STORYLINES

- CHECKER NEYLAND SEC OPENER: No. 15/15 Tennessee and No. 6/3 Georgia meet in the SEC opener for both teams that will see a sold-out Checker Neyland crowd at 3:30 p.m. Saturday on ABC. Checker Neyland showcases UT's iconic checkerboard pattern through Neyland Stadium, which will be sold out for a 22nd consecutive game. ESPN College GameDay will be in Knoxville for the first time since 2022 live from Ayres Hall at 9 a.m. The Volunteers are 2-2 in SEC openers under head coach Josh Heupel, and they have won five SEC home openers in a row dating back to the 2020 COVID-shortened season. The defending SEC champion Georgia has claimed eight in a row in the series dating back to 2017, and this is the earliest calendar date meeting between the two programs since Sept. 9, 1995. Tennessee, who was picked to finish ninth in the SEC, has won 13 of its last 15 regular season games and is off to a 2-0 start for the fourth straight year under Heupel. The Vols own an 11-10 record vs. ranked opponents under the fifth-year head coach. The 11 ranked wins are sixth-most among active FBS head coaches since the start of the 2021 season. Heupel's next ranked win will put him in a tie for fourth place in UT ranked victories, matching the mark of College Football Hall of Famer Bowden Wyatt, who won 12 in eight seasons from 1955-62. Georgia was picked to finish second in the SEC behind Texas and is 2-0 with home victories over Marshall and Austin Peay. Saturday is the second of three straight home games for the Vols.
- 500 NEYLAND ON-FIELD WINS: Tennessee set a modern era (since start of SEC in 1933) program record for points in a 72-17 victory over ETSU last Saturday. It surpassed the prior high of 71 set just under one year ago on Sept. 14, 2024, against Kent State. The victory was the Vols' 500th on-field win on Shields-Watkins Field, which opened in 1921. Tennessee also broke the school modern record for first downs with 41, tied the school record for completions with 38 and ran the most plays in a regulation, non-overtime game with 100. The prior high in a non-OT game was 99 at Texas A&M on Oct. 8, 2016. The Vols ran 101 plays against Purdue in the 2021 Music City Bowl in Josh Heupel's first season, which went to overtime. QB Joey Aguilar played only one half and was 23-of-31 for 288 yards with two touchdowns and no picks. Four QBs played in the game, and 13 different players caught a pass. That tied the program's most in a game this century, as it previously had a dozen players catch a ball three times since 2000 (12 vs. UConn in 2023, 12 vs. Akron in 2022, 12 vs. Vanderbilt in 2003). The Vols finished the ETSU game with 717 yards of total offense, representing the fourth time in the Heupel era that UT went over that mark. WR Chris Brazzell II caught nine passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns, and WR Mike Matthews hauled in six passes for 111 yards and one score. Matthews went over 100 yards for the first time in his career highlighted by a 53-yard TD grab from Aguilar in the second quarter. RB Star Thomas rushed for a game-high 69 yards and had three touchdowns - all in the first half. ETSU was 2-of-15 on third down and finished with 49 rushing yards.
- HEUPEL ERA: Josh Heupel guided Tennessee to its winningest three-year stretch (30 from 2022-24) since the Vols won 30 games from 1998-2000. That stretch included two double-digit win regular seasons. Since taking over a program that was 3-7 prior to his arrival, Heupel owns a 39-15 record and has won 14 of his last 17 games. Since 2018, he ranks sixth nationally among active FBS head coaches in victories with 67. Heupel signed an extension through January 2030 on Aug. 26. Heupel's .722 winning percentage is the second-highest by a Vol coach in the last five decades, trailing only Fulmer's .745 in that span. Heupel's next win will be his 40th as the Vols' coach, and he is seeking to become just the seventh head coach and first since Fulmer to reach that feat. Saturday is his 91st overall game as a head coach, 55th at Tennessee.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE-GEORGIA SERIES

