THE CHATTANOOGA GAME

The Southern Conference schedule continues on Thursday night as Wofford travels to Chattanooga ... It will be the only meeting between the teams this season ... The Terriers enter the game at 9-7 on the season with a 2-2 mark in SoCon play ... Wofford's last game was a 67-57 loss at Western Carolina in which the Terriers never led ... Chattanooga picked up a 65-63 home win over Appalachian State on Saturday ... Wofford and Western Carolina have met 26 times, with the Mocs holding a 15-11 advantage in the series ... Wofford has won four of the last five games, including the last three ... Last season Wofford won both games by an average of 35 points ... The Terriers also won three games last March at McKenzie Arena as part of the SoCon Tournament ... The Terriers are led in scoring by Kevin Giltner with 15.4 points per game and Brad Loesing with 13.8 points per game ... Karl Cochran is adding 11.1 points per game and Lee Skinner leads the team with 5.9 rebounds per game ... The team defense is currently first in the SoCon at 62.1 points per game, but the scoring offense is last at 62.0 ppg ... Wofford is one of only three schools in the SoCon to have a winning record at this point of the season.

ABOUT WOFFORD

In 2011-12, Wofford is rebuilding and reloading after the loss of four starters from the 2010-11 team that won the Southern Conference Championship and reached the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history. The Terriers are led by five seniors this season. At point guard, senior Brad Loesing started all but one contest last season with 3.2 assists per game and 6.2 points per game. Loesing was eighth in the SoCon in assist/turnover ratio. Senior Kevin Giltner averaged 6.2 points per game, which included 52 three-pointers. Seniors Joseph Tecklenburg and Matt Steelman saw limited time last season, while senior Drew Crowell played in 28 games with 1.5 points per game. The junior on the team is guard Taylor Wagener, who played in 13 games with 1.2 points per game. Domas Rinksalis and Aerris Smith are the two sophomores. Rinksalis sat out last season as a redshirt and played in nine games with 1.1 points per game during his freshman season. Smith played in eleven games and scored five points. The freshman class includes seven players - four guards and three forwards. Guard Lucas Brown averaged 18.5 points per game as a senior at Roseville Area High School in Minnesota. A native of Lynn, Massachusetts, Forward Jarell Byrd averaged 17 points per game at St. Thomas More. Guard Karl Cochran scored 19.4 points per game at Walton High School in Georgia. Guard Indiana Faithfull also played at St. Thomas More and is a native of Sydney, Australia. Forward Kevin Hickson averaged 12 points per game at Providence Day School in Charlotte. Forward Lee Skinner, a native of Lombard, Illinois, averaged 14 points per game last year at Fork Union Military Academy. Guard John Swinton averaged 12 points and six assists as a senior at Wando High School in South Carolina.

WOFFORD COACH MIKE YOUNG

Wofford's Mike Young (Emory and Henry '86) is entering his tenth season as Wofford's head coach and has an overall record of 146-146 and an 81-80 mark in SoCon games. In 2011 he led Wofford to a second-straight SoCon Championship and NCAA Tournament berth. He was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 2010 after a 26-9 season and the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, he earned Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year honors. Young has spent 23 overall seasons at Wofford, including 13 years as an assistant coach to Richard Johnson. Young is a native of Radford, Virginia and a graduate of Emory & Henry where he

WOFFORD'S LAST GAME

On Saturday, Wofford was defeated 67-57 by Western Carolina at the Ramsey Center. The Catamounts led wire-to-wire in the contest, with the Terriers only able to close the gap to three points early in the second half. The Terriers were led by Karl Cochran and Brad Loesing with 20 points each. Cochran and Lee Skinner led the team with nine rebounds each. The Catamounts were led by Keaton Cole with 22 points, which included 6-of-7 from behind the arc. Tawaski King was the leading rebounder with nine for Western Carolina.

The Catamounts opened the game with a three, but Karl Cochran answered with a three for the Terriers. Western Carolina scored the next seven points to take a 10-3 lead four minutes into play. Karl Cochran hit a jumper to end the run. The Catamounts took a 15-7 advantage with a three pointer by Keaton Cole at the twelve minute mark.

Western Carolina extended the lead to 19-9. Another three by Keaton Cole was matched by a three from Brad Loesing for a 22-14 score with nine minutes left in the first half. Keaton Cole hit his fourth three pointer of the first half to give the Catamounts a 25-16 lead. Wofford was able to score the next four points, but Western Carolina had a 27-20 lead with five minutes left in the half. Back-to-back three pointers by Karl Cochran cut the advantage to 29-26 with 2:50 on the clock. The Catamounts scored the final five points of the half for a 34-26 lead at the break.

To open the second half, the Catamounts scored the first four points before a jumper by Karl Cochran made it a 38-28 score. A three by Kevin Giltner cut the lead to 40-31 with 16:40 on the clock in the half. Two free throws by Brad Loesing and a three by Karl Cochran cut the lead to 41-36 at 14:25. After a Catamount turnover, a Karl Cochran dunk on a break-away made it a 41-38 game after seven minutes of play.

