UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME INFORMATION

Any alumnus/alumna, former student-athlete or Hall of Fame Administrative Committee member may nominate an individual for membership as a regular inductee in the UVM Athletic Hall of Fame.

Membership in the Athletic Hall of Fame as a regular inductee is open to those individuals who have, by their participation as an undergraduate student-athlete in the UVM intercollegiate athletic program, performed at a level of athletic excellence that meets the standards set by the Administrative Committee.

To be eligible for the Athletic Hall of Fame as a regular inductee, a nominee must have attended the University of Vermont for at least four semesters and must have been separated from the university, when their athletic eligibility expired or would have expired, for a period of at least 10 years.

The nominator should provide sufficient supporting data to document the nominee's qualifications for consideration. Contact information of the nominator must also be on the form. Nominations close on March 31 of each year.