- Georgia leads the all-time series, 29-23-2. It's the 34th consecutive season that these two teams are meeting, a streak that dates back to 1992.
- This is the earliest meeting on the calendar (Sept. 13) between the two teams in 30 years since UT won 30-27 in Knoxville on Sept. 9, 1995. The last four were in November.
- Georgia has won eight in a row in the series with all eight of those coming by double-digits.
- This is the 19th game between the two where both teams are ranked in the AP Poll, and the Vols are 10-8 in those previous contests. It's the fourth straight year that both teams are ranked at the time of the meeting.
- Tennessee is looking for its first win over Georgia since Oct. 1, 2016, when Jauan Jennings hauled in a 43-yard Hail Mary from Joshua Dobbs as time expired, giving the Vols a 34-31 triumph in Athens.
- The Vols are 12-14-1 in Knoxville vs. Georgia and are seeking their first win in Neyland Stadium against the Bulldogs since Oct. 10, 2015 (38-31).
- Tennessee defensive line coach Rodney Garner served in the same role at Georgia for 15 seasons from 1998-2012 on Mark Richt's staff. Garner also served an assistant head coach from 2005-12. The Bulldogs won five SEC East titles and two SEC titles during his tenure.
- Also on Georgia's staff at the time was Tennessee secondary coach Willie Martinez. Martinez was in Athens from 2001-09 (secondary) and was the defensive coordinator under Mark Richt from 2005-09.
- A total of 235 miles separate the two campuses.
- Head coach Josh Heupel is seeking his first win over Georgia.
- TE Miles Kitzelman rushed for a touchdown (1 yard) and caught four passes for 46 yards in last year's game in Athens. He, RB Peyton Lewis (6 att. 30 yds, 1 rec., 7 yds) and WR Chris Brazzell II (1 rec., 6 yds) are the only returning Vol skill players who registered stats in last year's game.

#7 Vols Battle Between the Hedges, Fall Late to #12 Georgia

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - The seventh-ranked Vols battled but were unable to overcome No. 12 Georgia, falling 31-17 at Sanford Stadium after jumping out to a 10-0 lead.

Running back Dylan Sampson led the offense on the ground, rushing 19 times for 101 yards and a touchdown. The score, his 21st of the season, moved the Baton Rouge, Louisiana, native into a tie with Gene McEver for the single-season program record for total touchdowns scored.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Nico Iamaleava completed 20 of 33 passes for 167 yards. Wide receiver Squirrel White caught a team-leading six passes for 45 yards.

On defense, the Vols batted down a season-high-tying six passes, with six different players recording a pass breakup. Defensive back Will Brooks led the team with seven tackles.

Tennessee's defense started strong, forcing a quick three-and-out on Georgia's first possession. The Vols then marched 78 yards on their opening drive, capped by a one-yard touchdown run from tight end Miles Kitzelman—his first career rushing score.

Tennessee went up 10-0 late in the first quarter when kicker Max Gilbert connected on a 52-yard field goal—the longest of his career.

Georgia responded with touchdowns on consecutive drives to take a 14-10 lead in the second quarter. The Vols answered UGA's scoring outburst with a 10-play, 75-yard drive, ending in a 27-yard touchdown run by Sampson to move back in front.

UGA kicker Peyton Woodring tied the game with a 36-yard field goal with five seconds left in the first half, making it 17-17 at the break. The Bulldogs regained the lead with a 12-play, 87-yard drive in the third quarter, capped by a 10-yard touchdown scramble from quarterback Carson Beck. Georgia added to the lead with a two-yard touchdown run with 2:26 remaining in the game.

