ROAD WARRIORS

NM State returned to the win column on Saturday night in Murfreesboro, Tenn., as it defeated the Blue Raiders to put an end to a seven-game losing streak in games away from Aggie Memorial Stadium. Last week, the Aggies were also the lone member of CUSA to earn a victory as the road team. This was also the first time in the series history between NM State and Middle Tennessee that the visiting team emerged with the win.

SUPER SETH

First-year Aggie Seth McGowan played a large part in last week's win as he accounted for a receiving touchdown and 179 all-purpose yards, including 12 carries for 83 yards and six catches for 96 yards. Against MTSU, McGowan paced the Aggies in both rushing and receiving yards.

His receiving total also marked the most by an Aggie this season and a career-high - besting a 70-yard performance in the Cotton Bowl as a member of Oklahoma.

IF YOU'RE EARLY, YOU'RE ON TIME

On the defensive side, NM State received an impressive outing from senior captain Dylan Early who tallied an interception returned for a touchdown during the Blue Raiders' first offensive possession of the game. Early's early contribution coupled with five tackles earned the Houston native Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week honors.

With the distinction, Early becomes the third Aggie this season to claim defensive player of the week honors - joining Tayden Barnes and Kale Edwards.

The first-quarter interception marked the third of the career for Early and was the second time he picked off a pass from MTSU quarterback Nicholas Vattiato - also doing so last season.

TWO FOR TWO

Brandon Nuñez made the most of his opportunities in the Aggies' win over MTSU on Saturday as each of his two pass attempts resulted in six points. Nuñez found running back Seth McGowan in the third quarter before later finding Cooper Sheehan for a touchdown during a crucial fourth-quarter drive.

BALLHAWKING

Creating turnovers has been an emphasis for Head Coach Tony Sanchez and his staff as of late and this has been showing dividends. The Aggies have now come up with two interceptions in each of the last three contests.

The six interceptions across three games doubles the turnover output of the first eight games when NM State only came up with three picks.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

On the contrary, the Aggie offense has managed to take care of the ball during the last two games. In fact, Saturday marked the first time this season that NM State amassed zero turnovers in back-to-back games.

CONVERTING IN THE RED ZONE

While the Aggies have struggled to put points on the board this season, they have consistently been able to convert when crossing the 20-yard line. Entering the regular season finale, the Aggies rank first in red zone offense among CUSA teams - coming away with points 88.9% of the time. This includes 17 touchdowns and seven field goals on the season.

LIMITING THE OPPOSITION

The Aggie defense managed to hold the Blue Raiders to 21 points on Saturday to mark just the second time this season that an NM State opponent failed to score 30 or more points this season. The only other time the Aggies have been able to accomplish this was in the season opener against SEMO when it limited the Redhawks to 16 points.

SANCHEZ ENTERS 1-0 VERSUS UTEP IN CAREER

While Saturday's game will represent the first time that Tony Sanchez serves as the head coach of the Aggie program during the Battle of I-10, he already has his fair share of experience with the heated rivalry.

In fact, Sanchez has participated in five of the 100 rivalry bouts - twice as a player twice and three times as a staff member. In games Sanchez has been involved in, the Aggies are 3-2 against the Miners.

As a player, Sanchez was 2-0 against UTEP - including a come-from-behind win in 1994 when Aggies erased a 19-point deficit and earned the win thanks to a game-winning touchdown pass with four seconds on the clock. One year later, Sanchez hauled in a pair of passes to help the Aggies earn a 45-17 win over the Miners to mark NM State's largest margin of victory in the rivalry in 34 years.

Over the last two seasons, Sanchez served as the Aggies' wide receivers coach and last year he helped NM State put an end to a two-game losing skid to the Miners.

BATTLE OF I-10 RETURNS TO RIVALRY WEEK

Saturday will mark the first time since Nov. 23, 1960, and just second time ever, that the two programs will play their final game of the regular season against one another

The Aggies also played their final regular season game against the Miners in 1966, however, it was not the final regular season game for UTEP.

DANGEROUS DUO

NM State's backfield duo of Seth McGowan and Mike Washington have been a bright spot on the Aggie offense. Currently, McGowan's 784 rushing yards on the year stands as the Aggies' second-highest single season rushing total of the last five seasons.

