OPENING TIPS

- The season opens with on November 6th with Covenant College traveling less than 10 miles to battle the Mocs at McKenzie Arena. Chattanooga will also be the home for the Coke Zero Sugar Classic in which the Mocs will take on Evansville and SEMO. The Mocs will also travel to Louisville, Milwaukee & Auburn before opening up SoCon play in January.

- Head coach Dan Earl begins his second season at the helm for Chattanooga, and it's clear the Mocs have found their leader. The former Southern Conference Coach of the Year went just 18-17 in his first season as coach, mostly due to the extended absence of star big man Jake Stephens. Despite the regular season record, Earl and the Mocs were able to reach the SoCon Championship Game as the seventh seed, and nearly accomplished a feat that hasn't been executed since 1939. Regardless, Earl has a new roster and will look to lead the Mocs back to the top of the Southern Conference.

- Many new faces will be in play for Chattanooga this season. 10 total newcomers from the transfer portal, high school signings and walk-ons, will go along with just three returning letter winners to form a fresh roster for coach Earl. Forwards Demetrius Davis, Sam Alexis and Randy Brady are the only returning Mocs who saw action last season, with Davis being the only starter.

- Sophomore guard Honor Huff (10.0 ppg in '22) will return to play this year after being ineligible last season due to the Southern Conference's intra-conference transfer rules. Huff was voted to the SoCon All-Freshman Team in his one season of play before transferring to Chattanooga with coach Earl.

- Chattanooga added grad transfer guard Rudy Fitzgibbons (7.9 ppg in '21-22) from the Citadel to go along with transfer forwards Tyler Millin (4.0 ppg) from MTSU and Jan Zidek (7.3 ppg off the bench) from Pepperdine. Florida transfer guard Trey Bonham (5.6 ppg) is currently ineligible due to the two-time transfer rule, but is awaiting a rule change or waiver from the NCAA in order to play this season.

Dan Earl Penn State '97, Second Season (18-17)

Chattanooga Mocs men's basketball has found its new leader. Dan Earl became the 22nd head coach of the program on March 31, 2022.

A familiar name and face, Earl came to the Scenic City following a seven-year stint as the head coach of Southern Conference foe VMI. Earl led the Keydets to its first winning season since 2013-14 after finishing 13-12 (11-1 at home) and claiming SoCon Coach of the Year honors in 2020-21. That team also made a semifinal appearance for the first time since 2003.

"After looking at many great candidates interested in our men's basketball head coaching position, Dan Earl stood out among an impressive group," stated Vice Chancellor & Director of Athletics Mark Wharton. "We conducted a thorough search process, but it was quickly clear that Dan was the best person to lead our program.

"He is extremely well-respected among his peers and comes with years of head coaching experience at our level. I look forward to watching him continue to build on the foundation of success Chattanooga Basketball has built over the years," added Wharton.

"I am honored and extremely excited to be the next head basketball coach at UTC," said the new ball coach. "I would like to thank Mark Wharton and Chancellor Dr. Steven Angle for this amazing opportunity. During the process, I really connected with Mark and the search committee and I am confident that this is an outstanding fit for my family and UTC."

It was instant success in Earl's first year as the bench boss at UTC during the 2022-23 campaign after the team finished 18-17 overall and reached the Southern Conference Tournament championship game for the 20th time in program history. The No. 7 seeded Chattanooga Mocs nearly capped off an incredible March run in Asheville, N.C., before falling to top-seeded Furman in a title game rematch from the previous season.

The Mocs almost became the first team since Clemson in 1939 to earn a Southern Conference Tournament title when having to win four games in a four day stretch. UTC defeated No. 10 VMI, No. 2 Samford and No. 6 Wofford in route to earning its spot in the championship game.

Under a fast-paced and high-scoring offensive system, Chattanooga finished the season first in all of NCAA Division I basketball in 2022-23 in threes made per game (11.4) and ranked second in three-point attempts per game (30.2). The Mocs set school records in all three-point categories including an NCAA DI best 398 total threes made during the season, 13 more than second-place Penn State (Earl's alma mater).

The 2022-23 campaign featured lofty accolades from All-Southern Conference star Jake Stephens, whom transferred to the Scenic City following a four-year career at VMI under Earl and was key in the Mocs run during tournament play. Stephens scored 92 points over the four-game stretch to notch a new UTC program record for points at the SoCon Tournament. He posted 20 or more points in each of the four games including 25 points and eight rebounds in the title game against Furman.

Stephens finished the season averaging 22.0 points, 9.8 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 2.2 blocks per game while becoming the 26th Moc in program history to score 500 or more points in a single season (527) and was one of just two players in NCAA Division I during the year (Trayce Jackson-Davis, Indiana) to average at least 20 points, 9.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.0 blocks per contest.

Stephens, whose development at the collegiate level was directed by Earl for all five years, became the only player in NCAA DI basketball since at least 1992-93 to post 1,900 career points (1,943), 900 total rebounds (964), 350 assists (366) and 200 blocks (206) in a career, according to Sports Reference College Basketball's stat database.

Following the 2022-23 season, Earl helped guide newcomer Sam Alexis to Southern Conference All-Freshman honors following a solid rookie campaign. Stephens was tabbed to the All-SoCon First Team (media), All-SoCon Second Team (coaches) and SoCon All-Tournament Team while graduate Jamal Johnson also earned All-Tournament honors.

Before UTC, Earl helped guide VMI to consecutive .500 or better seasons for the first time since 2010-12 and just the second time in program history since a four-year stretch from 1974-1978. In conference play, back-to-back .500 seasons (7-7 in 20-21, 9-9 in 21-22) were achieved for just the first time since 1997-1999 when the SoCon competed in a divisional format.

Earl previously served as an assistant at his alma mater Penn State from 2006-11 before obtaining associate head coach responsibilities at Navy from 2011-15. At Navy, Earl served as the recruiting director and played a vital role on the offensive side of the ball. He helped the Midshipmen double conference wins in each of the first four seasons under head coach Ed DeChellis.

In Happy Valley, Earl helped lead the Nittany Lions to an NCAA Tournament berth in 2011, the program's first in 10 years, and a 2009 NIT Championship that saw the team record a school record 27 wins. He helped develop All-Big 10 selection Talor Battle, who became the lone player in Big 10 history to surpass 2,000 points, 500 rebounds and 500 assists in a career.

In his playing days, Earl was a three-time team captain, a 1996 All-Big Ten selection and helped lead the program to one of its best stretches in program history. PSU went 73-46 during his playing career while Earl posted 1,256 career points (15th all-time), 574 assists (2nd all-time) and 194 threes (7th all-time). He played professionally on the international side in addition to stints stateside in the Continental Basketball Association and NBA Development League.

Personally, Earl comes from a heavily-rooted basketball family. His father, Denny, started at forward for Rutgers in the 60's under head coach Bill Foster and alongside the late Jim Valvano. His younger brother, Brian, started for Princeton from 1996-99 and helped the program win 95 games during that span – most of any player in school history. Brian is currently the head coach at Cornell.

Earl received a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from Penn State in December of 1997 and achieved a master's degree in business logistics from PSU in 2007. He and his wife, Sheila, have two daughters, Mila and Alyssa.
