STORYLINES

- #CHECKERNEYLAND: A sold-out Neyland Stadium crowd awaits No. 19/17 Tennessee's cross-divisional clash with Texas A&M on Saturday in what will see the return of the Volunteers' popular fan-driven initiative #CheckerNeyland. #CheckerNeyland showcases UT's iconic checkerboard pattern through Neyland Stadium, which will be sold out for a 10th consecutive game. This will be the seventh #CheckerNeyland in program history. Last year's edition saw the Vols top Florida, 38-33, on Sept. 24. This is just the fifth meeting between the two teams with the series tied at 2-2. It's also just the second meeting between the two in Knoxville. The Aggies won the last matchup, 34-13, in Neyland during the COVID-19 2020 season.
- 41-20: Tennessee held Spencer Rattler to just 169 yards through the air with no touchdown passes, and RB Jaylen Wright rushed for 123 yards to lead the Vols past South Carolina, 41-20, on Sept. 30 in Neyland Stadium. Wright provided the game's first score on a 42-yard run. WR Bru McCoy suffered a season-ending fracture-dislocation injury to his right ankle in the second quarter. CB Kamal Hadden provided the game's biggest play when Rattler, pressured by DE James Pearce Jr., fired a pick six that was returned 28 yards for a touchdown. Pearce Jr. finished with two sacks and two QB hurries and was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week for his efforts. UT tallied six sacks as a team, representing its most sacks in an SEC game since seven vs. Mississippi State on Oct. 12, 2019. WR Squirrel White finished with nine catches on nine targets for 104 yards, while QB Joe Milton III was 21-of-32 for 239 yards and one touchdown pass, a 6-yarder to TE Jacob Warren in the third quarter. South Carolina was just 2-of-15 on third down.
- HEUPEL ERA: Josh Heupel, the 2022 AP SEC Coach of the Year, is in his third season at the helm. Since taking over a program that was 3-7 prior to his arrival, Heupel owns a 22-9 record and has won 17 of his last 21 games. He owns seven wins over ranked teams since 2021, which is third nationally among FBS head coaches during that span. He owned a 28-8 record at UCF prior to UT, and since 2018, he ranks ninth nationally among active FBS head coaches in victories with 50. Heupel's UT teams (2021-pres.) have averaged 41.6 points per game and 494.7 yards of total offense per game, which is second and third in the FBS, respectively, during that span. Heupel became the quickest UT coach to 20 wins (28 games) since Fulmer did it in 27 games from 1992-94.
- NEYLAND STREAK: The Vols have proved that Neyland Stadium is one of the most feared venues in the country in the Josh Heupel era. Tennessee is 15-3 at home under his watch, outscoring opponents 824-373. The Vols bring a 12-game home winning streak into Saturday, a streak that dates back to Nov. 20, 2021. That represents their longest home winning streak since winning 23 straight from 1996-2000. It's also the fourth-longest current home win streak in the country behind Georgia (23), Michigan (19) and Utah (17). UT has won six straight SEC games in Neyland Stadium, which is its longest home SEC win streak since claiming a school-record 15 straight SEC home games from 1996-99.
- RETURN TO PROMINENCE: Under the leadership of Josh Heupel, Tennessee has returned to national prominence. Since the start of the 2022 season, the Vols are third in the SEC in victories with 15. Georgia is first with 21 wins, and Alabama is second with 16. The 15 wins are tied for ninth nationally during that span. Since Heupel's first season of 2021, the Vols are fourth in the SEC in total victories with 22. Georgia is first with 35, Alabama is second with 29, while Ole Miss is third with 23.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE-TEXAS A&M SERIES

