KICKSTART

Wolverines Host UC San Diego in Big West Championship Final: Top-seeded Utah Valley (14-4-3) hosts No. 2 UC San Diego in the Big West Championship Final on Saturday, Nov. 14, at 5 p.m. MT at UCCU Stadium. The teams played to a 2-2 draw on Sept. 26 in La Jolla. The winner earns the Big West's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament.

UVU Advances to Championship Final with 3-0 Win: Sadie Beardall, Quinn Rustand and Bailey Peterson each scored as Utah Valley shut out No. 5 Cal Poly, 3-0, in the Big West semi-finals on Nov. 7. UVU outshot the Mustangs 23-5 and recorded its eighth clean sheet of the season. Madeleine Boucher made two saves for her seventh individual shutout.

Wolverines Riding Eight-Match Win Streak: Utah Valley has won eight consecutive matches and is unbeaten in its last 13 (11-0-2). The Wolverines have outscored opponents 26-4 with five shutouts during their winning streak. UVU has scored 42 goals during its 13-match unbeaten streak, outscoring opponents 42-9 while averaging 3.23 goals per match.

UVU Claims Outright Big West Championship: Utah Valley finished unbeaten in its inaugural Big West season at 9-0-2, claiming its fifth consecutive conference regular-season championship. The Wolverines have gone unbeaten in 43 consecutive regular-season conference matches dating back to 2022.

Wolverines Receive National Recognition: Utah Valley received seven votes in the Nov. 10 IWSOC Top-25 Coaches Poll, up from two votes the previous week. The Wolverines lead the nation in total assists (64), rank third in total points (168), fifth in total goals (52) and sixth in shots per game (18.90).

Jackson Sets UVU Career Assists Record: Nixan Jackson recorded two assists in the semifinal win over Cal Poly to become Utah Valley's all-time career assists leader with 34, surpassing Ruby Hladek's previous record of 32. Jackson ranks second nationally with 14 assists this season and has also set a new UVU single-season record. She has eight goals and 30 points this season.

UVU Earns Four Major Big West Awards: Utah Valley claimed four of the Big West's six major individual awards, with Sadie Beardall (Offensive), Sam Curtis (Midfielder and Rookie) and Mia Owens (Defensive) earning top honors. The Wolverines received 10 total All-Big West honors, including five First Team, two Second Team, one Honorable Mention and two All-Rookie selections.

ABOUT UC SAN DIEGO

UC San Diego enters Saturday's Big West Championship Final with a 12-3-5 overall record after finishing conference play at 7-1-3. The second-seeded Tritons are coming off a 1-0 shutout victory over No. 3 Cal State Fullerton in Saturday's semifinals, with junior Lana Gilligan scoring the game-winning goal in the 41st minute. The victory marked UC San Diego's first NCAA Division I postseason win and sent the Tritons to their first Big West Championship Final. UC San Diego has won five consecutive matches and is unbeaten in its last eight (7-0-1). The Tritons are 5-1-3 on the road this season and are led by eighth-year head coach Kristin Jones, who was named the 2026 Big West Coach of the Year.

UC San Diego has scored 29 goals in 20 matches while allowing just 14. The Tritons average 1.45 goals, 16.75 shots and 7.60 shots on goal per match. UC San Diego ranks 35th nationally and second in the Big West in goals-against average (0.70), while ranking 11th nationally in save percentage (.861), 26th in shots per game and 30th in shots on goal per game. The Tritons have recorded nine shutouts this season and rank 69th nationally in shutout percentage (.450). UC San Diego scored 18 goals in 11 Big West regular-season matches while allowing seven.

Redshirt freshman midfielder Olivia Shih leads UC San Diego with 14 points on five goals and four assists. Shih earned Second Team All-Big West and All-Rookie Team honors after helping the Tritons set Division I-era program records for goals and assists in a season. Junior forward Natalie Oca follows with 13 points on five goals and three assists, including two game-winning goals. Sophomore forward Ava Tibor and junior forward Lana Gilligan have each scored four goals this season, while senior midfielder Alexis Nguyen has added four goals and leads the team with 50 shots and 22 shots on goal. Shih, Leilah Raad and Kiki Vostermans share the team lead with four assists apiece. UC San Diego had nine players earn All-Big West recognition, including three Second Team selections.

Sophomore goalkeeper Charlotte Wilfert has started all 20 matches for UC San Diego, posting a 12-3-5 record with a 0.65 goals-against average, 75 saves and a .852 save percentage. Wilfert ranks 16th nationally and leads the Big West with nine shutouts. She also ranks 25th nationally in save percentage and 32nd in goals-against average. Wilfert made six saves in the Tritons' semifinal victory over Cal State Fullerton for her ninth clean sheet of the season. In UC San Diego's 2-2 draw against Utah Valley on Sept. 26, Wilfert recorded a career-high and school-record 15 saves, breaking a program record that had stood for 35 years.

SERIES HISTORY VS. THE TRITONS

Saturday's match will mark the second all-time meeting between Utah Valley and UC San Diego, with the series tied at 0-0-1. The two programs met for the first time on Sept. 26, 2026, in La Jolla, California, playing to a 2-2 draw in Big West regular-season action. Utah Valley took a 1-0 lead into halftime before UC San Diego scored twice in the second half to take a 2-1 advantage. The Wolverines responded with an equalizer to secure the draw. Saturday's championship match will mark the first meeting between the programs in Orem and their first postseason matchup.

Sept. 26, 2026 – T, 2-2 – La Jolla, Calif.

LAST TIME VS. UC SAN DIEGO (Sept. 26, 2026)

Sadie Beardall and Nixan Jackson each scored as Utah Valley battled UC San Diego to a 2-2 draw on Sept. 26, 2026, at Triton Soccer Stadium. The Wolverines controlled much of the match, outshooting the Tritons 31-13 overall and holding an 18-8 advantage in shots on goal. Beardall opened the scoring in the 29th minute, heading home a cross from Bailey Peterson to give UVU a 1-0 halftime lead. UC San Diego responded with two goals in the second half as Karize Madero scored in the 50th minute and Kat Harris added a header off a corner kick in the 59th to put the Tritons ahead 2-1. Utah Valley answered in the 65th minute when Jackson collected a pass from Peterson and worked around a defender before scoring the equalizer. The Wolverines nearly found the game-winner in the 84th minute when Beardall's shot deflected off the goalkeeper and struck the right post. Jackson led UVU with eight shots, including four on goal, while Madeleine Boucher finished with six saves. UC San Diego goalkeeper Charlotte Wilfert recorded 15 saves to preserve the draw.

LAST TIME OUT: UVU SHUTS OUT CAL POLY, 3-0, TO ADVANCE TO BIG WEST FINAL

Sadie Beardall, Quinn Rustand and Bailey Peterson each scored as top-seeded Utah Valley shut out No. 5 Cal Poly, 3-0, in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7 at UCCU Stadium. Beardall opened the scoring in the 21st minute off an assist from Isabella Stewart before Rustand doubled the lead in the 27th minute on a cross from Nixan Jackson. Peterson capped the scoring in the 82nd minute off assists from Stewart and Josie Clawson. UVU outshot Cal Poly 23-5, including a 7-2 advantage in shots on goal, and held a 6-2 edge in corner kicks. Rustand led all players with five shots, while freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher made two saves to record her seventh individual shutout and the team's eighth clean sheet of the season. The victory improved Utah Valley to 14-4-3 overall, extended its winning streak to eight matches and pushed its unbeaten streak to 13 consecutive matches (10-0-3). The Wolverines also secured a berth in the Big West Championship Final.

UVU CLAIMS OUTRIGHT BIG WEST TITLE IN INAUGURAL SEASON

Utah Valley captured the outright 2026 Big West regular-season championship in its inaugural season in the conference, completing an unbeaten 9-0-2 campaign with a league-best 29 points. The Wolverines secured the title with a 5-2 comeback victory at CSUN on Oct. 31, overcoming a 2-0 halftime deficit with five unanswered second-half goals. UVU finished five points ahead of UC San Diego (7-1-3) and Cal State Fullerton (7-1-3), which tied for second with 24 points. The Wolverines were the only team in the 12-member conference to finish regular-season league play without a loss. The championship marks the first Big West title in UVU history and the program's fifth consecutive conference regular-season crown after winning four straight WAC titles from 2022-25.

WOLVERINES RIDING EIGHT-MATCH WINNING STREAK

Utah Valley enters the Big West Championship Final riding an eight-match winning streak and a 13-match unbeaten streak. The Wolverines have not lost since a 2-1 setback at Gonzaga on Sept. 16, going 11-0-2 over their last 13 contests. During their current eight-match winning streak, the Wolverines have outscored opponents 26-4, recording five shutouts. UVU has scored multiple goals in seven of its last eight matches, including six goals against Sacramento State on Oct. 21 and five goals at CSUN on Oct. 31. The Wolverines most recently shut out Cal Poly, 3-0, in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7.

CONFERENCE UNBEATEN STREAK REACHES 43

Utah Valley has gone 43 consecutive regular-season conference matches without a loss, dating back to a 2-1 setback at Seattle U on Oct. 8, 2022. The Wolverines completed the 2026 Big West regular season unbeaten at 9-0-2, extending a streak that began during their time in the Western Athletic Conference. UVU has also gone unbeaten in 32 consecutive regular-season home conference matches, with its last home league loss coming against California Baptist on March 11, 2021. The Wolverines finished their first Big West season with a 4-0-1 home conference record.

UVU COLLECTS FOUR MAJOR BIG WEST INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

Utah Valley claimed four of the Big West's six major individual awards following its historic inaugural season in the conference. Senior forward Sadie Beardall was named Offensive Player of the Year, freshman midfielder Sam Curtis earned both Midfielder of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors, and senior defender Mia Owens was selected as Defensive Player of the Year. The Wolverines collected 10 All-Big West selections, including a conference-high five First Team honors, two Second Team selections, one Honorable Mention and two All-Rookie Team selections. Beardall, Curtis and Owens were joined on the First Team by senior midfielder Josie Clawson and senior forward Nixan Jackson. Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher and junior defender Kate Shirts earned Second Team honors, while senior defender Tylie Miller received Honorable Mention recognition. Curtis and Boucher were also named to the All-Rookie Team.

WOLVERINES RECEIVE VOTES IN NATIONAL TOP 25

Utah Valley received seven votes in the Nov. 10 Intercollegiate Women's Soccer Organization for Coaches (IWSOC) national Top-25 Coaches Poll, marking the third time this season the Wolverines have received national votes. UVU previously received six votes in the Oct. 13 poll and two votes in the Nov. 3 poll. The Wolverines are the only Big West program to receive votes in the latest national rankings. Utah Valley has also held the No. 1 spot in the IWSOC West Region rankings five consecutive weeks. The national recognition comes as Utah Valley rides an eight-match winning streak and a 13-match unbeaten streak following its 3-0 shutout victory over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals. The Wolverines enter Saturday's championship final with a 14-4-3 overall record after completing an unbeaten 9-0-2 Big West regular-season campaign.

