UTRGV's Rally Falls Short in Loss at New Mexico State

April 8, 2017 at Presley Askew Field – The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley baseball team rallied for four unanswered runs in the eighth and ninth innings but fell 7-4 to New Mexico State University on Saturday at Presley Askew Field. Trailing 7-0, UTRGV (18-17, 2-6 WAC) got their first run of the ball game in the top of the eighth against the New Mexico State bullpen. After walks to seniors Jose Garcia and Joseph Collazo, pinch hitter Isaac Gonzalez hit a single to load the bases where freshman Tyler Torres walked to drive in Garcia from third. In the ninth, sophomore Anthony Gomez, who finished with a career-high four hits in the game, got it started with a single and then moved to second after a walk to senior Austin Siener. Garcia followed with an RBI double that scored Gomez and then Collazo hit an RBI single scoring Siener. One out later, senior Victor Garcia Jr. hit sacrifice fly that scored Garcia from third to put a cap on the scoring before Ruger Rodriguez closed it out for his sixth save of the season. The ball game remained scoreless until the bottom of the third when New Mexico State (19-13, 5-0 WAC) got an RBI single from Austin Botello that scored Joey Ortiz. New Mexico State would knock UTRGV starter Connor Grant (4-4) out of the ball game in the bottom of the fourth as they loaded the bases to set up a sacrifice fly off the bat of Marcus Still. Ortiz then followed with a two-run single and then got an RBI double by Botello to push their lead to 5-0. Grant took the loss after allowing five runs on five hits in three and two-third innings. New Mexico State got two more runs in the bottom of the fifth with solo home runs from Tristan Carranza and Brent Sakurai that made it 7-0. That made a winner out of Marcel Renteria (5-2) who pitched seven scoreless innings while scattering five hits. Josh Witherspoon had a nice outing out of the bullpen for UTRGV as he allowed just two runs in four and a third innings while scattering four hits and striking out three.

UTRGV Drops Opener at New Mexico State

April 7, 2017 at Presley Askew Field – The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley baseball team dropped the opening game of their three-game series with New Mexico State University 10-2 on Friday at Presley Askew Field. UTRGV (18-16, 2-5 WAC) jumped out in front in the first inning against New Mexico State starter Kyle Bradish. Junior Cris Castillo reached on an infield single and then moved to third on an error. UTRGV loaded the bases for senior Joseph Collazo, who followed with an RBI walk to make it 1-0. Castillo and senior Austin Siener reached to start the top of the third and then both moved up a base after a sacrifice bunt by senior Jose Garcia. UTRGV took advantage of a miscue by New Mexico State as Castillo came in to score on a passed ball to push their lead to 2-0. That would be all Bradish (5-0) would allow as he pitched in seven innings while allowing just two runs, one earned, while striking out five to earn his fifth win of the season. New Mexico State (18-13, 4-0 WAC) got on the board against UTRGV starter junior Carter Johnson in the bottom of the fifth. Tristan Carranza walked to start the inning and then one out later Mason Fishback hit a two-run home run to tie the game. Brent Sakurai followed with a triple and then came around to score on an RBI single by Jason Bush to give New Mexico State the 3-2 lead. New Mexico State knocked Johnson (4-4), who pitched six and a third innings while allowing six runs three of which were earned, out of the game in the bottom of the seventh as they scored three more runs to push their lead to 6-3. New Mexico State scored four more runs against the UTRGV bullpen in the bottom of the eighth to put the game out of reach.

UTRGV Falls at Texas State

April 5, 2017 at Bobcat Ballpark – The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) baseball team fell to Texas State 11-9k. Three UTRGV (18-15) players had multi-hit games, led by senior Joseph Collazo, who went 3-for-3 with a double, two walks, an RBI and a run scored. Junior Cris Castillo finished 2-for-6 with an RBI and a run scored while freshman Tyler Torres went 2-for-4 with an RBI. UTRGV struck right away, loading the bases with two outs in the first to set-up a two-run single by senior Victor Garcia Jr. Texas State (19-11) took the lead in the bottom of the inning, though, when Theodore Hoffman hit a three-run home run. UTRGV loaded the bases again in the second, setting up a run-scoring walk by senior Austin Siener and a Collazo RBI-infield single to make it 4-3. Texas State tied the game in the bottom of the inning on an error, and then took the lead in the third against junior George Lamb (0-1) on another error. Texas State scored two more unearned runs in the fourth on a Jonathan Ortega single and a Ryan Newman sacrifice fly to make it 7-4. Brandon Courville (2-2) kept UTRGV off the board for four innings of relief, but with one out in the sixth, Castillo singled through the right side with runners in scoring position to make it 7-5. Torres came up with an RBI-single in the seventh to make it a one-run game, but a two-out single by Luke Sherley in the bottom of the inning put Texas State up 8-6. Ortega pushed Texas State's lead to 11-6 in the eighth with a bases-clearing double. In the ninth, freshman La Joya alum Anibal Leal lifted a sacrifice fly before UTRGV loaded the bases with two outs. A pair of errors allowed UTRGV to pull within two and put the go-ahead run on base, but Siener flied out to end the game.

