STORYLINES

■ BACK ON THE ROAD: No. 4/4 Tennessee will play its second straight SEC road game in primetime following an open week as the Volunteers take on Arkansas at 7:30 p.m. ET Saturday from DWR Razorback Stadium. All three of Tennessee's games away from Neyland Stadium have been ABC primetime. The Vols are off to a 4-0 start for the second time in three seasons under Josh Heupel, representing the first time since 1991-92 that they have achieved that feat twice over a three-year stretch. Tennessee has won six straight games dating back to last season's Nov. 25 Vanderbilt contest. That is the fourth-longest current streak in the nation behind Missouri (8), Army (8) and Duke (7). All six wins have come by double-digits. Arkansas has won three straight in the series, but the Vols lead the all-time matchup, 13-6. The Razorbacks fell to No. 24 Texas A&M, 21-17, in Arlington. The Vols are seeking their first 5-0 start since 2022, Heupel's second year.

■ HEUPEL ERA: Josh Heupel, the 2022 AP SEC Coach of the Year, is in his fourth season at UT. Since taking over a program that was 3-7 prior to his arrival, Heupel owns a 31-12 record and has won 26 of his last 33 games. He led UT to the program's winningest two-year stretch (20 from 2022-23) since the Vols won 20 from 2003-04. Since 2018, he ranks sixth nationally among active FBS head coaches in victories with 59. Heupel became the quickest UT coach to reach 30 wins (42 games) since Phillip Fulmer did in his 38th game on Nov. 18, 1995, at Kentucky (34-31). He was the fifth-quickest Vol coach in history to reach the milestone, behind Gen. Robert Neyland (33 games, 1929); Bill Battle (35 games, 1972), John Barnhill (37 games, 1945) and Fulmer (38 games). Heupel will be coaching in his 80th game as a head coach.

■ NEVER TRAILED: Tennessee is one of four FBS programs who have not trailed this season, joining Texas, Indiana and Army. The Vols have not trailed in 24 straight quarters dating back to last season's Vanderbilt game. The last time Tennessee trailed was when it lost to top-ranked Georgia on Nov. 18. Tennessee has led in 202 minutes and 53 seconds of game action this season and is outscoring opponents 216-28. That +188 point differential is currently the best in the nation and the seventh-best by an FBS team through four games since 2000. The Vols are outscoring opponents 149-6 in the first half this season.

■ OPEN WEEK SUCCESS: Josh Heupel owns an 8-1 record in games played after an open week in his six previous seasons as a head coach, including a 3-0 mark at Tennessee and a 5-1 record at UCF. The Vols are 85-49-9 all-time after open dates and 51-35-2 after open weeks in league play. Tennessee has outscored opponents 105-68 under Heupel following open dates with wins at No. 18 Kentucky (2021), at No. 25 LSU (2022) and vs. Texas A&M (2023). The Vols also have an open date on Oct. 26 following the Alabama game.

■ TOP FIVE IN THE FBS: Tennessee heads into the Arkansas contest ranked in the FBS top five in 11 major categories: scoring offense (1st - 54.0), total defense (1st - 176.0), yards per play allowed (1st - 3.13), third-down defense (1st - 17.0), first down defense (1st - 11.0), scoring defense (2nd - 7.0), rushing defense (2nd - 50.8), total offense (3rd - 565.8), kickoff return defense (3rd - 5.0), pass defense (4th - 125.3) and rushing offense (4th - 290.0). The Vols are the only team in the country boasting a top five scoring offense, scoring defense, total offense AND total defense. UT has surrendered the fewest offensive touchdowns in the country this season (2). Both came in the fourth quarter at Oklahoma - 2-yard pass and 1-yard rush. The other touchdown scored on the Vols this season was an 87-yard interception return by NC State. Opponents have failed to score an offensive touchdown in 19 out of the last 20 quarters played vs. Tennessee.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE-ARKANSAS SERIES

