Junior Ahren Freeman led the Vaqueros (15-16, 6-12 WAC) with a career-high 25 points on a career-high tying 9-of-16 shooting from the field and a career-high 7-of-12 shooting from the line to go with eight rebounds. Freshman Adante' Holiman scored 15 points. Senior Justin Johnson scored 12 points with four assists. Junior Daylen Williams grabbed seven rebounds with four assists, a season-high tying three steals, and four points. Taran Armstrong led the Lancers (16-14, 8-9 WAC) with 20 points, five rebounds, and seven assists. Blondeau Tchoukuiegn scored 19 points with five assists. Reed Nottage scored 17 points with seven rebounds. Riley Battin scored 10 points with eight rebounds. Tre Armstrong also scored 10 points. Malik Wade finished with seven points and 10 rebounds. Freeman hit an early jumper to tie the game at 2. The Lancers went on an 11-2 run to go up 13-4. A Freeman jumper and a layup and a 3 by Holiman helped the Vaqueros pull within 16-11. The Lancers went up 12 three times late in the second half, but with the score 35-23, Holiman converted a 3-point play to bring the Vaqueros within 35-26. The Vaqueros got as close as six at 37-31 on a Johnson layup with 3:12 remaining in the half. The Lancers, however, followed with a 13-2 run to take a 50-33 lead three minutes later. The Lancers pushed their lead to 25 at 67-42 with 13:18 remaining. That's when a Freeman layup sparked an 11-0 run to bring the Vaqueros within 67-53. Another Freeman layup kept the Vaqueros with 14 at 69-55 before a 7-2 run put the Lancers up 19. The Vaqueros responded with a 7-0 run on back-to-back layups by graduate student Dima Zdor and a Johnson 3 to make the score 76-64. The Vaqueros were again within 12 at 78-66 on a Freeman layup with 3:38 left, but that's as close as they got.

Johnston's Career Night Sparks UTRGV Men's Basketball To Overtime Win Against Tarleton

February 25, 2023 at UTRGV Fieldhouse – A career-high 36 points from The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) men's basketball sophomore Will Johnston sparked a thrilling 99-95 overtime victory for the Vaqueros against the Tarleton Texans. Johnston drained seven three-pointers, including two in the overtime period, to give UTRGV (15-15, 6-11 Western Athletic Conference) the edge in the back-and-forth contest. Senior Justin Johnson scored 16 points and dished out six assists with seven rebounds and one steal in his final home game. Junior Ahren Freeman and graduate student Dima Zdor each scored 13, and freshman Adante' Holiman added 12. Junior Daylen Williams recorded nine rebounds and nine assists. Freeman had eight rebounds and Holiman tallied five assists. After the game, UTRGV head coach Matt Figger grabbed the public address announcer's mic and thanked the fans for cheering the Vaqueros to victory on Saturday and supporting them all season. He ended by saying "We got a lot more things to do." Tarleton (15-15, 9-9 WAC) was led by Shamir Bogues 19 points. Shakur Daniel added 15 points and a team-high five assists. Jakorie Smith, Kiandre Gaddy and Lue Williams contributed 14, 13 and 11 points, respectively. Bogues and Smith swiped five steals each and Daniel had three. The Vaqueros and Texans exchanged baskets in the early part of the game. After UTRGV went up 10-6, Tarleton went on a 7-0 run to get back on top. Holiman ended the run with a tough layup, finishing the reverse through traffic. Johnston tied the game at 15-15 with a free throw, then the squads went back to swapping scores to keep the contest tight throughout the first half. Johnston knocked down a pair of free throws to tie the game again at 24-24. After a block by Williams resulted in a shot clock violation, Johnston drained back-to-back three-pointers to extend UTRGV's lead to 30-26. Tarleton closed the first half on an 8-3 run to take a 40-38 lead into the locker room at halftime. Holiman drained a three-pointer with seven seconds on the clock to trim the lead. Tarleton forced 14 UTRGV turnovers in the first half to help them gain control of the contest. The Texans started the second half strong to open up a 47-40 advantage. A three from Johnston and a hook shot from Williams tied the game, then the teams once again started swapping baskets and leads. With the game tied at 66-66, UTRGV went on a 5-0 to create its biggest cushion of the second half. The Vaqueros were efficient at the free throw line, making 12-of-15 in the second half and hitting some clutch ones late to maintain a slim lead in the tight, back-and-forth battle. Johnston dished out two massive assists to put UTRGV on top late, first feeding Johnston as he nailed his fifth three-pointer of the night and then setting up an alley-oop dunk by Zdor. But with UTRGV up 83-81, a blocking foul was called against the Vaqueros and Tarleton's basket was made. Tarleton, however, missed the free throw, leaving the contest tied once again at 83-83. Both teams made eight free throws in the overtime period. Along with Johnston's three-pointers, UTRGV outrebounding Tarleton 6-2 in overtime made a massive difference. Freeman and Williams were major contributors down the stretch. Trailing 97-94, Tarleton recorded back-to-back offensive rebounds to take two three-pointers, but UTRGV's inspired defensive effort caused two misses. The Vaqueros controlled the boards and were dynamite at the free throw line to secure the win.

