GAME #15: THURSDAY, JAN. 5, 2012

Western Carolina (7-7, 2-0) at Chattanooga (6-9, 0-2)
Chattanooga, Tenn. – McKenzie Arena (10,928) – 7:00 pm

CATAMOUNTBASKETBALL

WESTERN CAROLINA VS. CHATTANOOGA – THE SERIES:

Western Carolina trails Chattanooga in the all-time series, 20-56 with the first-ever meeting between the two coming back in 1969 ... WCU has lost 31 of the 33 all-time meetings at McKenzie Arena – the Catamounts' last road win came in 2007, a three-point, 75-73, victory at McKenzie Arena ... WCU has also posted just a 1-3 all-time record in SoCon Tournament play in games held in the McKenzie Arena, earning its first tourney win a season ago in the quarterfinal victory over UNCG, 77-66 ... WCU has lost four-straight on the road in the series ... Over the past five seasons, the two squads have split the two regular season meetings, winning on its respective home court each of the past three years ... Chattanooga was the last team to sweep the seasonal meetings, winning nine-straight from 2000-06.

CATAMOUNTS VS. MOCS IN THE SOCON NORTH DIVSION:

Western Carolina and Chattanooga have been at the top of the Southern Conference's North Division over the past several seasons ... In 2008-09, the two shared the North Division crown following the Catamounts' 86-77 home win over the Mocs while UTC went on to claim the conference tournament crown ... Predicted to win the SoCon North two years ago, WCU finished second in 2009-10 behind arch-rival Appalachian State ... Last season, the Catamounts earned a share of the North Division title by downing South Division leader, the College of Charleston, 70-62, in Cullowhee on the final day of the regular season ... WCU earned the top seed in the SoCon basketball tournament.

A WESTERN CAROLINA VICTORY WOULD:

– Be the Catamounts first road win in the series with UTC since 2007, halting a four-game slide and giving Larry Hunter two road wins in the series history;
–Give Western Carolina three-straight wins in SoCon play to open the conference slate, marking just the fourth time since joining the league in 1977 – and the second under Hunter who's 2008-09 squad also started 3-0 in SoCon play ... WCU's best-ever start to league action came in 1994-95 as the Catamounts won their first four games, all of which came at home;
– Allow WCU to keep pace in the SoCon North Division race with Elon, which also started 2-0.

at CHATTANOOGA

SERIES HISTORY:
Overall:
WCU trails 20-56 (W–1)
In Chattanooga:

THIS IS WESTERN CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

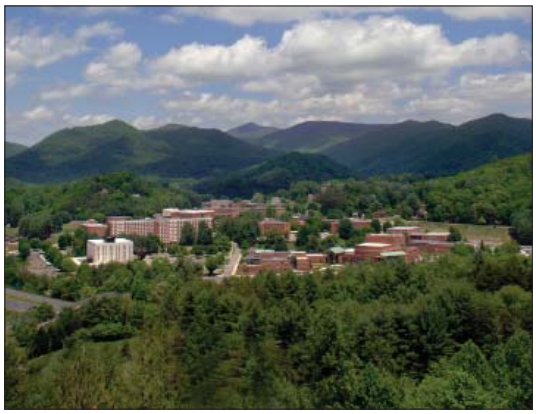
WESTERN CAROLINA UNIVERSITY, a regional comprehensive university within the University of North Carolina system, is located on 589 acres in a picturesque valley between the Blue Ridge and Great Smoky mountains in southwestern North Carolina. WCU is 55 miles west of Asheville, N.C., two hours east of Knoxville, Tenn., and approximately three hours north of Atlanta, Ga. Western offers career-focused education through nationally accredited programs, as well as abundant opportunities for research and recreation in the nearby mountains.



Western Carolina's student enrollment, including 9,500 undergraduate, graduate and online students, is at an all-time high. The university attracts students from across North Carolina and the United States, and from around the world, with special emphasis on serving the people of Western North Carolina. As a major public resource, Western engages with the region by assisting individuals and agencies through the expertise of its students, faculty and staff.

With a student-faculty ratio of 18-to-1, Western continues its long tradition of offering small class sizes and personal attention from its outstanding faculty. The fully networked campus offers convenient access to computer support, and students are required to have networkable computers. The university offers more than 120 majors and areas of concentration for undergraduates, and graduate students may choose from 51 areas of study at the master's level, as well as pursue doctoral studies in education.

WCU's residential Honors College, the first of its kind in the North Carolina system, now enrolls more than 900 students, providing a focused living and learning environment for those seeking advanced academic challenges and more choices for independent study. Honors Scholars are exceptional students who take tutorial classes to prepare for regional and national research projects and compete for national and international scholarships.