Keaton Cole hit his fifth three of the day to give Western Carolina a 44-38 lead at the 12:25 mark. A three by Brad Loesing made it a 48-43 score, but another three by Keaton Cole and a lay-up by Trey Sumler pushed the lead back to 53-43 with 7:49 left in the half. The advantage remained at ten points after a jumper by Brad Loesing, but the Catamounts built a 59-48 lead with 3:18 remaining. Kevin Giltner hit a three to make it a 64-55 score with 1:23 left, but the Catamounts made it a 67-57 final.

The Terriers shot 35.6% from the floor for the evening, while Western Carolina shot 44.2% overall. Wofford finished 8-25 from behind the arc. The Catamounts went 6-of-13 from three. Wofford was 7-of-8 from the free throw line, while Western Carolina went 15-of-22 from the charity stripe. The Terriers had a 38 to 34 lead on the glass.

ABOUT CHATTANOOGA

Last season Chattanooga was 16-16 overall and 12-6 to finish tied for first in the SoCon North Division. This season they are 8-9 overall and 2-2 in the SoCon with wins over Western Carolina and Appalachian State. Head Coach John Shulman is in his eighth season in Chattanooga with a 129-115 mark. Shulman spent time at Wofford as an assistant coach under Richard Johnson. They return seven letterwinners and four starters from a year ago. The Mocs are led this season by Ricky Taylor with 13.6 points per game. Omar Wattad is adding 13.1 points per game, which includes 49 three pointers. Draze Zlovacic is the leading rebounder at 7.3 per game and he is scoring 10.5 points per game. The Mocs are third in scoring offense and second in scoring defense on the season.

Terrier Top Five

From the home office in Spartanburg, South Carolina, here are the top five notes of interest for the Terriers ...

- 1. Wofford claimed the Southern Conference South Division for the second straight season in 2011 and also won the Tournament title for the second season in a row.
- 2. The Terriers return only one starter from last season and have seven freshmen on the roster.
- 3. Seven of the eight returning players have a cumulative GPA of over 3.00. Brad Loesing leads the way at 3.90.
- 4. Head Coach Mike Young enters his 10th season at the helm with a 146-146 overall record.
- 5. Wofford has been picked to finish fifth in the SoCon South Division by the coaches and third by the media.

THE MOCS LAST GAME

Dontay Hampton's coast-to-coast layup with 0.8 to play provided the Chattanooga Mocs with a 65-63 win over visiting Appalachian State Saturday night. It capped a 12-point second half comeback for UTC and a big Southern Conference North Division win.

Z. Mason tied the game at 63 with two free throws at the 38-second mark adding to the Mocs 14-4 run beginning with just over six minutes to play. Mason forced ASU's Omar Carter to take a three-pointer with seven seconds to go that was boarded by Hampton. He sprinted through the defense weaving through two Mountaineers near mid-court. Challenged at the basket, Hampton's running layup was true. ASU tried a desperation shot from the backcourt which was off.

Ricky Taylor led Chattanooga with 19 points on the night. Jahmal Burroughs tied career highs with 11 points and eight rebounds, while Drazen Zlovacic added 11 points and seven boards. The Mountaineers' Tab Hamilton led all scorers with 22 including six-for-11 from three-point range. Carter chipped in 19 points, seven rebounds and five assists.

It was a see-saw affair with 10 ties and 10 lead changes. More so in the first half as ASU took a 34-33 lead into intermission. It went up 12, 52-40 at 13:17, on Hamilton's final basket of the night. The lead was 10, 59-49, on Carter's jumper at 7:40. The Mocs scored the next seven points to get within three, 59-56, on two Zlovacic free throws at 4:13. They made it a 9-1 run on two Hampton free throws at 2:24, while holding App State without a field goal for more than five minutes.

Carter ended the drought with a layup and free throw at 2:13 to make it a five-point contest, 63-58. But UTC was not to be denied. Keegan Bell shook off a cold shooting night with a three-pointer just 11 seconds later for a 63-61 score with 2:02 to go. That set up Mason and Hampton with the final tallies on the score sheet. Bell had seven assists against just one turnover as the Mocs played without All-SoCon performer Omar Wattad who was out with a back injury. Without the league's three-point ace, Chattanooga out-scored its visitors 36-24 in the paint with the bench posting a 17-2 advantage in scoring.

THE CHATTANOOGA SERIES

Wofford and Chattanooga have met 26 times, with Chattanooga holding a 15-11 lead in the series. The team's first met in 1996. Wofford has won four of the last five games, including the last three. At McKenzie Arena, the Mocs hold a 9-2 advantage.

LAST TIME AGAINST CHATTANOOGA

Wofford used a 19-1 run in the first half on the way to a 97-58 win over Chattanooga on February 23 at McKenzie Arena. The Terriers shot 58% for the game, including 70% in the second half, while limiting the Mocs to 35.0% shooting on the night. The Terriers were led by Noah Dahlman with 23 points and Cameron Rundles with 21 points. Tim Johnson had nine rebounds for Wofford as the Terriers dominated the glass 42 to 28. The Mocs were led by Chris Early with 13 points, all in the second half.

