LEADING OFF

VOLS LOOK TO KEEP ROLLING IN SEC PLAY

After a thrilling top-five series win on the road at No. 3 Kentucky last weekend, Tennessee will look to keep rolling this weekend when Missouri comes to town for a three-game series beginning on Thursday night. The Vols have won five straight SEC series after dropping their conference opening series at Alabama.

MOORE RACKING UP WEEKLY HONORS

Junior infielder Christian Moore racked up the weekly honors after an incredible weekend in Lexington where he hit .600 with four home runs and nine RBIs to lead the Vols to a massive series win. Moore went 8-for-11 with five runs scored, four home runs and eight RBIs over the final two games of the series, including a three-homer, six RBI day in Sunday's rubber game. The New York native was named the SEC Player of the Week as well as the National Player of the Week by D1Baseball.com and Perfect Game on Monday.

WINNING SUNDAY

Tennessee has played some of its best baseball on Sundays this season. With a 13-11 win at Kentucky, the Big Orange improved to 9-1 in Sunday games this year, including 4-1 in SEC rubber games. Under head coach Tony Vitello, the Vols are an impressive 17-10 overall in rubber games, including a 16-9 mark in conference play.

LAST TIME OUT

The Vols improved to 11-0 this season in midweek games with another dominant performance on Tuesday night in a 12-4 victory over Western Carolina.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

After four homers last weekend, Christian Moore has hit 13 of his team-leading 19 home runs in SEC play, the most of any player in conference play entering this weekend.

31

After another multi-hit effort on Tuesday, Blake Burke enters this weekend riding a 31-game hit streak, the longest in program history and the longest current streak in the nation.

185

Tennessee's 185 victories since the start of the 2021 season are the most of any Division I program, 11 more than second-place Arkansas, who has won 174 in that span.

ROUNDING THE BASES

SEC SUCCESS UNDER VITELLO

- During the five-plus seasons in which Tennessee has played SEC games under head coach Tony Vitello, the Vols are 99-69 in league play. In the six full seasons prior to Vitello taking over (2012-17), UT was 81-120 in SEC play.
- Tennessee is 73-35 in SEC regular-season play since 2021, which is the best record in the league in that span, half a game better than Arkansas (72-36). Including postseason games, the Vols are 81-38 against SEC foes since 2021.
- The Vols have posted 14 series sweeps in conference play under Vitello: 2024 (1), 2023 (3), 2022 (6), 2021 (2), 2019 (1), 2018 (1). In the six year's prior to Vitello taking over, (2012-17) UT swept just two SEC series.
- With a 16-14 mark in SEC play in 2023, the Big Orange posted their third straight season with winning record in conference play (2021, 2022, 2023). The last time UT had three consecutive seasons with a record above .500 in SEC play was during a five-year stretch from 1993-1997.
- In 2022, the Vols took home the SEC regular season and SEC Tournament titles for the first time 1995. Tennessee posted its best record in league play in program history, going 25-5 en route to winning the SEC regular season title by six games, and the eastern division crown by 10 games, both of which are the largest margins in conference history.
- UT has been nearly unbeatable in SEC home opening series under Vitello, and added to that impressive record with a series win over No. 17 Ole Miss this season. The Vols own a 16-2 overall record and have swept four of their six SEC home opening series during Vitello's head coaching tenure (2018-pres.).

2024: Won Series vs. #17 Ole Miss (2-1)

2020: No SEC Games (COVID-19)

2023: Swept #12 Texas A&M (3-0)

2019: Won Series vs. South Carolina (2-1)

2022: Swept South Carolina (3-0)

2018: Swept Alabama (3-0)

2021: Swept #14 LSU (3-0)

ROCKY TOP TRULY IS HOME SWEET HOME

- Tennessee has been extremely tough to beat at home over the past three-plus years thanks in large part to having one of the best home field advantages in college baseball.
- The Vols are 141-23 when playing at Lindsey Nelson Stadium since the start of the 2020 season and continue to set attendance records along the way.
- The Big Orange are 27-2 at home this year after going 33-5 at home in 2023 with six series sweeps, marking the program's third consecutive season with 30 or more home victories.
- UT's 27 home victories this season are tied for the most in the country while their .931 winning percentage at home ranks ninth nationally.