Freshmen admitted to Western are automatically considered for available scholarships, based on their academic achievements. The university annually awards $1 million in merit-based scholarships and more than $30 million in needs-based aid to students. About half of the university's students receive financial assistance through scholarships, grants, loans or work-study.

Students participate in a wide range of non-academic activities, including clubs and honor societies, community service and volunteer organizations, concerts and performances at various venues on campus, Greek life, student-operated media and student government. The university also sponsors outdoor recreational programs such as hiking, rafting and snow skiing that take advantage of the university's location in one of the nation's most popular vacation areas. Western Carolina also offers club sports and intramurals that involve about one-quarter of the student body.

HEAD COACH: Larry Hunter (Ohio '71) • 7th season at WCU; 32nd year as a head coach

ASSISTANT COACHES: Anquell McCollum (Western Carolina '00) • 8th season at WCU

Eric Wilson (Western Carolina '08) • 2nd season at WCU

Brigham Waginger (Western Carolina '10) • 1st season at WCU

OPENING TIP – STORY LINES ABOUT THE 2011-12 CATAMOUNTS:

– One-year after WCU played 13 of its first 15 games away from home to open the 2010-11 season, the Catamounts played SEVEN of their first EIGHT away from home ... All told, 10 of Western Carolina's first 15 games in 2011-12 will be played away from Cullowhee;

– Western Carolina is averaging 66.4 points per game ... Four players have started every game this season and are accounting for 65-percent of the scoring on the year (603 of 930 points) ... All told, the Catamounts' projected starting line-up is accounting for 68.8-percent of the offense on the season;

– Trey Sumler was the lone Catamount named to the preseason All-SoCon team ... Sumler was the SoCon's Freshman of the Year a season ago ... He is one of two former league rookies of the year on this seasons WCU squad as Harouna Mutombo earned the honor in 2008-09;

– WCU was picked third in the SoCon's North Division by both the coaches and voting media.

– Western Carolina enters the 2011-12 season with just three seniors including redshirt senior Harouna Mutombo, Keaton Cole and Sam Smithson. Otherwise, the squad is made up of underclassmen including seven sophomores with a pair of true freshmen ... Mutombo and Cole were named team captains by head coach Larry Hunter prior to the season;

– WCU has to replace two of its three leading scorers from a season ago as Mike Williams (graduation) paced the squad with a 15.4 point per game average and Richie Gordon (graduation) – who garnered the SoCon's Defensive Player of the Year honor last season – averaged 10.2 points per outing. The Catamounts do return double-digit point production from Harouna Mutombo at 10.1 points per game overall – mark that included a 13.1 point scoring average over the final 18 games of 2010-11.

CATAMOUNTS AGAINST BASKETBALL PERENNIALS UNDER LARRY HUNTER:

WCU has managed several premier victories over larger conference foes under head coach Larry Hunter ... Last season, the Catamounts backed up the 2009-10 road win over Big East foe, #29 Louisville, with a road win over a storied DePaul program ... In '08, the Cats scored an overtime win over Kent State after securing a 2-1 mark in the Great Alaska Shootout – falling by one-point against San Diego State ... WCU also has wins over the likes of Duquesne (2009) and three-consecutive victories over Missouri Valley Conference-foe, Bradley.

TREY SUMLER NAMED A BOB COUSY AWARD CANDIDATE:

WCU redshirt sophomore guard Trey Sumler was listed among a list of 65 candidates for the 2012 Bob Cousy Award announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. ... The annual award, named for Hall of Famer and former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy, recognizes college basketball's top point guard ... Sumler is one of four from the Southern Conference on the list, joined by Chattanooga's Keegan Bell, J.P. Kuhlman from Davidson and Andrew Lawrence from the College of Charleston ... WCU has faced two additional candidates on the initial list in Lewis Jackson from Purdue and Lorenzo Brown from N.C. State ... WCU's Mike Williams was named a candidate for the award a season ago.

HAROUNA MUTOMBO CONTINUES CLIMB IN WCU'S 1,000-POINT CLUB:

Redshirt senior HAROUNA MUTOMBO is the 39th different Catamount to score over 1,000 points in his career ... Mutombo currently ranks 20th in school history with 1,299 points – second among active SoCon players in career scoring ... Mutombo recently by-passed former teammate Jake Robinson (1,287 from 2006-10) ... Mutombo is the third different Catamount to join the "1,000-Point Club" over the past three years, joining former standouts Brandon Giles (16th, 1,424) and Robinson (22nd, 1,287). (MORE SEE PG. 4)

KEEPIN' IT BELOW THE CENTURY MARK:

Western Carolina has not allowed an opponent to score 100 points in 132-straight games ... The streak has been on-going since December 15, 2007 when No. 13 Indiana picked up a 100-52 victory over the Catamounts in Bloomington, Indiana.

