TEAM NOTES

UCF NEXT ON UT'S EARLY-SEASON GRIND

- No. 15/12 Tennessee (1-0) quickly turns its attention from Wednesday's opener and faces game number two of the 2021-22 campaign on Friday. The Lady Vols face UCF (1-0) in Orlando, playing at 6:02 p.m. ET at Addition Financial Arena.
- The game against the Knights marks the second of three tests in a six-day period for the Lady Vols, as they'll return home for a top-25 match-up on Monday vs. No. 21/22 USF.
- Friday night's affair also marks the first of three consecutive tilts vs. 2021 NCAA Tournament teams for the Big Orange. UCF, USF and Texas advanced to the first, second and Elite 8 rounds, respectively, of last year's championship in the San Antonio area.
- UT overcame injuries to starters Jordan Horston and Rae Burrell, and foul trouble for fellow starter Tamari Key on Wednesday night in Knoxville to thwart an upset bid by Southern Illinois, 59-49.
- UCF, meanwhile, opened its year with a 68-39 home victory over Duquesne, outscoring the Dukes in the second half, 44-17.

LOOKING BACK AT THE LAST GAME

- In a defensive battle, the No. 15/12 Tennessee women's basketball team took down Southern Illinois, 59-49, in the 2021-22 season opener on Wednesday night at Thompson-Boling Arena. The Lady Vols rode a late run to victory, outscoring the Salukis 17-2 in the last five minutes of play.
- Tennessee (1-0) overcame the absence of its top three returners, as Jordan Horston did not play due to injury. Rae Burrell went down with an injury in the second quarter and was unable to return. Tamari Key accumulated fouls early and was held out of significant action until the fourth quarter.
- Alexis Dye made her presence felt in her first game as a Lady Volunteer. The graduate transfer tallied 12 points and 13 rebounds for her 33rd career double-double. Graduate Jordan Walker led UT in scoring with 14 points, while Burrell tossed in 12 on 6-of-9 shooting before departing.
- Walker and Sara Puckett came through in the clutch when the Lady Vols needed it. The two hit back-to-back 3-pointers halfway through the fourth after Tennessee had missed its first 13 tries from beyond the arc. They combined for 14 points in the final period as Walker contributed nine, Puckett five.

FIRST-GAME NOTABLES

- Tennessee utilized a 17-2 run over the final five minutes and a 21-7 fourth-quarter to turn back SIU. Saddled with foul trouble the entire game, Tamari Key's inside presence for eight-and-a-half minutes in the final frame made a difference. She played only 14 for the entire contest.
- UT went 0-8 last season in games in which it trailed entering the final five minutes. Tennessee earned a win vs. Southern Illinois after entering that territory down two. Conversely, UT was 17-0 a year ago when leading while heading into the final five minutes.
- Tennessee forced no 10-second violations the entire 2020-21 season. With fullcourt pick-up defense from freshman Brooklynn Miles, UT caused SIU to commit that error on Wednesday night.
- UT scored 59 points and yet came away with a win vs. the Salukis, thanks to its defense. A year ago, the Lady Vols were 0-4 when scoring fewer than 59.
- Tennessee's 10 turnovers vs. Southern Illinois tied for the fewest committed by the Lady Vols during the Kellie Harper era.
- Winning the rebounding battle vs. SIU, Tennessee now has won 47 of 57 board battles during the Harper era, while falling short seven times and tying twice. UT is 1-0 this season and was 22-2-1 (W-L-T on board advantages) last year and 24-6-1 in 2019-20.

BACK-TO-BACK BIRTHDAY GAMES

- Alexis Dye celebrated her 23rd birthday on Wednesday with a double-double of 12 points and 13 rebounds in her Lady Vol debut.
- Sara Puckett is next up, commemorating No. 19 on Friday at UCF.

LADY VOLS IN OPENERS

- The Lady Vols improved to 44-4 in season openers over the past 48 years, including 28-3 at home, 8-1 on the road and 8-0 at neutral sites.
- UT has won its last nine season openers and 21 of its last 22.
- Tennessee has a 45-3 all-time record in its first home contest of the year and a 39-7 mark in its first road game of the season.
- UT has won five straight while playing the team's first road game of a season.

KELLIE HARPER IN OPENERS

- Kellie Harper is now 7-0 while coaching a Power 5 school (4-0 at NC State, 3-0 at Tennessee) in season openers after defeating ETSU, Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois in her three seasons at UT, respectively.

NEXT UP FOR THESE TEAMS

- Tennessee heads back home to Knoxville and welcomes No. 21/22 USF for a 6:30 p.m. contest (SECN+) on Monday. It will be the first meeting between those programs.
- UCF next faces a road test at Virginia on Wednesday, battling the Cavaliers at 7 p.m. ET (ACCN+).

HARPER QUOTABLES

EXPERIENCE

"I think you rely on your experience in a lot of ways. You can't skip that step. One of the things I am excited about in November is getting some of these young players, these freshmen, some big minutes. When we get to SEC play, I need them to be a little bit more like sophomores than freshmen. One thing that is going to help them are our upper classmen who have been there. They are going to be able to share those experiences with them but also walk on the court confident in a lot of situations."