UTAH VALLEY LEADS NATION IN ASSISTS, RANKS AMONG NATIONAL STATISTICAL LEADERS

Utah Valley leads the nation in total assists with 64 and ranks among the country's top 10 in seven offensive statistical categories through matches played Nov. 10. The Wolverines rank third nationally in total points (168), fifth in total goals (52) and goal differential (+34), sixth in shots per game (18.90), shots on goal per game (8.81) and points per game (8.00), and fourth in assists per game (3.05). UVU also ranks 12th nationally in scoring offense at 2.48 goals per match. Individually, Nixan Jackson ranks second nationally with 14 assists and third in assists per game (0.67), while Sadie Beardall ranks ninth nationally in total points (34) and 19th in total goals (13). The Wolverines lead the Big West in total assists, total points, total goals, goal differential, scoring offense, assists per game, points per game, shots per game and shots on goal per game.

LEMAY SIGNS THREE-YEAR CONTRACT EXTENSION

Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay signed a three-year contract extension that will keep him with the Wolverines through the 2029 season. Lemay, the winningest coach in program history with a 116-70-26 record, has guided UVU to six conference regular-season championships, including five straight, four NCAA Tournament appearances, two NCAA at-large selections and the first NCAA Tournament victory in program history. The three-time WAC Coach of the Year also led Utah Valley to the outright Big West regular-season championship in its inaugural season in the conference, finishing league play unbeaten at 9-0-2.

BEARDALL LEADS BIG WEST OFFENSIVE ATTACK

Senior forward Sadie Beardall leads Utah Valley with 13 goals, eight assists and 34 points this season. The Big West Offensive Player of the Year ranks ninth nationally in total points, 19th in total goals and shot accuracy (.609), and 30th in points per match (1.62). Beardall leads the Big West in total points and points per match and ranks second in goals. She recorded 11 goals and seven assists for 29 points in 11 conference matches, leading the league in conference-only goals and points. Beardall has recorded three multi-goal performances this season and is tied for the Big West lead with four game-winning goals. She most recently scored the game-winning goal in Utah Valley's 3-0 shutout victory over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7.

OLSON EARNS NATIONAL TEAM OF THE WEEK HONORS

Utah Valley midfielder Addie Olson was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Women's Team of the Week on Nov. 3 after recording one goal and four assists in victories over Long Beach State and CSUN. Olson scored the equalizer in UVU's 5-2 comeback victory at CSUN and played a key role in helping the Wolverines secure the outright Big West regular-season championship. The Utah native has recorded three goals and eight assists for 14 points in 17 matches this season. Her eight assists are tied for 33rd nationally and third in the Big West, while her 0.47 assists per match rank 34th in the country.

UVU OWNS BIG WEST'S TOP RPI RANKING

Utah Valley leads the Big West and ranks No. 39 nationally in the latest NCAA Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) rankings. The Wolverines own the conference's highest RPI, ahead of Saturday's Big West Championship Final opponent UC San Diego (No. 67) and Cal State Fullerton (No. 81). California Baptist ranks No. 120, while Cal Poly stands at No. 157. UVU's résumé is highlighted by a 2-1 victory over Kansas on Aug. 27 at UCCU Stadium and a 1-1 draw against Michigan in the season opener on Aug. 13. The Wolverines enter Saturday's championship final with a 14-4-3 overall record, an eight-match winning streak and a 13-match unbeaten streak after completing an undefeated 9-0-2 Big West regular-season campaign.

UTAH VALLEY'S CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Utah Valley has advanced to the Big West Women's Soccer Championship Final in its first season as a member of the conference. The top-seeded Wolverines defeated No. 5 Cal Poly, 3-0, in the semifinals on Nov. 7 at UCCU Stadium to secure a spot in Saturday's championship match against No. 2 UC San Diego. Utah Valley previously spent 13 seasons in the Western Athletic Conference from 2013-25, reaching the WAC Tournament semifinals in 12 of 13 seasons and advancing to the championship match seven times (2015, 2017, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2025). UVU captured WAC Tournament titles in 2015, 2017 and the delayed 2020 season, with the latter championship played in April 2021. The Wolverines compiled a 12-9-3 all-time WAC Tournament record and hosted the event twice (2018 and 2025). Utah Valley is now 13-9-3 all-time in conference tournament play, including a 1-0-0 mark in the Big West Championship, and will make its eighth conference tournament championship appearance on Saturday.

JACKSON SETS UVU CAREER AND SINGLE-SEASON ASSISTS RECORDS

Senior forward Nixan Jackson has become Utah Valley's all-time leader in career assists with 34, surpassing former Wolverine Ruby Hladek (2023-25), who held the previous record with 32. Jackson recorded two assists in UVU's 3-0 victory over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7 to break both the career and single-season program records. She leads the Big West and ranks second nationally with 14 assists this season, surpassing Hladek's previous single-season record of 13. Jackson also ranks third nationally in assists per match (0.67) and has recorded eight goals and 14 assists for 30 points this season. She ranks 22nd nationally in total points and second in the Big West. Hladek currently plays professionally for Seattle Reign FC in the National Women's Soccer League.

CURTIS RANKED AMONG NATION'S TOP FRESHMEN

Utah Valley freshman midfielder Sam Curtis was ranked No. 49 on the Top-DrawerSoccer Midseason Top-100 Freshmen list. Curtis has appeared in all 21 matches for the Wolverines this season, recording one goal and eight assists for 10 points. She ranks tied for 33rd nationally and third in the Big West in total assists, while her 0.40 assists per match rank tied for 93rd nationally. Curtis scored her first collegiate goal and the game-winner in Utah Valley's 4-0 victory at UC Santa Barbara on Oct. 24. She also recorded two assists against both Cal State Bakersfield and UC Riverside. Following the regular season, Curtis was named Big West Midfielder of the Year and Rookie of the Year, becoming one of the conference's most decorated freshmen. She also earned All-Big West First Team and All-Rookie Team honors.

BOUCHER AMONG UVU'S ALL-TIME GOALKEEPING LEADERS

Utah Valley freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher has put together one of the top goalkeeping seasons in program history, posting a 14-2-3 record with a 0.78 goals-against average, 63 saves and a .808 save percentage in 20 appearances. Boucher has recorded seven individual shutouts and one combined shutout while playing 1,728 minutes and 45 seconds. Her 0.78 goals-against average matches CJ Graham's school record set in 2023, while her .808 save percentage ranks among the top four single-season marks in program history. Boucher also continues to climb UVU's single-season goalkeeper minutes played list. Nationally, she ranks 17th in goalkeeper minutes played, 51st in goals-against average and 61st in shutouts. The All-Big West Second Team and All-Rookie Team selection most recently made two saves in Utah Valley's 3-0 victory over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7, recording her seventh individual shutout and helping the Wolverines secure their eighth team clean sheet of the season.

WOLVERINES ON A ROLL: UVU OWNS NATION'S SECOND-LONGEST WIN STREAK

Utah Valley owns the second-longest active winning streak in NCAA Division I women's soccer with eight consecutive victories and is tied for the second-longest road winning streak with five straight road wins. The Wolverines have outscored opponents 26-4 during their overall winning streak and 15-4 in road victories over UC Irvine, Cal Poly, California Baptist, UC Santa Barbara and CSUN. UVU is also unbeaten in its last 13 matches, posting an 11-0-2 record during that stretch.

JACKSON RANKS SECOND NATIONALLY IN TOTAL ASSISTS

Utah Valley senior forward Nixan Jackson ranks second nationally in total assists with 14 through 21 matches this season, trailing only Alcorn's Annick Zouma (16). Her 0.67 assists per match rank third nationally, and she leads the Big West in both total assists and assists per match. Jackson has recorded eight goals and 14 assists for 30 points this season, ranking 22nd nationally in total points and second in the Big West. Seven of her 14 assists came during conference play, helping the Wolverines complete an unbeaten 9-0-2 Big West campaign. Jackson recorded two assists in UVU's 3-0 win over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7, becoming Utah Valley's all-time career assists leader with 34 and breaking the program's single-season record of 13 previously held by Ruby Hladek.

UVU REMAINS NO. 1 IN WEST REGION

Utah Valley holds the No. 1 spot in the Nov. 10 IWSOC Coaches Poll West Region Top 10, released in partnership with United Soccer Coaches. The Wolverines rank first in the region for the fifth consecutive week. UC San Diego ranks second, followed by Oral Roberts, Cal State Fullerton and Weber State. Six Big West programs are represented in the top 10, including Cal Poly (No. 6), California Baptist (No. 7) and Long Beach State (No. 10). UVU maintained its top regional ranking after shutting out Cal Poly, 3-0, in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7, extending its winning streak to eight matches and its overall unbeaten streak to 13. The Wolverines enter Saturday's Big West Championship Final against No. 2 UC San Diego with a 14-4-3 overall record.

WOLVERINES UNLEASH RELENTLESS OFFENSIVE ATTACK

Utah Valley continues to dominate opponents in shot production, outshooting its 11 Big West opponents 256-84 during the regular season and holding a commanding 397-183 shot advantage through 21 matches this season. The Wolverines average 18.90 shots and 8.81 shots on goal per match, leading the Big West in both categories. During conference play, UVU averaged an impressive 23.27 shots and 11.45 shots on goal per match while limiting opponents to just 7.64 shots per contest. The Wolverines rank sixth nationally in both shots per game and shots on goal per game in the latest NCAA rankings. UVU most recently outshot Cal Poly 23-5, including a 7-2 advantage in shots on goal, in its 3-0 Big West Championship semifinal victory on Nov. 7.

UVU DOMINATES BIG WEST OFFENSIVE STATISTICS

Utah Valley leads the Big West in nine offensive statistical categories, including scoring offense (2.48), assists per game (3.05), points per game (8.00), shots per game (18.90), shots on goal per game (8.81), total assists (64), total goals (52), total points (168) and goal differential (+34). Nationally, UVU is tied for first in total assists, ranks third in total points, fourth in assists per game, fifth in total goals and goal differential, sixth in shots per game, shots on goal per game and points per game, and 12th in scoring offense, according to the latest NCAA rankings through Nov. 10. The Wolverines were even more dominant during Big West regular-season play, leading the conference with 36 goals, 44 assists, 116 points, 256 shots and 126 shots on goal in 11 matches. UVU outscored its conference opponents 36-9 while averaging 3.27 goals per match.

BIG WEST ERA OFF TO HISTORIC START

Utah Valley completed its inaugural Big West regular season unbeaten at 9-0-2, scoring 36 goals in 11 conference matches and capturing the outright regular-season championship. The Wolverines finished atop the 12-team conference standings with 29 points, five ahead of UC San Diego and Cal State Fullerton, which tied for second with 24 points. The title marked the first Big West championship in university history and the program's fifth consecutive regular-season conference crown after winning four straight WAC titles from 2022-25. Utah Valley opened its Big West era with a 7-1 victory over Cal State Bakersfield on Sept. 23 at UCCU Stadium, marking the school's first-ever Big West contest in any sport.

