AT A GLANCE

KEY STORYLINES

>>CLOSE GAMES ABOUND

Charleston Southern enters the game with a record of 9-24 under Head Coach Gabe Giardina. In his tenure, he has lost nine games by eight points or less as well as a 14 games by two possessions or less.

>>FBS RUN

The 2025 season began for the Buccaneers with two consecutive games against FBS opponents in Vanderbilt and Coastal Carolina. When those are packaged with the 2024 finale, that marks three straight contets for Charleston Southern against foes from the FBS level.

>>NEW FOES

This game will mark the fourth-ever meeting between the two programs as each continue to grow in their familiarity in the Ohio Valley / Big South Football Association which is now in its third year of existence. UT Martin has come away with decisive victories in each of the three meetings between these two squads including the two over the past two years in league action.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY AND POLICY

WEEKLY GAME NOTES

Thank you for your coverage of CSU Football for the 2019 season. These game notes have been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the CSU football program, specific to this week's game. You can also find more information at csusports.com. Should you need additional information such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the CSU Sports Information offic.

CSUSPORTS.COM

Please visit csusports.com for press releases, updated player and coach bios, statistics, game notes, and schedules.

PRACTICES AND MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Members of the media will be invited to conduct interviews before and at the conclusion of practice. Please give at least 24 hours notice with special requests. (PLEASE NOTE THE CALENDAR ABOVE FOR MEDIA AVAILABILITY FOR THE WEEK.)

ATHLETIC STAFF INTERVIEWS

Interview requests for Athletic Director Jeff Barber or any other member of the athletic administration should be directed to Assistant A.D. for Communications, Michael Causey.

POSTGAME MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Postgame interviews will be conducted on the second floor of the Whitfield Stadium Center at Buccaneer Field following all CSU home football games. Coach Giardina and select players will be available following the NCAA mandatory cooling off period. For road games, CSU will conduct interviews outside the locker room or in a location designated by the host school.

POLICY REMINDERS

Other than during the recognized interview time at practice sessions, press conferences and other organized media availability, interviews and information inquiries must be initiated and arranged through the Athletic Communications office prior to being conducted. Media members should not contact directly CSU players, coaches, support staff or other athletic department personnel for any reason. Some players may not be available at every practice depending on circumstances such as classes, exams or other obligations.

GABE GIARDINA

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

THIRD SEASON AT CHARLESTON SOUTHERN
NINTH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

Gabe Giardina became the sixth Charleston Southern head football coach in program history in November of 2022. He comes to the Buccaneers after coaching stops at the University of Alabama, Charleston Southern, Delta State and Albany State. The 2025 season will mark the third under his leadership.

During his first season at the helm, he continued a long string of home success for the Buccaneers as they finished the year at 4-2 inside of Buccaneer Field. Additionally, he saw four players being named to All-Conference honors including Malik Barnes as a First-Team member as well as Darius Meeks and TJ Ruff as Second-Team honorees. Jacob Tylski was selected as an All-Academic honoree.

Giardina came to the Buccaneers after spending the last five seasons as the head coach at Albany State after taking on the role in 2017. He compiled a record of 37-17, including a 26-5 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) record, in that time frame including wins over multiple nationally ranked teams.

In his tenure at Albany State, Giardina found much success on and off the field, including a combined 17-5 record over his last two seasons and a SIAC Conference Championship in 2021 after having the No. 1 total defense in all of Division II football. Along with that storied 2021 season for the Rams, Giardina was named the SIAC Coach of the Year. Following that season, Giardina was selected to take part in the 2022 HBCU Legacy Bowl as a co-head coach. The HBCU Legacy Bowl is a post-season all-star game, showcasing the best NFL-eligible players from Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

Before arriving at Albany State, Giardina served as the Offensive Coordinator under Head Coach Jamey Chadwell, winning 36 games in four years at the height of Charleston Southern football. He called the plays for the first playoff teams in CSU program history (2015 and 2016), including the 2016 Big South Championship team. The 2015 team was ranked in the top-eight nationally and earned the first ever FCS playoff bid after a 10-3 output.

