LEADING THE ROADRUNNERS

- The Roadrunners return three starters from the 2018-19 season, including the nation's top scoring backcourt in juniors Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace. Jackson, picked as the preseason player of the year by Blue Ribbon Yearbook, won the C-USA scoring crown with 22.9 points per game as a sophomore. Wallace, a 6-foot-3 native of Dallas, Texas, averaged 20.2 points per game. UTSA also returns senior forward Byron Frohnen, who has made 100 consecutive starts to open his collegiate career and ranks fifth in program history in rebounds.
- UTSA also returns a bevy of contributors from a year ago, including senior forward Atem Bior, sophomore guard Adokiye Iyaye and sophomore forward Adrian Rodriguez. UTSA has added junior guard Knox Hellums – who sat out last year after transferring from Pepperdine – Italian point guard Erik Czumbel, point guard Makani Whiteside, forward Phoenix Ford and former junior college All-American Luka Barisic. Four-star freshman center Jacob Germany joins the Roadrunners as the highest ranked recruit in program history. Freshman Austin Timperman is coming off a redshirt season.
- Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Steve Henson, the Roadrunners are built on tempo and athleticism. In 2018-19, UTSA ranked 19th in the NCAA and second in C-USA in pace of play, according to the KenPom rankings. UTSA had four games with at least 100 points scored last year, its most since 1992-93.

WALLACE ON NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

- UTSA junior guard Keaton Wallace has been named to the preseason Watch List for the 2019-20 Lute Olson Award, given annually to the nation's top division 1 player, it was announced.
- Wallace, a native of Dallas, Texas, is one of 40 players on the preseason listing of the award. A product of Richardson High School, Wallace is one of two Conference USA student-athletes on the list, joining Western Kentucky's Charles Bassey.
- A 6-foot-3 guard, Wallace is coming off a season where he averaged 20.2 points, 5.0 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.3 steals per game as a sophomore. He was named first-team NABC All-District and All-Conference USA in 2018-19, while teaming with Jhivvan Jackson to form the nation's highest scoring backcourt duo. The pair averaged 43.1 points per game as sophomores, the fourth-highest duo in the nation. He shattered UTSA's single-season school record with 121 made 3-pointers in 2018-19 and enters UTSA's second game of the year needing just two 3-pointers to break the career record.
- Wallace had 17 points in UTSA season lidlifter on Tuesday at Oklahoma, adding nine rebounds and four assists. In his career, Wallace has averaged 15.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game over 68 outings.
- The award is named in honor of Hall of Fame coach Lute Olson, who won 776 games in 34 seasons, 24 of which were spent at the University of Arizona. During that stretch he led the Wildcats to 11 Pac-10 Conference titles, 23 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, four Final Four appearances and a National Championship in 1997.

NORMAN, Okla. -- A 14-0 run in the opening minutes of the second half spurred Oklahoma to an 85-67 win over UTSA men's basketball in the season opener for both teams, on Tuesday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

- Southern Illinois (1-0), coached by first-year skipper Byran Mullins -- a SIU graduate -- went 17-15 overall and 10-8 in the Missouri Valley Conference last season. The Sulukis have to replace three starters from last year, each double-digit scorers, but return two starters. Guards Aaron Cook averaged 10.4 points and 2.4 minutes per game last season, while Eric McGill averaged 9.5 points and 5.7 rebounds. SIU has added several key newcomers, including Northwestern graduate transfer Barrett Benson, a 6-foot-10, 240-pound center. SIU posted a 76-48 win over Illinois Wesleyan to open its season on Tuesday in Carbondale, Ill.
- Oakland (1-0) is led by 36th year head coach Greg Kampe, who has won 618 games in his decorated career. The Grizzlies went 16-17 in 2018-19 and posted an 11-7 record in the Horizon League. The Golden Grizzlies lost a pair of starters, including leading scorer Jaevin Cumberland, a 6-foot-3 guard who averaged 17.2 points and 3.5 assists per game last season. Oakland returns a pair of fifth-year seniors in the post, including Xavier Hill-Mais, who averaged a team-leading 18.3 points and 7.2 rebounds per game, and 6-foot-11 center Brad Brechting, who sports 9.5 points and 5.9 rebounds per game a year ago. On Tuesday, OU opened the season with a 94-66 win over Goshen College (Ind.).

