KEY STORYLINES

LEADING OFF

• VOLS OPEN SEC PLAY IN COMO

For the fourth time under Tony Vitello (since 2018), Tennessee will opener conference play on the road as it heads to Columbia this weekend to take on the Missouri Tigers. Since 2018, the Vols have opened SEC play at home just one time (2022).

• SERIES HISTORY

After losing 12 of the 15 meetings to Missouri from 2015-19, UT has reeled off six straight wins vs. the Tigers with back-to-back series sweeps over the past two years.

• LAST TIME OUT

The Vols capped their 15-game homestand with a 10-0 victory over Lipscomb on Tuesday, finishing that stretch with an impressive 14-1 record.

QUICK HITTERS

• RUNS HARD TO COME BY

Scoring runs on Tennessee's pitching staff has been no easy feat for opposing teams this year. The Vols enter the weekend tied for second nationally with five shutouts this season.

• LOVING THE LONG BALL

The Vols have been on a major power surge entering SEC play with multiple homers in nine of their last 11 games, including six games of three or more long balls in that span.

• BULLPEN IS BOOMING

The Vols' bullpen has given up just one earned run over the last four games while posting a 0.56 ERA in 16.0 innings of work. UT's relievers have struck out 21 batters and issued just six walks in that time.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

5

UT has already posted FIVE shut-outs this season, marking just the fourth time in program history it has recorded five shutouts before the start of SEC play (1994, 2005, 2019).

9

NINE different Tennessee players have combined to hit 16 home runs over the past four games for the Big Orange entering this weekend's series at Missouri.

12+

Four Vols enter Tuesday's game with reached base streaks of 12+ games (Christian Moore - 18, Griffin Merritt - 16, Jared Dickey - 13, Blake Burke - 12).

ROUNDING THE BASES

SEC OPENING WEEKEND

- After another successful start to the year, the Vols enter SEC play with a 15-3 record. In each of the past five seasons, Tennessee has entered league play with at least 15 wins: (17-1 in 2019, 15-2 in 2020, 15-3 in 2021, 16-1 in 2022, 15-3 in 2023).
- For the fourth time under head coach Tony Vitello, Tennessee opens SEC play on the road. The Vols also opened conference play away from home in 2018 (at Ole Miss), 2019 (at Auburn) and 2021 (at Georgia). UT went 3-6 overall in those three series with a series win over Georgia in 2021.
- The Big Orange will be looking to notch their third straight series win on SEC Opening Weekend after taking two of three at Georgia in 2021 and sweeping South Carolina at home last season.
- The Vols will be looking for their first victory in an SEC opener against Missouri. (0-1 // L, 5-2 on 3/14/14)
- Tennessee is 12-16 in SEC openers on the road since 1980 and 33-45 overall in SEC openers.

BIG ORANGE SEC DOMINANCE

- Tennessee put together one of the most dominant seasons in SEC history in 2022, winning both the SEC Regular Season and SEC Tournament championships for the first time since 1995.
- The Vols posted their best record in league play in program history, going 25-5 en route to winning the SEC regular season title by six games, and the eastern division crown by 10 games, both of which are the largest margins in conference history.
- UT secured the regular-season title with four games still remaining in conference play after clinching the Eastern Division title a week earlier.
- The Vols have won the last two SEC Eastern Division crowns and will look to make it three in a row this season for just the second time in program history (1993-95).
- Tennessee was the first team to start SEC play 12-0 in the history of the conference, surpassing the previous record of 11-0 held by LSU (1991), Ole Miss (1964) and Alabama (1940).
- UT is 45-15 in SEC play over the past two seasons, by far the best record in the league. The only other program with 40 wins in that span is Arkansas (40-20). The next closest Eastern Division team is Vanderbilt at 33-26.