He was the toughest hitter to strike out in the WAC and the 62nd toughest in the NCAA at just once every 12.6 at-bats. Garcia finished the season with 13 doubles, three triples, 19 RBI and 65 runs scored while stealing 16 bases in 19 attempts. He also walked more often (18) than he struck out (14).
- UTRGV used 46 different unique starting lineups in 49 games. UTRGV has only repeated 16 lineups, not necessarily consecutively, in 264 games since 2012, using 242 unique lineups in that time.

Alumni in Minor League Baseball

- Three UTRGV baseball alumni were invited to MLB spring training in 2017, including outfielder Logan Landon and right-handed pitchers Sam Street and Michael Zouzalik.
- Four of the six UTRGV baseball alumni playing professionally in 2016 won championships, including Landon, Street, left-handed pitcher Alex Henson, and first baseman turned right-handed pitcher Roger Bernal.
- Landon (2014-15), a 10th round pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 2015 MLB Draft, participated in major league spring training in 2017 ... In 2016, Landon led the Great Lakes Loons (single-A), to the Midwest League Championship by hitting .263 with 21 doubles, two triples, nine home runs, 52 RBI, 50 runs scored and 22 stolen bases in 118 games. He made a diving catch in centerfield that ranked No. 4 on SportsCenter's Top 10 on May 5, 2016. Landon split his rookie season between three teams, including the Loons, Ogden Raptors (Pioneer, Class R+), and Arizona League Dodgers (Arizona League, Class R). Overall, Landon hit .273/.354/.391 with seven doubles, one triple, two home runs, 15 RBI and 23 runs scored in 35 games. He drew almost as many walks (15) as strikeouts (19) and was 5-for-5 in stolen base attempts.
- Henson (2014-15), who signed with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim as an undrafted free agent, helped the Orem Owlz, the rookie-league affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, to the Pioneer League Championship by going 1-1 with one save and a 3.00 ERA. In 22 relief appearances, Henson struck out 30 in 33 innings, allowing 29 hits and 17 walks. Opponents hit .234 against him. ## Manny Mantrana

Head Coach

Date Named: 8/28/08 • Head Coaching Experience: 19th Season • Birthdate: 9/28/64

Manny Mantrana has been the head baseball coach of the program for eight seasons. He spent the previous 12 seasons at Saint Thomas University, earning induction into their Hall of Fame and having his jersey retired in 2013-14.

2016: Earned Vaqueros Spirit Award as votes on by UTRGV coaches and staff ... Knocked off Texas State, a team receiving votes in the top 25 poll, 4-3 in 10 innings (3/22) ... Beat Pac-12 opponent Washington State 3-1 (2/25) ... Led team to 67 percent increase in WAC win total over previous season ... Coached UTRGV Male Athlete of the Year and All-WAC Second Team Catcher Jose Garcia, as well as UTRGV Male Breakthrough Athlete of the Year Scott Mercer and UTRGV Comeback Player of the Year Austin Oakes ... Garcia was the third-leading hitter in the WAC at .369.

2015: Led team to 8-3 start ... Helped convert senior All-WAC Second Team selection Logan Landon from a pitcher back into an outfielder, where he hadn't played regularly since college. Landon hit .382, third best in the WAC and 21st in the NCAA, with an on-base percentage of .476, second best in the WAC and 29th in the NCAA, and a slugging percentage of .623, second best in the WAC and 45th in the NCAA. He ranked among the WAC leaders in every other offensive category as well ... Utilized five freshman pitchers, had five freshmen pitchers, Johnny Gonzalez, Ryan Jackson, George Lamb, Zach Martinez, and Robert Quinoñez, who combine for 196.2 innings (43.8 percent of the team total) across 71 appearances (17 starts), going 7-12 with four saves and a 4.53 ERA. The freshmen combined to strikeout 149 while walking 78 and allowing 224 hits. Jackson, who earned WAC Pitcher of the Week honors after his first start, led the Team with 58 strikeouts while Quinoñez ranked second with 57.

2014: Led team to third-straight No. 2 seed in a conference tournament, as the Team went 17-10 in their first season in the Western Athletic Conference ... The Team won each of their final seven WAC series, including taking two out of three from eventual WAC Champion Sacramento State, while completing two sweeps ... Coached team to 3-1 win at No. 15 Oklahoma State (3/14) ... Helped develop Sam Street into the WAC Pitcher of the Year and one of the final 18 candidates for the National Pitcher of the Year award. Street led the NCAA in complete games and ranked second in wins. He also led the WAC in every major pitching category, becoming the first triple crown winner since 2011 ... Coached right fielder/catcher Alex Howe, an All-WAC First Team selection who led the Team in almost every offensive category and was among the WAC and NCAA leaders as well.

