THE OPENING TIP

Indiana is in its 112th season of college basketball and will face Chattanooga in the first game of the Hoosier Invitational. Butler, Savannah State and Gardner Webb also are involved in the event. The Hoosiers are coming off a 96-66 win over America East favorite Stony Brook on Friday night. The Mocs were 16-16 last season and are picked to win the Northern Division of the Southern Conference.

Including exhibition games, this will be the third game in 26 days during the month of November to start the season. The Hoosiers will visit Evansville on Wednesday, Nov. 16, before returning home to take on Savannah State and Gardner Webb. The Hoosiers return 93.3 percent of their scoring with 2,078 of 2,226 points returning.

THE COACHES

Indiana named Tom Crean as its 28th men's basketball coach on April 2, 2008, and is entering his fourth year with the Hoosiers. Has is 219-162 all-time as a head coach and picked up wins over No. 18 Illinois and No. 20 Minnesota last season, his first against ranked opponents at Indiana. He came to Indiana from Marquette where he was 190-96 (66.4) in nine seasons and made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2003 Final Four.

John Shulman is entering his eighth season as the head coach at Chattanooga and has an overall record of 121-106 with the Mocs.

QUICK HITS

Indiana has won 14 straight season-openers and 27 consecutive home-openers.

Tom Crean is 4-0 in season-openers at Indiana.

Freshman forward Cody Zeller posted a double-double in his Hoosier debut. Zeller shared game-high honors with 16 points, collected a game-high 10 rebounds and recorded three steals, two blocks and two assists in 27 minutes. He hit 5-of-6 from the floor and 6-of-8 from the foul line. Zeller is the third true freshmen in the last four years to record a double-double in his debut. Tom Pritchard (Northwestern State - Nov. 15, 2008) and Christian Watford (Howard - Nov. 13, 2009) accomplished the feat.

Sophomore Victor Oladipo matched a career-high with 16 points on 7-of-9 shooting. The sophomore guard played 24 minutes and added six rebounds and two steals. Oladipo has reached double figures 11 times in his career. His defense was also credited with holding the Seawolves to a 5-of-20 effort from beyond the arc.

Sophomore forward Will Sheehey led the Hoosiers with 13 points off the bench on 5-of-6 shooting from the field and 2-of-2 from the foul line. Sheehey also pulled down five boards and added one steal and one assist in just 10 minutes. The Stuart, Fla., native has four double-figure scoring games in his career.

Junior forward Derek Elston gave Indiana four scorers in double figures with 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting. The junior forward had two rebounds, one assist and one steal in 14 minutes. Elston has reached double figures 12 times in his career.

Indiana shot 65.4 percent (34-of-52) in the game, the second-best percentage in the Tom Crean Era. The Hoosiers shot 67.4 percent (29-of-43) against Michigan on Jan. 15, 2011. The Michigan game was also the last time IU shot over 60 percent.

ABOUT THE MOCS

The Mocs and coach John Shulman are favored to win the Northern Division of the Southern Conference. Senior Omar Wattad and Ricky Taylor are key with the former averaging a team-high 14.3 ppg, and the latter helped out with 13.0 ppg. The duo will be even stronger thanks to the court vision of Keegan Bell. The guard only posted 9.7 ppg last year, but his passing ability is second to none in the SoCon, and that was proven by his 182 assists last season. The biggest question mark will be in the paint, as Chris Early seems like the only true rebounding threat with any experience. Early finished second on the team last year with 6.3 rpg. The Mocs are 2-16 against Big Ten foes and are 25-9 in their season openers as a Division I member. This will be the second visit to Assembly Hall for the Mocs. They fell 99-79 in the 2007 season opener and were ahead at halftime against the Eric Gordon-led Hoosiers, 50-46.

CHEANEY BACK HOME

One of the most decorated players to ever wear the Cream and Crimson, is returning to Bloomington to rejoin the Hoosiers men's basketball program as former IU All-American and National Player of the Year Calbert Cheaney has been named Director of Basketball Operations.

Cheaney, an Evansville native who played 13 seasons in the NBA following his career at Indiana, returns to Bloomington after spending the last two years working for the Golden State Warriors.

