PANTHERS TO OPEN SEVEN-GAME ROAD TRIP AT #14 BADGERS The Prairie View A&M men's basketball team opens a season-long seven-game road trip at 14th-ranked Wisconsin. It's the fourth meeting between the teams and second straight year they've met in Madison, as last year the Panthers fell 85-67 on Nov 25.

LAST TIME OUT The Panthers lost at home to Lamar on Friday, 91-83. Wisconsin lost in the title game of the Maui Invitational to #4 North Carolina Wednesday, 71-56.

SMITH ERA OFFICIALLY BEGINS After serving as Interim Head Coach over the final 12 games of the 2015-16 season, Byron Smith was officially named head coach on April 12, 2016. He led the Panthers to a 6-6 record to end the season. (full bio page 3)

SENIOR SPARK Senior forward Zachary Hamilton has been a big spark for the Panthers, first off the bench, and now in the past three games as a starter. 17.7 points and 4.0 rebounds shooting 50 percent from the field, and 47.6 percent from 3-point range. He scored a season-high 29 points in Friday's game against Lamar, including a career-high seven three-pointers. This season, Hamilton leads the Panthers in scoring, averaging 13.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, and 1.8 assists, and has posted five straight double-digit scoring games.

NEWCOMERS AMONG LEADERS IN SCORING A pair of first-year Panthers have emerged as top scorers early in the season. UNLV transfer Daquan Cook is averaging 12.8 points, 2.7 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.7 steals. The senior tied a season-high with 17 points vs. Jarvis Christian Tuesday night, to go along with season highs in rebounds (seven) and assists (six). Junior L.J. Westbrook (Casper College) has joined Cook in double-figure scoring in five of six games this season, and is averaging 11.3 points and 3.7 rebounds, shooting just under 49 percent from the field and 35.3 percent from the three-point line. He scored a season-high 14 points to go along with seven rebounds in the win over Fresno State and scored 11 with three rebounds and four assists Tuesday vs. Jarvis Christian..

SETTING THE PACE Senior guard Ja'Donta Blakley is scoring 6.2 points per game with 3.5 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game. He had tied a season-high with 11 points and added five rebounds and five assists in Tuesday's win over Jarvis Christian. He had a season-high eight assists in the win at Fresno State, and corralled a season-high seven rebounds at UTSA.

BLOCK PARTY J.D. Wallace was an enforcer for Prairie View A&M off the bench in Tuesday's win over Jarvis Christian. Wallace had season highs in points (eight), rebounds (six) and blocked shots (five) for the Panthers. He is averaging 4.2 points, 3.3 rebounds, and 2.5 blocked shots per game, and has recorded at least two blocked shots in five straight games.

PICKED TO FINISH 6th IN SWAC The Panthers were picked to finish 6th in the 10-team Southwestern Athletic Conference standings, in voting done by the league's head coaches and sports information contacts.

CHAMP SLAYERS HC Byron Smith appears to have a knack for taking down defending conference champions and NCAA Tournament teams for his first wins of the season. This past February, the Panthers beat defending SWAC Champion and arch-rival Texas Southern to earn Smith's first win as interim head coach. On November 14, the Smith-led Panthers beat defending WCC champ Fresno State for the first win of the season.

NO EASY ROAD FROM SEA TO SHINING SEA PVAMU basketball will play one of the most challenging schedules in the history of the program and will be in all areas of the country in doing so. In addition to three games on the West Coast in the Pacific Time Zone against Oregon State (Pac-12), Fresno State (Mountain West), and Saint Mary's (West Coast Conference) to open the season, the Panthers will play in the Mountain (at Utah; Pac-12) and Eastern Time Zones (George Mason; A-10) in addition to central time non-conference games at Texas San Antonio (C-USA), Wisconsin (Big 10), Houston (The American), Kansas St. (Big 12), Texas St. (Sun Belt), and Louisiana Tech (C-USA).

Head Coach Byron Smith

Byron Smith became the sixth head coach in PVAMU NCAA Division I history and the 10th head coach since the 1956-57 campaign on April 12, 2016.

Prior to accepting the role of head coach, Smith spent the previous three seasons as an assistant at PVAMU. He was named interim head coach the final three months of the 2015-16 season.

Elevated to the role of interim head coach in January of 2016, the Panthers quickly made the transition to Smith's style as they defeated conference rival and defending SWAC Champion Texas Southern for his first career win on Feb. 6. One week later, the Panthers defeated Grambling State for their first winning streak of the season and began a second half run which saw PVAMU close out the regular season with wins in four of the last six games. During PVAMU's late run, the Panthers defeated Arkansas-Pine Bluff for their first win in Pine Bluff, Ark. since 2005 and also defeated Southern University on their home court for the first time since 2010.

Under Smith, senior guard Jayrn Johnson flourished as he averaged 20.5 points over the final 11 games of the season. Johnson finished as PVAMU's scoring leader and was the team's top three-point shooter in addition to being named SWAC Player of the Week on two occasions in the month of February.

During the 2014-15 campaign, Smith played a pivotal role in helping senior center Reggis Onwukamuche ascend to the top of the SWAC amongst post players as Onwukamuche was named the SWAC's Defensive Player of the Year while also earning a spot on the All-SWAC Second Team. Onwukamuche finished the regular season with 57 blocked shots (1.7 per game), ranked 10th in the SWAC with 5.3 rebounds and second with 2.4 offensive rebounds per game. As a result of his play, Onwukamuche received an opportunity to play professionally as he inked a contract with the Sheffield Sharks of the British Basketball League. In addition to Onwukamuche's play, junior post Karim York saw his role expand as he averaged a career-high 9.1 points per game along with 5.1 rebounds. York tripled his scoring average in 2014-15 and averaged nearly four times more rebounds than the previous season with the Panthers.