- Tennessee and Arkansas are meeting for the 20th time and the first time in Fayetteville since the COVID-shortened season of 2020. The Vols lead the all-time series 13-6, but the Razorbacks have captured the last three meetings.
- This will be the seventh meeting between the two teams in Fayetteville. The Razorbacks have won the last three meetings in Fayetteville, including a 24-13 win on Nov. 7, 2020, in Jeremy Pruitt's final season.
- The last time Tennessee defeated Arkansas was on Nov. 10, 2007, by a score of 34-13 in Knoxville. That season the Vols captured the SEC East championship.
- This is just the fourth meeting between the two programs in the last 16 years.
- UT is seeking its first win in Fayetteville since Sept. 8, 2001, when the Vols opened SEC play with a 13-3 win. Arkansas held a 3-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter of that contest, but UT scored 13 unanswered highlighted by a Travis Stephens 3-yard TD with 1:05 to play.
- This is the first time Josh Heupel will face Arkansas as a head coach, but Heupel owned a 2-0 record against Arkansas as the offensive coordinator at Missouri (2016-17). The Tigers won those contests, 28-24 (2016 in Columbia) and 48-45 (2017 in Fayetteville).
- Two former Vols are on Arkansas' roster, including senior defensive back Doneiko Slaughter and RS sophomore offensive lineman Addison Nichols. Slaughter played four seasons with the Vols from 2020-23, and Nichols played from 2022-23.
- RS-sophomore wide receiver Chas Nimrod hails from Bentonville, Arkansas, which is 29 miles north of Fayetteville. He was a four-star recruit out of Bentonville High School.
- Tennessee director of competition development Kurt Schmidt served as strength and conditioning coordinator at Arkansas from 2008-12 under Bobby Petrino and John L. Smith.
- A total of 706 miles separate the two campuses.

Third Quarter Scoring Gives Arkansas Win

Despite leading 13-0 at halftime, Tennessee was unable to hang on and fell 24-13 to Arkansas at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium on Saturday night in front of a reduced crowd during the COVID-19 shortened season. Arkansas scored all 24 of its points in the third quarter while holding the Vols scoreless in the second half.

Eric Gray had another impressive performance to lead the Vols offensively. Gray recorded his fourth career 100-yard rushing game, finishing the night with 123 yards on 31 carries. He added 27 yards on three receptions, as well.

The Vol defense pitched shutouts in the first, second and fourth quarters, while tying season highs with four sacks and nine tackles for loss. Brent Cimaglia connected on both of his field goal attempts in the first half.

Gray provided the Vols with their lone touchdown, finishing off a 16-play, 81-yard drive with a 1-yard pluge early in the second quarter. Arkansas took the momentum in the third quarter scoring touchdowns on three consecutive drives and then added a field goal.

UT quarterback Jarrett Guarantano was knocked out of the game in the third quarter due to a head injury and did not return. He was spelled by Brian Maurer and then true freshman Harrison Bailey, who played the final two drives.

Redshirt junior Kivon Bennett collected two sacks while Deandre Johnson and Ja'Quain Blakely added a sack apiece. Sophomore linebacker Henry To'o had seven tackles and added a pair of TFLs while senior defensive back Theo Jackson set a new career high with 10 tackles to lead the team, including one tackle for loss.

NOTEBOOK

NICO TIME

- RS-Fr. Nico Iamaleava takes the reins at quarterback for Tennessee in 2024. The former five-star recruit from Long Beach, Calif., is making his sixth career start, second true road start and second SEC start this weekend. Iamaleava is 5-0 with two home victories, a road win at No. 15/13 Oklahoma and two neutral site wins (Citrus Bowl, Duke's Mayo Classic). Three of his five wins have come vs. ranked opponents (No. 20 Iowa, No. 24 NC State, at No. 15/13 Oklahoma).
- Tennessee has outscored opponents 226-13 in Iamaleava's five starts dating back to the 2024 Citrus Bowl.
- Iamaleava, the MVP of the 2024 Citrus Bowl in his first start, became the first Vol freshman quarterback to win a bowl game since Peyton Manning beat Virginia Tech in the 1994 Gator Bowl.
- Iamaleava was the first freshman QB (true or redshirt) to start an opener for the Vols since true freshman Brent Schaeffer did vs. UNLV on Sept. 5, 2004.
- Iamaleava has already three times been named SEC Freshman of the Week, doing so vs. Chattanooga, NC State and Oklahoma. He's already tied the school record for SEC Freshman of the Week honors set by Tyler Bray, who won it three times in a four-week span during the 2010 campaign.
- Iamaleava set a UT record for most passing yards in a half with 314 in his first home start vs. Chattanooga, topping the previous record of 313 by Tyler Bray in the first half vs. Troy on Nov. 3, 2012. It marked the fourth 300-yard passing total in a half in UT history. Iamaleava connected on his first 10 passes, and he finished 22-of-28 with three touchdowns and no picks in only one half of work.
- A week later in the Duke's Mayo Classic vs. NC State, Iamaleava earned SEC Freshman of the Week with 276 yards of total offense and three touchdowns.
- At No. 15/13 Oklahoma on Sept. 21, Iamaleava completed 13-of-21 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown with a career-long 66-yard TD pass to Dont'e Thornton Jr. in the first quarter for his third freshman honor.
- Iamaleava has achieved what he's done in only 12 quarters this year. He did not play in the second half vs. Chattanooga and Kent State with the games already in hand.
- Iamaleava has accounted for 13 touchdowns - nine passing and four rushing - in nine career games played.
- This season, Iamaleava's passing efficiency of 176.2 ranks 10th in the FBS and fourth in the SEC, and his completion percentage of 69.3 is 20th in the FBS and sixth in the SEC.