COLE SHOOTING FOR 3-POINTER TOP-TEN AT WESTERN CAROLINA:

Senior guard Keaton Cole continues to climb towards the Catamounts' all-time 3-pointers made Top 10 ... Including a career-high five made treys in the home win over UNCG, Cole has 126 in his four-year WCU career ... The Toronto, Ontario, Canada native is just FIVE made 3-pointers shy of 10th-place David Donerlson who made 131 from 1989-90.

RECENT TRENDS FOR THE CATAMOUNTS:

– Keaton Cole has been on-fire beyond the 3-point arc, making three-or-more treys in his past SEVEN of his past EIGHT games including a career-high five triples in the home win over UNCG ... Cole paced the team in scoring at Bradley, scoring all 13 points in the second half;

– WCU has increased its 3-pointers per game average to an even 7.0 through the first 14 games with 98 total made treys ... the Catamounts have thrived beyond the arc during Larry Hunter's tenure in Cullowhee, averaging over seven made 3-pointers per game each season prior to last year when it averaged just 5.75 per contest.

CATAMOUNT TRACKS – MISC. GAME NOTES:

– Western Carolina improved to 15-20 overall in Southern Conference openers with the victory at Samford ... the Catamounts are 5-2 in the seven seasons under head coach Larry Hunter in the first SoCon game of the year;

– Western Carolina opened its season-long, six-game road swing with a win seven-point win at Presbyterian ... the victory was quantified just a few days later as the Blue Hose turned around and upset then-No. 20 Cincinnati on the road;

– Brandon Boggs scored a career-high 35 points in the neutral court loss to Northern Colorado in the South Padre Island Invitational, connecting on a career-best 12 field goals and five 3-pointers ... Boggs' 35 points marked the first 30-or-more point performance by a Catamount since Brandon Giles scored 32 in a two-point loss to the College of Charleston back in 2007 ... Boggs' 35-point performance is currently the top individual scoring performance in the SoCon this season;

– Western Carolina's Mike Williams led the league in steals last year (2.0 spg) making it four consecutive seasons that a Catamount has led the Southern Conference in steals ... Brigham Waginger, now an assistant coach at WCU, led the league in steals three consecutive seasons (2008-10) ... WCU currently ranks THIRD in steals as a team (7.4) ... Harouna Mutombo ranks eighth (1.4) while Keaton Cole and Trey Sumler rank tied for 12th (1.2 spg).

HOME-SWEET-HOME IN THE RAMSEY CENTER:

All told, the Catamounts have won 41 of their last 47 home games including 27 of the last 31 Southern Conference games in Cullowhee ... Over the past three seasons, WCU is 39-5 (.886) at home ... During head coach Larry Hunter's tenure, the Catamounts are 62-20 (.756) at home over the past seven years ... Western Carolina went 14-2 at home in the 2009-10 season in the Ramsey Center to set a school facility record for wins and posted an 11-1 mark last year.

NON-CONFERENCE FOES IN THE RAMSEY CENTER:

Western Carolina had its 10-game home winning streak against nonconference foes snapped with the two-point defeat to Kent State back on Dec. 10 ... WCU has secured victories in 15 of the last 18 home meetings with non-league teams ... Since 2003, WCU is 32-6 against non-conference foes in Ramsey ... Under head coach Larry Hunter, the Catamounts are 22-5 (.815) in home games against non-SoCon foes.

UP NEXT FOR WESTERN CAROLINA – WCU RETURNS HOME TO HOST WOFFORD:

Western Carolina hosts defending Southern Conference tournament champion, Wofford, in the back-end of a Catamount hoops double-header on Saturday, Jan. 7 ... Both games will be broadcast locally by WMYA-TV out of Asheville ...

BRANDON BOGGS NAMED TO SPI ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM:

Sophomore guard Brandon Boggs was named to the 11-member South Padre Island Invitational All-tournament team as selected following competition ... Each one of the eight teams put at least one member on the squad with Iowa State landing two and Northern Iowa putting three including the tourney MVP ... Boggs averaged 13.5 points per game in the four games of the event including a team-high 21.5 points in the two games played in Texas ... the Greenville, S.C., native scored a career-high 35 points to pace the Catamounts against Northern Colorado, which included scoring 31 in the second half alone.

