CONFERENCE USA NOTES

Conference USA enters its third decade in 2015-16 as it continues to compete and promote the success of its student-athletes. The league has adapted to the ever-changing landscape of collegiate athletics over its first 20 seasons, but the commitment to excellence, integrity, leadership and its student athletes in competition, academics and community is unwavering.

Conference USA enjoys a far-reaching fan base with its 14 members: Charlotte, FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Marshall, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Miss, UAB, UTEP, UTSA and WKU.

Debuting in 1995, Conference USA teams have combined for 88 bowl appearances in football, 102 NCAA Tournament appearances in basketball, including three Final Fours, 63 NCAA baseball appearances including six College World Series berths, 79 NCAA soccer tournament appearances including four trips to the College Cup, and 35 individual national champions in track and field and cross country.

Success is not limited to athletic achievement, however, as 197 Conference USA student-athletes have garnered Academic All-America honors, 691 have achieved academic all-district laurels and thousands of student-athletes have earned a college degree.

Conference USA sponsors competition in 19 sports – nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 10 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball).

The league promotes the scholar-athlete ideal, honoring outstanding academic achievement with numerous conference-sponsored awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal as well as sport-specific All-Academic teams.

C-USA annually awards postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Awards, Scholar-Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Additionally, Conference USA presents a Spirit of Service Award three times each year, recognizing student-athletes who excel on the field, in the classroom and give back to the community through significant service efforts and participation.

SUCCESS ON THE PLAYING FIELD

Conference USA performers have achieved great success in competition, placing the league among the top conferences in the nation.

- One National Championship title game appearance
- Three Final Four teams
- Seven Elite Eight NCAA Tournament teams
- One NIT Champion and five NIT semifinalists
- Inaugural CBI Champion

In addition to the numerous NCAA Tournament berths, C-USA has sent four men's soccer teams to the NCAA College Cup, three softball teams to the Women's College World Series and three volleyball teams to the NCAA Sweet 16. The league has also had 35 national champions in NCAA track and field competition, one national champion in diving, and numerous NCAA individual and team competitors in cross country, golf, swimming, tennis, and track and field. Overall, Conference USA teams and individuals have made more than 1,900 NCAA appearances.

SUCCESS OFF THE FIELD

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance of student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 20 years, nearly 30,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA ON TV

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through partnerships with FOX Sports Media Group, CBS Sports Network, ESPN and American Sports Network (ASN). The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all four networks has substantially increased the number of national and regional appearances for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports.

C-USA membership include institutions within eight of the Top 40 media markets and four in the Top 25 according to Nielsen. C-USA home markets this year will include more than 13 million TV households, a 30 percent increase from two years ago.

C-USA DIGITAL NETWORK

The C-USA Digital Network officially launched in August of 2011. Network programming includes live streaming of non-televised events, video on demand, a weekly C-USA studio show, podcasting, regular-season and championship event highlights, and conference-produced feature stories. In its first year, 1,164 events were streamed live and 8,126 videos were posted and available on the C-USA Digital Network, and those numbers have more than doubled. Monthly and yearly subscriptions provide fans access to events offered on all of the C-USA member institution's athletic websites as well as C-USA network programming.

C-USA IN THE COMMUNITY

The conference's current footprint is concentrated with 14 members in 10 states and a combined area population of more than 30 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

GOVERNANCE

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors.

A PROUD HISTORY

Conference USA was formed in 1995 and quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences. The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner April 24, 1995, in Chicago. The league's charter members were Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, Houston, Louisville, Marquette, Memphis, Saint Louis, Southern Miss, Tulane, UAB and USF. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996.

The league's headquarters were established in Chicago and, after nine years, relocated to the current office in Irving, Texas. Britton Banowsky was named Commissioner in October 2002, succeeding Mike Slive, the league's first commissioner.

C-USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB began football play in 1999. The league brought in TCU and ECU (1999) for all sports and they began competition in 2001. USF started C-USA football in 2003. Marshall, Rice, SMU, Tulsa, UCF and UTEP became full-time Conference USA members for all sports in 2005.

In 2013, charter member Charlotte returned to C-USA and was joined by new members FIU, Florida Atlantic, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion and UTSA. WKU joined the league on July 1, 2014.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

UTEP is coming off its first winning season (7-6) in nine years (8-4, 2005), but if it is to truly prove that it is embarking on a new era, head coach Sean Kugler's crew needs to build on the success. The Miners will be aiming for back-to-back winning campaigns for the first time in a decade (8-4 in both 2004 & 2005), which was also the last time they had a bowl appearance in consecutive seasons.

MOST IMPROVED FBS PROGRAMS IN 2014

UTEP was one of the most improved FBS programs in 2014 after winning only two games in 2013. The Miners' +5 win improvement ranked tied for fifth-best amongst FBS schools. Air Force (10-3 record in 2014) and TCU (12-1) were most improved at +8, while Memphis (10-3) and Western Michigan (8-5) chalked up a +7 improvement. Conference USA member LA Tech (9-5) and NC State (8-5) tallied a +5 improvement. Utah (9-4), Temple (6-6) and Cal (5-7) registered a +4 in 2014.

MINER IMPROVEMENTS

UTEP recorded a winning season following a losing season for the 13th time in program history. The first time occurred during the 1915 season when the Miners finished 3-2 after going 2-3 in their inaugural season (1914). The other seasons include 1922 (5-4 from 1-4), 1924 (3-2-1 from 3-4), 1929 (6-1-2 from 3-4-1), 1936 (5-3 from 1-8), 1942 (5-4 from 4-5-1), 1947 (5-3-1 from 3-6), 1965 (8-3 from 0-8-2), 1970 (6-4 from 4-6), 1987 (7-4 from 4-8), 2000 (8-4 from 5-7), 2004 (8-4 from 2-11) and 2014 (7-5 from 2-10). The 1965 squad was the most improved in program history (+8), while the 2004 team had a +6 improvement for second best and the 2014 team finished +5. The 1922 and 1936 teams saw a +4 upgrade. The 1985-88 seasons saw a +3 improvement each season after winning one game in 1985 to winning 10 in 1988.

SUCCESS IN THE SUN BOWL

The Miners finished 5-1 in the Sun Bowl in 2014 (4-0 in Conference USA games). With the victory over Middle Tennessee to end the regular season, they matched their most victories during league play in the venue since 1988 (4-0). UTEP also registered five home wins in 2000, 2004, 2005 and 2010.

VERY FEW INFRACTIONS

UTEP committed 65 penalties in 13 games during the 2014 season. The Miners ranked fourth in Conference USA in fewest penalties, while ranking third for least penalty yards (514), fourth in penalties per game (5.0) and tied for second in penalty yards per game (39.5). Nationally, UTEP ranked 30th in fewest penalties and 28th in penalties per game.

PENALTIES DURING THE KUGLER ERA

In 25 games with head coach Sean Kugler, UTEP has committed 113 penalties totaling 923 yards. That breaks down to 4.5 penalties and 36.9 penalty yards per contest. Prior to Kugler's arrival, the Miners averaged 5.8 penalties and 51.8 penalty yards per game the last five seasons. During Kugler's two seasons, UTEP has averaged 56.5 penalties. The previous five campaigns, UTEP averaged 71 penalties per season.

POSITIVE TURNOVER MARGIN

UTEP finished 18th amongst FBS schools with a +9 turnover margin, while its total lost (12) rated tied for second best. The Miners intercepted 11 passes and recovered 10 fumbles during the regular season. In Conference USA, UTEP ranked third in turnover margin, while ranking third in fumbles lost (six) and second in interceptions lost (six). The Miners lost just three fumbles on rush plays, seventh fewest in the nation. It's the first time since the 2008 season (+12) that UTEP has been on the plus side in turnover margin. Prior to 2014, the last five campaigns (-3[2009], -5 [2010], -8 [2011], -4 [2012], and -6 [2013]) saw the Miners in the negative.

HEAD COACH SEAN KUGLER

Sean Kugler will enter his third season as UTEP's head coach, as he went from two wins in his first season to a winning campaign and a bowl bid during his second. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Miners (1985-88) and a three-year starter at right guard. Kugler returned to the Sun City as a UTEP assistant coach (1993-2000), working as a graduate assistant/defensive line coach in 1993, tight ends & assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1994 and offensive line coach from 1995-2000. He coached in the NFL with Detroit (2001-05), Buffalo (2007-09) and Pittsburgh (2010-12) and was also assistant head coach at Boise State in 2006 when the Broncos finished 13-0 and upset Oklahoma, 43-42, in the Fiesta Bowl.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

JONES IS OFF & RUNNING

El Paso native Aaron Jones has made his hometown proud by becoming the first Miner underclassman to lead the team in rushing in each of his first two years since John Harvey (1985-86). Jones has averaged better than 5.0 yards per carry in both seasons, putting him in position to make history in 2015. No UTEP rushing leader has ever posted three consecutive campaigns with a yards per carry of at least 5.0. Harvey came precariously close, finishing with a rushing average of 4.98 as a junior. He eclipsed 5.00 in his other three seasons. Jones is also aspiring to become the initial Miner since Marcus Thomas (2005-07) and eighth overall to pace the team in rushing in three straight seasons. Harvey (1985-89) is the only individual at the school to do so in all four years while Thomas (2005-07), Howard Jackson (2002-04), Robert Elliott (1975-77), Charles Bradshaw (1958-60), Clovis Riley (1951-53) and Ken Heineman (1937-39) comprise the three-time member list. In terms of 1,000+ rushing yard seasons, Jones is looking to join Jackson (2003-04) and Toraino Singleton (1994-95) as the lone Miners to reach the plateau in back-to-back years.

MOVING ON UP

After piling up the fourth-highest single-season rushing total (1,321 yards) at the school in 2014, Aaron Jones enters his junior campaign with 2,132 rushing yards. That total places him 10th all-time in program history, but if Jones stays healthy and continues to produce, he will rapidly climb the charts. Jones needs 703 yards to move into third place on the UTEP career rushing list. Incredibly enough, it is not out of the question for Jones to climb into second place or even take over the top spot at the school with a big-time year. He is 1,335 yards away from overtaking Howard Jackson's second-place standing (3,466) while he would need 1,445 yards to dethrone John Harvey's (3,576) UTEP record.

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK

Aaron Jones has hit 100-plus yards rushing nine times in 21 games during his UTEP career. Jones is tied for sixth in program history in 100-yard games. Donald Buckram (2006-10), Robert Elliott (1974-77) and Pug Gabrel (1947-50) notched nine apiece. John Harvey (1985-88) leads the all-time list with sixteen 100-yard games, while Howard Jackson (2001-04) tallied 14, Toraino Singleton (1994-95) 12, Marcus Thomas (2004-07) 11, and Paul Smith (1996-99) 10.

AARON JONES ACCOLADES

Aaron Jones was named to the Conference USA second team after a stellar sophomore campaign. Other achievements include: 2014 Dave Campbell Texas Running Back of the Year, 2014 Dave Campbell Player of the Year Honorable Mention, 2014 Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Semifinalist, and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award National Player of the Week Honorable Mention (11/18 & 9/2). The running back has also earned recognition this season being named to the Maxwell Award watch list and 2015 Dave Campbell Texas Football Best Running Back.

OTHER AARON JONES FACTS

Aaron Jones led the Miners with three touchdown receptions during the 2014 season, including a career-long 72-yard touchdown catch against Middle Tennessee. He also ranked second on the team in receptions (30) while totaling 293 yards receiving. Jones' 1,614 all-purpose yards ranked seventh best in program history. Jones also amassed 14 total touchdowns, the most since Leilyon Myers scored 12 in 2011.

RUNNING BACK DEPTH

During the 2014 season, Nathan Jeffery and Josh Bell complemented starting ball carrier Aaron Jones by combining for 787 yards and nine rushing scores. Jeffery and Bell have graduated since then; senior Jeremiah Laufasa and freshman Treyvon Hughes are being looked on to back up Jones in 2015. Both Laufasa (6-foot, 215 lbs.) and Hughes (6-foot-1, 225 lbs.) have similar running styles to Jeffery (6-foot, 210 lbs.) and Bell (6-foot, 220 lbs.), who bruised and grinded past defenders. Laufasa brings most of the experience as he played in three games for the Miners, rushing for 65 yards on nine attempts (7.2 avg.) and a score, while hauling in a 30-yard pass before a season-ending injury. Prior to transferring to UTEP, Laufasa appeared in 13 games, making one start, during his sophomore campaign (2013) at Washington State, while rushing for seven touchdowns.

EXPERIENCE ON THE O-LINE

Four starting offensive linemen from last season will return for the 2015 campaign. UTEP returns LG Will Hernandez, C Eric Lee, RG Derek Elmendorff and RT Jerome Daniels. UTEP is one of seven Conference USA programs to return four offensive linemen. The other six schools are Charlotte, Florida Atlantic, Middle Tennessee, Old Dominion, Southern Miss and Western Kentucky. FIU, LA Tech and Marshall each return three, while Rice has two coming back, and North Texas and UTSA each have one returnee.

PAVING THE WAY

The UTEP offensive line laid the foundation for rushers to gain 2,701 yards on 573 carries (4.7 avg.) and 27 touchdowns. The Miners' rushing attack ranked fourth in Conference USA and tied for fourth in rushing scores. UTEP's 207.9 yards per game ranked fourth in the league and 33rd nationally. The offensive line created holes for RB Aaron Jones, who led the team with 1,321 yards (ranked fourth in C-USA and 26th nationally). RB Nathan Jeffery nearly cracked the top 10 in the league with his 531 yards and QB Jameill Showers rattled off 312 yards.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

PROTECTING THE FIELD GENERAL

In 2014, UTEP quarterbacks were sacked only 13 times in 13 games, which ranked No. 1 in Conference USA. LA Tech and WKU tied for second with 19 sacks allowed. The Miners ranked tied for eighth in the nation with Duke and Northern Illinois. Oklahoma led the nation by only allowing nine sacks in its 13 contests.

KEEPING AN EYE ON ERIC LEE

Senior C Eric Lee was named to the Rimington Trophy Spring Watch List on May 19. The list includes 52 of the best centers in Division I football that have demonstrated excellence at the position in the past and are predicted to do so again during the 2015 season. Lee saw playing time for the first time last season, starting in all 13 games. Lee is one of six starting centers in Conference USA to make their return for the 2015 campaign. The other five centers include: redshirt junior Jarred Barr (Charlotte), senior Kirby Wixson (LA Tech), redshirt junior Josh Chester (Middle Tennessee), junior Kaydon Kirby (North Texas), and junior Cameron Tom (Southern Miss).

FINDING GOOD HANDS

UTEP will have some inexperience at the receiver position heading into the new season. Senior Autrey Golden returns with his team-leading 31 receptions, but has never started a game at the wide receiver position. The top wide receivers according to the recent depth chart include Golden (WR-Z), sophomore Tyler Batson (WR-X) and junior Jaquan White (SLOT). The trio of wideouts did not start one game in 2014. Batson and White combined for five receptions for 106 yards and one score. Head Coach Sean Kugler is known to utilize his tight ends, as seniors M.J. McFarland and Cedrick Lang, junior Hayden Plinke, and sophomores Sterling Napier and Cole Rogers will compete for playing time. McFarland brings the most experience after playing three seasons at Texas, Napier played in 12 games last year as a true freshman but had no receptions, Rogers participated in 11 contests and recorded two receptions for 25 yards, and Plinke (five career receptions) will suit up for the first time in his UTEP career after transferring from Portland State. The Miners lost departed senior WRs Ian Hamilton and Jarrad Shaw and TE Eric Tomlinson. The trio combined for 37 starts in 2014. Hamilton led the team with 579 yards on 27 catches (21.4 avg.), while Tomlinson led all UTEP tight ends in receptions (19) and yards (134). Shaw chipped in with 174 yards on 14 catches and a score.

LOTS OF QBS BUT NOT LOTS OF EXPERIENCE

UTEP will carry five quarterbacks on its roster in 2015, but there are more questions than answers as far as just how good shape UTEP is in at a key position. Head Coach Sean Kugler and staff will be aiming to find a replacement for Jameill Showers, who started all 13 games last year while compiling 1,858 yards and 12 TDs to six interceptions. Only two (junior Garrett Simpson and sophomore Mack Leftwich) of the five QBs have taken a snap at the collegiate level but those have been very limited. Leftwich, who redshirted in 2014, started the final four games of the 2013 season after being pulled from redshirt status. He connected on 44-of-75 passes (58.7 percent) for 458 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. Simpson, meanwhile, has appeared in five total contests in two years with the Orange and Blue. He has completed all three attempts for a total of 55 yards (in 2013) while scoring a touchdown on a one-yard plunge in his only carry (2014). The other four signal callers on the squad are all freshmen, with two redshirt freshmen (Hunter McEachern and Ryan Metz), and a true freshman from the high school ranks (Kavika Johnson).

TIME MANAGEMENT

UTEP won the time of possession battle in 12 of 13 games during the 2014 campaign. The Miners ranked second in the nation in time of possession (34:57) behind Michigan State (35:21). UTEP's time of possession (41:26) against Old Dominion was the second most for the Miners ever, and fourth time with better than 40 minutes in school history (41:53 at NM State in 2013, 41:25 vs. Valdosta State in 1995 & 41:03 at BYU in 1984). UTEP assembled its longest drive, in terms of time, of 2014 at WKU. The Miners chewed 11:20 off the clock on an 18-play, 86-yard drive that resulted in a three-yard Nathan Jeffery touchdown. It was the longest drive by a Miner football team since a 21-play, 90-yard drive covering 11:46 that resulted in a field goal against SMU on Sept. 9, 2000.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

STOKED DEFENSE

After a challenging 2013 season, second-year defensive coordinator Scott Stoker oversaw considerable improvement in 2014. The Miners allowed 28.1 points after allowing just over 39 points per game in 2013, while giving up 49 touchdowns in 2014 after 62 in 2013. The defense gave up 368.1 yards per game, still a high number, but vastly improved from 468.3 yards allowed in 2013. Opponents ran just 58.5 plays per game against UTEP, which was fewest in the FBS. UTEP rated fifth in Conference USA in scoring defense.

PASS DEFENSE RANKINGS

UTEP's passing defense (191.2 yards per game) ranked first in Conference USA and 15th amongst FBS schools in 2014. The Miners yielded 2,486 passing yards, ranking 22nd nationally and second in conference.

STALLING THE CHAIN GANG

UTEP ranked first in Conference USA and seventh amongst FBS schools in first downs allowed per game (16.2). The defense only yielded 211, ranking first in conference and ninth nationally. The Miners gave up 262 first downs in 2013. The highlight during the season came at UTSA when the Miners set a school and conference record by allowing only two first downs.

THIRD-DOWN DEFENSE

The UTEP defense ranked first in Conference USA and ninth nationally in third down conversions allowed (59), while its 37 percent conversion rate against ranked fifth in conference and 32nd nationally. It's the lowest percentage since the 2004 season when the Miners only gave up 53-of-180 third down conversions (29 percent).

SCORING ON THE DEFENSIVE

The UTEP defense, after scoring a defensive touchdown against UTSA, found the end zone two more times against Southern Miss. The first came when Trey Brown intercepted a pass and took it 51 yards to the end zone, while the second was a Nick Gathrite fumble recovery that went 59 yards to the house. Both touchdowns were the first in their UTEP careers. It was the first time since the 2008 season that the Miner defense scored two touchdowns in a game and two consecutive games in which the defense produced points. Anthony Morrow took an interception 27 yards to the end zone and Robert Soleyjacks returned a fumble 24 yards for a score against NM State (9/20/08). The next week, Josh Ferguson scored on a 45-yard fumble return and Dane O'Neill recovered a fumble in the end zone against UCF (9/27/08). Jimmy Musgrave took an interception 19 yards for a score at UTSA. The Miners had three defensive touchdowns in 2014, their most since scoring four in 2008.

UPPING THE SACKS & INTS IN 2014

The UTEP defense improved in two key areas in 2014. The Miners tallied 11 interceptions after picking off only three passes in 2013, while the sack total (26) doubled from the previous season.

QB HURRIES & TACKLES FOR LOSSES

As the Miners' sacks have increased, so have their quarterback hurries. UTEP recorded 40 quarterback hurries last season, after only getting 12 in 2013. And after registering a season-high 10 tackles for losses against North Texas and adding eight more against Utah State, UTEP finished with 76 tackles for losses (for 261 yards). In 2013, the Miners tallied 45 for 158 yards.