Additionally, just 17 more rushing yards for Mike Washington would make the duo the first pair of Aggie running backs since 2003 to each rush for more than 600 yards in one season. The last time this occurred was when Eric Higgins (753) and Tony Joseph (712) did so 21 seasons ago.

RUN AGGIES, RUN

NM State turned in its best rushing performance of the season in its last home game as it tallied a total of 331 yards on the ground against Western Kentucky. This marked the Aggies' highest single game total since Sept. 24, 2022, when they rushed for 357 yards against Hawaii.

The attack which represents the most rushing yards in the last 34 games was led by the backfield duo of Mike Washington and Seth McGowan. Against the Hilltoppers, Washington compiled 153 yards on the ground to mark the first time since Nov. 27, 2021, that an Aggie rusher surpassed 150 yards rushing. Meanwhile, Seth McGowan added 113 rushing yards to signify the Aggies' first game with multiple 100-yard rushers since Dec. 3, 2016, when Larry Rose III (170) and Conner Cramer (110) achieved this feat.

NEW FACES

Last week, wide receivers Allen Ortiz and Donovan Faupel each earned their first starts of their Aggie careers.

SPREADING THE LOVE

With a touchdown pass to Cooper Sheehan in the fourth quarter of the Aggies' game against Middle Tennessee, eight different Aggies have now caught a touchdown pass this season.

100K

With a recorded attendance of 105,815 people at Kyle Field last weekend, this marked the largest crowd that an NM State team has ever played in front. This surpasses the previous high attendance of 104,719 when the Aggies took on No. 15 Ohio State on Halloween night in 2009. This also represents just the fourth time in program history that the Aggies have competed in front of a crowd of more than 100,000 fans.

MONEY MONTAÑO

Senior kicker Abraham Montaña continued his stellar season as he connected on attempts from 57 yards out and 53 yards out in the Aggies' road tilt at FIU three weeks ago.

The 57-yarder he made in the second quarter is tied for the longest kick in program history and is tied for the fourth-longest kick in CUSA history. This is also the longest kick from any CUSA kicker since 2012 and is tied for the 11th-longest kick at the FBS level this season.

Later in the game against the Panthers, Montaña would make a 53-yarder to become the first Aggie kicker since 1978 to have two kicks of 50-plus yards in a single game. He also became just the second FBS kicker this season to make two kicks of 50 yards or longer in a single game - joining Florida State's Ryan Fitzgerald who made a 59-yarder and a 52-yarder versus Georgia Tech on Aug. 24. Despite a miss last week, Montaña still ranks 40th in the nation in field goal percentage at 81.3% (13-16).

Additionally, Montaña is currently 9-of-12 on kicks of 40-plus yards this season, including making 6-of-7 kicks from 40-49 yards.

KEEP THE FOOT ON THE PEDAL

Despite the Aggies ranking 119th in the country in scoring offense, NM State has scored first in six of its 11 games this season. Unfortunately, this hasn't translated to wins as last week's victory over MTSU marked the Aggies' second victory of the season in a game that they scored first in.

AGGIE MEMORIAL MIRACLE

Arguably the play of the year for the Aggies came on the final play of regulation against LA Tech when defensive tackle Naki Fahina busted through the line to block a potential game-winning field goal from the Bulldogs. This blocked field goal marked the first time that the Aggies had blocked a field goal since Oct. 4, 2014, when they did so against Georgia Southern.

The blocked kick led to the Aggies earning a 33-30 double overtime win over the Bulldogs which marked NM State's first double overtime game since 2005.

The block also marked the Aggies' second blocked kick of the season which is good for 22nd-most in the nation this year.

KALE'S COMING OUT PARTY

NM State defensive end Kale Edwards logged a total of four sacks in the Aggies' victory over LA Tech. This equals the highest total sack mark for any individual at the FBS this season - matching the efforts of Santarine Perkins (Ole Miss), Antwaun Powell-Ryland (Virginia Tech) and Cameron Whitfield (Louisiana). Impressively, Powell-Ryland has reached this mark twice this season.

