WHAT'S AHEAD

The Wisconsin women's hockey team hits the road for just the second time this season in a WCHA match-up against the St. Cloud State Huskies from Nov. 20-21. After two weeks of non-conference play, Wisconsin is now tied for fourth with Bemidji State with ten points apiece in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association. The Badgers look to improve on a three-game unbeaten streak (2-0-1).

LAST TIME OUT

► Wisconsin tallied a tie and a win in their second non-conference series against Wayne State last weekend. After finishing with a 2-2 draw at the Kohl Center on Thursday night, the Badgers found their offensive rhythm on Friday, defeating the Warriors 6-2 in the game two. Sophomore Brooke Ammerman tallied four goals in the victory to tie her career-high set against Syracuse in UW's 8-0 win at the Kohl Center. After sitting out three games due to injury, junior Malee Windmeier returned to the rink, along with freshman Brianna Decker who made her first appearance since suffering an injury against Ohio State on Oct. 3. Each recorded a goal in the win.

► In the first game of the series, senior Kyla Sanders and junior Geena Prough notched goals to lead the Badgers to its first tie of the season on its first Thursday game in school history.

BADGER NOTES

- Wisconsin has split four of its six series this season, UW has dropped four and tied one in the first game to come back and win the second of the series. Wisconsin's only series sweep was against the second-ranked Minnesota Gophers who sit atop the WCHA.
- The Badgers 6-2 win over Wayne State marked UW's most decisive wins this season and also was the UW's highest scoring output of the season. The Badgers are 5-0-0 when leading after the first period, and have won all seven games when going into the third frame with the lead.
- The Badgers, who had been struggling on the power play, picked up two goals with the man advantage and converted when they were shorthanded in the last game of the series against Wayne State. UW improves to 5-for-59 on the man advantage.
- Wisconsin ranks fourth in the nation on the penalty kill with a 91.1 percent success rate going 51-for-59 on the kill.
- The competition in net is still alive as both goaltenders continue to make strides. Freshman Becca Ruegsegger had a shutout in her first collegiate start and has recorded a 4-3-1 record this season. Ruegsegger has 189 saves and a .922 save percentage with a 2.00 goals-against average. Senior Alannah McCready (3-1-0) holds a .929 save percentage and a 1.71 goals-against average tallying 91 saves.
- The Badgers have netted 35 goals by 13 different Badgers. Wisconsin has out-shot opponents in every game but one this season totaling 392 compared to 304.
- The Badgers four losses is more than the total losses from the 2006-07 and 2008-09 season combined. However, in the 2007-08 season the Badgers suffered nine losses overall but still managed to finish the season as the NCAA runner up.

▶ Already all of the Badgers' 18 skaters that dress regularly have contributed a point this season. Brooke Ammerman is the team's leading scorer with 15 points (9g, 6a) followed by Mallory Deluce (5g, 5a).

▶ Ammerman is currently on a nine-game point streak which includes her career-high tying four-goal game against Wayne State. Ammerman is tied for fourth in the nation for goals per game, second for game-winning goals and 15th in the nation for points per game. Ammerman remains a balanced forward with 36 career goals and 33 career assists in only her second season.

▶ Wisconsin's defense has played aggressively helping the scoring output for UW notching five goals this season. Stefanie McKeough and Saige Pacholok have been a positive asset to the Badger defense, leading the defenseman in scoring with eight and seven points, respectively. The Badger freshmen lead the team in plus/minus with a plus-10 and a plus-12 rating, respectively.

▶ Wisconsin has had two penalty shot situations this season. Brooke Ammerman took Wisconsin's fifth penalty shot in program history against Ohio State on Oct. 24. Ammerman was the first Badger to score on a penalty shot. Two weeks later, Robert Morris was granted a penalty shot, where Alannah McCready made the save. The only time a team scored on UW with a penalty shot was Feb. 14, 2009 when Nina Tikkinen of Minnesota State scored on Jessie Vetter.

▶ In the 2-0 season-opening loss, Wisconsin suffered its first shutout in an opener and fell to 8-3 in season openers since its inception in 1999. The loss marks the first-ever against the Fighting Sioux, bringing the all-time record to 25-1-0. The loss was the first shutout to start a season in program history and the first at the Kohl Center since Nov. 24, 2006 against Minnesota Duluth.

▶ Ruegsegger had 18 saves to shut out the Fighting Sioux in her first collegiate start. The last Badger to earn a shutout in her first collegiate start was current senior Alannah McCready against Union College on Sept. 29, 2007. McCready, who had appeared in just one game prior to that start, had 14 saves in the 11-0 shutout win as a sophomore.

▶ Freshmen did all the work in UW's first win of the season. Freshman Brianna Decker had Wisconsin's first goal of the season, also marking her first multi-goal game as she lit the lamp twice in UW's 3-0 win. Freshman Lauren Unser scored for Wisconsin in just her second shift as a Badger to cap the scoring for UW, while Ruegsegger played in net.

▶ The five freshman skaters have contributed 22 points this season, with Decker missing nine games due to injury.