PICKING OFF PASSES

The UTEP defense registered 11 interceptions by 10 different Miners in 2014. The list included Adrian James (at New Mexico), Wesley Miller (vs. NM State), Damian Payne (vs. NM State & vs. Utah State), Da'Carlos Renfro (at LA Tech), Jimmy Musgrave (at UTSA), Alvin Jones (vs. Southern Miss), Trey Brown (vs. Southern Miss), Nick Gathrite (vs. North Texas), Devin Cockrell (at Rice) and Jameel Erving (vs. Middle Tennessee). For Payne, Renfro, Musgrave, Jones, Brown, Gathrite and Erving, it was their first interceptions in a UTEP uniform. Erving's INT sealed the victory over the Blue Raiders and bowl bid.

LEADING LINEBACKERS

Defensive Coordinator Scott Stoker has to be excited about his returning linebackers. Sophomore Alvin Jones (redshirted in 2013) and senior Jimmy Musgrave (transferred from Victor Valley College) made immediate impacts during their first season in a UTEP uniform, while senior Trey Brown broke out on the scene his junior year. Each picked off a pass last year, while Musgrave and Brown returned theirs for a pick-six. Brown took one 51 yards to pay dirt against Southern Miss, and Musgrave went 19 yards to the house at UTSA. Jones ranked second on the defense with 55 tackles (29 solo), while Musgrave tallied 36 stops and Brown compiled 33. Musgrave (3.0), Brown (2.0) and Jones (1.5) combined for 6.5 sacks and 18.5 tackles for losses.

END-TO-END DEFENDERS

UTEP has two returning defensive ends that harassed offensive linemen throughout 2014. 6-foot-7, 255-pound Roy Robertson-Harris and 6-foot-3, 235-pound Nick Usher stepped up in a big way. Robertson-Harris made 13 starts his junior season after making eight in 2013, and Usher made 12 starts after zero starts his freshman season. Usher tallied 41 tackles, 3.0 sacks and three quarterback hurries, and Robertson-Harris recorded 36 stops, while leading the team in sacks (3.5) and quarterback hurries (six).

DEPTH & EXPERIENCE AT THE DEFENSIVE BACK POSITION

UTEP will have 19 defensive backs listed on the roster in 2015. Of the 19 DBs, 12 are upperclassmen. LaQuintus Dowell, Kelvin Fisher Jr., Ishmael Harrison, Da'Carlos Renfro, Traun Roberson (grad student), Natanael Rodriguez, Daniel Siller, Nathan Stukes and Trent Trammell (transfer) make up the senior DBs. Devin Cockrell, Leon Hayes and Dashone Smith round out the junior class.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

THE GOLDEN STANDARD

Autrey Golden returned two kickoffs for scores in 2014. The first was a 98-yard return in the third quarter against Southern Miss, while the second came at WKU, 92 yards for a TD in the first quarter on Nov. 8. He has six kickoff return touchdowns in his career (ranked No. 1 in program history), making him the active FBS leader in the category. Golden is tied for second in Conference USA history and tied for third in NCAA history. He is now just one back of C-USA and NCAA record-holder Tyron Carrier of Houston (seven). Former Clemson star C.J. Spiller also shares the NCAA marker with seven kickoff returns for scores. Golden now has a total of 88 career returns, rating third in program history. He has also registered 2,339 kickoff return yards, ranking him second all-time at UTEP. Cedric Johnson (1993-96) holds the program record with 2,757 yards.

BACK-TO-BACK KR TDS

Autrey Golden became the first Miner since Marlon McClure to return kickoffs for touchdowns in back-to-back contests on Nov. 8, 2014. Golden returned one against Southern Miss, followed by another at WKU. McClure took one back 100 yards on Nov. 13, 2010 at Arkansas, followed by a 73-yard return at Tulsa on Nov. 20, 2010. The diverse player has been named to the 2015 Paul Hornung Award watch list for his contributions as a kick returner and wide receiver.

SPECIAL JAY

UTEP Kicker Jay Mattox played a key role on special teams in 2014. Firstly, Mattox connected on 81.2 percent (13-16) of his field goals after a 7-for-15 (46.7 percent) effort in 2013. Mattox went 43-for-44 on PATs in 2014, while connecting on 75-of-76 PATs during his two seasons as a Miner. Mattox also registered a career-long 47-yard field goal at UTSA. It was the same game in which Mattox took over the punting duties. He averaged 46.1 yards on seven punts, while placing three inside the 10-yard line against the Roadrunners. Mattox booted a career-long 68-yard punt at WKU. The junior has garnered national recognition being one of two Conference USA kickers on the Groza Award watch list.

PUNTER WANTED

Junior Jay Mattox is listed as the No. 1 punter according to the depth chart, while sophomore Mikael Sroka and freshman Alan Luna are vying for a spot. Mattox led the team with 41 punts for 1,687 yards (41.1 avg.). Sroka kicked one punt, a 37-yard boot at New Mexico.

KICKOFF RETURN DEFENSE

Another key factor that led to a winning season was UTEP's kickoff return defense. The Miners ranked 11th in the FBS, allowing 17.47 yards per return. It was a dramatic improvement from 2013 when the coverage team ranked 89th nationally (22.37 avg.). UTEP ranked second in Conference USA behind North Texas (16.37 avg.) after ranking 10th in 2013.

THIRD SEASON AT UTEP

26TH SEASON AS A COACH

Former UTEP player and assistant Sean Kugler was named the 25th head coach of the Miners on December 10, 2012.

In his second season, Kugler engineered one of the greatest turnarounds in the country. The Miners, 2-10 in 2013, recorded a winning record overall (7-6) and in Conference USA play (5-3) for the first time since 2005. UTEP posted victories in five of its last seven regular season games to rebound from a 2-3 start. The hot finish propelled UTEP into the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where it faced Utah State in its first postseason appearance in four years.

Using a ball control offense – the Miners were second nationally in time of possession – and a punishing ground game led by El Paso native Aaron Jones, UTEP averaged 26.6 points and 207.8 rushing yards per game. That was more than enough to complement a defense that exhibited vast improvement. The Miners allowed more than 10 fewer points and 100 fewer yards per contest than they did in 2013.

The 2014 Miners took on the persona of their coach – tough, hard-nosed, and quick to respond to adversity.

They opened the season with a 31-24 triumph at New Mexico, a game in which they built a 24-7 lead in the second quarter, spotted the Lobos 17 unanswered points, then made the plays necessary to secure the win late. Jones capitalized on a fumble by Lobo punt returner Dameon Gamblin to score the winning TD, then Adrian James picked off UNM quarterback Clayton Mitchem's pass with a little over a minute to go.

It was the first of numerous times that UTEP displayed a fortitude and resolve that had been lacking in recent years.

On Sept. 6, the Miners nearly upset Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl. They recovered from the disappointing 30-26 loss to thump I-10 rival NM State, 42-24, a week later.

Following back-to-back blowout losses at Kansas State and Louisiana Tech, the Miners began their breathtaking mid-season march. They knocked off Old Dominion 42-35 in the Sun Bowl, then posted one of the most dominating defensive performances in school history in a 34-0 rout at UTSA. The Roadrunners were limited to just two first downs and 70 yards of offense as UTEP pitched its first conference shutout in 26 years.

The run continued with a 35-14 shellacking of Southern Miss in El Paso. The Miners nearly extended their winning streak to five games at Western Kentucky, but the Hilltoppers erased a 27-14 deficit by scoring three late touchdowns.

Undeterred, UTEP posted wins in two of its final three regular season games – first dispatching North Texas on Nov. 15 (35-17), then holding off a Middle Tennessee team that was also fighting for its bowl life in the regular season finale on Nov. 29. The defense snuffed out a potential game-winning touchdown drive by the Blue Raiders, as Jameel Erving recorded a spectacular one-handed interception just outside of the end zone and UTEP held on for a 24-21 victory.

The ground game was pulsated by Jones, who averaged 110.1 yards per contest to rate 24th nationally. Jameill Showers was solid under center, throwing for 12 touchdowns with only six interceptions.

The defense forced 21 turnovers and generated a pass rush with 26 sacks, 76 tackles for losses and 40 quarterback hurries.

Autrey Golden continued to ignite the special teams area, coming within one kickoff return for a touchdown of tying the NCAA record (he has six in his career). The Miners were also strong on kickoff coverage, rating 11th nationally by allowing 17.5 yards per return.

In his first year at the helm of the program, Kugler established expectations for his student-athletes. They would be disciplined and tough on the field, responsible and accountable off of it. Kugler's hard-nosed mentality was immediately reflected in the way the Miners played the game. They rushed for over 200 yards in six contests for the first time in 19 years. They compiled more rushing first downs (116) than passing first downs (87) for the first time in 10 years.

The Miners were competitive in the first half of the season before the injury bug claimed starting quarterback Showers and, later, freshman rushing phenom Jones. While their absence resulted in a rough closing stretch, it afforded Kugler and his staff the opportunity to give some young guys who will be counted on down the road some much-needed experience, including freshman quarterback Mack Leftwich.

Defensively, UTEP was forced to install a 4-2-5 scheme in the blink of an eye after switching coordinators following spring ball. Scott Stoker's troops had their ups and downs while relying heavily on unproven players. Seven of the top 10 tacklers at season's end hadn't started a game for the Miners prior to 2013.

In the end, the season was all about laying the groundwork for a new era of Miner football.

Kugler returned to the Sun City following three seasons as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. He has 11 years of NFL experience, also working with the Detroit Lions (2001-05) and the Buffalo Bills (2007-09).

Kugler was on the UTEP staff from 1993-2000, and was assistant head coach at Boise State in 2006, when the Broncos finished 13-0 and beat Oklahoma 43-42 in the Fiesta Bowl, unanimously viewed as one of the greatest postseason games in college football history.

Kugler was raised in Lockport, N.Y. His father was an assistant fire chief.

He was a four-year letterman at UTEP (1985-88), playing under head coach and current UTEP Director of Athletics Bob Stull for three seasons. In 1988, Kugler led the Miners to the only 10-win season in school history and a berth in the Independence Bowl. His position coach at UTEP was current Kansas City Chiefs head coach Andy Reid.

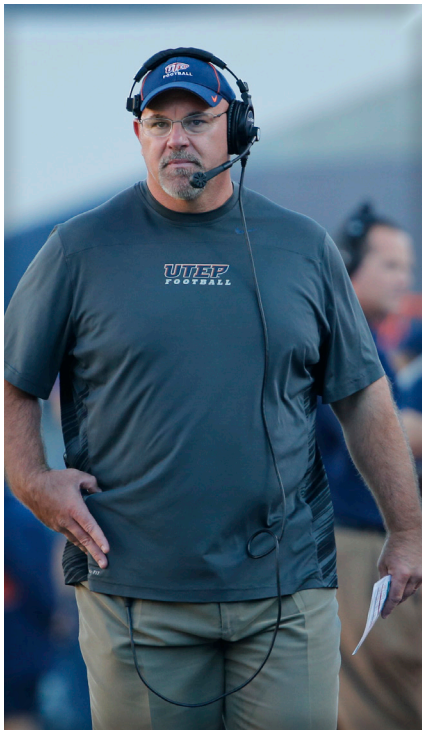
He signed with the Steelers as an undrafted free agent in 1989. Kugler started at guard for the Sacramento Surge in the World League of American Football in 1991.

He began his coaching career at Tampa Bay Vo-Tech High School in 1990, helping the school to its most successful season with a 10-2 record. He was the offensive line and strength & conditioning coach at Gaither High School in Tampa in 1992 before making his way back to El Paso.

During eight seasons with the Miners, Kugler served in various capacities and coached four All-Western Athletic Conference offensive linemen (Carey Clayton, Alan Gray, Jeff Seeton, Anwar White). In his final season, UTEP finished 8-4, won the second conference title in school history and faced Boise State in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl.

In 2001, Kugler began his long-running association with the National Football League. He spent five seasons with the Detroit Lions, working with the tight ends and the offensive line, before returning to college coaching at Boise State in 2006.

He was a part of a magical campaign with the Broncos, doubling as the team's assistant head coach and offensive line coach. The explosive Bronco offense produced 222.8 yards rushing per game to rate sixth nationally. Leading the ground game was sophomore Ian Johnson, who ranked first in the country in rushing touchdowns (25) and second in rushing yards (1,755). Kugler coached a pair of All-WAC offensive linemen at Boise State, including current Denver Broncos Pro Bowler Ryan Clady.



Kugler rejoined the NFL at Buffalo in 2007. In three seasons with the Bills, he mentored two-time Pro Bowl left tackle Jason Peters. In 2007, Kugler's offensive line surrendered just 26 sacks to set a team record. The Bills also had a 1,000-yard rusher in every season with Kugler on the sideline.

The highlight of Kugler's stint with the Steelers was a trip to the 2011 Super Bowl. The 2010 season may have marked Kugler's crowning achievement as a coach, as he took a patchwork offensive line decimated by the loss of both tackles to season-ending injuries and groomed it into a championship-caliber unit. Under Kugler's tutelage rookie center Maurkice Pouncey made the first of three consecutive Pro Bowl appearances. A year later, the Steelers posted their highest yards per carry average in 10 years (4.4) and Ben Roethlisberger threw for 4,077 yards, the second-best figure in franchise history. Despite again facing multiple injuries to key O-Line personnel, the Steelers lowered their sacks allowed count from 42 in 2011 to 37 in 2012.

Kugler and his wife, Patsy, have three children - sons Robert and Patrick, and daughter Kali. Robert and Patrick played on high school teams that won back-to-back state titles in New York (2009) and Pennsylvania (2010). Robert was named the Class AAAA co-Player of the Year by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association and currently is a starting center and team captain at Purdue University. Patrick, an offensive tackle, is an offensive lineman at Michigan. He was selected to participate in the 2013 Under Armour All-American Bowl.

THIRD SEASON AT UTEP

27TH SEASON AS A COACH

Patrick Higgins, who was a member of the UTEP football staff from 1998-2003 under Charlie Bailey and Gary Nord, returned to the Sun City a decade later as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Higgins has coached in 10 bowl games previously - 2000 Humanitarian Bowl, 2005-2009 Las Vegas Bowl, 2010 New Mexico Bowl, 2011 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl and 2014 New Mexico Bowl. He has also coached 17 players who have signed NFL contracts.

The 2014 Miners rushed for 200+ yards in seven games and 300+ yards on four occasions. Aaron Jones compiled 1,321 yards on the ground, fourth-most in a season in school history. UTEP rated second nationally in time of possession (34:58).

Quarterback Jameill Showers was steady, throwing just six interceptions all season behind an offensive line that yielded 13 sacks in 13 games, and he signed with the Dallas Cowboys as a free agent. Ian Hamilton led the receiving corps with 579 yards, while running backs Jones (293) and Autrey Golden (263) both compiled 200+ yards through the air.

UTEP scored 35 points or more in four of its first five games in 2013 before being dealt a series of crippling injuries. In a span of three weeks the Miners lost their starting left guard (Jerel Watkins), quarterback (Showers), and fullback (Darrin Laufasa), as well as Jones, who was on pace to lead the nation in freshman rushing yardage. The losses proved to be too much to overcome as UTEP was held to a touchdown or less in four of the last six outings.

UTEP averaged 31.2 points and 415.2 yards in six games at full strength on offense, as Showers accounted for 15 touchdowns (11 passing/four rushing) and Jones set a school freshman record with 811 yards on the ground.

Before making his way back to El Paso, Higgins spent two seasons at Purdue (2011-12), coaching the wide receivers and acting as the Boilermakers' interim head coach for the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

He was also Purdue's interim offensive coordinator for the final three games of the 2012 regular season with Nord sidelined due to a back injury.

Antavian Edison and Gary Bush combined to account for 15 of Purdue's 30 touchdown receptions in 2012. Edison earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. O.J. Ross ranked third in the league in receptions per game (5.1), and Edison was fifth (4.5).

In 2011, Justin Siller led the Boilermakers with 50 catches, and Edison had a team-high 584 receiving yards. Purdue capped the seven-win campaign with a 37-32 win over Western Michigan in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl.

Higgins served as the outside receivers coach and special teams coordinator at BYU from 2005-10. The Cougars posted a 56-21 during that time with six bowl appearances, four bowl wins and two outright Mountain West Conference titles.

In 2005, BYU ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (310.1 ypg), 13th in total offense (462.4 ypg) and 24th in scoring offense (33.0 ppg). In 2006, the Cougars finished 11-2 overall and 8-0 in the Mountain West Conference, rating fourth in the country in passing offense (323.5 ypg) and total offense (465.5 ypg) and fifth in scoring offense (36.8 ppg). BYU was also 11-2 (8-0 MWC) in 2007, ranking 14th in the FBS in passing offense (298.4 ypg) and 25th in total offense (442.8 ypg).

The Cougars put together a 10-3 campaign in 2008, averaging 310.4 yards passing (sixth in the nation), 444.8 yards of offense (16th) and 34.2 points (20th). Austin Collie led the country in receiving that year with 118.3 yards per game, and also rated 12th in kickoff returns (27.5 avg.). He is BYU's all-time leading receiver (3,255 yards), earned All-America honors as a junior and was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts. BYU was 11-2 in 2009 behind another dominant offense that averaged 35.5 ppg (11th in the FBS), 281.5 yards passing (17th) and 427.2 yards of offense (21st).

BYU led the nation in third-down conversion percentage in 2009 (.556), finished second in 2008 (.557) and 2006 (.560), and ranked no lower than 21st among all FBS teams in the category during Higgins' six seasons. BYU was also ninth in the nation in kickoff returns in 2008 (24.6 avg.), and 20th in punt returns in 2006 (12.9 avg.). The Cougars were 17th in kickoff returns in 2007 (23.8 avg.).

Higgins spent the 2004 season at Louisiana Tech, where he was tight ends coach and special teams coordinator.

With Higgins as offensive coordinator, UTEP scored 30-plus points 16 times and 40 or more on eight occasions in a four-year span (2000-03). The 2000 Miners won the WAC title and ranked 22nd nationally in scoring offense (32.3 ppg), 27th in passing offense (248.2 ypg) and 36th in total offense (407.5 ypg). Quarterback Rocky Perez was eighth in the nation in passing efficiency (147.14), and Lee Mays was eighth in receiving (99.8 ypg). Brian Natkin was a unanimous All-America choice after leading all tight ends nationally with 64 catches for 787 yards. Natkin is currently a member of the UTEP staff.

Higgins previously was the Miners' wide receivers coach in 1998 and 1999. He worked with 22 All-WAC performers during his first stint in El Paso.

A native of Pendleton, N.Y., Higgins came to UTEP from Columbia University in New York City, where he had worked as running backs coach in 1997.

From 1994-96, Higgins was the offensive coordinator and special teams coach at Shepherd College, an NCAA Division II institution in Shepherdstown, W. Va. He was also responsible for coaching the Rams' quarterbacks and receivers. In 1994 and 1996 the Rams finished among the top-16 teams in the country in total offense.

Higgins has also seen duty as a head coach at St. Andrews Prep in Savannah, Ga. in 1993. He also coached college ball at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn. (wide receivers 1988), Quincy University in Quincy, Ill. (offensive coordinator 1990, defensive coordinator 1991) and William Penn College in Oskaloosa, Iowa (head coach 1992).

He earned his bachelor's degree in Chemistry, with a minor in Biology, from William Penn College in 1986. He received his master's degree in Exercise Physiology from St. Cloud State in 1989.

His wife's name is Karen.

SCOTT STOKER

NORTHWESTERN STATE '91

22ND SEASON AS A COACH

Former collegiate head coach Scott Stoker is in his third season as the Miners' defensive coordinator.

The Miners improved dramatically on defense this past season. They dropped their points allowed per game from 39.3 in 2013 to 28.1. UTEP also yielded 368.1 yards per game, compared to 468.3 the year before. The Miners increased their season totals in all defensive categories – tackles for losses (from 45 to 76), sacks (13 to 26), interceptions (three to 11), pass break-ups (30 to 40), quarterback hurries (12 to 40) and forced fumbles (nine to 14).

On Oct. 25 at UTSA, the Miners put together perhaps the most complete defensive performance in school history. They not only blanked the Roadrunners 34-0, but allowed two first downs (fewest in school history in the modern era) and 70 yards (third-fewest in program history). The UTEP stop troops opened the contest by forcing seven consecutive three-and-outs.