VERSATILITY

"We are very versatile. We have a lot of players that can do a lot of different things. We have players that we can slide in multiple positions, whether that be ones and twos, threes and fours, fours and fives. We can really move people around and change the look of our team. We can go smaller and quick, or we can go really big. We can put in a pretty good motion team that can spread the floor and shoot it. We can put in a quick-hit team. We can put a lot of different looks on the court because of that versatility. I do think that could be a really good strength of ours this year."

DEPTH

"When I look at our team, one of our strengths is depth, which is really good in this situation. We have players that we feel like can step in and make plays. Obviously, Alexis Dye is very experienced. She brings a unique skill-set in that she is very athletic, plays with great aggressiveness on both ends of the court, runs the floor well and she's competitive. That experience and competitiveness alone will help us immediately. We also have some other players that can step in and hopefully provide some depth in that spot. Some of the young ones: Sara Puckett, Keyen Green is back, Karoline Striplin. We have players that will be able to fill that role."

DEFENSE

"Honestly, I think we are ahead this year defensively because of our personalities really mesh. We are very aggressive right now, and we are a little more risk taking. Maybe a little more ball pressure. Our personalities are more in line with where I want to be defensively. I think because of that, we have been able to assess where they are at, give them a little bit more and really push them on the defensive end."

through 13 starts before a lower leg injury limited her ability to practice and play and, ultimately, ended her season early. She was expected back in 2021-22, but Kellie Harper announced on Oct. 28 that the second-year performer would sit out this season due to injury.

A LOOK AT THE KNIGHTS

ABOUT THE KNIGHTS

- UCF returns 13 players and all five starters from last year's team that went 16-5 overall and 11-2 in the American Athletic Conference.
- The Knights finished second in the AAC, made the AAC Tournament finals and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament.
- UCF limited opponents to 50.5 points per game in 2020-21, which was the top ranked scoring defense in Division I women's basketball last season. The Knights gave up only 39 points to Duquesne in the opener this season and limited the Dukes to 28.8 percent shooting.
- Super senior guard Tay Sanders is a preseason All-AAC First-Team selection who earned league second-team honors a year ago.
- Four other returnees received postseason honors in 2020-21, including Alisha Lewis (Newcomer of the Year and Sixth Player of the Year), Brittney Smith (All-AAC Third Team), Diamond Battles (AAC All-Tournament Team) and Masseny Kaba (AAC All-Tournament Team).

ABOUT THE HEAD COACH

- Katie Abrahamson-Henderson is in her sixth season at UCF and in her 17th year as a head coach, with records of 106-45 and 347-153, respectively.

- She has guided the Knights to NCAA berths (first round) in 2019 and 2021, and WNIT appearances (second round) in 2017 and 2018.
- Among her career stops, "Coach ABE" was at Albany prior to UCF and guided her 2015-16 squad against UT in Knoxville, falling 63-55.

LAST TIME THEY PLAYED

- UCF outscored Duquesne 44-17 in the second half to secure a 68-39 season-opening victory on Tuesday evening at Addition Financial Arena.
- The Knights hit only 37.9 percent from the field for the game, but a 9-of-15 fourth-quarter shooting effort (60 percent) propelled a 26-8 blitz by UCF to put the game away.
- Diamond Battles and Ahna Burney each hit four three-pointers and tallied 16 points to pace the Knights.
- Masseny Kaba had 11 points and nine boards, while Destiny Thomas had a game-high 11 rebounds.
- UCF tallied 14 steals and forced Duquesne into 23 turnovers that resulted in 21 points for the Knights.
- The home team also scored 28 of its 68 points in the paint, while allowing only 14 to DU.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT

UT-UCF NOTES

- This marks the first meeting between Tennessee and UCF in women's basketball.
- Kellie (Jolly) Harper and Katie Abrahamson-Henderson do share the distinction of previously serving as head coaches at Missouri State.
- Harper was at MSU from 2013-19, while Abrahamson-Henderson led the Bears from 2002-07.
- Harper and Abrahamson-Henderson both played college basketball, with each competing at an SEC school.
- Harper played point guard for Pat Summitt and led Tennessee to three NCAA titles during a career spanning from 1995 to 1999.
- Abrahamson-Henderson played two seasons for Andy Landers at Georgia before finishing her career at Iowa under C. Vivian Stringer.
- UCF assistant coach Nykesha Sales played at UConn from 1994-98 and left Storrs as the program's all-time leading scorer.
- Sales' and Harper's playing careers overlapped, with Sales winning an NCAA title at UConn as a freshman in 1995 and Harper claiming three straight from 1996-98 from her freshman through junior seasons. The battles between the schools at that time were epic events in women's sports that drew in even the casual sports fan.
- Tennessee Director of Athletics and Vice Chancellor Danny White was the A.D. at UCF from 2015-21.
- Vols head football coach Josh Heupel led the program at UCF from 2018 to 2020 before coming to Knoxville to take over UT's program in 2021. He has his program in the running for a bowl game in his first season at the helm when many did not predict him to do so because of a depleted roster.