HUNTER SECURES 600TH CAREER COACHING VICTORY:

Larry Hunter reached a career milestone on Tuesday, Nov. 15 by claiming his 600th career victory with the 109-63 win over Montreat ... According to available research, Hunter (604-329, .647) became the 61st NCAA men's basketball coach all-time at all levels and 38th at the NCAA Division I level including the 12TH ACTIVE COACH to reach the 600-win plateau ... Hunter joins the likes of all-time wins leader – Mike Krzyzewski; Jim Boeheim, Jim Calhoun, Bob Huggins, Roy Williams, Jerry Slocum, Bo Ryan, Cliff Ellis, Mike Montgomery, Rick Byrd and Rick Pitino among the active coaches with 600 victories ... Hunter has scored a combined 95 of his 604 career victories in Cullowhee after taking over a Catamount program which had suffered five-consecutive losing seasons including three with single-digit win totals ... Hunter has guided WCU to three-consecutive winning seasons – the program's longest run of above-.500 finishes since five-consecutive winning seasons from 1979 through 1984 ... He has helped claim two of WCU's three SoCon divisional titles including sharing the North Division crown in two of the past three years ... He also led the Catamounts to their first-ever, 20-win season as a NCAA Division I program, halting a drought of 38 years between milestone seasons. (SEE MORE ON PAGE 6)

CATAMOUNT COACHING CONNECTION – FAMILIAR LOOK ON THE WCU BENCH:

Western Carolina's assistant coaching staff features three former players including two that played for the Catamounts under Larry Hunter's tutelage in Cullowhee:

– Anquell McCollum (1993-96): the 1996 Southern Conference Player of the Year for the Catamounts who continues to rank sixth in school-history with 1,777 career points and is second with 245 career 3-pointers made;

– Eric Wilson (2004-08): started his WCU career as a walk-on but earned a scholarship from Hunter during his sophomore season ... scored 454 career points including 55 career 3-pointers, but is best remembered for his defensive prowess and hard-work;

– Brigham Waginger (2006-10): the most recent to graduate, was recruited by Hunter ... set the school-record for steals in a career with 285 and became the only SoCon player to lead the league in steals for three-consecutive seasons.

– Other notable former WCU assistants currently in the NCAA coaching ranks include Big Ten-member Ohio State head coach, Thad Matta, who was on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1995-96, SoCon-Championship season ... Current N.C. State assistant coach Orlando Early was also a part of the 1996 Catamount coaching staff.

CATAMOUNTS POST THIRD-CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASON:

Western Carolina finished the 2010-11 season 18-15 overall – the program's third-straight winning season, the longest run of above-.500 finishes since five-consecutive winning seasons from 1979 through '84 ... the Catamounts claimed a school-record 12 victories in Southern Conference play en route to the program's third divisional title – and second in the past three seasons – sharing the SoCon North Division crown with UTC.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE – NOTES ON WCU AND THE 3-POINT SHOT:

– In four of the six seasons in which head coach Larry Hunter has been at the helm, the Catamounts have set school records for made 3-pointers in a season – 221 in his first season; 226 in his second; 237 in 2007-08 ... WCU just missed the school benchmark with 233 made treys in 2008-09, but made 274 3-pointers to establish another new benchmark;

– The Catamounts fell short of the 200 made 3-pointers plateau a season ago, connecting on just 190 during the 2010-11 season ... it is the fewest made 3-pointers by a WCU squad under Larry Hunter ... In 2009-10, WCU averaged 8.06 made 3-pointers per game (274 in 34 games), to set a school-record, breaking the previous mark of 7.65 made 3's per game.

– WCU has made at least one 3-pointer in 400+ straight games dating back to 2/15/97.

LOOKING BACK – NOTING THE 2010-11 WESTERN CAROLINA CATAMOUNTS:

– In 2010-11, Western Carolina won its second Southern Conference divisional title in the past three years ... the Catamounts also shared the North Division crown with Chattanooga during the 2008-09 season ... It is the third division championship for WCU in program history, winning the 1995-96 South Division title before going on to claim the 1996 Southern Conference Tournament Championship;

– WCU was a No. 1 seed in the SoCon tournament for just the second-time in program history, garnering the other top seed in the 1996 tournament in Greensboro, N.C., after claiming the SoCon South Division title;

– The Catamounts won eight of their final nine regular season games to claim the share of the divisional crown after starting the 2010-11 season with a 4-10 overall record;

– Western Carolina finished the season 18-15 overall – the program's third-straight winning season, the longest run of above-.500 finishes since five-consecutive winning seasons from 1979 through '84 ... The Catamounts claimed a school-record 12 victories in Southern Conference play en route to the program's third divisional title ... WCU also took care of the home court in the Ramsey Center, boasting an 11-1 record in Cullowhee;

– Western Carolina won a school-record 12 games in SoCon play last season ... It also marked just the fifth-time since joining the league that the Catamounts have secured double-digit conference victories – and the third-consecutive year;

– RICHIE GORDON was named the Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year – the second-straight season a Catamount earned the honor as BRIGHAM WAGINGER was the 2009-10 co-Defensive Player of the Year;