NOTEBOOK

JOEY FOOTBALL TIME

- Tennessee is starting a new quarterback for the fourth straight season as graduate transfer Joey Aguilar takes the reins after earning the job in preseason camp. The Vols and Kentucky are the only SEC teams to start a new QB for four straight years from 2022-25. Tennessee is one of four teams who reached last year's College Football Playoff to start a new QB for at least four straight years, joining Ohio State, Notre Dame and Indiana. The Vols started Hendon Hooker in 2022, Joe Milton III in 2023 and Nico Iamaleava in 2024.
- Aguilar's unique timeline includes stops at City College of San Francisco (2019), Diablo Valley Community College in central California (2021-22), Appalachian State (2023-24) and UCLA (spring of 2025). After completing his senior season at App State, Aguilar entered the portal on Dec. 24, 2024, before committing to UCLA on Dec. 28, 2024. He spent the spring in Los Angeles and entered the transfer portal on April 21, committing to Tennessee. Aguilar graduated from App State in communication studies on May 10, 2025, before arriving in Knoxville in late May. He began the Vols' summer program on June 1, went through preseason camp, and the 24-year-old was named the starter on Sunday, Aug. 17.
- Aguilar is the FBS active career leader in total offense per game (288.2, min. 2,500 yards). That mark is 21.9 yards per game better than second place held by E.J. Warner of Fresno State (266.3). Aguilar is also the FBS active career leader in passing yards per game (270.2). Warner is second (265.4).
- Aguilar will be making his 27th FBS start in his 28th career FBS game when he takes on Georgia in his first SEC game. Aguilar owns a 15-11 overall record and a 2-0 mark as a starter at Tennessee.
- As a junior in 2003, Aguilar broke three single-season records at App State, including touchdown passes (33), passing yards (3,757) and total offense (4,002). For his FBS career, he has produced 7,493 yards of total offense - 7,007 passing yards and 486 rushing yards.
- Aguilar is the first Tennessee starting quarterback to wear No. 6 since Alan Cockrell did from 1982-83. Aguilar is just the second UT player to hail from Antioch, California. Offensive tackle Albert Toeaina (2004-05) did as well and also began his career at City College of San Francisco.
- Aguilar made his Tennessee debut against Syracuse in the Aflac Kickoff Game, accounting for 281 yards of total offense - 247 passing and 34 rushing. He was 16-of-28 with three touchdowns and no picks. It was the 12th three-or-more TD passing game for Aguilar in his FBS career. He did it 11 times at App State.
- The big blow in Aguilar's debut was a 73-yard strike to WR Braylon Staley in the second quarter. The completion was also the third longest of Aguilar's career after connecting on passes of 83 yards (vs. ETSU in 2024) and 77 yards (at Georgia State in 2023) during his time with App State.
- The 73-yard bomb by Aguilar to Staley was the longest pass play in the SEC in Week 1 and tied for the longest in the Power Four. Southern Cal's Jayden Maiava and Eli Sanders also had a 73-yarder vs. Missouri State.
- Aguilar has thrown for over 200 yards in all 26 of his previous FBS starts. He racked up 288 passing yards in his last start in just one half of action vs. ETSU. He has not thrown an interception in 59 total attempts as a Vol (5:0 TD to interception).
- Aguilar has already hit on two 50+ yard pass plays this season. He's one of two SEC quarterbacks to do that this season, joining Mississippi State's Blake Shapen (3).

VOLS AMONG NATION'S BEST IN ONE-TD GAMES

- Tennessee has proven to be among the nation's best in tight games. The Vols are 7-1 in one-touchdown games (decided by 8 points or less) since the start of the 2022 season.
- UT added to that total in back-to-back weeks last season with a 23-17 overtime victory over Florida on Oct. 12 and a 24-17 comeback win over No. 7 Alabama on Oct. 19.

NOTEBOOK

- The Vols' only loss during that span was at Arkansas on Oct. 5, 2024. Of those seven wins, four have come vs. ranked teams - #17 Pitt (2022), #20 Florida (2022), #3/1 Alabama (2022) and #7/7 Alabama (2024). The other three were vs. Kentucky (2023), Texas A&M (2023) and Florida (2024).
- The 87.50 win percentage for Tennessee in one-score games since the start of the 2022 season is the best in the SEC and second-best in the FBS behind Coastal Carolina (10-1, 90.91). Michigan is third at 83.33 (10-2).

