Elliott's Career Night Not Enough as UTRGV Falls at Stephen F. Austin

February 8, 2024 at Johnson Coliseum – Junior guard Elijah Elliott scored a career-high 40 points as The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) Vaqueros men's basketball team battled the Stephen F. Austin (SFA) Lumberjacks but fell 92-84. Elliott shot 56.5% from the field, making three three-pointers and 11-of-13 free throws as he dished out two assists and recorded two steals in a dazzling individual performance to lead UTRGV (6-17, 2-10 WAC). Junior guard Sherman Brashear added 18 points with four three-pointers and senior forward Daylen Williams tallied 10 rebounds, four assists, two steals and four points. Latrell Jossell led SFA (14-9, 7-5 WAC) with 24 points, seven assists and three steals. Matt Hayman scored 15 points with seven rebounds and five assists, and Nana Antwi-Boasiako added 12 points. The first half was defensive at the start, with the big men battling under the hoop and UTRGV playing good defense to keep the scoring low. The Vaqueros made a pair of nice passes into the paint and used Elliott's shifty offense to keep the score close. SFA got on a roll midway through the half, using its speedy offense to cut through the lane and finish at the basket. The Lumberjacks used an 11-0 run to take a 36-18 lead, the largest advantage of the half, with under five minutes to play. UTRGV showed great fight to close the half, sparked by aggressive defense from redshirt freshman guard C.J. Booker and Elliott's consistent offense. Brashear put together a scoring flurry in the final minute, knocking down three consecutive buckets with a mid-range jumper and a pair of three-pointers. The half ended with four threes in a row in the final 45 minutes, with SFA making two to hold a 47-36 lead at the break. The Vaqueros came out strong to start the second half. Elliott snatched a steal and dished it out to Brashear, who stayed hot despite the pause in action and hit a quick-trigger three-pointer. On the next possession, Brashear was fouled behind the arc and hit all three free throws to cut the deficit to 51-44. UTRGV upped its defensive intensity while momentum was on its side, forcing sloppy passes from the 'Jacks that the Vaqueros intercepted for steals. They turned the defense into offense and kept the gap in single digits behind fast transitions led by Elliott. After a pair of free throws from Elliott, UTRGV cut the deficit to 58-53. With 13 minutes to play, the Vaqueros flipped the game on its head. UTRGV went on a 9-0 run, locking down defensively and playing extremely fast on offense. Booker found freshman J.J. Howard with a great pass to spark the run, then Elliott put a defender on skates and knocked down a three. After a pair of free throws from Williams to tie the contest, Elliott raced through the defense for a driving layup to put the Vaqueros up, 62-60, taking the lead with 11:57 to play for the first time since the first basket of the game. The game slowed down after UTRGV's flurry, and the 'Jacks used a 5-0 run to create a little bit of space. Elliott hit a tough jumper to keep it a one-possession contest at 71-68. But SFA put together another run to grow the lead to nine and stayed in the driver's seat from that point on, extending the advantage to 83-69 with under four to play. Elliott's motor never slowed down. He scored UTRGV's next 10 points, turning in an incredible performance, but SFA pulled away late and secured the win.

Head Coach

Date Named: 3/29/21 • Collegiate Head Coaching Experience: Seventh Season • Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky

UTRGV Athletics hired 2017-18 Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year Matt Figger, who had been the head coach at Austin Peay for the previous four seasons, as the men's basketball head coach on March 29, 2021.

UTRGV scored 2,518 points, the second-highest total in program history while also ranking third in field goal defense (.442) and free throw attempts (802), fourth 3-point defense (.332) and free throws made (560), and sixth in 3-pointers made (222) ... Team led the NCAA and the WAC in free throw attempts per game (25.1) while ranking fourth in the NCAA and first in the WAC in free throws made per game (17.5) ... Coached Justin Johnson to All-WAC First Team honors and Daylen Williams to UTRGV Male Newcomer of the Year recognition.