DYNAMIC DUO LEADS NATION IN BACKCOURT SCORING

- The Roadrunners are spurred by the nation's leading scoring backcourt, juniors Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace.
- The dynamic duo combined to lead the NCAA's backcourts with 43.1 points per game, with Jackson scoring a C-USA best 22.9 points per game and Wallace chipping in 20.2 point per outing.
- The pair are electric, with Jackson going for a conference-record 46 points at Western Kentucky in 2018-19 on a Thursday and Wallace charting 45 points in a win at Marshall on a Saturday.
- Jackson's scoring output came a year after he suffered a season-ending injury during a 2017-18 C-USA Freshman of the Year campaign. Jackson returned after missing the first four games of the year in 2018-19 and was on a significant minutes restriction for the next five games. In his 24 games as a starter in 2018-19, Jackson averaged 24.1 points and 4.6 rebounds per game in 33.4 minutes. With Jackson as a starter, Wallace's offensive output jumped, averaging 21 points and 5.5 rebounds per game over 33.5 minutes.

FROHNEN AN EXPERIENCED WEAPON

- Senior forward Byron Frohnen is one of the most experienced players in program history. He ranks fifth in UTSA history in rebounds (690), third in games started (100), eighth in field-goal percentage (51.1) and 36th in points (751).
- The Las Vegas native has made all 101 starts in his career, ranking tied for third with Leon Watson for games started and just 21 games shy of the program record, held by Jeromie Hill (122).
- Frohnen currently has the third-longest active streak of consecutive games started, just shy of Oregon's senior guard Payton Pritchard (109) and Penn State's Lamar Stevens (105).

WALLACE FROM THREE

- Junior guard Keaton Wallace has etched his name throughout the record book with his ability to launch from 3-point range.
- The Dallas, Texas, native shattered the program record for 3-pointers in a season in 2018-19, connecting on 121 of 317 3-pointers, good for 38.2 percent. This came a year after Wallace drilled 74 of 223 3-pointers as a freshman, good for 33.2 percent, and the 13th-most 3-pointers in UTSA single-season history.
- He ranks third in the nation with 42 straight games with a 3-pointer, just shy of Eastern Illinois' Mack Smith (50 consecutive games) and Lafayette's Justin Jaworski (49).
- Wallace needs two made 3-pointers to tie the program mark for career 3's.

A WIN WOULD ...

- Improve UTSA to 1-1
- Make head coach Steve Henson 52-50 in his career

REPLACING ALLEN, DE NICOLAO

- The biggest question mark entering the 2019-20 season is how UTSA will replace lineup stalwarts point guard Giovanni De Nicolao and forward Nick Allen. Allen shattered the program record for career games played in 2018-19 and has signed to play professionally in Hungary. De Nicolao graduated in just three years and signed to play professionally in Italy.
- The pair played a vital role in their off and on-court leadership, self-less approach to the game and ability to make those around them better. De Nicolao started all 100 games of his career as the point guard and averaged 8.2 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game. Allen finished his 129-game UTSA career with 7.0 points and 4.4 rebounds per game.
- Candidates to replace De Nicolao at the point guard range from returning scoring guards Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace, and freshmen Erik Czumbel and Makani Whiteside. Whiteside boasts elite scoring potential after averaging 29 points per game as a senior in Madera, Calif., and Czumbel has great international experience as a member of Team Italy at the U-18 World Championships.
- At the post position that Allen vacates, UTSA signed junior college all-American Luka Barisic, who averaged 17 points per game last year at Highland Community College in Illinois. UTSA has also signed the highest ranked recruit in program history, four-star center Jacob Germany. A 6-foot-11, 220-pound athlete, Germany will have an immediate impact at the rim. The Roadrunners also welcome back senior forward Atem Bior, who average 5.6 points and 5.0 rebounds as a junior college transfer in 2018-19, and redshirt sophomore forward Adrian Rodriguez. Rodriguez, a native of Tulsa, Okla., suffered a season-ending injury in his collegiate debut in 2017-18 and returned to play vital reserve minutes as a redshirt freshman in 2018-19.

NATION'S FOURTH HIGHEST SCORING DUO

- UTSA boasts the nation's fourth-highest scoring duo and the top scoring pair among backcourts, sophomore guards Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace, who combine to score 43.1 points per game.

GERMANY UTSA'S HIGHEST RANKED SIGNEE

- Part of building the UTSA basketball program for coach Steve Henson has been an ability to sign some of the top recruits, and classes, in school history. UTSA welcomed five newcomers for 2019-20, including freshman center Jacob Germany, a four-star recruit who is the highest ranked prospect UTSA has signed.
- A native of a small town in Oklahoma, Kingston, Germany is a 6-foot-11, 220-pound left-handed center who was ranked as a four-star recruit by ESPN and a composite three-star by Rivals and 247Sports. Rated as the top collegiate prospect in Oklahoma last year by OKPreps, Germany led Kingston HS to the 3A state championship, going for 21 points and 12 rebounds in the state championship game with his team finishing the year with a 28-2 record.