Utah Valley followed with a 2-2 draw at UC San Diego, a 3-1 victory at UC Irvine and a 1-1 draw against Cal State Fullerton. The Wolverines then earned consecutive road wins over Cal Poly (2-1) and California Baptist (1-0) before defeating UC Riverside (3-0) and Sacramento State (6-1) at home. UVU continued its winning streak with a 4-0 shutout at UC Santa Barbara and a 2-0 victory over Long Beach State before rallying from a 2-0 halftime deficit to defeat CSUN, 5-2, in the regular-season finale on Oct. 31 to clinch the outright championship. The Wolverines carried that momentum into the Big West Championship, shutting out No. 5 Cal Poly, 3-0, in the semifinals on Nov. 7 to advance to Saturday's championship final against No. 2 UC San Diego.

The Wolverines outshot their 11 Big West opponents 256-84 while holding a 126-43 advantage in shots on goal. UVU outscored conference opponents 36-9, averaging 3.27 goals, 23.27 shots and 11.45 shots on goal per match. Sadie Beardall led the conference attack with 11 goals and seven assists for 29 points, while Nixan Jackson recorded seven goals and seven assists for 21 points. Addie Olson added two goals and eight assists for 12 points in conference play. Utah Valley finished unbeaten on the road in Big West action at 5-0-1, winning its final five conference road matches, and secured the No. 1 seed and home-field advantage throughout the Big West Championship. UVU enters Saturday's final with a 14-4-3 overall record, an eight-match winning streak and a 13-match unbeaten streak.

WOLVERINES RANK 13TH NATIONALLY IN ATTENDANCE

Utah Valley ranks 13th nationally and leads the Big West in average home attendance at 1,413 fans per match. The Wolverines have drawn 16,954 fans through 12 home matches at UCCU Stadium, ranking seventh nationally in total attendance. UVU ranks second among Utah programs in both categories, trailing only BYU, which ranks third nationally in average attendance (3,144) and total attendance (31,441). Utah Valley is one of just 14 NCAA Division I women's soccer programs averaging more than 1,400 fans per home match.

UVU OFFENSE FUELS 13-MATCH UNBEATEN STREAK

Utah Valley has scored 42 goals over its last 13 matches while going 11-0-2 during the stretch. The Wolverines have outscored opponents 42-9, averaging 3.23 goals per match while recording six shutouts. UVU has dominated shot production during the streak, outshooting opponents 292-97 overall and holding a 140-50 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines have also recorded 55 assists and 139 points while holding a 100-34 advantage in corner kicks. Utah Valley has won eight consecutive matches, outscoring opponents 26-4 with five shutouts during its current winning streak.

BOUCHER STEADY BETWEEN THE POSTS

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher has posted a 0.78 goals-against average and a .808 save percentage in 20 appearances this season. She has made 63 saves while allowing 15 goals in 1,728:45 and owns a 14-2-3 record with seven individual shutouts and one combined shutout. Boucher recorded consecutive clean sheets against California Baptist and UC Riverside before helping UVU to a 4-0 shutout at UC Santa Barbara on Oct. 24. She then made five saves in a 2-0 shutout win over Long Beach State on Oct. 28 before recording a season-high-tying six saves, including a penalty-kick stop, in UVU's 5-2 comeback victory at CSUN on Oct. 31. Boucher most recently made two saves in a 3-0 shutout victory over Cal Poly in the Big West Championship semifinals on Nov. 7, recording her seventh individual clean sheet of the season. She ranks 17th nationally in goalkeeper minutes played, 51st in goals-against average and 61st in shutouts. Boucher started all 11 Big West regular-season matches and played all but 23 minutes, 25 seconds of conference action, finishing unbeaten at 9-0-2. Her 0.78 goals-against average matches CJ Graham's UVU single-season school record set in 2023.

BEARDALL EARNS SECOND TOPDRAWERSOCCER TEAM OF THE WEEK HONOR

Utah Valley senior forward Sadie Beardall was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Women's Team of the Week on Oct. 27 following a standout performance in wins over Sacramento State and UC Santa Barbara. Beardall recorded three goals and four assists for 10 points over the two matches, tallying two goals and two assists in a 6-1 win over Sacramento State before adding a goal and two assists in a 4-0 shutout at UC Santa Barbara. The recognition marks Beardall's second TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Week honor this season after previously earning the distinction on Sept. 29. Beardall also earned her third Big West Offensive Player of the Week award on Oct. 26.

JACEY WOOD EARNS IWSOC NATIONAL GOAL OF THE WEEK HONORS

Utah Valley midfielder Jacey Wood earned the Intercollegiate Women's Soccer Organization for Coaches (IWSOC) National Goal of the Week honor for Week 11 following her spectacular goal in the Wolverines' 4-0 win at UC Santa Barbara on Oct. 24. Wood connected on a give-and-go before showcasing her individual skill, nutmegging two defenders, slipping past another inside the box and finishing into the side netting. The goal was Wood's first of the season and fourth of her collegiate career. The national award is selected by a panel of NCAA women's soccer coaches, with fan voting also factoring into the selection process.

WOLVERINES SWEEP BIG WEST WEEKLY HONORS ON OCT. 26

Utah Valley swept all three Big West women's soccer weekly awards on Oct. 26, with senior forward Sadie Beardall earning Offensive Player of the Week, freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher receiving Defensive Player of the Week and freshman midfielder Sam Curtis claiming Rookie of the Week. The trio helped Utah Valley outscore Sacramento State and UC Santa Barbara by a combined 10-1 margin in two victories. Beardall recorded three goals and four assists for 10 points across the two matches, including two goals and two assists against Sacramento State and a goal and two assists at UC Santa Barbara. Boucher helped UVU secure a combined shutout against the Gauchos, while Curtis scored her first collegiate goal and the game-winner in the 4-0 victory at UC Santa Barbara. The honors marked Beardall's third Big West Offensive Player of the Week award this season.

BEARDALL, SHIRTS EARN BIG WEST WEEKLY HONORS ON OCT. 19

Utah Valley's Sadie Beardall and Kate Shirts were named The Big West Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively, on Oct. 19 after helping the Wolverines to shutout wins over California Baptist (1-0) and UC Riverside (3-0). Beardall recorded two goals and an assist for five points, including the game-winner at California Baptist and a goal against UC Riverside. Shirts anchored a UVU defense that allowed just eight shots and four shots on goal over the two matches. She also scored in the win over UC Riverside.

BEARDALL BRINGS HOME THE BIG WEST/NATIONAL HARDWARE ON SEPT. 29

Utah Valley senior forward Sadie Beardall earned Big West Offensive Player of the Week honors and was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Women's Team of the Week on Sept. 29 following a standout opening week of conference play. Beardall recorded three goals and one assist for seven points over two matches, tallying two goals and an assist in a 7-1 win over Cal State Bakersfield before scoring again in a 2-2 draw at UC San Diego. The recognition marked Beardall's first Big West weekly honor and her first selection to the TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Week.

LULIE MACFARLANE EARNS THIRD CHILE NATIONAL TEAM CALL-UP

Utah Valley senior forward/midfielder Lulie MacFarlane earned her third call-up to the Chile Women's National Team, joining La Roja for the October FIFA international window. MacFarlane was selected to join the senior national team in Chile for the Oct. 5-13 FIFA international window, with the camp featuring training at the Juan Pinto Durán complex and a pair of matches against Bolivia on Oct. 11 and Oct. 13. MacFarlane previously joined Chile for a U.S.-based camp and international friendlies in California before being invited back for the March FIFA international window, which included training in Chile and two friendlies against Paraguay. This season, MacFarlane has appeared in eight matches for Utah Valley. MacFarlane, who has Chilean heritage through her mother, appeared in 19 matches for the Wolverines in 2025, recording two goals and two assists for six points.

UVU WINS OUTRIGGER NO KA OI TITLE

Utah Valley claimed the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi title with a perfect 2-0 record in Honolulu, Sept. 3 and Sept. 6. The Wolverines defeated Washington State 1-0 before closing the tournament with a 4-0 shutout of New Mexico State. UVU outscored its two opponents 5-0 and held a 40-11 advantage in shots, including a 15-6 edge in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held an 18-5 advantage in corner kicks.

BOUCHER NAMED OUTRIGGER NO KA OI MVP, FIVE EARN ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher was named MVP of the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi, while Kate Booth, Ashley Garcia, Nixan Jackson and Mia Owens joined Boucher on the All-Tournament Team. Boucher recorded two clean sheets and six saves without allowing a goal in 180 minutes. Booth scored the game winner against Washington State, Jackson and Garcia each recorded a goal and an assist, and Owens anchored a back line that did not concede a goal during the tournament.

OWENS NAMED BIG WEST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON SEPT. 7

Senior defender Mia Owens was named The Big West Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 7 after helping Utah Valley post back-to-back shutouts and claim the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi title. Owens played all 180 minutes as the Wolverines limited Washington State and New Mexico State to just 11 combined shots and six shots on goal. She was also named to the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi All-Tournament Team. The honor is UVU's first Big West women's soccer weekly award.

WOLVERINES KNOCK OFF NO. 17/14 KANSAS

Utah Valley scored twice in a span of 1:24 late in the first half to rally past No. 17/14 Kansas, 2-1, at UCCU Stadium. Malia Jessop tied the match in the 36th minute on a header off a Nixan Jackson cross before Sadie Beardall scored the go-ahead goal in the 38th after pressuring the Kansas back line and winning a loose ball in front of goal. The Wolverines made the lead stand despite Kansas holding a 16-7 advantage in shots, with freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher making four saves to secure Utah Valley's first win of the season.

SEASON-OPENING DRAW AGAINST MICHIGAN

Utah Valley opened the 2026 season with a 1-1 draw against Big Ten foe Michigan on Aug. 13 at UCCU Stadium. Addie Olson gave the Wolverines a 1-0 lead in the 33rd minute, scoring UVU's first goal of the season, before Michigan tied the match on a penalty kick in the 54th minute. The Wolverines outshot Michigan 14-13, with each team putting six shots on goal, and held a 9-3 advantage in corner kicks. Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher made five saves in her collegiate debut. UVU played the final five minutes down a player after Isabella Agrusso was issued a second yellow card in the 85th minute but kept Michigan off the board to secure the draw.

BIG WEST PRESEASON HONORS

Utah Valley was picked fourth in the 2026 Big West Preseason Coaches' Poll with 95 points and two first-place votes. Senior defender Mia Owens and senior midfielder Josie Clawson were named to the 11-member Preseason Coaches' Team, making UVU one of three programs with multiple selections.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Utah Valley earned the United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Award for the 2025-26 academic year after posting a 3.64 team GPA. The Wolverines earned the honor for the 11th time in program history and for the ninth consecutive year under head coach Chris Lemay. UVU was one of 175 schools nationally to have both its men's and women's soccer programs earn the award. To qualify, teams must post a GPA of 3.0 or higher during the academic year.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S SOCCER

LEMAY IN 10TH SEASON AT UTAH VALLEY

Head coach Chris Lemay is in his 10th season at Utah Valley and owns a 116-70-26 overall record and a 69-14-12 mark in conference play. Lemay earned his 100th victory at UVU on Oct. 30, 2025, with a 4-1 win at Abilene Christian that secured the Wolverines' fourth consecutive WAC regular-season championship.

