AGENTS REMINDER

Any agreement with an agent, in writing or verbally to market his or her athletic skills will render a student-athlete ineligible for intercollegiate athletic competition. Additionally, any athletics department staff member that introduces an agent to a student-athlete is in violation of NCAA Bylaw 10.1.

SPORTSWAGERING (GAMBLING)

The NCAA prohibits any athletics department staff members, staff members who have responsibilities with or over the athletics department, and student-athletes from wagering anything of tangible value on intercollegiate, amateur or professional athletics competition.

Vacation Period Reminders

Final Exams: December 9th, 2019 through December 13th, 2019

Winter Break: December 14th, 2019 through January 20th, 2020

In Season Sports

Normal daily and weekly hour limitations for CARA activities apply throughout finals week. There are no limitations on the number of CARA activities that occur during the institution's official vacation period. The 20-hour rule is not in effect but student-athletes are still required or be given one day off per week. When classes resume on January 21st, CARA hour limitations are once again in effect.

Out-of-Season Sports

Except in football, all countable athletically related activities outside of the playing season are prohibited one week prior to the beginning of the final examination period through the conclusion of the final exam period. Additionally, during a vacation period, a student-athlete may not participate in any countable athletically related activities outside the playing season.

Vacation Period Expenses

During a vacation period, student-athletes may receive meals provided by the institution or "per diem" not to exceed the amount provided to institutional staff members on away-from-campus trips. Additionally, room and board expenses can be provided in the following circumstances:

- Student-athletes who are required to remain on the institution's campus for organized practice session or competition during the institution's official vacation period;
- Student-athletes who return to campus during the institution's official vacation period occurring during a regular academic term (not including vacation period between terms) from institutional competition. Under such circumstances, room and board expenses may be provided beginning with the student-athlete's arrival on campus until the institution's regular dormitories and dining facilities reopen;*

· Student-athletes who return to campus during the institution's official vacation period between regular academic terms (e.g., summer vacation period) from institutional competition that occurs at the end of the institution's playing and practice season or segment thereof. Under such circumstances, room and board expenses may be provided for not more than a 48-hour period, beginning with the student-athlete's return to campus; or*

· In basketball, student-athletes who remain on campus during the three consecutive days off during the institution's official vacation period after the first term of the academic year.*

Student-athletes who live at home cannot be provided cost of room and board.*

Holiday Cards

Holiday cards sent to prospects must comply with the recruiting materials restrictions. All sports may provide holiday cards to high school juniors, seniors and junior college prospects. Holiday cards must meet NCAA size restrictions relating to general correspondence (e.g., may not exceed 8 ½ by 11 inches when opened fully). Note: the rules above also apply to any individual linked to a prospect (e.g., coach, mentor, family member).

Holiday Gifts

NCAA rules prohibit coaches and other staff members from providing gifts (regardless of value or type) to student-athletes. If you team host a Secret Santa or White Elephant event, please make sure student-athletes only exchange gifts with other student-athletes (no coaches or staff permitted) and participation is voluntary.

Selling/Exchanging Awards

Awards received for intercollegiate athletics participation may not be sold, exchanged or assigned for another item of value, even if the student-athlete's name or picture does not appear on the award.

Awards presented by a member institution, conference or other approved agency must be uniform for all team members receiving the award.

Awards received by an individual for participation in competition while not representing the institution shall conform to the rules of the amateur sports organization that governs the competition, but may not include cash (or cash equivalents) that exceeds actual and necessary expenses.

Awards received by a student-athlete for participation in competition while representing his or her institution may not include cash or cash equivalents, gift certificates or gift cards that are redeemable for cash (original amount or any balance thereof), or a country club or sports club membership.
