She has 95 wins now in Ann Arbor and has moved into second place on the all-time list at U-M. Her .620 winning percentage is tops by a Michigan women's basketball coach and with five more wins, she will become only the second coach in program history with 100 victories at Michigan.
- Junior Katelynn Flaherty, tabbed No. 25 on ESPNW's Top 25 Players List, was named to four national watch lists this season. Flaherty has picked up right where she left off last year, averaging 18.5 points per game on 44.7 percent shooting from the floor and 39.4 percent from three-point range. She has scored in double figures in 14 games and topped 20 points seven times. She now has 1,551 points in her career.