- Tennessee has faced Texas A&M the fewest times among any of its SEC opponents as this is just the fifth meeting between the two programs all-time.
- The series has played to a 2-2 tie, and this is just the second visit to Knoxville for Texas A&M. The last meeting occurred during the COVID-19 shortened season on Dec. 19, 2020 in front of a reduced capacity of only 22,645 fans. That meeting was the latest calendar-wise regular season game for Tennessee in program history.
- This is only the third regular season meeting between the two programs. Prior to 2020, the other occurred in College Station on Oct. 8, 2016, when the then ninth-ranked Vols lost to the then eighth-ranked Aggies, 45-38, in double overtime. That was the last time UT played an SEC foe in overtime.
- The other two meetings occurred in bowl games, a 38-7 UT win on Jan. 1, 2005, in the Cotton Bowl and a 3-0 Vol victory on Dec. 28, 1957, in the Gator Bowl. Bowden Wyatt was the head coach of the Vols in that Gator Bowl and defeated the Aggies' Bear Bryant.
- Texas A&M offensive analyst Jim Chaney served two stints at Tennessee, including as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach from 2009-11, the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2012 and the interim head coach for the final game of the 2012 season, posting a 37-17 win over Kentucky. Chaney also most recently served as offensive coordinator of the Vols from 2019-20. Multiple members of the current UT offense played under Chaney, including center Cooper Mays, tight end Jacob Warren and wide receiver Ramel Keyton.
- Josh Heupel owns a 9-1 record vs. Texas A&M but has never faced the Aggies as a head coach. He was 2-0 as a player at QB at Oklahoma in the Big 12. Heupel was 31-of-50 for 372 yards and three touchdowns in a 51-6 win in Norman on Oct. 23, 1999. He was 28-of-42 for 263 yards and one score in a 35-31 comeback in College Station on Nov. 11, 2000. He was 7-1 as an assistant coach at Oklahoma with only loss coming in 2010.
- A total of 935 miles separate the two campuses.

Vols Fall To Fifth-Ranked Aggies, 34-13

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tennessee got touchdown passes from Harrison Bailey and J.T. Shrout in the first half, but the Vols were unable to keep pace in falling 34-13 to fifth-ranked Texas A&M in the season finale of the COVID-19 shortened season of 2020.

Bailey had a 33-yard touchdown pass on the game's opening drive and finished the day 6-of-6 for 85 yards. J.T. Shrout added a 46-yard strike with a sensational catch by Cedric Tillman in the second quarter and ended the game 6-of-14 for 104 yards. Tillman led all UT receivers with 61 yards on two catches.

Defensively, three Vol sophomores racked up 10 or more tackles vs. the Aggies (8-1). Linebacker Henry To'o To'o accumulated a career-high 13 stops, including nine solos. It marked the second game in a row and third this season in which he recorded 10 or more tackles. Fellow linebacker Quavaris Crouch and safety Jaylen McCollough added 11 each for career highs. Junior cornerback Alontae Taylor thwarted a drive with his first pick of the season.

Tennessee opened the game with a touchdown on its opening drive for just the second time this season, as Bailey engineered a five-play, 75-yard drive that took only 2:32 off the clock. Bailey was 3-of-3 passing for 64 yards on the march, with tight ends Princeton Fant and Jacob Warren accounting for 48 yards of it. Warren's 33-yard scoring reception, the first TD of his career and longest reception, was the capper.

Texas A&M responded on its first possession of the game, also covering 75 yards, but in 10 plays, to get on the scoreboard with 6:32 remaining in the first quarter. Quarterback Kellen Mond, who was 4-for-4 passing on the series for 53 yards, put the Aggies on the board with his legs, scrambling in from five yards out.

A&M moved in front with 13:17 to go in the second frame, as running back Isaiah Spiller rammed his way into the end zone from three yards out. Small booted the PAT to make it 14-7 Aggies after a 12-play, 69-yard drive that included Spiller accounting for 14 yards on five rushes and 28 yards via a pair of pass receptions.

Shrout came on in place of Bailey for UT's fourth series of the game. He made quick work of the A&M defense, putting the exclamation point on a four-play, 75-yard drive with a 46-yard deep ball that a fully-extended Tillman impressively snared while being interfered with in the checkerboard.

With A&M moving deep into Tennessee's territory late in third quarter, Taylor picked off Mond in the end zone and returned the ball to the UT 45. That marked only the third interception of the season for the Aggie signal-caller and his team's first turnover since Oct. 17 at Mississippi State. Taylor's pick, his first this season and second of his career, helped the Big Orange defense hold the visitors scoreless in the third period.

