STORYLINES - VS. WEST VIRGINIA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Cavs head to Institute, West Virginia, Monday for a 7:30 p.m. tip-off against the Yellow Jackets who are coming off of a high-scoring 109-105 MEC loss to Concord University Saturday. West Virginia State holds a 2-1 overall record and a 0-1 mark in conference play after beginning the season with a pair of home wins against Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association members Chowan University (75-71) and Elizabeth City State University (78-68) in the Yellow Jackets' 2015 Earl Lloyd Conference Challenge. UVa-Wise is 0-4 all-time versus West Virginia State with the two teams' last meeting being an 89-83 decision in Wise on Feb. 12, 2015. The Yellow Jackets are coached by Bryan Poore who is in his 17th year at the helm of the program. Coach Poore has accumulated 288 wins and 192 losses in his 16 seasons at West Virginia State, including 11 winning seasons. However, the Yellow Jackets last winning season was in 2011-12 when they went 14-13 overall. West Virginia State was picked to finish 10th in MEC this year according to the preseason poll voted upon by the league's head coaches. The Yellow Jackets are being led by 2014-15 All-MEC selection redshirt senior forward Markee Mazyck who is averaging 25.7 ppg to go along with seven rpg. Junior guard Robert Fomby (13 ppg) leads the team in rebounding at 8.7 rpg, while freshman guard Brent Beauer (12 ppg) leads the Yellow Jackets in assists at 3.7 apg.

ABOUT UVA-WISE

UVa-Wise is coming off of a 79-64 loss against the University of Charleston Saturday evening in the Cavs' home and MEC opener inside the David J. Prior Convocation Center. The Cavs were out-rebounded 55 to 31 in Saturday's setback and struggled to get points in the paint, only scoring 12 compared to 40 points by the Golden Eagles. There were some positives for the Cavs Saturday against Charleston as sophomore point guard Philip Owens II scored a game-high 19 points on 6-for-11 shooting and dished out five assists. Redshirt freshman shooting guard Camryn Fort had a career-high 16 points and six rebounds, while junior transfer forward Gervelle Kidd went 4-for-5 from beyond the arc to record a career-high 12 points. The Cavs will look to continue their excellent free-throw shooting Monday night as UVa-Wise has gone 57-for-64 (.891) at the foul line this season. Following tomorrow night's game the Cavs will remain on the road and travel to Harrogate, Tennessee, after Thanksgiving for a non-conference matchup with nationally-ranked Lincoln Memorial University Saturday at 4 p.m.

HEAD COACH BLAKE MELLINGER

Third Season

Blake Mellinger enters his third season as the head coach for the UVA-Wise men's basketball program for the 2015-16 season. Mellinger will guide his team as full NCAA Division II members for the first time in his career after UVA-Wise gained full membership on Sept. 1. The head coach will look to improve on last season's record as he returns starters Matt Day and Philip Owens for this season, while welcoming a slew of newcomers to the team.

Previously, Mellinger spent six seasons as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator for UVA-Wise. Over that time period he spearheaded the recruiting efforts for the Cavalier program, and assisted in leading the program to its second Appalachian Athletics Conference championship and an NAIA National Tournament appearance in 2010.

In addition to his recruiting responsibilities; Mellinger was responsible for developing game plans and strategies, on floor coaching, scheduling, team travel, day to day operations, monitoring team compliance and academics, scouting of opponents, individual player development, setting up community service projects, and assisting in the coordination of team camp.

Mellinger is no stranger to the game of basketball. His father and grandfather were both coaches, making him a third generation coach in the Mellinger family.

A native of Glade Spring, Virginia, Mellinger was a three-sport athlete at Patrick Henry High School. He lettered in basketball, football and track and field.

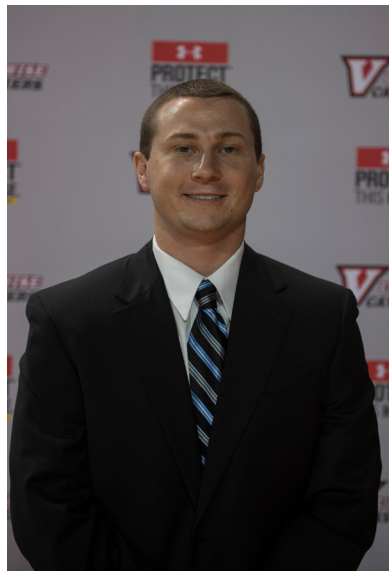

After completing his career at Patrick Henry, Mellinger accepted an offer to play at fellow NCAA Division II Limestone College in Gaffney, South Carolina, where he played for Coach Larry Epperly from 2001-2003. He then transferred to UVA-Wise and played for Coach Lee Clark from 2003-2005. Blake served as team captain and went on to become an all-conference player as a senior.

Mellinger received his bachelor's degree in business administration from UVA-Wise in 2006. He and his wife Amy have a son, Mason. The head coach and his family live in Wise, Virginia.

Assistant Coach Nathan Edick

Second Season

Nathan Edick enters his second season as an assistant coach at UVa-Wise. Edick came to the College after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant under coach Shaka Smart at Virginia Commonwealth University.

In his two years at VCU, Edick helped the Rams coaching staff with individual and team workouts, opponent scouting reports, video implementation and analysis, and assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program. During Edick's time there, VCU won a total of 53 games including back-to-back Atlantic-10 Championship game appearances and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season.

"I am thrilled to be able to add Nate to my coaching staff. He comes highly recommended from a group of coaches who are at the top of our profession, whom I have tremendous respect for," head coach Blake Mellinger said. "Nate possesses a terrific basketball background, both as a player and as a coach, and he will play an invaluable role in taking this program to the next level. He will be a tremendous asset to our athletics department, campus community, coaching staff, and student athletes."

Edick began his coaching career at the University of Tulsa in 2011 where he spent a season as the video coordinator. His primary responsibility was coordinating the program's video operations, including film breakdown, film exchange, and evaluation video for Tulsa players. He also assisted the coaching staff with opponent scouting reports, on-campus recruiting visits and helped with the team's academics.

The Worthington, Ohio native graduated from Otterbein University (Ohio) in June 2011 where he was a two-time Academic All-OAC and All-District selection. During his senior season he was the recipient of the Ohio Athletic Conference Clyde Lamb Award. In his freshman season at Marietta College, he was the NCAA statistical champion in three-point shooting after connecting on 54.8 percent of his three-point attempts.

Edick completed his master's degree in education with a focus in Sports Leadership from VCU in May 2014. He lives in Wise, Virginia.

Assistant Coach Drew Absher

Second Season

The UVa-Wise athletic department announced the hiring of Drew Absher as head coach of the school's women's golf team earlier this year. Absher is in his second season at the College where he also serves as an assistant men's basketball coach.

Absher came to UVa-Wise after a four-year basketball career at Virginia Military Institute. While at VMI, he aided the Keydets to the All-Military Classic title and an appearance in the CIT Final Four during his collegiate career.

Prior to attending VMI, Absher was a four-year letter winner in golf and basketball at Davie County High School in Mocksville, North Carolina. He also was a member of the golf team at The Gunnery during his post-graduate year.