- Winning Miss Basketball in Alabama over Puckett was Karoline Striplin (Hartford, Ala./Geneva Co. H.S.), a 6-3 forward who earned WBCA All-America Honorable Mention. She was ranked No. 39 by ProspectsNation.com and No. 45 by ESPNW.
- Kaiya Wynn, a 6-0 guard (Richmond, Texas/Foster H.S.), was the state's 5A Player of the Year in talent-rich Texas in her first season there after moving from Tennessee. She played in the PassThaBall Who's NXT All-American Game and the TABC and VYPE GHAGBA All-Star Games. She was ranked No. 39 by Blue Star, No. 46 by All-Star Girls Report and No. 62 by ESPNW.
- Brooklynn Miles, a 5-4 point guard (Frankfort, Ky./Franklin Co. H.S.), was Gatorade State Player of the Year and Miss Basketball in Kentucky. She was ranked No. 75 by All-Star Girls Report and No. 89 by ProspectsNation.com.
- All five newcomers spent the entire summer in Knoxville getting up to speed.

LADY VOL STAFF CHANGES

- The coaching staff has two new faces. To go along with returning assistant Jon Harper, Kellie Harper added veteran aides Samantha Williams and Joy McCorvey to her program.
- Williams, who features impressive career stops at DePaul, Duke and Louisville, came to UT after two seasons as head coach at Eastern Kentucky.
- McCorvey, meanwhile, joined UT after serving the past three years at Florida State and also possessing six years' experience at Michigan and another at St. John's. She served in the role of associate head coach a year ago at FSU, underscoring the experience of the new additions to Harper's staff.
- Williams and McCorvey replace Lacey Goldwire and Jennifer Sullivan. Sullivan was named head coach at Florida Atlantic, while Goldwire is back at Arkansas following a two-year stint at UT.
- Basketball support members who are new this season include Bryan Tatum, director of women's basketball sports performance; Liza Fruendt, director of recruiting operations; and Zion Sanders, graduate assistant. Josh Theis, a former G.A., is now director of video and creative content.

PERSONNEL LOSSES FROM A YEAR AGO

- UT lost a pair of starters in 6-2 forward Rennie Davis (17.3 ppg., 8.8 rpg.) and 6-4 forward/center Kasiyahna Kushkituah (6.8 ppg., 6.0 rpg.). Davis was the No. 9 overall pick of the Minnesota Lynx in the WNBA Draft, while Kushkituah played professionally in Brazil.
- Also departing were senior Jaiden McCoy (3.7 ppg., 2.3 rpg., three games) and freshman Destiny Salary (2.0 ppg., 2.4 rpg., 24 games).
- Kushkituah was a reserve center and moved into the starting lineup at the power forward position when Keyen Green, Marta Suárez and Jaiden McCoy all suffered season-ending injuries.

HARPER ATTACKS YEAR THREE AT UT

- Kellie Harper is in her third season at Tennessee and in her 18th year as a head coach, featuring an overall record of 324-226 and a mark of 39-18 during her time in Knoxville through the SIU game.
- Last season, she became one of only two coaches to guide four different Division I women's programs to the NCAA Tournament. She has done so at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and Tennessee. She is the only coach to have one of those four teams be her alma mater. The other four-program NCAA DI coach is Jim Foster, who led St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Chattanooga.
- Harper has directed her teams to 13 postseason berths (six NCAA, 7 WNIT) and would have had No. 14 if the 2020 NCAA Tournament hadn't been canceled.
- She has guided UT to back-to-back third-place SEC finishes, defeating four ranked teams in 2020-21, including the highest ranked foe of her career (#2/3 South Carolina). That triumph was UT's biggest since an 82-75 home win over No. 2/4 Texas on Dec. 10, 2017.

- Tennessee finished No. 14 in the AP Poll and No. 16 in the USA TODAY Coaches Poll in 2020-21, suffering their fewest season losses (8) and fewest SEC setbacks since 2014-15. The inclusion in the final AP Poll was UT's first appearance there since the end of the 2017-18 campaign.

THREE FINAL FOUR TEAMS ON SCHEDULE

- Tennessee's schedule, one its most challenging in several years, features 12 games against teams that are ranked or receiving votes in the 2021 AP Poll, including three squads in last year's NCAA Final Four.
- Among those teams were Final Four squads No. 1 South Carolina, No. 2 UConn and No. 3 Stanford, as well as No. 13 Kentucky, No. 21 South Florida, No. 23 Texas A&M, No. 24 Virginia Tech and No. 25 Texas.
- Georgia, LSU, Arkansas and Oklahoma State are in the receiving votes category.
- UT's six Power 5 non-conference regular-season opponents are the most since six in 2016-17.