UTRGV Falls Short Against Utah Tech

February 23, 2023 at UTRGV Fieldhouse – The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Vaqueros men's basketball team fell short in a good effort, 88-81, against the Utah Tech (UTU) Trailblazers. UTRGV (14-15, 5-11 Western Athletic Conference) trimmed an 18-point deficit to four points in the second half. Senior Justin Johnson led all scorers with 30 points, shooting 68.8 percent from the field and hitting two 3-pointers while swiping three steals and six rebounds. Freshman Adante' Holiman was a major contributor late in the game, scoring 18 points on 4-of-6 shooting from behind the arc with four assists and one block. Junior Daylen Williams added 13 points, four rebounds, three assists and one block. Sophomore Will Johnston contributed eight and junior Ahren Freeman scored six points with a team-high nine rebounds. UTU (12-16, 4-11 WAC) was led by Cameron Gooden's 26 points on 80 percent shooting from the field and at the free throw line. Gooden also made 6-of-7 3-pointers. Isaiah Pope added 18 points, Jacob Nicolds scored 16 and Tanner Christensen scored 12. The Trailblazers got off to a fast start aided by a pair of 3-pointers from Gooden to take a 12-4 lead. The Vaqueros went on a small run to cut the deficit to five at 20-15, but UTU went back up by nine. UTRGV got it to a one-possession game, trailing 28-25, behind an improved defensive effort and Johnson's inspired offensive performance. After a deep 3-pointer by Johnson to beat the shot clock, the Trailblazers leaned on their speed and size to expand the lead again, controlling the boards to go up 43-32 following a Gooden pullup jumper. UTU outrebounded UTRGV 16-11 and shot 66.7 percent from the field in the first half. Williams was strong down low and Holiman drained back-to-back quick-release 3-pointers to provide a spark for the Vaqueros late in the first half. Johnson led all scorers with 16 points at halftime, while Holiman and Williams scored 10 each in the first 10 minutes. UTU held a 51-42 lead at the break following a buzzer-beating putback layup by Frank Staine. Freeman got the scoring started in the second half, flying in to snag an offensive rebound and finishing the put-back layup through contact. But UTU continued to rebound well, particularly on the defensive boards, and kept the hot shooting going to claim a 65-49 lead at the under-15 media timeout. The Vaqueros strung together some defensive stops then applied good pressure on a UTU inbound play leading to a Johnson steal and layup to cut the deficit to 68-57 midway through the second half. Gooden, however, couldn't seem to miss as the Trailblazers continued to shoot at a high percentage to get their largest lead of the game at 77-59. UTRGV's defense showed up again to keep the Trailblazers scoreless for a good stretch of time, with Holiman drawing an offensive foul in that period. Johnston and Johnson drilled 3-pointers, and Johnson finished a strong drive following a stop with a layup to aid a 10-1 run for the Vaqueros. Freeman made another great play in the paint, reeling in an offensive rebound and going up strong for the bucket to trim the lead down to 78-71 with five minutes to play. Freeman followed that up with a steal, then Williams cleaned up his miss and drained a layup to get within five. After a UTU bucket, Holiman drained his third 3-pointer of the game to make it 80-76 and hit his fourth with 17.3 on the clock to keep the game within reach. UTRGV's early foul trouble put the Trailblazers in the double bonus for the final stretch of the game, and they shot 8-for-10 from the charity stripe and recorded two steals in the final minutes to put the game away.

Matt Figger

Head Coach

Date Named: 3/29/21 • Collegiate Head Coaching Experience: Sixth Season • Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky

UTRGV Athletics hired 2017-18 Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year Matt Figger, who had been the head coach at Austin Peay for the previous four seasons, as the men's basketball head coach on March 29, 2021.

