INTERVIEW POLICIES

Media interviews with players and coaches are encouraged, and every effort will be made to accommodate media requests. In-person interviews are preferred. Telephone interviews can be arranged through the sports information office.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITIES

Players and coaches will be available for interviews on the field, after a brief cooling-off period at the conclusion of each game. Media will be provided full stat packages upon completion of each game. Skyhawk head coach Ryan Jenkins and selected players will be made available upon request. Requests for players will be taken near the end of each game. Space and phone lines will be made available following post game interviews for filing stories.

CREDENTIALS

Admission is free to Skyhawk Field, but seating in the press box will be reserved for accredited media only. Please notify sports information contact Jake Rogers at least 48 hours in advance if a media outlet plans on covering a game at Skyhawk Field.

PRESS BOX

The Skyhawk Field press box is located above the spectator seating area behind home plate. Press box seating is limited and working media will be permitted in the press box during games. Children and spectators will not be permitted in the Skyhawk Field press box. Live stats, offered by StatBroadcast, can be found at www.UTMStats.com

SKYHAWKS IN PRINT

The name of our institution is The University of Tennessee at Martin and if abbreviated, should be referred to as UT Martin. The University of Tennessee at Martin should be used as the first reference in a news story. UT Martin should be used in subsequent references and UTM is acceptable in headlines. Tennessee-Martin, UT-Martin, UT or Martin should never be used. The description Skyhawks should be used to represent all UT Martin athletic teams. Hawks should never be used.

RADIO COVERAGE

WUTM 90.3 FM, UT Martin's award-winning student radio station, broadcasts select dates of the Skyhawk home schedule. Check the calendar feature on www.UTMSports.com for a direct link to those broadcasts.

ON THE WEB

SKYHAWK FIELD

The Skyhawk baseball team plays its home games at Skyhawk Field, a neatly constructed park on the southwest side of the UT Martin campus. The present field was completed in 1974, and has received numerous renovations over the years, including an outdoor batting cage beyond the third base line. In 2005, an outdoor deck was added down the first base line for fans. In 2008, new bleacher type seating was added, along with an inning-by-inning scoreboard. Lights were added in 2009, allowing the Skyhawks to play night games for the first time. A fieldhouse that provides full locker rooms, office space and meeting rooms among other things for both the Skyhawk baseball and softball teams was erected in 2010 and opened during the early portion of the 2011 schedule. The fence was replaced during the 2017 season and the long-time iconic pine trees were cut down that year as well. Just before the 2019 season, a new state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed beyond the wall in left field. A Skyhawk Park entry gate to welcome fans to both Skyhawk Field and Bettye Giles Softball Field has also been added on Pat Head Summit Drive. The dimensions of Skyhawk Field are 330 feet down the lines, 365 to the power alleys and 385 to straightaway center.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH RYAN JENKINS

Ryan Jenkins begins his second season as head coach of the Skyhawk baseball program in 2019. He was named to the position on April 17, 2018 after serving as interim head coach for the previous four months.

In his first year at UT Martin, Jenkins helped mold a trio of All-Ohio Valley Conference honorees in Jordan Stoner (first team), Blake Davis (All-Newcomer) and Ethan Whitley (All-Newcomer). He led the squad to victories over No. 13 ranked Southern Miss and against Tennessee Tech (who finished ranked No. 11 nationally after winning 53 games and advancing to a NCAA Super Regional).

Whitley would also go on to be named a Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Freshman All-American in 2018. He was one of only nine first basemen in the nation to collect the prestigious award while he became just the fifth Skyhawk to collect Freshman All-American status.

Jenkins joined the UT Martin staff in July after spending the 2017 season at the College of Charleston, where he served as an assistant under head coach Matt Heath working with both hitters and pitchers. Jenkins coached five All-Colonial Athletic Association honorees and also tutored a Major League Baseball draft pick last season.

A Millbrook, Ala. native, Jenkins was a four-year letterman for the Auburn Tigers from 2006-10 as a catcher, playing under head coaches Tom Slater and John Pawlowski. Jenkins also learned under former Auburn assistants Link Jarrett, Chris Finwood, Jeff Duncan and Butch Thompson – who are all now Division-I head coaches. During his playing days at Auburn, Jenkins shared the diamond with four future MLB players – including 2015 American League Most Valuable Player Josh Donaldson.

Jenkins was named to the All-Southeastern Conference team in 2010 after hitting .365 with seven home runs and 34 RBI while making 48 starts behind the plate. He helped lead the Tigers to a 43-21 record as a senior, earning a spot on the NCAA Regional All-Tournament team.

A career .304 hitter over 138 collegiate games, Jenkins currently ranks eighth all-time in Auburn history in caught stealing by with 28 runners thrown out. He also excelled in the classroom, earning a spot on the 2009 All-SEC Academic team.

Jenkins was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 17th round of the 2010 MLB Draft and went on to play in the Royals' minor league system from 2010-12. He played in 118 games over a three-year span, throwing out 49 would-be base stealers.