After giving up 35 points to Old Dominion on Oct. 11, the Miners surrendered 21 or fewer in five of the last seven games, including against Utah State in the New Mexico Bowl.

Stoker also coached the team's linebackers, including Alvin Jones and Anthony Puente who ranked second and fourth respectively on the team in tackles. Jones had the second-most tackles for losses on the team with nine. Jones garnered All-Conference USA Freshman team honors, while Puente was recognized as a All-C-USA honorable mention.

Stoker faced a difficult situation in 2013, taking over at UTEP during the summer and installing a 4-2-5 scheme without the benefit of spring ball. The Miners also relied heavily on players who were untested at the Division I level. UTEP's top two tacklers (Devin Cockrell and Dashone Smith) were freshmen. In all, seven of the top 10 tacklers hadn't started a game for the Miners prior to the 2013 season. UTEP's top two defensive linemen, James Davidson and Horace Miller, signed NFL free agent contracts with Cincinnati and Seattle respectively in the spring of 2014, and Miller is currently with the Oakland Raiders.

Stoker came to El Paso from Sam Houston State University, where he served as defensive coordinator from 2009-12. The Bearkats captured Southland Conference titles with back-to-back berths in the FCS championship game in 2011 and 2012.

In 2012 SHSU led the Southland in rushing defense (98.5 ypg), total defense (333.5 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (151.6), while ranking sixth nationally in rushing defense. The Bearkats had the conference leader in tackles for losses (senior linebacker Darius Taylor) and pass breakups (senior defensive backs Robert Shaw and Dax Swanson).

In 2011, Stoker was instrumental in Sam Houston State fashioning a 14-1 mark. He was named the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision "Defensive Coordinator of the Year" by FootballScoop.com.

The 2011 Bearkats held national top-five rankings in rushing defense (first, 72.9 ypg), scoring defense (second, 14.9 ppg), turnover margin (second, 1.87), total defense (third, 279.9 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (fourth, 99.20), while pacing the conference in all five categories. Swanson was third in the FCS in interceptions with 0.5 per game.

Stoker's 2010 unit rated eighth nationally in rushing defense (100.1 ypg) and 17th in sacks (2.7 avg.).

While at Sam Houston State, he coached 14 defensive players who combined to earn 22 All-Conference honors. Safety Darnell Taylor was appointed the Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 and 2012. Taylor, along with defensive lineman J.T. Cleveland and Swanson, have garnered All-American accolades.

Stoker was the head coach at his alma mater, Northwestern State, from 2002-08. He compiled a 43-38 record, and led the Demons to the 2004 Southland Conference co-championship and two NCAA Division I playoff appearances (2002 & 2004).

His teams broke close to 50 school records (23 offensive, 10 defensive, 13 special teams), as well as set five NCAA records and 10 Southland Conference standards. Three of his teams ranked in the top-15 nationally in total defense and rushing defense, rating second in both categories in 2004. Stoker was also identified as one of the nation's top 10 recruiters by American Football Coaches Monthly.

He worked as an assistant coach at McNeese State from 1994-2002. Six of the teams earned national playoff berths, including reaching the 1995 national semifinals and playing in the 1997 championship game. Stoker was the Cowboys' offensive coordinator in 1999, and defensive coordinator from 2000-01.

A native of Alexandria, La., he is the son of Butch Stoker, a highly-successful coach at Alexandria High School for four decades. Scott Stoker was an All-State quarterback for Alexandria before continuing his playing career at Northwestern State. He led the Demons to the 1988 Southland Conference championship and an NCAA playoff berth. He finished his college career (1986-89) with a school-record 4,801 passing yards and 5,059 yards of total offense.

Stoker and his wife, Kim, have three children - Jennifer, Carlie and Zoe.

ANDREW BROWNING

BOISE STATE '07

SIXTH SEASON AS A COACH

One of the heroes of Boise State's 2007 Fiesta Bowl championship team, Andrew Browning is in his third season as UTEP's defensive line coach.

Browning played a major role in the Miners increasing their tackle for loss, sack and quarterback hurry totals substantially from the 2013 season. Under his leadership Roy Robertson-Harris developed into one of the most fearsome pass rushers in Conference USA with a team-leading 9.5 tackles for losses and 3.5 sacks. The defensive lineman also garnered All-C-USA honorable mention recognition. Nick Usher came into his own as well with 41 stops (most among defensive linemen), 5.5 tackles for losses and three sacks. Browning was also able to coax solid senior years out of Maurice Chavis (four tackles for losses) and Cooper Brock (five tackles for losses/three sacks).

Browning's first year in El Paso resulted in his top two linemen (James Davidson and Horace Miller) signing NFL free agent contracts. Davidson, who paced the team in tackles for losses (seven) and sacks (four), landed with the Cincinnati Bengals. He was one of a select group of players to sack Texas A&M star Johnny Manziel at the collegiate level. Miller, who tallied 12 sacks in only three seasons with the Miners (tied for 10th in school history), signed with the Super Bowl champion Seattle Seahawks and is currently with the Oakland Raiders.

Browning served as a member of the Boise State staff for three years prior to making the move to El Paso. He was in charge of defensive quality control in 2010 before working as a defensive graduate assistant from 2011-2012.

Over three years the Broncos compiled a 35-4 record with two conference championships and three bowl wins. Boise State held national top-15 rankings in scoring defense in 2010 (second, 12.8 ppg), 2011 (12th, 18.7 ppg) and 2012 (eighth, 15.8 ppg). The Broncos rated in the top-20 in total defense in 2010 (second, 254.7 ypg), 2011 (16th, 320.9 ypg) and 2012 (13th, 315.6 ypg).

The Bronco defense produced 12 first team All-Conference selections during that span - DL Mike Atkinson (2012), DL Tyrone Crawford (2011), DB Jeron Johnson (2010), DL Demarcus Lawrence (2012), DL Shea McClellin (2010 & 2011), DB George Iloka (2010 & 2011), LB J.C. Percy (2012), DB Jamar Taylor (2012), LB Winston Venable (2010) and DL Ryan Winterswyk (2010).

A four-year letterwinner at Boise State (2003-06), Browning concluded his career with 143 tackles (57 solo), 21.5 tackles for losses and 12.5 sacks. After initially walking on to the team, he was named honorable mention All-WAC as a sophomore, second team as a junior and first team as a senior. He was also recognized as a second team Academic All-American by ESPN The Magazine in 2006. In the historic 43-42 win over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl, Browning was credited with six tackles, a tackle for loss and a half-sack. He established career-highs for tackles (46), tackles for losses (11) and sacks (8.5) his senior year.

He graduated from Boise State with a bachelor's degree in communication in 2007.

DEFENSIVE BACKS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

GABE FRANKLIN

BOISE STATE '04

FIFTH SEASON AT UTEP

NINTH SEASON AS A COACH

Gabe Franklin joined the UTEP staff as cornerbacks coach in July of 2011. He is in his third year coaching the defensive backs and was elevated to recruiting coordinator in 2014.

In 2014, UTEP increased its interception total from three to 11, and its pass break-up tally from 30 to 40. Seven different Miner DB's picked off a pass and senior Wesley Miller, paced the team in tackles (80). Miller signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills over the summer. UTEP yielded under 200 yards passing in five of eight Conference USA games, including 32 to UTSA and 99 to Middle Tennessee.

The Miners' top two tacklers in 2013 were both freshman defensive backs. Free safety Devin Cockrell, a true freshman, was credited with 76 stops. Weak safety Dashone Smith, a redshirt freshman, made 69 tackles.

In the season opener versus New Mexico, all five starters in the secondary (Cockrell, Ishmael Harrison, Leon Hayes, Adrian James, Traun Roberson) were making their first start for UTEP. By season's end, a total of 13 different players made starts in the secondary for the Miners.

During the 2012 season, Franklin helped Drew Thomas pile up the second-most tackles (81) on the squad while fellow cornerback Darren Woodard recorded 44 stops and tied for the team lead with two interceptions. The Miners finished with 47 pass break-ups on the campaign. Woodard later signed with the St. Louis Rams and is currently with the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2011 Franklin served as a mentor to Antwon Blake, who started all 12 games at left corner and led the team with seven pass break-ups. Blake also posted 46 tackles, an interception and two blocked kicks. He is on the Pittsburgh Steelers' 2015 roster. The starter at right corner during the 2011 season, Thomas, contributed 49 tackles and six pass deflections.

Franklin served as cornerbacks coach for the University of San Diego during the 2010 season. He helped the Toreros forge a mark of 5-6, including a winning record (5-3) in the Pioneer Football League. He mentored Al-Rilwan Adeyemi to an appearance on the 2010 All-PFL Defensive First Team. Adeyemi was second on the squad with 48 tackles, including 32 solo, while registering a team-high six interceptions. He also contributed four pass breakups.

Prior to his time at USD, Franklin spent two years on the Cal football staff (2008-09) as an administrative assistant on the defensive side of the football. Prominent players coached at Cal include 2011 NFL third-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears, Chris Conte, and two-time first team All Pac-10 and 2010 NFL seventh-round draft pick of the Denver Broncos Syd'Quan Thompson.

His start in coaching came at his high school alma mater, Bishop O'Dowd, in 2007. He aided the squad to a second-place finish in the league and a spot in the first round of the playoffs.

Franklin was an outstanding player in his own right before entering the coaching ranks. From 2001-04 he was a member of a Boise State team that compiled a 44-7 record and won a pair of bowl games. He finished as the NCAA's career leader in passes defended (72), and was a three-time All-WAC selection. He rates among the Boise State and WAC all-time leaders with 18 interceptions. Additionally he started every game of his collegiate career.

In 2004 he posted a team-high 17 pass break-ups to go along with 61 tackles and four picks on the way to securing first team All-Conference accolades. He reaped second team All-League honors after tallying eight interceptions as a junior in 2003.

After Boise State, Franklin was a free agent signee with the San Diego Chargers in 2005. He was also a member of the New York Giants that year. Franklin remained in the NFL through 2007, enjoying stints with the Chargers (2006, 2007) and San Francisco 49ers (2006) while also competing for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe in 2007.

The native of Oakland, Calif., graduated from BSU with a bachelor of science degree in psychology in 2004. Franklin and his wife, Kelly, have two children - Addison and Aiden.

CORNELL JACKSON

STERLING (KAN.) COLLEGE '86

THIRD SEASON AT UTEP

27TH SEASON AS A COACH

Cornell Jackson took over as the Miners' running backs coach in 2013 after serving in the same capacity at Purdue over the previous four seasons.

UTEP featured a lethal ground game, compiling 200+ yards in seven contests and 300+ yards four times. Aaron Jones became the ninth player in school history to run for 1,000 yards in a season. The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award honorable mention rated 24th in the FBS with 110.1 yards per game and went over the century mark six times in 2014, including a career-high 237 yards in the season opener versus New Mexico.

Far from a one-man show, UTEP also received stellar contributions from Nathan Jeffery (531 yards), Josh Bell (256) and Autrey Golden (101) out of the backfield while racking up 27 rushing touchdowns as a team. Meanwhile Golden (31) and Jones (30) flashed their versatility by ranking 1-2 on the team in receptions.

During his first year at UTEP Jackson also coached Jones, who established himself as the top freshman rusher in school history. Jones tallied 811 yards in only nine games before his season was cut short due to injury. He was on pace to lead the nation in freshman rushing yardage before sustaining a blow to his ribs at North Texas on Nov. 9. Jones still compiled three 100-yard games en route to shattering the school freshman rushing record, which John Harvey had held for nearly 30 years. Jeffery, went over the century mark in two of the last three games after Jones went down.

Jackson helped the Boilermakers land bowl bids during the 2011 and 2012 campaigns, participating in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl and the Heart of Dallas Bowl respectively.

In 2009, Purdue had the Big Ten's no. 3 rusher in Ralph Bolden, who averaged 77.9 yards per game. Bolden was a second team all-league choice after rushing for 935 yards, despite missing most of the season finale at Indiana due to injury. Bolden ran for a career-high 234 yards against Toledo, the third-best tally in school history.

In 2010, the Boilermakers tied the school record by compiling five consecutive games with 200+ yards rushing. Purdue amassed 100+ yards on the ground in 10 of 12 games.

The Boilermakers ranked 33rd nationally in rushing offense in 2011, averaging 181.6 yards per game. That was the highest total by a Purdue team in six years. Eight different players collected at least 100 yards on the season.

Purdue also racked up 22 rushing touchdowns in 2011. Akeem Shavers was appointed MVP of the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl after rushing 22 times for 149 yards in a 37-32 win over Western Michigan. For the year, Purdue rushers lost only three fumbles on 535 carries.

Jackson was on the Kansas State staff in 2008, coaching the linebackers. He has also coached the running backs at Arizona State (1996-99), Washington (2004), New Mexico (2005-06) and Baylor (2007).

Jackson's stint in Tempe produced five running backs that were chosen in the NFL Draft, including two (Terry Battle and J.R. Redmond) who garnered All-Pac 10 honors. The Sun Devils played in three bowl games during Jackson's tenure (1996 Rose, 1997 Sun, 1999 Aloha).

While at Washington, Jackson coached the linebackers (2002) and the safeties (2003) prior to taking over as running backs coach. He also added recruiting coordinator to his list of responsibilities in 2004. The Huskies played in the 2002 Sun Bowl.

In 2005, the Lobos' DonTrell Moore earned Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year honors after becoming just the sixth player in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in four separate seasons. A year later, Jackson coached first team All-Mountain West Conference pick Rodney Ferguson, who rushed for 1,132 yards in leading the Lobos to the New Mexico Bowl. Jackson had two separate coaching stints at New Mexico, including coaching the linebackers in 1995.

In 2000 and 2001, Jackson coached the linebackers at Houston. Under his tutelage Wayne Rogers was named the Conference USA co-Defensive Player of the Year in 2000. He was also linebackers coach at Utah State (1990-91) and Pacific (1992-94).

Jackson began his career as running backs coach at Butler County (Kan.) Community College in 1987, then moved to Central Missouri State as a graduate assistant working with the defensive ends in 1988 and 1989. Jackson has taken part in four NFL internships - with the San Diego Chargers (linebackers) in 2004, Denver Broncos (running backs) in 2001, St. Louis Rams (running backs) in 1999 and Seattle Seahawks (linebackers) in 1993.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Jackson played defensive back at Hinds Junior College in 1982 and 1983 before moving on to Sterling (Kan.) College, where he was a two-time All-Conference defensive back. He earned his bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education in 1986.

SPENCER LEFTWICH

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN '88
EAST TEXAS STATE '89

THIRD SEASON AT UTEP
27TH SEASON AS A COACH

With nearly a quarter century of collegiate coaching experience, Spencer Leftwich doubles as UTEP's assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

He has coached in nine bowl games previously as an assistant - 2001 and 2002 New Orleans (North Texas), 2003 Humanitarian (Tulsa), 2005 Liberty (Tulsa), 2006 Armed Forces (Tulsa), 2010 Hawaii (Tulsa), 2011 BBVA Compass (Pittsburgh), 2012 New Mexico (Arizona) and 2014 New Mexico (UTEP).

Leftwich worked wonders while coaching a young offensive line that only had one senior (Jerel Watkins) in 2014. The group allowed just 13 sacks all season and the Miners averaged 207.8 yards rushing (2,701 total), including 300+ in four games. Aaron Jones rushed for 1,321 yards, fourth-most in a season in school history. When the year began UTEP had two freshmen (Derek Elmendorff and Will Hernandez), a sophomore (Jerome Daniels) and a junior college transfer (Eric Lee) joining Watkins in the lineup. That group had combined for one college start entering the season.

Leftwich's first offensive line at UTEP paved the way for the team to rush for 2,216 yards, most in 25 years. The Miners compiled six 200-yard rushing games led by Jones, who set a school freshman record with 811 yards on the ground.

Leftwich came to El Paso after one season as the tight ends coach at Arizona. He helped the Wildcats fashion an 8-5 mark in 2012, including a 49-48 win over Nevada in the Gilden New Mexico Bowl. Arizona's offense rated among the nation's finest, securing top-25 rankings in scoring (16th, 38.2 ppg), rushing (17th, 227.8 ypg) and passing (298.4 ypg). The Wildcats averaged 526.2 yards per contest to rate seventh in the country.

Leftwich's other responsibilities with the Wildcats included coordinating offensive special teams including the PAT, field goal, punt and kickoff return units.

Leftwich began his career as offensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin from 1989-91. In 1989, the Lumberjacks finished 12-2-1 and played in the I-AA national championship game.

He was also the O-Line coach at New Mexico State (1992-93) before enjoying two separate stints at both North Texas and Tulsa from 1994-2010. Leftwich was the offensive line coach for the Mean Green from 1994-2002 and 2007-09. In his first term at UNT, he had at least one lineman earn all-conference recognition in eight of nine years. In 2007, North Texas established school records for total offense and passing offense. In 2009, North Texas had the no. 28 rushing attack in the NCAA with 185.3 yards per game while bettering the school standard for total yards (4,904). The Mean Green also ended the campaign ranked no. 10 in sacks allowed with one per outing.

He was Tulsa's offensive line coach from 2003-06 and again in 2010. In 2003, Tulsa rated no. 23 nationally in rushing with 196 yards per game. The Golden Hurricane won the Conference USA title in 2005, and finished 10-3 in 2010 with the no. 5 offense in the country (505.6 ypg). Leftwich coached seven different players to eight all-conference accolades in his five seasons with the Hurricane.

In 2011, Leftwich was the offensive line coach at Pittsburgh.

The Gainesville, Texas native was a three-year starter at guard and a two-time All-Conference honoree at Stephen F. Austin. He graduated in 1988 and added a master's degree from East Texas State in 1989.

Leftwich and his wife, LaTonne, have three sons - Mack Hays, Cutter and Gage. Son Mack is a quarterback for UTEP.

TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

BRIAN NATKIN

UTEP '03

FOURTH SEASON AT UTEP

11TH SEASON AS A COACH

Former UTEP consensus All-American Brian Natkin was named a full-time assistant to the program in December of 2011. He spent the 2012 season serving as the Miners' offensive line coach before assuming the position of tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. He was elevated to special teams coordinator prior to the 2014 campaign. Natkin also continues to mentor the tight ends unit.

Tight ends Eric Tomlinson, Katrae Ford and Cole Rogers combined for 202 yards on 27 catches last season, with two touchdowns. Their blocking played a major role in UTEP allowing just 13 sacks all season, while rushing for 207.8 yards per contest. Tomlinson received national recognition, earning a spot on the John Mackey Award Midseason Watch List. The former Miner signed a free agent deal with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Meanwhile, the Miners were stellar on special teams led by Autrey Golden, who posted two more kickoff returns for touchdowns to increase his career total to six – one shy of the NCAA record. UTEP was also sensational on kickoff coverage (17.47 yards per return/11th nationally) and received solid kicking from Jay Mattox who was 13-of-16 on field goals, 43-of-44 on PATs and had a 41.1-yard punting average.

The tight ends assumed a more focal role in the offense in 2013, combining for 542 yards on 48 catches. The year prior, they tallied 23 receptions for 252 yards. Tomlinson was second on the team in catches (30) and third in yardage (304) in 2013. He was one of three tight ends to reach the end zone, along with Kevin Perry and Craig Wenrick. Tomlinson was an honorable mention All-Conference USA player.

Natkin's efforts during the 2012 season were evident as both center Eloy Atkinson and right tackle James Nelson secured spots on the honorable mention All-Conference USA squad. Sophomore running back Nathan Jeffery enjoyed a breakthrough campaign as a result of the play of the offensive line.

Natkin returned to his alma mater after a five-year stint at NCAA Division II Midwestern State. The Mustangs were a combined 41-15, including 10-1 in 2011, and claimed the 2009 Lone Star Conference title. Natkin mentored three All-Americans (Tony Burson, Lance Calloway and Amini Silatolu) and numerous all-conference selections while at MWSU. In 2011 the offensive line surrendered just nine sacks in 11 games and the Mustangs led the nation in total offense (531.9 ypg) and scoring (48.6 ppg), while ranking second in rushing (323.5 ypg).