PASS DEFENSE LEADS SEC IN PASS BREAKUPS

- Despite the absence of preseason All-American cornerback Jermod McCoy and cornerback Rickey Gibson III due to injury, Tennessee's secondary has not missed a beat so far. The Vols recorded an SEC-best 10 pass breakups in Week 1 vs. Syracuse, which were their most in a game since recording 10 at Georgia on Oct. 9, 2004.
- The Vols have logged 14 pass breakups through two games, which leads the SEC -- three better than the next closest league teams (LSU, Ole Miss and Texas with 11). That total is tied for second in the FBS with UNLV (who has played three games). SMU leads the nation with 15 PBUs.
- Colorado transfer cornerback Colton Hood has made an immediate splash and leads the SEC in pass breakups and is tied for the FBS lead with five. South Alabama's Ty Goodwill also has five. Hood, making his Tennessee debut and start vs. Syracuse, had three PBUs in the opener, which led the SEC. He had two vs. ETSU.
- Cornerback Ty Redmond leads all FBS freshmen with three pass breakups this season. That total is also tied for second in the SEC overall. Redmond earned his first career start vs. ETSU and played significant action vs. Syracuse in the opener following Gibson's injury.

BROYLES AWARD FINALIST DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR TIM BANKS RETURNS

- Tennessee produced a Broyles Award finalist for the second time in three years when defensive coordinator Tim Banks was named one of five finalists in 2024. Banks returns for his fifth season at the helm of the Vol defense. Banks' unit has finished in the top 20 nationally in back-to-back years in yards per play - fifth in 2024 (4.56) and 19th in 2023 (4.97).
- Banks was the second coordinator under Josh Heupel to be a finalist for the prestigious accolade and the third in the history of the program. Offensive coordinator and current USF head coach Alex Golesh was a finalist in 2022, and offensive coordinator David Cutcliffe won the award in 1998. Banks was the first Tennessee defensive coordinator to be a finalist.

RACKING UP NEGATIVE PLAYS DEFENSIVELY, VOLS NO. 2 IN SEC IN SACKS

- Tim Banks' defensive unit is known for making plays in the backfield. Tennessee has racked up 411.0 tackles for loss under Banks (since 2021), which leads the SEC during that span.
- The Vols have finished in the top 15 nationally and top two in the SEC in tackles for loss in all four previous seasons under Banks. Four out of the 12 highest tackle-for-loss seasons in Tennessee history have occurred under his watch - 2021 (fifth - 102), 2022 (12th - 94), 2023 (seventh - 101) and 2024 (eighth - 100).
- 27 times in the Tim Banks/Josh Heupel era have the Vols registered at least three sacks in a game, and they are 25-2 in those contests when doing so with the only losses coming at Alabama on Oct. 21, 2023, and at Mizzou on Nov. 11, 2023. Tennessee added that total in its Aflac Kickoff Game win vs. Syracuse with five sacks for 39 yards, which led the SEC in Week 1. They racked up three more in the home-opening win over ETSU.
- Tennessee has registered eight sacks this season, which ranks second in the SEC (behind Auburn's 10) and seventh in the nation.
- The Vols have tallied double-digit tackles for loss in a game under Banks 14 times, including four times last season. In 2024, Tennessee had 13.0 vs. NC State, 11.0 at Oklahoma, 12.0 vs. Florida, and a Banks era high 15.0 vs. UTEP. The 15.0 tackles for loss were the most by the Vols in a game since registering 15.5 tackles for loss in a Sept. 2, 2000, win over Southern Miss.
- Despite the departure of 2025 NFL Draft first round pick edge rusher James Pearce Jr., Tennessee returns five out of its top seven tackle-for-loss leaders from a year ago. Sr. edge rusher Joshua Josephs collected 9.0 last season, while Sr. DT Bryson Eason had 7.0 and Jr. LB Arion Carter notched 6.5. Josephs and Carter each notched sacks in the season opener vs. Syracuse. Josephs has recorded a sack in both games this season.
- In terms of total tackles, the Vols bring back six of their top eight leading tacklers headlined by preseason All-SEC LB Arion Carter, who had 68 a year ago. Jr. CB Jermod McCoy is back and was third on the team in tackles with 44, while Jr. LB Jeremiah Telander was fourth with 43. Carter led the Vols with nine total tackles in the opener vs. Syracuse.

