2015-16 Team Notes:

- ▶ The Badgers opened the season at the Fighting Irish Gridiron Classic, placing ninth out of 12 teams. After sitting in 10th place after the 36-hole Day 1, UW climbed one spot on the team leaderboard in the final round. Wisconsin finished at 22-over and improved each round of the tournament, shooting 295-291-288=874. The Badgers were just one shot off Xavier in eighth and two shots behind seventh-place William & Mary.
- ▶ Wisconsin finished seventh at the Badger Invitational, shooting a 44-over 302-294-312=908 for the tournament. The team was in 10th after Day 1 and jumped to fourth in the second round before dropping to seventh on the final day. The Badgers were four shots off USC Upstate (+40, 300-297-307=904) in sixth.
- ▶ UW earned its best finish of the year to date at the Erin Hills Intercollegiate. The team placed sixth with a 54-hole score of an 18-over 882. Additionally, the Badgers tied their best 18-hole (288) score of the season and picked up a season-low for 36-holes (584).

Ben Skogen impressed at the Fighting Irish Gridiron Classic, as the junior tied for second and picked up 18-, 36- and 54-hole career-bests.

2015-16 Individual Notes:

- ▶ Ben Skogen began the season with a bang, as the junior earned his best-ever finish at the FIGC. He tied for second with a 3-under 71-69-70=210, trailing the leader by just three strokes. Skogen picked up 18-, 36- and 54-hole career bests at the tournament.
- ▶ Johnny Decker was the Badgers second-best golfer during the opening weekend. He tied for 30th which was the best finish of his career. Decker shot a 7-over 75-73-72=220, as he tied his 18- and 54-hole career lows.
- ▶ In just his second collegiate competition at the Badger Invitational, Jordan Hahn earned a second-place finish. The rookie shot a 5-under 72-68-71=211, which marked the eighth-best score all-time at the tournament. Hahn, who was competing individually, set career-highs for 18, 36 and 54 holes, and was just four shots off the champion.
- ▶ At the Badger Invitational, Michael Abrahamson--another individual competitor--performed at his best. The sophomore recorded his best tournament finish at tied for third, and gathered 36- (141) and 54-hole (217) career-lows. Abrahamson beat out his three-round score from the Badger Invitational by shooting an even 216 at the Erin Hills Intercollegiate where he placed tied for 14th. He has the most top-25 finishes (three) on the team.
- ▶ Eddie Wajda had his best tournament of the year at the Erin Hills Intercollegiate, as the sophomore shot a 4-over 220--just four strokes off his career-low. By placing 24th, he picked up his second top-25 finish of the year, which is the second most on the team.