Prior to his stint in Wichita Falls, Natkin coached one season at Northern Colorado where he developed an offensive line that paved the way for 1,000-yard rusher Andre Wilson. Natkin served as a graduate assistant at UTEP in 2004 and 2005, working with the offense and tight ends. He tutored second-team All-WAC performer Jonas Crafts (2004) and honorable mention freshman All-American Jamar Hunt (2005).

One of two consensus All-Americans in program history, Natkin led all tight ends nationally with 64 catches for 787 yards in 2000. He ended his career with 172 receptions for 1,934 yards. He was a three-time first team All-WAC selection (1998-2000). Natkin was recently named to UTEP's Centennial Football Team.

Following his career at UTEP, Natkin spent time in the NFL with Tennessee (2001-02) and was in camp with St. Louis (2003). He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from UTEP in 2003.

The San Antonio native is married to the former Stacy Zimmerman, who starred in volleyball at UTEP. The couple has two children - Brock and Lauren.

TODD WHITTEN

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN '87

FIFTH SEASON AT UTEP
27TH SEASON AS A COACH

Former NFL quarterback and collegiate head coach Todd Whitten is in his third year working with the UTEP wide receivers.

While the Miners relied heavily on an explosive rushing attack in 2014, they did have a couple of big-play receivers at their disposal in Ian Hamilton and Jarrad Shaw. Hamilton led the team with 579 yards and put together 100-yard games versus Rice (130 yards) and Kansas State (112). Shaw emerged his senior year, tallying 14 catches for 174 yards, and had a big game in the opener against New Mexico (76 yards).

The biggest story of the 2013 receiving corps was the emergence of Hamilton as a breakout receiver. After the junior college transfer played sparingly the year before, he busted out to tally 25 receptions (third on the team) for 354 yards (second). Hamilton compiled 108 yards at Rice and 81 in a 42-21 rout of I-10 rival NM State. His 14.2 yards per catch led all UTEP wideouts.

Whitten was the head coach at Tarleton State (1996, 2000-04) and Sam Houston State (2005-09), compiling a 70-51 record. More recently he served as the offensive coordinator at Lamar for two years (2010-11) and spent the 2012 season as the head coach at Arlington Heights High School in Fort Worth, Texas.

Whitten led Sam Houston State to runner-up finishes in the Southland Conference in 2006 (6-5) and 2007 (7-4). In 2006, D.D. Terry ranked seventh in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in rushing, averaging 132.8 yards per game, and 11th in scoring with 9.8 points per game. In 2007, Sam Houston State held FCS top-25 rankings in passing offense (16th, 265.3 ypg) and total offense (21st, 419.3 ypg). Quarterback Rhett Bomar rated eighth nationally in total offense (290.6 ypg) en route to being chosen in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the New York Giants.

Whitten was 45-23 in two separate stints at Tarleton State. In 1996, he directed the Texans to a 5-5 mark. His second tenure produced a stellar 40-18 mark over five seasons, including 10 wins in 2001 and nine in 2002. The Texans won the Lone Star Conference championship in 2001, made their first-ever playoff appearance and closed out the year rated 10th in the Division II poll. Tarleton had a total of 34 All-Conference selections in 2002 and 2003, including 19 first team honorees, while capturing back-to-back Lone Star Conference North Division titles. The Texans set 30 school records during the Whitten era, and he garnered conference coach of the year honors on four occasions (1996, 2001-03).

Whitten was also on the staffs at Texas Tech (graduate assistant 1988-89), New Mexico State (quarterbacks coach 1990-93), UTEP (running backs coach 1994-95), Wyoming (offensive coordinator 1997-98) and Sam Houston State (offensive coordinator 1999). One of the most prolific quarterbacks in Stephen F. Austin history, Whitten ranks second on the school charts with 6,304 passing yards and 60 touchdowns. He signed a free agent contract and played for the New England Patriots during the NFL players strike in 1987. He was also a standout baseball player in college and was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies. He was inducted into SFA's Athletics Hall of Honor in 2001.

The Dallas native earned his bachelor's degree in education from Stephen F. Austin in 1987 and added a master's in education from Texas Tech in 1990.

He and his wife, Dana, have three sons (Brady, Blaze, Tate) and a daughter (Maddie).

NEW MEXICO	24
UTEP	31

UNIVERSITY STADIUM (25,802)
AUGUST 30, 2014

Aaron Jones ran for a career-high 237 yards and three touchdowns, and UTEP gained 333 yards rushing on its way to outlasting New Mexico, 31-24, at University Stadium.

The Miners (1-0) dominated the first half, went into the locker room up 24-7, then watched their lead completely evaporate before capitalizing on a big fourth quarter turnover by the Lobos (0-1) to snare their first season-opening victory in three years. This was UTEP's first season-opening win over a Division I opponent since New Mexico in 2007.

LaQuintus Dowell recovered a fumble by Lobo punt returner Michael Arredondo at the New Mexico six-yard line late in the fourth quarter, and two plays later Jones ran it in for the winning score.

Adrian James clinched the victory when he picked off New Mexico reserve quarterback Clayton Mitchem deep in Miner territory with a little over a minute remaining.

UTEP forced three turnovers in the final period after neither team lost the football in the first three quarters.

Mitchem, who orchestrated a 42-35 New Mexico win in the 2013 season opener at the Sun Bowl, came on in relief of starter Cole Gautsche, who injured his hamstring on a 33-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

Gautsche rushed for 184 yards, including 100 of the Lobos' 262 in the second half.

The Miners have registered back-to-back wins at University Stadium, including a 38-20 triumph in 2010, for the first time since a run of three straight victories from 1965-69.

After Gautsche tied the game at 7 on a 68-yard run midway through the first quarter, the UTEP defense settled down and the offense came alive, scoring 17 consecutive points to forge a 24-7 lead at the intermission.

Jameill Showers connected with Jarrad Shaw on a 48-yard touchdown pass with 4:25 remaining in the first period, capping a six-play, 75-yard drive. The Lobos drove to the Miner 20-yard line on their next series before Roy Robertson-Harris and Anthony Puente pinned running back Teriyon Gipson for a short loss on fourth-and-one.

UTEP tacked on a 23-yard field goal by Jay Mattox with 7:59 left in the second period, forced New Mexico into a three-and-out, then drove 80 yards on three plays to push the lead to 17. Jones broke loose for a 73-yard scoring run on third and three, the second-longest scamper of his career and the 19th-longest in school history.

The Miners put up 326 yards of offense in the first half, including 227 rushing as Jones gained 158 yards on 12 carries.

The third quarter was all New Mexico as it gained 175 yards - 173 rushing - and put together a couple of long scoring drives. The first, for 83 yards, ended with a 13-yard run by Gipson. The second, for 92 yards, concluded with a 51-yard run by Gautsche.

The Lobos knotted the score on a 35-yard field goal by Zack Rogers with 8:10 to play in the game.

New Mexico had a slight advantage in total yards (477-446), with 410 coming via the rush. Jhurell Pressley ran for 84 yards and Gipson added 71.

Nathan Jeffery supplemented Jones by rushing for 84 yards on 14 carries for UTEP. Showers completed 11-of-22 passes for 116 yards, 76 of them going to Shaw, who had four receptions.

Davis Webb passed for 278 yards and three touchdowns and rallied Texas Tech to a late score as the Red Raiders edged UTEP, 30-26, on Sept 6 in the Sun Bowl.

The game started at 9:05 p.m. mountain time and ended shortly after 12:30 a.m.

Webb directed Texas Tech on a seven-play, 75-yard TD drive in the final minutes after Aaron Jones put the Miners ahead 26-23 on a nine-yard scoring run with 5:05 remaining. Webb found Brad Marquez on a nine-yard pass to put the Red Raiders up for good.

Autrey Golden put his squad in great field position on the ensuing kickoff. Golden ran 52 yards to the Texas Tech 48-yard line with 2:23 left in the contest. But the Miners could not muster up chunks of yards as UTEP quarterback Jameill Showers had a pair of two-yard rushes and two incompletions on the final push to paydirt. Showers threw an incomplete pass to Jones on a fourth and six to end the contest.

Jones rushed for a game-high 147 yards on 23 attempts (6.4 average) and a pair of rushing touchdowns to lead UTEP. It was Jones' fifth career 100-yard game.

Webb completed 17-of-31 passes and had a 100-yard rusher and receiver at his disposal. Justin Stockton gained 135 yards on eight carries, and Jakeem Grant reeled in eight catches for 150 yards.

The Miners fell behind 23-13 midway through the third quarter before their offense came alive. Jeremiah Laufasa capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive with a 24-yard TD to pull UTEP within four points (Jay Mattox missed the PAT), before Jones gave them the short-lived lead by putting the exclamation point on an 11-play, 88-yard drive.

Showers had an off night, completing 9-of-25 passes for 116 yards. The Miners played their second straight turnover-free game to open the season.

Texas Tech finished with 504 yards of offense to UTEP's 393. The Miners rushed for 277 yards.

UTEP took a 6-0 lead into the second period after Mattox kicked field goals of 22 and 27 yards. Texas Tech outscored the Miners 16-7 in the second quarter to build a 16-13 lead at halftime.

The Red Raiders took their largest lead of 10 points on a 13-yard pass from Webb to Marquez with 6:27 to go in the third quarter.

All three of Marquez's catches were touchdowns as he finished with 33 yards.

Jarrod Shaw led the Miners in receptions (three) and yards (43) for a second week in a row. Shaw also hauled in a 33-yard reception late during the first quarter that helped set up Mattox's second successful field goal. Jones added a pair of receptions for 10 yards, while Laufasa caught a 30-yard pass and Golden registered an 18-yard reception.

Laufasa pitched in with 47 yards rushing on six attempts (7.8 average), while Showers registered 43 yards and Nathan Jeffery added 22 yards.

Jameel Erving led the Miners in tackles (eight) for the first time during his UTEP career. He also added a fumble recovery and a pass breakup. Alvin Jones, Aaron's twin brother, made his first collegiate start, recording six stops (three solo), a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry. Jones and Erving combined for a tackle for a two-yard loss. Damian Payne and Adrian James each chipped in with five tackles.

The announced attendance (35,422) was the largest in the Sun Bowl since 40,137 saw the Miners take on nationally ranked Oklahoma to open the 2012 season.

UTEP just missed knocking off a Big 12 team for the first time and fell to 0-13 in matchups versus teams from the league.

The Miners fell to 57-34-4 in home openers with their third straight loss.

SUN BOWL STADIUM (32,979)
SEPTEMBER 13, 2014

The Miners (2-1) matched their 2013 victory total while beating the I-10 rival Aggies (2-1) for the sixth straight time - tying their second-longest winning streak in the series. UTEP beat NMSU seven consecutive times from 1927-33 and six straight from 1986-91.

After the Aggies took a 10-7 lead on a 28-yard field goal by Maxwell Johnson early in the second quarter, UTEP scored 35 of the next 42 points.

Darrin Laufasa accounted for two of the five touchdowns during that stretch, both in the second quarter. He reeled in a two-yard pass from Jameill Showers and later punched it in from the goal line.

UTEP was up 21-10 at the break and, following a scoreless third quarter by both teams, put the pedal to the metal over the final 15 minutes.

The Miners tallied 21 points in the final period, with Jameill Showers, Aaron Jones and reserve quarterback Garrett Simpson all rushing for short scores.

Jones (25 carries-168 yards-two TDs) recorded his third straight 100-yard rushing game to open the season. He became the first Miner to go over the century mark in three consecutive outings since Donald Buckram in 2009.

Nathan Jeffery chipped in with 79 yards on 12 carries, and Showers gained 41 yards on six attempts.

Despite throwing his first interception of the season, Showers had efficient numbers at 13-for-16 passing for 126 yards. The Miners had one turnover in their first three games.

Ian Hamilton (three catches-45 yards) was UTEP's top receiver, and Nick Usher was a standout on defense with nine tackles, including two for losses, and a forced fumble.

NM State got on the scoreboard first, driving 75 yards on eight plays and going ahead 7-0 on a 17-yard pass from Tyler Rogers to Joseph Matthews.

But after that, UTEP kept the Aggies out of the end zone until the final quarter.

Rogers was 22-for-40 passing for NMSU with 324 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, which the Miners both turned into touchdowns.

Teldrick Morgan had eight receptions for 202 yards and a TD for NM State.

The last time UTEP had more rushing yards against a Division I opponent was on Aug. 31, 1991 versus New Mexico (349). The Miners gained 470 yards, and NMSU collected 425.

UTEP is averaging 317 yards rushing through three games, with Jones leading the way at 184 per contest with seven touchdowns.

BILL SNYDER STADIUM
(32,979)
SEPTEMBER 13, 2014

Jake Waters threw for 209 yards, and no. 25 Kansas State scored the game's first 45 points en route to a runaway win over UTEP, 58-28, at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Waters completed 10-of-15 passes for the Wildcats (3-1), who bounced back from a 20-14 loss to no. 5 Auburn in Manhattan a week earlier.

The Miners (2-2) scored 21 points in the fourth quarter after struggling offensively through the first three periods.

Kansas State had a balanced attack with 263 yards passing and 188 on the ground. Charles Jones was the Wildcats' leading rusher with 76 yards and three touchdowns on 12 carries, and Tyler Lockett burned the Miners both as a receiver (four catches/84 yards) and punt returner (five attempts/143 yards).

The Wildcats bottled up Aaron Jones (19 rushes for 47 yards) and held UTEP's potent running game in check. The Miners finished with 59 yards on 31 carries, a 1.9-yard average.

The Wildcats' first possession started on the UTEP 25-yard line after the Miners went three and out and Mike Ruggles' punt was blocked. UTEP's defense held and K-State had to settle for a 25-yard field goal by Matthew McCrane.

Kansas State was also set up with great field position on its third possession and capitalized, moving 51 yards on six plays and taking a 10-0 lead on a one-yard rushing touchdown by Waters.

The Wildcats extended their lead to 17-0 when Jones capped a five-play, 63-yard drive with a three-yard rushing score midway through the second quarter.

The lead reached 24-0 when Lockett returned Ruggles' punt 58 yards to the end zone. It was the first career punt return for a TD for Lockett, who entered the game tied for first nationally with UTEP's Autrey Golden with four kickoff returns for TDs.

Jones scampered nine yards for a score shortly before halftime as the Wildcats took a 31-0 lead to the locker room.

The Miners couldn't get their offense on track in the first half. They tallied 30 yards and didn't collect their initial first down until about four and a half minutes remaining in the second period. It was UTEP's only first down of the half.

Kansas State tabulated 171 yards in the first half with an average starting field position of its own 47-yard line.

The Wildcats picked up where they left off to start the second half, moving 75 yards on five plays and building a 38-0 cushion after Jones powered his way into the end zone once again (four yards).

Kansas State continued to pour it on, taking a 45-0 lead with 9:48 remaining in the third quarter on a 44-yard pass from Waters to Zach Trujillo.

The Miners finally had some success moving the football midway through the third quarter. They went 75 yards on 10 plays as Jameill Showers connected with Ian Hamilton for a four-yard touchdown. Hamilton had a career-high 112 yards on five receptions with two touchdowns.

The Wildcats took a 52-7 lead to the fourth quarter on a 40-yard rushing touchdown by DeMarcus Robinson.

UTEP scored its second touchdown off a three-yard pass from Showers to Jones with 9:35 to play. It was the first touchdown reception of Jones' career and his 12th score overall.

Joe Hubener punched it into the end zone from two yards out with 5:05 left for K-State's final score.

The Miners scored the game's final 14 points on a 69-yard pass from Showers to Hamilton and a two-yard pass from Showers to Eric Tomlinson. UTEP converted a fumble by the Wildcats into its final score.

Showers finished 18-of-28 passing for 201 yards and four TDs with no interceptions.

JOE AILLET STADIUM (18,157)
OCTOBER 4, 2014

Louisiana Tech scored 28 points off five turnovers by UTEP and scored on nine of 13 possessions in handing the Miners a 55-3 loss in their Conference USA opener at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Louisiana Tech improved to 3-3 overall and 2-0 in league play. UTEP (2-3, 0-1 C-USA) dropped its C-USA opener for the fifth straight year.

For the second consecutive week, the Miner offense stalled on its opening drive and the opponent capitalized on great field position.

The Bulldogs moved 53 yards and Kenneth Dixon's four-yard touchdown run put the home team up 7-0.

Louisiana Tech scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter following Jameill Showers interceptions. Cody Sokol rushed for a 32-yard score and completed a 69-yard pass to Carlos Henderson for another TD.

Henderson had two catches for 100 yards.

Later in the period, Jay Mattox's 28-yard field goal attempt was blocked and recovered by the Bulldogs' Adairius Barnes, who flipped it to Le'Vander Liggins for a 54-yard touchdown.

The Miners cut the lead to 28-3 on a 36-yard field goal by Mattox shortly before halftime.

It appeared that Louisiana Tech was set to punt for the first time in the game on its first possession of the second half. However, an illegal substitution by the UTEP defense led to a 45-yard field goal by Jonathan Barnes and a 31-3 Bulldog lead.

In all Louisiana Tech outscored UTEP 20-0 in the third period, taking advantage of fumbles by the Miners' Eric Tomlinson and Aaron Jones and converting them into touchdowns.

The Bulldogs added an 18-yard scoring run by Jarred Craft in the final quarter.

UTEP was held to 224 yards of offense and, for the second week in a row, struggled to run the ball. The Miners gained 81 yards on 36 carries and Jones was limited to 63 yards on 18 attempts.

The Miners struggled in the passing game as well, as Showers threw a career-high three picks. He was 15-of-28 for 143 yards.

The 28 points off turnovers tied the most by a UTEP opponent under coach Sean Kugler. Texas A&M also tallied 28 last season.

Louisiana Tech, which had only one giveaway and did not punt, rushed for 256 yards and passed for 187. Dixon rushed for 86 yards and Sokol gained 60. Sokol also completed 6-of-16 passes for 173 yards with three TDs.

SUN BOWL STADIUM (25,509)
OCTOBER 11, 2014

After being held to a combined 140 yards rushing in their previous two games, the Miners mowed down the Monarchs as three backs (Aaron Jones, Josh Bell, Nathan Jeffery) compiled 70 yards or more.

Bell had a career day with 76 yards and three touchdowns on only 10 carries. Jones went over the century mark for the fourth time in six outings with 18 rushes for 103 yards. Jeffery chipped in with 70 yards on 13 attempts.

Autrey Golden, meanwhile, beat ODU multiple ways with two rushes for 51 yards and six receptions for a career-best 70 yards, while adding two kickoff returns for 48 yards.

The Miners never trailed after taking a 21-7 lead at the break, but had to snuff out a second half rally by the Monarchs. Down 28-14, Old Dominion (3-4, 1-3 C-USA) battled back to tie the game before UTEP scored a couple of late touchdowns.

It was a pivotal win for UTEP, which squared its record at 3-3 overall and 1-1 in Conference USA play heading into the second half of the 2014 schedule.

The Miners opened the game-winning drive at their own nine-yard line with 13:32 remaining. They were 4-for-4 in third down conversions during the drive, including a third-and-goal at the Monarch 10 when Jameill Showers threw a crossing pass to Golden for a TD.

The key play of the drive was a Showers scramble for 14 yards on third and 10 at the UTEP nine yard line.

On the next series, Old Dominion running back Ray Lawry was stuffed for no gain on fourth and one at his own 34-yard line. UTEP took possession and took advantage of the short field. On second and eight, Showers found Golden for a 32-yard score and a 42-28 lead.

ODU acted swiftly to cut into the lead, moving 75 yards in under a minute to pull within seven points (42-35) on a 38-yard pass from Taylor Heinicke to Marques Little. With only 1:10 remaining, UTEP was able to run out the clock.

Heinicke completed 13-of-25 passes for 196 yards and three touchdowns for Old Dominion. Lawry rushed for 117 yards on 13 carries.

Showers completed 17-of-26 passes for 152 yards for UTEP.

The teams combined for 843 yards. The Miners' 486 yards were a season high and their third-most under coach Sean Kugler. It was the most yards by UTEP in a conference game since Oct. 27, 2012 at Houston (494).

The UTEP defense recorded three sacks, one more than it had in the first five games combined.

ALAMODOME STADIUM
(31,956)
OCTOBER 25, 2014

The UTEP offense was on point, but the defense was the real story as the Miners ran past UTSA, 34-0, in the Alamodome.

With the victory, UTEP improved to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in Conference USA, while UTSA dropped to 2-6 overall and 1-3 in C-USA.