BOMBS AWAY

- After putting up record-setting home runs numbers in 2022, Tennessee has been leaving the yard at an impressive rate once again this season with 41 long balls through 18 games, which is tied for third in the country entering this weekend's series.
- After Hunter Ensley became the latest Vol to add his name to the home run column in Tuesday's win over Lipscomb, 15 different players have gone deep this season for the Big Orange. Eight of those 15 players have hit multiple homers, led by Blake Burke (8) and Griffin Merritt (6).
- UT has hit three-plus homers in each of its last four games and has gone deep multiple times in 13 games this season. Over the past four games, nine different players have left the yard.
- The Vols homered at least three times in all three games against Morehead State last weekend, totaling 13 for the series against the Eagles, who had allowed just six over their first 13 games entering the weekend.
- For the fourth time since 2019, the Big Orange tied the program's single-season home run record, blasting seven long balls in last Friday night's series opener.
- Six separate players combined for the seven homers on the night while four different players hit their first home run of the year (Maui Ahuna -2, Kavares Tears, Dylan Dreiling, Christian Scott). Tears and Dreiling's blasts were the first of their careers.
- Tennessee's 158 home runs in 2022 shattered the previous program record of 107 while ranking fourth in NCAA Division I history, including the most by any team in the BBCOR bat era (since 2011).

VFLs IN THE WORLD BASEBALL CLASSIC

- Two VFLs represented the Vols in the 2023 World Baseball Classic. Liam Spence and Team Australia made it through the Group Stage before being eliminated by Cuba in the quarterfinals, while Julio Borbon served as the first base coach for the Dominican Republic.

GLOVE WORK

- The Vols have been one of the nation's best defensive teams so far this season, posting a .987 fielding percentage, which ranks fourth in the country and second in the SEC.
- UT has committed just eight errors this season and only five over the past 16 games. The Vols have not committed an error in 12 of their 18 games this season.

3BU

- Tennessee has become a factory when it comes to producing third basemen with the likes of Andre Lipcius (2019), Jake Rucker (2020-21) and Trey Lipscomb (2022) manning the hot corner in each of the past four years.
- Zane Denton looks to be the next in line of ultra-productive players at third base for the Big Orange. The Alabama transfer enters the weekend ranked second on the team in doubles (3), RBIs (18) and on-base percentage (.461) while also ranking third on the team in batting average (.339). Denton has also homered twice and leads the team with three triples.

ANDERSON'S ARM FACTORY

- Under the guidance of Frank Anderson, who has proven to be one of the nation's top pitching coaches and developers of talent throughout his highly-successful career, Tennessee once again has one of the nation's premier pitching staffs.
- The Vols' staff has been the driving force behind the team's early-season success and enters this weekend's series among the national and SEC leaders in numerous categories.

Category	Stat	NCAA Rank	SEC Rank
ERA	2.05	1	1
Hits Allowed/9 Inn.	5.75	2	2
Shutouts	5	t-2	2
Strikeout-to-Walk Ratio	5.62	2	1
Strikeouts/9 Inn.	12.5	4	1
WHIP	0.89	1	1
Walks Allowed/9 Inn.	2.22	2	1

- UT has held its opponents to three or fewer earned runs in 16 of its 18 games so far this season.
- The Vols continued to put up impressive strikeout numbers last week, averaging more than 12 strikeouts per game, totaling 55 for the week.
- Tennessee has recorded double-digit strikeouts in 15 of its 18 games this season, with a high of 20 on Feb. 24 vs. Dayton.
- In their series sweep of Morehead State last weekend, the Vols totaled 43 punchouts over the three games (15 in Game 1, 16 in Game 2 and 12 in Game 3). The 43 strikeouts were the most by UT in a single series since racking up 46 in three games vs. Indiana (Feb. 22-24, 2019).
- The Vols' relievers have also been impressive this year with a 2.14 ERA and 101 strikeouts compared to just 21 walks in 75.2 innings pitched. Top relievers Andrew Lindsey (0.90), AJ Russell (1.04), Zach Joyce (1.29), Bryce Jenkins (1.69), Kirby Connell (1.69), Seth Halvorsen (2.40) and Jacob Bimbi (2.84) all enter this weekend with ERA's under 3.00.