SPECIAL TEAMS SUCCESS

- Tennessee has thrived on special teams in the Josh Heupel era. Evan Crabtree takes over special teams coordinator duties in 2025, but served on Heupel's staff from 2022-24 as a special teams graduate assistant and analyst.
- Tennessee has ranked either first or second in the SEC in punt return average in all four of Heupel's previous seasons. The Vols led the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation a season ago with 15.7 yards per return. Their 424 total punt return yards led the nation.
- The Vols are averaging 15.0 yards per punt return this year, and sophomore Boo Carter broke out in a big way vs. ETSU with 94 yards on four kick returns, including a long of 40. Carter averages a stellar 18.3 yards per return for his career.

NOTEBOOK

- Under Heupel, the Vols have produced an SEC Special Teams Player of the Year (RS Velus Jones Jr. in 2021), an SEC All-Freshman punter (Jackson Ross in 2023, back in 2025) and the school's all-time career leader in punt return average (Dee Williams 15.4 from 2022-23).
- PK Max Gilbert has been strong in his second year as the primary place kicker. Gilbert is 4-of-4 on field goals for the year and booted a perfect 3-of-3 last game vs. ETSU, including a career-long 53-yarder. Gilbert's 53-yarder tied for the eighth-longest make in program history. It matched the longest make by a Volunteer in the last 30 seasons (1996-2025), equaling the kick from Brent Cimaglia on Nov. 2, 2019, against UAB. He now owns four makes from 50-plus as a Volunteer, as he hit from 50, 51 and 52 during the 2024 season.

NEW-LOOK OFFENSIVE LINE SHINES THROUGH TWO WEEKS

- Tennessee's offensive line has a new look in 2025 following the departure of four starters. Jr. OT Lance Heard is the returning starter. Heard started 11 games at left tackle a year ago and enters his second season with the program after transferring from LSU.
- The Vols have a new starter at center for the first time since the 2021 season. Cooper Mays, who was a 2024 first-team All-American, departed after starting the past four seasons from 2021-24. Mays was the fourth center in Tennessee history to be named an All-American and the first since Bob Johnson was a unanimous selection in 1967. Notre Dame transfer RS-So. Sam Pendleton has started the first two games of the 2025 season and has not allowed a sack in 18 FBS career games played.
- Another FBS transfer is looking to make some noise at guard. The Vols brought in RS.-Jr. Wendell Moe Jr. from Arizona. He started 27 games at left guard for the Wildcats from 2022-24. Moe Jr. went through spring practice and owns two years of remaining eligibility, including this season. Moe is the Vols' most experienced offensive linemen with action on 1,901 offensive snaps. Moe started at right guard in the first two contests and enters the Georgia game having not allowed a sack in 21 consecutive games.
- Two other Vols saw their first career starts in the Syracuse opener and shined in RS-So. Sham Umarov (left guard) and RFr. Jesse Perry (right tackle). Both started vs. ETSU as well.
- Tennessee signed one of the most heralded recruits of the 2025 class in five-star offensive tackle David Sanders Jr., from Charlotte. Sanders was the No. 1 offensive tackle in the country by Rivals and ESPN. Sanders is seeking to become the first true freshman to start on the offensive line for Tennessee since Darnell Wright and Wanya Morris started at the tackle positions in 2019. Wright started five games at right tackle as a true freshman. Wright, a former five-star recruit, is in his third NFL season as the starter at right tackle for the Chicago Bears. Morris, now with the Kansas City Chiefs, started 12 of 13 games at left tackle in 2019. Another prominent true freshman offensive line starter for the Vols was Trey Smith, who started all 12 games at tackle in 2017. Smith, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the Chiefs, became the highest paid offensive guard in NFL history in July at four years, $94 million. Sanders did not play in the Syracuse and ETSU games due to injury.
- In 2024, UT's offensive line was named a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award for the third consecutive season. The Vols joined Oregon as the only programs to be named semifinalists in 2022, 2023 and 2024.
- 13 times in the Josh Heupel era someone has earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week.
- Tennessee and Georgia are the only two SEC teams who have not allowed a sack yet in this 2025 season. 10 other schools have not allowed one either: Cincinnati, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Ohio State, Oregon, TCU, Texas Tech, Army, Navy and Virginia.