The UTEP defense played outstanding, allowing only two first downs (least allowed during the modern era in UTEP history) and 70 yards of total offense (third-fewest yards allowed in program history). The Miners picked up three sacks and a defensive touchdown in the victory.

The defense also opened the contest by forcing seven consecutive three-and-outs by the UTSA offense.

The Miners scored their first two touchdowns on third down plays in the first quarter.

On a third down and five, Jameill Showers rolled out to his right and found Jaquan White down the sideline for a 75-yard touchdown, giving the Miners the early advantage. It tied Showers' career-long touchdown pass, while it was White's first collegiate score.

Following White's touchdown, Showers found Aaron Jones on a swing pass to the right side on a third and 11. Jones raced past UTSA defenders on a 40-yard sprint to the end zone.

UTEP's offense totaled 351 yards.

The scoring continued as Jay Mattox connected on a 20-yard field goal, giving UTEP a 17-0 lead late in the first half.

Jones scored his second touchdown on a 24-yard dash, putting his squad up 24-0 in the third quarter.

Mattox followed with another field goal, a career-best 47-yard kick. Mattox also served as punter, tallying 323 yards on seven punts (46.1 avg.), including putting four punts inside the 20-yard line.

UTEP linebacker Jimmy Musgrave put the last nail in the coffin when he intercepted a ball and took it 19 yards for a pick six. It was the Miners' first defensive touchdown since the 2011 season.

Jones led UTEP rushers with 86 yards, while Autrey Golden led with five receptions. Alvin Jones led the defense with six tackles, including a tackle for a loss. Nick Gathrite forced two fumbles.

UTEP pitched its first shutout since 2005, a 45-0 win over Southern Texas. As far as an FBS school, the Miners blanked NM State, 45-0, in 2004. The shutout was also the first on the road since a 37-0 win at New Mexico in 1988.

SOUTHERN MISS	14
UTEP	35

SUN BOWL STADIUM (24,673)
OCTOBER 29, 2014

UTEP netted 21 points off turnovers by the Golden Eagles (3-6, 1-4 C-USA) and added a 98-yard kickoff return by Autrey Golden in moving a victory away from bowl eligibility for the first time in four years. The Miners (4-3, 3-1 C-USA) also owned their first three-game winning streak since 2010.

The first half didn't feature much excitement, with Jameill Showers' one-yard pass to Katrae Ford accounting for the only scoring.

Southern Miss tied the game at seven on its first possession of the third period when Cole Weeks connected with Casey Martin for a 55-yard score.

Twelve seconds later, Golden raced to the end zone with his fifth career kickoff return for a score, adding to his own school-record total.

Later in the third quarter, a Golden Eagles fumble was recovered by UTEP linebacker Jimmy Musgrave at the Southern Miss 12, and three plays later Jameill Showers pranced 10 yards into the end zone to put his team up 14.

Southern Miss, however, wouldn't go away. The Golden Eagles blocked Jay Mattox's field goal attempt from 34 yards late in the third quarter, Cornell Armstrong scooped up the ball and ran 78 yards to cut his team's deficit in half.

UTEP was forced to punt on its next possession, and Southern Miss advanced the ball to midfield before Weeks' pass was intercepted by Trey Brown and returned 51 yards for a TD.

The Miners completed the scoring when Roy Robertson-Harris stripped Weeks of the football, Nick Gathrite recovered it and ran 59 yards for a score with 9:31 to play.

Southern Miss had five turnovers to UTEP's one.

That proved to be the difference on a night where the Golden Eagles gained 402 yards and UTEP had 234. Showers completed 10-of-23 passes for 127 yards, while Nathan Jeffery (57 yards) and Aaron Jones (38) combined for 95 of the Miners' 107 rushing yards.

Weeks threw for 309 yards and Martin caught six passes totaling 129 yards.

The UTEP defense tied its season high with nine tackles for losses led by Robertson-Harris, who tallied three while forcing a couple of fumbles.

Wonderful Terry took an interception 90 yards in the fourth quarter, giving WKU the lead and the eventual 35-27 victory over UTEP on a brisk Saturday evening at L.T. Smith Stadium.

UTEP fell to 5-4 on the season and 3-2 in Conference USA, while WKU moved to 4-5 and 2-4 on the season.

With the score 27-21 in favor of UTEP, the Miners were in the midst of a seven-play, 56-yard drive. Jameill Showers, after a play fake, saw what looked like a wide-open receiver to his left side at the 10-yard line before Terry snatched it away in front of 18,472 screaming Hilltopper fans.

WKU scored 21 unanswered points in the second half after UTEP took a 27-14 lead on a Nathan Jeffery three-yard touchdown rush late in the third quarter. The drive was the longest of the season, as the Miners chewed up 11:20 off the clock on aan 18-play, 86-yard push. It was also the longest scoring drive, in terms of time, since the 2000 season.

Brandon Doughty sealed the deal when he found Leon Allen for a 10-yard score to put the Hilltoppers up 35-27 at 7:41 in the fourth quarter.

The Miners got on the board first when Jay Mattox converted a 28-yard field goal attempt early in the first quarter. WKU would take the lead when Doughty found Joel German for a 50-yard touchdown pass. WKU's touchdown would set up UTEP's first touchdown on the day.

Autrey Golden returned a kickoff 92 yards to the end zone, giving the Miners a 10-7 lead. The score was Golden's sixth-career kickoff touchdown, ranking him tied for second in C-USA history and tied for third in NCAA history.

Josh Bell extended the UTEP lead to 17-7 on a one-yard push to paydirt late in the first quarter.

The UTEP defense, which had played spectacular the previous two weeks, gave up 324 passing yards to Doughty on 23-of-34 passing and three passing touchdowns.

Josh Bell and David Hamm each rushed for 68 yards to lead the rushing attack. Hamm's performance was a career best. Showers threw his first interception since playing at LA Tech on Oct. 4.

UTEP had a 20-7 lead at one point in the middle of the second quarter after Mattox connected on a 29-yard field goal.

The Hilltoppers gained 388 yards of total offense, while the Miners racked up 394 yards, going over 300-plus yards for the sixth time this season.

NORTH TEXAS	17
UTEP	35

SUN BOWL STADIUM (24,222)
NOVEMBER 15, 2014

Nathan Jeffery rushed for three first-half touchdowns, as UTEP built a four-touchdown cushion at the break and cruised to a 35-17 rout of North Texas in the Sun Bowl.

The Miners (6-4, 4-2 C-USA) became bowl-eligible for the first time in four years with their fourth victory in five games.

Jeffery scored on runs of 31, two and five yards in an opening 30 minutes completely dominated by UTEP. The Miners outgained the Mean Green (3-7, 1-5 C-USA) 288 yards to 53 and racked up 218 yards on the ground on their way to taking a 28-0 lead to the locker room.

UTEP tacked on a 54-yard touchdown run by Aaron Jones, who rushed for 177 yards on only 16 carries in his return to the lineup, in the third quarter. Jones had a 42-yard TD earlier in the night.

The Miners held North Texas to 201 yards, the second-fewest they have yielded in a game in 2014.

UTEP didn't extend its string of games holding an opponent under 100 yards rushing to four, but it came close. The Mean Green finished with 100 yards on 30 carries.

North Texas' Antoinne Jimmerson, who rushed for 111 yards in a 31-10 rout of Florida Atlantic the previous week, was limited to 21 on eight attempts.

The Mean Green had only 13 first downs as Andrew McNulty completed 15-of-27 passes for 101 yards.

The Miners didn't have a big passing night either, with Jameill Showers hitting on 8-of-11 attempts for 87 yards, but they didn't need to on a night where they were able to ram the football down North Texas' throats.

UTEP finished with a season-best 351 yards rushing, its most in a game since Nov. 19, 1983 versus Weber State (358) and most in a conference game since Nov. 20, 1982 versus Wyoming (404).

The Miners also went over 400 yards of offense (438) in a conference game for the second time this season. They had 465 versus Old Dominion on Oct. 11.

Jones now has 1,063 yards in nine games, making him the ninth player in school history to run for 1,000 in a season. He has 1,944 yards in his career, needing just 56 for 2,000.

Giving Jones support on Saturday were Josh Bell (52 yards), Jeffery (46) and Showers (33).

UTEP hosted North Texas for the first time since 1980 and snapped a seven-game losing streak in the series. It was the Miners' first victory over the Mean Green since 1965.

North Texas didn't get on the scoreboard until 10:37 remaining in the third quarter, when Trevor Moore connected on a 37-yard field goal, and scored a couple of touchdowns in the fourth period long after the game had been decided.

Jimmy Musgrave led UTEP with nine tackles.

GAME 11 AT RICE

#5 THINGS

1. Nathan Jeffery entered the top 10 for rushing yards at UTEP with a five-yard carry during the second quarter.
2. UTEP's offensive line has been diesel this year. The line has only allowed opposing defenders to sack Miner quarterbacks 11 times which ranks first in C-USA.
3. Nick Gathrite recorded his first-career sack in a Miner uniform.
4. Wesley Miller led the team in tackles for the fifth time this year with 10 tackles
5. Miners defense is holding opponents to a 34.5% conversion rate on third downs; it ranks second in C-USA.

Mario Hull set a career high in receiving yards (150) on six receptions, while scoring a late touchdown as Rice took care of UTEP, winning 31-13 at Rice Stadium.

UTEP fell to 6-5 (4-3 Conference USA), while Rice improved to 7-4 (5-2 C-USA).

The first quarter produced no offense by both teams, while UTEP converted the only first down of the quarter on a Josh Bell four-yard rush at the 4:20 mark. But the ball movement would pick up after the opening quarter.

Field goals were exchanged during the second quarter as James Hairston connected on a 32-yard kick to give the Owls the early edge. Jay Mattox tied the contest with a 33-yard make.

The scoring increased, as Rice found the end zone on its next two possessions.

Darik Dillard recorded the game's first touchdown, finding the end zone on a five-yard run with 53 seconds left in the first half. The key play on the drive came when Driphus Jackson found Dennis Parks for 31 yards on a third and eight.

The Owls took a 17-3 lead when Jackson connected with Jordan Taylor on a 24-yard touchdown catch to open the second half. Hull hauled in a 38-yard pass to the UTEP 24-yard line that set up the score.

The Miners got themselves back into the contest with a key defensive play.

With Rice leading 17-6, Devin Cockrell intercepted his first pass of the season that set up a Jameill Showers three-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter.

Rice answered with a six-play, 83-yard drive that resulted in a Dillard three-yard rush into the end zone. Jackson found Mario Hull on a 55-yard deep throw during the drive that help set up the touchdown run, making the score 24-13.

UTEP had an opportunity in the middle of the fourth quarter to get the ball back.

Cockrell broke up a pass to force a fourth down. Rice punted the ball, while Damian Payne tried to scatter his teammates away from the ball. But an awkward bounce hit a Miner, giving Rice the ball back.

Hull put it away when he grabbed a five-yard touchdown, giving his squad a 31-13 final score.

Wesley Miller led the defense with 10 tackles. Ian Hamilton tallied a career-best 130 yards on four receptions (32.5 average). UTEP rushed for 53 yards, its lowest total during a conference game this season.

Third downs hurt the Miners on both sides of the ball. Offensively, they only converted 3-of-12 third downs, while defensively, they allowed the Owls to convert on 7-of-15 attempts.

Rice completed four pass plays of 28 yards or more during the contest, as Jackson threw for 227 yards on 10-of-22 passing and two scores.

UTEP lost the time of possession battle for the first time this season. Rice controlled the clock 31:51 to UTEP's 28:09.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 21
UTEP 24
SUN BOWL STADIUM (27,455)
NOVEMBER 29, 2014

The Miners (7-5, 5-3 C-USA) pulled off a thriller at the Sun Bowl, 24-21 over the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders (6-6, 5-3 C-USA). In front of 27,455 raucous fans, UTEP ensured itself its first winning season since 2005.

The outlook looked grim for UTEP with a little more than a minute left to play in the game. Middle Tennessee, trailing by three, had second and goal from UTEP's 7-yard line. That's when senior Jameel Erving created a spectacular play.

Blue Raider quarterback, Austin Grammer, rolled out of the pocket and attempted to connect with a receiver. Erving jumped up and batted the ball down, and in the process, picked the pass off; it was his first-career interception in a UTEP uniform.

The game was far from over, though. Middle Tennessee would wind up getting the ball back on the 50-yard line with 17 seconds left to play and no timeouts. After a penalty and a couple of reviewed plays, Middle Tennessee had time for one last heave. Wes Miller intercepted the final Hail Mary to top off a memorable "Senior Night." The senior also led the defense with 11 tackles (five solo, six assisted).

In a game that featured five lead changes, UTEP took the lead midway through the fourth quarter with a nine play, 75-yard drive and never relinquished it. The Miners tallied 69 rushing yards on the drive; the other six were from an unsportsmanlike penalty committed by Middle Tennessee.

UTEP ran the ball 48 times for 250 yards (5.2 avg.) while Middle Tennessee amassed 259 yards on 44 carries (5.9 avg) via the ground.

The rushing attack was led once again by Aaron Jones. The sophomore sensation tallied 147 yards on 29 carries and one score; it was Aaron Jones' ninth-career game where he ran for 100+ yards. Jameill Showers pitched in 59 yards on 10 carries, and the go-ahead touchdown. Senior Nathan Jeffery had 31 yards on seven carries and Josh Bell ran for 13 yards on two attempts.

Middle Tennessee's ground game was led by Grammer. The sophomore accumulated 106 yards on only 12 carries. Shane Tucker ran for two touchdowns and 101 yards.

Showers completed seven of 13 passes for 106 yards. Seventy-two of those came via a third and six pass to Jones that led the Sun Bowl to erupt. The touchdown reception by Jones was the longest of his career. It was also Showers' first touchdown pass since the Southern Miss game.

UTAH STATE	21
UTEP	6

UNIVERSITY STADIUM (27,455)
DECEMBER 20, 2014

The Miners got on the board first. A 32-yard field goal by Jay Mattox with 3:10 remaining in the first quarter put UTEP ahead 3-0. The key play of the drive was a Jameill Showers roll out and 53-yard pass to Ian Hamilton on third and 10 from the UTEP 26-yard line.

Utah State answered with a big play of its own. Kent Myers' 48-yard rush on a first down at midfield lifted the Aggies into a 7-3 lead.

Both teams squandered scoring opportunities late in the second period. UTEP came up empty in the red zone as Mike Ruggles bobbled Nick Dooley's snap on a 25-yard field goal attempt. Wildcat Ronald Butler came in at quarterback for Utah State and promptly rushed 61 yards to the UTEP 29-yard line. The Aggies moved another 18 yards, but couldn't cash in as Nick Diaz's 28-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

Utah State built the 14-3 cushion on its first drive of the third quarter. The Aggies advanced 75 yards on seven plays, capped by Nick Vigil's three-yard scamper for a score. It was the third rushing score of the year for the star linebacker. Utah State had a 46-yard completion (Myers to JoJo Natson) and a 14-yard running play (Myers) on the series.

The Miners were finally able to get something going offensively in the fourth quarter when they marched 54 yards on 16 plays, and Mattox booted a 34-yard field goal to make it a one possession game. But Utah State put it away with a four-play, 65-yard scoring drive. Joe Hill put the exclamation point on the drive, and the game, with an 11-yard rush into the end zone.

Aaron Jones rushed 25 times for 88 yards to lead UTEP. Jones moved into 10th place on the Miners' career rushing list with 2,132 yards and ended the season with 1,321 yards, the fourth-top seasonal total in school annals. Jameill Showers, in his final college game, completed 13-of-24 passes for 126 yards. Hamilton recorded a game-high 79 receiving yards.

Myers threw for 68 yards and rushed for 70 to lead the Aggies. The UTEP defense kept the Miners in the game, yielding 347 yards. Adrian James spearheaded the Miners' defensive effort with seven tackles and a forced fumble.

The Miners were whistled for 75 penalty yards, their most under coach Sean Kugler.

Despite the tough finish, it was a season to remember for UTEP, which rebounded from a 2-10 campaign to make its first trip to a bowl game in four years.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

ED BUNN

Punter | 6-2 | 181
1990-91
West Lake Village, Calif.

Ed Bunn was the first Miner to earn consensus All-America honors, when he led the nation in punting in 1992. That season Bunn averaged 47.7 yards per punt after punting 41 times for 1,955 yards. He missed the last two games of the season with an injury, but still captured All-America honors from Walter Camp, Football News and the Associated Press. He became the third Miner to lead the nation in punting, joining Owen Price (1940) and Fred Wendt (1946). Bunn played just two seasons for the Miners, recording the second-highest career punting average in program history (44.5). He also boomed two of the 10 longest punts in school annals – 83 yards versus New Mexico (1991) and 73 yards versus BYU (1992).

SUN BOWL HIGHLIGHTS

SEPT. 21, 1963
Larry Durham ran 54 yards for a touchdown on the game's first play from scrimmage in the inaugural game in the Sun Bowl. The Miners defeated North Texas State 34-7.

OCT. 15, 1966
The Miners' 68 points in a 68-21 win over Texas-Arlington marked the most-ever scored in the Sun Bowl.

NOV. 18, 1967
For the first time in school history the Miners faced a nationally-ranked team, as UTEP hosted sixth-ranked Wyoming. The game featured the first sellout in school history, as 35,023 fans packed a Sun Bowl that seated just 30,000 fans. UTEP took a 13-3 halftime lead before Wyoming stormed back. With seconds remaining, UTEP's Jerry Waddles attempted a 44-yard field goal that went just wide, giving the No. 4 Cowboys a 21-19 win over the Miners.

SEPT. 21, 1968
UTEP played its first game as a member of the Western Athletic Conference and walked off the field with a huge 44-15 triumph over New Mexico. Brooks Dawson led the way with 196 passing yards and two touchdowns, and Jeff White added two rushing scores.

SEPT. 21, 1974
UTEP snapped a 13-game losing streak with a 34-7 win against Utah.

SEPT. 20, 1975
The lowest-scoring game in Sun Bowl history showed UTEP beating East Tennessee State, 6-3.

OCT. 26, 1985
Defending national champion BYU, with a 24-game WAC winning streak, was derailed by the Miners, 23-16. UTEP defensive back Danny Taylor made the game's big play, a 100-yard interception return for a second quarter score that broke a 10-10 tie. The win was UTEP's lone triumph in a 1-10 season.

NOV. 12, 1988
UTEP's 51-point margin of victory against San Diego State in a 58-7 contest was the largest-ever for the Miners in the Sun Bowl.

NOV. 19, 1988
UTEP edged Air Force, 31-24, earning the school its 10th win and a trip to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. UTEP was led by Academic All-American quarterback Pat Hegarty and former Dallas Cowboy Tony Tolbert.

NOV. 12, 1994
With an overtime tiebreaker now in effect, the Miners played what could very well be the last tie game in school history as UTEP and Fresno State battled to a 30-30 deadlock.

NOV. 1, 1997
The Miners upset 25th-ranked BYU, 14-3. Ecstatic Miner fans made ESPN highlights by tearing down the south goal posts, carrying them up through the stands, and depositing them into the base of the mountain. It was the first time in 138 games that BYU was held without a touchdown.

SEPT. 25, 1999
Before a sellout crowd of 52,247 – at the time the largest audience ever to witness a football game at the Sun Bowl – UTEP routed rival New Mexico State 54-23. The Miners scored the last 24 points of the contest after the Aggies closed to within 30-23 with 5:47 to go in the third quarter. Paul Smith rushed for 187 yards for UTEP, which had 505 yards of total offense.

OCT. 21, 2000
With first place on the line in the WAC, UTEP scored 23 unanswered points to start the game, rolling to a 23-13 win over Fresno State before 52,085 fans. It marked the third sellout in school history and the second in as many years. QB Rocky Perez completed 20 of 29 passes for 212 yards and one touchdown to lead the way.

NOV. 11, 2000
The largest crowd to ever witness a football game in the Sun Bowl (53,304) saw the Miners clinch a share of the WAC title with a 38-21 win over Rice in the season finale. Fans not only tore down the south goal posts, as they did in 1997 after UTEP upset BYU, but they tore down both sets, depositing the remains over the east stands of the stadium. Pacing UTEP in the win was QB Rocky Perez, who completed 20 of 29 passes for a career-high 320 yards and three touchdowns. TE Brian Natkin and WR Lee Mays each had stellar outings. Natkin hauled in eight passes for a career-best 110 yards, while Mays caught five passes for 111 yards and three touchdowns.