The Mocs scored first, but the Terriers had an early 5-4 lead after a three by Jamar Diggs less than two minutes into play. After the Mocs took a 9-8 lead, Wofford went on an 8-0 run the included threes from Kevin Giltner and Cameron Rundles for a 16-9 advantage with 14:07 on the clock. After Chattanooga made one free throw, the Terriers would go on an 11-0 run as they took a 27-10 lead with nine minutes left in the half.

Chattanooga scored the next four points to make it a 27-14 game, but the Terriers answered with the next eight points to take a 35-14 lead with 5:38 on the clock. Wofford kept up the scoring and took a 45-21 lead at the half. Noah Dahlman had 17 points at the break as the team shot 48.5% from the floor and held the Mocs to just 26.7% shooting in the half.

To open the second half, the Mocs scored first and cut the lead to 47-26 at 18:51. But Wofford answered with two three pointers by Cameron Rundles and one by Brad Loesing for a 56-28 lead with 17:23 on the clock and the Mocs called a timeout. After the timeout, Chattanooga scored the next five points. However a three by Brad Loesing at 15:30 kept the lead at 61-35.

The Terriers extended the lead to 68-37 on a fast break after a turnover with a lay-up by Kevin Giltner at 13:52. Nathan Parker added a three at the 12:42 mark for a 71-39 lead for Wofford. With 3:04 left and a 91-56 lead after two buckets by Drew Crowell, the Terriers emptied the bench. Matt Steelman hit a three with a minute left and Aerris Smith had a lay-up for the 97-58 final score.

Wofford shot 58.3% from the floor and was 52.2% from three. From the free throw line, the Terriers were 71.4%. Chattanooga was 35.0% overall and was 25.0% from behind the arc. They were 57.1% from the line. The Terriers had a 42-28 lead on the glass and had 21 assists to only nine turnovers.

TERRIERS AGAINST MOCS

All eight returning players on the Wofford roster have played against Chattanooga. The players, and their statistics against the Mocs are:

2011-12 PRESEASON PICKS

In October, the Southern Conference announced the 2011-12 Preseason Coaches Poll. Chattanooga and Davidson are the favorites to capture the North and South Divisions, respectively. In the SoCon Media Association Poll, the Terriers were picked third in the South Division.

SOCON PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Brad Loesing was named the Southern Conference Player of the Week for all games played December 6-12 the league office announced Tuesday (Dec. 13). Loesing averaged 19.0 points and shot 57 percent from the field as Wofford knocked off previously unbeaten Tulane (61-50) and Virginia-Wise (69-66).

The Cincinnati native played all 40 minutes against Tulane and poured in a career-best 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the floor. Loesing connected on 4-of-7 three-point attempts and added five assists and two steals against the Green Wave. Hampered by foul trouble against UVA-Wise, Loesing scored 14 points and added five rebounds, four assists and a steal in 29 minutes of action. He connected on 7-of-13 attempts from three-point range on the week and knocked down 7-of-8 free throw attempts. He ranks third in the SoCon in assists per game (5.4) and fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.9). This is his first SoCon Player of the Week honor. He also added SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week honors on December 14.

THE 2010-11 SEASON

In 2010-11, Wofford put together another outstanding season on the hardwood which results in three more banners added to the rafters in Benjamin Johnson Arena ... The Terriers ended the season with a 21-13 overall mark and a 14-4 record in the Southern Conference ... Wofford tied for first in the SoCon South Division ... The Terriers competed in the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight season ... Wofford earned the Southern Conference's automatic bid with a 77-67 win over the College of Charleston on Monday, March 7 ... The Terriers were a #14 seed in the Southeast Region and faced #3 seed BYU in the second round on Thursday, March 19 at the Pepsi Center in Denver ... BYU defeated Wofford 74-66 and reached the Sweet Sixteen after a win over Gonzaga ... The Terriers had an eight-game winning streak, which was the longest streak in the SoCon and the eighth longest in the NCAA, prior to the NCAA Tournament ... Wofford posted back-to-back 20 win seasons for the first time since 1963-64 and 1964-65 ... The team was twelfth in the nation in field goal percentage and eighth nationally in three point field goal percentage.

2011 SOCON TOURNAMENT NOTES

2011 marked the 13th season the Terriers played in the Southern Conference Tournament. Wofford has an 11-11 record in Tournament games. In 2010, Wofford advanced to the semifinals for only the second time in school history (2000 and 2010). After a win over Western Carolina, the Terriers played in their first championship game and came away with a 56-51 win over Appalachian State. In 2011, the Terriers racked up three wins, including a 77-67 win in the title game over the College of Charleston for back-to-back championships.

2011 SOCON TOURNAMENT HONORS

Following the Southern Conference Tournament, Noah Dahlman was named the Tournament Most Outstanding Player for the second straight season. Jamar Diggs and Cameron Rundles joined Dahlman on the All-Tournament First Team.

SOCON CHAMPS IN FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL

Last season Wofford shared the 2010 SoCon football championship with Appalachian State and won the 2011 SoCon basketball tournament. The last time a school won both in the same academic year was Appalachian State winning the football title in 1999 and the basketball championship in the spring of 2000.

BACK-TO-BACK 20 WIN SEASONS

With a 21-14 overall record last season and a 26-9 mark in 2009-10, the Terriers boasted back-to-back 20 win seasons for only the second time in the 113 years of Wofford basketball history. The only other back-to-back 20 win seasons came in 1963-64 (24-9) and 1964-65 (22-8).