▶ Wisconsin lost eight players from the 2009 championship squad, including its top four leading scorers from a year ago. Six Badgers graduated including Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award winner Jessie Vetter. Wisconsin also lost the nation's leading scorer, Hilary Knight and Meghan Duggan to train with the U.S. Women's National Team.

▶ The Badgers first NCAA title came during an Olympic year in 2006 when the Badgers went 36-4-1.

▶ Interim head coach Tracey DeKeyser is no stranger to the program, she has been with UW since its inception and has been at the helm of the program twice before as a co-coach with former assistant Dan Koch. DeKeyser is assisted by UW alums, Peter Johnson and Jackie Friesen for the 2009-10 season.

▶ Three seniors lead the UW squad, Jasmine Giles, the team captain is assisted by Kyla Sanders and Emily Kranz. All three Badgers are first-time captains but have plenty of experience, suiting up for every game in their three-year career.

▶ In preparation for the Olympics, USA Hockey hosted a National Festival Camp, which included 11 former and current Badgers on the 41-player roster. Included on the roster were current student-athletes, Duggan, Knight, sophomore Brooke Ammerman and incoming freshman Brianna Decker.

▶ The Badgers return six forwards that scored over 20 points last season; Brooke Ammerman, Jasmine Giles, Mallory Deluce, Kyla Sanders, Carolyne Prevost and Kelly Nash.

▶ Ammerman, a WCHA All-Rookie and Third-Team selection, earned a spot on the WCHA Final Face-off All-Tournament Team and led UW in shot percentage. As the team's top returning scorer, Ammerman finished second on the team in goals and finished the season with 54 points (27g, 27a).

▶ Giles, a senior forward was also named to the WCHA Final Face-off All-Tournament Team and returns as the second leading scorer for the Badgers. Giles tallied 44 points for the season (16g, 29a) and is one of four seniors to lead the 2009-10 squad. Emily Kranz and Sanders return as senior forwards while goaltender Alannah McCready rounds out the senior class.

▶ The UW will replace the vacancy with nine newcomers for the 2009-10 season, including four defensemen, four forwards and a goaltender. The last three seasons the UW has had at least one Badger named to the WCHA All-Rookie Team. The Wisconsin attack welcomes four freshmen in Brianna Decker, Breann Frykas, Lauren Unser and Derya Kelter.

▶ The UW will have a young blue line with no seniors, but return with four defensemen in Brittany Haverstock, Olivia Jakiel, Malee Windmeier and Anne Dronen. Wisconsin will add depth to the blue line with three freshmen; Alev Kelter, Saige Pacholok and Stefanie McKeough. Geena Prough brings experience to the Badgers, a junior transfer from Mercyhurst, Prough is a versatile player who will play on both offense and defense for the Badgers this season.

▶ The Kelter twins, Alev and Derya, come to UW as multi-sport athletes. They signed with soccer, which means they will not play hockey until soccer season is complete. The women's soccer team earned a berth into the NCAA Tournament with the first and second round on Nov. 13 and 15.

► The UW schedule is highlighted by the first-ever Wisconsin women's hockey outdoor game. Wisconsin will host Bemidji State out on Camp Randall Stadium on Saturday, Feb. 6 at 2 p.m. for the Culver's Camp Randall Hockey Classic. The game precedes the Wisconsin men's hockey team who will take on Michigan at 5 p.m. Wisconsin will also go up against two teams from the NCAA Frozen Four, Minnesota and Minnesota-Duluth. Wisconsin will also host an exhibition game against Johnson's Team USA on Jan. 5 at the Kohl Center.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

St. Cloud State (4-9-0, 3-6-0 WCHA)

► St. Cloud State enters the weekend after splitting a series with the Bemidji State Beavers from Nov. 13-14. After falling to Bemidji State 1-0 in game one, the Huskies bounced back with a 5-2 victory in game two to solidify the split.

► Holly Roberts led the Huskies in game two, recording a hat trick in the defeat.

► In Saturday's victory, Meagan Pezon found the back of the net just 30 seconds into the game to put SCSU on the the scoreboard after the Beavers held them scoreless in Friday's matchup.

► Ashley Nixon tallied 21 saves in net for St. Cloud to seal the win.

► Caitlin Hogan currently leads the Huskies in points with 13 (8 goals and 5 assists) in 12 games.

ABOUT THE SERIES

► Wisconsin is 34-5-2 all-time against St. Cloud State. The Badgers defeated the Huskies in their last six meetings, while only surrendering six goals. The last time Wisconsin fell to SCSU was on Oct. 19, 2007 when the Huskies defeated the Badgers 2-1 in St. Cloud, Minn.

BADGERS PICKED AS PRESEASON FAVORITES

► The defending national champions are the coaches' preseason pick to win the WCHA women's title.