2021-22: In Figger's first season at the helm, he helped UTRGV get off to a hot start, with a 4-2 record that was a bucket away from behind 5-1 entering a matchup at #14 Illinois that UTRGV almost won despite dressing only seven players, as the game was tied at 82 with 3:03 remaining and was still a one possession game with 1:57 to go ... Figger led UTRGV to their largest-ever margin of victory over UTSA, winning by 18 on the road, as well as a WAC sweep of Lamar ... Figger coached Justin Johnson to All-WAC Second Team and All-Newcomer Team honors. As of March 9, Figger's squad led the NCAA in free throw attempts (717) while ranking eighth in makes (498) ... The Vaqueros were also 94th in three-point defense (32.1%).

Austin Peay (2017-21): Figger compiled a 76-51 (.598) record, including a 49-25 (.662) mark in OVC play.

When Figger arrived at Austin Peay in 2017-18, he took a team that had gone 11-19 (7-9 OVC) the previous year and guided them to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) Quarterfinals, ending the season with a 19-15 record (12-6 OVC). Figger's teams went on to go 22-11 (13-5 OVC) in 2018-19 and 21-12 (14-4 OVC) in 2019-20 before finishing this past season 14-13 (10-10 OVC).

Under Figger's tutelage, the Governors made one of the NCAA's largest defensive turnarounds in 2017-18, going from allowing 83.8 points per game (ppg) to 71.2 ppg, with the 12.6 drop in points allowed the second-largest in the nation.

In his second season, the Governors reached 20 victories for the first time since 2010-11. Figger also became the first Austin Peay coach with double-digit conference wins in his first two seasons.

Among the student-athletes to play under Figger was two-time OVC Player of the Year Terry Taylor, who recorded an NCAA-best 20 double-doubles in 27 games this past season while also leading the NCAA in offensive rebounding at 5.15 per game.

Off the court, Figger's teams displayed impressive academic prowess, recording a team grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 in each of his last three semesters. This includes a 3.538 GPA in the fall of 2020 and a 3.542 in the spring of 2020.

Figger's teams were also active in the community. In 2019, for example, student-athlete Zach Glotta was one of 46 Division I basketball players nominated to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Give Back Team, recognizing men's basketball student-athletes for outstanding community service.

South Carolina (2012-17): Figger went to Austin Peay on the heels of a whirlwind Final Four run as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at South Carolina. The Gamecocks were the East Region champion, taking down Marquette, Duke, Baylor and Florida. Figger, who was at South Carolina from 2012-17, assisted in the revival of a program that hadn't enjoyed a 20-win season since 2008-09, had not advanced to an NCAA Tournament since 2003-04, and had not won an NCAA Tournament game since 1973.

Kansas State (2007-12): Figger arrived in South Carolina after serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State from 2007-12. There, Figger was part of a staff that secured at least 21 wins and finished fifth or better in the Big 12 each season. In his first season, Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game since 1988 while posting a 20-win season – just its fourth since 1990. The 2008-09 squad posted 22 wins and earned an at-large bid to the NIT, which set the stage for a record-setting season in 2009-10, when the team posted a school-record 29 wins en route to the program's first NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance in over two decades. The Wildcats defeated six ranked opponents that season, finishing the year ranked seventh in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 polls.

Figger signed two McDonald's All-Americans at Kansas State, including 2008 National Freshman and Player of the Year Michael Beasley, a first-round pick in the NBA Draft. Beasley was one of five All-Americans tutored by Figger.

South Alabama (2003-07): Prior to his time at Kansas State, Figger served a brief stint as the director of operations at Arkansas (April-June 2007), which followed five seasons as an assistant coach at South Alabama (2003-07). South Alabama enjoyed some of its greatest success during Figger's time on staff, especially the final two seasons when the team reached the NCAA Tournament and NIT, respectively.

Junior College (1993-02): Prior to his time at South Alabama, Figger spent 10 years as an assistant coach in the junior college ranks, including stints at Wabash Valley (1993-94), Vincennes (1994-99) and Odessa College (2000-02). His teams won 20 or more games eight times, captured six region and four district titles and advanced to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) national tournament four times.

Personal: Originally from Jenkins, Ky., Figger earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky in 1995. He played baseball at Pikeville College from 1990-91 before completing his education at Eastern Kentucky.

Figger and his wife, Katrina, have one son, Vince.