Cheaney was a three time All-American (1991,92, 93) for the Hoosiers who was named College Player of the Year and winning both the Wooden and Naismith Awards and Big Ten Player of the Year following his senior year. He is the all-time leading scorer in Big Ten history with 2,613 points and led Indiana to a 105-27 record a Final Four appearance in 1992 and a No. 1 ranking for most of the 1993 season. He averaged 22.4 points and 6.2 rebounds as a senior.

For his career at Indiana, he averaged 19.8 points, 5.2 rebounds and made 55.9 percent of his field goal attempts, 43.8 percent of his three-point field attempts and 79.0 percent of his free throws. He also holds the school record for field goals made with 1,018.

Three times he was named first team All-Big Ten and four times he played in the NCAA Tournament. For his accomplishments, he was inducted into the IU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

He was the sixth player chosen in the 1993 NBA Draft and the Harrison High School product played 13 seasons in the NBA, amassing career averages of 9.5 points, 3.2 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 26.7 minutes in 825 regular-season games with Washington, Boston, Denver, Utah and Golden State. Cheaney averaged double figures in scoring in each of his first five NBA seasons, including a career-high 16.6 points per game during his sophomore NBA campaign with the Bullets in 1994-95.

He began his post-playing career at Golden State where he worked in the team's front office as a special assistant in 2009-10. In his front office role, Cheaney worked closely with the team's players to assist with their overall personal and professional development, while also assisting the entire basketball operations staff with various functions, including pro player evaluation. Last year, he moved to the bench to serve as an assistant to former IU great Keith Smart. He also has made quite an impact in the Evansville community off the court, having built the Greater St. James Community Recreation and Education Center in 1998.

HOOSIERS IN THE OPENER

Freshman Cody Zeller scored 16 points, grabbed 10 rebounds, blocked two shots, added three steals and helped his teammates find open lanes in his college debut as the Indiana men's basketball team opened the 2011-12 campaign with a 96-66 triumph over Stony Brook at Assembly Hall on Friday evening.

Sophomore Victor Oladipo matched his career-high with 16 points, sophomore Will Sheehey added 13 points to lead all scorers off the bench, junior Derek Elston poured in 11 points, also off the bench, and the Hoosiers rolled to their 14th consecutive opening-night victory.

IU has now won 27 consecutive home openers and produced its largest season-opening victory since a 34-point win over Nicholls State in 2005.

The Hoosiers pushed the tempo, hit 3-pointers and traded punches with an experienced, physical team that nearly made last season's NCAA tournament. They never allowed the Seawolves to get closer than 12 points over the final 22 minutes.

Indiana held a 29-25 advantage with 4:08 remaining in the opening half and roared into the locker room with a 17-point lead following a 16-3 run.

Stony Brook trailed 53-39 with 16:23 to go, but the Hoosiers ran off 10-straight points to push the lead over 20 points, a benchmark they maintained the rest of the ballgame.

Oladipo added six rebounds and two steals, while Sheehey posted five rebounds.

Senior Verdell Jones III finished with a game-high seven assists to go along with his seven points, and Austin Etherington hit all three of his shots, including a pair of 3-pointers, to net eight points in his debut.

ADDITIONAL POSTGAME NOTES

- IU reached the 70-percent mark in the second half, hitting 19-of-27 (70.4). The Hoosiers last shot 70 percent in a half in the second half in the Michigan game (70.8).

- The Hoosiers' 21 assists are their highest total since delivering 24 against South Carolina State on Dec. 19, 2010.

- Indiana hit 7-of-14 from 3-point range, reaching the 50-percent mark for the first time since hitting 52.4 (11-of-21) vs. Michigan State on Jan. 30, 2011.

- IU also shot 87.5 percent from the free throw line, connecting on 21-of-24 in the game. Indiana last made 20 free throws vs. Wisconsin (21) on March 3, 2011. The Hoosiers also shot over 80 percent in that game (80.8).

- The Hoosiers 96 points are their most since a 102-point effort vs. South Carolina State on Dec. 19, 2010, and their third-highest total in the Crean Era.