2021-22: In Figger's first season at the helm, he helped UTRGV get off to a hot start, with a 4-2 record that was a bucket away from behind 5-1 entering a matchup at #14 Illinois that UTRGV almost won despite dressing only seven players, as the game was tied at 82 with 3:03 remaining and was still a one possession game with 1:57 to go ... Figger led UTRGV to their largest-ever margin of victory over UTSA, winning by 18 on the road, as well as a WAC sweep of Lamar ... Figger coached Justin Johnson to All-WAC Second Team and All-Newcomer Team honors. As of March 9, Figger's squad led the NCAA in free throw attempts (717) while ranking eighth in makes (498) ... The Vaqueros were also 94th in three-point defense (32.1%).

Austin Peay (2017-21): Figger compiled a 76-51 (.598) record, including a 49-25 (.662) mark in OVC play.

When Figger arrived at Austin Peay in 2017-18, he took a team that had gone 11-19 (7-9 OVC) the previous year and guided them to the Collegen Insider.com Tournament (CIT) Quarterfinals, ending the season with a 19-15 record (12-6 OVC). Figger's teams went on to go 22-11 (13-5 OVC) in 2018-19 and 21-12 (14-4 OVC) in 2019-20 before finishing this past season 14-13 (10-10 OVC).

Under Figger's tutelage, the Governors made one of the NCAA's largest defensive turnarounds in 2017-18, going from allowing 83.8 points per game (ppg) to 71.2 ppg, with the 12.6 drop in points allowed the second-largest in the nation.

In his second season, the Governors reached 20 victories for the first time since 2010-11. Figger also became the first Austin Peay coach with double-digit conference wins in his first two seasons.

Among the student-athletes to play under Figger was two-time OVC Player of the Year Terry Taylor, who recorded an NCAA-best 20 double-doubles in 27 games this past season while also leading the NCAA in offensive rebounding at 5.15 per game.

Off the court, Figger's teams displayed impressive academic prowess, recording a team grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 in each of his last three semesters. This includes a 3.538 GPA in the fall of 2020 and a 3.542 in the spring of 2020.

Figger's teams were also active in the community. In 2019, for example, student-athlete Zach Glotta was one of 46 Division I basketball players nominated to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Give Back Team, recognizing men's basketball student-athletes for outstanding community service.

South Carolina (2012-17): Figger went to Austin Peay on the heels of a whirlwind Final Four run as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at South Carolina. The Gamecocks were the East Region champion, taking down Marquette, Duke, Baylor and Florida. Figger, who was at South Carolina from 2012-17, assisted in the revival of a program that hadn't enjoyed a 20-win season since 2008-09, had not advanced to an NCAA Tournament since 2003-04, and had not won an NCAA Tournament game since 1973.

Kansas State (2007-12): Figger arrived in South Carolina after serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State from 2007-12. There, Figger was part of a staff that secured at least 21 wins and finished fifth or better in the Big 12 each season. In his first season, Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game since 1988 while posting a 20-win season – just its fourth since 1990. The 2008-09 squad posted 22 wins and earned an at-large bid to the NIT, which set the stage for a record-setting season in 2009-10, when the team posted a school-record 29 wins en route to the program's first NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance in over two decades. The Wildcats defeated six ranked opponents that season, finishing the year ranked seventh in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 polls.

Figger signed two McDonald's All-Americans at Kansas State, including 2008 National Freshman and Player of the Year Michael Beasley, a first-round pick in the NBA Draft. Beasley was one of five All-Americans tutored by Figger.

South Alabama (2003-07): Prior to his time at Kansas State, Figger served a brief stint as the director of operations at Arkansas (April-June 2007), which followed five seasons as an assistant coach at South Alabama (2003-07). South Alabama enjoyed some of its greatest success during Figger's time on staff, especially the final two seasons when the team reached the NCAA Tournament and NIT, respectively.

Junior College (1993-02): Prior to his time at South Alabama, Figger spent 10 years as an assistant coach in the junior college ranks, including stints at Wabash Valley (1993-94), Vincennes (1994-99) and Odessa College (2000-02). His teams won 20 or more games eight times, captured six region and four district titles and advanced to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) national tournament four times.

Personal: Originally from Jenkins, Ky., Figger earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky in 1995. He played baseball at Pikeville College from 1990-91 before completing his education at Eastern Kentucky.

Figger and his wife, Katrina, have one son, Vince.