NOTEBOOK

MILTON TIME

- For the second straight season, Tennessee has a sixth-year senior starting quarterback as Joe Milton III once again takes the reins. It's also the third straight season that a graduate transfer starts under center for the Vols.
- The Michigan graduate transfer served as the starter for the Vols' first two games of the 2021 season before an injury sidelined him in Game 2 vs. Pitt. His then-roommate Hendon Hooker took over and put up two of the most prolific seasons in UT history and finished fifth in voting for the 2022 Heisman Trophy.
- Milton was named MVP of the 2022 Orange Bowl in his home state, firing 19-of-28 passes for 251 yards and a career-high-tying three touchdown passes to defeat ACC champion Clemson.
- Milton owns a 9-5 record as a college starter, including a 7-2 mark at Tennessee.
- Milton has thrown only three interceptions during his time at Tennessee, completing 186-of-304 passes for 2,510 yards and 21 touchdowns.
- Milton's saw a streak of 248 consecutive pass attempts without an interception end in the second quarter at Florida on Sept. 16. It was his 10th pass attempt of the game and his first interception since Nov. 14, 2020, in the first quarter vs. Wisconsin when he was starting for Michigan.
- That pick was also Milton's first in a Tennessee uniform, snapping a streak of 216 consecutive attempts at UT without a pick. It finished as the second-longest streak in program history behind Hendon Hooker's 261 from 2021-22. Milton's streak was also the ninth-longest streak in SEC history. The two longest interception-less streaks in UT history have occurred in the Josh Heupel era.
- Milton brings a streak of nine consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass thrown into the Texas A&M game. He's also completed at least one pass of 40 or more yards in nine straight games and 12 of his last 14 games. He's thrown multiple touchdown passes in four of five games this season.
- In his first start of the 2023 season vs. Virginia, Milton accounted for 234 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, becoming the first Vol player to record at least two passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns in the same game since Hendon Hooker did it in last year's season opener vs. Ball State. He was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts for the first time in his career. It was the first time in Milton's career that he has produced at least two rushing touchdowns and two passing scores in the same game. Milton became the first Vol player to achieve that same feat vs. a Power Five opponent since Joshua Dobbs registered two rushing touchdowns and three passing touchdowns vs. Missouri on Nov. 19, 2016.
- Milton is tied for seventh in the SEC in rushing touchdowns with four, a mark that is tied for second in the SEC among quarterbacks this season. Milton has thrown for at least one touchdown and rushed for at least one touchdown in the same game in three of five contests this season.
- In a Sept. 9 start vs. Austin Peay, Milton had 11 consecutive completions over the course of two scoring drives in the second quarter, which was the ninth-longest streak of completed passes in UT history.
- On Sept. 23 vs. UTSA, Milton raced 81 yards on the first play of scrimmage for the longest rush by a UT QB in history. It tied for the 10th longest rush by any Vol. (of note: halfback Hank Lauricella also had an 81-yarder vs. Tennessee Tech on Nov. 11, 1950. Lauricella threw 65 passes that same season.)
- Milton has fired seven passes of 40 or more yards this season, which is fourth in the SEC and tied for 14th nationally. He's thrown 18 40 or more yards passes in his three seasons combined as a Vol.

EPIC STARTS

- Tennessee outscores opponents 376-142 in the first quarter under Josh Heupel, including 190-51 in 2021, 141-72 in 2022 and 45-19 this season. The Vols have scored at least one touchdown in the first quarter in 28 of 31 games under Heupel with the 2022 season games against Florida and Georgia and this season's Austin Peay game being the only exceptions.
- Josh Heupel teams are known for quick starts. In 67 games as a head coach, Heupel's squads have outscored opponents 823-356 in the first quarter (376-142 at UT, 447-214 at UCF). - In the last three seasons combined under Heupel, Tennessee is first in the FBS in first-quarter scoring differential (+7.55). Georgia is second at +7.06.
- Since the start of the 2018 season, Josh Heupel ranks second among all FBS coaches in first-quarter scoring differential (+6.97). Alabama's Nick Saban is first (+7.17). via SportSource (min. at least one season coached)
- Heupel's teams have scored at least one touchdown in the first quarter in 60 of the 67 games he has coached.