This performance from the native of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, earned him recognition from the Conference USA office as he was named the CUSA Defensive Player of the Week. This was also just two sacks shy of the single game program record set by Fredd Young when he recorded six sacks against LA Tech in 1983.

CAROUSEL OF QUARTERBACKS

This season, four different Aggie quarterbacks have now seen significant game action after Brandon Nuñez made his first start of the season against FIU four weeks ago.

With Nuñez's contributions, he joins teammates Parker Awad, Santino Marucci and Deuce Hogan to become the fourth Aggie quarterback with at least five pass attempts this season.

This also makes the Aggies one of just five FBS teams with four different players that have at least five pass attempts - joining Kent State, Tulsa, Central Michigan and FIU as the only other teams in the country to fulfill this statistic.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

Following the Aggies' first 10-win season since 1960, NM State has begun year one under Head Coach Tony Sanchez with some new faces in key roles. This year, NM State welcomed 36 transfers during the offseason - a mark that ranks fifth-most at the FBS level and six behind Saturday's opponent New Mexico. Only Charlotte (44), Colorado (44), New Mexico (42) and Utah State (38) brought in more offseason transfers than the Aggies.

Additionally, the Aggies returned just eight of their 22 starters on the offensive and defensive sides of the ball. And, in total, NM State brings back 28 of its 67 letterwinners from last season.

In total, 19 different Aggies have logged their first collegiate start this season, including 14 in the opener against SEMO. At 19, the Aggies are currently ranked third in total first-time starters this season.

This new outlook is also reflected in the amount of returning production entering the year. After having one of the highest rates of returning production entering the 2023 season (returned 83% of total gained yardage), only 23% (1,268/5,606) of its total all-purpose yardage from 2023 belongs to someone still wearing Crimson and White in 2024.

From a broken-down perspective, the Aggies brought back 0% (0/3,206) of their passing yards, 17.3% (471/2,715) of their receiving yards, 32.5% (755/2,325) of their rushing yards and 7.4% (42/566) of their return yards.

YEAR TWO

The Aggies are now amid their second year as members of Conference USA. NM State made quite the splash in its debut campaign - going 7-1 in league play on its way to an appearance in the CUSA Championship Game in addition to being one of only 27 FBS programs to reach the 10-win mark in 2023.

Despite the addition of league newcomer Kennesaw State, the Aggies' list of conference opponents this season will mirror what it was in 2023. However, this season the Aggies will swap home and away designations with their eight CUSA counterparts. In 2024 they will host Liberty, LA Tech, Western Kentucky and UTEP - all teams they traveled to play last season. Meanwhile, the Aggies will visit Sam Houston, Jax State, FIU and Middle Tennessee after hosting these four programs in 2023.

AGGIE MEMORIAL RIVALRIES

For the 102nd time in program history, the Aggies' schedule will feature games against both UTEP and New Mexico. Despite the extended history, the 2024 season marks just the sixth time ever, and first time since 2002, that both the Miners and Lobos will make the trip to Aggie Memorial Stadium in the same season. In all, this schedule alignment has only occurred in 2002, 1998, 1988, 1958 and 1956. During these years, the Aggies are 5-5 against their rivals, including holding a combined 4-0 mark in 2002 and 1998.

TRUE FRESHMEN

After featuring 34 true freshmn in 2023, the Aggie roster includes just 10 true freshman this season. This includes wide receiver TJ Pride who currently leads the Aggies in receptions and defensive tackle Malaki Ta'ase who has earned an increased role on the Aggie defense throughout the season.

BARNES EARNS WEEK 1 CUSA DPOW

Redshirt freshman Tayden Barnes impressed in his collegiate debut as he recorded a team-high nine tackles in addition to claiming the game-sealing interception against SEMO on Aug. 31. This performance was garnered recognition from the league as the Amarillo, Texas, native was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 2.

Barnes turned in five solo takedowns while also tallying 1.5 tackles for loss against the Redhawks. His interception came at the Aggies' 18-yard line with just 37 seconds remaining on the clock as the Redhawks were driving in search of a game-tying touchdown.

Barnes' distinction marked the seventh time an Aggie has garnered CUSA player of the week honors since joining the league last season. He also became just the second Aggie to earn CUSA defensive player of the week recognition - joining Gabe Peterson who did so in 2023.

