OUTLOOK BY WEIGHT CLASS

118 - This weight class is solid with the return of sophomore Jason Laflin, who placed second in the conference championships a year ago as a freshman. In his first collegiate season Laflin turned in a record of 14-11-1. In addition, there is solid depth with Jason Martin, a junior with good wrestling experience. Martin holds a career record of 11-15-0. Also freshmen Matt Martin and David Hughes will lend help. The Moccasins have won this weight class nine times in the last 13 years.

126 - Junior Frank Matthews will head up this weight class as a returning conference finalist after finishing last season with a 21-14-1 mark. For his career, Matthews has posted a record of 39-34-2. However, there is more talent available in Ira Miller, a junior, and senior David Moss. The two have helped the Mocs before by giving some tough performances when needed, even though a combined career record of 5-25-0 doesn't show it. In the past the Mocs have taken home seven Southern Conference championships here.

134 - Sophomore Kelly Emily has taken the leading role in this weight which has opened up with the graduation of two-time conference champion Clarence Arrington. Although short on mat experience, development throughout the season, along with good competition from R.C. Jones for the starting spot, should allow for a solid weight class by tournament time. With some experience the two should be able to much improve on a combined career record of 1-4-0. UTC has won six titles in this class in its 13 years of competition.

142 - Junior Guy Harris takes control of this weight class with high expectations from the coaching staff. He has a career record of 11-14-0 and was 6-5-0 last season. Although the Mocs have won only two titles here in 13 seasons and the last in 1983, Harris will provide them with a legitimate candidtate. Depth here, however, will have to come from the 134-pound class.

150 - Sophomore Mike Newman leads the way at 150 after finishing in the conference runner-up position as a freshman. He compiled an overall record of 10-20-0 in 1990. This looks to be a solid weight class for UTC with Horace Jones, a freshman, backing up Newman. The Moccasins have won this division eight times in the 13 years of Southern Conference competition, the last in 1989 by Tom Sell.

158 - This weight class boasts a pair of contenders in Ben Baumer, who finished fourth in the conference last year, and senior Jerome Halbert. Baumer, a sophomore, finished his first year with an overall mark of 6-19-2 while Halbert has a career slate of 9-14-0. Both are legitimate candidates and can be expected to improve on last year's conference finish. Junior Jim Mitchell is also expected to challenge at this weight. In the past the Mocs have not done so well here, winning only four championships.

167 - Bryan Flint returns after winning the conference title last season with a record of 25-7-0. Flint, a junior with a career record of 39-23-0, has set his sights on another conference crown while making a strong bid for All-American status. Depth looks to come from sophomore Troy Flanagan. UTC has won only four championships in this weight division, but has a bright outlook for the future.

177 - Two-time Southern Conference champion Bret Gustafson leads the

way after winning it all at 167 in 1988 and at 177 in 1990 while ammassing a 45-18-1 slate overall. He was 32-8-1 last year. Bryant Rogowski will add power to this weight class, giving both talent and depth. Rogowski, only a sophomore, was 1-2-0 last season. UTC owns eight crowns from this weight division that have been collected over their 13-year history in the leaauge.

190 - This has been the most successful weight class for the Mocs winning 10 crowns over the past 13 years. Rod Horner, a two-time conference finalist hopes to build upon the tradition in 1991. Horner, a two-year letterman, is a senior with a career mark of 31-42-1. Depth could be a problem, and in fact, would have to come from Rogowski, up from 177, and freshman Steve McMillian.

HWT - Another conference finalist returns here in Warren Osbourn, a junior who appears determined to add a conference title to this weight class. He has an overall record of 6-9-2, and was 4-7-2 a year ago. Osbourn will be challenged by Dustin Glover, a sophomore, and freshman Jerry Luna.
Although the Mocs have won only four crowns in 13 years here, look for that to change sometime in the near future.
