BADGERS COMPETE AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Wisconsin has had 13 NCAA champion wrestlers and 18 NCAA Championships. The most recent national winner came in 2010 when Andrew Howe won the 165-pound title.
- UW features five NCAA qualifying wrestlers, two of which will enter the tournament with a seed. Last year, UW boasted seven NCAA qualifiers and three (Ryan Taylor, Isaac Jordan, Conor Medbery) went on to become All-Americans.
- After taking the 165-pound Big Ten title, Isaac Jordan is the No. 2 seed for the NCAA Championships. Ryan Taylor (133), who snagged third place at the conference championships, is seeded 12th for the national tournament.
- The Badgers' three other NCAA qualifiers are Johnny Jimenez (125), Ricky Robertson (174) and Ryan Christensen (184).

Isaac Jordan looks to improve on his seventh-place finish at the 2015 NCAA Championships, as he enters the 2016 edition with the No. 2 seed at 165 pounds.

KEY NOTES TO CONSIDER

- Wisconsin's last NCAA Champion, Andrew Howe, was a two-time All-American. He capped off a perfect season in 2010 with a conference and NCAA title. Howe defeated Penn State's Dan Vallimont, 9-3, for the 165-pound title. He compiled a 37-0 record, including four wins by pin, two by tech fall and 13 by major decision. Howe is just the fourth Badger to go undefeated in a single season.
- Second-ranked 165-pounder Isaac Jordan has the chance to be UW's fifth-ever wrestler to go undefeated in a season. He currently has an unscathed 25-0 record and a 26-match winning streak, which dates back to last season. The junior's victory at RU on Feb. 5--a 4-0 shutout over No. 8 Anthony Perrotti--gave him the longest winning streak by a UW wrestler since Howe went 30-0 during the 2009-10 season.

Five Wisconsin wrestlers qualified for the NCAA Championships, with two entering the tournament as seeded competitors. Isaac Jordan is the No. 2 seed at 165 pounds, while Ryan Taylor is the 133-pound bracket's 12th seed. Johnny Jimenez (125), Ricky Robertson (174) and Ryan Christensen (184) will also compete in the event.

25

Isaac Jordan continued the best start of his career, racking up his 25th win in the 165-pound Big Ten Championship match. He has a 26-match winning streak dating back to last season which is the longest by a UW wrestler since Andrew Howe (165) went 30-0 during 2009-10 season.

37

In just fourteen matches wrestled, junior Ryan Taylor has racked up the most takedowns on the team with 37. The 2015 All-American has only allowed 14 takedowns to his opponents. Taylor has a 9-5 record, including one major decision, one technical fall and one pin.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

- The 2016 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships takes place at Madison Square Garden in New York City, March 17-19. A limited number of single session tickets are still available. In addition wrestling fans can buy and sell official tickets through the NCAA Ticket Exchange™. This gives ticket holders who are unable to attend a session a place to safely sell their tickets. Buyers can also get their tickets knowing the tickets are authentic and guaranteed, visit <http://www.ncaa.com/tickets/wrestling/d1> for more information.
- Second-seeded Isaac Jordan (25-0) will take on CSU Bakersfield's Adam Fierro in the first round. Fierro is 17-9 on the year. If Jordan wins he will either face No. 15 Clark Glass (22-8) of Oklahoma or Lehigh's Ryan Preisch (16-8).
- No. 12 Ryan Taylor (9-5) will take on Mizzou's Zach Synon (16-12) in Round 1 of the NCAA tournament. The winner will take on Penn State's fifth-seeded Jordan Conaway (26-5) or Corey Keener (18-10) of Central Michigan. Taylor defeated Conaway twice at the Big Ten Championships en route to taking third. Entering the tournament the Nittany Lions' 133-pounder had just three losses on the year.
- In the 125-pound bracket, Johnny Jimenez (18-13) is set to match up with seventh-seeded Darian Cruz (28-5) of Lehigh.
- 174-pounder Ricky Robertson (14-13) meets Keaton Subjeck (20-7) of Stanford in the first round of the NCAA Championships. The winner will take on Illinois' Zach Brunson (20-3), who is the fifth seed.
- Ryan Christensen (18-18) takes on No. 10 Nate Brown (21-4) of Lehigh in the 184-pound bracket.

BIG CHAMPIONSHIPS RECAP

- For the second-consecutive year Isaac Jordan defeated his cousin, Bo Jordan of Ohio State, to eclipse the 165-pound Big Ten title. There was no score in the first period, as the duo sized one another up not wanting to make an early mistake. Bo chose bottom to start the second and later escaped but Isaac had amassed nearly a minute and a half of riding time which meant the match was essentially tied entering the third. It looked to be going to overtime but with just two seconds left Isaac picked up Bo and dropped him for the takedown and the win.
- Wisconsin now has 70 total Big Ten champions with 17 of those honors coming under head coach Barry Davis. It was the second UW Big Ten Champion since assistant coach Trevor Brandvold won in 2011.