UPDATING THE RECORD BOOKS

In the opener against SEMO, Aggie fans witnessed a pair of plays that had not happened in quite some time. For the first time since Nov. 12, 2016, the NM State defense recorded a safety as a SEMO holding penalty that occurred in the end zone resulted in a safety.

The Aggies also tallied their first blocked punt since Sept. 22, 2018, as wide receiver Kordell David burst through the block to get his fingertips on a punt in the third quarter.

HISPANIC HEAD COACHES

The Aggies' leader, Tony Sanchez, is one of just five Hispanic head coaches at the FBS level. Sanchez, a second generation American of Puerto Rican and English descent, is also joined in this group by Baylor's Dave Aranda, Miami's Mario Cristobal, Duke's Manny Diaz and Jax State's Rich Rodriguez.

Additionally, Sanchez is the first NM State head coach of Hispanic descent. Sanchez leads the Aggie program which calls Las Cruces, a city with over 60% Hispanic population, home.

DEPTH ON THE FRONT LINES

The position group where the Aggies will see the most experience is arguably the most important place a team requires consistency - the offensive line. Up front, the Aggies brought back a bevy of veterans including center Canaan Yarro, left tackle Shiyazh Pete and guard AJ Vaipulu who combine to carry 82 total starts into the 2024 season.

While this core leads the group, there are several other returning Aggies who have contributed heavily during their time with NM State.

Louie Canepa, Shamarr Jackson, Cedric Claiborne and Jacob Golden each have at least one start to their name entering the 2024 season, led by Canepa who started 10 games during the 2023 season and earned the start at right tackle in the season opener.

THE ROOKIE AND THE VET

Freshman wide receiver Izeyah Wright, born Nov. 5, 2006, and defensive tackle Matt Lawson, born Dec. 18, 1999, were born a full 2,514 (six years and 324 days) days apart.

TIED TOGETHER

In college athletics, it's common for connections to be formed that resurface years later, rekindling old relationships. For a pair of Aggies on this year's roster, those bonds run deep.

In defensive tackle Naki Fahina's case, this will be the second time that he takes the field for a Tony Sanchez-led team. Fahina first began his playing career at UNLV in 2019 during Sanchez's final year as the Rebels' head coach. There, he appeared in seven games and tallied five total tackles as a true freshman. Since then, Fahina has added on 30 pounds and looks to be a centerpiece on a rebuilt Aggie defense.

Fellow defensive lineman Buddha Peleti also has a bond with Coach Sanchez that was built before he arrived on campus. Peleti, a native of Adelanto, Calif., played high school football at Oak Hills High School where Nick Monica, a former NM State offensive lineman and teammate of Sanchez, coached the offensive line. Despite coaching the wide receivers, this relationship led to Sanchez playing a major role in recruiting Peleti to Las Cruces.

AND TWINS!

For the second consecutive season, the Aggies' roster includes a pair of twins as twin brothers George and Charlie Eberle are amid their second season with the Aggies.

Currently only eight FBS programs have a set of twins on their roster. NM State is joined by Georgia Southern, Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State and Notre Dame as programs with a set of twins on its roster. Additionally, both Miami and Oklahoma State have two sets of twins on their rosters.

AGGIE THROUGH AND THROUGH

From student-athlete to head ball coach, Tony Sanchez has had crimson running through his veins since the day he transferred to NM State. Now, Sanchez is one of just 17 coaches at the FBS level to be the head coach at his alma mater.

Following two seasons at Laney College in Oakland, Calif., Sanchez began his Aggie playing career in 1994. During his time, Sanchez made 54 catches for 741 yards and five touchdowns to help the Aggies win seven games. His career was highlighted by a senior season in which he tallied 42 catches for 576 yards and four touchdowns.

Sanchez's first win as a player came on Sept. 17, 1994, in El Paso, Texas, where the Aggies earned a 23-22 come-from-behind victory over UTEP after falling behind 19-0 to open the game.

