CLAIM TO FAME?

Without a doubt, the 1990 team set the bar for excellence at Tennessee. The Vols, who won the SEC regular-season and tournament titles with an undefeated record, became the first Tennessee team to reach the championship match. All told, they were also the first UT team to win at least 30 matches in a season.

The 1990 Vols still hold several UT records of note, including:

- Most wins in a season: 34
- Most consecutive wins: 34
- Highest winning percentage: .971
- First Tennessee team to reach the No. 1 national ranking

The Vols reached the championship again in 2001, the second year of a three-season period in which the Vols enjoyed unmatched postseason success under coach Michael Fancutt. The Vols made it to the semifinals in 2000, the finals in 2001 and the semifinals again in 2002.

Tennessee likely would have reached the 2000 title match as well, were it not for two players falling victim to severe full-body cramps during their 4-3 semifinal loss to VCU on a hot afternoon in Athens. Paul Podbury led by a set on court 4 before he was forced to retire, alongside teammate Peter Handoyo.

CLAIM TO FAME?

Like the 1990 team, the 2010 Vols ran undefeated for the SEC regular-season and tournament titles. What set the 2010 team apart, however, was the method in which the Vols won. With a strong lineup, the team set or matched every Tennessee shutout record.

To look at the team's shutout success:

- Most shutouts in a season: 16 (previous record was 10 in 1965)
- Most consecutive shutouts: 5 (tie with 1964 - a record broken in 2013 with 8)
- First team in conference history to shutout all three opponents in SEC Tournament

THE VOLS' SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS

1951: THE FIRST SEC TITLE

The 1951 team, coached by Walter D. Buchanan, won UT's first SEC Championship by tying former SEC tennis powerhouse Tulane for the title.

Tommy Bartlett, who never lost a match in his collegiate career, captained the 1951 squad and won the No. 5 SEC singles title that season. Teammate Bill Davis won the No. 1 singles competition.

Davis and John Cullum also won the No. 1 doubles title at the SEC tournament. Bartlett and Gavin Gentry won the No. 3 doubles title.

1966: BARTLETT RETURNS

Ten years after his playing career with the Vols ended, Bartlett returned to Knoxville as the assistant basketball coach but took over tennis coaching duties in 1963.

Bartlett proved to be as successful a coach as he was as a player, leading the Vols to their second SEC title in 1966.

The Vols were a flawless 7-0 in SEC play.

UT's success that season was thanks in part to the play of Lenny Schloss, who became the first tennis All-America for the Vols in 1967.

Schloss won the No. 2 SEC singles title at the 1966 tournament, and he teamed up with Jack Jackson to win the No. 1 doubles championship. Kenny Marcus took the No. 3 singles title; Marcus and Richard Preston also claimed the No. 3 doubles title.

1970: MOZUR LEADS VOLS

Tommy Mozur, the Vols' second All America and first to win the honor multiple times, captained Tennessee to the SEC Championship for the second time in five years.

Mozur earned his second All America in his senior season, reaching the fourth round of the NCAA tournament. In the SEC, he teamed up with Earle Freeman to win the conference No. 1 doubles title.

The Vols finished 14-7 overall and 4-1 in the SEC with Louis Royal as the head coach.

1980: HARMON & PURCELL

Rodney Harmon and Mel Purcell put together one of the best doubles teams in UT history in 1980, helping the Vols to their fourth SEC title. The pair won the SEC No. 1 doubles title and went up the ladder to win the Vols' only NCAA doubles championship as the top-seeded team.

Florida	11	Kentucky	2
Tennessee	9	Georgia Tech	2

Harmon and Purcell were equally successful in singles play, both reaching the top 10 in the national rankings. Purcell was the SEC No. 1 champion and had 34 victories during his season, and Harmon played his way through the No. 2 bracket with 35 wins. Harmon also reached the semifinals of the NCAA tournament in singles.

The Vols went 14-6 overall and 6-0 in the SEC under head coach John Newman, who had 51 wins in his four seasons with the Vols.

1986: LATE IMPROVEMENT

Tennessee finished just 3-6 against SEC opponents during the regular season, but the Vols turned things around just in time for another title.

The Vols certainly had strength at the top of the lineup, which featured a pair of three-time All-Americans in Shelby Cannon and Byron Talbot. Cannon and Talbot, the winningest doubles pair in UT history, won the No. 1 doubles title. Talbot also won the No. 2 singles championship, a feat he repeated a year later.

Tim Leos earned the Vols points by winning the No. 6 singles title. Cary Cohenour and Mark Herrington also won the No. 2 doubles title to help coach Mike DePalmer Sr. to his first of two titles as head coach.

1990: NEAR FLAWLESS

The 1990 season was a special year for the Vols, both in conference and on a national scale. The team finished 34-1 in 1990 with a perfect 9-0 record in the SEC en route to the regular-season conference championship. In a reworked SEC postseason system, Tennessee also hosted — and won — the SEC Tournament Championship.