TENNESSEE DEFENSIVE STREAK OF NOT ISSUING A TOUCHDOWN ENDS AT 19 QUARTERS

- Dating back to the 2024 Citrus Bowl vs. Iowa on Jan. 1, Tennessee went 19 consecutive quarters without allowing an offensive touchdown before Oklahoma crossed the goal line with 8:25 remaining in the fourth quarter on Sept. 21. It was the second-longest streak in program history, longest in the FBS in the last 20 years and longest for Tennessee since shutting out 15-straight opponents from Nov. 5, 1938 to Dec. 9, 1939.
- The Vols enter the Arkansas game having allowed only two offensive touchdowns in the last 20 quarters.

PERFECT SEPTEMBER

- With the win at Oklahoma on Sept. 21, Tennessee secured a perfect September for the second time in three years under Josh Heupel. The Vols were 4-0 in September 2022.
- Since 2000, Tennessee has produced five undefeated Septembers: 2003, '04, '16, '22 and '24.
- Heupel was the first Tennessee coach to produce undefeated Septembers in two out of his first four seasons as a head coach since Doug Dickey went 1-0-0 in 1965 and 1-0 in 1966.

MOST POINTS SCORED THROUGH FIRST FOUR GAMES IN MODERN ERA

- Tennessee has scored 216 points through the first four games of the season, breaking the previous modern era (since 1933) UT record of 194 set in 2022 in Josh Heupel's second season. The 1914 team scored 237 during its first four games for the pre-modern record. The two most prolific scoring starts to a season in the SEC era for Tennessee have occurred under Heupel.
- Tennessee averages 40.4 points per game under Heupel (since the start of 2021 season). That figure is second in the nation during that span.

FEWEST POINTS ALLOWED THROUGH FIRST FOUR GAMES SINCE 1966

- Tennessee has issued just 28 combined points this season through four games. That is the fewest point total through the first four games of a UT season since giving up 20 in 1966: 28-0 Auburn, 23-3 Rice, 3-6 Georgia Tech, 10-11 Alabama. Doug Dickey was in his third season as head coach that year.
- The current total is the seventh-fewest allowed by the Vols since 1950.

NOTEBOOK

SAMPSON RBI

- Jr. Dylan Sampson is off to a hot start through the first four games of the 2024 season:
 - Rushing TDs: 10 (1st in SEC, 2nd in FBS behind Boise State's Ashton Jeanty 13)
 - Rushing Yds: 449 (4th in SEC, 24th in FBS)
 - Rushing Yds Per Game: 112.3 (1st in SEC, 11th in FBS)
 - Rushing Yds Per Carry: 6.51 (3rd in SEC, 22nd in FBS)
 - All-Purpose Yards: 427 (3rd in SEC, 12th in FBS)
 - All-Purpose Yards Per Game: 129.8 (2nd in SEC, 21st in FBS)
 - 100-Yard Rushing Games: 3 (1st in SEC)
 - Scoring: 15.0 (1st in SEC, 3rd in FBS)
 - Total Points Scored: 60 (1st in SEC, 3rd in FBS)
- What's even more impressive is Sampson has done this in just 12 quarters this season. He did not play in the second half vs. Chattanooga and Kent State with the games already secured.
- Sampson is the third Tennessee running back in the last three seasons to score double-digit rushing TDs in a single campaign – joining Jabari Small and Jaylen Wright who had 13 and 10 in 2022, respectively.
- Sampson is two rushing touchdowns away from cracking the UT single-season top 10 already. Eight players are tied for 10th with 12.
- Sampson owns six career 100-yard rushing games, and he's done it in three out of the first four games this season. He was eight yards shy of hitting the mark vs. Oklahoma last game.
- Sampson has registered multi-touchdown rushing games in three out of his last four contests, and the Baton Rouge native has scored at least one touchdown in four straight games.
- According to PFF, 278 of Sampson's 449 rushing yards have come after contact. That ranks fourth in the SEC and 24th in the nation. He had 57 vs. Chattanooga, 98 vs. NC State, 56 vs. Kent State and 67 vs. Oklahoma. The three ahead of him in the SEC have played five games.
- Sampson put up a historic first half vs. Kent State on Sept. 14, scoring four rushing touchdowns while carrying the ball 13 times for 101 yards. The four rushing TDs tied the single-game school record for the modern era (since 1937) with six other players, most recently John Kelly, who had four rushing TDs vs. Georgia Tech on Sept. 4, 2017 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Sampson was the first Vol to accomplish the feat in a single half in the modern era. Prior to the modern era, Gene McEver had four rushing scores in the second half against South Carolina in 1929.
- Sampson is continuing a long line of successful Vol backs under Josh Heupel. Jaylen Wright, a 2023 All-SEC recipient, was selected in the fourth round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. Jabari Small signed a free agent contract with the Tennessee Titans in May and is a member of their practice squad.
- Sampson has played in 26 career games and has scored an incredible 23 rushing touchdowns already – 24 total touchdowns including one receiving. He's two away from cracking the UT career top 10:

- The Vols have not allowed a TD in the first half in five straight games. Vanderbilt was the last team to score a first-half TD on the Vols on a 19-yd pass with 11:34 to go in the first quarter on Nov. 25.

NOTEBOOK

TENNESSEE BOASTS THE SEC'S TOP TWO LEADING SCORERS

- Tennessee's record-setting start has led two Vols atop the SEC's scoring chart. Jr. RB Dylan Sampson leads the league with 60 total points and 15.0 per game, while RS-Fr. kicker Max Gilbert is second with 54 points and a 13.5 average. Sampson is tied for second nationally. Gilbert is tied for fourth nationally and leads all kickers in the category.
- Gilbert is 10-of-11 on the year on field goals and 24-of-24 on PATs. His long make is a 45-yarder, and his lone miss was a 53-yarder vs. NC State.
- Gilbert was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week following the Sept. 21 win at Oklahoma. He was 3-of-3 on field goals and drilled both of his PATs. He made field goals of 27 yards, 41 yards and 32 yards. He accounted for all six of the Vols' points in the second half that finished off the game.

MODERN ERA RECORD FOR POINTS HIGHLIGHT KENT STATE 71-0 SHUTOUT

- In a 71-0 blanking of Kent State on Sept. 14, Tennessee set modern era school records (since 1937) in total offensive yards (740), points in a game (71), points in a quarter (37 in first quarter), points in a half (65 in first half) and margin of victory (+71).
- Tennessee's 71 points broke the previous modern era top mark of 70 vs. UL-Monroe on Sept. 23, 2000. Including games before the modern era, it was the 11th time the Volunteers had ever scored 70-plus points in a game and the first since tallying 73 on Nov. 9, 1929, versus Carson-Newman, four years before Tennessee joined the SEC. The 71 points ranked 10th on the program's all-time list, regardless of era.
- The 71 vs. Kent State was the first time an SEC team scored 70-plus points in regulation against an FBS opponent since Ole Miss registered 73 versus Fresno State on Sept. 12, 2015.
- The Vols won by 70-plus points for the 10th time in program history, including the first in the modern era (since 1937).
- Tennessee amassed 740 total yards to set a school record, eclipsing the prior top mark of 724 against Missouri on Nov. 12, 2022. This was the second time in three outings in 2024 the Volunteers had posted 700-plus yards after previously doing so twice all-time. Tennessee had 718 yards, tied for its second-most ever, in its opener against Chattanooga on Aug. 31. T
- Four of the top five yardage marks in Tennessee history are in the last three seasons under the direction of Josh Heupel. In addition to the three aforementioned games, the Volunteers notched 696 yards versus UT Martin on Oct. 22, 2022.
- The 740 yards by Tennessee against Kent State tied for the 10th-most in SEC history and for the fifth-highest such mark against an FBS foe.
- The Vols led 37-0 after one quarter of play vs. Kent State, setting a new program record for points in a period in the modern era (since 1937). The prior record was 35 in the first quarter against Arkansas on Nov. 11, 2000.
- Tennessee took a 65-0 lead into the halftime break to set a new school modern era (since 1937) record for points in a half. The prior mark, also under Heupel, was 52 on Oct. 22, 2022, in the first half versus UT Martin. Previously, the record in said era for points in a half against an FBS team was 49 before the intermission against UL Monroe on Sept. 23, 2000.
- Per ESPN Stats and Info, Tennessee's 65 first-half points vs. Kent State marked the most in a half by any team in at least the last 20 seasons. Tennessee finished 11 points shy of the FBS record for points in a half. The all-time mark is 76 by Houston on Nov. 23, 1968, versus Tulsa.
- The Vols scored 50-plus points in the first three games of a season for the second time in school history and first since 1913. That year, UT beat Carson-Newman 58-0, Athens 95-0 and Maryville 75-0. Tennessee joined 2018 Alabama as the only SEC programs to accomplish the 50-point feat in the AP Poll era.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE DUKE'S MAYO CLASSIC 51-10 WIN OVER #24/23 NC STATE

