#3 Jordan Sears

Junior Guard

Daytona Beach, Fla.

Sears enters this contest just four points shy of reaching the 1,000-point plateau for his collegiate career. He accounted for 493 points over 57 games in his first two seasons at Gardner-Webb and has dialed up 503 points in just 33 outings (15.2 per game) in a Skyhawk uniform.

Sears had 14 points, five rebounds and a game-high five assists in 23 minutes on Monday against Champion Christian.

SETTING THE STAGE

The University of Tennessee at Martin men's basketball squad matches up against the first of two Power 5 conference opponents on the 2023-24 schedule when it makes the 225-mile drive south to take on Mississippi State.

The Skyhawks, who are also visiting NC State out of the Atlantic Coast Conference on Dec. 12, will be making their first appearance in Starkville since 2017 on Saturday, which is also head coach Ryan Ridder's 39th birthday.

UT Martin is coming off a 104-76 home triumph over Champion Christian in its opener on Monday. Hawai'i transfer Justus Jackson topped the Skyhawks in scoring with 18 points in just 19 minutes off the bench while Jalen Myers recorded his second double-double (15 points, 10 rebounds) in his brief UT Martin tenure. Jacob Crews (16 points), Issa Muhammad (15), Jordan Sears (14) and KK Curry (11) gave the Skyhawks six double-digit scorers in a game where UT Martin outscored the visitors 64-24 in the paint and had a 57-35 advantage in rebounding.

Reigning All-Ohio Valley Conference first teamer Jordan Sears is on the cusp of a personal milestone as the explosive Skyhawk combo guard enters this contest with 996 career collegiate points. Sears has registered 27 double-digit scoring games, seven outings of at least 20 points and three 30-plus point contests in 33 career games in a UT Martin uniform.

Receiving votes in both national preseason polls is Mississippi State, who reached the NCAA Tournament in head coach Chris Jans' first season in charge in 2022-23. The Bulldogs opened their 2023-24 slate on Wednesday at the Barstool Sports Invitational in Chicago, defeating Arizona State by a 71-56 margin. Trey Fort - who played 11 games as a freshman at UT Martin in 2020-21 - led the way with a game-high 21 points for Mississippi State, who cruised after taking a 21-point halftime lead.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Media interviews with student-athletes and coaches are encouraged, and every effort will be made to accommodate media requests. In-person interviews are preferred. Reach out through the sports information office for the best times to interview head coach Ryan Ridder and student-athletes.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITIES

Players and coaches will be available for interviews after a brief cooling-off period at the conclusion of each game. Full stat packages will be available on UTMSports.com upon the completion of each game. Head coach Ryan Ridder and select student-athletes will be made available upon request. Space will be made available following postgame interviews for filing stories for home contests.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are required for all Skyhawk home games and can be obtained through the sports information office. Please notify sports information director Ryne Rickman at least 24 hours in advance of home games and at least 72 hours in advance of road games. There is no designated parking for visiting media at home games.

PRESS ROW

The Kathleen and Tom Elam Center press row has wireless internet access for all working members of the media under "UTM Guest". Users will be asked to enter a valid email address. Live stats, offered by StatBroadcast.com, can be found at www.UTMStats.com.

ON THE WEB

SKYHAWKS IN PRINT

The name of our institution is The University of Tennessee at Martin and if abbreviated, should be referred to as UT Martin. The University of Tennessee at Martin should be used as the first reference in a news story. UT Martin should be used in subsequent references and UTM is acceptable in headlines. Tennessee-Martin, UT-Martin, UT or Martin should never be used. The description Skyhawks should be used to represent all UT Martin athletic teams. Hawks should never be used.

UT MARTIN SKYHAWKS QUICK HITS

ALL-TIME AGAINST THE SEC

The Skyhawks are 1-44 all-time against current members of the Southeastern Conference. UT Martin has faced Mississippi State (1-9) the most, followed by LSU (0-5), Missouri (0-5), Ole Miss (0-5), Tennessee (0-5), Vanderbilt (0-5), Alabama (0-3), Arkansas (0-3), Auburn (0-2) and Kentucky (0-2). The Skyhawks have never faced current SEC squads Florida, Georgia, South Carolina or Texas A&M.