TOUGH SHOOTING FOR OPPONENTS

- In only 16 of 57 games has a team hit 40 percent or better from the field during the Harper era.
- Southern Illinois hit only 36.0 in game one.
- Tennessee held opponents to 36.2 percent shooting from the field in 2021-22. In only eight of 25 games did a foe hit better than 40 percent.
- The Lady Vols ranked 28th nationally and first in the SEC in field goal percentage defense a year ago.

STOUT ON THE BOARDS UNDER HARPER

- Tennessee has been one of the nation's top rebounding teams under Kellie Harper, carding the fourth (44.97) and fifth-best (45.52) averages per game in Lady Vol history in 2019-20 and 2020-21, respectively.
- In NCAA Division I, the Lady Vols ranked No. 5 in rebound margin (12.8) and No. 6 in rpg. (45.52) in 2020-21, with both marks second among all SEC teams.

- In Harper's first season of 2019-20, UT was No. 5 nationally in rebound margin (10.7) and No. 3 in rebounds per game (45.97), with those numbers again stacking up second in the SEC.
- Winning the rebounding battle vs. SIU, Tennessee now has won 47 of 57 board battles during the Harper era, while falling short seven times and tying twice. UT is 1-0 this season and was 22-2-1 (W-L-T on board advantages) last year and 24-6-1 in 2019-20.

UNSUNG HERO'S SONG IS BEING SUNG

- Rae Burrell inked with Tennessee's 2018 signing class and was the only non-McDonald's All-American in the bunch. It turns out she's the only one still at Tennessee from that quartet (Burrell, Mimi Collins, Zaay Green, Jazmine Massengill) and has become the most accomplished.
- Last season as a junior, Burrell averaged 16.8 ppg. and 4.6 rpg., and she earned All-SEC Second Team honors.
- She shot 45.8 percent on field goals, 40.2 on three-pointers and 82.5 percent from the free-throw line, all easily career bests, and went 16 for 16 at the charity stripe in the final four minutes of games.
- Burrell scored in double figures in 22 of 25 games, fired in 15 or more points 17 times and hit 20+ on seven occasions, leading the team in the first two categories and ranking second in the third.
- Throughout the SIU game, the senior has 873 career points and is poised to become the 47th player to eclipse 1,000 for the Lady Vols.

KEY MAKING A NAME FOR HERSELF

- In her first two full seasons on Rocky Top, Tamari Key has established herself as one of the greatest shot-blockers in program history.
- She also became one of only four Lady Vols all-time to record triple-doubles, tallying career highs of 23 points and 10 blocks while adding a season-best 10 rebounds vs. Florida on Jan. 31, 2021. The other UT players with triple-doubles are Shelia Collins (1985), Shekinna Stricklen (2010) and Jordan Reynolds (2016).
- A year ago as a sophomore, Key rejected 72 shots and averaged 2.88 blocks per game to rank No. 11 nationally in both categories. She stood third and second in the SEC, respectively, in those areas.
- Her total of 72 blocks ranked eighth in Lady Vol history, while her season average ranked second.
- Key's total of 86 and average of 2.774 in 2019-20 tie her for fifth in a season and No. 3 in season average.
- On UT's career lists, her 2.807 average ranks No. 1 at UT, while her total of 160 rejections in her third season puts her at No. 8 among all Lady Vols, just two swats shy of passing Nicky Anosike at No. 7.
- UT was No. 2 nationally in blocks per game (6.9) and No. 2 in total blocks (215) in 2019-20 and No. 14 in each in 2020-21 (5.5/137).
- Key's shooting prowess has her at No. 4 in career field goal percentage (59.4) at UT, and her 62.8 effort last season would rank No. 3 all-time by a Lady Vol if she'd taken enough shots to qualify.

DEFICITS OVERCOME

- The largest deficit (23) as well as first-half (23), half-time (20) and second-half deficit (20/18:17/2H) ever overcome for a victory by UT were vs. Rutgers (55-51) on Jan. 3, 2009. UT trailed, 31-8, with 2:15 to go in the first half.
- That second-half deficit overcome was tied by UT coming from 20 down in the third quarter to beat

Stetson on Dec. 5, 2018.

- In its biggest postseason rally in school history, UT rallied from 17-down for a 52-46 win over Virginia in the 1996 Elite Eight to reach the Final Four and win the Lady Vols' fourth NCAA title.
- UT also had a 17-point postseason comeback vs. Gonzaga in Spokane, Wash., on March 28, 2015, with UT trailing by 17, 57-40, with 6:34 remaining in the NCAA Sweet 16 and going on to win, 73-69, in OT.
- An opponent's best game-opening run (19-0) came on Jan. 22, 2007, vs. Duke in Knoxville.
- UT's biggest lost lead this season and during the Harper era is 17 (3Q, Georgia, 1/14/21). It was the biggest since UT saw a 23-point lead evaporate in an 84-70 loss at Notre Dame on Jan. 17, 2018.
- UT came from 16 down in the second quarter, 12 at the half and 15 in the third quarter to take down No. 2/3 South Carolina on Feb. 18, 2021, 75-67, for the largest comeback of the Kellie Harper era.
- That was the largest comeback since overturning a 20-point third quarter deficit vs. Stetson on Dec. 5, 2018.
- UT also has come from 13 down twice during Harper's tenure, doing so in the second quarter to defeat Ole Miss on Jan. 28, 2021. It had an identical second-quarter deficit vs. Missouri in the SEC Tournament on March 5, 2020.
- In 2021-22, Tennessee has come from behind in its only game, erasing a six-point deficit to Southern Illinois.