2011 SOCON COACHES HONORS

Noah Dahlman was named to the 2011 Southern Conference Coaches All-Conference Team. Dahlman led the team with 20.1 points per game and was second with 5.6 rebounds per game. Among conference players he was third in scoring, first in field goal percentage and 15th in rebounding. Nationally he was fifth in field goal percentage (62.1%) and 23rd in scoring. For his career, he scored 2,013 points which ranks fifth all-time in Wofford history and is the most in the Division I era. Dahlman was one of three players to earn all-conference honors for the third straight season. He is also only the second Wofford player to earn all-conference honors three straight seasons from the coaches.

2011 SOCON MEDIA HONORS

Wofford seniors Noah Dahlman, Tim Johnson and Cameron Rundles were named to the 2011 Southern Conference Sports Media Association All-Conference Team. Dahlman earned first team honors, while Johnson and Rundles were named to the third team.

Dahlman led the team with 20.1 points per game and was second with 5.6 rebounds per game. He is only the third player in school history to earn All-Conference honors from the media three times, joining Ian Chadwick (1999, 2000, 2001) and Mike Lenzly (2002, 2002, 2003).

Forward Tim Johnson led the Southern Conference with 8.5 rebounds per game this season, a full 2.4 rebounds more per game than the second ranked player. He also earned All-Southern Conference honors from the media last season.

Guard Cameron Rundles was second on the team in scoring with 13.9 points per game, which was eleventh in the Southern Conference. This was his first All-Conference honor.

SEARS BRACKETBUSTERS

Wofford will once again take part in the Sears BracketBusters event, this season going on the road against an opponent to be decided in January. Last year, Wofford hosted Ball State on Saturday, February 19 in Benjamin Johnson Arena and won 66-61. The Terriers will return the trip to Ball State in 2012-13. The 114-team field featured teams from 15 conferences as well as one independent: 12 from the Mid-American Conference and Colonial Athletic; 10 from the Ohio Valley Conference, Missouri Valley and Metro Atlantic Athletic; nine from Big Sky, Big South, Big West and Western Athletic; eight from the Horizon League; five from America East and Southern; two from the MEAC and West Coast; and one from the Summit League, as well as independent Seattle. As part of the agreement, all of the BracketBusters home teams will play a "return" game at the home facility of their opponent in November or December of the 2013-14 season.

SEASON OPENERS

Since joining the NCAA Division I ranks in the 1995-96 season, the Terriers have taken on an impressive list of opponents in the season opener. This year, Wofford dropped a 62-49 decision at Georgia. Last season, the Terriers fell 69-55 at Minnesota. In 2009, Wofford was defeated 63-60 at Pittsburgh. In the last 18 season openers, the Terriers are 1-17, with defeats coming at the hands of teams such as Arkansas, Missouri, Georgia Tech, South Carolina, Memphis, Tennessee, Miami, Auburn, N.C. State, and Dayton. The last season opening win for Wofford was in 2005 against Fairleigh Dickinson in the Guardians Classic.

SOCON CHAMPIONS - AGAIN

With wins over Chattanooga and Furman in the final week of the season, Wofford secured the second Southern Conference South Division regular season championship in school history. Prior to the 2009-10 season when Wofford also won the SoCon South Division, the highest Wofford had finished in the SoCon was third in the South Division. It was the second team title for the Terriers this year, joining football. Overall, Wofford has team titles in football (2003, 2007, 2010), baseball (2007), men's soccer (2009) and men's basketball (2010 and 2011) since joining the SoCon in the 1997-98 season.

BETTER THAN .500 IN THE SOCON

Since joining the Southern Conference for the 1997-98 season, Wofford had never had a winning record in the conference until the 2008-09 season. The 12-8 record that season marked the fifth time with at least eight SoCon wins in school history. With a 15-3 mark in 2009-10, Wofford had just the second winning SoCon mark in school history. The Terriers posted their third-straight winning record in conference play with a 14-4 record in 2010-11.

HEADING INTO CONFERENCE PLAY

After the win at Wake Forest, the Terriers headed into a stretch of fourteen straight Southern Conference contests with a 8-6 mark. In the past ten seasons, Wofford has entered conference play with winning record four times. In 2009-10 they were 8-7 with wins over Georgia and South Carolina. To open 2007-08, Wofford was 7-4 with a victory at Purdue. In 2004-05, the team was 8-4 which included a win at Auburn.

TERRIERS IN THE 2011-12 SOCON STATS

Among Southern Conference schools, Wofford is first in scoring defense (62.1 ppg), but last in scoring offense (62.0 ppg). They are also fourth in field goal percentage defense (41.9), fourth in rebounding margin (+2.0), third in rebounding defense (32.2), fourth in assists (14.2), and second in assist/turnover ratio (1.1) ... Kevin Giltner is sixth in the SoCon in scoring (15.4 ppg) and Brad Loesing is eighth (13.8 ppg) ... Wofford is the only school that has two players among the top ten scorers ... Lee Skinner is 12th in rebounding (5.9) ... Drew Crowell is second in field goal percentage at 58.2% and sixth with 0.9 blocks per game ... Kevin Giltner is third in three pointers made per game with 2.4 and tenth in free throw percentage (76.5) ... Brad Loesing is fourth in assists (4.9), seventh in steals (1.4), eighth in free throw percentage (78.3), and seventh in assist/turnover ratio (1.5) ... Lee Skinner is second in offensive rebounds and Karl Cochran is eighth in defensive rebounds ... Karl Cochran is sixth in steals (1.4) and eighth in three pointers made (2.1) ... Brad Loesing (38.9) and Kevin Giltner (37.9) are first and second in minutes played.