In his first season at Prairie View A&M, Smith helped the Panthers make history as they advanced to the championship round of the 2014 SWAC Tournament for the second consecutive season. Smith primarily worked with the team's post players and helped forward Demondre Chapman achieve career highs in scoring in rebounding.

Smith has experience in all levels of basketball across the globe. Prior to Prairie View A&M, Smith was an entrepreneur as he ran a business which consisted of him coaching high performance skills and fundamentals programs in the Houston area.

Collegiately, Smith spent one season (2009-10) at Texas Southern and helped the Tigers advance to the championship round of the SWAC Tournament for the first time since 2003. Before coming to TSU, Smith served as an assistant coach at Texas A&M and helped lead the Aggies to consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in addition to securing a pair of nationally ranked recruiting classes.

Smith also served as the head coach of the highly-successful Houston Swoosh AAU program for three seasons. Prior to that, he was the head coach of the Harlem Globetrotters in 2002-03.

In 2001-02, he served as an assistant coach at McClennan Community College in Waco, helping the team to the regional finals. In 2000-01, he was the interim head coach at Texas Southern. Smith was the director of basketball operations at his alma mater, the University of Houston, under Clyde Drexler from 1998-00.

Smith was a standout player at UH from 1989-91, twice earning All-Southwest Conference honors under Coach Pat Foster. Prior to that, he was an all-conference player at Tyler Junior College in 1988-89 and played at Northwestern State in 1987-88.

A native of Bossier City, La., Smith earned all-state honors as a senior at Airline High School after leading the state in scoring with a 30.6 average.

After graduating from UH in 1991, Smith played professional basketball overseas for six seasons, including four years in Australia. He also played in Turkey and Greece.

Smith and his wife, Melanie has two children, Christopher and Kayla.

Panther Legend Beaty Enters Pro Basketball Hall of Fame

Prairie View A&M University basketball legend Zelmo Beaty was officially inducted posthumously into the Pro Basketball Hall of Fame Friday, Sept. 9, 2016 in Springfield, Mass.

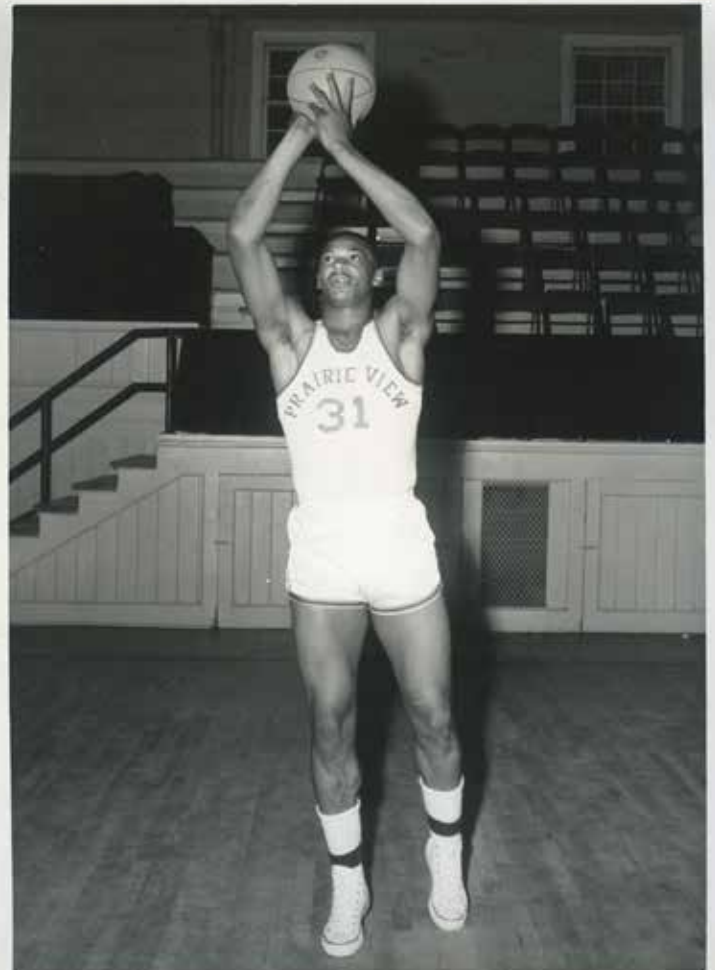

The journey to the sports' highest honor was long but now complete for the Panther legend, who averaged 25 points and 20 rebounds on The Hill from 1958-62, leading Prairie View A&M to the 1962 NAIA Championship while earning MVP honors.

Beaty joins Willis Reed of Grambling as the only SWAC players in the Pro Basketball of Fame.

The 6-foot-9 center was the third overall pick in the 1962 draft by the then St. Louis Hawks of the American Basketball Association. He played 13 seasons for the Hawks, both in St. Louis and Atlanta, along with the Utah Stars and Los Angeles Lakers. He averaged a double-double for his career with 16 points and more than 10 rebounds per game.

Beaty, who was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014, scored more than 15,000 points and grabbed more than 9,600 rebounds during his pro basketball career. He was a five-time All-Star, and earned playoff MVP honors in leading the Stars to the 1971 ABA Championship.

Beaty took his place in the Hall with fellow centers Shaquille O'Neal, Yao Ming, along with other greats Allen Iverson, Sheryl Swoopes, coaches John McClendon (posthumously) and Tom Izzo, referee Darrell Garretson, multisport player Cumberland Posey, and contributor Jerry Reinsdorf.