Attendance Notes

- Attendance at Lindsey Nelson Stadium has been rising significantly during the past two-plus years, as 48 of UT's 50 highest single-game attendance marks have come since the start of the 2021 season (all over 4,000).
- UT has set a handful attendance records already this season, thanks in large part to the increased capacity of Lindsey Nelson Stadium. The Vols have broken the previous single-game attendance record of 5,086 (5/28/95 vs. Oklahoma State) 14 times already this year, including its top three crowds in program history vs. LSU (5,901, 6,155 and 6,092).
- UT also broke its three-game series attendance record for the fifth time during its weekend series sweep over the Tigers with 18,148 fans having attended the games, besting the previous mark of 16,751 during the Ole Miss series (March 22-24).
- UT sold out 23 of their 38 home games last season and had an average attendance of 4,369, which set a new program record and ranked 10th in the nation. The Vols are on pace to shatter that record this year as they are averaging 5,097 fans per game, which ranks 10th nationally.

LNS Attendance Records Set in 2024

Single Game Record: April 14 vs. LSU (6,155)

Three-Game Series Record: April 12-14 vs. LSU (18,148)

Home Opener Record: Feb. 20 vs. UNC Asheville (4,699)

SHADES OF '98

- Somewhat similar to the famous home run race between Mark McGuire and Sammy Sosa during the 1998 MLB season, Tennessee juniors Christian Moore and Blake Burke are in the midst of their own tightly contested race to be the program's all-time home run leader.
- Entering play this weekend, the duo ranks No. 1 and No. 2 on UT's all-time home runs list. Moore (46) leads Burke (44) by two after hitting four homers in last weekend's series at No. 3 Kentucky.
- Burke and Moore have both surpassed the previous record holder, Luc Lipcius, who hit 40 from 2017-22.

SUNDAYS ARE FOR THE VOLS

- UT has played some of its best baseball on Sundays, posting an 9-1 record in Sunday series finales this year.
- After an unusual season in 2023 where they only played two rubber games all year, with the first one not occurring until early May, five of the Vols' six SEC series so far this season have featured a Sunday rubber game.
- UT is 4-1 in those games, having won four consecutive decisive game threes against the likes of No. 18 Ole Miss, No. 22 Georgia, Auburn and No. 3 Kentucky.
- Under Vitello (2018-pres.), the Vols are an impressive 17-10 in rubber games including a 16-9 mark in SEC play.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER ON FULL DISPLAY

- Tennessee enters the weekend with the top scoring attack in the SEC and ranks second in the nation, averaging 10.4 runs per game, a mark that would set a new single-season program record if the season were to end today, besting the 1998 team's mark of 10.1.
- The Vols have put up monster offensive numbers during their past two road series, scoring 61 total runs while blasting 24 home runs in a pair of series wins at Auburn (4/5-4/7) and at No. 3 Kentucky (4/19-4/21).
- UT scored almost at will in its road trip to Auburn, torching the Tigers' pitching staff for 36 runs and 25 extra-base hits, including a program SEC series record 14 home runs.
- Tennessee's powerful attack impressed once again last weekend at Kentucky against one of the SEC's best pitching staffs, scoring 25 runs and racking up 15 extra-base hits, including 10 home runs.

MOORE IS MORE

- Christian Moore is having an SEC Player of the Year caliber season and proved yet again why he is one of the most complete hitters in all of college baseball with some massive performances in last weekend's top-five series win at No. 3 Kentucky.
- The New York native had at least one hit and one RBI in each of the three games and was nearly impossible to get out in UT's back-to-back wins on Saturday and Sunday, combining to go 8-for-11 with five runs scored, four home runs and eight RBIs in those two contests.
- Moore tied his career high with four base hits in each of those games and set or tied career bests with four runs, three homers and six RBIs in Sunday's rubber game. His three long balls tied the single-game program record and also moved him into first place on Tennessee's career home runs list with 46, passing current teammate Blake Burke (44).
- The junior infielder leads the team with a career-high 19 home runs entering this weekend and is second on the team with 45 RBIs.
- The Brooklyn, New York, native has been especially productive in league play, leading the SEC in hits (33), home runs (13), RBIs (28) and total bases (78) while also ranking among the league leaders in batting average (.407), slugging percentage (.963) and runs (22).
- Moore was named the SEC Player of the Week for the second time in the last three weeks on Monday and was also tabbed the National Player of the Week by D1Baseball.com and Perfect Game.