- Indiana held an edge in points in the paint (34-26), points off turnovers (14-12), fastbreak points (8-2) and bench points (46-40).

- Junior forward Derek Elston gave Indiana four scorers in double figures with 11 points on 5-of-6 shooting. The junior forward had two rebounds, one assist and one steal in 14 minutes. Elston has reached double figures 12 times in his career.

- Indiana last had four players in double figures at Michigan on Feb. 12, 2011.

- Senior Verdell Jones III delivered a game-high seven assists and scored seven points in a game-high 28 minutes. The senior guard is IU's 33rd all-time scorer with 1,129 career points.

- Junior guard Jordan Hulls scored four points and dished out six assists in 27 minutes.

- Junior forward Christian Watford scored seven points and senior guard Matt Roth added eight points on a pair of 3-pointers and two free throws.

- True freshman forward Austin Etherington poured in eight points in his Hoosier debut, connecting on all three field goal attempts, including two 3-pointers.

- Senior guard Daniel Moore hit a pair of free throws, took a charge and finished with an assist and rebound.

- Freshman Remy Abell also saw his first action and the true freshman guard scored four points with two rebounds, one steal and one assist.

- Senior forward Kory Barnett posted one assist and one steal, while redshirt freshman guard Raphael Smith was the fourth Hoosier to make his debut.

- All 16 Hoosiers that dressed saw the court this evening.

MO, SAY IT AIN'T SO

Junior guard Maurice Creek underwent surgery October 10 to repair a torn Achilles tendon he suffered away from the basketball court in his left leg.

It is the third serious injury he has suffered in the past 22 months. Creek had surgery to repair a broken left patella in late December of 2009 and last year he was shut down after a stress fracture in his right patella ended his season in January.

This latest injury had no impact on either of his previous injuries to his knees. In 30 total games for the Hoosiers, he is averaging 11.5 points and is shooting 37.1 percent from three-point range. He averaged 16.4 points as a freshman and 8.3 points last year. His career-high came when he knocked down 31 points against Kentucky as a freshman.

HULLS SETS IU FREE THROW MARK

Jordan Hulls made 4-of-4 free throw attempts at Illinois to break the Indiana record for most consecutive free throws in a season at 41. He broke the old mark of 38 set by Pat Graham in 1990-91. Hulls also finished the Big Ten season making all 35 of his attempts in 16 games. The only Hoosier to start all 31 games this season, Hulls hit 52-of-57 overall last season for 91.2 percent.

ANOTHER HULLS NOTE

Junior Jordan Hulls is ranked first in the Big Ten and seventh in the nation among the junior class by making 40.6 percent of his 3-point field goal attempts.

THE ZELLER BROTHERS

Cody Zeller posted 16 points, 10 rebounds, two assists, two blocks and three steals in his first collegiate game. His oldest brother, Luke, did not score in his first game at Notre Dame against Lafayette in 2005 and middle brother, Tyler, had 18 points and two boards against Penn in 2008 in his collegiate debut.

HOOSIER HISTORY

IU is third all-time in NCAA Championships (5), fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (35), sixth in NCAA Tournament victories (60), seventh in Final Four appearances (8) and 11th in overall victories (1,663). Indiana has won 20 Big Ten Championships and has the best winning percentage in conference games only at nearly 60 percent. No team has had more All-Big Ten selections than IU with 53.

The Hoosiers will host the 2011 Hoosier Invitational, an exempt tournament featuring IU, Chattanooga, Savannah State, Gardner-Webb and Butler.

The Hoosiers will face all four teams in games at Assembly Hall in November and will be televised by the Big Ten Network.

The Close the Gap Crossroads Classic, a product of the coming together of the four most storied college basketball programs in the state of Indiana, was finalized August 16, 2010.

Barry Collier of Butler, Fred Glass of Indiana, Jack Swarbrick of Notre Dame and Purdue's Morgan Burke each signed the Memorandum of Understanding, which provides for the event to be held in the state capital in both 2011 and 2012.