BURKE AMONG NATION'S BEST

- Sophomore slugger Blake Burke has emerged as one of the nation's top hitters as the Vols prepare to enter conference play this weekend.
- For the year, Burke is leading the team in batting average (.400), OPS (1.336), hits (26), home runs (8), RBIs (24), total bases (57) and slugging percentage (.877).
- Burke also ranks among the NCAA and SEC leaders in a handful of offensive categories:

Category	Stat	NCAA Rank	SEC Rank
Home Runs	8	t-12	t-4
RBIs	24	t-38	t-14
Slugging Pct.	.877	27	10

- After blasting 14 homers in just 95 at-bats as a freshman in 2022, Burke is already up to 22 big flies in his Tennessee career as just a sophomore and is currently averaging a home run every 7.3 at-bats for his career.

- Another impact transfer who's starting to swing a hot bat is outfielder Griffin Merritt, who now ranks second on the team with six home runs after going yard three times in last weekend's series vs. Morehead State.
- In the series sweep of the Eagles, the Cincinnati transfer and 2022 AAC Player of the Year batted .455 with three homers and seven RBIs, including a multi-homer game with four RBIs in the series finale.

Tony Vitello (pronounced: VIE-tell-oh) accepted the position of head coach for the Tennessee Volunteers baseball program on June 7, 2017.

Since taking over on Rocky Top, Vitello has led the Big Orange back to national prominence and has helped establish Tennessee baseball as an SEC and national power, leading the program to three NCAA regionals (2019, 2021, 2022), back-to-back NCAA super regionals (2021 & 2022) and a College World Series (2021), its first since 2005.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Vitello arrived at UT following four seasons as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Arkansas. His rise to the head coaching ranks also included stops at Missouri (his alma mater) and TCU. He has earned a reputation as one of the elite recruiters on the college baseball landscape, having assembled 12 top-15 signing classes—including America's top-rated crop of talent in 2014. In November 2016, DIBaseball.com ranked Vitello No. 2, and tops in the SEC, on its list of the top 30 recruiting coordinators in America.

During a full-time, Division I coaching career spanning 19 years, Vitello has signed and developed nine first-round MLB Draft picks and a handful of players who gone on to play in Major League Baseball. That list includes VFL Garrett Crochet, Andrew Benintendi, Brandon Finnegan, Kyle Gibson, All-Star Aaron Crow, Gold Glove Award winner and four-time All-Star Ian Kinsler and five-time All-Star and three-time Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer.

Vitello, a two-time National Coach of the Year during his time at Tennessee, has recruited and developed three first-round picks during his tenure with the Vols, including Crochet, who was selected with the 11th overall pick in the 2020 MLB Draft and became the first player to go from the draft to the big leagues without playing in the minors since Mike Leake did so with the Reds in 2010. Crochet made six appearances for the Chicago White Sox during the 2020 season, including one postseason outing.

Tennessee has had 27 players drafted since 2018 when Vitello took over as head coach, averaging just over five picks per year. Since 2019, the Vols' 26 selections rank third amongst SEC teams in that span.

Tennessee cemented its reemergence as an SEC and national power in 2022, setting a new program record with 57 victories en route to winning SEC Regular Season and SEC Tournament titles. With Vitello in charge, the Vols have increased their win total during every full season since his arrival (29 - 2018, 40 - 2019, 50 - 2021, 57 - 2022).

The Volunteers achieved the program's first No. 1 national ranking in any poll in week six of the 2022 season before settling in as the unanimous top-ranked team in week seven. UT was ranked No. 1 in at least one poll during 12 weeks of the season and spent 10 weeks as the nation's unanimous top-ranked team.

The Vols led the nation in numerous statistical categories while setting a handful of program records along the way, including new marks for home runs (158), runs scored (613), RBIs (574), slugging percentage (.604), ERA (2.51), WHIP (1.00), opponent batting average (.199), strikeouts (695), strikeouts/nine innings (10.5) and walks allowed/nine innings (2.48), among others.

UT was one win away from making its second consecutive College World Series appearance but fell to Notre Dame in the Knoxville Super Regional. However, the Big Orange won both the SEC Regular Season and SEC Tournament championships for the first time since 1995. The Vols won the SEC Regular Season title by six games, and the eastern division crown by 10 games, both of which are the largest margins in conference history.