LOOKING BACK TO 2020-21

- The Lady Vols fashioned a 17-8 overall record and 9-4 mark in SEC play, good for a third-place result for the second year in a row.
- It marked Tennessee's fewest overall losses and fewest conference setbacks since 2014-15 and gave the program its highest back-to-back league finishes since taking second and first in 2013-14 and 2014-15, respectively.
- The Big Orange made it to the semifinal round of the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2016, falling to eventual champion South Carolina.
- UT wound up No. 13 in the final AP Poll of the year and No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.
- The Big Orange posted four victories over ranked teams (No. 2/3 South Carolina, No. 12/12 Kentucky, No. 13/13 Arkansas, No. 15/15 Indiana), marking the most in a season since 2017-18 when it had seven.
- UT also suffered setbacks to six squads ranked at the time it played them: No. 3/5 UConn (67-61), No. 6/5 Texas A&M (80-70), No. 7/7 South Carolina (67-52), No. 16/14 Michigan (70-55), No. 20/18 Kentucky (71-56) and No. 22/23 Georgia (57-55), with Rennie Davis missing the UK game due to medical reasons, Keyen Green missing all of those games and Marta Suárez being hampered severely during the losses with Kentucky, Texas A&M, Georgia and South Carolina and out vs. Michigan.
- Tennessee's other two losses were to teams who ended up being ranked but weren't at the time: No. 10/13 Georgia (67-66) and No. 17/24 West Virginia (79-73 OT).
- Tennessee finished at No. 16 in the NCAA NET Rankings, sitting as the fourth-highest SEC team behind South Carolina (5), Texas A&M (13) and Georgia (15).
- UT went 8-9 vs. top-50 NET teams. It also had wins over LSU and Florida squads that were in the top 64 for all but the last ranking period.

- The Lady Vols had wins over NET No. 5 South Carolina, No. 9 Indiana, No. 24 Arkansas, No. 26 Kentucky, No. 36 Alabama, No. 39 Ole Miss (twice) and No. 47 Missouri among the top 50.
- UT had four close losses, including to No. 2 UConn (by six), No. 16 Georgia (twice by a combined total of three points) and No. 24 West Virginia (by six in overtime). UT also fell to No. 4 South Carolina in the SEC Tournament and to No. 18 Kentucky on Feb. 11 without the services of Rennie Davis due to medical reasons.

REMAINING PERFECT IN NCAA BIDS

- The Lady Vols made their 39th consecutive NCAA Tournament, continuing as the only school to appear in every Division I tourney.
- Tennessee earned a No. 3 seed in the River Walk Region, marking the program's fifth time as a No. 3 seed in the tournament.
- UT is now 126-31 in NCAA Tournament play, ranking first in games played (157) and victories (126) and second in winning percentage (.803).
- The Lady Vols defeated No. 14 seed Middle Tennessee, 87-62, in the NCAA First Round in Austin, Texas, on March 21 and fell, 70-55, to No. 6 seed Michigan in San Antonio on March 23.
- The entire tournament was held in the San Antonio area, as the NCAA created a bubble-like atmosphere to keep teams healthy while the world was in the grips of the COVID-19 pandemic.

HARPER REMAKE CONTINUES

- It's not ideal to try and remake a program during the midst of a pandemic, but Kellie Harper has continued to keep Tennessee on an upward path.
- Season two saw the program defeat four ranked teams after beating only one in 2019-20.
- In leading Tennessee to a postseason berth, the second-year Lady Vol skipper became only the second basketball coach to guide four different programs into NCAA Division I Women's Tournament play.
- She is the first to do so at her alma mater and would have done so sooner had the 2020 tournament not been canceled due to the spread of COVID-19.
- Harper has led Western Carolina (2005, 2009), NC State (2010), Missouri State (2016, 2019) and her alma mater, Tennessee (2021), to the Big Dance.
- She joins Jim Foster, who guided St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Chattanooga to NCAA bids.
- It marked the 13th postseason appearance of Harper's head coaching career, including her sixth in the NCAA Tournament.
- Tennessee finished third in the SEC for the second straight season after being picked sixth by the media and seventh by the coaches in 2019-20 and sixth by each in 2020-21.

TESTING THEIR GRIT

- A young Tennessee lineup learned to play with grit, and the fight from players became quite evident.
- UT came from behind, held on during runs or overcame injuries, foul trouble or poor shooting games to win.
- Kellie Harper's program is 9-4 in games decided by five points or fewer since she arrived, including 4-2 in 2020-21 with one-point wins over LSU and Ole Miss, five-point wins over Missouri and Ole Miss (SEC Tournament) and both a one-point loss and two-point setback to Georgia.
- The 2020-21 Lady Vols trailed in 19 games and came back to win 11 of them. They also made late charges in the games they lost before coming up short.