– Western Carolina's MIKE WILLIAMS and HAROUNA MUTOMBO were named to the Southern Conference All-Tournament team at the conclusion of the 2011 men's basketball championship at UTC's McKenzie Arena ... Both earned second team plaudits as the 10-member squad was comprised completely of players on squads that advanced to the SoCon semifinals ... It is the first time since the 1996 championship run – and only the seventh-time since joining the league – that Western Carolina has put more than one player on the SoCon All-tournament team ... Mutombo garnered all-tournament honors for the second-straight season and the first for Williams ... Williams averaged 19.0 points in two tournament games including a career-high 25 points against eventual tourney champion, Wofford, while Mutombo scored an average of 18.5 points per game with a double-double against Wofford in the semifinals (17 points, 11 rebounds);

– Mutombo became the first WCU player since current assistant coach Anquell McCollum to earn multiple all-tournament team honors ... He is also just the sixth different Catamount to earn multiple all-tournament team recognition during their career joining Greg Dennis (1980, '81); Terry Boyd (1991, '92); Frankie King (1994, '95); Kevin Kullum (1995, '96) and McCollum (1994, '95, '96).

WCU 2012-13 RECRUITING CLASS / EARLY SIGNEES

Western Carolina seventh-year head men's basketball head coach Larry Hunter announced the signing of four student-athletes to National Letters of Intent (NLI) to begin play for the Catamounts in the 2012-13 season. MIKE BROWN (Charlotte, N.C./West Charlotte HS), JUSTIN BROWNING (Sylacauga, Ala./Sylacauga HS), TORRION BRUMMITT (Columbus, Ga./Shaw HS) and RHETT HARRELSON (Enterprise, Ala./Enterprise HS).

Brown, a 6-3, 175-lbs. shooting guard, has scored 775 points in his first three high school seasons including a career-best 512 as a junior last year. As the squad's co-captain, he helped guide West Charlotte High and head coach Baronton Terry to the North Carolina 4-A State Championship with a 28-2 overall record, earning Most Valuable Player honors of the title game. WCHS defeated Raleigh Millbrook, 78-69, in the championship game in Chapel Hill.

Browning, a 6-4, 175-lbs., forward is a two-time all-county selection, helping guide Sylacauga High to a 24-7 record a season ago for head coach Josh Golden. A two-star recruit by Rivals.com, Browning has averaged 12 points and eight rebounds per game through his first three years as a prep, adding a 1.5 assist per game and three steals per contest average.

Hunter describes Browning as "a gifted athlete" who claimed the state 5-A high jump championship as a junior with a leap of 6-foot,4-inches. Last summer, he played alongside fellow WCU signee, Rhett Harrelson, this summer with the Alabama Celtics AAU team.

Brummitt is a 6-7, 220-lbs., forward from Columbus, Ga., who averaged 12.1 points and 9.0 rebounds per game last season for the Raiders and head coach Anthony Jenkins. As a sophomore, Brummitt was named Defensive Player of the Year and team MVP. Over his amateur career, he has played AAU basketball for the Georgia Blazers and the Atlanta Knicks.

Harrelson is a 5-10, 170-lbs., combo guard who is expected to be able to run the point at WCU. Already the all-time leading scorer at Enterprise High with 1,855 career points after three seasons, he enters his final year as a prep boasting a 15.7 point per game average. He has guided EHS to a pair of region championships under the tutelage of head coach Kenny Hill. Harrelson also tops his high school's career charts in steals and assists, averaging five assists and 3.5 steals per game. Entering his senior season, he has averaged 40-percent shooting from beyond the 3-point arc and 88-percent from the free throw line.

Harrelson was the first eighth-grader to play on his varsity team at Enterprise High, and was EHS's first ninth grader to make the 6-A South Regional All-Tournament team – an honor he also earned as a junior. He is a two-time, Wiregrass Super 12 selection – as chosen by the Dothan Eagle newspaper – and has twice been selected to the 6-A All-State team. He is also a two-time, 6-A Area 5 most valuable player.

In addition to his prowess on the hardwood, Harrelson is also a career-leading football player for the Wildcats boasting a school-record 4,683 career yards including 3,433 yards through the air and 36 combined touchdowns. A three-year starter, he also owns the school's single-season passing mark as well.

He played alongside fellow WCU signee, Justin Browning, last summer with the Alabama Celtics AAU team.

CATAMOUNT BASKETBALL DID YOU KNOW...?

– Western Carolina's HENRY LOGAN – the program's all-time leading scorer – helped break the color barrier in college basketball when he signed with Western Carolina in1964 becoming the first African-American collegiate athlete in the history of North Carolina and perhaps at any predominantly white institution in the southeastern United States ... Logan scored an astounding 3,290 points – an average of 30.7 points per game – during his WCU career and was a four-time NAIA All-America selection ... One of 11 in WCU's initial Athletics Hall of Fame Class, Logan was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2000.