ROCKY TOP ROUND TRIPPERS

- Tennessee has been the nation's most prolific home run hitting team since the start of the 2021 season, leading all NCAA Division I programs with 496 long balls during that span. In the previous decade before that (2010-2020), the Volunteers totaled just 376 home runs.
- UT has homered in 39 of its 41 games this season with 115 total round trippers, which is first in the nation. Tennessee has also already broken the single-season program record for grand slams with 10 in just 41 games played. Nine of the 10 have been hit by different players.
- The Vols 10 grand slams are tied for the fifth most in a single season in NCAA history and tied for the most ever by an SEC team with the 1998 LSU Tigers, who played 67 games. The Big Orange are chasing the NCAA single-season record of 14 by Arizona State in 2003 (68 games).
- Through 41 games, the Vols are well ahead of their program record pace from 2022 when they hit 158 home runs. Tennessee's 115 round trippers are 21 more than the 2022 squad had through 40 games (94).
- The Vols have 12 players who have hit multiple homers this season and five players with double-digit bombs (Amick, Burke, Dreiling, Moore, Tears).
- UT hit a program SEC series record 14 home runs in its series at Auburn (April 5-7), including six each in wins on Saturday and Sunday.
- With five homers on Saturday and four home runs on Sunday at Kentucky, and another four on Tuesday vs. Western Carolina, Tennessee has hit four or more homers in a game 16 times this season, including nine occurrences of five or more.
- The Vols have surpassed the 100-homer mark in each of the past three years, including a program record 158 in 2022, which ranks fourth in NCAA Division I history and is the most in the BBOR bat era (since 2011).
- The Big Orange hit 126 home runs in 2023, which is the second highest tally in program history and ranked sixth in the country. Tennessee also hit 98 long balls in 2021. Prior to 2021, the Vols had hit more than 87 homers just once in program history (107 in 1998).
- Since 2019, the Big Orange have tied the program's single-game home run record on four different occasions, blasting seven long balls each in victories over Morehead State (3/10/23), Mississippi State (5/19/22), James Madison (3/9/22) and Lipscomb (4/9/19).

HELTON IS COOPERSTOWN BOUND

- Tennessee legend Todd Helton was voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in January and will be officially inducted into the hall on July 21 in Cooperstown, New York.

TENNESSEE HEAD BASEBALL COACH: TONY VITELLO

Full Bio on UTSports.com

Tony Vitello (pronounced: vie-TELL-oh) accepted the position of head coach for the Tennessee Volunteers baseball program on June 7, 2017.

Since taking over on Rocky Top, Vitello has led the Big Orange back to national prominence and has helped establish Tennessee baseball as an SEC and national power, leading the program to four NCAA regionals (2019, 2021, 2022, 2023), three NCAA super regionals (2021, 2022, 2023) and a pair of Men's College World Series appearances (2021 & 2023).

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Vitello arrived at UT following four seasons as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Arkansas. His rise to the head coaching ranks also included stops at Missouri (his alma mater) and TCU. He has earned a reputation as one of the elite recruiters on the college baseball landscape, having assembled 12 top-15 signing classes—including America's top-rated crop of talent in 2014. In November 2016, D1Baseball.com ranked Vitello No. 2, and tops in the SEC, on its list of the top 30 recruiting coordinators in America.

During a full-time, Division I coaching career spanning 20 years, Vitello has signed and developed 10 first-round MLB Draft picks and a handful of players who have gone on to play in Major League Baseball. That list includes VFL Garrett Crochet, Andrew Benintendi, Brandon Finnegan, Kyle Gibson, All-Star Aaron Crow, Gold Glove Award winner and four-time All-Star Ian Kinsler and five-time All-Star and three-time Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer.

Vitello, a two-time National Coach of the Year during his time at Tennessee, has recruited and developed four first-round picks during his tenure with the Vols, including Chase Dollander, who became UT's highest-drafted pitcher straight out of college in program history when he was selected by the Colorado Rockies with the No. 9 overall pick in the 2023 MLB Draft, besting Crochet, who was selected with the 11th overall pick in the 2020 MLB Draft and became the first player to go from the draft to the big leagues without playing in the minors since Mike Leake did so with the Reds in 2010.

