About Tonight's Game

The Spartans wrap up their final two-game road trip of the season when they visit Chattanooga at McKenzie Arena ... UNCG is looking for a season sweep of the Mocs after last month's 81-72 win over Chattanooga in Greensboro ... the Spartans haven't swept the Mocs since the 2006-07 season.

About the Series

Chattanooga leads the all-time series, 18-11, but UNCG won this season's earlier meeting in Greensboro. The Spartans haven't swept the Mocs since the 2006-07 season, and are looking for their first win at McKenzie arena since Feb. 24, 2007.

Dement Steps Aside as Men's Basketball Coach; Miller Named as Interim

UNCG men's basketball head coach Mike Dement and Director of Athletics Kim Record on Dec. 13 reached a mutual agreement that Dement will no longer serve as head coach, effective immediately. A national search for a permanent men's basketball coach will be conducted.

Assistant coach Wes Miller was named as interim head coach for the remainder of the season.

"In the interests of the long-term health of the men's basketball program, Mike and I have agreed that a change is necessary in order for the program to move forward," said Record. "Coach Dement has been professional, ethical and committed to leading our efforts to enhance men's basketball with the program's move to the Greensboro Coliseum and the nonconference scheduling philosophy put in place over the last three seasons. We thank him for his contributions to UNCG's basketball program."

Dement was in the seventh season of his second tenure as head coach of the Spartans. He returned to UNCG on April 9, 2005, after previously serving as head coach from 1991-95. In 11 total seasons as UNCG's head coach, Dement posted a 124-181 record. The 124 victories are a school record for men's basketball.

UNCG's first men's basketball head coach in the school's Division I era, Dement coached the Spartans to a Big South Conference championship and a school-record 23 wins during the 1994-95 season before leaving to take a head coaching position at SMU. Dement is 329-368 in 25 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Miller, 28, is in his second season on staff with the Spartans. He has previous Division I coaching experience as an assistant at both Elon and High Point. A native of Charlotte, Miller lettered three seasons at North Carolina, helping the Tar Heels to the 2005 national championship. He graduated from UNC in 2007 with a degree in political science.

America's Youngest Head Coach

With his promotion to interim head coach Wes Miller is the youngest Division I head coach in the country:

Brian Wardle, Wisconsin-Green Bay	Oct. 9, 1979	32
Archie Miller, Dayton	Oct. 30, 1978	33

Samford Leftovers

Sophomore guard Trevis Simpson scored a game-high 25 points, his fifth straight game with at least 23 points ... Simpson also tied a season high with seven rebounds ... freshman Nicholas Paulos scored 12 points, his first double-digit effort since scoring 11 points at College of Charleston on Jan. 12 ... UNCG made 80 percent (16-20) of its free throws on Thursday, the fourth straight game in which the Spartans have shot at least 75 percent ... senior center Aloysius Henry grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, his third double figure effort of the season ... UNCG's bench out-scored Samford by a 39-14 count, the ninth straight game in which UNCG's reserves have out-scored the counterparts.

Last Time Out

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Travis Simpson scored a game-high 25 points and UNCG withstood four final-minute shots by Samford as the Spartans held on for a 71-69 Southern Conference win over the Bulldogs, Thursday at Pete Hanna Center.

Leading 71-69 with under a minute to play, UNCG forced Samford (9-15, 6-7) into four straight misses. With 35 seconds left, Drew Windler missed a three-pointer, but the Bulldogs got the rebound and called timeout. After the timeout Rajion Kelly missed another three-pointer for Samford and David Williams nearly came up with a long defensive rebound for the Spartans. But Williams knocked the ball out of bounds in the back court, giving Samford one more chance.

After another Samford timeout, Jeffrey Merritt missed a wide open three-pointer from the left corner with seven second to go, and Windler missed a tip-in before Williams came out of a crowd with the game-clinching rebound for UNCG.

What appeared at one point to be an offensive explosion by both teams turned into a defensive grinder during the second half. The teams were tied at 41 all at halftime, and Samford scored the first five points of the half for a 46-41 lead with 19:01 left.