FAST, FUN, REAL

- In the last three seasons combined (since 2021) under Josh Heupel, Tennessee is first in the nation at 2.91 plays per minute. During that same span, the Vols are averaging 1.64 offensive points per minute, which is first in the FBS.
- Of Tennessee's 94 scoring drives in 2022, 52 came in two minutes or less (55.3 percent). This season, of the Vols' 29 scoring drives, 12 have come in two minutes or less (41.4 percent).
- This season, Tennessee once again leads the nation in offensive plays per minute at 2.86. Jacksonville State is second at 2.82, and USF is third at 2.78.
- From 2018-20, Heupel's UCF teams averaged a nation-high 3.04 plays per minute.
- Since the start of the 2018 season, Heupel-coached teams lead the nation in offensive plays per minute (3.00) and they are first offensive points per minute (1.64). (min. at least one season coached)

The Vols had only seven ranked wins in the six seasons combined prior to Heupel (2015-20). The seven ranked wins in the past three seasons combined is tied for third in the FBS during that span with Mike Gundy. Kirby Smart (11) and Nick Saban (11) are tied for first.

SECONDARY RISING TO THE OCCASION

- Tennessee's secondary has performed well this season, allowing just 192.8 yards per game through the air, which is fourth in the SEC.
- The Vols have held both of their SEC opponents well below their season passing average as Florida managed only 166 yards, while South Carolina had 201.
- Sr. CB Kamal Hadden is tied for second in the SEC and tied for fifth in the nation in passes defended with eight. He is tied for third in the SEC and tied for 13th nationally in pass breakups with six. He's tied for fifth in the SEC in interceptions with two, including a pick six in his last game.
- Hadden and Tennessee's defense shut down South Carolina's aerial attack, limiting the Gamecocks to a season-low 201 yards passing and zero touchdowns on Sept. 30. Hadden logged three tackles, a pass breakup, and he made the big play of the game in the second quarter. The Vols seized the momentum when Hadden intercepted Spencer Rattler's errant pass and raced 28 yards for a touchdown with 0:47 remaining to give the Vols a double-digit advantage they would not relinquish. It was the first pick-six by a UT player since Theo Jackson had a 55-yarder vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 27, 2021.

Wright finished with 123 yards on 16 carries, while White caught nine passes for 104 yards for his third career 100-yard receiving game and first since the Orange Bowl.
- White's outing was the first individual 100-yard receiving game by a Vol this season. Tennessee has produced 20 individual 100-yard receiving games in the Josh Heupel era.
- Six times in the Heupel era (since 2021) have the Vols produced a 100-yard receiver and 100-yard rusher in the same game:

- Berry earned unanimous first team All-America honors in 2008, and he repeated the accolade in 2009. He is the only player in school history to achieve that feat twice. In 2009, he became the first player in school history to claim the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back after being a finalist in 2008.

- Berry is the 26th Vol to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and the second in the last three years. Al Wilson was selected in 2021. Of the 26 inductees, 22 were enshrined as players and four as coaches. The 22 players represent the most of any program in the SEC and the eighth-most nationally.

- The Vols have won 12 out of their last 14 games that Mays starts at center, as he started all 13 games at the position a season ago.

- It marked the second time in the past 22 seasons that UT has sold out of its football season ticket inventory, last doing so in August 2016.
- Neyland Stadium's homefield advantage was on full display last season as the Vols went 7-0 in its confines, outscoring opponents 387-152. They drew a total of 703,727 fans for an average of 100,532—both of which ranked in the top five nationally.
- The Vols have sold out Neyland Stadium for 10 consecutive games, including this weekend's SEC contest vs. Texas A&M.