Tennessee has had 35 players drafted since 2018 when Vitello took over as head coach, averaging nearly six picks per year. Since 2020, the Vols' 28 total draft picks lead the nation.

After a record-breaking 2022 season that ended one win short of a return trip to Omaha, the Vols used a strong second half of the season to propel themselves on an impressive postseason run and reach the Men's College World Series for the second time in three years in 2023, the program's second appearance under Vitello.

Tennessee cemented its reemergence as an SEC and national power in 2022, setting a new program record with 57 victories en route to winning SEC Regular Season and SEC Tournament titles. With Vitello in charge, the Vols have increased their win total during every full season since his arrival (29 - 2018, 40 - 2019, 50 - 2021, 57 - 2022).

The Volunteers achieved the program's first No. 1 national ranking in any poll in week six of the 2022 season before settling in as the unanimous top-ranked team in week seven. UT was ranked No. 1 in at least one poll during 12 weeks of the season and spent 10 weeks as the nation's unanimous top-ranked team.

The Vols led the nation in numerous statistical categories while setting a handful of program records along the way, including new marks for home runs (158), runs scored (613), RBIs (574), slugging percentage (.604), ERA (2.51), WHIP (1.00), opponent batting average (.199), strikeouts (695), strikeouts/nine innings (10.5) and walks allowed/nine innings (2.48), among others.

Vitello was named the Perfect Game National Coach of the Year for the second season in a row and was also tabbed as the Southeast Region Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA). The Vols set a program record with nine players earning postseason All-America honors, including four first-team selections, which was also a school record. Tennessee had four players earn Freshmen All-America honors, as well.

Tennessee continued its ascension through the college baseball ranks during an historic 2021 season. Vitello's Vols won 50 games for just the third time in program history, finishing with a 50-18 record while advancing to the College World Series for the first time since 2005. UT also hosted an NCAA regional for the first time since 2005 and hosted its first-ever super regional, sweeping LSU to punch its ticket to Omaha for the fifth time in program history. Tennessee's 50 wins were tied for the most in the country in 2021.

Under Vitello's guidance, Tennessee won its first SEC Eastern division title since 1997 after posting a 20-10 record in league play and winning eight of its 10 conference series, including all five series on the road for the first time ever. The Vols also made their first appearance in the SEC Tournament Championship game since 1995 and advanced to back-to-back NCAA regionals for the first time since 2004 and 2005.

Vitello was named the 2021 National Coach of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Perfect Game, becoming just the second head coach in program history to earn that honor, joining legendary Vols' skipper Rod Delmonico, who was named National Coach of the Year by Baseball America in 1995. Delmonico led Tennessee to three of its previous four trips to the College World Series (1995, 2001, 2005) and is the program's career leader in wins with 699 during his time on Rocky Top.

Tennessee was ranked for the entire 2021 season and checked in as high as No. 2 in the polls on multiple occasions—the program's highest ranking ever at the time. The Vols set a program record with 16 road victories and hit 98 home runs—second most in school history at the time. Tennessee also had five players earn All-America honors in 2021, another program record until it was broken in the 2022 season.

Tennessee took a major step forward as a program during Vitello's second season at the helm in 2019. The Vols went 40-21 overall and 14-16 in SEC play to finish third in the Eastern Division, the program's highest finish since 2005. Vitello led the Big Orange to their first NCAA regional since 2005, ending a 13-year drought.

The Vols exploded out of the gates in 2019 with the best start in program history, winning their first 15 games of the season. UT also won five series in SEC play (most since 2005) and finished the year with 26 victories over non-conference teams (most since 2000).

In his first season at Tennessee, Vitello led the Vols to a 29-27 overall record and engineered an impressive turnaround from 2017 in SEC play. After winning just seven conference games in 2017, Vitello helped lead UT to 12 wins and three series victories in league play, including a sweep of Alabama and series victories over ranked foes Texas A&M and Kentucky. Tennessee posted a 9-6 record at home in SEC play, which was the program's best since 2005.

A three-year letterwinner at Missouri (2000-02), Vitello earned Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors as a senior and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice. Following his playing career and the completion of his management degree at MU, Vitello joined the Missouri coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2003 and completed his course work for his master's degree in business. In 2004, he was elevated to full-time assistant coach.