Tennessee became the first NCAA Division I team since at least 1972 to lead the country in both home runs and ERA. The Vols' 158 long balls shattered the previous program record of 107 while ranking fourth in NCAA Division I history, including the most by any team in the BBOR bat era (since 2011). UT also led the country in runs scored (613), slugging percentage (.604), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.24), WHIP (1.00), walks allowed/nine innings (2.48) and winning percentage (.864).

Vitello was named the Perfect Game National Coach of the Year for the second season in a row and was also tabbed as the Southeast Region Coach of the Year by the American Baseball

Coaches Association (ABCA). The Vols set a program record with nine players earning postseason All-America honors, including four first-team selections, which was also a school record. Tennessee had four players earn Freshmen All-America honors, as well.

Sophomore pitcher Chase Dollander racked up the postseason honors following a dominant year on the mound, becoming the first UT player to be named SEC Pitcher of the Year and earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Luke Hochevar in 2005. Freshman right hander Chase Burns also brought home some national awards after being named the DIBaseball.com National Freshman of the Year, the NCBWA Freshman National Pitcher of the Year and the Collegiate Baseball Co-Freshman National Player of the Year.

UT's 2022 record-breaking season was followed by an equally impressive showing in the 2022 MLB Draft, as a program-record 10 Vols were selected, ranking second among all schools nationally and first in the SEC. Outfielders Drew Gilbert and Jordan Beck were both taken in the first round, giving Tennessee multiple first rounders for the first time since 2007 when three Tennessee players were selected in the opening round. The Vols became just the fourth SEC team to have 10 or more players chosen in the first 20 rounds of any MLB Draft, joining the likes of Mississippi State, Texas A&M and Vanderbilt.

Tennessee continued its ascension through the college baseball ranks during an historic 2021 season. Vitello's Vols won 50 games for just the third time in program history, finishing with a 50-18 record while advancing to the College World Series for the first time since 2005. UT also hosted an NCAA regional for the first time since 2005 and hosted its first-ever super regional, sweeping LSU to punch its ticket to Omaha for the fifth time in program history. Tennessee's 50 wins were tied for the most in the country in 2021.

Under Vitello's guidance, Tennessee won its first SEC Eastern division title since 1997 after posting a 20-10 record in league play and winning eight of its 10 conference series, including all five series on the road for the first time ever. The Vols also made their first appearance in the SEC Tournament Championship game since 1995 and advanced to back-to-back NCAA regionals for the first time since 2004 and 2005.

Vitello was named the 2021 National Coach of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Perfect Game, becoming just the second head coach in program history to earn that honor, joining legendary Vols' skipper Rod Delmonico, who was named National Coach of the Year by Baseball America in 1995. Delmonico led Tennessee to three of its previous four trips to the College World Series (1995, 2001, 2005) and is the program's career leader in wins with 699 during his time on Rocky Top. With an 11-6 win over Georgia on March 19, Vitello became the fastest head coach in program history to win 100 games with the Vols, overtaking Delmonico's mark of 163 games. Vitello needed just 153 contests to accomplish the feat. The St. Louis native has compiled a 191-77 record during his five seasons with the Big Orange despite having the majority of the 2020 season canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Tennessee was ranked for the entire 2021 season and checked in as high as No. 2 in the polls on multiple occasions—the program's highest ranking ever at the time. The Vols set a program record with 16 road victories and hit 98 home runs—second most in school history at the time. Tennessee also had five players earn All-America honors in 2021, another program record until it was broken in the 2022 season.

For the third year in a row, Tennessee was also well-represented in the MLB Draft. UT's seven total picks were tied for the sixth most among Division I programs, and at the time, were tied for the second most in a single draft in program history and marked the most Vols ever selected through the first 20 rounds of any draft.

A three-year letterwinner at Missouri (2000-02), Vitello earned Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors as a senior and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice. Following his playing career and the completion of his management degree at MU, Vitello joined the Missouri coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2003 and completed his course work for his master's degree in business. In 2004, he was elevated to full-time assistant coach.