- It's no secret of the Vols' rushing success under Heupel as UT led the SEC in rushing in back-to-back seasons in 2023 and 2024. Tennessee was also ninth in the nation in 2024 (225.9) and 10th in the FBS in 2023 (204.5). The Vols were the only SEC team to average more than 200 rushing yards last season.
- Two out of the four highest single-season team rushing totals in program history have occurred in the Heupel era - second in 2024 (2,936) and fourth in 2021 (2,832). The school record is 3,068 in 1951.
- It was the first time since 1989-94 (six straight seasons) that the Vols have produced more than 2,000 rushing yards in at least four straight seasons.
- In now his eighth season as a head coach, Heupel's teams have gone over 2,000 rushing yards all seven previous seasons. His UCF teams rushed for 3,448 in 2018; 2,909 in 2019 and 2,107 during the COVID-shortened season of 2020.
- Tennessee has continued its rushing prowess in 2025, rushing for 246 yards on 40 attempts and averaging 6.15 yards per carry vs. Syracuse. They added 259 rushing yards against ETSU. The Vols are averaging 252.5 yards per game on the ground, which is fourth in the SEC and 19th in the FBS.

- UT finished No. 8 in the Coaches poll and No. 9 in the AP poll with a 10-3 overall record.
- The Vols were picked to finish seventh in the SEC and ended up tied for second in the final regular season standings at 6-2 with marquee wins over Alabama, Oklahoma and Florida. Tennessee earned the No. 9 seed in the CFP and lost at eventual national champion Ohio State, 42-17, in the first round on Dec. 21.
- The Vols produced the SEC Offensive Player of the Year for the second time in three years when RB Dylan Sampson led the SEC in rushing (114.7) and broke school records for rushing touchdowns (22) and rushing yards (1,491).

STADIUM NOTES

THE NEYLAND EFFECT

Neyland Stadium is once again one of the nation's most electric environments and toughest places to play for visiting teams. Since the 2022 season, the Vols are 21-1 inside of its confines. In the Josh Heupel era (since 2021), UT is 26-4 at home and has outscored opponents 1,335-540.

Neyland Stadium has now been sold out for 22 consecutive games. Tennessee has ranked in the top six nationally in attendance in each of the last three seasons. In 2023, the Vols ranked No. 3 in total attendance (713,405) and No. 4 in average attendance (101,915), leading the SEC in both categories.

NEYLAND STADIUM HOME OF THE VOLS. PROUDLY PRESERVED BY PILOT.

Neyland Stadium has been home of the Vols for more than 100 years and that legacy will live on thanks to a transformative partnership with Tennessee Athletics and Knoxville-based Pilot, the largest network of travel centers in North America. In August 2024, Tennessee and Pilot announced the partnership that preserves the iconic venue's name and enhances the stadium experience for future generations. Under the terms of the agreement, which is slated for up to 20 years and could extend further, the names of Neyland Stadium and Shields-Watkins Field will remain unchanged.

Fans will notice a number of new features and amenities that have been completed for the 2025 season.

Most notably, major updates have been completed in the South End Zone. Entry into Gate 9 has doubled in size while the southwest plaza has expanded to ease congestion. A new elevator has been added to the southeast corner of Neyland Stadium, allowing patrons to access all three levels on the south end of the stadium.

Truly's Tailgate, located outside Gate 9, has expanded with Texas Roadhouse and a number of other new food and beverage options for fans to enjoy before and during the game.

Fans will also notice new restrooms, a new UT Medical first aid station and a significantly wider concourse to help ease navigation around the south end of the stadium.

A Vintage Volunteer trailer has been behind section M on the new south concourse of Neyland Stadium. The shop will offer vintage gear and unique items.