► The Badgers collected six first-place votes and 48 points in a poll of the eight coaches and edged out defending WCHA champion Minnesota, which placed second with 43 points and two first-place votes. Minnesota Duluth, with 38 points, was selected to finish third. All three of those teams qualified for the NCAA Frozen Four

INTERIM HEAD COACH TRACEY DEKEYSER

Ashton, Ontario native Tracey DeKeyser begins her 11th season at Wisconsin, and for the first time at UW she will lead the squad as the interim head coach while Head Coach Mark Johnson takes a one-year leave to coach at the 2010 Olympics. She has been with the program since the drop of the first puck and has done everything from recruiting to co-coaching the team during her tenure.

The energetic DeKeyser, formally known as Cornell, came to Madison after spending the previous year as girls hockey head coach at Cushing Academy in Ashburnham, Mass. DeKeyser led Cushing Academy to a 24-4-2 mark, the most successful season in the history of the program. Her team captured second during the regular season and advanced to the NEPSAC Championship. Most recently, DeKeyser volunteered as a Team Leader at Canada's Under-22 Selection Camp in August 2005.

DeKeyser's playing experiences include four years at Cornell University, as well as one year as a professional in Switzerland for the SC Reinach Lions. While at Cornell, she co-captained the hockey program her senior season and earned Academic All-Ivy honors both her junior and senior years. Cornell helped the Big Red to the Ivy League hockey title during the 1995-96 season and served as assistant captain during the title run. The one-time Cornell rookie of the year also earned team honors as most inspirational player as a sophomore and senior.

Her stay with the SC Reinach Lions was also successful. The Lions placed second overall in the top Swiss hockey league and were crowned Zurich Cup Tournament Champions during her 1997-98 season.

DeKeyser earned her bachelor of science degree in marine ecology from Cornell University in 1997. In the summer of 2007 DeKeyser earned her M.B.A. in the graduate program at Wisconsin. In addition to her time with the hockey program, DeKeyser played forward for a year with the Big Red women's soccer team and is an avid cyclist who has tried her hand competing in triathlons over the past few years, including the 2006 and 2008 Madison Ironman competitions.

DeKeyser and husband Darren DeKeyser were married in May of 2008 and currently reside in Middleton, Wis last season. St. Cloud was picked to finish fourth, followed by Ohio State, North Dakota, Minnesota State, Mankato and Bemidji State.

Wisconsin was also the preseason favorite for player of the year and rookie of the year. Ammerman received five votes and is the coaches' pick to be preseason player of the year while Decker, a forward, received six votes and is the choice as preseason rookie of the year.

12 BADGERS PLAY IN ALL-STAR VS. USA GAME

▶ Three former Badgers scored to help the U.S. Women's National Team to a 6-1 victory over the Western Collegiate Hockey Association All-Stars Friday, Sept. 25, at Xcel Energy Center in the opening game of the Qwest Tour. Team USA outshot the WCHA, 46-15, in the win.

▶ Defensemen Molly Enstrom and Kerry Weiland each tallied a goal along with Jinelle Zaugg-Siergiej while Erika Lawler and Hilary Knight had an assist apiece.

▶ The four Badgers representing the WCHA, Brooke Ammerman, Jasmine Giles, Mallory Deluce and Brittany Haverstock joined the All-Star squad Thursday evening to prepare for the matchup.

▶ Altogether there were 12 Badgers between the two benches and Wisconsin head coach Mark Johnson, who is taking a year off to lead Team USA to the Vancouver Olympics.

▶ Two current and six former Badgers were selected to the 23-player roster for the U.S. Women's National Team. Five of the Badgers were part of the 2009 NCAA championship team, which includes Patty Kazmaier Award winner Jessie Vetter, Erika Lawler, Meghan Duggan, Hilary Knight and Angie Keseley. Former Olympian Molly Engstrom is the only Badger with Olympic experience representing Team USA. Kerry Weiland and Jinelle Zaugg-Siergiej have also had plenty of experience on a U.S. Women's National Team.

▶ Knight and Duggan will sit out the 2009-10 season at Wisconsin to train with the U.S. National Team. Keseley is one of two players selected who has not played on a U.S. National Team prior to the selection.

▶ Weiland, Engstrom, Knight, Duggan, Vetter and Lawler were members of the U.S. Women's National Team that captured back-to-back gold medals at the 2008 and 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation World Women's Championship.

▶ The squad, which will be centralized in the Twin Cities, will take part in the Qwest Tour, a 10-game, nine-city domestic tour that begins on Sept. 25 in St. Paul, Minn., and concludes just prior to the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver, B.C.

▶ The team was selected following the 2009 USA Hockey Women's National Festival, which ran from Aug. 19-23 at the National Sports Center in Blaine, Minn. The festival featured 41 of the top female hockey players in the United States, 11 of them had Wisconsin ties.

In seven seasons, Johnson and the UW women's hockey team have continued to shatter both school and national records. Johnson has led UW to the NCAA title game in each of the past four seasons, winning three times.

The Badgers became the only school in the nation to have reached 29 victories in each of the past four campaigns. Since the 2005-06 season, Wisconsin has recorded 135 wins, more than any other team in the nation.

Johnson is taking a one-year sabbatical to be the head coach for the 2010 Olympic U.S. Women's Hockey team to add to his list of incredible accomplishments.