In 2013, Jenkins returned to Auburn to complete his bachelor's degree in sociology while serving as a student assistant during the 2014 season and a strength and conditioning coach in 2015-16.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Matt Heath is in his first year as an assistant coach at UT Martin. He serves as the program's pitching coach.

Heath was most recently the head coach at College of Charleston, where he spearheaded the program from 2016-17. He has also spent time in professional baseball scouting and in the Southeastern Conference, working with both pitchers and hitters over the years.

In his career, Heath has coached a National Freshman Pitcher of the Year, multiple All-Americans and Freshman All-Americans, a Southern Conference Pitcher of the Year, a Colonial Athletic Association Pitcher of the Year and numerous all-conference pitchers.

Jenkins is familiar with Heath's successful coaching pedigree, as Jenkins played under Heath at Auburn before coaching alongside Heath at College of Charleston.

Heath served as an assistant at College of Charleston a total of seven years (two as hitting coach and five as pitching coach), most previously under head coach Monte Lee from 2011-15. In his seven seasons, he helped guide the Cougars to a 275-143 record and a 132-56 mark in conference play (.702 winning percentage). He was a part of four conference championships, three NCAA Regional appearances and one NCAA Super Regional appearances (2006, 2014). Numerous school records are still in place including ERA and opponent batting average.

In 2009, Heath served as hitting coach at Auburn, helping the Tigers break into the national rankings in numerous categories and setting several school records. He oversaw an offense that belted a program-record 103 home runs and 218 extra-base hits, as Auburn's .516 slugging percentage was the third-highest mark in school history.

Heath has also scouted for the Houston Astros, covering the North Florida area before returning to College of Charleston to be a member of Lee's staff in 2011.

Heath broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at Tallahassee Community College in Tallahassee, Fla., spending two seasons there prior to his first stint at College of Charleston.

A Fernandina Beach, Fla. native, Heath was a highly touted prep star as he was named the North Florida Player of the Year out of Fernandina Beach High School. He played at the University of Florida under Andy Lopez for two years before transferring to play for Skip Bertman at Louisiana State University.

Heath graduated from LSU in 2002 and later played in the Arizona Diamondbacks organization for two seasons. He and his wife have two children.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Hunter Morris is in his first season as an assistant coach at UT Martin. He will serve as the program's hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

Morris spent the 2018 season with Samford University, where he served as a volunteer assistant under head coach Casey Dunn. Morris was a member of the Samford staff that saw the Bulldogs travel to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional before Mississippi State defeated the squad and ended the year with a 37-26 mark. He oversaw the production of a trio of 2018 Major League Baseball Draft selections and a pair of 2018 All-Southern Conference players.

A Huntsville, Ala. native, Morris graduated from Grissom High School in 2007 and was selected in the second round of the MLB Draft by the Boston Red Sox, but chose to attend Auburn University. While at Auburn, he played alongside Jenkins from 2008-10. He was named 2008 Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year and 2010 SEC Player of the Year before being selected in the fourth round of the 2010 Major League Baseball draft by the Milwaukee Brewers. Morris spent the 2010-14 seasons with the Brewers' orginization before being traded to and finishing his career with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2015.

Morris ranks in the top-10 in seven single season categories during his time with the Auburn baseball program including sitting in first in home runs (23) and total bases (202). He also ranks in the top-10 in five career categories at Auburn. He earned a Freshman All-American nod in 2008 while also garnering a spot on the USA National Team his freshman year. Morris then picked up an All-American award in 2010 following a stellar junior season. He also excelled in the classroom as he earned a spot on the All-SEC Academic list in 2010.

During the 2017 season, Morris worked as a student assistant coach at Auburn University to finish his degree. He and his wife, Macie, have a son Tripp (7) and a daughter, Charlotte (2).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tyler Albright is in his first season as a volunteer assistant for UT Martin. He was a three-year member of the Skyhawk baseball program as he was the team's primary second baseman from 2017-18.

During his time in a UT Martin uniform, Albright made 98 starts to go along with a .313 career batting average. He amassed 67 career RBIs while compiling 32 extra-base hits over his last two seasons.

Albright was a baseball standout at Oakton Community College from 2014-15, earning third team NJCAA All-American honors under head coach Bill Fratto. That came after a prestigious prep career at Huntley High School, playing for head coach Andy Jakubowski.

A native of Algonquin, Ill., Albright graduated from UT Martin in 2018 with a degree in sport management.

Caleb Brewer is in his first season as a student assistant with the UT Martin baseball team. He previously played for the Skyhawks logging time as a catcher for the squad for two seasons.

During his senior season, he suffered a season-ending injury that moved him to the coaching side of the game as he served as the team's first base coach for most of last season.

Brewer previously played at nearby Bethel University under head coach Rusty Thompson. He prepped at Lewis County High School, where he was coached by Tim Tiller. He helped the Panthers to a Region 6-AA semifinal appearance during his senior season while also guiding them to a 24-9 record.

A native of Hohenwald, Tenn., Brewer is currently majoring in education.

SUPPORT STAFF

Nate Sedergren joined Skyhawk athletics in the summer of 2015 as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Trainer. Sedergren works directly with the football and baseball teams.