HEAD COACH JOSH HEUPEL

Third Season • @CoachJoshHeupel

- 2022 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year
- 2022, 2018 National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 50-17 Overall Record In His Sixth Season
- 22-9 Record at Tennessee, 28-8 Record at UCF
- Coached in three national title games and 18 bowl games
- Won eight conference championships
- One of only four active FBS HC to lead multiple programs to New Year's Six bowl appearances in the CFP era
- Ranks top eight among HC in NFL Draft picks developed in the last two drafts combined (10 total)
- 2000 National Champion QB and Heisman finalist

Former national champion quarterback Josh Heupel took the reins of Tennessee football in 2021 and has guided the proud program to a national resurgence. The 2022 SEC Coach of the Year and two-time National Coach of the Year finalist was officially announced as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach on Jan. 27, 2021, by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White, who he worked alongside at UCF. On Jan. 24, 2023, White announced a contract extension for Heupel through January 2029.

Taking over a program coming off a 3-7 season and the departure of several players prior to his arrival, Heupel instilled a strong culture built on trust, accountability and relationships. He combined those pillars with the nation's top offense and an attacking defense. In two seasons, Heupel's remarkable revival of the Volunteers has seen him produce a 20-9 overall record, seven victories over Top 25 teams at the time of meeting, the program's first New Year's Six berth in the College Football Playoff era and a No. 6 final ranking. Tennessee has surpassed its SEC preseason projected order of finish in both seasons.

The rapid 2022 start ascended the Vols to No. 1 in the initial College Football Playoff rankings released on Nov. 1, giving UT its first top poll position since the 1998 national championship season. Heupel joined College Football Hall of Famers Phillip Fulmer, Bowden Wyatt and General Robert Neyland to lead the Vols to a No. 1 national ranking all-time. Tennessee secured its first 10-win regular season since 2003 with Heupel becoming just the third Vol coach in the last 60 years to achieve that feat in his first or second season (Bill Battle, Fulmer). Heupel led Tennessee to its first Orange Bowl appearance in 25 years as the Vols beat ACC champion Clemson, 31-14, to claim its first Orange Bowl trophy since 1939. The triumph gave Tennessee its first 11-win season in over two decades as Heupel became just the fifth coach in school history to reach that mark.

STADIUM NOTES

2022: A YEAR TO REMEMBER

Neyland Stadium rose to prominence once again during the 2022 season as Tennessee went 7-0 in its confines, outscoring opponents 387-152. They sold it out for six consecutive games and drew a total of 703,727 fans for an average of 100,532—both of which ranked in the top five nationally. It was the first time since 2007 that UT sold out six or more games.

THE FUTURE

In June 2023, the UT Board of Trustees approved Tennessee Athletics' request to adjust the scope and budget of the ongoing Neyland Stadium renovations project to $337 million. The project includes new deliverables each football season through the fall of 2026. Future updates feature necessary upgrades to the south side and perimeter of the stadium, including the widening of concourses, construction of expanded gates and entryways and additional restrooms and concessions areas. In the spring of 2023, installation of a very high density (VHD) Wi-Fi network began in the stadium. The technology will be partially available to fans in the fall of 2023 with full stadium-wide connectivity available in 2024.

THE RETURN OF V-O-L-S

During the 2022 season, the iconic V-O-L-S letters returned on the south end of Neyland Stadium. Two sets with an orange background and white lettering were installed as part of stadium upgrades under the leadership of Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White. A V-O-L-S history:

Summer 1966

The 8-foot tall backlit VOLS letters—originally with orange lettering and a white background—were installed at the top of the stadium on the south side. From summer 1966 until 1978, they were lit every evening. Beginning in 1978, they were turned off—with the exception of during night football games—as part of an energy conservation program.

Summer 1976

As part of renovations prior to the 1976 season, the design of the letters shifted to white lettering with orange background.

Summer 1999

Neyland Stadium installed its first edition of a videoboard, and the letters are moved to the top of the videoboard. The design of the letters also shifted to orange lettering with white background.

Summer 2009

Due to Neyland Stadium's videoboard being replaced, the letters were removed entirely from the stadium for the first time since the 1965 season.

November 2010

The version of letters that overlooked Neyland Stadium from 1999 to 2009 were auctioned off to Copper Cellar Family of Restaurants through United Way of Greater Knoxville's online auction.