– Western Carolina University gave birth to the 3-point shot in NCAA history as former Catamount RONNIE CARR buried the first 3-pointer in NCAA history in WCU's 77-70 victory over Middle Tennessee State on Nov. 29, 1980 ... The ball he used is on display at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. ... The shot was made from the left corner with 16:09 left in the first half (7:06 pm). Carr actually took and missed a 3-pointer from the top of the key at the 18:15 mark of the first half.

– Western Carolina finished as the 1963 NAIA National Runner-Up under head coach Jim Gudger ... WCU posted a 28-7 overall record, won the Carolina's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (CIAC) tournament and the NAIA District title ... the Catamounts then rattled off wins on consecutive days over Eastern Montana, Miles, Lewis & Clark and Fort Hayes State before falling in the championship game to Texas Pan American.

– In its only NCAA tournament appearance, the 1996 Western Carolina Catamounts nearly pulled off the most improbable of upsets as the No. 16 seed fell by two, 73-71, to No. 1 seed Purdue in Albuquerque, N.M. ... The game was tied 71-71 with under three minutes to play with Purdue's Brandon Brantley scoring the game's final bucket with 1:30 pm to play ... WCU had two looks at a game-winning and game-tying shot inside the closing seconds but both attempts missed.

– WCU's bid to play in the CollegeInsider.com Post-Season Tournament (CIT) following the 2009-10 season represented the Catamounts' return to post-season play for the first time since 1996.

– Western Carolina's seventh-year head coach Larry Hunter enters his 32nd season as a head coach and with 604 career victories, ranks 11th on the NCAA's all-time active career wins chart.

– Western Carolina has ONE former player currently in the National Basketball Association in Kevin Martin, who played for the Catamounts from 2001-04 ... He currently plays for the Houston Rockets ... Martin, a first-round pick of the Sacramento Kings in '04, was the FIRST Catamount to ever be selected in the first round of the NFL, NBA or MLB Draft.

– Redshirt senior guard HAROUNA MUTOMBO is the nephew of former NBA standout, Dikembe Mutombo ... Dikembe came to Cullowhee in 2009-10 to watch Harouna play against Samford.

WESTERN CAROLINA HEAD COACH LARRY HUNTER

LARRY HUNTER

Larry Hunter, one of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) leaders in coaching victories, was named Western Carolina University's 17th head men's basketball coach all time on April 29, 2005. His impact was felt immediately.

Known for his offensive prowess, Hunter brought an up-tempo offense to Cullowhee and the Catamounts responded by making a school-record 221 3-pointers, while tying or setting the single-game school record for 3-pointers made in a game on six occasions. WCU again surpassed the school benchmark for treys with 226 made 3-pointers in 2007-08 and most recently re-wrote the school record books with 274 made 3-pointers in 2009-10.

Hunter, whose teams posted winning records in 26 of his 31 seasons as a head coach, boasts an overall record of 606-331 and currently ranks as the 12th winningest active coach in the country. During his time as a head coach, Hunter has made 11 overall NCAA tournament appearances, while making seven as an assistant coach. Hunter guided Western Carolina to both its second and third Southern Conference divisional titles, sharing the 2008-09 and 2010-11 crowns with Chattanooga.

Hunter has guided WCU to a Ramsey Center-record 14 victories and the programs FIRST-EVER 20-win season as a NCAA Division I program. He also recruited and coached both the 2008-09 and 2010-11 SoCon Freshmen of the Year in Harouna Mutombo and Trey Sumler. Mutombo was WCU's first rookie of the year since Jarvis Hayes in 2000 while Sumler became just the fifth Catamount all-time to garner the award.

While his first year at Western was just his third losing season as a head coach, posting a 13-17 mark, Hunter's inaugural season with the Catamounts saw many positives. Western nearly doubled its win total from the previous season. Also, its 7-7 record and third place finish in the SoCon North was its best in the league since posting the same record for the 1996-97 season, while placing second that season. Key wins in his first season included: a win over Bowling Green in the season opener – WCU's first season-opening win over an NCAA Division I team since defeating Georgia Tech to start the 1980-81 season; a win over Chattanooga – snapping an eight-game losing streak to the Mocs; a win at Davidson– snapping Davidson's 19-game home winning streak which was the third longest in the NCAA at the time; and defeating SoCon North Champion Elon late in the season – setting up a battle for a first-round bye at the league tournament.