OCT. 19, 2002
Miner fans went home happy on Homecoming after Keith Robinson boomed a school-record 59-yard field goal to beat Rice, 38-35. UTEP had to erase a 21-7 deficit to nip the Owls. After Rice's Kyle Herm hit Marcus Battle for an 18-yard touchdown to knot the contest at 35 late in the fourth quarter, Robinson split the uprights with 11 seconds remaining. Omar Duarte threw for 128 yards and two touchdowns in a relief role to spark the Miner comeback.

NOV. 13, 2004
UTEP and Rice provided another thrilling ball game for football fans in El Paso. A loyal crowd of 43,507 braved the cold and hard-driving rain to watch the Miners hang on for a 35-28 double-overtime victory over the Owls. Two safeties for Rice over the final 5:20 of regulation sent the game into the first overtime. After a three-yard TD pass from Jordan Palmer to Casey Mauch tied the game at 28 in the first overtime, Palmer connected with Johnnie Lee Higgins, Jr. on the very next play -- the first play of the second overtime -- for a 25-yard touchdown. Rice took its turn on offense. A fourth-down pass interference call on UTEP kept the Owls' drive alive. Then a UTEP face mask penalty gave Rice four downs from the Miner one-yard line. However, on first down UTEP's Quintin Demps stripped the ball from Rice running back Ed Bailey. Robert Rodriguez pounced on the ball to secure the win for the Miners.

OCT. 6, 2007
The Miners had to overcome a pair of nine-point second-half deficits on their way to a 48-47 conquest of eventual Conference USA Western Division champion Tulsa. UTEP trailed 30-21 early in the third quarter and 37-28 early in the fourth quarter. After quarterback Paul Smith put the Golden Hurricane ahead 47-41 on a one-yard touchdown run with 4:34 to go, the Miners marched 76 yards on 11 plays for the winning score. UTEP's Trevor Vittatoe connected with Joe West on a 14-yard touchdown pass with 58 seconds remaining for the 48-47 lead. Tulsa drove to the Miner 36-yard line in the final seconds, but Jarod Tracy's 53-yard field goal was wide left as time expired.

SEPT. 6, 2008
A record crowd of 53,415 packed the Sun Bowl for the first-ever El Paso meeting between the Miners and Texas. The game had sold out weeks in advance, and fans began tailgating early in the morning in anticipation of the first matchup between the schools since 1933. The Miners were within striking distance of the heavily-favored Longhorns until UT exploded for 14 points in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter on its way to a 42-13 victory.

OCT. 3, 2009
UTEP was coming off a 64-7 loss at second-ranked Texas, and was a heavy underdog to a Houston team that had zipped out to a 3-0 start. But the Miners dominated the Cougars after falling behind 10-0 midway through the first quarter. With Donald Buckram rushing for 262 yards -- the second-top total in school history -- UTEP scored 55 points over the final three quarters and blitzed the 12th-ranked Cougars, 58-41. It was the Miners' first win over a ranked opponent in 12 years.

OCT. 21, 2009
The Miners appeared to be on life support, trailing visiting Tulsa 24-13 and being forced to punt with 10 minutes to play. However, in one of the most improbable rallies in school history, UTEP put together scoring drives of 61 and 54 yards over the final eight and a half minutes to edge the Golden Hurricane, 28-24. Donald Buckram rushed for 76 of his 165 yards in the fourth quarter and scored both of the Miners' touchdowns in the period.

NOV. 6, 2010
With bowl eligibility on the line, UTEP put together its most complete performance of the season, knocking off eventual Conference USA Western Division champion SMU 28-14. The Miners jumped out to first half leads of 14-0 and 21-7 and kept the Mustangs at bay, limiting them to 359 yards. Trevor Vittatoe threw for three touchdowns for UTEP in a game where neither team committed a turnover.

NOV. 29, 2014
Jameel Erving made a spectacular interception of quarterback Austin Grammer with Middle Tennessee knocking on the door of scoring a game-winning touchdown, preserving the Miners' 24-21 victory and sending UTEP to a bowl game for the first time in five years. The Miners clinched a winning record for the first time in a decade.

SUN BOWL FACTS

The Sun Bowl was completed for the start of the 1963 season and on the opening play from scrimmage, UTEP back Larry Durham broke away for a 54-yard touchdown against North Texas State. The facility was originally designed to hold 30,000 spectators. The second deck on the press box was completed in 1969, and in 1982 extra seating was added. The present seating capacity is 51,500. New scoreboards and a video board were added in 2014, and a FieldTurf Classic HD CoolPlay surface was installed for the 2015 season.

1937 SUN BOWL

HARDIN SIMMONS	34
TEXAS COLLEGE OF MINES	6

KIDD FIELD (9,000) | EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1937

The Miners' first-ever bowl appearance was a disappointing one, as Hardin-Simmons rolled past Texas College of the Mines (as UTEP was known at the time), 34-6 at Kidd Field in the Second Annual Sun Bowl.

The Cowboys opened the game with Burns McKinney breaking loose on a 54-yard run. But the Muckers held their ground and staved off the HSU attack. The Cowboys were not held scoreless for long, as Si Addington swept around end for a 12-yard score on the first play following a blocked punt in the next series.

The Miners would respond in the second quarter when O.P. May hit Boyd Arnold with a swing pass that Arnold turned into a 45-yard touchdown. The extra point failed and HSU still led 7-6.

From then on it was all Hardin-Simmons, as the Cowboys scored 27 unanswered points, including touchdown runs by HSU All-Americans Ed Cherry and Pete Tyler to run away with the win.

The Miners were able to amass only 146 yards of total offense. Meanwhile the Cowboys rolled up 511 yards of total offense, including 421 on the ground.

HSU's Addington led all rushers with 142 yards on 16 carries, while Cherry ran for 83 yards and Tyler added 62. Brnas McKinney added another 61 yards on four carries, including a 54-yard jaunt in the first quarter. McKinney's efforts were limited by an injury in the first half.

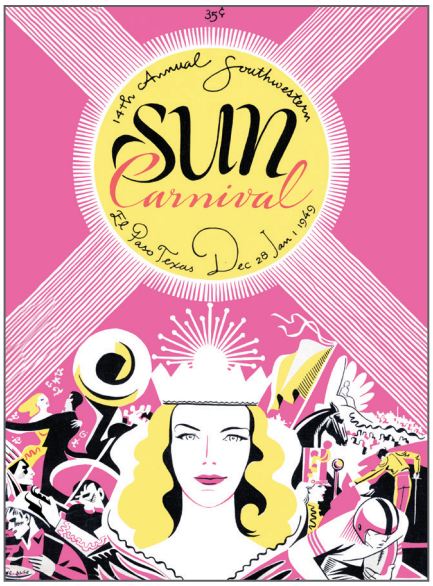
WEST VIRGINIA	21
TEXAS COLLEGE OF MINES	12

KIDD FIELD (13,000) | EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1949



West Virginia scored 21 unanswered points during the second and third quarter, and four Miner fumbles helped the Mountaineers to a 21-12 win over Texas College of the Mines in the 14th Annual Sun Bowl.

Pug Gabrel gave the Miners the lead just five seconds into the second quarter when he bowled over the goal line from a yard out. But the score seemed to energize the Mountaineers, who had been unable to get their offense on track in the first quarter.

West Virginia moved 83 yards in eight plays to take the lead at 7-6. Clarence Cox took in a 25-yard strike from Jimmy Walthall to score the go-ahead touchdown.

After the Miners punted to start the second half, West Virginia took the ball 51 yards for its second score. Jim Devonshire took the ball in from the 14 to make the score 14-6 in favor of the Mountaineers.

West Virginia's defense continued to stymie the Miners and the Mountaineer offense took advantage again, driving 57 yards for their third touchdown. Devonshire again took the ball across, this time from two yards out, making the score 21-6.

A late Fred Wendt 60-yard run closed the gap to 21-12, but fumbles ended a pair of other drives and dashed the Miners' hopes.

Wendt led the NCAA in rushing in 1948, racking up 1,570 yards to become the first 1,500-yard rusher in NCAA history.

Wendt finished the day with a game-high 92 yards on 15 carries. Devonshire led West Virginia with 78 yards on 14 carries to lead the Mountaineers.

TEXAS WESTERN	33

KIDD FIELD (15,000) / EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 2, 1950

Texas Western, the national leader in rushing yards per game, ran for 348 yards on its way to a 33-20 win over Georgetown in the 15th Annual Sun Bowl.

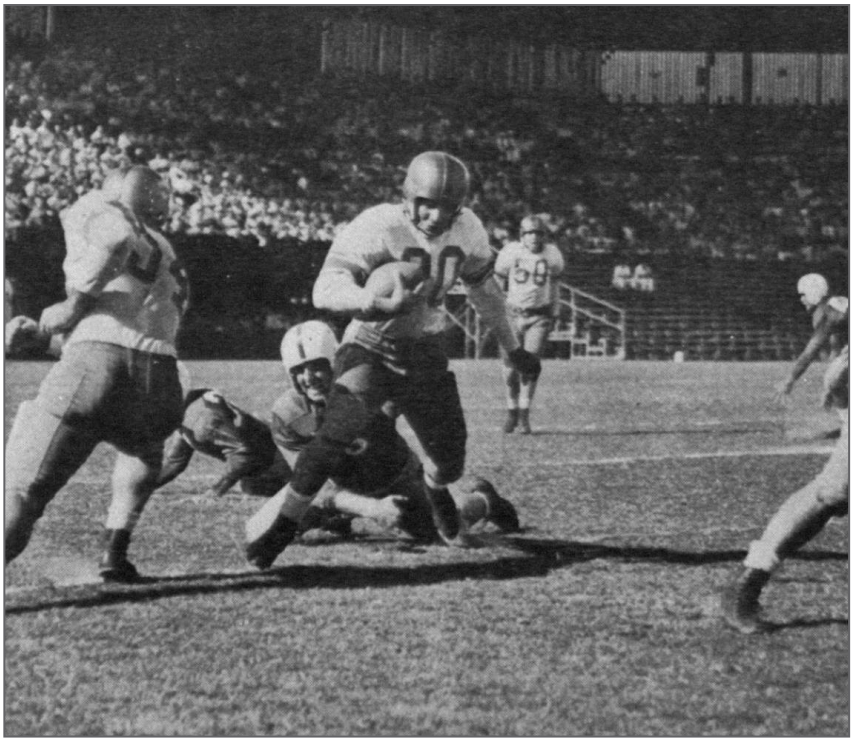
The Miners shut down the Hoyas in the first half, taking a 13-0 lead into the locker room. They would extend that lead to 20-0 before Georgetown finally got on the board late in the third quarter.

Pug Gabrel raised the lead to 26-7 with his second touchdown of the day, a 19-yard jaunt.

The Hoyas came back when Harry Schmit hit Bob Deacon with a 14-yard strike early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 26-13. But Texas Western put the game away with a 51-yard touchdown run by Wayne Hansen. Each team racked up over 300 yards of offense, as the Miners recorded 372 total yards and Georgetown amassed 308 yards. Most of the Miner yards came on the ground -- 348 yards on 59 carries -- while the Hoyas picked up 226 yards through the air.

Texas Western's Lee Cargile led all backs with 96 yards rushing, while Gabrel added 85. James Hammond and Button Fraser both topped 50 yards on the ground for the Miners.

Georgetown's Gus Fornaciari caught four passes on the day for 114 yards. He had one catch for 41 yards and a 54-yard touchdown reception in the final moments of the contest.



"PUG" GABREL POWERED HIS SQUAD PAST GEORGETOWN FOR THE MINERS' FIRST BOWL VICTORY IN PROGRAM HISTORY.

TEXAS WESTERN	37
SOUTHERN MISS	14

KIDD FIELD (9,500) / EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1954

The Miners went into the Sun Bowl as overwhelming underdogs to Southern Mississippi. But Texas Western stunned the 14-point favorite Golden Eagles and their fans by jumping out to a 30-0 lead in the first half of the 19th Annual Sun Bowl.

The Miners then held on for a 37-14 triumph to finish the season 8-2.

TWC quarterback Dick Shinaut was named outstanding player of the game. He threw two touchdown passes and kicked four extra points to amass 19 of the Miners' 37 points. He finished the day 11 of 17 passing for 158 yards.

Texas Western got on the board the second play of the game, when Clovis Riley darted 54 yards to the goal line where he was hit and fumbled. The ball was recovered in the end zone by TWC's John Howle for the Miner touchdown. The play was set up on a 48-yard kickoff return by Shinaut to open the game.

In the first period Shinaut executed a screen pass formation, tossing to Jessie Whittenton for 25 yards and a touchdown.

Shinaut threw a long aerial in the second quarter, hurling 44 yards to John Howle for another Texas Western touchdown.

Southern Miss scored a pair of touchdowns to draw within 16 points, but TWC's Riley dashed 43 yards for the final Miner score.

Riley had a big day rushing, which included the 54-yard non-scoring run in the first quarter and a 43-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He finished the day with 112 yards rushing on just 12 carries.

The Miners overcame Southern Miss with a plan of attack on the ground and in the air. Texas Western amassed 245 rushing yards and 158 passing yards.

1955 SUN BOWL

TEXAS WESTERN	47
FLORIDA STATE	20

KIDD FIELD (14,000) / EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1955

The biggest single-half offensive explosion in Sun Bowl history led Texas Western to an easy 47-20 win over Florida State in the 20th edition of the game.

Jesse Whittenton provided most of the fireworks, tossing three touchdown passes and adding another pair of scores on the ground to earn Most Valuable Player honors. Whittenton got things going early, throwing a 56-yard bomb to Rusty Rutledge to tie the game at 7-7 after one quarter.

The second quarter was all Miners, as TWC scored 27 unanswered points in building a 34-7 halftime lead. Whittenton tossed a pair of scores, including Rutledge's second, and ran one in from seven yards out.

The Seminoles would score a pair of second half touchdowns, but couldn't get closer than 20 points.

Whittenton, who also kicked extra points, totaled 17 points. He was seven of 13 for 136 yards passing in the game. Bob Forrest scored a pair of touchdowns on runs of 45 and 11 yards, and had the play of the game when he picked up his own fumble on a kickoff and ran 95 yards to the FSU two-yard line.

Florida State's backfield included (current ESPN analyst) Lee Corso and Buddy Reynolds (a.k.a. actor Burt Reynolds). Corso set up FSU's first score on a 48-yard run to the Miner two-yard line. Corso left the game after just two carries for 50 yards when he collided with Forrest on a fumbled punt return.

THE MINERS JUMPED OUT TO A 34-7 LEAD ON THE SEMINOLES, FORESHADOWING THE HALFTIME ENTERTAINMENT.

1957 SUN BOWL

GEORGE WASHINGTON	13

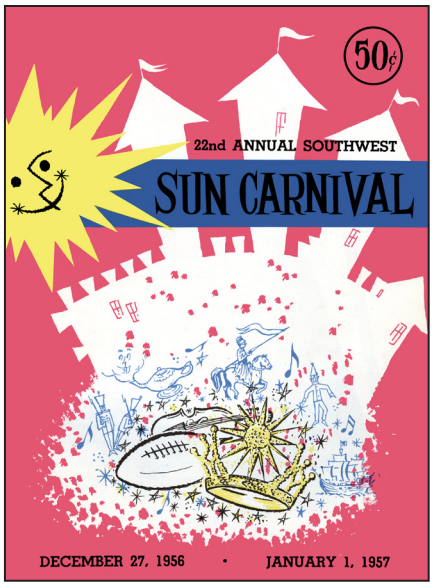
KIDD FIELD (13,500) / EL PASO, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1957



George Washington forced five Texas Western turnovers and took advantage of its opportunities in winning 13-0 in the 22nd Annual Sun Bowl.

The game marked the first shuout in a Sun Bowl since Southwestern University blanked the University of Mexico in 1945, 35-0.

The Miner defense was also strong in the game, but miscues by the offense led to both Colonial touchdowns. Twice the defense stopped the Colonials inside the 10-yard line, including a goal line stand at the six-inch line during the first quarter.

The tone of the game was set early when George Washington recovered a fumble on the Texas Western nine-yard line. However, the Miner defense stood its ground, thwarting a Colonial score.

Though the defense would keep the Colonials out of the end zone, George Washington would score soon after. A 30-yard strike from Ray Looney to Paul Thompson would be all the points the Colonials would need.

A Pete Spera three-yard run on the fourth play of the fourth quarter iced the game for George Washington. The shutout was the first against the Miners in 42 games.

Bo Austin, who was named the game's MVP, led all rushers with 98 yards on 18 carries. His biggest run of the day came on a 47-yard non-scoring scamper in the third quarter to set up Spera's touchdown.

HEAD COACH MIKE BRUMBELOW LED THE MINERS TO THE 1957 SUN BOWL IN HIS LAST SEASON AT THE HELM.

1965 SUN BOWL

TEXAS WESTERN	13
TCU	12

SUN BOWL (27,450) / EL PASO, TEXAS
DECEMBER 1, 1965

TCU ran out to a 10-0 halftime lead but, led by Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot, TWC came from behind to win the 31st Annual Sun Bowl.

TCU's Kent Nix got the Horned Frogs going in the second period, leading them to a 35-yard Bruce Alford field goal. TCU then took a 10-0 lead when Nix hooked up with David Smith on an 11-yard scoring pass.

Stevens, the second highest-rated passer in the nation during the 1965 season, threw for 208 yards on 21 completions.

He led off the second half with a 35-yard scoring hook-up to flanker Chuck Hughes, and the comeback was on. Texas Western then drove 70 yards to set up a 21-yard field goal by Cook, tying the game at 10-10.

A fumble late in the fourth quarter by the Frogs at their own 29-yard line gave the Miners good field position for the go-ahead score. Four plays later Cook booted his second field goal to give the Miners their first lead at 13-10.

The Frogs were shut down and nearly out in the second half, with their only score coming on a safety with 43 seconds left in the game. Stevens, who was named the C.M. Hendricks Most Valuable Player, took the snap from center and ran out of the end zone to make the final score 13-12.

1967 SUN BOWL

UTEP	14
MISSISSIPPI	7

SUN BOWL (34,685) / EL PASO, TEXAS
DECEMBER 30, 1967

UTEP scored 14 fourth quarter points, and a surprisingly strong defense held heavily-favored Mississippi to just a single score as the Miners defeated the Rebels in the 33rd Annual Sun Bowl, 14-7.

Billy Stevens received his second C. M. Hendricks Award as the game's most valuable player after leading the Miners to two touchdowns in a seven-minute span of the fourth quarter.

The Rebels' touchdown was set up by the lone Miner turnover of the game, an interception by Mac McClure that was returned 46 yards to the UTEP one-yard line. Two plays later Bruce Newell scored to give the Rebels a 7-0 lead.

The UTEP offense finally got into gear late in the third quarter, driving 76 yards for the tying score behind the arm of Stevens. He threw for 64 yards on the drive, including the last five yards on a swing pass to David Karns for the tying score.

All-American Fred Carr, who was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman, forced a fumble two possessions later and the Miners took over at the Rebel 22. Four plays later Larry McHenry bowled into the end zone for the winning score, and the defense took over from there.

The UTEP defense held the Rebels to just 109 yards of total offense and six first downs, while forcing four turnovers. The Miners racked up 276 yards of offense.

Gene Epps led the Miner defense with 12 tackles and one interception on the day, while Carr notched five takedowns and George Daney picked up seven.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL (20,242)
SHREVEPORT, LA.
DECEMBER 29, 1988

After a close first half in which Southern Miss had a 10-7 lead, the Golden Eagles scored three third-quarter touchdowns to open up a 24-point lead and roll past UTEP, 38-18, in the 13th Annual Independence Bowl.

The Miners scored first on a 30-yard pass from Pat Hegarty to Reggie Barrett, and controlled the action in the first half. But after a Chris Jacke missed field goal, USM moved 80 yards for the go-ahead score, a three-yard TD pass from Brett Favre to Reginald Warnsley.

Two punt returns for touchdowns by James Henry put the game out of reach. Henry was named Most Valuable Offensive and Defensive Player of the game for his play.

Barrett tied an Independence Bowl record for receptions with nine for 119 yards and a touchdown.