TERRIERS IN THE 2011-12 NATIONAL STATS

As of January 8, the Terriers appear in several national rankings. The scoring defense is 69th at 62.1 points per game. The 14.5 assists per game are 88th, and the assist/turnover ratio is 58th. Brad Loesing is 65th in the nation in assists with 4.9 per game and 190th with a 78.3% free throw percentage. Kevin Giltner is 156th in points per game and 97th in three point field goals per game.

STARTING LINE-UPS

Wofford used only three different starting line-ups with a total of seven different players last season. The regulars - Noah Dahlman, Brad Loesing, Tim Johnson, Jamar Diggs and Cameron Rundles - started 31 of the 34 games. Terry Martin started at Xavier in his hometown of Cincinnati and Kevin Giltner started against High Point as Jamar Diggs missed the game due to two technical fouls against South Carolina. Terry Martin also started against Georgia Southern on Senior Night. So far in 2011-12, the Terriers have used five different starting line-ups with a total of nine different players getting starts. Four freshmen have earned starts.

COACH YOUNG MILESTONES

Head coach Mike Young currently has 81 SoCon wins, which is third among active conference coaches behind Bob McKillop (231) and Bobby Cremins (116). Young also hit 100 career overall wins at Elon (1/9/10). He is the fifth Wofford men's basketball coach to accomplish that feat after Joel Robertson (157), Gene Alexander (283), Wayne Earhardt (106) and Richard Johnson (236). Among SoCon coaches, only Young (WOF), Cremins (CoC), McKillop (DAV), John Shulman (CHAT) and Jimmy Tillette (SAM) have more than 100 wins at their current school.

A WORD ON THE DEFENSE

In 2009-10, Wofford had the third-ranked scoring defense in the SoCon, averaging only 61.0 points per game. The three-point percentage defense was first in the conference at 30.6%. In the 2010-11 season, the defense was not nearly as stingy, allowing 68.0 points per game, but it was still third in the conference. However, in conference games only, Wofford was first with just 64.8 points allowed per game. From behind the arc, Wofford opponents hit 34.8% of their shots, which was eighth in the SoCon. Again though, in conference only games though, the Terriers allowed only 31.6% from three which was second in the SoCon. So far this season, Wofford is again first in scoring defense at 62.1 points per game allowed.

CAREER GAMES STARTED MARK

After starting all but two games during his career so far at Wofford, point guard Brad Loesing has climbed the list of career games started and moved into first all-time at the College of Charleston game on January 5, 2012.

	GP	Name	Years
1.	113	Brad Loesing	2008-present
2.	111	Greg O'Dell	1988-92

10.	83	Buddy Saunders	1987-90

ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

Brad Loesing was named to the CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-District first team in 2011. Loesing started all 34 games at point guard for the Terriers last season. He averaged 6.2 points per game and 3.2 assists per game. Loesing is majoring in business economics with a 3.89 GPA. This is only the third Academic All-District honor received by a men's basketball player at Wofford, joining Harold Jackson (1982) and Greg O'Dell (1992).

PHI BETA KAPPA

In December of 2011, Brad Loesing was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious liberal arts honor society. Loesing is the first men's basketball player to receive this honor since Bishop Ravenel and Brandon Boyce in 2001.

GILTNER FOR THREE

Senior Kevin Giltner has been impressive from behind the arc so far this season. He has made 38-of-118 attempts for 32.2%. His 2.4 made per game is third in the SoCon. At High Point, he tied the school record for three pointers attempted with 15 and made a career-high eight. The mark is also held by Seth Chadwick with 15 against Wake Forest on January 29, 1997.

SCORE 20 FOR GILTNER

With the three pointers, Kevin Giltner has been able to score 20 or more points three times already this season. In addition, he has led the team in scoring in seven games and has ten or more points in all but two contests (Emory and Henry/Western Carolina). His 15.4 points per game average is currently sixth in the SoCon. Antwaine Wiggins of the College of Charleston leads the conference with 16.9 points per game.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Terriers made Benjamin Johnson Arena home in the 2009-10 season with a 11-1 home record. The lone loss was December 7, a one-point defeat at the hands of Appalachian State. The home record included wins over Navy and South Carolina. The eleven wins were the most on the parquet since going 11-2 in the 1994-95 campaign and one short of the school record of twelve in 1993-94. Wofford also sold out two games last season - South Carolina and College of Charleston. The 1,921 home attendance average was the highest since the 2002-03 season. The 10-game winning streak at home was tied for the 17th longest in the NCAA, along with Gonzaga and Sam Houston State.