Sedergren is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association. Sedergren also has a Level 1 Performance Coach Certification through United States Weightlifting (USAW).

Prior to coming to UT Martin, worked as an Assistant Strength Coach at Gardner-Webb University under Head Strength Coach Ben Sowders. While at Gardner-Webb, Sedergren assisted with football and men's basketball. He was responsible for training women's basketball, men's and women's track, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's golf, and softball teams.

In 2013, Sedergren worked at D1 Sports Training in Greenville, South Carolina training athletes from youth to professional levels. While in Greenville he also interned at Furman University under Master Strength Coach David Abernethy.

Sedergren played collegiate football at Western Carolina University where he was a linebacker and team captain his senior year. During his time at Western Carolina, Sedergren was coached by Master Strength Coach, Brad Orht, who is now the Head Strength Coach at Northern Illinois University and Jeff Pittman who is currently the Head Strength Coach at Boise State.

Sedergren graduated from Western Carolina in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in communications and a minor in coaching.

SUPPORT STAFF

Jake Rogers is in his second year as an intern in the UT Martin sports information office after serving the previous five years as a student assistant. He serves as the media contact for the baseball, soccer and rifle teams. Additionally, he serves on the statistician crew at most Skyhawk home events, produces media guides, game day programs, press releases and serves as a media host and coordinating event operations.

While a student assistant at UT Martin, Rogers served on the statistician crew for the Ohio Valley Conference men's and women's basketball tournament. At the 2014 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four in Nashville, he served as a media assistant by running statistics to on-air media and assisting with all press conferences.

Rogers has also assisted in various other roles while at UT Martin including public address announcer and scoreboard operator for baseball, softball and soccer as well as serving on the statistician crew for men's and women's basketball, football and volleyball. He assisted with the 2012 and 2013 OVC Women's Soccer Tournaments both of which were held at UT Martin.

As a part of an experiential learning experience, Rogers was among several students selected to assist with NFL On-Location for Super Bowl LI in Houston, Texas. He worked two shifts for the NFL Experience by managing passing drills for fans and also assisted with fan registration for the Super Bowl LI app. He also was responsible escorting NFL Talent for fan appearances before Super Bowl LI.

A native of nearby Dresden, Tenn., Rogers graduated from the University of Tennessee at Martin in May of 2017 with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in sport management.

2019 PREVIEW

SEASON OUTLOOK

The University of Tennessee at Martin baseball team has its eyes set on the 2019 campaign with second-year head coach Ryan Jenkins leading the pack, surrounded by an experienced core of players.

UT Martin returns a group of young men that saw a ton of playing time last season led by a talented group of seniors.

"Our senior leadership is the greatest strength of this squad," Jenkins said. "We are returning so many experienced players beginning with guys like Jordan Stoner, who had a great season last year, and Creighton Eldridge, who has been around the conference for a bit and has been a great leader. Then we also return guys like sophomores Ethan Whitley, Casey Harford and Blake Davis at key positions. Those three young men gained a tremendous amount of experience last season, have a ton of at-bats under their belts already and have seen what the league has to offer. Offensively, we are very talented and love the direction in which our defense is headed."

Senior outfielder Jordan Stoner is coming off of a stellar season where he garnered an All-OVC first team honor.

Jenkins used last year to get acquainted to the head coaching world, as he was elevated to interim head coach in December of 2017 and having the interim tag removed in April of the 2018 season.

"The biggest thing going from being an assistant coach last year to taking over the reins as the head coach was that you can't have tunnel vision – you have to look at the whole picture," Jenkins said. "Last season we had to stop and take a look at where we wanted to be as a team and how we wanted to go forward. We faced a lot of adversity and I think that will be good for our program because these returners have been battle-tested. Failure is a huge part of the game and you have to take those experiences and learn from them to find solutions to certain areas. I think that last year was good for the guys who played every day and it was certainly good for me as a coach. I had to go from worrying about 'are we getting the hits that we need on a daily basis' or 'are our swings looking good' to overseeing what the team is doing as a whole."

Making his mark on the culture of Skyhawk baseball is a key driving force for Jenkins. He knows that with every mistake comes a learning experience and is pushing the 2019 UT Martin team to make great strides.

"There are so many different facets of a baseball program that are important and so many things that a coaching staff has to look at that made last year a great learning experience," Jenkins said. "We learned that we want to be an aggressive team that pitches to contact, we want our defense to be in every play and be active and when we swing the bat that we want an aggressive offense that strikes fear in our opponents. We have some guys who swing a big bat and can swipe bases, which sets the groundwork for our team's identity going forward. The ultimate change going from an assistant to a head coach is that you want to be sure that you put that stamp of 'this is a UT Martin baseball team' on a program that will be well respected around the league."

With the majority of position players returning, Jenkins looks for those players to provide guidance of the newcomers on the field.

