

Utah Valley played its first-ever home game on Aug. 30, 2014 against UMass in front of a sell-out crowd of 2,610. The 12th Wolverines that have packed the stands at Clyde Field have helped propel the team to an impressive 54-23-13 record (.672) on its home turf in the program's first 11 seasons.

While Clyde Field's capacity is listed at 1,500, the Wolverines have seen 26 crowds over capacity, as well as 7 crowds of over 3,000, more than double capacity. The largest recorded crowd for a men's soccer game at Clyde Field was on August 25, 2017, when 4,351 supporters saw the Wolverines topple #13 Akron 1-0.

Utah Valley consistently ranks among the best in the nation in home attendance. The Wolverines ranked 29th in 2023, and ranked as high as 11th in a non-COVID season (2018).

UCCU STADIUM COMING IN 2025

In October 2022, UVU and UCCU announced plans to build a new $20 million stadium on the site of Clyde Field. The new stadium will include locker rooms and team areas for both the men's and women's soccer teams, as well as expanded seating, an MLS-style press box, with a broadcast booth, luxury suites, and improved seating and amenities for fans. The full name of the new stadium will be Clyde Field at UCCU Stadium. Ground was broken on April 9, 2024, and the stadium is expected to be completed in time for the 2025 season.

Computer renderings of UCCU Stadium, expected to be finished in time for the 2025 season.