During his time at UVU, Lemay has led the Wolverines to six regular-season conference championships, including five WAC titles and the program's first Big West championship in 2026. He has also guided Utah Valley to two WAC Tournament titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances. The Wolverines earned their first NCAA Tournament victory in 2020 (played spring 2021), while the 2022 team received the first at-large NCAA Tournament berth by any team in UVU Athletics history. UVU earned its second at-large bid in 2025.

Utah Valley announced a three-year contract extension for Lemay on Nov. 6 that will keep him leading the program through the 2029 season. The Wolverines enter Saturday's Big West Championship Final riding an eight-match winning streak and a 13-match unbeaten streak.

OWENS AND JACKSON NAMED TO UNITED SOCCER COACHES PLAYERS TO WATCH LIST

Utah Valley senior defender Mia Owens and senior forward Nixan Jackson have been named to the United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's Players to Watch lists. Owens was selected to the Defenders list, while Jackson was one of 43 players nationally named to the Forwards list.

Owens returns after earning 2025 WAC Defensive Player of the Year, First Team All-WAC, All-Pacific Region, Scholar All-America and CSC Academic All-America honors. Jackson earned First Team All-WAC and All-Pacific Region Second Team honors after totaling five goals and 10 assists for 20 points. Her 10 assists ranked 17th nationally and second in the WAC.

NEW FACES ON STAFF

Utah Valley added three new members to its soccer staff ahead of the 2026 season. Former Wolverine Carter Johnson joins the women's program as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, Devin Zimmerman takes over as goalkeeper coach, and Vess Pearson has been named general manager for the UVU men's and women's soccer programs. Johnson was a four-year starter for the UVU men's soccer program before finishing his collegiate career at Vermont and later playing professionally. Zimmerman comes to UVU after spending three seasons working with the goalkeepers at Utah and most recently serving as Director of Goalkeeping for Utah Avalanche. Pearson, the co-founder and former CEO of Aptive Environmental and co-founder and owner of Utah United, becomes the first general manager appointed to a varsity sport program in UVU Athletics history.

MARISOL STOSICH EARNS GUATEMALA NATIONAL TEAM CALL-UP

Utah Valley freshman forward Marisol Stosich was called up to the Guatemala Women's National Team for a training camp and international friendly against El Salvador in June. Stosich was one of 24 players selected to the senior national team camp, which concluded with the June 9 friendly in Guatemala City. The Meridian, Idaho, native joined UVU in January after a standout prep career in which she totaled 101 goals, 34 assists and 236 points. Stosich was first named to Guatemala's senior national team player pool at age 16 and had earned four national team call-ups prior to arriving at Utah Valley.

THE POLICY PROJECT PATCH

Utah Valley Athletics partnered with The Policy Project, naming the Utah-based nonprofit the official uniform patch partner for Wolverine men's and women's soccer beginning with the 2026-27 athletic season. The partnership came as the NCAA began allowing Division I programs to feature sponsorship patches on uniforms. The Policy Project focuses on policy solutions that improve outcomes for children and families, with initiatives addressing student hunger, period products in schools, child sexual abuse prevention education and teen resource centers. The patch made its on-field debut when the UVU women hosted Michigan on Aug. 13 at UCCU Stadium.

MALIA JESSOP EARNS SAMOA NATIONAL TEAM CALL-UP

YEAR TWO AT UCCU STADIUM

Utah Valley is in its second season at UCCU Stadium after opening the $30 million soccer-specific facility in 2025. The 3,000-seat stadium serves as the home of the Wolverine men's and women's soccer programs and features eight suites, a party deck, press facilities, team locker rooms, training areas, concessions, a team shop and a large video board. The Wolverines played their first match at UCCU Stadium on Aug. 15, 2025, and have quickly established the facility as one of the premier home environments in college soccer. The stadium is serving as the host site for the 2026 Big West Women's Soccer Championship Final on Nov. 14, with top-seeded Utah Valley taking on No. 2 UC San Diego.

ABOUT UVU'S ATHLETICS NCAA HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In the summer of 2009, UVU'S provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events. The Wolverines spent six seasons as an independent before the Great West Conference became an all-sports league in 2008 and began its first full season in 2009. UVU also became a university in 2008, changing its name from Utah Valley State College (UVSC) to Utah Valley University (UVU). Utah Valley is the first and last school ever to jump from the junior college ranks to NCAA Division I status.

Chris Lemay is in his 10th season as head coach of the Utah Valley University women's soccer team in 2026 and has guided the Wolverines to the Big West regular-season championship in their inaugural season in the conference. Under his leadership, the Wolverines became one of the most successful programs in the Western Athletic Conference and a consistent contender on the national stage. The winningest coach in program history with a career record of 116-70-26, Lemay led UVU to the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory. He is a three-time WAC Coach of the Year (2022, 2024, 2025). In 2024, he was also honored with the prestigious UVU Award of Excellence, recognizing his outstanding contributions to the university.

Lemay guided UVU to four NCAA Tournament appearances (2017, 2020, 2022, 2025), including the program's first NCAA Tournament win in 2020. He led the Wolverines to two WAC Tournament titles (2017, 2020) and five WAC regular-season championships (2020, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025). His teams reached the WAC Tournament championship match six times (2017, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2025) and produced 57 All-WAC honorees, including 27 first-team selections. His players earned WAC Offensive Player of the Year honors in Heather Stainbrook (2022), Faith Webber (2024), and Ruby Hladek (2025), as well as WAC Defensive Player of the Year awards for Jenna Shepherd (2021, 2022), Sydney Bushman (2023), Haley Funn (2024), and Mia Owens (2025). UVU also had three WAC Freshmen of the Year in Amber Tripp (2017), Breanna Eves (2018), and Kate Shirts (2024). His players achieved 23 United Soccer Coaches All-Region selections and numerous national academic honors.

Academic Excellence

Lemay's players have excelled in the classroom, with UVU earning nine consecutive United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Awards. His players have combined for 10 United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-America honors, including Heather Stainbrook (2021, 2022), Jenna Shepherd (2022), Faith Webber (2023, 2024), Haley Funn (2024), Manthy Brady (2024), Ruby Hladek (2024, 2025), and Mia Owens (2025). Five Wolverines have also earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-America® honors: Heather Stainbrook (2022), Sydney Bushman (2023), Faith Webber (2024, 2025), Ruby Hladek (2025), and Mia Owens (2025). In 2024, UVU had a nation-best four players named to the United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-America Team.

2025 Season Highlights

In 2025, Lemay led UVU to its fourth consecutive WAC regular-season championship and an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament, guiding the Wolverines to a 14-5-3 overall record and a 9-0-1 mark in conference play. Lemay was named WAC Coach of the Year, while Ruby Hladek earned WAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and Mia Owens was named WAC Defensive Player of the Year. The Wolverines placed five players on the United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region teams, highlighted by first-team selections Faith Webber and Ruby Hladek. Webber also earned TopDrawerSoccer All-America Second Team honors after leading the nation in goals with a UVU single-season-record 22, shots per game at 6.82, and shots on goal per game at 3.14. Utah Valley closed the season with its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and its second NCAA at-large bid under Lemay.

2024 Season Highlights

In 2024, Lemay led UVU to its third consecutive WAC regular-season title with a 6-0-1 conference record and a 12-5-2 overall mark. The Wolverines earned 10 All-WAC honors, with Faith Webber named WAC Offensive Player of the Year, Haley Funn as WAC Defensive Player of the Year, and Kate Shirts as WAC Freshman of the Year. Additionally, Heather Stainbrook became the first player in program history to sign with a National Women's Soccer League team, joining the Washington Spirit and helping the club reach the 2024 NWSL Championship match.

Other Notable Achievements

2023: Captured a second straight WAC regular-season title with a 10-4-5 overall record and an unbeaten 7-0-2 mark in conference play. The team conceded only three goals in nine WAC matches, with Sydney Bushman named WAC Defensive Player of the Year.

2022: Finished with a program-record-tying 14 wins and ranked among the nation's offensive leaders, placing third in assists with 59 and 10th in scoring offense at 2.45 goals per game. Defeated No. 13 BYU on the road and drew No. 23 UCF in a historic season. Lemay was named WAC Coach of the Year.

2020: Led UVU to its first NCAA Tournament win, defeating No. 25 Memphis, and claimed both WAC regular-season and tournament championships. The team finished with the best RPI ranking in program history at No. 66.

Previous Coaching Experience

Before joining UVU in 2017, Lemay served as associate head coach at California from 2013-16, helping the Golden Bears to four NCAA Tournament appearances. He was an assistant coach at San Diego State in 2012 and UC Riverside from 2003-06 and also coached the San Diego Sea Lions in the Women's Premier Soccer League. He holds a USSF A License and is a FIFA-certified Beach Soccer Coach.

Playing Career and Education

Lemay was a four-year starter at Eastern Michigan, where he earned a degree in communication with a minor in business management. He also played semi-professional soccer with Michigan Madness.

UCCU STADIUM: A VISION REALIZED, A CHAMPIONSHIP HOME

On Aug. 15, 2025, Utah Valley University opened UCCU Stadium, a $30 million, fully fundraised, state-of-the-art soccer-specific facility that has quickly established itself as one of the premier venues in collegiate soccer. The home of Wolverine men's and women's soccer represents more than a decade of vision, planning and determination to create a championship-caliber environment for student-athletes and fans.

The vision began nearly 15 years ago when current Utah Valley Director of Athletics Jared Sumsion stood along the edge of what was then Clyde Field, imagining something beyond the chain-link fences, portable bleachers and limited amenities that served the program. When Sumsion became athletic director in 2019, he set out to turn that vision into reality with a professional-caliber stadium that would elevate UVU soccer and provide a gathering place for the university and surrounding community.

After more than 50 meetings with Utah Community Credit Union (UCCU), the vision became reality through a record $28.5 million gift, the largest single donation in university history. What began as an idea sketched on a napkin ultimately became a first-class facility that now serves as a centerpiece of Utah Valley Athletics.

BUILT FOR PLAYERS AND FANS

Every element of UCCU Stadium was designed to enhance the experience for student-athletes and spectators. The stadium was constructed on the west side of the field to protect fans from the setting sun while maximizing its visibility from Interstate 15.

The 3,000-seat venue features more than 500 elevated reserved seats, eight luxury suites, multiple shaded plazas, a state-of-the-art press box and broadcast booth, two full-service concession stands, a team shop and a student party deck in the south end. Premier League-inspired locker rooms, a dedicated team meeting room, heated concourses and a massive video board made possible through a partnership with Aptive further enhance the facility.

A DESTINATION FOR CHAMPIONSHIP SOCCER

UCCU Stadium has already established itself as a destination for premier collegiate soccer. Its inaugural 2025 season featured visits from nationally recognized programs, including Utah, Auburn, LSU, California, Air Force and San Diego State. The facility also hosted the 2025 Western Athletic Conference Women's Soccer Championship in November.