The one victory against current SEC members actually came while UT Martin was still in the NCAA Division II ranks as the then-Pacers knocked off Mississippi State by a 65-41 margin on Dec. 12, 1981 in Starkville.

Since then, the Skyhawks have played plenty of tight contests against SEC foes, including last season when UT Martin led by seven at the halftime break against Ole Miss before falling 72-68 on Nov. 18. Other notable close calls include an 86-83 setback at Ole Miss on Nov. 11, 2016, a 68-62 loss at Tennessee on Dec. 29, 2010, an 87-82 decision at Auburn in the National Invitation Tournament (March 18, 2009) and a 92-85 loss at Vanderbilt on Dec. 29, 2007.

LOOKING BACK AT THAT WIN VS. MSU

As previously stated, UT Martin pulled off a shocking upset against Mississippi State on Dec. 12, 1981, when it defeated the Bulldogs by 24 points (65-41) in Starkville.

In front of 3,507 fans, the then-Pacers were led by junior Larry Martin's 20 points while sophomore Darrell Smith paced the squad with 13 rebounds. Mississippi State's team was coached by Bob Boyd and featured three future draft picks in Jeff Malone, Terry Lewis and Kilpatrick Wells.

UT Martin would finish 20-11 that season under former LSU assistant Art Tolis. The Bulldogs ended the year with an 8-19 record.

SKYHAWK DUO NAMED PRESEASON ALL-OVC

Jordan Sears and KK Curry were each voted to the 12-man Preseason All-OVC squad by the league's head coaches and communication directors. The Skyhawks were one of just three schools to land multiple returners on the Preseason All-OVC team. Sears is the second-highest returning scorer on the Preseason All-OVC squad while Curry was one of only three frontcourt players to earn a spot on that list.

UT MARTIN PICKED FOURTH IN OVC POLL

The Skyhawks were selected fourth out of 11 teams in the OVC predicted order of finish, which is selected by the league's head coaches and communication directors.

Defending OVC regular season champion Morehead State was identified as the preseason favorite after picking up 20 first-place votes and 200 points. SIUE was second with 162 points while Tennessee State managed the remaining two first-place votes and 153 points. Following UT Martin's 149 points was defending OVC Tournament champion Southeast Missouri (124), Tennessee Tech (120), Little Rock (85), Western Illinois (80), Southern Indiana (63), Lindenwood (40) and Eastern Illinois (34).

DOZEN WITH NCAA DIVISION I EXPERIENCE

Although the Skyhawks only returned six players, 12 of their 14 players on the roster had played at a NCAA Division I institution. Returners Desmond Williams (Troy), KK Curry (South Alabama), Jordan Sears (Gardner-Webb), Koby Jeffries (UAB) and Jalen Myers (Texas A&M-Corpus Christi) each boasted Division I experience prior to transferring to UT Martin while David Kamwanga has played two seasons in a Skyhawk uniform.

Newcomers Issa Muhammad (New Mexico State), Justus Jackson (Hawaii), Kenny White, Jr. (Murray State/Tennessee Tech), Christian Fussell (Middle Tennessee), Sebastian Mendoza (San Jose State) and Jacob Crews (North Florida) had each gained Division I experience in the past.

The only two UT Martin players to not enter the 2023-24 campaign with NCAA Division I experience were junior forward Yassin Hussein (Lake Land College) and freshman guard Braylon Jackson (Newnan High School).

ONLY ONE UNDERCLASSMAN ON THE ROSTER

Freshman guard Braylon Jackson is the lone underclassman on the 2023-24 UT Martin roster. That comes after the Skyhawks were one of nine NCAA Division I programs to not have a single freshman on the roster last season, joining Air Force, Illinois State, Sacred Heart, San Francisco, Southern, Southern Miss, UC Irvine and Western Kentucky.