A KNACK FOR BUZZER-BEATERS

- Rennie Davis hit 15 career buckets during her UT career with the clock winding down.
- She hit two game winners. Davis lifted Tennessee past Alabama last season and Auburn (SEC Tournament) as a freshman with last-second shots.
- She also put points on the board at the end of the first half four times during her career, including once in each of her four seasons as a Lady Vol. The latest was a three-pointer at the end of the first half vs. Ole Miss in the 2021 SEC Tournament.

per game to pace Tennessee in both categories in 2020-21 as a senior.

- She shot 48.0 percent from the field and 85.3 percent at the free-throw line.
- Even better in SEC play, Davis put up 20.0 ppg. and 9.0 rpg. while shooting 52.3 percent from the floor and 85.2 at the charity stripe.
- Her worksheet also included 10 double-doubles and 10 games of 20 or more points.
- From a career standpoint, Davis concluded her UT tenure fourth all-time among Lady Vols in double-doubles with 39, trailing only Chamique Holdscaw (57), Mercedes Russell (46) and Candace Parker (45).
- She was fifth in career 20-point scoring games with 23.
- Davis wound up ninth in scoring (1,815) and points per game (15.4), 10th in rebounds (947) and sixth in rebounds per game at 8.03 rpg.
- Additionally, she finished sixth in free-throw percentage (.816), eighth in field goals attempted (1,477) and ninth in field goals made (696).
- Davis joined Holdscaw, Parker and Tamika Catchings as the only Lady Vols to currently rank in the UT career top 10 in points, points per game, rebounds and rebounds per game.

LYNX PICK DAVIS, KASI PLAYS OVERSEAS

- Rennia Davis became the 43rd Tennessee women's basketball player, and the first of the Kellie Harper era, to be taken in a WNBA Draft, with the 6-foot-2 guard/forward going to the Minnesota Lynx with the No. 9 pick of the first round.
- Davis became the 18th Lady Vol to be chosen during the first round. UT's numbers include two players (Dena Head and Daedra Charles) who were first-round selections in the 1997 WNBA Elite Draft and another (Diamond DeShields) who played overseas in Turkey before being chosen in the 2018 WNBA College draft.
- Davis' selection nudged Tennessee back in front of UConn (40) for most alums taken exclusively in the college draft with 41. UT is second in first-round picks in the college draft with 16, trailing only UConn's total of 26. No SEC school comes close to sending as many players on to the next level.
- Davis, who is the highest Lady Vol selection since Diamond DeShields went at No. 3 to the Chicago Sky in 2018, is the first Lady Vol ever to be chosen at No. 9 and the fifth UT player to be drafted by the Lynx. The others were Tonya Edwards (1st Rd., 7th, 1999), Tasha Butts (2nd Rd., 20th, 2004), Nicky Anosike (2nd Rd., 16th, 2008) and Bashaara Graves (2nd, 22nd, 2016).
- Senior Kasiyahna Kushkituah, a reserve center who started the last 11 games of the season at power forward, earned pro contracts in Brazil and Portugal.

THREE NEWCOMERS BECAME STARTERS

- A trio of newcomers Kellie Harper recruited all became starters last season in year one.
- Freshman wing Marta Suarez started from day one until an injury ended her season.
- Graduate transfer forward Keyen Green started the first four games before an injury ended her year.
- Another graduate transfer, point guard Jordan Walker started the first four and 13 total.

GRADUATE PATCHES FOR THREE LADY VOLS

- Three Lady Vols already possess undergraduate degrees and are working toward advanced degrees. Each player proudly will wear an SEC graduate patch on her uniform this season.
- Alexus Dye earned an associate's degree at Gulf Coast State College in 2019 and a bachelor's in human services with a minor in psychology from Troy in 2021. She will pursue a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communication at Tennessee.
- Keyen Green graduated from Liberty University in May 2019 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. She completed work on a master's in agricultural leadership, education and communications at UT in May 2021 and is working on a Ph.D. in leadership studies.

LADY VOLS SIGN NATION'S NO. 11-RANKED PLAYER IN 6-4 WING JUSTINE PISSOTT

The Tennessee women's basketball program welcomes its highest ranked player since 2019, receiving a signed letter of intent from Justine Pissott, the nation's No. 11 overall prospect in the espnW top 100 class of 2022.

Pissott, a 6-foot-4 sharpshooting guard/forward from Toms River, N.J., who plays at Red Bank Catholic High School, committed to Lady Vol head coach Kellie Harper on Oct. 8, 2020, and made it official on Nov. 10, 2021, when she signed paperwork in a ceremony at her school.

"We are so excited about adding Justine Pissott to our Lady Vol family," Harper said. "Justine is a talented and competitive wing who has great shooting ability with deep range. Her versatility and size allow her to make plays in the paint. Justine has a tremendous work ethic as well as passion for the game and for our program."

