STORYLINES - NEWBERRY

Two teams on four-game losing streaks meet Saturday when UVA Wise travels to Newberry. The Wolves are in the middle of a 6-15 season but, all six wins have come at home. Scoring has been an issue for Joanna Tincher's squad which ranks last in the league at 53.8 points per game. While scoring has been down, Newberry has fared well on defense. The Wolves are blocking five shots a game and have the third-best 3-point percentage defense by holding teams to 27.7 percent shooting from distance. Ericka Wiseley (30) and April Rummery-Lamb (26) are both top five in the league in total blocks, aiding the team to a number five ranking nationally in the category. Last time out, Peyton Cronen scored a season-high 15 points but it wasn't enough as the team fell 55-47 to Anderson. Turnovers played a big role in defeat as the Wolves turned it over 21 times. On the season, Newberry is last in the league in turnovers, averaging 20.5 per contest.

ABOUT UVA WISE

If UVA Wise is to make the South Atlantic Conference Tournament, Jamie Cluesman's team will have to finish the season strong. The Cavaliers enter the final stretch of the year two games back of Lincoln Memorial for the final tournament berth with six league games remaining. A positive for the club is that a date with LMU is still on the schedule but, UVA Wise will have to take care of business in other league contests for that contest to matter on Feb. 22. The Cavs are in the midst of a four-game losing streak, the longest for the program since dropping seven straight from Dec. 4, 2021 - Jan. 10, 2022 last season. While the team fell 66-57 to Mars Hill Wednesday, a pair of bright spots stood out in the game. Senior Caitlyn Ross established a new single-season program record with 173 assists as part of a game that saw her score 11 points and hand out 11 assists against a single turnover. Additionally, Sable Burnside came off the bench to tally a career-high 14 points while finishing one rebound shy of a double-double. The last time UVA Wise played at Newberry, Nia Vanzant had a big game. The guard tossed in a game-high 21 points and over her last four games against the Wolves she's averaging 16.5 points per game.