WHERE TO WATCH THE AGGIES

After eight of the Aggies' 15 games were featured on national networks in 2023, including three of the final four contests, the Aggies will once again have their opportunities in the spotlight in 2024. Entering the year, NM State is slated to play six of its 12 games on a national network. This weekend, Aggie fans can tune in to ESPN+ to catch the contest against the Miners.

WHERE TO LISTEN TO THE AGGIES

Once again, all games this season will air live on 99.5 FM KXPZ for those in Las Cruces and the surrounding areas. Additionally, all home games will be available in Spanish on 96.7 FM La Equis. Radio broadcasts for all Aggie games will also be available to listen to nationwide via the TuneIn App. Radio play-by-play will be provided by Jack Nixon with analysis provided by Bob Sherman.

FAMILY BUSINESS

The Aggie team will have three student-athletes this season whose fathers also suited up for the Aggies during their respective playing days. NM State also rosters one student-athlete whose brother formerly played for the Aggies.

Wide receiver Ethan Singleton is the son of former Aggie running back Anthony Singleton who played for the Aggies from 1986-89. Anthony Singleton ranks tenth in program history in both rush attempts (420) and rushing yards (1,858 yards).

Redshirt freshman David Barela is the son of David Barela who also played for the Aggies from 1990-93.

Las Cruces native Siddeeq Shabazz will be the fourth member of the Shabazz family to wear Crimson & White. His father, Siddeeq Shabazz, played for the Aggies from 1999-02 and is one of 28 former Aggies earn a spot in the NFL. Additionally, his family members Shukree and Sina also played for the Aggies.

Meanwhile, Bryant Jackson is also the brother who previously wore the Crimson & White. Jackson first came to NM State along with his older brother Bryce in 2022. After transferring in from UNLV, Bryce served as a key cog on the Aggie defense en route to a victory in the Quick Lane Bowl. In his lone year with NM State, Jackson tallied 66 total tackles and two interceptions from his safety position.

ONE FINAL RIDE

NM State broadcaster Jack Nixon returns for his 45th and final year of broadcasting Aggie athletics for the NM State radio network. A legend on the Aggie airwaves, Nixon begins the 2024 football season with 500 games under his belt in addition to over 1,400 basketball games.

For much of the season, the "Voice of the Aggies" and NM State Hall of Fame selection, Nixon will handle the radio duties alongside former Aggie Cory Lucas, who joined the broadcaster ahead of the 2017 season.

PRESEASON HONORS

Entering their second year in the conference, NM State landed five individuals on the 2024 CUSA Preseason Watch List.

Offensively, the Aggies were represented by center Canaan Yarro, running back Monte Watkins and wide receiver Kordell David.

Defensively, Buddha Peleti earned the nod for the Aggies. Lastly, punt returner Jordan Smith secured the program's lone spot among special teams honorees.

TONY SANCHEZ

FIRST SEASON

On Saturday, Dec. 23, 2023, Sanchez was named the 36th head coach of the NM State program after serving as the Aggies wide receivers coach for two seasons. This is the second time that Sanchez undertakes the role of head coach of an FBS program after being at the helm of the UNLV program.

With Sanchez leading the Aggie wideout group, the NM State receivers compiled over 4,000 receiving yards, including hauling in 31 of the Aggies' 46 receiving touchdowns during the 2022 and 2023 seasons. Following an appearance in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl, the Aggie passing attack ranked 20th in the nation in passing yards per completion (13.64) and was tied for 17th in the country in passing touchdowns.

Sanchez initially returned to the Land of Enchantment following a 2021 campaign in which he, Kill and a multitude of other member of the Aggies' coaching staff were at TCU in Fort Worth, Texas. There, Sanchez was an offensive analyst for the Horned Frogs and helped them pick up one victory over a nationally-ranked foe (#12 Baylor) through the team's 2021 campaign.

Prior to his time at TCU, Sanchez had a five-year run (2015-19) as the head coach at Mountain West institution UNLV. In Las Vegas, Sanchez totaled 20 wins at the helm of UNLV while also taking part in numerous fundraising effort which led to the construction of the $34 million Fertitta Football Complex. Sanchez remains fifth all-time in wins in program history.

During his tenure with the Rebels, Sanchez found early success and was responsible for one of only 17 five-win seasons for UNLV at the FBS level while also becoming one of only two UNLV coaches to win three or more games in his first season at the helm since 1999.