Four spots on the infield seem solidified going into the season. Davis garnered an All-OVC Newcomer Team spot last season and put up impressive numbers as the workhorse behind the plate. Whitley gives the Skyhawks a great option at first base as the sophomore collected an All-OVC Newcomer Team selection as well as a Collegiate Baseball Newspaper All-American nod in 2018. Harford battled injuries while starting 44 games at shortstop last season but he is back at full strength and will transition over to second base. Freshman Tyson Cox provides excellent glove work at shortstop after helping propel Poplar Bluff High School to one of the top-20 teams in the state of Missouri.

The third base job is still up for grabs, as the trio of Blake Daniels, Noah Thigpen and Hayden Cooper are in an ongoing battle to man the hot corner. Daniels was a utility option at Southwest Tennessee Community

Sophomore first baseman Ethan Whitley looks to add on to his already impressive resume as he earned several postseason honors last year.

College and also earned all-state honors at the high school level in Arkansas. Thigpen also brings a great wealth of utility knowledge as he played all infield positions in high school. Cooper helped lead Holt High School to a 2017 conference title while also nabbing a pair of consecutive first team all-conference honors at the prep level.

The outfield projects to be one of the team's biggest assets in 2019. Stoner is coming off of a stellar junior campaign as the Puyallup, Wash. native collected an All-OVC first team honor. The Preseason All-OVC honoree will bat leadoff and will also move from center field to left field this spring.

The starting center fielder is slated to be redshirt junior Sean Dixson. After being ranked as one of the top outfield prospects in the state of Oklahoma at the high school level, he hit .347 with a .978 OPS at Murray State College in 2017.

Eldridge missed all but seven games last season because of an injury. However, he had an exceptional 2017 campaign when he tallied a .548 slugging percentage thanks in large part to six triples and nine homers. The left-handed slugger is projected to start in right field and hit in the middle of the lineup.

The designated hitter spot provides Jenkins with a plethora of flexibility. It will feature a mixture of Daniels, Cooper, Dawson Moncrief and Robert Worley. Moncrief proved to be a reliable option at Wallace Community College – Selma last season while also coming from a superb high school background. Worley missed last season due to injury but appeared in 30 games in 2017 and gives UT Martin a reliable left-handed option at the position.

The Skyhawk rotation will see Winston Cannon as the Friday night starter. The righty started a team-high 14 games last season as he logged over 71 innings and wrung up 67 batters along the way. Sam Folks looks to be the Saturday starter after the southpaw started 11 games and picked up a victory over No. 13-ranked Southern Miss last season. Right-handers Austen Bullington and Seth Petry will both be considered for Sunday starts. Bullington started six contests while appearing in 17 games, recording 66 innings pitched and fanned 42 batters in the process. Petry is a freshman who helped lead Siegel High School to a regional championship last spring.

Jenkins notes that the first men called upon out of the bullpen will be David Hussey, Dom Bazzani, Zach Denney, Austin Buzick and Jefferey O'Doherty. Hussey led the squad in earned run average last season and posted 33.1 innings in a team-high 22 appearances. He conceded just 12 extra-base hits and sat down 33 opposing batters via strikeout. The left-handed Bazzani has the most experience of any Skyhawk returner, striking out 134 batters over 140.1 career innings. Denney and O'Doherty each appeared in 15 games last season, issuing just seven walks and limiting opponents to just five extra-base hits, respectively. Buzick logged 14 innings in 12 appearances last year and recorded 10 strikeouts in the process.

Marcus Eusebio looks to take over the role of closer for the Skyhawks. Eusebio is a highly-touted freshman who is no stranger to success as the Wayne, NJ native tossed a no-hitter at Passaic County Technical Institute.

Jenkins believes in his assistant coaches and the young men surrounding him. He wants his team to know that they can make a difference in the UT Martin baseball program.

"Our motto this year is 'trust the process,'" Jenkins said. "We are going to make sure that we do the little things better each day than we did the day before. We are trying to instill excitement on a daily basis with our team. The most important thing this upcoming season is making sure that the guys all buy in on what we are believing and are teaching them. I think that we will be happy with the direction that the program is going given the upbeat attitude of every member of this squad."

SEASON RECAP

The 2018 UT Martin baseball squad battled through the 2018 season to knock off No. 13 ranked Southern Miss, American Athletic Conference opponent Cincinnati and NCAA Super Regional participant and Ohio Valley Conference Tournament Champion Tennessee Tech.

UT Martin opened the 2018 campaign on the road against the Troy Trojans. The Skyhawks suffered a four-game series sweep in the process and would drop the first two games of the Southern Miss series but rallied in the back end of a doubleheader to claim a 13-10 victory over the No. 13 ranked Golden Eagles in Hattiesburg, Miss. Blake Davis collected five RBIs for the Skyhawks while JoJo Allen drove in four teammates as both belted homers in the victory.

The Skyhawks then traveled to Cincinnati and picked up a 7-5 win against the Bearcats as Tyler Albright led the way with four RBIs and a pair of homers while Ethan Whitley drove in a pair of runs and belted a long ball. UT Martin went on to drop a midweek contest at Arkansas State before heading to Tennessee Tech. The Skyhawks ended a four-game skid in the series finale against the Golden Eagles in a 4-3 decision. The foursome of Jordan Stoner, Ben Aslett, Collin Edwards and Billy Edwards each collected an RBI in the victory over the eventual Super Regional competitor.