UNCG eventually tied the game at 49-49 on a three-point play by Simpson, but again Samford pushed out to a five point advantage at 56-51 with 12:20 left.

The Bulldogs led 60-57 with 8:41 remaining before going cold. Nicholas Paulos tied it at 60 with a three-pointer at 7:22, and a layup by Aloysius Henry and two Simpson free throws gave the Spartans a 64-60 edge with 6:05 to go. UNCG never trailed again.

Samford pulled to within a point three times in the final five minutes, the last coming when Kelly hit a jumper with 3:41 left to make it 69-68. But the Bulldogs misfired on their final five field goal attempts, and Merritt missed a pair of free throws with 2:02 to go and Samford trailing by a point.

Simpson finished 8-of-21 from the field, including four 3-pointers, and made all five of his free throw attempts. He added seven rebounds in 33 minutes.

Derrell Armstrong scored 13 points for UNCG, and Paulos added 12. Henry grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds. Windler led Samford with 18 points.

The Spartans shot 38 percent for the game, while limiting Samford to 40 percent shooting. UNCG was 16-of-20 at the free throw line, compared to 10-of-16 for the Bulldogs.

scored 20 or more points in five straight games entering Saturday's contest at Samford.

Simpson helped UNCG to the SoCon's biggest upset this season earlier this month, scoring 16 points and grabbing five rebounds in a 73-66 win at College of Charleston. He went one better two nights later at The Citadel, helping UNCG to a road sweep with a game-winning alley-oop dunk in the final second.

In conference play Simpson is averaging 19.4 points per game.

Armstrong Named SoCon Player of the Week... Again

After waiting nearly four years for a SoCon player of the week, UNCG now has a weekly honoree in consecutive weeks.

UNCG's Derrell Armstrong has been named the Southern Conference Player of the Week for all games played January 24-30 the league office announced Tuesday. It is the second consecutive week Armstrong has won the award. The junior guard averaged 25 points, seven rebounds and three assists in two games last week as the Spartans picked up overtime wins over Appalachian State (77-73) and Western Carolina (89-86).

Armstrong scored 50 points in two games off the bench for the Spartans last week. He tallied a game-high 27 points in UNCG's win over Appalachian State on Thursday night. Armstrong scored 19 points in the second half and overtime

The Mechanicsville, Md., native posted 21 of his 23 points in the second half and overtime against the Catamounts. The junior scored 12 of UNCG's 20 points in the extra frame. Armstrong added six rebounds, four assists, three seals and a blocked shot against WCU.

Instant Offense

Junior guard Derrell Armstrong is enjoying perhaps the best month of his basketball, helping UNCG to eight wins in their last nine games and earning a pair of SoCon player of the week awards in the process.

Since a Jan. 12 win at College of Charleston, Armstrong is averaging 20.1 points and 5.7 rebounds per game, all in a reserve role. In addition to his scoring and rebounding, Armstrong has developed into UNCG's most reliable three-point threat, shooting 46 percent from beyond the arc in the last nine games.

Armstrong was already UNCG's top offensive threat off the bench, but his recent play has lifted his scoring average into double-figures (12.0), while he is now averaging 16.2 points in SoCon play.

Lo, Henry!

UNCG has been desperately seeking a scoring post presence this season, and if the previous three games are any indication the Spartans may have found their man.

Senior center Aloysius Henry has come alive in the last three games, averaging 11 points, 6.7 rebounds and 2.0 blocks. Henry is shooting 67 percent (12-18) from the field and 82 percent (9-11) from the free throw line.

Simpson Makes ESPN Top Plays

In addition to nearly setting a school record for points in a game, Trevis Simpson also put on a dunking exhibition during UNCG's loss at Miami. One of his dunks, a reverse alley-oop off a pass from Derrell Armstrong, made the No. 6 spot on ESPN's Top Plays the next day.

The dunk also caused about a 10-minute delay as the tech crew at BankUnited Arena had to replace a bolt which was knocked loose by the alley-oop.