"QUOTES"

ABOUT NEYLAND STADIUM

"The big games I played in Neyland Stadium are right up there with the Super Bowl. It is still one of the most electric atmospheres I have ever experienced, and the passion of the fans is what makes the difference."

- Peyton Manning, Hall of Famer

"To be here in a primetime setting, this is as good as it gets if you are a college football fan. It is wild in here right now. ... Still thinking about Neyland this morning. The brick around the stadium inside the tunnel with the banners, the stadium is massive but has like a 'friendly confines' kind of feel where it doesn't seem as big as it is. Throw in the passion and game ops, it's just incredible!"

- Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN (Nov. 2022)

"Take anybody that's never been to a game in Knoxville and let them experience that with neutral glasses on and they will be blown away. The campus, the Vol Navy, when you pull into town, the stadium, the mascot, the uniforms, the crowd, the fight song, all of it. There is no way you can't be impressed when you go to a game in Knoxville."

- Cole Cubelic, ESPN/SEC Network analyst

"The noise was a constant, oppressive force. I could literally feel it on my skin. But these fans weren't just loud on the first drive. Or just on 3rd down. Or just in the fourth quarter. It was every. single. play."

- Ty Darlington, former Oklahoma offensive lineman (2015)

"Last year when we went to play Tennessee in Neyland Stadium, that was probably the best game experience I've had and probably will ever have. That's a different type of loud. I can't even describe it. It was unbelievable."

- Baker Mayfield, former Oklahoma quarterback (2015)

Vols Roll Past Virginia in Opener, 49-13

No. 12/10 Tennessee cranked up its high-octane offense and used a stingy defensive effort to roll through Virginia 49-13 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. A frenzied crowd of 69,507 - the largest to witness a sporting event in Nissan Stadium history - saw UT pick up where it left off in last December's Orange Bowl victory. Quarterback Joe Milton III finished the day 21-of-30 through the air with 201 passing yards and a pair of passing and rushing touchdowns. Junior running back Jaylen Wright led the team with 115 yards rushing. Tennessee's defense put the clamps on the Hoos, holding them to just 95 yards rushing and 106 through the air. Edge rushers Tyler Baron and James Pearce Jr. notched a pair of sacks, while linebacker Elijah Herring led UT with five total tackles. The Vols marched down the field on its opening drive of the season, going 62 yards on eight plays in 2:47. The drive culminated with a Milton nine-yard touchdown pass to running back Dylan Sampson on fourth down. The score was the first of four for Sampson, who racked up 52 yards on the ground and nine through the air. Sampson's four total touchdowns against UVA were the most by a Tennessee running back since John Kelly Jr. found the endzone four times versus Georgia Tech in the 2017 season opener. The Vols improved to 6-2 all-time in Nissan Stadium games.

Vols Take Home Opener, 30-13

Defensive dominance was key in Tennessee's 2023 home opener as the Vols piled up a Josh Heupel-era high seven sacks and 14 tackles for loss on the way to a 30-13 victory over a scrappy Austin Peay squad. Linebacker Aaron Beasley was all over the field, tallying nine tackles, two sacks and a career-high five TFLs, which were the most by a Vol in a single game since 2004. Kamal Hadden and Warren Burrell recorded takeaways with an interception and fumble recovery, respectively. After trailing early, the Vols scored 20 unanswered points en route to Heupel's 20th victory at the helm of the program. Quarterback Joe Milton III had 11 consecutive completions in the second quarter and ultimately found Ramel Keyton (five yards) and McCallan Castles (43 yards) for a pair of TD tosses in the second half to go along with his 7-yard rushing score just before halftime. The contest, which featured UT's seventh straight packed house at Neyland Stadium, was delayed 28 minutes due to lightning in the area. The Vols donned "Artful Dodger" Smokey Grey uniforms as a tribute to Condredge Holloway, who 51 years to the day, became the first Black quarterback to start in the SEC.