The Vols attained the No. 1 national ranking and were the top seed in the NCAA Tournament, reaching the finals for the first time in program history before losing to 5-2 Stanford. Doug Flach, Tim Jessup and Brice Karsh earned All-America honors that season.

VOLS HAVE WON 13 COMBINED CONFERENCE TITLES // 9 SEASON // 4 TOURNAMENT

2000: ON TO NATIONALS

Behind eventual three-time All-America Peter Handoyo, the Vols strung together three years of postseason dominance beginning in 2000. They reached the NCAA semifinals in 2000, the championship match in 2001 and the semifinals again in 2002.

During conference season, Tennessee finished tied with Florida for the SEC regular-season title with a 10-1 record in 2000. The Vols secured the tie atop the conference standings by beating the Gators 4-3 in Gainesville the final weekend of the season.

Adam Carey won a team-leading 42 singles matches, good for seventh most in a season.

2010: UNDEFEATED AGAIN

In many ways, the 2010 season was like turning the clock back to 1990. For the first time in 20 years, the Vols again finished the conference season undefeated, this time with an 11-0 record. The Vols started the year fifth in the national rankings and rose to second by season's end.

Florida presented the biggest hurdle for the Vols in 2010. Tennessee traveled to Gainesville and beat the sixth-ranked Gators on the road for the first time since 2000 with a 4-3 victory. Davey Sandgren secured the match with a three-set win on court 6.

The Vols clinched the title outright with a 6-1 home win against Georgia.

John-Patrick Smith, who was both the SEC Player of the Year and the SEC Tournament MVP, finished the regular season 9-1 in conference play. Matteo Fago, Rhyne Williams and Tennys Sandgren all finished with 10 singles wins in SEC dual matches.

2011: BACK TO BACK

With five of six starters returning for the Vols, the 2011 Tennessee squad made history by clinching back-to-back SEC regular-season titles for the first time in program history.

The Vols dropped a midseason road match at Mississippi State, so when they stepped on court at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex in Athens, Ga., it was a must-win situation to secure a share of the SEC title with unbeaten Georgia.

Edward Jones and Matteo Fago clinched the doubles point on court three. From there, Tennessee picked up straight-set victories by Boris Conkic, Rhyne Williams and John-Patrick Smith to win 4-3.

Smith became the first Vol to earn back-to-back SEC Player of the Year honors with a 9-1 record at the top of the lineup and was named SEC Athlete of the Year a few months later. Tennys Sandgren went 10-1 and Rhyne Williams was 9-2.

SEC TOURNEY TITLES

1990

The Vols snapped Georgia's three-year hold on the SEC Title in 1990 with a perfect 9-0 conference record and hosted the new SEC Tournament Championship, which featured dual matches instead of flighted draws. With an upset win at No. 1 singles, Doug Flach led the Vols to a 5-1 victory over Georgia to clinch the tournament trophy.

Tennessee's record stood at 31-0 after the tournament and the Vols rose to No. 1 in the national rankings for the first time in school history.

Road to the Title:

Round	Opponent	Result/Score
Quarterfinals	Mississippi	W 5-1

2002

The SEC Championships returned to UT Varsity Courts once again in 2002, and the Vols took advantage of playing in Knoxville in front of the home fans.

Senior Adam Carey was understandably named SEC Tournament MVP after clinching all three matches for the Vols at the No. 3 position. The Vols avenged a 4-3 loss at Auburn earlier in the season by defeating the Tigers 4-1 in the tournament final.

Road to the Title:

Round	Opponent	Result/Score
Quarterfinals	Florida	W 4-0
Semifinals	Georgia	W 4-3

2010

The Vols became the first team in SEC Tournament Championship history to shut out all three opponents and en route to hoisting the pyramid-shaped trophy. Tennessee blanked LSU, Mississippi and Florida by 4-0 scores during a raining weekend in Lexington, Ky.

Junior Boris Conkic clinched the semifinal win over Mississippi and provided the final point in the title match against Florida. He closed out a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Joey Burkhardt at the No. 2 position and was immediately mobbed by teammates in celebration on the indoor courts.

Junior John-Patrick Smith had an undefeated weekend at No. 1 singles and doubles to earn tournament MVP honors.

Road to the Title:

Round	Opponent	Result/Score
Quarterfinals	LSU	W 4-0
Semifinals	Mississippi	W 4-0
Final	Florida	W 4-0

2021

For the first time in over a decade the Vols took home the SEC Tournament crown. UT was led by First Team All-SEC honorees Adam Walton and Johannes Monday throughout the weekend.

In the final against regular season champions, Florida the Vols had seemingly won the title on two different occasions while leading 3-2 and courts 3 and 4 still playing. Eventually junior Martim Prata clinched match point over No. 14 Andy Andrade in three sets to push UT past the top-ranked Gators in Fayetteville.

Prata was named Tournament MVP, while him and Luca Wiedenmann were named to the All-Tournament team.