RIDDER BROTHERS ON SAME BENCH

Skyhawk head coach Ryan Ridder is in his third season at UT Martin and second alongside his brother Reed on the coaching staff.

Coaching is in the Ridder bloodline as their father Steve is the head coach at NCAA Division II Embry-Riddle University in Daytona Beach, Fla. Entering the 2023-24 campaign, Steve tallied 759 career victories and a .705 winning percentage (ninth-best amongst active head collegiate coaches with at least 600 career wins).

The Ridders are a handful of brothers who work on the same staff in NCAA Division I basketball. Ironically, Reed's first game on the UT Martin bench was against another set of brothers (head coach Jeff Capel and assistant coach Jason Capel) in the 2022-23 opener at Pitt.

YOUNG COACHING STAFF

The Skyhawks have one of the youngest coaching staffs in NCAA Division I basketball as head coach Ryan Ridder (38), Denver Cobb (38), Erik Buggs (33), Reed Ridder (30), Jake Perrin (28) and Nashad Mackey (26) had a combined age of 193 years old on Opening Night (Nov. 6).

SUNSHINE STATE CONNECTION

UT Martin's roster has a distinct Florida feel to it. Head coach Ryan Ridder (2008), Denver Cobb (2009), Reed Ridder (2016) and Nashad Mackey (2019) are all graduates of Embry-Riddle in Daytona Beach, which is also the hometown of guard Jordan Sears.

Jacob Crews hails from Hilliard, Fla. and played one year at Daytona State College after two seasons at North Florida. Issa Muhammad also spent two seasons at a pair of schools in the Sunshine State (Northwest Florida State College and Daytona State College). Yassin Hussein (West Oaks Academy in Orlando) and Justus Jackson (DME Academy in Melbourne) also attended prep schools in Florida.

DAUNTING SCHEDULE AWAITS SKYHAWKS

A challenging slate is on tap for UT Martin in 2023-24 as the Skyhawks play 15 games against teams who earned a winning record last season. Eight of those squads made postseason appearances in 2022-23, including NCAA Tournament participants Mississippi State (Nov. 11), NC State (Dec. 12) and Southeast Missouri (Jan. 25 and Feb. 24).

UT Martin will visit seven different states for eight nonconference road/neutral-site contests. That schedule includes 2023 College Basketball Invitational participants Eastern Kentucky (Nov. 17), North Alabama (Nov. 22) and Rice (Nov. 30).

RIDDER INKS CONTRACT EXTENSION

UT Martin athletic director Kurt McGuffin announced an extension on July 5, 2023 that will keep head men's basketball coach Ryan Ridder on the Skyhawk sideline for the next five seasons.

Last season, UT Martin engineered the second-biggest turnaround in school history - increasing the Skyhawk win total up to 19 from eight. That marked the fifth-most victories since the program transitioned into the NCAA Division I ranks in 1992.

UT Martin tied for the third-most OVC victories in school history last season, piling up 10 league wins while defeating each OVC school at least once (including a season sweep of eventual NCAA Tournament participant Southeast Missouri). The Skyhawks advanced to the OVC Championship semifinals and tied for the most single-season home wins (14) in school history.

UT MARTIN SKYHAWKS

Ryan Ridder enters his third season as the University of Tennessee at Martin head men's basketball coach in 2023-24. He was announced as the 12th head coach in program history on March 30, 2021 and received a five-year contract extension in July 2023 that will keep him on the Skyhawk sidelines through the 2027-28 campaign.

Last season, Ridder engineered the second-biggest turnaround in school history – increasing UT Martin's win total up to 19. That marked the fifth-most victories since the program transitioned into the NCAA Division I ranks in 1992. The Skyhawks additionally advanced to their fifth all-time appearance in the Ohio Valley Conference Championship semifinals.

