tied for 24th at even.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COMPLEX

The Mocs have one of the finest practice homes in the country in the new Player Development Complex. A cooperative effort between UTC, The First Tee of Chattanooga and the city, the Player Development Complex provides a consistent practice home for the Chattanooga golf programs. The facility includes two practice greens (bent grass & bermuda), a full range, phenomenal short game practice area and three practice holes.