- Tennessee earned its ninth win over an AP Top 25 opponent under Josh Heupel and its most lopsided win over a ranked foe in the Heupel era by a score of 51-0 vs. NC State on Sept. 7. The 41-point margin of victory was the highest for the Vols against any AP ranked team since defeating No. 9 Florida, 45-3, on Oct. 13, 1990.
- The win marked UT's highest margin of victory against a ranked opponent away from home since downing No. 18 Auburn, 42-0, on the road in Sept. 27, 1980.
- UT's 41-point margin of victory vs. NC State was its third-highest against a ranked opponent in school history since the AP poll began in 1936.
- Tennessee limited the Wolfpack to just 143 yards of total offense (104 passing, 39 rushing) – the fewest yards allowed during the Josh Heupel era before breaking that mark a week later vs. Kent State (112).
- NC State's 143 yards of total offense were the fewest allowed by Tennessee against an AP ranked opponent since allowing 110 vs. No. 11 Auburn on Sept. 29, 1973.
- The 249 rushing yards by the Vols were the most allowed by NC State in a regular season game since North Carolina had 300 in November 2021. The 460 yards by the UT offense were the most allowed by NC State since Louisiana Tech had 480 on Oct. 2, 2021.

NINE FIRST-TIME STARTERS IN 2024

- Seven players made their first Tennessee starts in the opener vs. Chattanooga on Aug. 31, including three on offense and four on defense. They included: WR Chris Brazzell II (also made eight starts at Tulane), LB Arion Carter, STAR DB Christian Harrison, OL Lance Heard, TE Miles Kitselman, DB Jermod McCoy (five starts at Oregon State) and DB Jalen McMurray (23 starts at Temple).
- During its 51-10 blowout of No. 24/23 NC State on Sept. 7, DE Joshua Josephs and TE Holden Staes earned their first UT starts. Staes had previously started nine games in two seasons at Notre Dame.
- Tennessee did not have any first-time starters vs. Kent State or Oklahoma.

SPECIAL TEAMS SUCCESS

- Tennessee has thrived on special teams under coordinator Mike Ekeler, who is in his fourth season with the program.
- The Vols have returned at least one punt OR one kickoff for a touchdown in all three previous seasons under Ekeler and Josh Heupel: Dee Williams (2023 - PR vs. Texas A&M), Dee Williams (2022 - PR at Vanderbilt) and Velus Jones Jr. (2021 - KR vs. South Alabama).
- Tennessee has ranked either first or second in the SEC in punt return average in all four of Ekeler's seasons, and the Vols have been first in the league in punt return defense in two out of his three previous years. The Vols are currently second in the SEC in punt return average in 2024, putting up 18.85 yards per return.
- Tennessee has racked up a stellar 1,083 punt return yards and allowed only 53 total punt return yards during Ekeler's tenure (2021-present). Oklahoma became the first team to return a punt on the Vols this season, logging five for a total of 30 yards.
- Under Ekeler, the Vols have produced an SEC Special Teams Player of the Year (RS Velus Jones Jr. in 2021), an SEC All-Freshman punter (Jackson Ross in 2023, back in 2024) and the school's all-time career leader in punt return average (Dee Williams 15.4 from 2022-23).
- Tennessee has blocked nine kicks in the Ekeler/Heupel era (2021-present), including six blocked punts. The Vols ranked third in the nation and first in the SEC with four blocked kicks during the 2023 season.
- Tennessee did it again in Week 1 vs. Chattanooga, as true freshman defensive end Jordan Ross, making his collegiate debut, blocked a punt and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown with 1:07 left in the fourth quarter. Ross was the first Vol to return a blocked punt for a touchdown since Daniel Bituli returned one 29 yards vs. South Carolina on Oct. 26, 2019.