THE RETURN OF V-O-L-S

During the 2022 season, the iconic V-O-L-S letters returned on the south end of Neyland Stadium. Two sets with an orange background and white lettering were installed as part of stadium upgrades under the leadership of Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White. A V-O-L-S history:

Summer 1966

The 8-foot tall backlit VOLS letters—originally with orange lettering and a white background—were installed at the top of the stadium on the south side. From summer 1966 until 1978, they were lit every evening. Beginning in 1978, they were turned off—with the exception of during night football games—as part of an energy conservation program.

Summer 1976

As part of renovations prior to the 1976 season, the design of the letters shifted to white lettering with orange background.

Summer 1999

Neyland Stadium installed its first edition of a videoboard, and the letters are moved to the top of the videoboard. The design of the letters also shifted to orange lettering with white background.

Summer 2009

Due to Neyland Stadium's videoboard being replaced, the letters were removed entirely from the stadium for the first time since the 1965 season.

November 2010

The version of letters that overlooked Neyland Stadium from 1999 to 2009 were auctioned off to Copper Cellar Family of Restaurants through United Way of Greater Knoxville's online auction.

"QUOTES"

ABOUT NEYLAND STADIUM

"The big games I played in Neyland Stadium are right up there with the Super Bowl. It is still one of the most electric atmospheres I have ever experienced, and the passion of the fans is what makes the difference."

- Peyton Manning, Hall of Famer

"Neyland Stadium is the toughest place to play in college football. ... I've never been in an avalanche before, but I would imagine Tennessee taking the lead on you in the fourth quarter and Rocky Top blaring, that's what an avalanche of orange feels like."

- Josh Pate, Josh Pate's College Football Show (July 2025)

"To be here in a primetime setting, this is as good as it gets if you are a college football fan. It is wild in here right now. ... Still thinking about Neyland this morning. The brick around the stadium inside the tunnel with the banners, the stadium is massive but has like a 'friendly confines' kind of feel where it doesn't seem as big as it is. Throw in the passion and game ops, it's just incredible!"

- Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN (Nov. 2022)

"Take anybody that's never been to a game in Knoxville and let them experience that with neutral glasses on and they will be blown away. The campus, the Vol Navy, when you pull into town, the stadium, the mascot, the uniforms, the crowd, the fight song, all of it. There is no way you can't be impressed when you go to a game in Knoxville."

- Cole Cubelic, ESPN/SEC Network analyst

"The noise was a constant, oppressive force. I could literally feel it on my skin. But these fans weren't just loud on the first drive. Or just on 3rd down. Or just in the fourth quarter. It was every. single. play."

- Ty Darlington, former Oklahoma offensive lineman (2015)

"Last year when we went to play Tennessee in Neyland Stadium, that was probably the best game experience I've had and probably will ever have. That's a different type of loud. I can't even describe it. It was unbelievable."

- Baker Mayfield, former Oklahoma quarterback (2015)

HEAD COACH JOSH HEUPEL

Fifth Season • @CoachJoshHeupel

- 2022 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year
- 2022, 2018 National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2024 College Football Playoff, 2022 Orange Bowl champ
- Coached in three national title games and 20 postseason games
- Four 10-Win Seasons in Seven Years as a Head Coach
- 17 NFL Draft picks last four seasons
- Won eight conference championships
- 2000 National Champion QB and Heisman finalist

Former national champion quarterback Josh Heupel took the reins of Tennessee football in 2021 and has guided the proud program to a national resurgence, including the Volunteers' first College Football Playoff appearance in 2024. The 2022 SEC Coach of the Year and two-time National Coach of the Year finalist was officially announced as Tennessee's 27th head football coach on Jan. 27, 2021, by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White, who he worked alongside at UCF. Heupel signed an extension through Jan. 2030.