Following the win over Tennessee Tech, UT Martin would win the next two ballgames as it defeated regional foe Union 11-5 and claimed an 8-7 victory over Southeast Missouri. Against Union, Carson Shrode paced the club with two runs batted in. In the Southeast Missouri win, Collin Edwards led the way with a trio of runs plated while Whitley drove in two runs and launched a homer along the way. Jordan Stoner collected four hits including a double and two triples against the Redhawks in the series opener.

The Skyhawks hit a 17-game skid as UT Martin dropped games against Belmont, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State, system-rival Tennessee in a pair of midweek games, Central Arkansas and Union in a weeknight bout before claiming the series against SIUE. In the series-opener, Billy Edwards connected for four RBIs while Stoner drove in a pair of runs en route to a 9-5 victory over the Cougars.

Game 2 of the series saw the Skyhawks claim a 7-1 win as the duo of Whitley and Aslett plated a pair of runs each while Whitley and Collin Edwards both legged out a triple and Stoner ripped a couple of doubles. Winston Cannon shined in the outing as he logged six complete innings of work on the rubber and fanned eight Cougars along the way. Peyton Cain tallied the old fashioned three-inning save and his trio of innings on the hill were all perfect ones as he rung up two batters in the process. UT Martin would not be able to complete the series sweep as the Skyhawks dropped the final game against SIUE.

UT Martin picked up a pair of wins over the next two games beginning with a 10-4 win over Christian Brothers. Collin Edwards swung the big bat against the Buccaneers as he plated three runs while Casey Harford and Davis each drove in two RBIs. Four Skyhawks connected for doubles (Aslett, Davis, Whitely and Harford) while Stoner tallied a three-bagger and Collin Edwards belted a homer. Austen Bullington clocked in for five scoreless innings in his start on the bump and allowed just one hit and one walk to Christian Brothers while sitting down a pair of Buccaneers via the punchout. Dalton Westfall finished the game with a perfect innings on a trio of groundouts to secure the victory.

Next was the 8-6 UT Martin win over Austin Peay in the first game of the weekend slate. Collin Edwards paced the club with his three-run jack while Shrode, Albright, Davis and Whitley all drove in a run apiece. Shrode connected for a pair of doubles as Davis belted a two-bagger of his own. The Skyhawks made a push as they found themselves down by a run in the seventh with a three-run frame to pull ahead of the Governors for the final time. Dom Bazzani recorded seven strikeouts in his six innings of work on the mound while Cain tallied another three-inning save.

UT Martin fell in each of the next three games but snapped the streak against Eastern Illinois in a narrow 3-2 victory over the Panthers. Stoner would be the hero of the day as he ended the game in walkoff fashion on a double in the ninth while Aslett also racked up an RBI on the day. Cannon dazzled again as he tossed eight innings of one-run baseball. He fanned a total of nine batters along the way while giving up just four hits and issued a pair of walks. David Hussey claimed the victory in his one inning of work while also recording a strikeout in the process.

A road loss at Evansville and a pair of dropped contests against Jacksonville State followed but the Skyhawks avoided the sweep against the Gamecocks in an impressive 8-1 victory. The duo of Stoner and Albright showcased their prowess as both combined for five hits, seven RBIs, a pair of homers and got on base a combined seven times in the contest. Sam Folks held the red hot Jacksonville State team to just one run and seven baserunners in his six frames toeing the rubber. The pair of Jefferey O'Doherty and Hussey combined for three innings of two-hit, scoreless baseball as Hussey fanned a pair of batters along the way. The Skyhawks ended the season with a couple of losses to rival Murray State as the last game of the series was cancelled due to inclement weather.

Stoner finished out the season ranked in the top-10 in program history for times hit by pitch in a season (first, 16), hits in a season (fourth, 79), triples in a season (fourth, four) and doubles in a season (sixth, 17).

A trio of Skyhawks garnered All-OVC selections for their performances during the 2018 campaign as Stoner was recognized for his work in the outfield while he picked up an All-OVC first team nod while Whitley and Davis both earned All-Freshman accolades. Stoner became the first UT Martin outfielder to collect an All-OVC first team selection and also became the fifth player in program history to earn OVC first team accolades. Davis and Whitley are the 12th and 13th UT Martin representatives to garner an OVC All-Freshman award, as Davis became the first catcher and Whitley became the second first baseman in Skyhawk history to earn spots on the prestigious list.

Whitley also picked up a 2018 Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Freshman All-American nod. He was one of 122 college freshmen who were selected for the honor and one of just nine first basemen tabbed to the class. Whitley joined Connor Aube (2017), Ben Upton (2014), Phil Sorensen (2011) and Wes Patterson (2008) as the only Freshman All-American recipients in program history.

STRENGTH &

The mission of the UTM Skyhawk Strength and Conditioning program is to maximize the potential of the Student-Athletes by teaching work ethic, team values, discipline, and leadership. The number one goal is to create a safe environment for the Student-Athletes to excel at their sport though scientifically based strength and conditioning programs. The Training programs are designed to increase the Athlete's strength, speed, agility, flexibility, conditioning, and explosiveness – all components in developing a complete collegiate athlete.