Terry Walker recorded six tackles and a pair of interceptions off Favre, while Ken Sale and Doug Morgan each notched a team-high eight tackles to spark the Miner defense.

Hegarty, a GTE Academic All-American, threw for 203 yards on the day. He teamed with David Flores to set a UTEP bowl game record with 308 yards passing.

2004 EV1.NET HOUSTON BOWL

COLORADO	33
UTEP	28

RELIANT STADIUM (27,235)
HOUSTON, TEXAS
DECEMBER 29, 2004

Jordan Palmer and Jayson Boyd combined to set five UTEP bowl records, but it wasn't enough as Colorado rallied to edge the Miners, 33-28, in the EV1.net Houston Bowl.

Palmer set marks for passing yardage (328), passing attempts (42), passing completions (22) and total offense (325) and Boyd had a career-high 140 yards receiving. But the Buffaloes (8-5) held UTEP's high-scoring offense in check in the second half to erase a 21-13 deficit.

The Miners ended the year on their first losing streak of the season, closing out a magical year in which they improved from 2-11 to 8-4.

UTEP scored three touchdowns in the first half, but just one following the intermission. The Buffaloes controlled the clock for 21 out of 30 minutes in the second half.

Colorado moved 57 yards on 11 plays in its first offensive possession. Mason Crosby's 26-yard field goal put the Buffaloes ahead 3-0. UTEP answered with touchdowns on consecutive possessions for a 14-3 lead. First, Howard Jackson scored on a seven-yard run, and later Josh Chamois had a one-yard scamper for six points.

The Buffaloes pulled to within a point (14-13) on a one-yard run by Hugh Charles and a 54-yard field goal by Crosby. Palmer's 17-yard pass to Boyd with 3:08 remaining in the second quarter gave the Miners some breathing room at the intermission.

Two more field goals by Crosby cut Colorado's deficit to 21-19 late in the third. UTEP responded with a four-play, 80-yard drive, capped off by Palmer's four-yard pass to Johnnie Lee Higgins, Jr. for a 28-19 lead.

However, the Buffaloes wouldn't go away. Joel Klatt's 78-yard pass to Joe Klopfenstein with 14:02 left in the fourth quarter closed the gap to 28-26. Colorado regained the lead for good at 33-28 on a 39-yard pass from Klatt to Evan Judge with 8:43 remaining in the game.

POISED IN THE POCKET, QUARTERBACK JORDAN PALMER SET FOUR UTEP BOWL RECORDS, INCLUDING 328 PASSING YARDS TO CAP MIKE PRICE'S FIRST SEASON IN THE ORANGE AND BLUE.

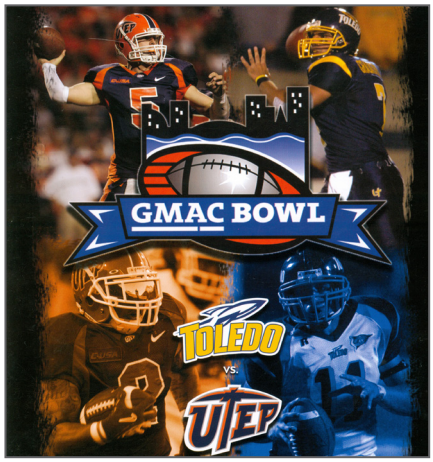
LADD-PEEBLES STADIUM (35,422)
MOBILE, ALA.
DECEMBER 21, 2005



Bruce Gradkowski threw for 298 yards and five touchdowns, leading Toledo to a 45-13 victory over UTEP in the seventh annual GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

Gradkowski, the game's MVP, threw for three touchdowns in the first half as Toledo built a 28-13 lead. He out-dueled Miner quarterback Jordan Palmer, who passed for 160 yards in the first half before suffering a high ankle sprain.

Palmer completed 14 of 33 attempts for 163 yards. Orlando Cruz, who finished the game, was three of seven for 29 yards.

Toledo drove 79 yards for a touchdown on its opening possession, as Gradkowski connected with tight end John Allen for a 10-yard score.

The Miners dented the scoreboard with 1:52 remaining in the period on a 34-yard field goal by Reagan Schneider, capping a 71-yard drive.

Toledo extended its lead to 14-3 on a fourth down, 33-yard touchdown pass from Gradkowski to David Washington – his first career reception for a score – with 10:41 remaining in the half.

Thirty-six seconds later David Thomas picked off Palmer for a 37-yard touchdown, and the Miners found themselves trailing 21-3.

UTEP scored 10 straight points to pull to within 21-13. Palmer found Johnnie Lee Higgins, Jr. for an 18-yard score, and Schneider nailed a 23-yard field goal.

But Gradkowski quelled the Miners' momentum by finding Steve Odom for a 31-yard touchdown shortly before the half, leaving UTEP in a 28-13 hole at the intermission.

Odom opened the second half with a 51-yard kickoff return, setting up a 29-yard field goal by Jason Robbins for a 31-13 advantage.

Toledo's Trinity Dawson, who rushed for 124 yards, was named the game's offensive MVP. Mike Alston was appointed defensive MVP after racking up three sacks, and Odom had three kickoff returns for 112 yards to earn special teams MVP.

THE EXPLOSIVE JOHNNIE LEE HIGGINS JR. SCORED THE MINERS' LONE TOUCHDOWN AT THE 2005 GMAC BOWL.

Marlon McClure also had a big day for the Miners, establishing New Mexico Bowl records for kickoff return yards (125) and long kickoff return (72). His performance gave UTEP 1,538 kickoff return yards on the year to establish a new single-season standard.

UTEP's special teams performance was solid all-around with Dakota Warren booming a 52-yard field goal and Ian Campbell punting six times for 287 yards, a 47.8-yard average.

The Cougars scored touchdowns on four of their first five possessions. BYU compiled 514 yards behind a balanced attack that featured 295 through the air and 219 on the ground. The Cougars received 137 yards receiving from Cody Hoffman and 101 rushing from Joshua Quezada.

THE ELUSIVE MARLON MCCLURE SET TWO NEW MEXICO BOWL RECORDS AND A UTEP SINGLE-SEASON STANDARD WITH A SPECIAL DAY ON SPECIAL TEAMS.

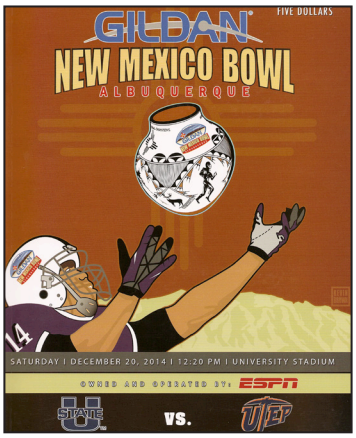
2014 NEW MEXICO BOWL



UTAH STATE	21
UTEP	6

UNIVERSITY STADIUM (28,725)
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.,
DECEMBER 20, 2014

The Miners got on the board first. A 32-yard field goal by Jay Mattox with 3:10 remaining in the first quarter put UTEP ahead 3-0. The key play of the drive was a Jameill Showers roll out and 53-yard pass to Ian Hamilton on third and 10 from the UTEP 26-yard line.

Utah State answered with a big play of its own. Kent Myers' 48-yard rush on a first down at midfield lifted the Aggies into a 7-3 lead.

Both teams squandered scoring opportunities late in the second period. UTEP came up empty in the red zone as Mike Ruggles bobbled Nick Dooley's snap on a 25-yard field goal attempt. Wildcat Ronald Butler came in at quarterback for Utah State and promptly rushed 61 yards to the UTEP 29-yard line. The Aggies moved another 18 yards, but couldn't cash in as Nick Diaz's 28-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

Utah State built the 14-3 cushion on its first drive of the third quarter. The Aggies advanced 75 yards on seven plays, capped by Nick Vigil's three-yard scamper for a score. It was the third rushing score of the year for the star linebacker. Utah State had a 46-yard completion (Myers to JoJo Natson) and a 14-yard running play (Myers) on the series.

The Miners were finally able to get something going offensively in the fourth quarter when they marched 54 yards on 16 plays, and Mattox booted a 34-yard field goal to make it a one possession game. But Utah State put it away with a four-play, 65-yard scoring drive. Joe Hill put the exclamation point on the drive, and the game, with an 11-yard rush into the end zone.

Aaron Jones rushed 25 times for 88 yards to lead UTEP. Jones moved into 10th place on the Miners' career rushing list with 2,132 yards and ended the season with 1,321 yards, the fourth-top seasonal total in school annals. Jameill Showers, in his final college game, completed 13-of-24 passes for 126 yards. Hamilton recorded a game-high 79 receiving yards.

Myers threw for 68 yards and rushed for 70 to lead the Aggies. The UTEP defense kept the Miners in the game, yielding 347 yards. Adrian James spearheaded the Miners' defensive effort with seven tackles and a forced fumble.

The Miners were whistled for 75 penalty yards, their most under coach Sean Kugler.

Despite the tough finish, it was a season to remember for UTEP, which rebounded from a 2-10 campaign to make its first trip to a bowl game in four years.

JAY MATTOX ACCOUNTED FOR ALL OF UTEP'S POINTS, CONNECTING ON FIELD GOAL MAKES OF 32 AND 34 YARDS.

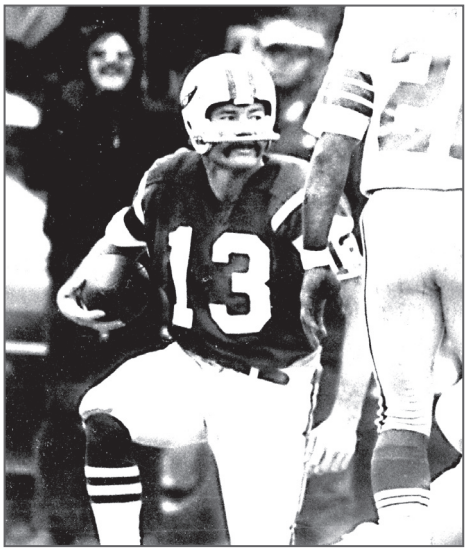
MINER GREATS



NFL HALL OF FAME
DON MAYNARD

Halfback | 6-0 | 175
1955-57
Colorado City, Texas

Before his professional days, Don Maynard was a All-Border Conference halfback and track star. He was a future draft pick of the New York Giants in 1957, but played only the 1958 season with the team before moving to Hamilton in the Canadian Football League In 1959. A year later, he became the first player to sign with the new American Football League's New York Titans, a team that would later change its name to the Jets. The young New York team struggled for several seasons before they attained any level of respect. Maynard often had to improvise as one of his team's constantly rotating crop of quarterbacks scrambled for his life. In 1965 quarterback Joe Namath arrived on the scene and the resulting chemistry that developed between the two proved to be the perfect mix. While Maynard was a frequent standout for the Jets, he had his biggest day in the 1968 AFL Championship Game that preceded the Jets' stunning upset of Baltimore in Super Bowl III. In New York's 27-23 victory over Oakland, Maynard caught six passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns. His 14-yard grab in the first period gave the Jets the lead and his six-yard catch in the fourth period proved to be the game winner. Although he never led the league in receiving any one season, at the time of his retirement following the 1973 season, Maynard was one of only five players to record more than 50 receptions and more than 1,000 receiving yards in five different seasons. A four-time AFL All-Star, his 633 career catches for 11,834 yards were both pro records at the time. Maynard played 12 seasons with the Jets (1960-72), establishing club records for touchdowns (88), receptions (627), receiving yards (11,732), single-season receiving yards (1,434), single-season touchdowns (14) and single-game receiving yards (228). Maynard, whose jersey (No. 13) was retired by the New York Jets, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

He was the school's first All-America selection, winning the honor in 1937, 1938 and 1939. Became the first player from the school to get drafted. Heineman was a triple threat player, leading the Miners in rushing, passing and punting from 1937-39. He also had nine interceptions in 1939. He still ranks sixth in total offense (4,874 yards) and rushed for 2,001 yards in his career.

JORDAN PALMER | 2003-06

His 3,595 yards passing in 2006 remain a school standard. The brother of former Heisman Trophy winner Carson Palmer, he was selected by Washington in the 2007 NFL Draft.

MINER GREATS

ROCKY PEREZ | 1997-00

He became only the second quarterback in school history to lead his team to a conference championship and a bowl berth, as the Miners claimed a share of the 2000 WAC title and a spot in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl. Perez currently ranks fifth in career passing yards (5,108) and total offense (5,394). Led UTEP to a 14-3 upset of No. 25 BYU in 1997.

JOHN RAYBORN | 1995,97-98

A shining example of overcoming adversity, Rayborn endured injuries, suspensions and academic problems to become a team leader and model citizen after putting his crazy days behind him. He eventually finished his career as a three-year starter, and his name is etched in the UTEP record books in the top 10 in several passing and offensive categories.

BILLY STEVENS | 1965-67

For over 30 years, he held school records for most passes for a season (432) and career (943), yards passing in a career (6,485) and touchdowns for a career (51). His 92-yard pass to Bob Wallace with no time left against Utah (1965) as a sophomore remains the school's longest completion to this day. Threw for 500 yards in his first college game, an NCAA freshman record.

TREVOR VITTATOE | 2007-10

Vittatoe shattered school records for passing yards (12,439), touchdown passes (97), total offense (12,291 yards) and TDs responsible for (98), and rates second in school annals with 14 games throwing for 300 yards or more. Following his senior campaign, he ranked 14th in NCAA history in passing yards, and 15th in passing TDs and total offense. A starter in every game (49 total) through his college career, Vittatoe is the only player in school history to throw for 400 yards on four occasions, and to pass for five TDs four times. He also owns school records for passing yards in a game (517 versus Marshall in '09) and TD passes in a season (33 in '08).

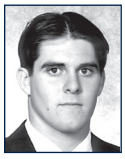
Padded his career totals (144 catches for 2,657 yards and 30 touchdowns) with a blockbuster sophomore and senior year. In 2008, he compiled 50 receptions for 958 yards, and in 2010 he racked up 47 catches for 1,070 yards -- reaching the end zone 14 times each year. Adams is tied for fourth in school history with ten 100-yard games, and closed out his career on a high note with a career-high 153 yards versus BYU in the 2010 New Mexico Bowl. His 30 TD receptions rate second in UTEP annals.

ARNIE ADKISON | 1985-88

Although much of his talents were used as a blocking tight end, this Hobbs, N.M., native caught 86 passes during his career. He had 10 catches for 200 yards against Utah on a rainy afternoon in 1987.

REGGIE BARRETT | 1987-90

Caught 153 passes during his career (1987-90) for 2,558 yards and 19 touchdowns. Best single game was at Hawaii (1988) when he had 177 yards in receptions. Also totaled 165 yards versus BYU in 1990. Had 50 receptions in 1988 and 58 the following year. His 153 career catches rank sixth at the school.



JIMMY CARPENTER | 1995-98

This sure-handed receiver finished as a two-time second team All-WAC performer. He led the Miners in receiving in both 1997 and 1998, concluding his career with at least one catch in 22 consecutive games and 37 of a possible 45 games in his UTEP career. He finished with 126 catches for 1,836 yards.

Established school records for receiving yards (3,218) and touchdown catches (32). Chosen by Oakland in the third round of the '07 NFL Draft.

One of most prolific overall receivers in school history. Had 80 catches in 1965, 162 in his career and 17 against Arizona State in 1965. His 349 yards against North Texas in 1965 was an NCAA record at the time. His 34.9 yards per reception still stands as an NCAA record. Had 19 career touchdown catches. Returned 12 punts for 272 yards and one score, and brought back 36 kickoffs for another 851 yards. Had six catches for 115 yards and one score in the 1965 Sun Bowl.

Set a school record with a 100-yard kickoff return at New Mexico in 1996.

RON JONES | 1967-68

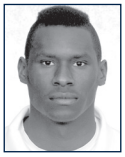
Another tight end who needs to be listed among the all-time UTEP greats. Although his totals aren't as impressive as the wide receivers', his talents did not go unnoticed by the Green Bay Packers. He played in the NFL for a few seasons. Returned for an alumni game in the mid-1980s and was the best receiver on the field, according to the coaching staff.

VOLLEY MURPHY | 1967-68

Probably the quickest outside threat in the history of the school. He caught three passes at New Mexico (1967) and turned them into scores. Those four catches totaled 234 yards. While his career reception totals are not listed among the school leaders, he scored 19 touchdowns during his two years with the program (1967-68), tied for fifth in school annals.

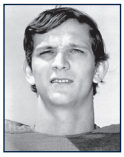
MINER GREATS

LEE MAYS | 1998-01
He left UTEP as the school's all-time receptions leader with 200 catches, and still holds that honor. His 2,908 receiving yards rank second at the school, and he rates eighth all-time in all-purpose yards with 3,565 yards. Mays' biggest season came as a junior, when he notched 70 receptions for 1,098 yards and an NCAA-best 15 touchdowns. His efforts led UTEP to the 2000 WAC championship and landed Mays honorable mention All-America honors.

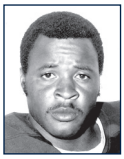


JEFF MOTURI | 2006-09
Dynamite sophomore and senior years catapulted Moturi to fourth place in school history in touchdown catches (26) and receptions (170), tied for fourth in 100-yard games (10) and sixth in receiving yards (2,527). He tied for fourth nationally in touchdown catches in 2007 (13), and amassed a career-high 974 receiving yards in 2009. Moturi made a catch in 36 straight games to conclude his college career before signing a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers.

BRIAN NATKIN | 1997-00
In 2000, Natkin became UTEP's first unanimous All-America selection, landing first team honors on seven squads. He was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end. Natkin closed out his career with 172 catches for 1,934 yards and 11 touchdowns. Currently serves as UTEP's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator.

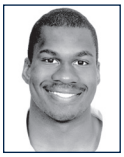


ED PUISHES | 1969-71
Inch for inch, pound for pound (5-10, 163), this guy may have been one of the toughest to play here, although he'd probably have great competition from Chuck Hughes who wasn't much larger. Had 1,000 yards in receptions in 1970, which ranks sixth on the all-time list. Had 12 catches against Trinity on a snowy night in San Antonio (1970). Finished with 138 career catches. Puishes recorded three 170-yard receiving days during his career – Colorado State (198), NMSU (175) and Utah (172).

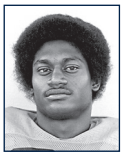


BOB WALLACE | 1965-67
While he was a wide receiver at UTEP, and had the speed to play the position well, the Chicago Bears used him as a tight end. At UTEP, he had 123 catches, including 48 in 1965. Was on the receiving end of UTEP's longest pass play -- 92 yards against Utah in 1965 – giving the Miners a thrilling 20-19 win over the Utes on the last play of the game.

RUNNING BACKS



DONALD BUCKRAM | 2006-10
Though he was slowed by injuries for most of his career, Buckram put it all together in 2009, rushing for 1,594 yards to break a UTEP single-season record that had stood for over 60 years. Buckram compiled eight 100-yard games that year, another school standard. He collected 132.8 yards per contest to become the Miners' first conference rushing leader in the modern era of football. Buckram's banner day came at Tulane when he posted 234 yards rushing and 109 receiving, making him only the fourth player in NCAA history to compile 200 yards on the ground and 100 via the pass. He wound up his career with 2,417 yards rushing and 951 receiving.



ROBERT ELLIOTT | 1974-77
Third-leading career rusher in school history (2,834 yards). Rushed for 1,011 yards in 1977. Best single game was 202 yards versus BYU in 1977.

PUG GABREL | 1947-50
Rushed for 2,321 yards (1947-50), which ranks eighth in school history. Totaled 881 yards in 1949. Gained 178 yards against Hardin-Simmons (1948). One of 10 runners to gain over 2,000 yards during his career, and he did it before freshmen were eligible. After retirement, Pug returned to the Miner football squad as a volunteer coach for David Lee.

JOHN HARVEY | 1985-88
Became the school's record-breaking running back. Holds school marks for most yards in a career (3,576), and his 232 yards at Colorado State in 1985 rates eighth-best in school history. RAY HOLT | 1975-78
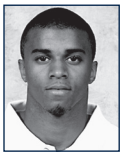
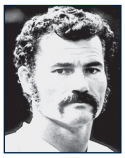
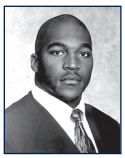
Rushed for 2,069 yards during his four-year career. Left UTEP as the school's all-time all-purpose yardage leader (4,227) and now rates fourth. Best rushing performance was 155 yards at Hawaii in 1976.