Parker Packing a Long-Range Punch

Sophomore guard Drew Parker isn't exactly the first name that comes to mind when pondering UNCG's top three-point shooters. After all, he shot just 30 percent from beyond the arc as a freshman. But as he enters Thursday's game with Appalachian State, Parker finds himself atop the SoCon leader board in three-point percentage at .500 (33-66).

Parker has also settled in to UNCG's starting lineup. Playing as the point guard Parker has started the last 19 games, and recorded a career-high 10 assists in UNCG's loss at Miami.

Spartans Picked Fourth in SoCon North

UNCG men's basketball team has been picked to finish fourth in the Southern Conference North Division in 2011-12 according to a vote by league head coaches, the conference office announced in October.

Chattanooga and Davidson are the favorites to capture the Southern Conference's divisional men's basketball titles in 2011-12. Appalachian State senior guard Omar Carter was also named the SoCon Preseason Player of the Year as part of the preseason all-conference team. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team or student-athletes as part of the balloting.

Dement begins the seventh season of his second tenure at UNCG and his 12th season overall with the Spartans looking to build upon last season's strong finish. After opening the year with a 0-15 mark, a team consisting of 11 first-and-second year players closed by winning seven of their final 16 games. The Spartans also won their opening game at the Southern Conference tournament before falling in the quarterfinals.

Another Tough Schedule

An appearance in the Maui Invitational, home games with East Carolina and 2011 Final Four participant VCU, and road games at Duke, Florida State and Miami (Fla.) highlight UNCG's 2011-12 men's basketball schedule.

In all, the Spartans are slated to play 30 regular season contests including 12 home games, all at Greensboro Coliseum. In addition to a full schedule of Southern Conference games, UNCG will square off against cross-town rival

North Carolina A&T in late November at the Coliseum.

Spartans on TV

UNCG men's basketball will make seven appearances on national and regional television outlets during the 2011-12 season.

The Spartans will appear four times on Fox Sports South, beginning with the season opener at Tennessee on Nov. 11. Other FSN South appearances include games at Florida State (Dec. 11), at Duke (Dec. 19) and at Miami, Fla. (Jan. 2).

UNCG's game at Georgetown on Nov. 14 will appear on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), which serves seven states from Pennsylvania to North Carolina. MASN is available locally in the Piedmont Triad on DirecTV Ch. 640.

The Spartans' home game with 2011 Final Four participant VCU on Dec. 22 will be shown on ESPN3, while a Feb. 4 contest at Furman is part of the SoCon Sports Network's season-long television package. The SoCon Sports Network consists of CSS, UNC-TV and ESPN3.

Spartans on the Radio

UNCG men's basketball games will once again be broadcast on the Triad Sports Network for the 2011-12 season. Owned by Curtis Media Group, the Triad Sports Network is a trio of AM stations providing all sports programming with ESPN radio affiliation. UNCG will be utilizing 1320 WCOG-AM as its flagship station for the broadcasts. Additional coverage will be provided on a game-by-game availability through 1200 WSML-AM and 1230 WMFR-AM.

WSML-AM's signal is based out of Graham, N.C., while WMFR-AM is based out of High Point. WZTK-FM, Curtis' FM-talk station, has a 100,000-watt signal that broadcasts nearly statewide and into parts of Virginia and Tennessee.

Scott Pryzwansky will once again handle play-by-play duties.

About the Southern Conference

The Southern Conference, which began its 91st season of intercollegiate competition in 2011, is a national leader in emphasizing the development of the student-athlete and in helping to build lifelong leaders and role models.

The Southern Conference has been on the forefront of innovation and originality in developing creative solutions to address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first conference basketball tournament (1921), tackling the issue of freshmen eligibility (1922), developing women's championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the three-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer.

The Southern Conference is the nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pacific 10 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination.

Up Next

The Spartans play their next-to-last home game when they host College of Charleston, 7 p.m., Wednesday at Greensboro Coliseum.