Olympic sport student-athletes train in the recently updated Fieldhouse weight room and adjacent multi-purpose room known as "the blue room" The 3,500 square foot weight room's renovation is highlighted by the Ecore Beast flooring that includes five inlay platforms highlighting UTM. In addition, updates included new Hammer Strength equipment, Eleiko barbells and a nutrition area to help support each Skyhawk athlete's development. Continued upgrades are ongoing to provide UT Martin student-athletes the best possible environment to compete for championships and develop positive habits to live a healthy active lifestyle.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

BETH DEBAUCHE
OVC COMMISSIONER

Now in its 71st year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 18 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

After Title IX legislation passed in 1972, women's athletics began a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC began formulating plans for women's athletics in 1975 and established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW), but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982. The conference added women's golf and softball in 1994 and women's soccer in 1998.

Over its 70 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team and Morehead State's Brian Shimer who competed in five Winter Olympics in bobsled (winning a bronze medal in 2002) and coached the 2010 United States bobsled team to its first gold medal since 1948. Former Morehead State football and Eastern Kentucky track and field athlete Dallas Robinson competed with the U.S. bobsled team during the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Kenneth Faried (Morehead State) and Robert Covington (Tennessee State), football player Jimmy Garoppolo (Eastern Illinois) and baseball players A.J. Ellis (Austin Peay) and Shawn Kelley (Austin Peay). Hamilton is the only athlete to ever play in the NCAA Basketball Championship, a Major League Baseball World Series (New York Yankees) and an NBA Championship Series (Los Angeles Lakers).

The league's baseball presence has continued to evolve since its inception. The OVC baseball tournament moved to a neutral site for the first time in 2001 with Paducah, Kentucky and Brooks Stadium hosting the tournament in front of raucous crowds. The success of the tournament led to Jackson, Tennessee and The Ballpark at Jackson (the home of the Seattle Mariner's Class AA affiliate) – hosting the event for the first time in 2010. The championship moved to Choccolocco Park in Oxford, Alabama for two years (2017-18) before agreeing to a two-year stay at Rent One Park in Marion, Illinois (home of the Frontier League Southern Illinois Miners).

The OVC also has made a statement in the NCAA Baseball Championship in recent years, with its teams involved in several memorable contests in the last decade. Tennessee Tech surprised Wake Forest in the opening round of the 2001 tournament and Southeast Missouri stunned host Alabama in the opening round of the 2002 championship. Five years later, Austin Peay captured the collegiate baseball world's attention by taking Vanderbilt, the 2007 No. 1 overall seed, to extra innings. Eastern Illinois pushed host Nebraska to the limit in 2008 followed by Tennessee Tech's memorable contest against host Clemson in 2009.

After not making the OVC Tournament field in either 2009 or 2010, Austin Peay, who was picked to finish seventh in the 2011 preseason poll, won the regular season and tournament championships to garner its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. In the first game of NCAA Regional play the Govs knocked off host and No. 1 seed Georgia Tech 2-1.

In 2012 Austin Peay completed a "repeat squared" (back-to-back regular season and tournament championships) for the first-time in OVC history. The Govs would go on to top Indiana State and Cal State Fullerton at the Eugene Regional, before falling to host Oregon in the regional final. It marked the first time since the 2000 season (Middle Tennessee) that an OVC team had won multiple NCAA Tournaments games in the same season.

Austin Peay completed a "3-Peayt" by winning its third-straight OVC Tournament crown in 2013. Along the way the Govs garnered the first nationally-ranking by an OVC team since 2009 (climbing to as high as 21st nationally) and tied the OVC single-season record with 47 victories. The Govs earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Bloomington Regional, becoming the first OVC team in the current regional format (since 1999) to earn anything other than a No. 4 seed. The squad topped Florida and Valparaiso to advance to the regional final for the second-straight season before losing to host Indiana. Govs senior closer Tyler Rogers was a big part of his team's success during the year, setting the NCAA single-season record for saves (23 – a mark that was later eclipsed during the College World Series).

In 2016 six OVC teams reached the 30-win plateau for the first time in league history; the previous single-season high had been four teams.

In 2017 the league could have been named the "Offensive Valley Conference" as teams combined for 753 home runs during the season, the most in league history. That was highlighted by a record 50 combined home runs being hit in 13 games at the OVC Tournament. Included in that was Morehead State sophomore Niko Hulsizer who hit his 27th home run of the season, establishing a new OVC single-season record.

In 2018 Tennessee Tech had a 28-game winning streak in becoming a consensus nationally-ranked team across the six major Division I polls (reaching as high as No. 10, an all-time high rank by an OVC team). The Golden Eagles won a record 27 OVC games after losing in the OVC Tournament Championship game, became the first OVC team to earn an at-large berth into the NCAA Baseball Championship. Tech would go on to win three-straight elimination games in the Oxford Regional (including back-to-back games on the same day against host and No. 4 national seed Ole Miss) to become the first OVC team to reach the Super Regionals. The Golden Eagles would win game one against Texas before eventually losing two-straight to the Longhorns. Tennessee Tech finished the season with an OVC record 53 overall victories.