RACKING UP NEGATIVE PLAYS DEFENSIVELY

- Tim Banks is in his fourth season as defensive coordinator for the Vols, and he has established an attacking identity of creating negative plays.
- Tennessee has racked up 328.0 tackles for loss under Banks (7.63 per game since start of 2021 season). The Vols have finished in the top 15 nationally and top two in the SEC in all three seasons under Banks. Three out of the 12 highest tackle-for-loss seasons in Tennessee history have occurred under Banks' watch: 2021 (fifth - 102), 2022 (12th - 94) and (seventh - 101).
- Tennessee saw a streak of at least one sack end at 19 consecutive games vs. Kent State in Week 3.
- 20 times in the Tim Banks/Josh Heupel era have the Vols registered at least three sacks in a game, and they are 18-2 in those contests when doing so with the only losses coming at Alabama on Oct. 21, 2023, and at Mizzou on Nov. 11, 2023. The Vols had three sacks vs. NC State in Week 2 and three in the win at Oklahoma on Sept. 21.
- The Vols have tallied double-digit tackles for loss in a game under Banks 12 times, including most recently 13 vs. NC State on Sept. 7 and 11 vs. Oklahoma on Sept. 21.

NOTEBOOK

RUSHING DEFENSE GETS IT DONE

- Since the start of the 2022 season, the Vols are giving up only 93.40 yards per game on the ground, which is fifth in the FBS and first in the SEC during that span. Michigan is first in the FBS at 85.58. Texas is second in the SEC at 104.88.
- The Vols have limited all four of their opponents this season under 100 yards rushing, and they have limited opponents to under 100 yards rushing 21 times in the DC Tim Banks era (since 2021 season). In fact, all four opponents vs. the Vols this season have failed to hit the 75-yard rushing mark.
- On Sept. 21, Tennessee limited Oklahoma to a season-low 36 yards rushing. It was the fewest rushing yards allowed by Tennessee against an SEC opponent since giving up 19 against Florida during the 2020 season. The 36 rushing yards were the fewest by Oklahoma in a game since registering 15 yards vs. Notre Dame on Oct. 27, 2012.
- In 2024, the Vols are second in the SEC and second in the nation in rushing defense, allowing only 50.8 yards per game. Ole Miss is first at 46.2.
- UT is tied for the SEC lead and tied for third nationally in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed with one. Oklahoma managed a 1-yard rush TD in the final minute of that game.
- Opponents are averaging only 1.57 yards per rush against Tennessee in 2024, which is second in the nation.
- Tennessee was 7-0 last season when holding opponents to under 100 yards rushing, and they are 4-0 this season. They have won their last 15 games when holding an opponent to under 100 yards rushing dating back to 2021.

NOTING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

- Tennessee's offensive line is coming off back-to-back seasons of being a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award. The Vols joined Oregon, Georgia and Michigan as the only schools to be named semifinalists in 2022 and 2023.
- Four of the five starters on last year's line returned in 2024 headlined by preseason All-American center Cooper Mays (fifth year). He's joined by tackle John Campbell Jr. (seventh collegiate year, second at UT), right guard Javontez Spraggins (fifth year). Andrej Karic (fifth collegiate year, second at UT) and Jackson Lampley (sixth year) started at guard in 2023. Karic, a Texas transfer, is returning from injury and missed the final eight games of the 2023 season.
- The Vols brought in former five-star recruit Lance Heard to play offensive tackle. Heard joined the squad in January and was an SEC All-Freshman selection at LSU last season. He saw action on 195 offensive snaps and did not allow a sack. He was considered the second-highest ranked offensive tackle in the portal. Heard missed the Kent State and Oklahoma games due to injury.
- UT's 2024 offensive line has combined for 133 collegiate starts led by guard Javontez Spraggins' 41.
- Mays earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors for the second time in his career following the Vols' dominant 51-10 win over NC State on Sept. 7. Mays has not allowed a sack in 17 straight games. It was the 10th time in the Josh Heupel era that someone has earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week.

EXPERIENCE, DEPTH MAKE UP 2024 VOLS

- Head coach Josh Heupel has built a roster full of depth and experience four years into his tenure.
- There are 411 combined career starts on this team among 36 players – 225 on offense and 186 on defense. This includes players' time at other FBS schools. In terms of career starts only at Tennessee there are 284 – 174 on offense and 110 on defense.

SCORING ON THE FIRST OFFENSIVE PLAY FROM SCRIMMAGE

- Five times during the Josh Heupel era (2021-present), Tennessee has scored on its first offensive play from scrimmage to start a game.
- The Vols did it twice in 2023. RB Jaylen Wright was the latest to join the party, bursting through for 75 yards to start the game and put the Vols up 7-0 vs. No. 1 Georgia on Nov. 18, 2023.