2013: Led the Team to their best-ever finish in Great West Conference (GWC) play, going 17-10 to finish in second place ... Included a program record seven road wins in GWC play ... The Team won 10 total road games, their highest total since 2008 (11) ... The Team also won their first 10 home GWC games ... Overall, the Team won 28 games and finished with their highest RPI (211) since 2007 (198) ... Coached pitcher Dusten Knight, who was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 28th round of that year's MLB Draft.

2012: Led the Team to the first winning season in 12 years, going 30-22 ... The season included a 21-6 record at home and a 16-12 record in GWC games ... The Team earned the number two seed in the Great West Conference Tournament ... Led team to 5-2 win at No. 8 Texas A&M (3/14) ... Mantrana also coached a .400 hitter for the second time in his tenure at UTPA, as Roger Bernal hit .414, the fourth highest average in program history. In 2010, Mantrana coached Garrett Blvone to a .428 average, the second highest in program history ... Coached third baseman/outfielder Angel Ibanez, who was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 28th round of that year's MLB Draft ... Also coached pitcher Michael Zouzalik, who signed with the Texas Rangers organization over the summer.

2008-11: Mantrana signed a contract extension on May 24, 2011 to remain in Edinburg for at least another three years. The program has come a long way since Mantrana's arrival in late September of 2008, when the program had only twenty-one players on the roster and no coaching staff.

1997-2008 (Saint Thomas University): Mantrana came to the Rio Grande Valley after serving 12 seasons as head baseball coach at Saint Thomas University in Miami Gardens, Florida. During his tenure, Mantrana quadrupled, from one to four, the program's number of trips to the College World Series. He was the winningest coach in STU history with a 451-220-1 (.672) record, including a 1997 season that ended with a program-record 54 victories. In addition to being the head coach, Mantrana served as the hitting and pitching coach for eight of his 12 seasons. Mantrana's squads appeared in three College World Series, and nine total postseasons. He was recognized as Southeast Coach of the Year on three occasions and also received Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year honors three times. In 1997, Mantrana guided his first squad at STU to a Florida Sun Conference Tournament Championship, Southeast Region appearance and finished with a 44-16 record. Mantrana's second season as head coach of the Bobcats ended in his first trip to the College World Series. He also led STU to the Southeast Region Championship and Florida Sun Conference regular season and tournament championships while going 54-14. In 1999 and 2000, Mantrana led his squad to two more Florida Sun Conference Tournament Championships and Southeast Region Tournaments. The 2000 squad made it to the World Series with a 43-14 record after winning the Super Regional Tournament as well as the regular season and tournament championships for the Florida Sun Conference. His 2007 squad earned a College World Series appearance with a 46-16-1 record and added Florida Sun Conference and Southeast Region Tournament Championships. More than 45 of Mantrana's players have received All-Conference or All-Region accolades with 20 of those players signing professional contracts. He also coached ten All-Americans, including five All-American scholar athletes. Additionally, approximately 95% of players who attended STU for four years earned a degree. Mantrana's players continue to perform extremely well in the classroom. Over half of the players recorded a 3.0 GPA or higher for the second straight year and his annual APR (Academic Progress Report) for student-athletes has been well above what the NCAA considers in good standing.

Early Coaching Career: Mantrana began his coaching career as head coach for his alma mater, Jackson High School in Miami, for four years. Mantrana then accepted an assistant coaching job at Miami-Dade Community College in 1995 under head coach Tony Simone where his responsibilities were coaching infielders and hitters while also serving as the recruiting coordinator.

Playing Career: Mantrana was an accomplished player for Miami-Dade College, Middle Georgia Community College and Louisiana State University. He was at Miami-Dade for one year before transferring to Middle Georgia where he helped lead his team to a second-place finish at the Junior College World Series. Mantrana was named to the JCWS All-Tournament team and was MVP of the region tournament as a second baseman. He spent the last two years of his college career at LSU under Hall of Fame coach Skip Bertman. Mantrana was selected by the Atlanta Braves in the 10th round of the 1981 MLB Draft as a shortstop out of Jackson High School. Mantrana was drafted another three times during his collegiate career before signing a free agent contract with the Detroit Tigers. Mantrana also played for the New York Mets and Milwaukee Brewers organizations.

Education: Mantrana earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Administration from STU in 1990 and then earned his master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from STU in 1997. He has also started and is currently working toward a Doctor of Education in Leadership and Management.

Personal: Mantrana is married to the former Marlane Schwartz and has one daughter, Maxine.