UT Martin tied for its third-most OVC victories in school history last season, piling up 10 league wins while defeating each OVC school at least once (including a season sweep of eventual OVC Tournament champion Southeast Missouri). The Skyhawks got off to their best home start to a season in program history as their 14 victories inside the Kathleen and Tom Elam Center were tied for the most in the UT Martin's NCAA Division I era.

The 2022-23 version of the Skyhawks ranked second in school history in scoring (2,658 points) and rebounding (1,293). UT Martin ranked in the top-15 nationally and led the OVC in defensive rebounding per game (28.7, seventh), fast break points (15.09 per game, ninth), scoring offense (80.5 points per contest, 14th) and rebounding per game (39.18, 15th). The Skyhawks also topped the OVC in scoring margin (+5.1), field goal percentage (.459) and field goal percentage defense (.422) a year ago.

Individually, UT Martin set a school record for most All-OVC recipients in a single season (three) and was one of only a dozen NCAA Division I programs to produce multiple National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District first team performers in 2022-23 (Parker Stewart and KJ Simon).

In Ridder's debut season as a Skyhawk, he led a team that was the first NCAA Division I squad to not return a single player from the previous season since the 2014-15 campaign. As a direct result, UT Martin produced seven of the OVC's 16 Newcomer of the Week award winners - marking the second-most honorees in that category in school history (just one shy of the 2014-15 squad).

Ridder's 2021-22 Skyhawks faced a grueling schedule that shaped up to be the one of the toughest in recent memory. Eight of UT Martin's nine nonconference NCAA Division I opponents owned a .500 record or better, combining for a 175-126 mark (.581 winning percentage). Overall, the Skyhawks played in 12 games against opponents who would eventually play in the postseason.

UT Martin showed glimpses of breaking through in 2021-22, starting the OVC season with a 2-0 record for just the third time in school history (first time since 2002-03). The Skyhawks won their first two conference road games for the first time in the school's Division I era (since 1992). UT Martin defeated eventual College Basketball Insider participant UNC Asheville by double figures and led for 25:43 of clock time against a nationally ranked Murray State squad that ended the season boasting the best winning percentage (.912, 31-3 record) in the NCAA Division I ranks before eventually falling by a narrow 62-60 margin on Feb. 19.

Ridder coached Simon (who was a part of his Bethune-Cookman squad but sat out the previous season) in his debut season as the Skyhawks' bench leader. Simon racked up All-OVC first team and OVC All-Newcomer honors, joining two-time All-American Lester Hudson as the only players in school history to win both of those awards in the same season. Simon also chalked up National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District 18 second team accolades as he was the only NCAA Division I player in the country to average at least 16.5 points, 4.5 rebounds, 1.5 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.4 blocks per game.

Off the court, UT Martin earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award in 2021-22. The Skyhawks were the only current OVC institution to earn the honor as UT Martin posted a cumulative 3.22 Grade Point Average for the year.

Ridder joined the Skyhawks after four successful seasons as head coach at Bethune-Cookman University, a NCAA Division I member of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. During his tenure in Daytona Beach, Fla., Ridder set numerous school records, posted a .646 winning percentage in league play and won the 2017-18 MEAC regular season championship. He was spotlighted by ESPN to its top "40 Under 40" list of the nation's head and assistant coaches in May 2020.

A Lexington, Ky. native, Ridder owns a 171-109 record as a collegiate head coach, which also includes four seasons at Daytona State College. He boasted the most wins (48) in the first three years in Bethune-Cookman history before the school opted out of all sports for the 2020-21 campaign. From 2017-20, Ridder's Wildcat squads posted a winning MEAC record for three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history, going 31-17 during that span.

Ridder's first season as a Division I head coach was historical as he helped guide Bethune-Cookman to just the second MEAC regular season championship in its 38-year history. For his efforts, he was named the Joe B. Hall Award winner, defeating candidates from schools such as Miami, Louisville, Oklahoma State and Washington for the honor that recognizes the top first-year head coach in the Division I ranks.