Before returning to Charleston Southern, Giardina served as the offensive coordinator at Delta State for one season after being the assistant head coach as well as special teams coordinator and running backs coach at CSU for a season. That season, he coached six All-Big South players, including NFL veteran Charles James. In those four seasons, CSU blocked six punts, had four kickoff returns for touchdowns and three punt returns TDs. His kickoff coverage teams ranked second in the Big South for three years and led the Big South in net punting in 2011.

Giardina started his coaching career at the University of Alabama after a three-year playing career for the Crimson Tide, serving as a graduate assistant under both Mike Shula and Nick Saban. In two years under Shula, Giardina and the Crimson Tide won the Cotton Bowl in 2005. His final year at Alabama came under Saban, where he tutored the likes of Andre Smith, Antwan Caldwell and Mike Johnson.

Giardina is married to the former Wimberly Edwards from Greenville, Alabama and together they have three sons, Frank, DeAra and Whitt.

CHARLESTON SOUTHERN COORDINATORS

SETH STRICKLAND

OFFENSIVE COORD.

1ST SEASON AT CSU

Strickland arrived at Charleston Southern in January of 2025 after working at Anderson since February 2022 in the same role and helping launch the program from its start to its inaugural season this fall. He previously worked with Giardina at Albany State University, joining the Golden Rams staff in 2020 before going to the Trojans.

In his past, he worked at IMG Academy where he was the quarterbacks coach for the 2019 season where he helped them to a 9-1 record and #8 ranking nationally. Prior to that, he was in the professional ranks in the same position for Steve Spurrier's staff on the Orlando Apollos of the Alliance of American Football (AAF) leading them to a league-best 7-1 mark. Their starting quarterback, Garrett Gilbert, led the league in yards (2,152) and passer rating (99.1) that season and is now a member of the Washington Commanders.

He got his start in coaching at the University of South Carolina where he spent six seasons under head coaches Spurrier and Will Muschamp. While there, he worked closely with future NFL draft picks including Hayden Hurst (2018 first round), Deebo Samuel (2019 second round) and Pharoah Cooper (2016 fourth round).

Strickland earned a bachelor's degree in political science from South Carolina in 2012. He was a three-year football letterman, three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and a six-time member of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Also, he was a member of the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was the MVP of the inaugural S.C. College All-Star Bowl game.

NICK REVEIZ

DEFENSIVE COORD.

3RD SEASON AT CSU

Nick Reveiz enters his third season as the defensive coordinator at Charleston Southern after joining during the program at start of 2023.

During his first year with the Buccaneers, he spearheaded one of the most feared defenses in the Big South/Ohio Valley Football Association. At the end of the season, Malik Barnes, a linebacker, was named as a First-Team All-Conference honoree. During the season, the team scored three defensive touchdowns which tied for 12th nationally in the category.

He came to Charleston Southern after a season at VMI. In that season VMI's defense at finished third overall in the Southern Conference in Redzone Defense while also finishing fifth in the Southern Conference in Passing Defense. He also coached Stone Snyder, a 3x All-American and finished 2022 third in the nation in total tackles average per game with 107 tackles through ten games.

Before that, Reveiz came from Albany State in Georgia where he spent the past five seasons. Albany State's defense was ranked #1 in scoring and total defense in 2021 and advanced to the opening round of the Division II playoffs. He coached the conference player of the year in the SIAC at Albany State, Stephan Pierre, who was also selected as the HBCU Gameday National D-II Defensive Player of the Year.

Reveiz also coached at Carson-Newman (2013-2016) where he was the running backs coach before transitioning to linebackers coach.

He played at the University of Tennessee where he was two-time team captain and earned preseason All-SEC honors. Reveiz was one of 10 Vols to start every game in 2010 for UT and posted at least 14 tackles in three different games.

His father, Fuad, was a Vols' placekicker who played in the NFL for 11 years.

Nick is married to the now Brittany Reveiz, and they have four children - Zeb, Zane, Zeal and Zadia. He graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.