Sanchez also helped the Rebels increase their win totals in each of his first three seasons at UNLV to mark the first time that the program improved in the win column for three consecutive seasons.

With a 23-17 victory over Nevada in his first year as the UNLV leader, Sanchez is one of only four head coaches in the history of the program to defeat the Rebel's rival in his debut campaign and became the first coach in program history to do so on the road. Sanchez is also one of only two UNLV head coaches since 1981 to defeat Nevada more than once.

It was Sanchez's high-level success rate at the prep level that turned the most heads and allowed him to secure a head coaching job at the FBS level. Upon exiting the borderland following the 2003 season, Sanchez was installed as the head coach at California High School in Ramon, Calif., and began an 11-year run as one of the nation's best high school head coaches.

From 2004-08, Sanchez amassed 35 wins as California High School's head coach. Finishing at or above the .500 mark in all but one campaign, Sanchez successfully transformed the Fighting Grizzlies from a less-than-mediocre program to one that was a power in the East Bay Athletic League. Sanchez's best team at CHS was the 2007 edition which went 11-2, claimed an East Bay Athletic League championship and made a run to the CIF North Coast Section Finals.

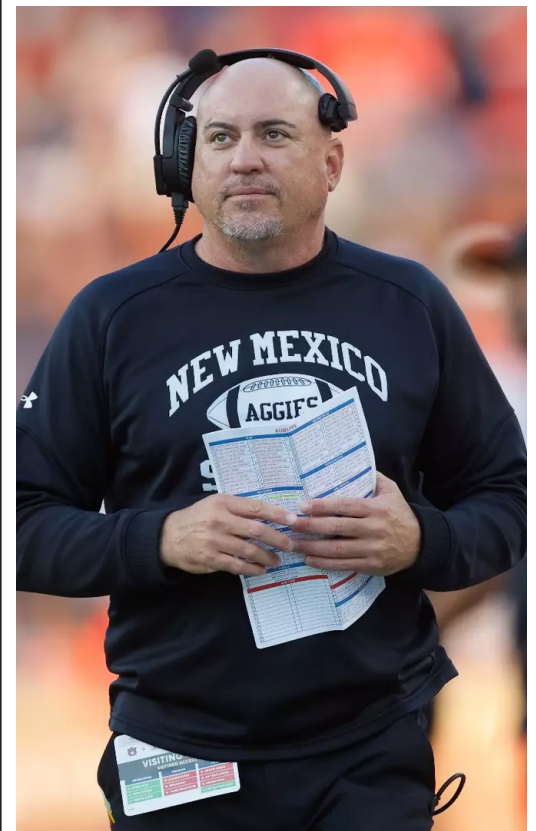

Taking notice of Sanchez's success in the Golden State, Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas, Nev., came calling and hired Sanchez as its head football coach prior to the start of the 2009 season. What followed over a span of six season was nothing short of complete and total domination by Sanchez and his troops.

Bishop Gorman piled up an 85-5 record during Sanchez's tenure which ran from 2009-14. Ranked as the top prep football program in the nation by such publications as USA Today and MaxPreps.com, Bishop Gorman never failed to capture the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association (NIAA) 4A state title in each of Sanchez's six seasons at the helm of the program. In 2014, Sanchez was named the USA Today High School Football Coach of the Year.

Sanchez spent a total of four seasons on staff at Oñate High School (now Organ Mountain High School) in Las Cruces, N.M. A wide receivers coach at that prep institution in 1998, he moved over to defensive backs coach in 2001 and 2002 before being named the defensive coordinator for the 2003 season. Irvin High School in El Paso, Texas, also employed Sanchez as its wide receivers coach in 2000.

Through his two-year tenure in an NM State uniform, Sanchez racked up 54 receptions for 741 yards and five touchdowns. Upon the conclusion of his collegiate career in the 1995 season, Sanchez served as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Aggies for their 1996 campaign.

A 1998 graduate of NM State, Sanchez possesses a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science. Five years later (2003), he secured a master's degree in special education. He is the father of a daughter, Alyssa, and a son, Jason.