BIOR, IYAYE TO EXPAND ON ROLES FROM 2018-19

- A pair of key contributors from a year ago, senior forward Atem Bior and sophomore guard Adokiye Iyaye, are primed to take the next steps in their development during an encore season in 2019-20.
- Bior, a 6-foot-7, 225-pound native of Brisbane, Australia, played in all 32 games in 2018-19 and made 12 starts in place of Jhivvan Jackson - who was recovering from injury while UTSA went with a three-forward lineup - and in the stead of Nick Allen, who missed time late with a foot injury. Bior averaged 5.6 points and 5.0 rebounds per game, logging 20.7 minutes while shooting 48.2 percent from the field.

- Iyaye, who scored over 1,800 career points at Oklahoma City's Putnam City North High School, was a vital sixth man in 2018-19, playing in all 32 games off the bench. He averaged 18.3 minutes, 4.9 points and 1.4 rebounds per game, serving as the go-to bench player in the backcourt behind high-volume scorers Jackson and Keaton Wallace - the nation's leading scoring backcourt.

ITALIAN POINT GUARD PIPELINE

- With the graduation of Italian point guard Giovanni De Nicolao to professional basketball following his 100-start UTSA career, the Roadrunners are in search of a new man to run the point.
- Among those candidates are freshman Erik Czumbel, who joins De Nicolao as UTSA point guards hailing from Italy.
- Czumbel, a 6-foot-3 native of Verona, Italy, had a decorated career internationally playing for Team Italy in the FIBA U-18 European Championships. He averaged 8.3 points, 2.4 assists and 1.6 rebounds per game of 23.5 minutes during the FIBA U-18 European Championships.

WELCOME TO THE FLOOR, KNOX!

- For the first time since the 2017-18 season while at Pepperdine University, UTSA junior guard Knox Hellums will suit up on the bench with an ability to play. Hellums joined the UTSA roster last year and had to sit out due to NCAA transfer policies.
- Hellums was limited to practice as a redshirt last year but shined during the Costa Rica Foreign Tour, averaging 13.7 points and 4.3 rebounds per game.
- Hellums averaged 4.5 points and 1.5 rebounds per game as a sophomore at Pepperdine, after averaging 4.5 points in 30 games as a freshman.
- He starred at Concordia Lutheran High School in Tomball, Texas, after opening his high school career at Klein in Spring, Texas. He averaged 19.6 points per game as a senior and 20.6 points as a junior.

JHIVVAN BACK FOR MORE

- UTSA's offensive attack is carried by its dynamic duo of junior guards Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace, a pair who have the ability to light up the scoreboard and put up 40 or more points on any given night. Jackson has been a scoring machine since he arrived on campus to win C-USA Freshman of the Year honors in 2017-18.
- Jackson averaged 18.4 points per game as a freshman, connecting on 43.1 percent from 3-point land to win top freshman honors in the circuit. This came after he missed the final three games of the year after suffering a season-ending knee injury.
- He returned after missing the first three games of 2019-20 and played the first five games of his season on a minute restriction. Jackson finished the year with All-Conference USA honors from the league coaches and all-district accolades from the USWBA and the NABC. Jackson won UTSA's first league scoring crown since 2003-04 with 22.9 points per game, adding 4.1 rebounds per outing over 30.8 minutes per game. He and Wallace combined to rank fourth in the NCAA in scoring duos (43.1 points per game), while leading the nation's backcourts in scoring.
- Jackson returned to full speed during the offseason, losing the knee brace which he lugged around during his sophomore season. He enters the preseason as the pick for player of the year by Blue Ribbon Yearbook and is a unanimous all-conference selection by Blue Ribbon, Lindy's, Street & Smith's and Athlon Sports.

CROATIAN MUSCLE

- With the departure of four-year fixture Nick Allen in the post, the Roadrunners are in need of production in 2019-20 from a variety of post players, including junior forward Luka Barisic. Allen was a stretch 4, capable of burning a defense that sagged towards UTSA's dynamic scoring guards, and owning the toughness, length and physicality to bang in the post with some of C-USA's better inside presences.
- Barisic is a prime candidate to step into the starting lineup in place of Allen in 2019-20. A 6-foot-10, 240-pound native of Osijek, Croatia, Barisic is coming off a third-team junior college All-America season at Illinois' Highland Community College. He averaged 17.9 points and 6.8 rebounds per game in 2018-19, shooting 42 percent from 3-point land and 49.6 percent from the field.