In 2018, a record 16 OVC players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft (breaking the previous record of 12). Among the 16 players were eight Tennessee Tech players, a new record for an OVC school in a single-season. Overall the OVC has had 101 players selected over the past nine years (2010-18).

The OVC sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the OVC has grown significantly from its humble beginnings. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

KURT McGUFFIN

Kurt McGuffin was officially named the 15th University of Tennessee at Martin's director of intercollegiate athletics on May 22, 2017.

McGuffin brings more than 18 years of experience in the collegiate athletics forum, including nearly six years as athletics director at Missouri Western State University, an NCAA Division II school located in St. Joseph, Mo. Before leading the Griffon athletics department in 2011, he also spent time as an assistant athletics director for development at the University of Colorado (2010-11), as a senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State University (2000-10) and as an assistant director of athletics for development at the University of Idaho-Moscow (1999-2000).

In his time at Missouri Western, McGuffin achieved the highest student-athlete grade point average in the history of the school while also setting an all-time high for graduation rate and community service hours. He significantly increased revenue generation to annual and endowment giving by 30 percent and he launched a capital campaign that produced five of the top 10 gifts in university history, finishing off $13 million in building enhancements in the spring of 2016. In addition, he successfully added six additional sports to bring the total to 16 while collaborating to initiate a Master's program in Sport Business Management – which added 20 graduate assistants to his staff.

McGuffin oversaw six Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association championship squads in his tenure at Missouri Western. That includes the Griffon football program winning its first ever outright MIAA championship in 2012, a year where they also made the deepest postseason run in school history into the Division II quarterfinals. The Missouri Western baseball team claimed its first-ever MIAA title in 2013, the women's basketball team won the MIAA regular season in 2015-16 while the Griffon softball program racked up three conference championships (2014 tournament, 2016 regular season, 2016 tournament) in McGuffin's tenure. Just this past season, the Missouri Western baseball team qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons (2016-17) for the first time in program history while the Griffon softball program made it to their fourth straight NCAA Regional. The women's golf program also saw freshman Chong Yong advance to the NCAA Championships, becoming the first individual in school history to accomplish that feat.

McGuffin also sustained previous successful programs and experienced growth in resources across the board at Missouri Western. He hired head coaches to lead the Griffon volleyball program to its highest win total since the mid-1990's and earning the most MIAA victories in program history in 2014. The Missouri Western tennis squad also took a new direction under McGuffin, resulting in its first winning season in more than a decade in 2014-15. The Griffon soccer program has also shattered over 20 school records while making its first ever postseason appearance in 2014 while the women's golf program advanced to its first ever NCAA Championship berth in 2016. As a direct result, McGuffin led the Missouri Western charge into the top-100 in the Learfield Cup standings, elevating the program from its 287 ranking when he took over.

Facility improvements were also paramount in McGuffin's success at Missouri Western. He raised nearly $8 million for a total renovation of Spratt Memorial Stadium while also helping construct a state-of-the-art women's soccer locker room and the Zack and Mary Workman Academic Success Center in 2014.

The upgrades to Spratt Memorial Stadium were instrumental in Missouri Western remaining as the summer home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs since 2010. McGuffin led the charge in 2014 as the Chiefs and Missouri Western announced an extension for St. Joseph as the sole training location through the 2017 season.

At Colorado, McGuffin created and implemented a new annual giving program which increased total giving by 15 percent. He added over 600 new members in the first year by establishing fundraising goals, implementing a new donor database, revamping the process of daily donations and planning special events. He also assisted with fundraising and development of a brand new $12 million sport court practice facility while taking part in a $1.5 billion university capital campaign.

In addition to his title as senior associate athletic director for external operations at Kansas State, McGuffin also served as the associate athletic director for development, the assistant athletic director for annual giving and the assistant director of athletic development in his decade in Manhattan. He completed over $25 million in facility enhancements while also leading a $90 million "Changing Lives Campaign." He also increased annual giving by 50 percent and endowments by over 70 percent.

McGuffin was the sport administrator for the Wildcat men's basketball, men's and women's golf and the men's and women's cross country/track and field programs. He led the development and implementation of a department-wide strategic plan while overseeing all external units (including development, ticketing, marketing and communication) responsible for a revenue of over $28 million and budgets of $12 million.

McGuffin led marketing campaigns that resulted in the largest football season-opening crowd in Kansas State history while also heading a sales group that sold out men's basketball games in three out of four seasons. In his tenure, the Wildcat women's basketball and volleyball programs were each in the top-10 nationally in attendance.

Before his first full-time role in athletics administration at Idaho-Moscow, McGuffin also was a graduate assistant for fundraising at Wichita State University, the director of men's basketball operations at Eastern Washington University and the head men's basketball student assistant at Kansas State.

McGuffin is a proud member of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Association of Development Directors (NADD). He has also spent time on the NCAA Men's Golf Ranking Committee and the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee.

