HEAD COACH BOBBIE KELSEY

FIFTH SEASON

In her four seasons at Wisconsin, Bobbie Kelsey has been building a program the right way. By playing exciting basketball against some of the best teams in the nation, the Badgers are beginning to attract attention across the country.

Kelsey's Badgers have played some of the toughest schedules in the nation. Wisconsin played 14 teams that competed in post-season tournaments in 2013-14, finishing with the 28th toughest schedule. UW had the 15th toughest schedule in 2012-13, playing 18 games against post-season teams. Kelsey's team upset No. 8 Penn State at home in 2013 and also won a game in the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2010.

The Badgers have battled some of the nation's best teams, losing 11 games by single digits in 2012-13 and dropping 10 games in 2013-14 by 10-or-fewer points.

UW records have become a matter of fact under Kelsey as the Badgers set six school records in 2011-12, 13 UW single-game or season marks in 2012-13, including the school record for free throw percentage two straight seasons. Wisconsin also broke five single-game or season records in 2013-14.

Individual awards have also come to the Badgers under Kelsey. Michala Johnson earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2014, becoming the first UW player named to that team since 2008. Taylor Wurtz and Anya Covington earned All-Big Ten honors in 2012 while Morgan Paige and Jacki Gulczynski were honored in 2013. Nicole Bauman earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 2015.

Academic honors have also improved under Kelsey. After only one Academic All-Big Ten honoree in her first season, the Badgers had six honorees in 2013-14, including three-time honoree Morgan Paige. UW tied a school record with seven honorees in 2014-15.

Kelsey came to Wisconsin after four seasons as an assistant at top-ranked Stanford. The Cardinal compiled a 137-14 (.907) record, including a 69-3 (.958) mark in Pac-10 conference play, and advanced to the Final Four each year during her time there. Stanford's streak of four-straight Final Fours is tied for the second-longest streak in NCAA history. Prior to Kelsey's arrival, Stanford had not advanced to the Final Four since 1997.

In addition to coaching at Stanford under Hall of Fame head coach Tara VanDerveer for the last four seasons, Kelsey was a four-year letterwinner at Stanford from 1992-96. She helped the Cardinal to three Final Four appearances in five years as a player, including the 1992 NCAA championship. Kelsey was a team co-captain in 1995 and 1996, voted the team's Most Inspirational Player in 1992 and 1996, and named the team's most improved player in 1993.

Kelsey graduated from Stanford in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in communications. She earned her master's degree from Duquesne University from the School of Leadership and Professional Advancement in Sports Leadership.