The Close the Gap Crossroads Classic will be held on Dec. 17, 2011, and again on Dec. 15, 2012, at Conseco Fieldhouse. Game times and ticket information will be announced at a later date.

The newly formed Close the Gap Crossroads Classic is a nod to the Hoosier Classic of years past, when the four schools played a doubleheader non-conference showcase at Butler's Hinkle Fieldhouse.

DID YOU KNOW?

THE HOOSIERS UNDER COAH TOM CREAN
POSTED A PERFECT APR SCORE LAST SPRING.

- Averaged over 20 wins a season in nine years at Marquette and led the Golden Eagles to five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2003 Final Four.

- In 12 years as a head coach on the collegiate level, he is 219-162 and has seen all 36 of the seniors who have played for him earn college degrees, and had Matt Roth graduate from IU in three years.

- Since coming to Indiana, he and his staff recruited one of the top 10 classes in the country for 2009 and a top 15 class in 2011

- During the 2010-11 season, IU posted its first top 25 wins during the Crean era with home victories over Illinois and Minnesota.

- Following the 2009-10 season, Verdell Jones III develop into an All-Big Ten performer and saw Christian Watford named Big Ten Freshman of the Year by Sporting News and FoxSports.com.

- Over his final seven seasons at Marquette, he compiled an aggregate record of 160-68 (.702).

- He is a two-time recipient of the Ray Meyer Conference USA, NABC District XI and USBWA District V Coach of the Year awards, and in 2003 won the Coach Clair Bee Award as well as being named a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award.

- In his nine years with the Golden Eagles, Crean's teams earned five NCAA Tournament bids, one more than the previous four Marquette coaches had in the 16 years prior to his arrival.

- Coached Dwyane Wade to the program's first conference Player of the Year award in 2003. Wade also went on to become the first Marquette player since 1978 to be named an AP first team All-American and finalist for the John R. Wooden Award.

- Dominic James was a first team all-conference selection in 2006-07 as well, while McNeal was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year.

- In 2006, Steve Novak was a unanimous first team all-conference selection and went on to be selected by the Houston Rockets in the NBA Draft.

- Travis Diener's was an All-America selection in 2005 and was selected 38th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 2005 Draft and has also played for the Portland Trail Blazers and Indiana Pacers.

- The 2002-03 campaign was one of the finest in Golden Eagle history, as Marquette made a Final Four appearance for the first time since winning the NCAA Championship in 1977.

- MU won 27 games that year, 14 in conference play, thanks in part to the play of Wade in his All-America season. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season ranked No. 9 by the Associated Press and No. 6 in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll and their .818 winning percentage was the program's best since 1977-78.

- Prior to his arrival in Milwaukee, Crean served under Tom Izzo on the Michigan State basketball staff for four seasons, holding the position of associate head coach the last two.

- Crean also served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator, where he routinely lured some of the nation's top talent to East Lansing, including two-time Big Ten Player of the Year Mateen Cleaves and two-time first team All-Big Ten selection Morris Peterson.

- In Crean's four years on Izzo's staff, the Spartans put together an 88-41 record and made four consecutive postseason appearances, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. In each of Crean's four seasons, MSU's win total increased, culminating with a 33-5 season and a 15-1 Big Ten ledger in 1999.

- Prior to his tenure at Michigan State, Crean spent the 1994-95 season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh.

- He served as the associate head coach at Western Kentucky from 1990 to 1994, and in each of his final two seasons with the Hilltoppers, WKU earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, including a Sun Belt Championship and a trip to the Sweet 16.

- Crean got his start in coaching on the Division I level in 1989-90, serving on Jud Heathcote's staff at Michigan State. That team posted a 28-6 record and earned a Sweet 16 trip after winning the Big Ten.

- A native of Mount Pleasant, Crean earned his bachelor's degree in parks and recreation with a minor in psychology from Central Michigan in 1989. While pursuing his degree, Crean coached basketball at Alma College and Mount Pleasant High School.

- Tom and his wife, Joani, are the parents of Megan, 16, Riley, 12, and Ainsley, 6.

- Joani's father, Jack Harbaugh, was a long-time college football coach who won a Division I-AA national championship while coaching at Western Kentucky.