HOWARD JACKSON | 2001-04
Concluded his Miner career as the school's all-time leader with 6,153 all-purpose yards, including 1,947 on kickoff returns. The slight (5-9, 160) but speedy Jackson ran for 3,466 yards at UTEP -- second in school annals -- despite not seeing much playing time until very late in his freshman year. Two-time first team All-WAC honoree signed an NFL free agent deal with Detroit.



DON MAYNARD | 1954-56
At what position do you list this guy? He caught only 28 passes during his career at UTEP (1955-57), but they averaged 27.6 yards. Yet, he went to the NFL and became one of the greatest receivers ever to put on a uniform, playing in a Super Bowl with the Jets. He is now a member of the elite NFL Hall of Fame -- the only former UTEP player to be so honored. While he caught only 28 passes during his UTEP career, Maynard averaged 5.4 yards each time he carried the ball (154-843) and scored nine rushing TDs, with 10 on receptions. He also returned punts (21-250) and kickoffs (12-275).



TORAINO SINGLETON | 1994-95
A local product who broke many of the UTEP rushing records. In two years in a Miner uniform, he recorded 2,635 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns, figures which rank him fourth and tied for eighth, respectively, on the UTEP records. Holds the UTEP record for rushing attempts in a game with 38.

PAUL SMITH | 1996-99
Elevated himself into an NFL Draft choice (San Francisco 49ers) with a banner senior season. Rushed for 1,258 yards and 12 touchdowns in 1999. El Pasoan had 10 career 100-yard rushing games, including seven as a senior. A strong, punishing blocker who ended his career with 2,539 yards rushing, sixth in school history. Rushed for over 180 yards three times. He did it twice in 1999– San Jose State (188), New Mexico State (187) – and once in 1998 at New Mexico State (184).

MARCUS THOMAS | 2004-07
Former Parade prep All-American rushed for 2,615 yards for the Miners, the fifth-best total in school annals. Totaled 3,660 career all-purpose yards, seventh in the record books. Also compiled eleven 100-yard rushing games, establishing a school standard with five consecutive as a senior. Became one of six players in UTEP history to score 100 points in a season in 2007, when he ranked ninth nationally with 9.8 points per game. Picked by San Diego in the fifth round of the 2008 NFL Draft.

FRED WENDT | 1942,46-48
The only player in UTEP history to rush for more than 300 yards, burning New Mexico State for 326 in 1948. His 1,546 yards during the 1948 season stood as a school record for over 60 years. His 2,166 yards is ninth-best on the career charts. Upon graduation he held the NCAA record for single-season rushing yards, single-season scoring (152 points), single-game rushing (326 vs. New Mexico State) and single-game scoring (42 vs. New Mexico State). He still ranks first in single-season scoring and single game scoring. His single-season rushing yards record would stand until 1969, when O.J. Simpson of USC broke the mark. Earned All-America honors in 1947 and 1948.

MINER GREATS

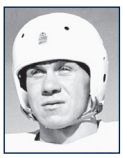
OFFENSIVE LINE

KEVIN BELCHER | 1980-82
Went high in the NFL draft to the Giants, although he never played on a team that won more games than it lost during his stay at UTEP. His pro career was cut short due to an offseason auto accident.

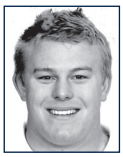
BILL BROWN | 1965-67
Was a force for the Miners when the three teams he was with fashioned a 21-9-1 record and won two Sun Bowl games, beating TCU in 1965 and Ole Miss in 1967. Turned aside offers to play professionally to become an attorney.

CAREY CLAYTON | 1997-00
One of three Clayton brothers to suit up for the Miners. Clayton was a four-year starter for the Miners, making 45 consecutive starts. Clayton was a two-time All-WAC selection and was on the 2000 WAC championship team.

TREY DARILEK | 2000-03
Would have started every game for UTEP over four years, had he not missed a portion of the 2002 campaign with a torn MCL. Member of the WAC title squad in 2000, when he was a freshman All-American. Chosen by Philadelphia in the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft.

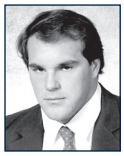


RAYMOND EVANS | 1942,46-47
Came to the Miners as a promising young halfback in 1942, but after World War II, was moved to tackle. He was one of the key reasons for the post-war success of the Miners. Evans was a two-time All-Border Conference pick (1947-48). He landed first team AP Little All-America honors in 1948.



ROBBY FELIX | 2005-08
Started all 46 games he played in for the Miners, anchoring the line for some of the most prolific offensive teams in school history. UTEP averaged 31.5 points and 405.1 yards with Felix at center, setting a school record for total offense in 2007. Signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Ravens.

ERNEST KEILY | 1946-49
A top-notch pulling guard that was a three-time first team All-Border Conference pick (1947-49), as well as a two-time AP All-American. He led the way for Fred Wendt's NCAA record-setting 1,546 yards rushing in 1948.



SEAN KUGLER | 1985-88
One of the reasons the Miners had such a prolific passing attack during the late 1980s was his pass blocking. Also helped the 1988 team post a 10-3 record and play in the Independence Bowl. Offseason accident prevented an NFL career. Currently serves as the Miners' head coach.

JOE MACESKER | 1983-86
May be one of the biggest men ever to put on a UTEP uniform (6-7, 307). He also played with the San Diego Chargers.

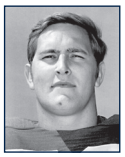
DARRYL MOORE | 1990-91
Many feel he was one of the best offensive linemen to play at UTEP in recent years. Had the size, quickness and strength needed to play the game. Good pass blocker.

THURMAN RANDLE | 1966-67
One of the many reasons the Miners had outstanding teams during the mid-1960s. At 6-6, 266, he was an excellent pass blocker. Played briefly in the NFL with Atlanta.

ROB SESICH | 1988-91
Big, intelligent young man who was named to the All-WAC offensive team. Blocked well for both the pass and run. Named to the WAC All-Academic team for four years. Named GTE Academic All-American and was awarded an NCAA Post Graduate Scholarship.

JAMES SPADY | 1985-88
Four-year starter and two-time All-WAC center, although he wasn't the biggest man on the field at any time. Carried 230 pounds on a 6-2 frame and helped his 1988 team finish 10-3.

DEFENSIVE LINE



DON CROFT | 1968-71
Developed into an outstanding player during his three years (1969-71). Later picked up his paychecks from the Buffalo Bills of the NFL.

GEORGE DANEY | 1965-67
Although he played on the defensive line at UTEP (1965-67), he was moved to center by the Kansas City Chiefs, where he played for seven years before retiring due to a neck injury. Helped the Chiefs win the Super Bowl in 1970. Came to UTEP when Detroit dropped its football program. Played in two Sun Bowl games. Daney and Fred Carr are UTEP's only first round draft picks.

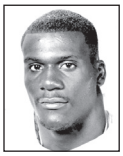
WAYNE HANSEN | 1947-49
Played at UTEP for three years in the late 1940s before moving on to the NFL, first with the Bears and later with the Cowboys. Hansen was the center and nose tackle for the Miners from 1947-49, earning All-Border Conference honors as a senior. Old-time observers still rate him as one of the best in the school's history.

CHRIS MINEO | 2002-05
Was on his way to a blockbuster senior year (2005) with eight tackles for losses and six sacks in the first four games, before injuring his ankle and missing most of the remainder of the season. Still deserves a spot among the all-time greats by ranking second in career sacks (16.5) and ninth in tackles for losses (30.5) at UTEP. Signed a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins in the spring of 2006.

CARLOS SCOTT | 1978-81
One of the strongest players ever to come out of UTEP, where he was a two-sport letterman. Helped the Miners win track national championships with his shot put and discus skills. Was drafted by St. Louis of the NFL and Arizona of the USFL. Played for a time with the Cardinals.

JOE TERRY | 1984-87
Quick athlete who played for two different coaching staffs. His last year (1987) produced seven wins, most during his career. Good pass rusher. His hard work paid off, as Terry landed first team All-WAC honors as a senior.

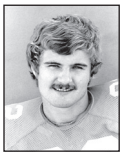
MINER GREATS



TONY TOLBERT | 1986-88
Completely lost on the depth chart until Bob Stull arrived and his talents were quickly recognized. By his senior season (1988) he had become a force for the defensive unit. A member of the 1992-93 Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN YOUNG | 1995-99
Chosen the 1999 WAC Defensive Player of the Year, then picked by the St. Louis Rams in the 2000 NFL Draft. Led the Rams to Super Bowl XXXIV in 2001. Had 16 tackles for losses as a senior, tied for fourth in school annals. El Paso native ended his Miner career with 14.5 sacks and 32 stops for losses, totals which rate fifth respectively in school history.

LINEBACKERS



HAL BARNETT | 1975-76
He recorded 407 career tackles from 1974-76 from his middle linebacker position. Had 185 tackles in 1975, the second-best seasonal output in school annals. He had 107 solo tackles and another 78 assisted, averaging 16.8 tackles per game. He also had 28 tackles for loss during his career, with 13 coming in 1975.

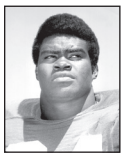
FRED CARR | 1965-67
Would be hard to start this part of the program without this guy, probably the best overall linebacker in the school's history. He was equally tough in the NFL while a member of the Packers. Named All-Pro three times, and the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975. Carr led the Miners to a pair of Sun Bowl wins in 1965 and 1967. In 1968, he became the highest overall draft pick in school history, when the Green Bay Packers selected him fifth overall in the first round. Carr was inducted into the Green Bay Packer Hall of Fame in 1983.

MICHEAL COMER | 1993-96
Made his collegiate debut as a freshman in 1993 with 15 tackles, 11 of those solos, at North Carolina. By the time he completed his career in 1996, Comer ranked sixth all-time at UTEP with 437 tackles. In 1995, he amassed 152 tackles. Comer was a first team All-WAC selection in 1995 and 1996, and second team in 1994. Signed a free agent contract in 1997 with Arizona. Nearly lost his life in a car accident in 1999 before miraculously returning to UTEP and earning his degree in 2008.

THOMAS HOWARD | 2002-05
Quite the success story, he started his Miner career as a 190-pound walk-on defensive back. He metamorphosized into a 240-pound linebacker and was taken by Oakland in the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft -- UTEP's highest selection in 37 years. Played in the NFL for eight years prior to his untimely passing at the age of 30 in an auto accident Chosen the preseason defensive player of the year in the Lone Star State by Dave Campbell's Texas Football magazine heading into his senior year -- the first Miner player to be recognized in the 46-year history of the prestigious publication.

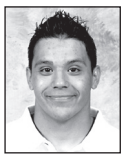
GENE JACKSON | 1965-66
He is being listed as a linebacker but in those days (1965-66) he probably would have been called a defensive end. Today he'd be listed as an outside linebacker at UTEP. At any rate, he carried his talents to the NFL where he played for a period with the Browns.

SETH JOYNER | 1982-85
Another player who should be at the top of the list. Came to UTEP as an undersized walk-on. Hours in the weight room helped him and the team. Had 325 takedowns in his career. Considered to be one of the NFL's top linebackers in the 1990s.



GENE MACK | 1968-70
After he left the UTEP program following the 1970 season, he played several years in the Canadian League.

DOUG MORGAN | 1986-89
Another walk-on who made good. Came to UTEP as a defensive back but was moved to linebacker by the Bob Stull staff. Left UTEP as the all-time tackle leader with 523 stops during his career (1986-89), and now ranks second.



ROBERT RODRIGUEZ | 2001-04
One of the more popular players in school history, El Paso native put up monster numbers on the field. Ended his career with a whopping 443 tackles -- fifth in school history -- and led the WAC in tackles three of his four seasons. Chosen the WAC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior after logging 121 stops, including 16 for losses. Signed as a free agent with Tennessee in the NFL.

KEN SALE | 1988-89
Teamed with Doug Morgan to give the Miners an excellent linebacking corps for two years (1988-89). Good pass defender and intercepted three passes against Dan McGwire and San Diego State in 1989.

BARRON WORTHAM | 1990-93
Perhaps one of the best to play at UTEP in many years. Named to various All-America teams as a senior (1993) despite being on a team which won only one game. Established the Miner career record for tackles (566). Was chosen by the Houston Oilers in the 1994 NFL Draft.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

RON BOSTWICK | 1962-65

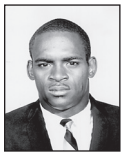
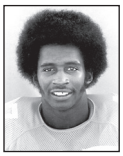
GERALD CAMPBELL | 1949-51
Played at a time (1949-51) when the passing game hadn't hit its popularity. Still, he made 10 career interceptions, including five in 1950.



GRADY CAVNESS | 1966-68
Had 11 career interceptions (1966-68) and played the run extremely well. First team All-WAC selection who played for a time with the Denver Broncos.

QUINTIN DEMPS | 2004-07
Closed out his career with 17 interceptions for 404 yards, figures which rank second and first respectively on the school charts. Also tied for first in UTEP annals with three interceptions for touchdowns. Set an NCAA record by returning two kickoff returns for 100 yards as a senior. Made numerous game-changing plays during his Miner career. Forced a fumble in the second overtime to preserve UTEP's 35-28 win over Rice in 2004, and sealed the Miners' 44-41 triumph over Houston in 2005 -- also in 2 OTs -- with an interception of Cougar QB Kevin Kolb.

MINER GREATS



EDDIE FORKERWAY | 1976-79
Was never a member of a winning team (1976-79) yet he still managed to intercept 10 career passes, including seven in 1978. He had 111 return yards during his career.

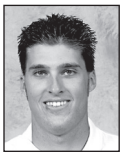
DANNY TAYLOR | 1982-85
Had five interceptions in 1985 including two against BYU, the night the Miners upset the defending national champions. Had seven career interceptions.

D.J. WALKER | 1999-02
Picked off 16 enemy passes, third in school history, in four seasons with the Miners (1999-02). Credited with 283 tackles during his career. Led the WAC in tackles his senior year with 116. Earned All-Conference recognition for three years and rated sixth in the country in solo stops in 2002.

ADRIAN WARD | 2003-04
Junior college transfer made the most of his two years in a Miner uniform, putting up 98 tackles, eight interceptions and 18 pass break-ups. Garnered first team All-WAC honors as a part of UTEP's eight-win squad in 2004, and was selected by Minnesota in the NFL Draft

CHARLIE WEST | 1965-67
Could have played on either side of the ball but the coaching staff (1965-67) used his considerable skills in the secondary, although he often was used in obvious passing situations. Still holds school records for career (19), season (11) and game (four) interceptions. Also returned punts. Taken in the baseball and NFL drafts. Played in the NFL for a dozen years.

KICKERS



BRYCE BENEKOS | 2001-04
Closed out his career ranked second in school history in punts (254) and punting yardage (10,468). Had a 41.2-yard career punting average, including 44.1 as a junior and senior. Coming off a first team All-WAC senior year, agreed to a free agent deal with the NFL's Green Bay Packers.

RICKY BISHOP | 1997-00
Born in Germany, Bishop was a soccer player first and took up place-kicking in high school. He was a three-time All-WAC performer and a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award as a sophomore. For his career, Bishop connected on 96 of 103 point-after attempts (.932) and 42 of 58 field goals (.724). He closed out his four-year stay with the school kicking record (222 points), and now ranks second in that category.

ED BUNN | 1991-92
First UTEP player ever named to the Walter Camp All-America team (1992). In 1992, he averaged 47.7 yards on his 41 punts to lead all NCAA punters. Won the AT&T Long Distance award for best punting in the nation in 1992. Also was chosen to the All-WAC team.

IAN CAMPBELL | 2010-12
Established himself as one of the top punters in the country after transferring to UTEP from Mt. San Antonio College for the 2010 season. Boomed 165 punts for 7,328 yards (44.4 avg). Ranked fourth nationally in punting as a junior, when he was a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

HUGO CASTELLANOS | 1984-87
Left UTEP as the all-time leader in field goals (38 - now ranks third) and ranks fourth in career field goal percentage, hitting 38 of 51 (.745). He also nailed 11 of 14 (.786) in 1984. Castellanos also converted 75 of 79 career PATs.

CHRIS JACKE | 1984-86,88
Had an All-America season in 1988 when he nailed 25 field goals and 48 PATs. Jacke was near-perfect in 1988, connecting on 48 of 48 point-after attempts and hitting 25 of 27 field goal attempts. He hit four field goals against Colorado State in 1988, the season he scored 123 points. Finished with 156 points in his career. First kicker taken in the 1989 NFL Draft and was a member of the 1997 Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers.

JOSE MARTINEZ | 2007-08
Possessed one of the strongest legs in college football history, as evidenced by his 64-yard field goal versus UCF in 2008. That was the second-longest kick without a tee in NCAA history. A two-time first team All-Conference USA performer who left school as the Miners' all-time leader for points per game (8.3).

OWEN PRICE | 1938-41
Another player that was considered the triple threat – rushing, passing and punting. But it was his punting exploits that earned him acclaim. He led the nation in punting in 1940 (48.0) and 1941 (45.3). Against New Mexico State in 1940, Price rushed for 180 yards and three touchdowns. Price set the NCAA record for passing completions and attempts, when he completed 29 of 55 passes against Loyola-Marymount in 1941. He was Ken Heineman's backup in 1938. Between the two, the Miners earned All-America honors from the quarterback position for five straight years (1937-41).

REAGAN SCHNEIDER | 2003-06
UTEP's all-time leader for kicking scoring (287 points), field goals (50) and PATs (137). Ranks third in PAT percentage (.972), second in scoring, and third in field goal percentage (.746) on the school charts. Earned first team All-Conference USA honors in 2006, when he was 16-for-20 on field goals and 34-for-37 on PATs. A standout in the classroom as well, he was appointed to the inaugural National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Honor Society.

JERRY WADDLES | 1966-68
Still ranks as the school's No. 10 PAT scorer, hitting 61 (1966-68). He kicked 30 PATs in 1967 and still holds the record for most PATs in a game (nine).

SCOTT WEDELL | 1981-83
Scored 165 points in his career. Kicked 35 field goals at UTEP, the fifth-top total in school history, for teams that won a total of six games. Longest field goal was a 58-yarder at Wyoming (1981), a school record which stood for 21 years. He also nailed a 57-yard field goal against BYU in 1982.

MARSHALL YOUNG | 1992-95
A two-time All-WAC kicker, connecting on 97 of 100 career PATs and 35 of 51 field goals. His 202 points rank third among kickers.

The veteran tandem of Jon Teicher and Bernie Ricono team for a 24th season calling the action.

Teicher is in his 35th season as the "Voice of the Miners." A native of Detroit, Mich. and a UCLA graduate, Teicher serves as UTEP's Assistant Athletics Director for Broadcasting. He first arrived in El Paso to call play-by-play for the Diablos minor league baseball team from 1980-84 and again from 1988-92. Teicher has also broadcast professional baseball in Portland, Ore. and in Wichita, Kan. Additionally he spent a season as the voice of New Mexico State, five years as the host of the popular local afternoon show "Sportstalk" and three years as a sports anchor for KDBC-4.

During the season, Teicher also hosts the Sean Kugler and Tim Floyd radio shows. In the spring and summer months, he is involved in sales and promotions with IMG College. Teicher was inducted into the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame in the spring of 2001.

A former collegiate coach, Ricono spent four seasons as the Miners' defensive coordinator in the mid-to-late '70s. He also coached at Eastern Illinois (with former Washington Redskins Head Coach Mike Shanahan) and at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

Since leaving the coaching profession, Ricono spent time as the General Manager of the Southwestern International Livestock Show and Rodeo and as the Director of Sponsorships for the El Paso Diablos.

Talented long-time El Paso television and radio personality Jeff Limberg begins his ninth season reporting from the UTEP sideline on game day. A Wisconsin native, Limberg anchored sports for KTSM and KVIA TV, served as News Director at KTSM and spent time as the host of "Sportstalk" prior to his induction into the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

UTEP Football coverage on The FOX starts one hour prior to kickoff with the Countdown to Kickoff Show. The postgame Locker Room Report follows the play-by-play coverage.

He is completing his degree in Communications with a minor in Spanish. He has been involved with the UTEP Spanish radio broadcasts for several years, beginning as a spotter and working his way up to field reporter and analyst.