Western Carolina has rewritten the school record books under Hunter. The Catamounts have set school records for 3-pointers made (274 in 2007-08); attempted (699 in 2006-07) and 3's per game (7.65 in 07-08) in a season, as well as making at least 12, 3-pointers in a game 11 times, including a school-record 15 treys on three different occasions.

Hunter came to Western Carolina after four years as an assistant coach at North Carolina State, the final three serving as associate head coach. In his first season at N.C. State (2002), the Wolfpack reached the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) championship game and received their first NCAA Championship bid since 1991. N.C. State would go on to reach at least the ACC Tournament semifinals in each the last three years as well as receiving bids to the NCAA Championship. In 2004, Hunter coached Julius Hodge, who was tabbed ACC Player of the Year and consensus All-America. In 2005, the Wolfpack made an impressive run at season's end and defeated defending NCAA Champion Connecticut to reach the Sweet 16. N.C. State was just one of 21 teams in the nation to play in the NCAA Championship in each of the last four years.

Hunter spent 12 years (1989-2001) as head coach at Ohio University prior to his stint in Raleigh. Five years after taking over the Bobcat basketball program (1993-94), he led Ohio to a 25-8 record and was tabbed the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Coach of the Year, winning both the league's regular season and tournament titles. The following year, the Bobcats won the preseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT), went 24-10 and reached the second round of the postseason NIT. At Ohio, he coached 16 All-MAC performers and four first-team Academic All-MAC selections. Among those standout players were Player of the Year honorees Dave Jamerson (1990), Gary Trent (1993, '94 and '95) and Brandon Hunter (2003). Trent additionally earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors in 1993, duplicating the feat of Rush Floyd in 1991 during his freshman campaign with the Bobcats.

Jamerson set a MAC record with 874 points in 1990 while taking home first team Academic All-America honors that season. Later in 1990, Jamerson was an National Basketball Association (NBA) first round selection (15th pick overall) by Miami. Trent, a third team Associated Press All-America in 1995, would leave Ohio after his junior season to become a NBA first round selection (11th overall pick) of the Milwaukee Bucks. Brandon Hunter also moved on to play professionally, being an NBA second-round pick in 2003 and currently playing for the Orlando Magic. Jamerson (third with 2,336), Trent (seventh with 2,108) and Brandon Hunter (11th with 2,012) all rank among the MAC's top 11 in scoring, while Brandon Hunter and Trent rank fifth (1,103) and ninth (1,050), respectively, on the MAC's career rebounding list.

Thirty of the 38 players he coached at Ohio who completed their eligibility there graduated, including 12 who went on to earn their Master's degrees, posting an overall graduation rate as a head coach of 85 percent. In his last season at Ohio, the Bobcats were 19-11, with a 12-6 mark in MAC competition, and his overall record with the Bobcats was 204-148.

After winning his 500th career game as a collegiate head coach (Jan. 23, 2001), Hunter said, "My approach has been simple: Arrive early, work late and chop wood all day long. I've been fortunate to be surrounded by some great people and I've worked at two great institutions, Wittenberg and Ohio. Add all those things together over 20 years and you start to have a small pile of wood."

From 1976-89, Hunter was the head coach at Wittenberg University, playing a key role in the school being the winningest NCAA Division III basketball program in terms of victories and percentage. Hunter made an immediate impact after taking over the helm, winning National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year honors in 1977 after becoming the first coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at a school. During his 13 years in that position, his team turned in a 305-76 record and made four NCAA Division III Final Four appearances (national title in 1977, national runner-up in 1983 and third place in 1980 and 1987).

He coached three national players of the year at Wittenberg, including Tyrone Curtis (1981), Tim Casey (1985) and Brad Baldridge (1991), as well as having 21 all-conference honors bestowed upon his players. In addition to coaching those national players of the year, four of Wittenberg's top five career scorers were coached by Hunter, including the school's all-time leader Steve Iannarino (1,973). Hunter won a total of 12 Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) titles, six regular-season championships and six tournament championships. For his success, Hunter was inducted into the Wittenberg University Hall of Honor in 1996 and received the school's Honorary Alumnus Award in 1997.

Hunter, who got his start in coaching as an assistant coach at Marietta College from 1971-73, graduated from Ohio in 1971 with a B.S. in Education, majoring Social Studies Comprehensive. He earned his Master of Science in Physical Education from Ohio in 1973, then spent three seasons (1973-76) as an assistant coach at Wittenberg. He got his first taste of postseason play while serving on the Wittenberg staff, reaching the NCAA Division III championship game in 1976.

In addition to his coaching resume, Hunter produced a basketball instructional video, "Drills, Skills and Moves: Post Play Moves & Drills."

Hunter is married to the former Mary Kay Friedrich of London, Ohio.