THE SELL-OUTS

The crowd of 3,500 for the South Carolina game on December 19, 2009 was only the fourth sell-out at Benjamin Johnson Arena, which was followed by a sell-out against College of Charleston on February 25, 2010. The Davidson game on February 12, 2009 was sold-out and the first one was against South Carolina on November 28, 2001. There have been fourteen total games where recorded attendance was over 3,000, including The Citadel contest on February 27, 2010.

2010-11 POINT PRODUCTION

Last season the senior class led the way in scoring for the Terriers. The seniors scored 78.9% of the points, with Noah Dahlman alone accounting for 27.3% of the scoring. In 2011-12, Wofford will return 500 of the 2502 points scored, which is 19.98%.

Class	Pts	Percent
Seniors	1974	78.9%
Juniors	480	19.2%
Sophomores	41	1.6%
Freshmen	7	0.3%

WHO'S STEPPING UP?

With the loss of so much scoring from the 2010-11 season, the Terriers needed some veterans to step up this season. So far, Kevin Giltner has gone from 6.2 points per game to 15.4 and Brad Loesing has gone from 6.2 points to 13.8 points. Drew Crowell has jumped from 1.4 points (40 points on the season) to 123 points already for an 7.7 ppg average.

HOME NON-CONFERENCE LEDGER

Since the start of the 1999-2000 season, Wofford has won 45 of its 48 home non-conference games ... The only blemishes were a 66-62 loss to East Carolina in 2005-06, a 64-49 loss to South Carolina in November, 2001 and a 72-66 loss in overtime to Air Force on November 24, 2010.

297 STRAIGHT THREES

Wofford has made a 3-point field goal in 297 consecutive games ... The Terriers were last shutout from beyond the arc against VMI on Feb. 2, 2002 ... Wofford was 0 for 4 against the Keydets.

THE WAKE FOREST WIN

On January 2, 2012, the Terriers won 56-52 at Wake Forest. It marked only the third win over a team from the ACC and the first since 1999. The other wins over ACC teams were against Georgia Tech (49-44) on December 20, 1980 and Clemson (79-74) on November 21, 1999. It was the first win against Wake Forest since 1906, the first year of basketball for Wake.

WOFFORD VS. THE SOCON

Since joining the Southern Conference prior to the 1997-98 season, Wofford has compiled a record of 113-124 in league games ... The Terriers are 67-52 in SoCon home games and 45-72 in league road contests.

THE NEWCOMERS

The Terriers welcome seven new players - four guards and three forwards to the team this season ... Guard Lucas Brown averaged 18.5 points per game as a senior at Roseville Area High School in Minnesota ... A native of Lynn, Massachusetts, Forward Jarell Byrd averaged 17 points per game at St. Thomas More ... Guard Karl Cochran scored 19.4 points per game at Walton High School in Georgia ... Guard Indiana Faithfull also played at St. Thomas More and is a native of Sydney, Australia ... Forward Kevin Hickson averaged 12 points per game at Providence Day School in Charlotte ... Forward Lee Skinner, a native of Lombard, Illinois, averaged 14 points per game last year at Fork Union Military Academy ... Guard John Swinton averaged 12 points and six assists as a senior at Wando High School in South Carolina.

WHERE THEY ARE NOW...

The five graduating seniors from the 2010-11 team are making their mark around the world. Four are playing professional basketball: Noah Dahlman in Macedonia, Jamar Diggs in Germany, Cameron Rundles in England, and Terry Martin in Canada. Tim Johnson is a graduate assistant coach at the University of Wyoming.

NEW ON THE BENCH

Wofford welcomed a new assistant coach to the program in 2011-12. Gus Hasuer joined the staff after two seasons at Coastal Carolina. He is a 2000 graduate of Furman University. Paul Harrison was promoted to associate head coach prior to the start of this season. Also new in 2010-11 is basketball operations manager Matt Morris who graduated in 2008 from Clemson.

THE NEXT TERRIERS

In November, Mike Young announced that his program received National Letter of Intent from Zac Grossenbacher and C.J. Neumann. Grossenbacher is a 6-8, 220 pound forward from Parkersburg, West Virginia. He currently is attending Massanutten Military Academy in Virginia. At Parkersburg High School, he averaged 14.8 points per game and 8.3 rebounds per game along with 2.7 blocks per game. Neumann is a 6-7, 220 pound forward from Saint Paul, Minnesota. As a junior at Cretin-Derham Hall, he averaged 13 points, eight rebounds and four blocks per game as the team finished fourth in the state.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

While getting the job done on the court, the Terriers have also been excelling in the classroom. In the latest NCAA Graduation Success Rate report, Wofford had seven of 13 teams post a score of 100. The men's basketball team's APR was at 955, well above the Division I average of 932. In addition, seven of the eight returning members of the team currently have a cumulative grade point average of above a 3.0.

SMALL WORLD

Wofford is currently the third-smallest school in NCAA Division I with an enrollment of 1,550 students. The smallest school is Presbyterian College at 1,200 and VMI is second with 1,500.