Vols Fall In SEC Opener At Florida, 29-16

A grinding Florida offense controlled the ball and wore down the clock as the No. 11/9 Volunteers fell to the Gators, 29-16, at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium for UT's first loss of the season. Florida held a 37:34 to 22:17 edge in time of possession as it shortened the game and kept Tennessee's offense from finding its rhythm. Quarterback Joe Milton III had his most passing yards (287) in a Tennessee uniform and threw a pair of touchdown passes in the defeat, but had his streak of pass attempts without an interception snapped at 248 (32 at Michigan, 216 at Tennessee). His 216 passes at UT without a pick ranked as the ninth-longest streak in SEC history. The Vols' offense came out firing on all cylinders with a first-quarter scoring drive, going 71 yards on six plays in 2:01 that was capped by Ramel Keyton's 11-yard touchdown grab, but Florida closed the half scoring 26 unanswered to put the game out of reach. UT trimmed the Gator lead to 13 points after Bru McCoy hauled in a 55-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, but was unable to narrow the margin any further. Linebacker Aaron Beasley was Tennessee's leading tackler with eight total stops, while edge rusher James Pearce Jr. tallied a pair of tackles for loss. The contest was the final one as SEC East division rivals.

Vols Strike Early, Race Past Roadrunners 45-14

No. 23/20 Tennessee rolled up a season-high 512 total yards, outgaining UTSA 359-98 in the first half, to race past the Roadrunners, 45-14, in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium. The Vols hit pay-dirt on four of their first five possessions during the first 30 minutes to take a 31-0 lead at intermission over UTSA. As the second half wore on, UT's reserves saw significant playing time and closed out the win. Running back Dylan Sampson paced Tennessee's rushing attack, racking up a career-high 139 yards and scoring a pair of touchdowns on 11 carries. The sophomore helped the Vols rush for a season-best 303 yards on the day, including 89 from Joe Milton III who opened the game with an 81-yard rushing score — the longest run by a quarterback in program history. Milton logged 298 yards of total offense in the win and fired multiple touchdown passes for the fifth-consecutive outing. Tennessee averaged 9.18 yards per carry, representing the second-highest clip in the Heupel era. Linebacker Aaron Beasley led all Vols for the game with nine tackles, and linebacker Elijah Herring recorded a career-high eight stops, a tackle for a loss and a hurry, while defensive back Tamarion McDonald was in on seven tackles and finished with two tackles for loss, a sack and an interception. Cornerback Warren Burrell added a pick, and defensive end Tyler Baron had three hurries and a sack to aid the cause. Defensive back Jourdan Thomas blocked a punt in the first quarter.

Run Game, Defense Lead UT Past Gamecocks

The Tennessee defense kept South Carolina in check, and junior Jaylen Wright rushed for 123 yards and was one of three backs with touchdown runs as the No. 21/19 Volunteers earned a 41-20 league victory over the Gamecocks in the SEC home opener. UT donned its Nike "Dark Mode" uniforms with black helmets, black jerseys and black pants in front of a capacity crowd on Champions Weekend, when the 1998 SEC and BCS National Championship team was honored. Wright paced the SEC's leading rushing attack, grinding out 123 yards on 16 carries, including a 42-yard run for the game's first score that capped a nine-play, 94-yard drive. Joining him with scoring runs were Jabari Small and Dylan Sampson, as they enabled the Big Orange to surpass 200 yards rushing for the fourth time in five games with 238 total on a six-yards-per-carry average. The Tennessee defense kept Gamecock quarterback Spencer Rattler in check for most of the evening and tallied six sacks - led by two from sophomore edge rusher James Pearce Jr. Rattler did not throw a touchdown pass, and the Gamecocks were 2-of-14 on third down. Momentum swung in Tennessee's favor late in the first half when Kamal Hadden picked off Rattler and returned it 28 yards to the end zone, giving the Vols a two-score lead they would not relinquish for the rest of the night. Pearce Jr. set up the pick six on a QB hurry that forced Rattler into an errant throw. WR Bru McCoy suffered a season-ending fracture-dislocation of his right ankle midway through the second quarter. LB Elijah Herring was the Vols' leading tackler with six.