Following Utah Valley's move to the Big West Conference on July 1, 2026, UCCU Stadium has continued to provide a stage for championship soccer. The Wolverines captured the outright Big West regular-season title in their inaugural season, earning the No. 1 seed and home-field advantage throughout the conference tournament.

After hosting Utah Valley's 3-0 semifinal victory over Cal Poly on Nov. 7, UCCU Stadium will serve as the site of the 2026 Big West Women's Soccer Championship Final on Nov. 14, when the top-seeded Wolverines face No. 2 UC San Diego with an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament on the line.

"This is more than a stadium," Sumsion said. "It's a statement about who we are as a university, as a soccer program, and as a community."

A HOME FOR A CHAMPIONSHIP PROGRAM

The stadium's opening has coincided with one of the most successful stretches in Utah Valley women's soccer history. Under 10th-year head coach Chris Lemay, the Wolverines have captured six regular-season conference championships, including five consecutive titles from 2022-26.

After winning four straight WAC regular-season championships from 2022-25, Utah Valley made an immediate impact in its new conference, completing the 2026 Big West regular season unbeaten at 9-0-2 and claiming the outright title. The championship marked the first Big West crown in UVU Athletics history.

Lemay has also guided the Wolverines to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including two at-large selections, and the program's first NCAA Tournament victory. Utah Valley earned its second NCAA at-large bid in 2025 before moving into the Big West.

"We feel a real responsibility to represent this place the right way," Lemay said. "It's a first-class facility, and we plan to put a first-class product on the field."

The Wolverines have also established one of the nation's top home-field environments. Through 12 home matches in 2026, Utah Valley has welcomed 16,954 fans to UCCU Stadium, ranking seventh nationally in total attendance and 13th in average attendance at 1,413 fans per match. Both figures lead the Big West.

In just its second season, UCCU Stadium has become more than the home of Utah Valley soccer. It has become a destination for championship competition, a gathering place for the community and a symbol of the program's continued growth on the national stage.

RECAP

OREM — Utah Valley opened the 2026 season with a 1-1 draw against Big Ten foe Michigan on Thursday night at UCCU Stadium.

Addie Olson scored Utah Valley's first goal of the season in the 33rd minute to give the Wolverines a 1-0 halftime lead before Michigan equalized on a penalty kick early in the second half.

"I thought Addie had a brilliant finish and impacted positively," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought that our goalkeeper, true freshman, was out of this world. Sam Curtis gave us big minutes as a central midfielder. True freshman came in and had great composure."

Curtis helped create the opening goal after battling a Michigan defender for the ball just inside the box in the 33rd minute. The ball deflected high into the air and fell to Olson, who timed it perfectly and fired a shot off the left post and into the back of the net for the 1-0 advantage.

Michigan found the equalizer in the 54th minute after Utah Valley was whistled for a foul just inside the left side of the box. Adi Walick converted the ensuing penalty kick to even the match at 1-1.

Utah Valley continued to battle throughout the second half before being forced to play the final five minutes down a player. Following a Michigan coaches challenge in the 85th minute, Isabella Agrusso was issued a second yellow card and sent off.

Despite playing shorthanded down the stretch, UVU kept Michigan off the scoreboard to secure the draw.

Utah Valley outshot Michigan 14-13 on the night, with each team putting six shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 9-3 advantage in corner kicks.

Lemay said there were plenty of positives in the season opener, especially with several newcomers playing significant roles, but also felt his team left room for improvement.

"At the end of the day, we don't feel like we played to our best standard over the course of 90 minutes," Lemay said. "Therefore, we drew, and we feel strongly that had we given our best performance for the full 90, that the result could have gone a little bit better for us."

Olson led Utah Valley with three shots, including her goal, while Elle Young and Bailey Peterson each recorded two shots.

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher made five saves in her collegiate debut to help preserve the draw.

Utah Valley will remain at UCCU Stadium and turn its attention to in-state rival Utah on Monday night. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m., with the match broadcast live on ESPN+.

RECAP

OREM—Utah scored a pair of second-half goals after Utah Valley was forced to play down a player, handing the Wolverines a 2-0 setback on Monday night at UCCU Stadium.

With the loss, Utah Valley falls to 0-1-1 on the season, while Utah improves to 1-0-1.

Utah Valley goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher came out of the box in the 43rd minute in an attempt to deny a Utah scoring opportunity and collided with a Ute attacker. Boucher was shown a red card, forcing the Wolverines to play the remainder of the match with 10 players.

"I think that unfortunately, we were undisciplined tonight," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "It wasn't just the play that obviously put us a player down. There were moments throughout the game that we were careless with our decisions, and therefore we found ourselves on the wrong end of the scoreline this evening."

Utah broke through in the 63rd minute. Shannon Davidson received the ball just outside the top of the box before playing it to Julia Oka on the left side. Oka immediately sent a cross toward the right side of the goal, where a sliding Reese Clem redirected it into the back of the net to give the Utes a 1-0 advantage.

The Utes added an insurance goal in the 82nd minute. Utah Valley's goalkeeper came out of the box in an attempt to stop a Utah attacker, but a Utah player punched the ball to Katie Callaway, who settled it and fired into an empty net to extend Utah's lead to 2-0.

Sam Curtis led Utah Valley with three shots, including two on goal, while Kate Booth also recorded three shots with one on frame. Boucher and Emily Bergero each finished with three saves for the Wolverines.

"We need to be better, and we will start tomorrow trying to gear up for a very good Utah State team coming up this upcoming Monday," Lemay said.

RECAP

OREM—Utah Valley had a late opportunity to pull even, but a 74th-minute penalty kick was saved as the Wolverines dropped a 1-0 decision to in-state rival Utah State on Monday night at UCCU Stadium.

With the loss, Utah Valley falls to 0-2-1 on the season, while Utah State improves to 2-1-1.

Utah State broke through in the 35th minute when Ellie Hendrix settled the ball outside the box, moved to her left and curled a shot into the left side of the net to give the Aggies a 1-0 advantage.

Utah Valley pushed for the equalizer in the second half and earned its best opportunity in the 74th minute. Following a review for a handball in the box, the Wolverines were awarded a penalty kick, but Utah State goalkeeper Ivy Nystrom made the save to preserve the Aggies' one-goal lead.

Despite the result, Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay was encouraged by his team's performance.

"We can't evaluate ourselves solely on the scoreboard," Lemay said. "Obviously, it's Division I college soccer and you want to win, but with that being said, you can play well and not get the result. I felt like we did a lot right tonight. I thought that we created a number of chances in the second half."

Utah Valley finished with a 13-11 advantage in shots and generated eight corner kicks to Utah State's three. The Aggies held a 9-5 advantage in shots on goal.

Emily Bergero made eight saves for the Wolverines, while Josie Clawson recorded a match-high four shots, including two on goal. Sam Curtis added three shots with one on frame.

Lemay said the Wolverines will turn their attention to Thursday night's matchup against No. 12 Kansas.

"Right now, if we didn't have bad luck, I don't think we'd have any luck," Lemay said. "I'm just going to try to keep their heads up. Obviously, we've got nothing to lose against a nationally ranked opponent on Thursday, and that's where our focus is going to go."

OREM—Utah Valley scored two goals in a span of just 1:24 late in the first half to rally from an early deficit and knock off No. 17/14 Kansas, 2-1, on Thursday night at UCCU Stadium.

The win is Utah Valley's first of the season as the Wolverines improve to 1-2-1 overall. Kansas falls to 3-2-0.

"I'm super proud of the players' performance and their commitment level," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "We were challenged in a number of different ways tonight, and I feel like we stepped up and met every challenge."

Kansas struck first in the 15th minute. Livvy Moore sent a corner kick into the box, where Jillian Gregorski headed the ball into the net to give the Jayhawks a 1-0 advantage.

The Wolverines found the equalizer in the 36th minute. Nixan Jackson received the ball outside the right side of the box, dribbled into the area and made a move around a Kansas defender before sending a left-footed cross toward goal. Malia Jessop got her head on the service and put it into the back of the net to even the match at 1-1.

Just 1:24 later, Sadie Beardall gave Utah Valley the lead. Beardall pressured the Kansas back line and blocked a pass in front of the box before racing the Jayhawk goalkeeper to the loose ball. Beardall got her foot on it as the two collided, sending the ball into the net for a 2-1 UVU advantage in the 38th minute.

"Malia came in off the bench and put her head on a big ball, and then Sadie Beardall was super brave," Lemay said. "Unbelievable pressure put her in the fortunate situation that she found herself in to tuck that one away."

The Utah Valley defense made the lead stand over the final 52 minutes despite sustained pressure from the nationally ranked Jayhawks. Kansas finished with a 16-7 advantage in shots and a 5-4 edge in shots on goal. The Jayhawks also held a 5-1 advantage in corner kicks.

Kate Shirts led the Wolverines with two shots, while five other UVU players recorded one apiece.

Madeleine Boucher made four saves in goal to secure the victory, while Tess Livingston played all 90 minutes on the back line.

"I thought Madeleine did unbelievable as a freshman in goal," Lemay said. "I thought Tess stepped up, played 90 minutes and was solid in the back. Overall, I'm just so pleased for the players."

RECAP

HONOLULU—Kate Booth scored in the 89th minute to lift Utah Valley to a 1-0 shutout victory over Washington State on Thursday afternoon at the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi at Hawai'i's Lower Campus Field.

Utah Valley improves to 2-2-1 on the season with the win, while Washington State falls to 2-3-1.

With the match still scoreless in the 89th minute, Nixan Jackson received the ball on the right side outside the box and sent a cross all the way across the field to Booth on the left side. Booth settled the ball before firing a left-footed shot past the Washington State goalkeeper and into the net for the game winner.

The goal was Booth's first of the season, while Jackson picked up her second assist of the year.

"We're excited about the result and picking up three points, and we're excited about a shutout," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought in the second half we were a lot more dynamic than we were in the first half."

Madeleine Boucher and the Wolverine defense recorded their first shutout of the season. Boucher made four saves in goal to earn the clean sheet.

Utah Valley controlled much of the match statistically, outshooting Washington State 19-6, including an 8-4 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 5-2 edge in corner kicks.

Booth led all players with five shots, including two on goal, while Sam Curtis added four shots with one on frame.

Despite the victory, Lemay said he wanted more from his team early in the match.

"To be very honest, I was frustrated with the way that we came out," Lemay said. "I thought that we made it a much closer game than it should have been."

RECAP

HONOLULU—Utah Valley scored early and often in a 4-0 shutout win over former WAC foe New Mexico State on Sunday afternoon, wrapping up play at the OUTRIGGER No Ka Oi with a perfect 2-0 record at the University of Hawai'i Lower Campus.

The Wolverines won their third straight match to improve to 3-2-1 overall on the season, while New Mexico State fell to 1-6-0.

Nixan Jackson put Utah Valley on the scoreboard in the eighth minute. Ashley Garcia played the ball ahead to Jackson, who outran the NM State defense before firing a left-footed shot from 25 yards out into the upper-right corner, just beyond the reach of the Aggie goalkeeper, to give the Wolverines a 1-0 lead.