- As a freshman at Highland CC, he averaged 15.1 points and 4.8 rebounds per game on 52.9 percent shooting from the field.

PLAYING FAST

- A hallmark of Coach Steve Henson's style of play at UTSA is pace. The Roadrunners are built on speed, athleticism and scoring ability, boosted by the dynamic play of guards Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace, who led the nation's backcourts in scoring with 43.1 points per game.

RECAP

OKLAHOMA 85, UTSA 67 // NORMAN, OKLA. // LLOYD NOBLE CENTER // NOV. 5, 2019

NORMAN, Okla. -- A 14-0 run in the opening minutes of the second half spurred Oklahoma to an 85-67 win over UTSA men's basketball in the season opener for both teams, on Tuesday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

UTSA (0-1) and Oklahoma (1-0) went into halftime locked in a 36-36 game -- including a 24-15 UTSA lead in rebounding -- but the Sooners ripped off a 14-0 run to take their largest lead of the game, holding off the Roadrunners for the season-lidlifting win.

The Roadrunners were led by the junior guard duo of Jhivvan Jackson and Keaton Wallace. Jackson had his second career double-double, going for 24 points and a career-high 13 rebounds. Wallace, a native of Dallas, Texas, finished with 17 points, nine rebounds and four assists in 35 minutes.

UTSA played 12 of 13 players in the game, with senior forward Byron Frohnen making his 101st consecutive start. Freshmen Erik Czumbel, Jacob Germany, Austin Timperman, Makani Whiteside, and juniors Luka Barisic and Knox Hellums made their collegiate debuts.

The Sooners got strong outings from freshmen guards Austin Reaves and De'Vion Harmon, who each chipped in 23 points.

The Roadrunners were limited to 34 percent from the field on 25 of 74 shooting in the game, while the Sooners shot 48 percent. UTSA was 5 of 29 from 3-point land and finished the game locked at 44-44 in rebounds with OU. The Sooners owned a 34-15 advantage in points in transition, a 21-17 mark in points off the bench and a 38-30 advantage in points in the paint.

UTSA will return to action with the Sunshine Classic, in Kissimmee, Fla., on Friday, taking on Southern Illinois at 6:30 p.m. The game will be broadcast live on FLOhoops.tv and on the Roadrunners Sports Network, with Jay Howard calling the action.

Overall

- Named the sixth head men's basketball coach in UTSA history on April 1, 2016.
- Led UTSA to a plus-nine win improvement in first season, going from five wins in season prior to arrival to 14 wins.
- Included in the 14 wins were a school record-tying eight Conference USA victories, the program's first C-USA tournament win and a triumph over I-35 rival Texas State. UTSA defeated three of the C-USA's top four team with its wins over Louisiana Tech, Old Dominion and UTEP.
- Directed the Roadrunners to one of the most improved defensive teams in the nation in 2016-17. In the year prior to arrival, UTSA ranked in the bottom five of Division I, allowing opponents to shoot 50.8 percent from the field and 40.8 percent behind the arc en route to 84.3 points per game. Under Henson's tutelage, the Roadrunners cut those numbers down to 43.4 percent shooting from the field, 35 percent behind the arc and just 69.4 points allowed per game. The team's 69.4 points allowed ranked in the top third of Division I and UTSA limited opponents to fewer than 60 points nine times after doing so just once the year prior.
- Henson's 2016-17 UTSA squad also ranked among the best in the nation on the glass, where it led Conference USA with 39.2 rebounds per outing, ranking 27th in NCAA. The Roadrunners were particularly effective on the offensive glass and ranked 26th in the nation with 12.9 offensive boards per game. The squad also ranked in the top 100 for total rebounds and defensive rebounds per game.
- Coached 2016-17 C-USA All-Freshman Team selection Byron Frohnen, 2017-18 C-USA Freshman of the Year, second team All-CUSA and C-USA All-Freshman Team selection Jhivvan Jackson, 2017-18 C-USA All-Freshman Team honoree Keaton Wallace.
- Spent five seasons on Lon Kruger's staff at Oklahoma (2011-16), helping guide the squad to four consecutive 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament berths, culminating this spring with the program's fifth appearance in the Final Four and its first since 2002.
- Mentored 2015-16 National Player of the Year and Buddy Hield, who was selected No. 6 overall by the New Orleans