ABOUT WOFFORD

Wofford College, established in 1854, is an independent liberal arts college in Spartanburg, S.C. (average SAT for incoming class, 1237). Wofford ranks in the top five nationally in the percentage of undergraduates receiving credit for study abroad. Home to one of the nation's 276 Phi Beta Kappa chapters, Wofford's historic 170-acre campus is recognized as a national arboretum. Affiliated with the United Methodist Church, the college is committed to quintessential undergraduate education within the context of values-based inquiry.

QUICK GAME HITS

WOFFORD 49, GEORGIA 62 (11/11/11)

In the season opener, Wofford shot only 34.6% from the floor in a loss at Georgia. Three Terriers scored in double figures and the defense limited the Bulldogs to only 33.9% shooting on the night.

EMORY AND HENRY 55, WOFFORD 70 (11/13/11)

Wofford forced 20 turnovers in the home opener. Freshman Karl Cochran led the team with 19 points.

WOFFORD 33, WISCONSIN 69 (11/19/11)

The Badgers held Wofford to only twelve points in the first half and the team shot only 26.5% from the floor in a rematch of the 2010 NCAA Tournament game.

WOFFORD 70, BRADLEY 66 (11/22/11)

At Bradley, Wofford used a career-high 29 points from Kevin Giltner to pace the team to a road win. Giltner was 11-of-17 from the floor, including 5-of-8 from 3. Drew Crowell had a double-double.

UMKC 64, WOFFORD 58 OT (11/25/11)

In the Chicago Invitational Challenge, the Terriers could not overcome 21 turnovers in an overtime loss to UMKC. The Kangaroos scored the last four points in regulation to tie the game and then outscored Wofford 15 to 9 in overtime.

WOFFORD 56, PRAIRIE VIEW A&M 49 (11/26/11)

In the final game of the Chicago Invitational Challenge, Wofford was outshot and outrebounded, but the Panthers only hit one three pointer in the contest as the Terriers picked up the victory.

DAVIDSON 72, WOFFORD 69 (12/1/11)

Wofford fell to Davidson by three points in the Southern Conference opener for both teams. The Terriers had a shot at the buzzer to tie the game, but the Wildcats picked up the win behind 26 points from Jake Cohen.

THE CITADEL 63, WOFFORD 82 (12/3/11)

The Terriers led from start to finish in a win over The Citadel. Kevin Giltner scored 27 points and had 10 rebounds as Wofford shot 55.2% from the floor.

TULANE 50, WOFFORD 61 (12/6/11)

Wofford knocked off previously undefeated Tulane behind a career-high 24 points by Brad Loesing. The Terrier defense held the Green Wave to 39.2% from the floor and only 2-of-16 from behind the arc.

UVA-WISE 66, WOFFORD 69 (12/10/11)

The Cavaliers were down by only one point with 14 seconds left before Wofford sealed the win with two free throws by Kevin Giltner. Travis Berry scored 27 points for UVA-Wise as he hit five three pointers in the second half.

JACKSONVILLE 57, WOFFORD 63 (12/18/11)

Wofford built a 12 point lead at the half in a win over Jacksonville. Despite not scoring field goal in the final eight minutes, the Terriers hit 9-of-12 free throws in the final 55 seconds to hold off the Dolphins.

WOFFORD 79, HIGH POINT 87 (12/21/11)

The Panthers hit seven of their first eight shots of the game built an 18 point lead just six minutes into play. Wofford would trim the lead to only four points late in the second half, but could not close the gap despite eight three pointers by Kevin Giltner.

WOFFORD 45, SOUTH CAROLINA 57 (12/28/11)

Three point shooting was the story of the game as the Gamecocks hit 11-of-20, including five by Bruce Ellington. Wofford was held to just 5-of-19 from behind the arc and the Terriers shot only 36.0% for the game in the loss.

WOFFORD 56, WAKE FOREST 52 (1/2/12)

The Terriers built a 13-point lead in the first half and held the advantage in the entire second half, but needed two free throws by Brad Loesing with 2.2 seconds on the clock to ice the game. Wofford won despite shooting only 34.4% from the floor.

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON 58, WOFFORD 75 (1/5/12)

Karl Cochran led the Terriers with a career-high 21 points that included six three pointers and a dunk as Wofford downed the Cougars. Wofford won the rebounding battle at +11 and held Charleston to only 38.9% from the floor.

WOFFORD 57, WESTERN CAROLINA 67 (1/7/12)

The Catamounts never trailed in the win over Wofford. Keaton Cole was 6-of-7 from three to lead Western Carolina with 22 points. Brad Loesing and Karl Cochran each had 20 points for the Terriers. Wofford has not won at the Ramsey Center since 2001, a stretch of seven games.

MIKE YOUNG

HEAD COACH • TENTH SEASON

23RD SEASON OVERALL • EMORY AND HENRY '86

In his 23rd season with the Wofford program, Mike Young has led the Terriers to unprecedented heights the last two seasons. Last year the team won 21 games, shared the SoCon South Division title and won the SoCon Championship along with the NCAA automatic bid. In 2009-10, the team won a school-record 26 games, claimed the SoCon South Division title and won the Tournament Championship for the first time. As a result, the team earned their first-ever bid to the NCAA Division I Tournament.