Utah Valley doubled its advantage in the 33rd minute. Josie Clawson sent a corner kick into the box that was headed over to Sam Curtis. Curtis settled the ball and played it to Kate Shirts, who fired a shot into the back of the net to give the Wolverines a 2-0 lead heading into halftime.

The Wolverines added two more goals in the final 12 minutes.

Isabella Stewart sent a ball from the right side of the field into the box in the 79th minute, where Garcia one-touched it past the NM State goalkeeper and into the net to extend Utah Valley's lead to 3-0.

Utah Valley capped the scoring in the 84th minute. Sadie Beardall played the ball to Brynlee Austin, who took a touch before slotting a pass toward goal to Clawson. Clawson finished the opportunity to give the Wolverines a 4-0 advantage.

Utah Valley outshot New Mexico State 21-5 on the afternoon, including a 7-2 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 13-3 advantage in corner kicks. Clawson led all players with a match-high eight shots, while five other Wolverines recorded two shots apiece.

Madeleine Boucher made two saves in goal to record her second consecutive clean sheet. The Wolverines did not concede a goal during their two matches in Hawai'i after also shutting out Washington State, 1-0, on Thursday.

"It was good to see multiple goal scorers today and different people getting involved in our attacking third and creating and finishing opportunities," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "The whole purpose of our trip was to provide an experience for the players, but also to come out and get a couple of results, and we feel like we achieved everything."

OREM — Kate Booth scored an equalizer in the 84th minute, but San Diego State found the game-winner with just 22 seconds remaining as Utah Valley dropped a 2-1 decision to the Aztecs on Saturday night at UCCU Stadium.

The loss snapped Utah Valley's three-match winning streak and dropped the Wolverines to 3-3-1 overall. San Diego State improved to 4-2-1.

"It was a tale of two halves," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought in the first half we had good tempo and moved the ball well. They made a tactical adjustment in the second half, and we didn't show the effort, resilience or competitiveness that we needed. It's obviously a shame to lose in the last minute of the game, but I thought the result was just."

After a scoreless opening half, San Diego State broke through in the 59th minute. Mia Hambro Svendsen sent a throw-in from the right side to Alannah Gonzales, who played the ball into the box. Kana Smith got a touch on it before Katie Senn finished the opportunity to give the Aztecs a 1-0 lead.

Utah Valley pulled even in the 84th minute. Tess Livingston headed the ball forward to Sadie Beardall, who charged toward goal before being brought down from behind by an SDSU defender to earn the Wolverines a free kick. Booth stepped up and bent the ensuing free kick into the net from 25 yards out to level the match at 1-1.

The Aztecs then delivered the decisive goal in the closing seconds. Cayden Chowana-Bandhu found the back of the net with 22 seconds remaining to lift San Diego State to the 2-1 win.

San Diego State finished with a 15-8 advantage in shots and a 6-5 edge in shots on goal. Booth led Utah Valley with three shots, including two on frame, while Sam Curtis recorded two shots with both on goal. Madeleine Boucher collected four saves in goal for the Wolverines.

RECAP

SPOKANE, Wash.—After pulling within a goal just before halftime, Utah Valley dominated much of the second half but came up short in a 2-1 setback to Gonzaga on Wednesday night at Luger Field.

Utah Valley falls to 3-4-1 overall, while Gonzaga improves to 4-4-1 on the season.

"I'm proud of the team and proud of the performance," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought we were dominant for the majority of the game. We just need to be a little tidier in the final third. Credit to Gonzaga, but if I'm evaluating the game based strictly on our performance, I thought we played well. The scoreboard stinks, but sometimes it just doesn't go your way."

Gonzaga struck early after a ball sent into the box was deflected out near the top of the area, where Amelia Severn collected it and fired a shot into the upper-right corner of the net to give the Bulldogs a 1-0 lead in the fourth minute.

The Bulldogs doubled their advantage in the 37th minute. After a race for the ball into the box, UVU goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher dove for the loose ball, but it was knocked free. Gonzaga's Sophia Schlicklin fired a shot toward goal that Mia Owens cleared off the line, but Schlicklin collected the rebound and put it into the net to give Gonzaga a 2-0 lead.

Utah Valley cut the deficit in half with just eight seconds remaining before halftime. Sadie Beardall sent a left-footed cross from the left side into the box, where Jacey Wood battled Gonzaga's Summer Chen for the ball. Wood's pressure caused the ball to deflect off Chen and into the net at the 44:52 mark, sending the Wolverines into halftime trailing 2-1.

The Wolverines controlled much of the second half, outshooting Gonzaga 8-1 over the final 45 minutes, but were unable to find the equalizer.

Utah Valley outshot Gonzaga 11-8 on the night and held a 6-5 advantage in shots on goal. The Bulldogs finished with a 5-3 edge in corner kicks.

Five different Wolverines recorded two shots, with Quinn Rustand and Josie Clawson each putting two attempts on frame. Boucher finished with three saves in goal.

RECAP

OREM—Josie Clawson scored twice, Nixan Jackson recorded three assists and Madeleine Boucher picked up her third shutout of the season as Utah Valley closed out non-conference play with a 3-0 win over in-state rival Weber State on Saturday night at UCCU Stadium.

Utah Valley snapped a two-match skid and improved to 4-4-1 overall, while Weber State fell to 3-5-1.

"We have spent a lot of time talking about execution in the final third, having composure in the final third and creating more dangerous chances," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought today we did that, and therefore we were able to find the back of the net three times. I thought Nixan was absolutely fantastic tonight. Obviously, Josie scored a couple of great goals, Quinn got on the end of one, and then we're pleased with the shutout as well."

The Wolverines broke through in the 17th minute. Jackson played Quinn Rustand down the right side, where Rustand carried the ball into the box before finding Clawson near the top of the area. Clawson took a touch to create space and fired a shot past the Weber State goalkeeper to give UVU a 1-0 lead.

Clawson completed her brace in the 38th minute. Jackson raced past a Weber State defender down the right flank and drove toward the end line before cutting a pass back toward the top of the six-yard box. Clawson met the service and finished it first time to double the Utah Valley advantage.

The Wolverines added their third goal in the 59th minute. Bailey Peterson kept the ball in play near the right end line and found Jackson, who cut around a Weber State defender before sending a cross into the middle of the box. Rustand met it with a one-touch right-footed finish to give Utah Valley a 3-0 lead.

Jackson finished the night with assists on all three UVU goals, matching a career single match high.

Utah Valley outshot Weber State 13-8 and held a 7-5 advantage in shots on goal. Clawson and Rustand led the Wolverines with three shots apiece, with all three of Clawson's attempts on frame.

Boucher and the UVU back line made the three-goal advantage stand, recording the Wolverines' third shutout of the season. Boucher made four saves to earn the clean sheet.

RECAP

OREM—Utah Valley opened Big West play in emphatic fashion, scoring a season-high seven goals in a 7-1 victory over Cal State Bakersfield in the Wolverines' first-ever Big West contest in any sport Wednesday night at UCCU Stadium.

Utah Valley improved to 5-4-1 overall and 1-0-0 in Big West play with the win. Sadie Beardall and Brynlee Austin each recorded a brace as five different Wolverines found the back of the net. Nixan Jackson added a goal and helped create multiple scoring chances for a UVU attack that exploded for five second-half goals.

Beardall opened the scoring in the 10th minute after Jackson drove down the right side and sent a cross into the box. Cal State Bakersfield answered less than three minutes later to tie the match, but Jackson put Utah Valley back in front in the 29th minute with a left-footed finish from inside the box.

The Wolverines broke the match open after halftime. Beardall headed home her second goal in the 47th minute before Josie Clawson scored six minutes later off another Jackson cross. Tess Livingston added a goal in the 77th minute, and Austin scored twice over the final eight minutes to complete the 7-1 victory.

Utah Valley dominated the statistical sheet, outshooting Cal State Bakersfield 31-3 with a 16-3 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 7-0 edge in corner kicks.

RECAP

LA JOLLA, Calif.—Sadie Beardall and Nixan Jackson each found the back of the net as Utah Valley battled UC San Diego to a 2-2 draw in Big West action Saturday night at Triton Soccer Stadium.

Utah Valley moves to 5-4-2 overall and 1-0-1 in Big West play, while UC San Diego is now 5-2-3 overall and 1-0-1 in league play.

The Wolverines controlled much of the match, outshooting the Tritons 31-13 overall and holding an 18-8 advantage in shots on goal.

"It's a tough one," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "We certainly felt like we did enough to get three points. There were critical moments that we could have done better, and had we been more efficient in a couple of moments on both sides, defensively and offensively, we think the final score could have been different."

Jackson led Utah Valley with eight shots, including four on frame. Addie Olson added five shots with two on goal, while Kate Booth recorded four shots, all of which were on target. Madeleine Boucher played all 90 minutes in goal for the Wolverines and finished with six saves.

Utah Valley generated 11 shots, including eight on goal, through the first 29 minutes before breaking through for the opening score.

Bailey Peterson sent a ball into the box from the left side, where Beardall rose above the defense and headed it into the net in the 29th minute to give Utah Valley a 1-0 lead.

UC San Diego pulled even in the 50th minute when Kannadi Borg played a ball through the middle of the UVU defense to Karize Madero, who finished with her left foot from the top of the box to make it 1-1.

The Tritons then moved in front in the 59th minute. Anya Lin delivered a corner kick from the left side, and Kat Harris connected on a header into the left side of the net to give UC San Diego a 2-1 advantage.

"I thought San Diego did a nice job of never putting their heads down," Lemay said. "They absorbed a lot and continued to push. They stunned us in the first 10 minutes of the second half, and then we settled back in. We felt like we were good enough tonight to earn three, but at the end of the day, minor mistakes in major moments was the issue."

Utah Valley answered just six minutes later.

Peterson switched the ball across the field to Jackson on the right side. Jackson worked around a Triton defender before angling a shot into the back of the net in the 65th minute to level the match at 2-2.

The Wolverines nearly found the game-winner in the 84th minute when Beardall fired a shot that deflected off the UC San Diego goalkeeper, hit the right post and bounced back into play.

RECAP

IRVINE, Calif.—Sadie Beardall recorded her second brace in the last three matches to lead Utah Valley to a 3-1 road victory over UC Irvine on Wednesday night at Anteater Stadium.

Utah Valley improves to 6-4-2 overall and remains unbeaten in Big West play at 2-0-1. UC Irvine falls to 3-4-3 overall and 1-1-1 in conference action.

"Overall, I thought we played well," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought we possessed in the right moments. I thought we played on our front foot and created a number of chances. We're happy to score three. Obviously, wins on the road in this conference are going to be crucial, and being able to come away from the trip with four points, obviously, we came for six, but we'll take four."

The Wolverines struck first in the 32nd minute. Tylie Miller sent a throw-in forward to Addie Olson, who played the ball through midfield to Nixan Jackson on the right side. Jackson settled it and fired in a shot to give Utah Valley a 1-0 lead. Jackson's goal was her fourth of the season.

UC Irvine found the equalizer in the 50th minute. After a blocked shot in the box, Fiona Shin collected the rebound and fired a shot that glanced off the glove of Madeleine Boucher and into the net to even the match at 1-1.

