TIP OFF

• This afternoon is the penultimate game before league play begins for the Coyotes. South Dakota's riding a five-game winning streak into Martin, a reverse scenario from last year's meeting with the Skyhawks.

• The Coyotes scored 100 points in back-to-back games for the first time in program history this week.

• Grace Larkins was named to the preseason watch list for the Becky Hammon Award. She became the first player in Summit League history to rank in the top-three in points, rebounds, assists and steals. No player has ever ranked in the top-five in all four categories prior to last season. Larkins was joined by Carley Duffney on the preseason all-Summit League team.

• Two more wins will give South Dakota its 900th program victory.

• The hunt for 1,000 points is on for Grace Larkins. She will likely reach the milestone over Christmas break with 68 points to go.

• UT Martin, who has won six Ohio Valley regular season titles in Kevin McMillan's 14 seasons, was picked fourth in the preseason OVC poll. The Ohio Valley welcomes former Summit foe, Western Illinois, this season.

It's year two with Kayla Karius at the helm. Karius (CAR-ee-us) spent the offseason adding depth to a roster that was hampered by injuries in 2022-23. Behind that added depth and additional experience among the returners, Karius looks for the Coyotes to return to an up-tempo style by pushing the pace and knocking down shots.

South Dakota, picked third in the Summit League Preseason Poll, returns 11 players while bringing in four freshmen and two transfers. USD was one of just 18 teams among the 361 NCAA Division I programs to not have a single player transfer out during the offseason.

Headlining the Coyotes is junior do-it-all guard Grace Larkins. She was selected to the preseason watch list for the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year and was also named to the preseason all-Summit League first team. Larkins became the first player in Summit League history to rank in the top-three in points, rebounds, assists and steals. No player had ranked in the top-five in all four categories prior to last season.

Larkins has been incredibly efficient during the Coyotes' five-game win streak, averaging 20 points per game while shooting at nearly a 64 percent clip. Her 51.7 percent on the season ranks 20th in the nation.

The Coyotes' second leading scorer during the squad's five-game win streak has been fifth-year junior Alexi Hempe at 10.4 points per game while shooting at a 52.8 percent clip. She's also had clutch moments, like knocking down the game-tying 3-pointer at the end of regulation to send the LMU game to overtime. Her family, who's been visiting Vermillion, will make the trek to Tennessee before returning to Virginia for the holidays.

Joining Larkins on the all-Summit preseason team is sophomore Carley Duffney. She entered the starting lineup in mid-January and flourished through the remainder of the season. She averaged 15.3 points, 5.1 rebounds and 32 minutes in the final 12 games of the season with four 20-point efforts during the run. Duffney is coming off a season-best night with 17 points (7-9 FGs) in 15 minutes against Dickinson State.

Junior Kendall Holmes, a transfer from DePaul, provides the Coyotes with another ball handler in the starting lineup. She's coming off a season-high 16 points on Wednesday night with four 3-pointers. She ranked sixth in the Big East for 3-pointers made last season (65). Holmes is one point shy of 500 career points and one 3-pointer shy from 100 in her career.

The last two games have given the Coyote bench a chance to shine. USD's bench ranks 13th in the nation at 32.8 points per game. That depth is a new luxury for Karius this season.

Graduate transfer Tori DePerry (Saginaw Valley State) moved into the starting line-up four games ago and is second on the stat sheet behind Larkins. She's averaging 9.8 points and 4.9 rebounds per game. A third of her points come from the stripe, as she has a knack for scoring around the rim and drawing contact.

Through 11 games, the Coyotes have had five different leading scorers. That added depth has helped balance out Larkins' load, but the junior will still do her thing. She leads the league in total points and assists. She's one of five different Summit hoopers to collect the league's weekly honor this season.

The Coyotes spent the summer focused on defense and working to get the stop. This program led the league in scoring defense for five-straight seasons (2018-22) and brick-by-brick this year's squad looks to get back to being the best defensive team in the Summit.

A bright spot for the Coyotes defensively has been on the perimeter. USD's held foes to an average 21.2 percent behind the arc, which tops the Summit and ranks fifth in the nation.

One of the pieces of the Coyote defense is junior guard Nicole Avila-Ambrosi. She moved into the starting five this season for her defensive prowess. She's drawn the challenge of marking the opponent's best starting guard. She's had a steal in 10 of 11 games this year.

Sophomore center Walker Demers, who forewent her senior year of high school, had to grow up quick last season. She entered the starting lineup midseason when the injuries piled up. She's continued to develop her game this year and scored a career high 16 points against Arizona, knocking down the 3-pointer that tied the game in the third quarter. Demers pulled down a season-high seven boards Wednesday.

Speaking of that spark off the bench, fourth-year sophomore Natalie Mazurek adds size and depth in the post after missing all of last season due to injury. She's coming off back-to-back double-figure games. She scored a career high 18 points on 8-of-12 shooting against the Blue Hawks. Mazurek also isn't afraid to step out and shoot it with more than a third of her shot attempts coming from deep. She's made at least one 3 in seven of the last nine games.

Highlighting the freshman class is Olivia Kieffer, who has been one of the first guards off the bench this year. She came up clutch in overtime at LMU, scoring all seven of her points in the five-minute overtime period. Her confidence has continued to grow as the season has progressed. She had eight points, seven assists and six rebounds on Wednesday. The Coyote freshmen class combined for more than 7,000 points in their prep careers. Corral Mason and Avery Broughton have also seen extended action the last two games.

COACHES / HEAD COACH KAYLA KARIUS

Kayla Karius was announced as the 11th South Dakota women's basketball head coach on April 10, 2022.

Karius (CAR-ee-us) enters year two with a Coyote squad that was hampered by injuries in her first season at the helm. A familiar face to the program, Karius (formerly Tetschlag) served as an assistant to Dawn Plitzuweit for two seasons from 2016-18. In her two seasons at USD, the Coyotes compiled a 52-16 record with a pair of Women's National Invitation Tournament berths. The Coyotes won the 2017-18 Summit League regular season title and became the first Summit champion to go undefeated in league play in 24 years. Karius received the WBCA's Thirty Under 30 award in 2018.

A key recruiter in the Midwest, Karius has served as the recruiting coordinator at all four stops in her coaching career – Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Drake. Her recruiting classes at South Dakota included 2022 Summit League Player of the Year Chloe

Lamb, three-time Defensive Player of the Year Hannah Sjerven, two-time all-league pick Liv Korngable, Monica Arens, Claudia Kunzer, Regan Sankey and Allison Peplowski.

Karius spent three seasons at Wisconsin and last season on the bench at Drake. The Bulldogs won 20 games and reached the WNIT's round of 16. Karius worked with first-team all-Missouri Valley picks Grace Berg and Megan Meyer.

A native of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, Karius graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in 2011 with a bachelor's of business administration with a marketing emphasis. Karius, a standout on the Phoenix basketball team, was the 2011 Horizon League Player of the Year. She led Green Bay to four Horizon League titles, three NCAA Tournaments and the NCAA Sweet 16 her senior year. She received the Horizon League Cecil N. Colman Medal of Honor at the conclusion of her playing career.

Prior to entering the coaching profession, Karius spent four seasons playing professionally abroad. Her stops included Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium. She averaged a double-double and consistently ranked among her respective league's top-three for points and rebounds.

Karius and her husband, Rick, have two sons, Treyton and Macklin.