- After losing in the semifinal of the 133-pound bracket, sixth-seeded Ryan Taylor worked back to win the consolation semifinal, 9-5, over No. 10 Anthony Giraldo of Rutgers to earn a spot in the third-place match against Penn State's third seed, Jordan Conaway. Taylor and Conaway fought to a stalemate in the first period and were knotted at three apiece through two. Wisconsin's 133-pounder recorded a reversal 20 seconds into the third before allowing an escape but Conaway was unable to notch any more points, as Taylor sealed the victory, 5-4.
- Among the five other Badgers competing at the conference championships, three (Johnny Jimenez, 125; Ryan Christensen, 184; Brock Horwath, 285) earned seventh-place finishes while two others (TJ Ruschell, 157; Ricky Robertson, 174) were eighth.
- Wisconsin finished with 67.5 team points to place eighth—one spot back of last year's finish. Penn State took the tournament championship with 150.5 points.

SENIOR DAY SUCCESS

- The Wisconsin wrestling team celebrated Senior Day on Sunday at the Field House before dominating Northwestern, 38-3, behind a major decision, two technical falls and a pin.
- Other than their 43-0 walloping of Division II UW-Whitewater on Nov. 12, the win was easily the Badgers' most lopsided. Previously, Wisconsin's biggest point differential in a victory was 13 points against Maryland on Feb. 14.
- Wisconsin's second-ranked 165-pounder, Isaac Jordan, used two takedowns, a two-point near fall and a four-point near fall to get out to a comfortable 10-1 lead after one period.
- Taylor pinned Malone at the 5:47 mark, while Robertson shut out Sliga in a 4-0 decision.
- Ryan Christensen added to Wisconsin's lead with a major decision in the 184-pound grapple.
- The Wisconsin wrestler did not allow his competitor, Regis Durbin, to reach the scoreboard until there were only 27 seconds remaining in the match. He went for three takedowns and his first four-point near fall of the season in the 14-1 win.
- Andrew Crone challenged his fifth ranked opponent in the last eight matches, as he met No. 6 Jason Tsirtis in the 149-pound battle. After no scoring through two periods, Tsirtis picked up an escape, takedown and riding time point in the third compared to Crone's escape to win, 4-1.

- Crone now posts a 2-6 record against rated wrestlers, with three of the losses coming by three points or less.
- Seniors Brett Hochstaetter, Nic Veling and Brock Horwath were honored prior to the dual.

THE PEISSIG PIN

- Eric Peissig clinched his most exciting victory of the season in fall fashion in front of a thrilled Field House crowd.
- Peissig kept pace with Jacob Berkowitz early on but trailed, 4-2, after the first period.
- Berkowitz, starting the second on the bottom, escaped to extend his lead. Peissig responded soon after, though, with a takedown and then proceeded to pin the NU wrestler 4:02 into the match.
- The fall was the Menomonie, Wisconsin, native's second of his career. He last pinned an opponent on Dec. 13, 2013, when he defeated Northern Iowa's Kyle Beal.

TALK ABOUT TAYLOR

- In just nine matches wrestled, junior Ryan Taylor has racked up the second-most takedowns on the team with 23 total takedowns this season. The 2015 All-American has only allowed nine takedowns from his opponents. Taylor has a 5-4 record, including one major decision and one pin.
- Despite having just nine matches under his belt this year, Taylor has matched up with six ranked opponents. Sunday's win against Malone (Northwestern) gave him his second victory over a ranked wrestler, improving his record to 5-4 in 2015-16.

RUSH RUSCHELL

- TJ Ruschell wrapped up the Northwestern dual with a bang, as he gathered six takedowns and two four-point near falls to defeat Anthony Petrone, 20-5.
- The win was his most dominant of the year and snapped an 11-match slide that dated back to Dec. 5.

B1G SPLIT

- The Badgers met their seventh-straight ranked opponent on Feb. 12, as they traveled to Columbus, Ohio, for a dual with No. 10 Ohio State. Wisconsin fell, 34-6, dropping eight of 10 matches.
- The most anticipated match of the event came at 165 pounds between cousins No. 3 Isaac Jordan and No. 2 Bo Jordan. Isaac used three takedowns and allowed four escapes to upset Bo in a 6-4 decision. The result marked Isaac's sixth win over a ranked opponent this season.
- 149-pounder Andrew Crone was the lone other UW wrestler to pick up a win against the Buckeyes, as he earned a 6-4 win in the first sudden victory period.
- Despite dropping a lopsided affair to OSU, the Badgers turned their weekend around with a dominant 25-12 win at Maryland.
- Seven of 10 Wisconsin competitors gathered victories against the Terrapins, which marks the most since the Badgers swept UW-Whitewater on Nov. 12.

- Five Badgers won by decision including, Crone (149), Ricky Robertson (174), Ryan Christensen (184), Eric Peissig (197) and Johnny Jimenez (125). Crone's result noted his sixth-straight win--the second-longest winning streak among Wisconsin's starters.
- Brock Horwath registered his second major decision of the year with a 10-0 shutout of Youssif Hemida.
- Jordan finished off his fourth pin of the season at the 3:37 mark of his grapple with Tyler Manion.