- Her brother, Jim, played quarterback at Michigan and for the Indianapolis Colts and is currently the head football coach for the San Francisco 49ers after spending the previous four years as the head coach at Stanford.

- Another brother, John, is in his second year as the head coach of the Baltimore Ravens. He was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1998-2006 after joining Cam Cameron's staff at Indiana for the 1997 season as a defensive backs/special teams coach.

Indiana University's basketball program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield Communications holds the exclusive rights as Indiana University's official radio outlet.

Headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo., Learfield Communications also owns the multi-media rights to 26 leading universities.

DON FISCHER

Don Fischer is about to begin his 39th year as the "Radio Voice" of Indiana University football and basketball games. The past 24 years, Fischer has worked as an independent contractor, and is currently serving the I.U. Radio Network owned by Learfield Communications out of Jefferson City, Missouri. In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly Coaches talk shows for both football and basketball, and has a daily show, Monday through Friday, from September through March. The daily show is called "IU Sports Today" and is syndicated throughout the state of Indiana. Fischer also offers stations a weekly talk show about I.U. football and basketball that airs in several markets around the state during the school year.

Fischer does free lance sportscasting, which for the past 17 years has included being the Television voice of the Indianapolis Colts for their pre season games.

During his 38 years of work with I.U., Fischer has been named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year 25 times by two different organizations. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association has awarded him 21 times (including 2010), while the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association has named him their honoree 4 times. The Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association inducted Fischer into the ISSA Hall of Fame in 2004. Just this past year, Fischer was inducted into the Indiana Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. He has won several awards for best play by play, and has been honored by Indiana University with the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal, that goes to non alumni for distinguished service to the University. He has also been named an Honorary "I" Man.

In addition, the City of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service and abilities as the play by play broadcaster for I.U.

Fischer has broadcast over 1600 Indiana University games that include eight Bowl games, four NCAA basketball Championship games, and two N.I.T. Championship games. From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC, and several other major market radio stations including WIRE in Indianapolis as their source for games during the month of May coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that 14 year period, he also served Indianapolis radio station WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their Sports Director.

A native of Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 43 years with stops in Butte, Montana; Ottawa, Ill.; Springfield, Ill.; and Terre Haute, Ind.

Fischer has four sons, and nine grandchildren. He and his wife Susy reside in Greenwood, Ind.

ROYCE WALTMAN

Former Indiana assistant coach Royce Waltman is in his second season as the color analyst for all Indiana men's basketball games.

Waltman boasts an already familiar tie to IU having served as an assistant coach with Head Coach Bobby Knight from 1982-1987. He then became head coach of DePauw University (1988-1992), University of Indianapolis (1992-'97) and Indiana State University (1997-2007). He won 100 or more games at each of these schools and led all three to the NCAA National Tournament. Most recently, he had returned to coaching at the high school ranks serving as assistant coach at Roncalli High School in Indianapolis.

JOE SMITH

Joe Smith is in his 29th year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime, and post-game duties for Indiana football and men's basketball since 1983.

Smith, the sports director of WGCL-AM 1370 in Bloomington, is in his 42nd year of radio broadcasting in Bloomington. He began his broadcasting career in 1969 at WAIK Radio in Galesburg, Ill. From 1973-89, Joe worked on "RFD-4 Agri-Business Show" on WTTV-4 with the late Bob Cook. In 1998, Smith was named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year and in April 2003, he was inducted into the Indiana Sportswriters/Sportscasters Hall of Fame. Joe handled the IU TV Warmup Shows from 1978-82 and hosted several IU Coaches Shows from 1983-96 and again from 2002-04.

In June 2004, Smith received the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Joe has two children, both of whom are Indiana University graduates. Jeff, who currently resides in Indianapolis with his wife, Kristen, is a 2002 graduate with a bachelor's degree in sport communications. Joe's daughter, Jamie, who is married to Eric Graebe and currently resides in Kill Devil Hills, N.C. earned her bachelor's degree from Indiana University in kinesiology in 2005, and her master's in sports management at the University of Tennessee in 2006.