Kitselman added another a week later with a 15-yarder in the second quarter vs. Kent State. UT tight ends did not score at Oklahoma.
- In 2023, Vol tight ends accounted for 44 receptions for 538 yards and nine touchdowns. The nine TDs were the second-most by a tight end unit in the SEC, behind only Georgia. Tennessee's nine receiving touchdowns by tight ends were the most by a Vol TE unit since the 2007 group caught nine touchdowns.
- Through four games this season, Tennessee tight ends have combined for 15 catches for 151 yards and four touchdowns.
- In the Josh Heupel era (since 2021), tight ends have accounted for 25 touchdowns – 20 receiving and five rushing. From 2018-20, UT tight ends combined for six scores.

McCoy was named the Jim Thorpe Award National Defensive Back of the Week following the Sept. 21 win at Oklahoma. McCoy registered three tackles, one pass breakup and one interception that he returned 17 yards. According to PFF, McCoy logged 48 coverage snaps and did not allow a completion all night, while registering a 0.0 passer grade.

- RS-Fr. Nico Iamaleava already has 1,009 yards of total offense this season.
- Tennessee is one of only three programs over the last five years to have back-to-back drafts with a quarterback pick. Hendon Hooker went in the 2023 third round to Detroit, and Milton went in the sixth round to New England in 2024.

HEAD COACH JOSH HEUPEL

Fourth Season • @CoachJoshHeupel

- 2022 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year
- 2022, 2018 National Coach of the Year Finalist
- Coached in three national title games and 19 bowl games
- 13 NFL Draft picks last three seasons
- Won eight conference championships
- One of only four active FBS HC to lead multiple programs to New Year's Six bowl appearances in the CFP era
- 2000 National Champion QB and Heisman finalist

Former national champion quarterback Josh Heupel took the reins of Tennessee football in 2021 and has guided the proud program to a national resurgence. The 2022 SEC Coach of the Year and two-time National Coach of the Year finalist was officially announced as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach on Jan. 27, 2021, by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White, who he worked alongside at UCF. On Jan. 24, 2023, White announced a contract extension for Heupel through January 2029.

Taking over a program coming off a 3-7 season and the departure of several players prior to his arrival, Heupel instilled a strong culture built on trust, accountability and relationships. He combined those pillars with the nation's top offense and an attacking defense. In now his fourth season, Heupel's remarkable revival of the Volunteers has seen him produce a 31-12 overall record, 10 victories over Top 25 teams, the program's first New Year's Six berth in the College Football Playoff era and back-to-back top-20 poll finishes. From 2022-23, Heupel guided Tennessee to its winningest two-year stretch (20) since 2003-04. Heupel joined Bill Battle and Phillip Fulmer as the only three coaches in program history to lead UT to bowl berths in each of their first three seasons. Heupel's .721 winning percentage is the second-highest by a Vol coach in the last five decades (minimum two seasons coached). The 2022 season saw Heupel's Vols finish No. 6 in the final polls with an 11-win season. That year the Vols ascended to the No. 1 ranking for the first time since the 1998 national title.

Player development has been evident in the Heupel era. Thirteen Vols have been selected in the last three NFL Drafts combined, which is the highest three-year span of picks for UT in nearly two decades. Tennessee is one of just two programs in the last five years with a quarterback selected in back-to-back drafts.

The Vols' on-field success has correlated in the classroom as Tennessee has shattered the program record for GPA in three consecutive fall semesters under Heupel. The fall of 2023 saw the Vols produce a program-record 63 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients, representing the second-most in the SEC.

#15 Vols Dominate Mocs In Season Opener, 69-3

No. 15 Tennessee scored on its first seven possessions and rolled up 718 yards of total offense, cruising past Chattanooga, 69-3, on Saturday afternoon in the 2024 season opener at Neyland Stadium. Playing in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915, the Vols scored on 10 of their 13 offensive possessions, producing touchdowns on eight of them. They finished with 414 yards through the air and another 304 on the ground, tying for the second-highest total yardage number in program history. Additionally, Tennessee's 69 points were the second-most points scored in the modern era (1937-present), and the 66-point margin of victory was the third-highest of the modern era. Quarterback Nico Iamaleava was very impressive in his first start on Shields-Watkins Field, completing his first 10 passes and finishing with 314 yards through the air on 22-of-28 accuracy with three touchdowns in only two quarters of action. That yardage total was a school record for a half. Running back Dylan Sampson accounted for 153 all-purpose yards and crossed the goal line three times on the ground for the second season opener in a row, while wide receiver Dont'e Thornton Jr. led the Vols with a 105-yard day on three catches, including two touchdown hauls from Iamaleava. In total, 94 players saw action in the opener with 37 making their Tennessee debuts. Twenty-eight defensive players registered at least one tackle, paced by starting safety Will Brooks with five stops. Defensive end Tyre West was disruptive in the pass rush throughout the game, logging two TFLs, one sack, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry on the afternoon.