An Iola, Kan. native, McGuffin graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor of science degree in education in 1996. He obtained his Master of Science degree in education from Wichita State in 1999. He is married to the former Jessica Whisler of Goodland, Kan. and the couple has three children – Bryce, Brett and Brea.

FROM UTM TO MLB

Alec Mills starred at the University of Tennessee at Martin from 2010-12 before becoming the first-ever Skyhawk to appear in a Major League Baseball game. He made his MLB debut for Kansas City Royals on May 18, 2016 and is currently in his third full season with the Chicago Cubs organization.

What makes Mills' journey to the top so incredible is that it almost never happened. After an all-district prep career at Montgomery Central High School in his hometown of Clarksville, Tenn., he was focusing on an engineering degree at UT Martin in the fall of 2009 after he figured the competitive baseball portion was out of the picture.

Mills drove past Skyhawk Field one day and saw some of UT Martin's student-athletes playing catch. He knew he had the desire to compete at the Division I level and soon contacted Bubba Cates, UT Martin's head coach at the time, and arranged a tryout. After Mills threw for the Skyhawk coaching staff, he attended practices over the next few days to prove that he belonged. When all was said and done, Mills had made the squad and his legendary career path began.

Despite his walk-on status, Mills was one of UT Martin's most trusted options during his freshman campaign in 2010. He ranked second on the team with 23 appearances and appeared in exactly half (12) of the team's 24 games against Ohio Valley Conference competitions. As a potential sign of things to come, he was the winning pitcher in each of the first two games of his collegiate career.

Mills followed with a very good sophomore campaign during a historical 2011 season for the Skyhawk program. He notched seven victories and three saves while making a school-record 30 appearances for a UT Martin team that won an OVC Tournament game for the first time in program history. Fittingly, it was Mills who earned the victory on the mound in that postseason game, just five days after he was handed the ball to start in a must-win, tournament-clinching victory in the final game of the regular season.

After capturing All-Star accolades for the Brazos Valley Bombers in the Texas Collegiate League in the summer of 2011, things changed for Mills during his junior season at UT Martin. Following two seasons of predominantly pitching out of the bullpen, he was now the staff ace – making a team-high 14 starts in 2012. His first game of the season was an audition in front of several major league scouts in the season-opener at Georgia Southern, who was ranked No. 34 in the nation at that time. He kept the high-powered Eagle offense at bay and from that moment forward, the scouts flocked back to watch many more of his starts.

Mills concluded his junior season ranking in the top-10 in the OVC in strikeouts (74, sixth), least walks per nine innings (2.63, sixth), innings pitched (89, eighth) and ERA (3.94, ninth). He was in the middle of a dominant season for the Madison (Wis.) Mallards in the Northwoods Summer League when the Royals nabbed him in the 22nd round (673rd overall pick) in the 2012 MLB Draft.

Faced with the difficult choice of signing with Kansas City or return to UT Martin for his senior season, Mills chose to jumpstart his professional hopes and ink a deal with the Royals.

Mills quickly rose through Kansas City's minor league system. He was used primarily as a reliever through his first two seasons before undergoing Tommy John surgery in 2013. He was groomed as a starting pitcher during his rehabilitation process and responded by emerging as one of the top prospects in the organization. He was named an All-Star at three different levels (2013 at Single-A, 2015 in Advanced Single-A, 2016 at Double-A).

Mills' minor league dominance garnered national attention in September of 2015, as he was named the Kansas City's top pitching prospect by MLBPipeline.com, an official branch of MLB.com. Two months later, he was officially added to the Royals' 40-man roster for the 2016 season.

Mills made three total appearances for the Royals in 2016, fanning four batters while allowing three hits over 3.1 innings of work. The following offseason, he was acquired by the Cubs – fresh off their first World Series championship in 107 years – in a February trade.

After spending the 2017 season in Chicago's minor league system, Mills made his Cubs debut on July 27, 2018. He twirled two perfect innings against the St. Louis Cardinals and wound up playing a pivotal role down the stretch for the Cubs. He made seven appearances (two starts), striking out 23 batters while allowing only 11 hits over 18 innings of work.

Over parts of seven seasons in the minor leagues, the 6-4, 190-pound right-hander notched 26 wins and a 3.42 ERA in 124 appearances. He made 97 starts and also registered nine saves, allowing only 515 hits with 505 strikeouts in 545 innings. He enjoyed remarkable success based in large part to his ability to keep the ball in park, conceding just 31 home runs in his minor league career.

Mills still ranks in UT Martin's top-10 career list in appearances (67, sixth), strikeouts (165, sixth), wins (13, eighth) and innings pitched (192.0, 10th). His 30 appearances in 2011 are the most in a single season in school history while he also is in the top-10 in single-season strikeouts (74 in 2012, third), wins (seven in 2011, eighth), innings pitched (89 in 2012, eighth) and games started (14 in 2012, eighth).

Mills also pieced together quite an impressive resume off the diamond during his time at UT Martin, garnering a 3.18 overall Grade Point Average as a Health and Human Performance exercise science major. He is currently pursuing his degree from UT Martin.