In addition to being ranked No. 11 by espnW, Pissott is the No. 2-rated wing and a five-star prospect in the 2022 class. ProspectsNation.com has her similarly rated at No. 14 overall, No. 2 among wings and as a 4.5-star prospect.

During a COVID-abbreviated junior season in 2020-21, Pissott averaged 17.0 ppg., 8.0 rpg., 3.0 apg., 1.3 spg. and 1.1 bpg. at RBCHS. She hit 49 percent on field goals, 44 percent on three-point field goals and 92 percent on free throws. Known for having a dedication to constantly improving her game, Pissott's profile began to rise prominently between her sophomore and junior seasons.

One of the first assessments at that stage came from basketball expert Dan Olson for espnW. Olson's take on Pissott was this: "an agile perimeter prospect with superior length, slashes, finishes plays in traffic; drains jumpers with range beyond the arc; executes in half-court game, quick, versatile defender, rebounds and handles in up-tempo game; a stock-riser in the class of 2022."

Here's another review from Bluestar Media's Mike Flynn: "Clutch. That's the word to describe 2022 Tennessee commit Justine Pissott. We watched as she hit a trifecta of trifectas in a short span to help lead her team to a come from behind victory. Pissott is one of the best shooters you'll find at any position in the country, hands down."

Pissott joins a Tennessee program on the move under Harper's leadership. The Lady Vols begin the 2021-22 campaign ranked No. 15 by AP and No. 12 in the USA TODAY/WBCA Coaches Poll. The team is picked to place second in the SEC by the league's media and third by its coaches.

UT is coming off a year in which it remained the only women's program to compete in the NCAA Tournament every season it has been held. The Lady Vols placed third in the SEC in 2020-21 and beat four ranked teams along the way, including No. 2/3 South Carolina, 75-67, on Feb. 18 in Knoxville.

- Jordan Walker graduated from Western Michigan in 2020 with a bachelor's degree in political science and a minor in communications. She is pursuing a master's degree in business administration (MBA) at UT with a concentration in entrepreneurship and innovation.

NINE LADY VOLS ON 2021 SEC HONOR ROLL

- The women's basketball program saw nine of its 13 players in 2020-21 earn SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition.
- Winter Sports Academic Honor Roll honorees included Rae Burrell, Rennia Davis, Kasiyahna Kush-ituah, Jessie Rennie and Emily Saunders.
- Members of the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll included Tess Darby, Keyen Green, Marta Suárez and Jordan Walker.

HEAD COACH KELLIE HARPER

3RD SEASON AT TENNESSEE / 18TH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

BORN: May 3, 1977

EDUCATION:

White County High School (Sparta, Tenn.), '95

B.S. (Math), Tennessee, '99

SPOUSE: Jon Harper

CHILDREN: Jackson (8), Kiley (3)

PLAYING CAREER:

University of Tennessee (1995-99): three-time NCAA champion point guard, 1999 All-SEC Coaches Second Team & H.M. All-American, three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll, 1999 WNBA Draft (Cleveland, 4th Round)

As Kellie (Jolly) Harper embarks on her third season as the head coach at her alma mater, she has accomplished a feat only one other person has achieved.

Already one of just 11 Division I women's basketball head coaches to lead three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, in 2020-21 Harper took another step and joined Jim Foster as the only skippers to guide four different programs into NCAA postseason play.

Harper, who was on track to accomplish that feat in year one at UT before the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the 2020 NCAA Tournament, has led Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee to NCAA bids. Foster did so at St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Chattanooga during a career lasting from 1978 to 2018.

In 17 complete years as a Division I head coach, Harper has led her teams to a 323-226 record and 13 postseason appearances (6 NCAA/7 WNIT) through the 2020-21 campaign. She was in position for another NCAA berth in 2019-20 before the tournament was canceled. All told, she has guided her squads to 13 top-three league finishes and four conference tourney titles along the way.

The 1999 UT graduate and former women's basketball standout did Foster one better by making her fourth NCAA-qualifying team her alma mater. It came when the Lady Vols finished No. 14/16 nationally in 2020-21 and placed third in the SEC for the second straight year, carding a 17-8 overall record and 9-4 mark in league play after being unranked in preseason polls and picked to finish sixth in the SEC. Along the way, the Big Orange women defeated four ranked teams, including Final Four semifinalist No. 2/3 South Carolina, during a season that saw fewer games played due to the impact of the pandemic.

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Harper was a point guard for the legendary Pat Summitt at UT from 1995-99, playing 132 games and piloting the Lady Vols to NCAA National Championships in 1996, 1997 and 1998. She was part of a senior class that helped the Big Orange forge a 131-17 overall record as well as win two SEC regular season titles (1998, 1999) and three SEC Tournament crowns (1996, 1998, 1999).