2010-11 SoCon FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR / ALL-FRESHMAN TEAM NAMED TO THE 2011 MID-MAJOR FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA TEAM

2011-12 SEASON NOTES:

* Recorded his first career double-double with 16 points and a career-high 10 rebounds in the road win over Presbyterian;

* Struggled with back-to-back games in single-digits in tournament action in South Padre Island, Texas ... He went five-straight games without reaching double-figures around the same time a year ago (Nov. 28 - Dec. 10);

* Prior to his Purdue performance, had shot just 11-of-47 (23.4%) including 3-of-17 (17%) from beyond the 3-point arc ... In West Lafayette, managed 6-of-14 (43%) and 3-of-6 (50%) from 3-point range;

* Suffered a broken finger against Kent State, but still managed to play 37 minutes of the game and score 19 points in the home loss ... Had surgery to repair the finger with a pair of small screws during WCU's exam week (Dec. 12-16) ... Returned to the line-up at Bradley, playing 39 minutes and scoring 11 points including eight from the free throw line;

* Has scored in double figures in 10 of the 14 games this year entering the road trip to Chattanooga.

2009 SoCon FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR / ALL-SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TWO-TIME SOCON ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM SELECTION

CAREER STAT TRACKER:

* Became the 39th different Catamount to score 1,000 points in their career, doing so with 30 seconds remaining in the first half of the home win over Eastern Kentucky, converting a lay-up from countryman, Keaton Cole, for a lay-up to move past the 1,000-point plateau ... Currently has 1,299 points to rank 20th in school history in scoring;

* Has only missed ONE game during his WCU career due to INJURY ... Mutombo suffered a lower-back muscle strain in practice on Jan. 17, 2011, missing the game at the College of Charleston.

2011-12 SEASON NOTES:

* In his 100th career game (at Presbyterian this year), scored 20 points to lead the Catamounts in the road victory;

* His nine made free throws in the win over UNCG were a career-high, surpassing his previous high of eight from back in 2008-09 – his redshirt freshman season;

* Led WCU with his fifth career double-double at Purdue, going head-to-head with preseason All-America selection, Robbie Hummel ... Added his sixth career double-double with 18 points and a career-high 13 rebounds vs. UNC Asheville;

* Has scored in double-figures in all but THREE games this season (11-of-14).

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

* Spent the summer of 2009 playing with the Canadian Junior National team, receiving instruction from Team Canada's coaches and playing with countrymen over in Europe;

* Harouna is the nephew of former NBA star, Dikembe (DUH - kimm - bay) Mutombo ... Dikembe was at WCU's game against Samford on Feb. 25, 2010 – it was the first-time that he had seen Harouna play since he was in the eighth grade.

SCOUTING REPORT:
A very skilled guard who has the ability to play either the point or off-guard positions ... Has an excellent feel for the game ... Is long and athletic and can score from behind the arc, as well as off the dribble

2011-12 SEASON NOTES:

* Scored his first collegiate points with :33 remaining in the season-opener at South Carolina ... Converted an Ishmael Hollis steal into a fast-break jumper on his first collegiate attempt;

* Established several career-highs in the home-opening win over Montreat College;

* Has seen more court time as the season has progressed, playing double-digit minutes in two of his past five outings entering the game at Chattanooga.

SCOUTING REPORT:

His length, width and strength allow him to command attention especially around the basket ... Has good hands and likes to compete and bang ... A good technician with his pinning and low post moves, has a variety of ways to score

2011-12 SEASON NOTES:

* Played a then career-high 29 minutes at South Carolina in the season opener, and scored his career-high with his first double-digit outing against Montreat College – surpassed both with 16 points in 34 minutes on a perfect 8-for-8 shooting in the road win over Presbyterian;

* Has struggled shooting from the floor over his past five games, making just 8-of-28 from the field for 28.6-percent shooting ... He has scored just 19 points during the same span, averaging just 3.8 points per game.

SCOUTING REPORT:

Long, athletic and constantly working at improving his game and body ... Is stronger than he appears ... Has a lot of basketball savvy and an uncanny knack of filling up a stat sheet ... Skill set makes him a match-up problem

2011-12 SEASON NOTES:

* Saw the most extensive action of his career in the home-opening win over Montreat College;

* Played an instrumental role in WCU's SoCon-opening road win over Samford, coming off the bench to play in the low post after foul trouble to teammates Tawaski King and Kenneth Hall ... Played a career-high 17 minutes;

* Knocked down his first career 3-pointer at Purdue;

* Made the first start of his collegiate career at Bradley, responding with career-highs of nine points and a team-leading 10 rebounds in the road victory ... Played a career-long 25 minutes in his first start;

* In his second-consecutive start, scored a career-high 10 points in the home win over UNC Asheville, making a career-best two 3-pointers.