Taking over a program coming off a 3-7 season and the departure of several players prior to his arrival, Heupel instilled a strong culture built on trust, accountability and relationships. The results have seen Tennessee celebrate its greatest chapter in over two decades. Heupel's remarkable revival of the Volunteers has seen him produce a 39-15 overall record, 11 victories over Top 25 teams, the school's first New Year's Six berth in the CFP era, three straight top-20 poll finishes and a College Football Playoff berth. The 11 ranked wins are sixth nationally among FBS head coaches during that span and are already fifth in UT history. Heupel's .722 winning percentage is the second-highest by a Vol coach in the last five decades. His 37 wins were the third-most through the first four full seasons by a UT coach, trailing only Bill Battle (39 from 1970-73) and Phillip Fulmer (38 from 1993-96). Both Battle and Fulmer took over UT teams that had winning records prior to their hires. Heupel guided Tennessee to its winningest three-year stretch (30) since 1998-2000 (30), and the program's .769 winning percentage during that stretch was the eighth-best nationally and third-best in the SEC. The Vols have also won at least nine games in three straight seasons, which is the longest streak for the program since 1995-99.

The Vols' on-field success has correlated in the classroom as UT has shattered the program record for GPA in four consecutive fall semesters under Heupel. The Vols produced a spring semester GPA record of 3.25 in May.

#24/18 Vols Triumph in Atlanta, Down Syracuse 45-26

No. 24/18 Tennessee opened its 2025 campaign with a statement win, rolling past Syracuse, 45-26, in the Aflac Kickoff Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The Vols seized control early with 17 first-quarter points. Max Gilbert opened the scoring with a 34-yard field goal, Peyton Lewis punched in a 2-yard touchdown run, and the defense delivered when Colton Hood returned a strip sack 22 yards for a score. Syracuse (0-1) cut into the lead with a short touchdown run in the second quarter, but Joey Aguilar answered quickly, hitting Braylon Staley for a 73-yard strike. After the Orange pulled within 24-14, DeSean Bishop's 47-yard run set up his own 1-yard score, giving Tennessee a 31-14 halftime cushion. The defense provided another spark after the break, as Jeremiah Telander intercepted a tipped pass to set up Aguilar's 7-yard touchdown toss to Star Thomas. Syracuse battled back with two rushing scores to make it 38-26, but Aguilar capped a nine-play, 54-yard drive with a 2-yard strike to Miles Kitselman, sealing the win. Aguilar finished 16-of-28 for 247 yards and three touchdowns in his first start for the Big Orange, while Thomas posted 92 rushing yards and a receiving score in his UT debut. Bishop added 82 yards and a touchdown, and Staley led the receivers with 95 yards and a long TD. Defensively, Arion Carter paced the Vols with nine tackles and a sack as Tennessee recorded five sacks and seven tackles for loss. The Vols totaled 493 yards of offense and converted all five red-zone trips.

#22/17 Vols Overwhelm Bucs, 72-17, In Home Opener

No. 22/17 Tennessee put on a record-setting show in its home opener, piling up 48 first-half points and cruising past ETSU, 72-17, before a sold-out Neyland Stadium crowd of 101,915. The Vols eclipsed their modern-era scoring record with 72 points, topping the 71 they posted last fall against Kent State. Tennessee's offense rolled to 717 total yards and 41 first downs—a program best in the modern era—while three different quarterbacks accounted for touchdowns. Joey Aguilar sparked the early surge, throwing for 288 yards and two touchdowns in just two quarters. He connected with Chris Brazzell II on a 21-yard score to open the game, then added a 53-yard strike to Mike Matthews. Star Thomas and Peyton Lewis combined for four rushing touchdowns in the first half, and a 40-yard punt return by Boo Carter set up another score as UT built a 48-7 halftime cushion. In the second half, redshirt freshman Jake Merklinger tossed two touchdown passes, including his first career score, while Max Gilbert drilled a career-long 53-yard field goal. True freshman George MacIntyre later guided a drive capped by Daune Morris' 10-yard touchdown run. Thomas led the ground game with 69 yards and three touchdowns, while Brazzell (125 yards) and Matthews (111 yards) each topped 100 receiving. Defensively, Tennessee limited ETSU to 216 yards and just 49 rushing, forcing 10 three-and-outs and not allowing a first down in the opening quarter.