Year one back at her alma mater began with a valuable summer trip to Europe and victorious exhibition games in The Netherlands, Belgium and France. The 2019-20 season ended suddenly under surreal circumstances, however, as the COVID-19 global health crisis forced the cancellation of the NCAA Tournament. In between those mileposts, though, there were many accomplishments of which to be proud.

First and foremost, a foundation was built, and there was clear improvement despite an inexperienced roster. A Lady Vol team that started two freshmen most of the way and played the majority of the season with only one returning starter from 2018-19 put together a 21-10 record and finished tied for third in the SEC at 10-6 after being picked seventh. Those numbers were up from a 19-13/7-9 (t8th) result prior to Harper's arrival, and the league placement was UT's highest since finishing first in 2014-15. She also mentored her initial two players to SEC recognition, including All-SEC First Team choice Rennia Davis and SEC All-Freshman honoree Jordan Horston. Davis added All-America honorable mention kudos.

Off the court, eight of 12 players earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition. During the 2020 spring semester, those team members combined for a program-best 3.48 GPA.

Harper personally enjoyed the finest start of any season in her career at 7-0 and recorded the most victories in her first season at a school with 21. She picked up her 300th overall career win vs. Alabama and surpassed her 500th contest as a head coach along the way. Her squad, meanwhile, finished second nationally in blocked shots per game (6.9), third in rebounds per game (45.97), third in defensive rebounds per game (31.2) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (33.8).

In year two for Harper at Tennessee, the 2020-21 Lady Vols climbed as high as No. 13 in the AP Poll and No. 15 in the USA TODAY Coaches Poll. They also earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, demonstrating progress on their climb back toward Harper's expectations. Senior Rennia Davis (first team) and junior Rae Burrell (second team) earned All-SEC accolades, while sophomore Tamari Key made the SEC All-Defensive Team and Marta Suárez was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. Davis picked up All-America honorable mention recognition for the third time in her career, won the Senior CLASS Award and was the No. 9 overall pick in the WNBA Draft. UT also had a program-best nine of 13 players make the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Kellie Harper has led UT to consecutive third-place SEC finishes, UT's best results since 2014-15.

Tennessee's achievements are more impressive considering Harper lost two starters and a reserve, all posts, to injury during the 2020-21 campaign, yet her squad kept finding ways to win against one of the nation's toughest schedules.

Only the third Lady Vol head coach in the NCAA era of women's basketball, Harper took the reins at Tennessee after six years of leading the Missouri State Lady Bears, capped by the 2018-19 season's impressive march to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and magical run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Harper guided Missouri State to NCAA appearances in 2015-16 and 2018-19 with WNIT berths on three other occasions. At previous schools, she also led North Carolina State to the NCAA Tournament in 2009-10 (plus two WNIT appearances) and guided Western Carolina to NCAA berths in 2004-05 and 2008-09 (plus two trips to the WNIT).

In 26 full seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach or player, Harper has made 21 postseason appearances with a combined 571-279 record, 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT bids.

She recorded a 118-79 won-lost record at Missouri State, claiming Missouri Valley Conference Tournament crowns in 2016 and 2019 and notching regular-season runner-up finishes in 2015-16, 2017-18 and 2018-19. After her first team at MSU finished 14-17/6-12 MVC (t6th), she never placed lower than third in the league standings or missed the postseason. Three of her last four editions there surpassed the 20-win plateau, including the 2015-16 squad that forged MSU's first NCAA appearance in a decade.

The 2018-19 MSU squad improved measurably as the season progressed, resiliently overcoming a 1-7 start to post the program's best overall record (25-10) since 2004-05 and its top league mark (16-2) since 2003-04 with a 24-3 run over the final 27 contests. The Lady Bears finished No. 24 in the final 2019 USA Today Sports Coaches Poll, which was their first national ranking in 15 years. Harper was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year and also was chosen as the 2019 Kay Yow Coach of the Year, which goes to the Division I women's head coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court.

Her final Lady Bears team developed into her best one with a late season spree that included victories over No. 21 Drake, No. 24 DePaul and No. 13 Iowa State and a nine-point loss to sixth-ranked Stanford in the Sweet 16. Harper's 2018-19 squad featured only one senior and included 11 freshmen or sophomores on the 14-player roster.

Prior to her arrival at Missouri State, Harper became just the third women's basketball coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances and a 70-64 record during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament. NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Before her tenure in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four postseason berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three years in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year accolades and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Prior her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year.

In advance of her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign.

As a college player, Harper was part of a women's basketball dynasty at Tennessee. As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and their third-straight national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 helpers in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from a knee injury midway through her sophomore season. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 452 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She still ranks seventh in career assists and is 10th in 3-point percentage (.364, 99-272).

Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year.

She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both All-SEC Coaches Second Team and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. She also was named to the SEC Community Service Team as a senior.

She played for her father (the late Kenneth Jolly) at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the UT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012. On Dec. 24, 2019, the basketball hardwood at the new Findlay Elementary School in Sparta was dedicated as "Kellie's Court."

Harper is married to Jon Harper, an assistant coach on her staffs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee. The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.