#14/12 Vols Run Wild in Duke's Mayo Classic

Running back Dylan Sampson delivered another sensational performance, and 12th-ranked Tennessee's stellar defense shut down the No. 23 NC State Wolfpack, 51-10, in the 2024 Duke's Mayo Classic — earning UT's ninth ranked win of the Josh Heupel era and third-straight win over a ranked opponent at a neutral site. Sampson handled 20 carries for 132 yards and two rushing scores, marking his second consecutive game with over 100 yards and multiple touchdowns on the ground. The stifling Volunteer defense limited the Wolfpack to a Heupel-era best 143 yards of total offense (39 rushing, 104 passing) for the fewest yards allowed against a ranked foe since 1973. The Big Orange forced three turnovers, accumulated 13 tackles for loss with three sacks and saw senior safety Will Brooks swing the momentum in Tennessee's favor after an 85-yard pick-six in the second quarter. Redshirt freshman QB Nico Iamaleava accounted for three touchdowns in the victory, tallying a 31-yard rushing score on a designed run up the middle and connecting with tight ends Miles Kitselman and Holden Staes on their first receiving touchdowns for the Vols. With the final score of 51-10, Tennessee notched its third-highest margin of victory over an AP Top 25 opponent in program history and most lopsided ranked win since defeating No. 9 Florida 45-3 on Oct. 13, 1990.

Sampson Ignites #7/9 Vols In Historic Shutout

Dylan Sampson ran for four first-half touchdowns as No. 7/9 Tennessee exploded for 37 first-quarter points en route to a record-setting 71-0 shutout of Kent State in front of a sellout crowd at Neyland Stadium. The Vols' final point total was a modern era record, replacing the old mark from a 70-3 win over Louisiana-Monroe on Sept. 23, 2000, and it stands as the most generated by the squad from Rocky Top since 1929. Additionally, Saturday night's scoring onslaught vs. the Golden Flashes (0-3) made it the first time since 1913 and only the second time in program annals that the Big Orange tallied 50 points in each of its first three games. Individually, Sampson rushed for 66 yards and three scores in the first 15 minutes and finished with 101 yards and four TDs on 13 attempts. He became the first Vol in the modern era with four rushing touchdowns in a half and tied the modern-day school single-game record with that total. DeSean Bishop joined Sampson with a 100-yard day of his own, carding his first effort above the century mark as a Vol with 120 yards and a career-high two touchdowns on only seven carries. Tennessee finished with a 740 to 112 edge in total yardage, with the Vols' offensive production setting a program record and tying as the 10th best in SEC history. Defensively, Tennessee limited the Golden Flashes to an opponent's lowest total yardage of the Josh Heupel era with that 112 mark. UT also extended its streak of not allowing an offensive touchdown to 16 straight quarters - its longest such streak since 1965-66.

Dominant Defense Leads #6/7 Vols to Victory

No. 6 Tennessee showcased its defensive prowess in a commanding, 25-15 SEC-opening victory over No. 15 Oklahoma at Memorial Stadium. The win marked the Vols' 10th over a ranked opponent under head coach Josh Heupel, who made the return to his alma mater a memorable one. Tennessee established defensive dominance from the outset, limiting the Sooners to just 222 total yards, including 36 on the ground. The Vols had an impressive defensive streak end as they went 19 quarters without allowing an offensive touchdown, which went down as the second-longest in program history. Linebacker Arion Carter was a standout for Tennessee's defense, recording six tackles, including one for a loss, and breaking up a pass. Andre Turrentine, Christian Harrison, and Keenan Pili each contributed five tackles, with Pili particularly disruptive, adding a tackle for loss and two quarterback hurries. Tennessee forced three Oklahoma turnovers throughout the contest, including Jermod McCoy's first interception as a Vol, a forced fumble and recovery by Joshua Josephs and another fumble recovery by Jakobe Thomas. As a unit, the Vols' defense registered three sacks and 11 tackles for loss — led by Jaxson Moi who posted a pair of solo stops behind the line of scrimmage. On the offensive front, quarterback Nico Iamaleava had a solid performance in his first SEC start that included a career-long 66-yard scoring strike to Dont'e Thornton Jr. and four completions to Bru McCoy for 92 yards. Dylan Sampson finished with 92 yards on 24 carries and a touchdown, while fellow running back DeSean Bishop contributed 65 yards on 16 carries. As the clock expired in Norman, Iamaleava presented the game ball to his head coach in recognition of the significant victory.
