Stugart and the Lions advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the first time since joining the NCAA, and proved the doubters wrong. Lindenwood faced No. 5 Ouachita Baptist who stood undefeated on the season. The Lions fought their way to a 41-38 victory over the Tigers, earning their first playoff win since the 2009 season.

In 2018, Stugart led the Lions to 4-7 season with all wins coming on the road. The offense averaged the most plays per game in a single season with 76.0 during the 2018 season. Lindenwood recovered the ensuing onside kick, and drove down to score the game-winning touchdown with 36 seconds left in the game.

The 2018 season was highlighted by All-American tight end Erik Henneman. Henneman was named first-team All-American by the AFCA, D2CCA, and D2Football.com after hauling in nine touchdowns on 57 receptions for 639 yards. Joining Henneman on the first-team all-MIAA list was senior defensive lineman Jonathan Harris. Harris was named first-team all-MIAA for the second-straight season as he amassed 11.5 tackles for loss and had six sacks in his final season with the Lions. Stugart had 12 Lions earn all-MIAA honors. Following the 2019 NFL Draft, Harris signed a training camp invite deal with the Chicago Bears.

In his first season at Lindenwood, Stugart led the Lions to their best season in five years. Lindenwood won four games, including a road victory at Pittsburg State, one of the toughest places to play in the MIAA. The Lions were also much more competitive in their other games, and they improved their scoring margin by nearly eight points a game. Statistically, Lindenwood had both its top offensive and defensive numbers since the program's first year in the MIAA. The biggest change Stugart made, though, was improving the program's culture, and building the blocks for future success, including signing the largest recruiting class during Lindenwood's NCAA era in 2018. Stugart coached 13 players that earned all-MIAA honors, the highest mark for the program since Lindenwood joined the MIAA. Among the honorees was Jonathan Harris earning first-team all-MIAA honors on the defensive line.

Stugart was the head football coach at Sioux Falls from 2010-16, and turned the program into one of the top ones in NCAA Division II. In seven seasons, he had a record of 65-17, including a 32-5 mark over the last three years. In his first season in 2010, Stugart led the Cougars to a conference championship, and the team advanced to the NAIA National Championship game. The program began the transition to the NCAA Division II level after that. Sioux Falls won 20 games over the next three years, including a 9-2 mark in its first season as a member of the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) in 2012.

Stugart earned a bachelor's degree from Azusa Pacific University in 1995 and a master's degree from Northern Colorado in 2003. He earned three letters as a linebacker from Azusa Pacific. Stugart and his wife, Angie, have a son, Gunner, and a daughter, Gracie.

STEWARD FIELD AT HUNTER STADIUM

GAME 10 AT UT MARTIN

Hunter Stadium is one of the busiest places on campus throughout the year. It is the home for Lindenwood football, men's and women's soccerwomen's lacrosse. The stadium was built in 1976 by the St. Louis football Cardinals as a place to hold their training camp. In 1988, the stadium was renovated and a new artificial turf was installed. Eleven years later in 1999, Hunter Stadium debuted a new turf called Astro Play. After the 2004 season, Hunter Stadium would undergo its biggest renovation. The stadium was to be completely renovated, including end zone seating, a brand new two-story press box with luxury boxes, and a new concession area.

In 2009, the playing surface at the facility was replaced with Enviroturf. The next renovation was more of an addition. The Student-Athlete Center, an academic success center including coaches' offices, and new locker rooms, was built in 2012. The three-story building was added behind the south end zone. In 2018 a new Ram Turf surface was placed on the field.

The stadium hosted NAIA football playoff games in 2004, 2008, 2009, and 2010 and the NAIA Women's Soccer National Championships in 2001 and 2002. In 2009, 2010, and 2015, the St. Louis Rams held training camp scrimmages at Hunter Stadium. Each of the three games drew over 5,000 specators. During the NFL lockout in 2011, several St. Louis Rams players chose Lindenwood for offseason training. The stadium is named after Dr. Harlen C. Hunter, who founded the St. Louis Orthopedic Sports Medicine Clinic in Chesterfield in 1979, the first clinic of its kind in the St. Louis area. Hunter's contributions were the key to the upgrades of the playing surface in 1988.

With her husband, George Sibley, pioneer educator Mary Sibley founded Lindenwood as a school for young women in 1832, Lindenwood was committed to combining professional issues with academic pursuits, the social with the intellectual, and the spiritual with the physical. In short, Mary Sibley brought holistic higher education to the American frontier.

Lindenwood became a Presbyterian college in 1853 and still maintains a historical relationship with the Presbyterian Church. In 1918, Lindenwood became a four-year college, and in 1969, Lindenwood attempted to strengthen its financial base by becoming co-ed. The school altered its name in 1974. The Lindenwood Colleges referred to the school's individual operations for men and women and also to its accelerated evening program, the Lindenwood College for Individualized Education, and its graduate programs.

During the '70s and '80s, the school struggled with a changing economy and accumulated substantial indebtedness. Enrollments began to decline, and by the spring of 1989, the number of day students had dropped below 1,000. As well, institutional change during those decades had led to some loss of clarity of mission. In view of these fiscal and cultural challenges, the Board of Directors resolved to "refound" the school by returning to the fundamental precepts of individualized, holistic, values-oriented higher education that combines the practical with the academic. A president experienced in financial management and organizational revitalization was hired to lead the whole Lindenwood community in its collective renewal initiative. The result was a period of rapid growth and innovation that enabled the college to become the higher-education leader that it is today.

At the height of its revival, Lindenwood College became Lindenwood University in 1997. Enrollment burgeoned, and new construction arrived in late 1997 with the Hyland Performance Arena. By 1998-99, the annual enrollment approached 9,500, the faculty was growing, and the school balanced its budgets and increased revenues.

In 2000, Lindenwood dedicated the first of eight new residence halls to be constructed over the next decade—the first such construction in more than 30 years. In 2002, Lindenwood built the beautiful new Spellmann Campus Center. The 136,000-square-foot J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts opened in 2008.

The growth has not slowed. Additional construction has included expansion and renovation of Harmon Hall, now the home of the Robert W. Plaster School of Business and Entrepreneurship, and the 120,000-square-foot Evans Commons opened to great fanfare in 2011. A new athletics building was added in 2012 adjacent to Harlen Hunter Stadium, corresponding with Lindenwood's transition to the NCAA Division II.

Lindenwood opened in 2017 a 100,000-square-foot Library and Academic Resources Center at the front of the campus. The building serves as a hub for student services and academics.

Academically, Lindenwood has grown as well with extension of its longstanding general accreditation, the addition of numerous specialized accreditations for individual programs, and the addition of a number of degree programs, including the school's first doctoral degrees in the School of Education.

Mary Sibley ran a tightly managed school with a resourceful spirit and a clear purpose. She would have been proud of today's Lindenwood.