After 13 seasons as an assistant to Richard Johnson, Young is in his ninth year as head coach of the Terriers. When Johnson was promoted to athletic director on December 3, 2001, it was announced that Young would assume Wofford's head coaching duties effective at the conclusion of the 2001-02 campaign.

As head coach, Young has posted a 137-139 overall record and has coached fourteen all-conference selections. More impressive is the fact that every player who has exhausted their eligibility has graduated from Wofford.

In 2009-10, the Terriers began the season 4-6, but then proceeded to finish by winning 22 of 24, including a 13-game winning streak which matched the longest in school history. Also included were wins over SEC-foes South Carolina and Georgia. After securing the South Division Championship with a 15-3 conference mark, Wofford entered the SoCon Tournament as the top seed for the first time. After defeating UNC Greensboro and Western Carolina, the team earned a spot in the finals. In a game dominated by the Terrier defense, Wofford won 56-51 over Appalachian State to take the first Southern Conference Championship and the league's bid to the NCAA Tournament.

After the season, Young was named the SoCon Coach of the Year by the coaches and media. In addition, Noah Dahlman was named Player of the Year and Dahlman, Tim Johnson and Jamar Diggs earned All-Conference honors.

Young led his team to a 16-14 record in the 2008-09 season, which included a 12-8 mark in the Southern Conference. It was the first winning record for the Wofford program since moving to NCAA Division I. The conference record included the most wins in school history (12) and also was the first time the Terriers had finished over .500 in Southern Conference play.

The season included key wins on the road at Chattanooga and The Citadel and also a season-sweep of Furman for the first time since 1999. The Terriers took SEC-foe Georgia to overtime before falling by one point.

On the court, Noah Dahlman earned All-Southern Conference first team honors, while Junior Salters also was honored with All-SoCon third team recognition. Brad Loesing was named to the All-Freshman team. Dahlman was third in the conference in scoring (17.8 ppg), while Tim Johnson was second in the SoCon with 8.7 rpg.

2009-10	26-9	15-3
2010-11	21-13	14-4
2011-12	9-7	2-2
Totals	146-146	81-80

In his first season as head coach, Young led the Terriers to their best record in eight seasons on the Division I level and a third-place finish in the Southern Conference South Division after Wofford was predicted to finish sixth. The Terriers also faced a non-conference schedule that was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

Included in the 2002-03 highlights were a 79-77 win at Virginia Tech, the first-ever season sweep of Chattanooga and a 98-82 rout of Davidson.

The 2003-04 victory ledger was highlighted by wins over the College of Charleston and Davidson. During the '04-05 campaign, Young's troops pulled a stunning 85-78 upset at Auburn en route to a 7-2 start to the season.

The 2006-07 season was highlighted by a four-game winning streak that included 91-90 win at Cincinnati.

The Terriers again upset a major program with a 69-66 victory at Purdue during the 2007-08 season. Wofford also had a .500 record on the season for only the second time since moving to the NCAA Division I ranks. In the Southern Conference Tournament, the Terriers advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time since the 2003-04 season.

Young has recruited and coached ten All-SoCon selections (Tyler Berg, Ian Chadwick, Mike Lenzy, Lee Nixon, Howard Wilkerson, Drew Gibson, Noah Dahlman, Junior Salters, Tim Johnson and Cameron Rundles) for the Terriers in addition to a SoCon Freshman of the Year (Chadwick, 1997-98) and four members of the All-SoCon Freshman Team (Chadwick, Justin Stephens, Berg and Brad Loesing).

During Young's tenure on the coaching staff, the Terriers have moved from NCAA Division II to Division I Independent in 1995-96 and to the Southern Conference in 1997-98.

Young has been on the Wofford bench for over 600 contests over the past 22 seasons. His 300th game with the Terriers was a 65-64 quarterfinal-round victory over Davidson at the 2000 SoCon Tournament. Young also helped guide the Terriers to a berth in the semifinals of the 2000 SoCon Tournament. The semifinal matchup with the College of Charleston drew over 10,000 fans to Greenville's Bi-Lo Center, the largest single session crowd to ever watch a SoCon Tournament game.

A native of Radford, Va., Young has been instrumental in Wofford's success on the court. In four of their first eight seasons of SoCon play, the Terriers have finished higher than their preseason forecast by the league coaches and media.

Wofford has also taken the court against the strongest competition. In addition to facing the nation's most difficult non-conference schedule in 2002-03, the 2001-02 pre-Christmas slate was also rated as the toughest in the nation by the RPI. The 2000-01 non-conference schedule was ranked third by the Sagarin Ratings in terms of difficulty.

Young came to Wofford after serving as a graduate assistant for one year under Oliver Purnell at Radford University. A 1986 graduate of Emory & Henry College, he was a four-year letterman in basketball for coach Bob Johnson and the team captain his junior and senior seasons. He credits Johnson for having a major influence on his playing and coaching careers.

Upon his graduation, Young became a full-time assistant coach for two years at Emory & Henry before moving on to Radford. Another mentor in his coaching philosophies is Fletcher Arritt, longtime coach of Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy. Young played one season for him before attending Emory and Henry.

Young and his wife, Margaret, were married on Aug. 13, 1994. She is a 1992 Wofford graduate and a partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. The couple has a daughter, Cooper, and a son, Davis.