Overall, Ridder tutored five All-MEAC players, one MEAC Player of the Year, two MEAC Defensive Players of the Year and one MEAC All-Rookie team member at Bethune-Cookman. He led the Wildcats to their first-ever win over a Conference USA opponent (FAU) and increased the school's NCAA RPI rating by over 60 points while in charge of the program.

Ridder, 39, began his head coaching career in 2013-14 at Daytona State College – accumulating a 95-28 overall record at the NJCAA level. He brought home Mid-Florida Conference championships in each of his four seasons after inheriting a program that went 6-25 during the previous season.

The Falcons were consistently ranked regionally and nationally under Ridder as he earned four consecutive conference Coach of the Year accolades. He mentored 25 all-conference performers, 16 players who advanced to play at four-year institutions and two NJCAA All-Americans while boasting a 96 percent graduation rate amongst his student-athletes.

Ridder got his start at the Division I level with three seasons as an assistant working under head coach Robbie Laing at Campbell University, located in Buies Creek, NC. He was an integral part of a Fighting Camels staff that signed the highest ranked recruiting class (64th nationally) in the ASUN Conference in 2013-14.

By the time Ridder departed to accept his first head coaching gig, Campbell was tabbed as the Big South Conference preseason favorite and had defeated Power 5 opponents such as Iowa and Auburn. The Fighting Camels got off to their best start in school history in 2011-12 and produced the Big South Freshman of the Year.

Ridder's first collegiate job came at Embry-Riddle University, where he was a volunteer assistant under his father Steve Ridder in 2009-10. The Eagles collected a 30-6 overall record and continued its tradition as a national college basketball powerhouse at the NAIA Division II level. Steve is still the head coach at Embry-Riddle and has tallied 759 career victories to go along with a .705 winning percentage (ninth-best amongst active head collegiate coaches with at least 600 career wins).

Ridder began his collegiate playing career at the College of Wooster in 2003-05 before finishing up under his father at Embry-Riddle. After graduating with a degree in aerospace studies in 2008, he moved to North Carolina to embark on a coaching career. He was an assistant at North Raleigh Christian, trained youth players while working for the Hoop City U basketball training academy and additionally was the head coach for numerous teams engaged in international competition with 365 Sports for the 2008-09 academic year. He earned his Master's degree in sport management with a concentration in intercollegiate athletic administration from California University of Pennsylvania in 2009.

Ridder and his wife, the former Jen Calnan of Daytona Beach, Fla., have three daughters - Brixton, Remi and Marlee.

SIX SKYHAWKS SCORE IN DOUBLE FIGURES IN 104-76 SEASON-OPENING WIN OVER CHAMPION CHRISTIAN

Jalen Myers turned in his second double-double in a UT Martin uniform to pace a well-balanced scoring attack in a 104-76 win in the men's basketball season opener against Champion Christian.

Myers secured 15 points and a game-high 10 rebounds in just 19 minutes, helping the Skyhawks to a 57-35 advantage on the glass while outscoring the visiting Tigers by a 64-24 margin in the paint.

Justus Jackson scored a career-high 18 points on 8-of-13 shooting while Jacob Crews (16 points, three treys) and Issa Muhammad (15 points, seven rebounds) also enjoyed successful UT Martin debuts. Preseason All-Ohio Valley Conference honorees Jordan Sears (14 points, five rebounds, game-high five assists) and KK Curry (11 points on 5-for-5 shooting, eight rebounds) rounded out the double-digit scorers for the Skyhawks, who shot 50.6 percent (42-of-83) from the floor and 83.3 percent (10-for-12) from the free throw line.

A National Christian College Athletic Association program located in Hot Springs, Ark., Champion Christian was led by AJ Williams' 22 points, five assists and four steals. KJ Younge also collected 20 points for the Tigers, who were forced into 21 turnovers.

UT MARTIN ANALYTICAL SUMMARY

The plus/minus efficiency stat reflects how the team did while that player is on the court.
If a player is a +5, it means his team outscored the opponent by five points while he was on the court.
If he has a -3, then the opposing team outscored his team by three points while he was on the court.