Utah Valley quickly regained the lead five minutes later. Josie Clawson played the ball out wide to Jackson, who raced toward the edge of the box before sending a cross into the area. The ball struck the hand of a UC Irvine defender, resulting in a penalty kick for the Wolverines. Beardall stepped to the spot and converted the penalty to give UVU a 2-1 advantage in the 55th minute.

Beardall added her second goal of the night in the 75th minute. Isabella Stewart created space before finding Beardall in the middle of the box. Beardall turned past the defense and buried a left-footed shot to extend Utah Valley's lead to 3-1. The brace pushed Beardall's season total to six goals.

Beardall has now scored five goals through Utah Valley's first three Big West matches, while Jackson has three goals and two assists over the same stretch.

Utah Valley finished the match with a 17-9 advantage in shots, including an 11-3 edge in shots on goal. The Wolverines placed nine shots in the first half and eight in the second.

Beardall and Jackson led Utah Valley with four shots apiece, with all four of Beardall's attempts coming on frame. Josie Clawson added two shots on goal, while Elle Young, Quinn Rustand, Isabella Stewart and Kate Booth each put a shot on frame.

Boucher played all 90 minutes in goal for Utah Valley and recorded one save. The Wolverines also registered one team save.

OREM—Kate Booth converted a penalty kick in the 89th minute to help Utah Valley earn a 1-1 draw against Cal State Fullerton on Saturday night at UCCU Stadium.

Utah Valley moves to 6-4-3 overall and remains unbeaten in Big West play at 2-0-2. Cal State Fullerton is now 5-2-5 overall and also sits at 2-0-2 in conference play.

"When you're one-nil down in the 88th minute, you're happy to score, obviously, and get a point out of it, but not happy that we were one-nil down in the 88th minute to begin with," Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay said. "I thought we created a number of chances, but didn't do well enough in the final third and didn't execute in critical moments. To be in the position where we had to crawl ourselves back into this match and preserve a point is pretty disappointing at home. I don't think we played bad, but we weren't our best tonight."

Cal State Fullerton struck first in the sixth minute. Camryn Cruz sent a ball forward across midfield that led to a race for possession. As Utah Valley attempted to play the ball back toward goal, Cassie Villanueva was able to get the first touch and place a shot toward the far post past an oncoming Madeleine Boucher to give the Titans a 1-0 lead.

The Wolverines continued to apply pressure throughout the match before finally finding the equalizer in the closing minutes. Elle Young sent a free kick into the box, where Tess Livingston was pulled down, resulting in a penalty kick in the 89th minute. After a video review, the call on the field was upheld.

Utah Valley's initial penalty attempt was stopped, but Cal State Fullerton's goalkeeper was ruled to have come off her line early, giving the Wolverines another opportunity. Booth stepped to the spot for the retake and buried the penalty to level the match at 1-1.

Utah Valley controlled much of the match statistically, outshooting Cal State Fullerton 22-6 while holding a 10-1 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also finished with a 7-1 edge in corner kicks.

Josie Clawson led Utah Valley with six shots, including three on goal, while Addie Olson added five shots with two on frame. Booth's equalizer was her third goal of the season.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif.—Nixan Jackson scored a goal and added an assist, while Kate Booth netted the game-winner to lead Utah Valley to a 2-1 road victory over Cal Poly on Saturday night at Spanos Stadium, keeping the Wolverines unbeaten in Big West play.

Utah Valley improves to 7-4-3 overall and 3-0-2 in Big West action, while Cal Poly falls to 5-5-3 overall and 2-2-1 in conference play.

"We knew this was going to be a difficult road match for a lot of reasons," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "The styles of play were completely opposite, and with the surface, the size of the field and the environment, it's a difficult place to get a result. I couldn't be more proud of the way our players competed for the entire 90 minutes and how we outclassed them with our ability to play the game and keep the ball. I'm very, very happy with the result tonight."

Jackson put the Wolverines on the scoreboard in the 36th minute with an impressive individual effort. The senior forward collected the ball on the right side of the field, raced past a Cal Poly defender to create space and unleashed a left-footed strike from 25 yards out that sailed into the upper-left corner of the net, giving Utah Valley a 1-0 advantage.

Just three minutes later, the Wolverines doubled their lead following a strong defensive play by Ashley Garcia. Garcia dispossessed a Cal Poly player, dribbled past another defender and slipped a pass ahead to Jackson down the right flank. Jackson took a touch before delivering a cross into the box, where Booth redirected the ball into the net with her right foot in the 39th minute to give UVU a 2-0 lead. The goal proved to be the game-winner.

Cal Poly responded shortly after halftime as Kammy MacLennan worked her way down the right side of the field and found the back of the net in the 47th minute, cutting Utah Valley's advantage to 2-1.

The Wolverines held off the Mustangs over the remainder of the second half to secure their third Big West victory of the season and remain unbeaten through their first five conference matches.

Utah Valley outshot Cal Poly 18-11 on the night, including a 7-6 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 5-4 edge in corner kicks.

Sadie Beardall led UVU with four shots, including one on goal, while Jackson and Josie Clawson recorded three shots apiece.

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher made five saves to help preserve the road victory.

RECAP

RIVERSIDE, Calif.—Sadie Beardall scored the game-winning goal in the 30th minute, and Madeleine Boucher recorded her fourth shutout of the season to lead Utah Valley to a 1-0 road victory over California Baptist on Wednesday night at CBU Soccer Stadium.

Utah Valley improves to 8-4-3 overall and remains unbeaten in Big West play at 4-0-2. The Wolverines extend their unbeaten streak to seven matches, while California Baptist falls to 6-3-3 overall and 1-3-2 in conference play.

The Wolverines controlled the match from start to finish, outshooting the Lancers 30-5, including a 13-3 advantage in shots on goal. Utah Valley also held a commanding 12-3 edge in corner kicks.

"That's another big one," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "A six-day road trip, there's a lot to manage, and I thought the players showed great maturity this evening in the way that they came out. We were very good in possession tonight and created a lot of real goal-scoring opportunities."

Beardall broke through in the 30th minute following a throw-in from Isabella Stewart on the right side of the field. Stewart found Nixan Jackson near the top right corner of the penalty area, where Jackson turned to her left and slipped a pass to Beardall inside the box. Beardall moved into position and fired a left-footed shot over the CBU goalkeeper and into the net to give Utah Valley a 1-0 advantage.

The goal was Beardall's seventh of the season and third game-winner, while Jackson collected her team-leading ninth assist. Jackson now leads the Wolverines with 19 points on five goals and nine assists, while Beardall ranks second with 16 points on seven goals and two assists.

Despite Utah Valley's relentless offensive pressure, California Baptist goalkeeper Mikayla O'Brien kept the Lancers within striking distance, finishing with 12 saves.

"I thought their goalkeeper was exceptional," Lemay said. "Had it not been one of the best goalkeepers in the league, that game probably ends up four or five to zero. Credit to their goalkeeper, credit to our players for coming out and playing the way that we did, keeping the ball and creating chances."

Boucher anchored the Utah Valley defense, making three saves to secure her fourth clean sheet of the season.

"I'm very happy for Madi getting another shutout, and another three points on the road is critical," Lemay said.

Quinn Rustand led Utah Valley with a match-high six shots, including two on goal. Addie Olson and Josie Clawson each recorded five shots, with Clawson placing a match-high three attempts on frame. Jackson added four shots, while Beardall finished with two shots, both on goal.

The victory marked Utah Valley's third straight Big West road win. UVU is now 3-0-1 in Big West road matches this season.

RECAP

OREM, Utah — Three different players scored goals, and five others recorded assists as Utah Valley University earned a 3-0 shutout of UC Riverside on Saturday night at UCCU Stadium in front of 1,493 fans.

The win kept the Wolverines (9-4-3, 5-0-2) atop the Big West standings alongside Cal State Fullerton, which defeated Sacramento State 1-0 earlier Saturday. Both teams lead the conference with 17 points and have four games remaining in the regular season. Utah Valley is also unbeaten in its last eight matches, has won three straight and recorded its second shutout of the week. The win also extends UVU's regular season conference unbeaten streak to 39 matches.

Prior to the match, Utah Valley honored its six seniors as part of Senior Night. The six are Jacey Wood, Lulie MacFarlane, Tylie Miller, Isabella Stewart, Addie Olson, and Kate Booth.

"Senior Night is always special and those six have all made tremendous contributions to our program. To get a win for them tonight was great," said head coach Chris Lemay. "We didn't play our best, but did enough. They (UCR) set up a little block, and I don't think we were as creative as we're capable of being in breaking it down. But anytime you can score three goals and not concede, you'll take it."

The Wolverines opened the scoring in the 15th minute when Josie Clawson took a pass from Nixan Jackson and scored her fifth goal of the season. The assist was Jackson's 10th of the season. She leads the Big West and ranks second nationally in total assists. Isabella Stewart also assisted on the goal.

Utah Valley extended its lead to 2-0 less than four minutes later when Sadie Beardall scored her team-leading eighth goal of the season. Beardall settled the ball with her right foot before firing with her left in the 19th minute. Quinn Rustand and Sam Curtis recorded assists on the goal.

The Wolverines took a 2-0 lead into halftime and held a 9-1 advantage in shots. They also recorded 11 corner kicks in the first half.

Kate Shirts made it 3-0 in the 61st minute following Utah Valley's 15th corner kick of the match. Beardall's initial pass to the far post found Curtis, who headed the ball to Shirts near the top of the 6-yard box. Shirts finished with her right foot for her second goal of the season.

The Wolverines set a program record with 20 corner kicks while outshooting the Highlanders (2-11-1, 0-6-1) 15-3 and holding a 9-1 advantage in shots on goal. Utah Valley also dominated possession, controlling the ball for 73% of the match.

Madeleine Boucher recorded her fifth shutout of the season and second of the week, making one save in Saturday's victory to follow up her three save performance in the win at California Baptist on Wednesday.

RECAP

OREM—Sadie Beardall recorded two goals and two assists to lead Utah Valley to a 6-1 win over Sacramento State on Wednesday night at UCCU Stadium, extending the Wolverines' regular-season conference unbeaten streak to 40 matches and their home conference unbeaten streak to 31.

Utah Valley improves to 10-4-3 overall and 6-0-2 in Big West play, remaining atop the league standings. The Wolverines have won four straight and are unbeaten in nine consecutive matches. The victory also marks UVU's eighth straight season with 10 or more wins and the ninth time in head coach Chris Lemay's 10 seasons reaching double-digit victories.

Beardall opened the scoring with a header off a Sam Curtis corner kick in the seventh minute before assisting Josie Clawson's goal in the 30th minute to give UVU a 2-0 halftime lead.

Beardall completed her brace in the 49th minute off passes from Addie Olson and Tylie Miller. Nixan Jackson added a goal in the 55th minute before forcing an own goal in the 63rd. Mia Owens capped UVU's scoring in the 74th minute off an assist from Beardall. Sacramento State's Marely Velazquez Valera scored in the 75th minute for the final 6-1 score.

Beardall's six-point performance brings her season totals to 10 goals, five assists and 25 points. She has scored four goals over her last three matches.

"Sadie had a good night, and I thought Quinn was great all day in the midfield as well," said Lemay. "We found a number of chances."

Utah Valley dominated statistically, outshooting Sacramento State 28-4 with a 10-2 advantage in shots on goal and a 9-1 edge in corner kicks. Jackson recorded a match-high 10 shots, while Madeleine Boucher finished with one save.

UVU's 40-match regular-season conference unbeaten streak dates back to Oct. 8, 2022, while its 31-match home conference unbeaten streak dates back to March 11, 2021.

"We can only stay focused on one match at a time and just keep stacking three points on top of three points," said Lemay. "We know that we have to show up in these last three matches and play our best game."

RECAP

SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—Sadie Beardall recorded a goal and two assists, while Utah Valley scored four second-half goals and posted its sixth shutout of the season in a 4-0 road win over UC Santa Barbara on Saturday night at Harder Stadium.

Utah Valley improves to 11-4-3 overall and remains unbeaten in Big West play at 7-0-2. With Cal State Fullerton's loss on Saturday night, the Wolverines now hold sole possession of first place in the Big West standings. The victory marks UVU's fifth straight win and extends its overall unbeaten streak to 10 matches. Utah Valley also pushes its regular-season conference unbeaten streak to 41 consecutive matches, dating back to Oct. 8, 2022.

"I thought we took it up a notch in the second half, and when we did that, we became very difficult to deal with," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "I thought our second-half performance was outstanding. I'm really happy with the collective shutout, and I thought the win was well deserved."

After a scoreless first half, Utah Valley broke through in the 61st minute when Sam Curtis found the back of the net to give the Wolverines a 1-0 lead. Curtis started the play with a lead pass to Nixan Jackson on the right side. Jackson raced to the end line and sent a cross into the box that UCSB attempted to clear. Curtis collected the loose ball near the top of the box and fired a shot that was saved. Beardall then poked the rebound back to Curtis, who sent her second attempt past the UCSB goalkeeper for the eventual game-winning goal.

The Wolverines wasted little time adding to their lead, scoring again in the 62nd minute. Tylie Miller worked her way into the left side of the box and fired a left-footed shot that was blocked. UCSB attempted to clear the ball, but Addie Olson kept it in the box. Josie Clawson then had a one-touch attempt blocked before Beardall collected the loose ball and sent a right-footed shot into the back of the net to give UVU a 2-0 advantage.

Beardall continued her impressive offensive run in the 66th minute, stealing the ball from a UCSB defender and racing downfield before sending a pass across to Olson inside the box. Olson settled the ball and fired a right-footed shot into the goal to extend Utah Valley's lead to 3-0.

"Sadie is on an absolute tear right now," said Lemay. "She continues to show up for us and has separated herself as the most elite attacker in this league."

Utah Valley capped its scoring in the 82nd minute when Quinn Rustand sent a ball downfield to Jacey Wood, who connected with Brynlee Austin on a give-and-go. Wood collected the return pass inside the box, maneuvered around multiple UCSB defenders and fired a shot into the net to give the Wolverines their fourth goal of the night.

"I'm really happy for Sam Curtis," said Lemay. "She's been big time for us all season long, and for her to get the game winner and score that first goal really opened the gates for the rest of them. Then you bring seniors into the game, and Jacey scores a big-time goal as well. It's exciting, and the team is flying high right now."

Utah Valley dominated the offensive statistics, outshooting UC Santa Barbara 26-8, including a 12-3 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 3-0 edge in corner kicks. Clawson led UVU with six shots, followed by Wood with four. Curtis, Beardall and Wood each recorded two shots on goal.

Madeleine Boucher and Mia Roberts combined for the shutout in goal, with Boucher playing the first 85 minutes and recording three saves. The clean sheet marked Utah Valley's sixth shutout of the season.

RECAP

OREM—Nixan Jackson and Sadie Beardall each scored to lead Utah Valley to a 2-0 shutout win over Long Beach State on Wednesday night at UCCU Stadium, securing at least a share of the Big West regular-season championship in the Wolverines' first season in the conference.

Utah Valley has now claimed five consecutive conference regular-season championships after winning four straight Western Athletic Conference titles from 2022-25 before making the move to the Big West this season. The championship marks the sixth regular-season conference title in program history and the first Big West title for the Wolverines, who were picked fourth in the league's preseason coaches' poll.

"I'm really excited for the group," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "They put in the work, the sacrifice, the commitment, the trust, and they've been increasingly getting better. I'm super proud and so excited for this group. Obviously, it's a brand-new conference, and to come out here and do what we've done has been impressive."

Utah Valley improves to 12-4-3 overall and remains unbeaten in Big West play with an 8-0-2 record. The Wolverines extend their winning streak to six matches and their overall unbeaten streak to 11. UVU also pushes its regular-season conference unbeaten streak to 42 consecutive matches and its home regular-season conference unbeaten streak to 32 matches.

The Wolverines, who have held the No. 1 spot in the West Region rankings for three consecutive weeks, have not lost a regular-season conference match since Oct. 8, 2022, at Seattle U. UVU's last regular-season home conference loss came against California Baptist on March 11, 2021.

"We were forced to be more consistent," said Lemay of the transition to the Big West. "We didn't have games that we could take the day off and get a result. Long Beach is a really good team, and the level of this conference is better than what we were playing in prior to. For us to be able to come out and do it again in a more difficult schedule and a more difficult conference has been a tribute to how good this team can be."

Utah Valley got on the scoreboard in the 35th minute after Addie Olson raced down the left side of the field, beat a defender and worked her way into the box. Olson then sent a cross through the box to Jackson, who redirected the ball with a left-footed, one-touch finish into the back of the net to give the Wolverines a 1-0 lead. The goal was Jackson's seventh of the season, while Olson picked up the assist.

The Wolverines doubled their lead in the 83rd minute after Quinn Rustand combined with Bailey Peterson on a give-and-go near the box. Rustand received the return pass and sent a ball into the area that deflected to Beardall, who finished from close range to give UVU a 2-0 advantage. The goal was Beardall's team-leading 12th of the season, while Rustand was credited with the assist.

"We definitely weathered a little bit of a storm at the beginning of the second half, but then I thought we got our rhythm back," said Lemay. "Obviously, the final goal tonight kind of sealed the deal."

Utah Valley outshot Long Beach State 15-9, including a 9-5 advantage in shots on goal. The Wolverines also held a 6-2 edge in corner kicks. Rustand led UVU with five shots, including four on frame, while Jackson recorded four shots. The victory marked Utah Valley's first-ever win over Long Beach State, improving its all-time record against the Beach to 1-1-1.

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher collected five saves to record her sixth individual shutout of the season and help the Wolverine defense secure its seventh team shutout. Boucher improves to 12-2-3 on the year.

"We're going to celebrate tonight, we're going to get back to business tomorrow, and we're going to come out and try to win another game on Saturday," said Lemay.

NORTHRIDGE, Calif.—Josie Clawson recorded a brace as Utah Valley rallied from a two-goal halftime deficit with five unanswered second-half goals to defeat CSUN, 5-2, on Oct. 31 at Matador Soccer Field, completing its inaugural Big West season unbeaten at 9-0-2 and claiming the outright regular-season championship.

Utah Valley improved to 13-4-3 overall, extending its winning streak to seven matches, its unbeaten streak to 12 and its regular-season conference unbeaten streak to 43. The victory also secured UVU's fifth consecutive conference regular-season championship after winning four straight WAC titles from 2022-25.

"I'm proud of the team. I'm proud of the players. I'm proud of their resiliency, their consistency," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "To win a conference with 12 teams in it and a lot of quality teams, that's the biggest testament, that we were capable of being consistent. I'm happy for them. They earned it. They deserve it."

After trailing 2-0 at halftime, Utah Valley began its comeback in the 51st minute when Nixan Jackson scored off an assist from Quinn Rustand. Addie Olson evened the score in the 63rd minute following passes from Rustand and Sadie Beardall.

Clawson gave the Wolverines their first lead in the 71st minute, finishing a pass from Olson to put UVU ahead, 3-2. She completed her brace in the 80th minute, converting a pass from Jackson to extend the lead to 4-2. Jackson's assist marked the 32nd of her career, tying former Wolverine Ruby Hladek (2023-25) for the program's all-time assists record.

Mia Owens capped the comeback in the 90th minute, finishing a lead pass from Clawson to give Utah Valley its fifth unanswered goal.

"We had a decision to make at halftime. Were we going to spiral or were we going to step up and be what we know we're capable of? Obviously, the latter happened," Lemay said. "It's a great growing opportunity for the group and good preparation for the upcoming weeks."

Utah Valley outshot CSUN 23-13, including a 12-8 advantage in shots on goal, and held an 8-6 edge in corner kicks. Jackson led UVU with five shots, while Clawson, Rustand and Olson each recorded four.

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher made six saves, including a penalty-kick stop in the 19th minute that kept the Wolverines within striking distance.

RECAP

OREM—Sadie Beardall, Quinn Rustand, and Bailey Peterson each scored a goal as top-seeded Utah Valley shut out No. 5 Cal Poly 3-0 on Saturday night at UCCU Stadium in the semifinals of the Big West Championship. The Wolverines recorded their eighth clean sheet of the season and punched their ticket to next week's Big West Championship Final.

With the victory, Utah Valley improves to 14-4-3 overall and extends its winning streak to eight matches. The Wolverines have also gone unbeaten in 13 consecutive matches.

"I was impressed tonight with the way that the team managed the match," said Utah Valley head coach Chris Lemay. "We executed really well. I thought we were sharp. I thought we were intelligent. I thought we kept the ball well, created some dangerous chances and scored some good goals."

Utah Valley opened the scoring in the 21st minute after Nixan Jackson worked the ball inside the box before finding Isabella Stewart on the right side. Stewart delivered a pass across the face of goal to Beardall, who redirected the ball into the back of the net to give the Wolverines an early 1-0 advantage.

The Wolverines doubled their lead just six minutes later in the 27th minute. Josie Clawson played the ball to Jackson near the top of the box, and Jackson sent a cross into the six-yard area, where Rustand connected with a shot past the Cal Poly goalkeeper to extend the UVU lead to 2-0.

Utah Valley added an insurance goal in the 82nd minute as Clawson found Stewart on the right side of the field. Stewart delivered a cross into the box, where Peterson redirected the ball into the net from close range to give the Wolverines a commanding 3-0 lead.

The Wolverines controlled the match offensively, outshooting Cal Poly 23-5, including a 7-2 advantage in shots on goal. Utah Valley also held a 6-2 edge in corner kicks. Rustand led all players with five shots, including two on frame, while Beardall finished with four attempts. Clawson and Jackson each recorded three shots.

Freshman goalkeeper Madeleine Boucher earned her seventh individual shutout of the season, making two saves to help the Wolverines secure their eighth team clean sheet.

"Another shutout, and in a semifinal," Lemay said. "We're really happy about where we're at right now and we're excited about next week."