BORDER BATTLE

- UW faced off with No. 21 Minnesota in the Border Battle on February 7. The Badgers lost, 17-16, which was the team's narrowest dual result of 2015-16.
- Andrew Crone recovered from a four-point deficit through two periods to earn his second victory over a ranked opponent this season. He was one point up on No. 16 Jake Short when time expired but surrendered a riding time point, which shifted the match to sudden victory. Crone needed just 11 extra seconds to win, as he recorded a takedown at the 49-second mark of the first sudden victory period.
- No. 3 Isaac Jordan's triumph over Brad Dolezal extended his winning streak to 19 matches, dating back to last year.

- Like Crone, Ryan Christensen used a sudden victory period to defeat his opponent: Chris Pfarr. Despite surrendering a takedown with five seconds left which tied the match at four apiece, Christensen registered a takedown at the 34-second mark of the first sudden victory period to snap a five-match losing streak.

- Jimenez and Taylor also earned wins against the Golden Gophers.

RANKED RUTGERS

- Wisconsin earned its first win over a ranked opponent on February 5 at No. 12 Rutgers. the Badgers edged RU, 18-15.
- With the dual beginning at 133 pounds, No. 7 Ryan Taylor set the tone with a pin at the 6:54 mark--just six seconds before the final buzzer. Instead of going up 3-0, the fall gave Wisconsin a 6-0 lead which proved to be the difference, as it won by three points.
- Andrew Crone narrowly beat Tyson Dippery at 149 pounds. The Scarlet Knights' competitor tied the score at four apiece with an escape at the 14 second mark but Crone had already amassed enough riding time (1:49) to grab the win, 5-4.
- Isaac Jordan earned his 17th win of the year with a 4-0 shutout of eighth-ranked 165-pounder Anthony Perrotti.
- Johnny Jimenez's victory over No. 20 Sean McCabe sealed the win for the Badgers. The result marked the sophomore's first win against a ranked opponent this year. The dual was tied, 15-15, entering the final match. Jimenez got out to a 2-0 lead in the first period and did not surrender his advantage for the remaining two rounds to win, 7-4.
- Ricky Robertson (174) also picked up a victory, beating Phillip Bakuckas in a 4-3 decision.

AGAINST ILLINOIS

- Facing No. 13 Illinois on Jan. 31 at the UW Field House, Wisconsin got out to its first lead since the season-opener against UW-Whitewater.
- Johnny Jimenez gave the Badgers a 4-0 lead, picking up a 13-3 major decision victory over Francis Edelen.
- In the first of two matches that featured a pair of ranked wrestlers, No. 7 Ryan Taylor lost, 5-4, to second-rated Zane Richards. The Fighting Illini wrestler improved his record to 20-0 with the win. Prior to the result, Richards had won all but one match by three points or more.

8.	Northwestern	0-9-0	.000	2-13-0	.133

- Isaac Jordan extended his unbeaten streak to 16 matches with a 5-2 decision over arguably his toughest opponent of the year to date, No. 6 Steven Rodrigues. Interestingly, entering the match Rodrigues' only other loss of the season came against Jordan's cousin and the second-ranked 165-pounder, Bo Jordan of Ohio State.
- Luke Rowh (141) and Andrew Crone (149) also picked up wins against the Fighting Illini.

IOWA MATCHUP

- The Hawkeyes (11-0, 5-0) scored the first points in eight of 10 matches en route to their sixth-straight win over UW (1-4, 0-3), dating back to 2007-08. Iowa now leads the all-time series 76-8-3, including a 38-4-2 mark in Madison.
- Despite the lopsided result, 165-pounder Isaac Jordan continued his win streak to 15-straight matches to maintain his perfect record this year.
- Just one of two Badgers to take on an unranked Iowa opponent, third-ranked Jordan picked up a takedown on Patrick Rhoads in the first period and never looked back. The Urbana, Ohio, native piled on six points over the course of the match, while preventing Rhoads from registering a point until the 40-second mark of the third period when Rhoads earned an escape.
- Wisconsin's other ranked wrestler, No. 7 Ryan Taylor, matched up with Cory Clark, who entered the dual rated third in the 133-pound weight class. Clark came out victorious in a 7-3 decision, gathering a takedown, two escapes and a riding time point in the third compared to Taylor's takedown and escape.

NEBRASKA LEFTOVERS

- Despite losing seven of the 10 matches, UW (1-3, 0-2) found bright spots in Ryan Taylor, Isaac Jordan and Ricky Robertson.
- Robertson was tested the most for his win, as he was forced to use the first sudden victory round in the 174-pound match to come out on top for the 10th time this year.
- Taylor and Eric Coufal alternated scoring throughout the entirety of the match with Taylor gathering seven takedowns and an escape and Coufal earning six escapes. Taylor evened his record to 1-1 with the 15-6 major decision victory.
- Third-ranked Jordan continued his best start to a season by shutting out No. 15 Austin Wilson at 165 pounds for his 14th-straight win. The victory also marked Jordan's third win against a ranked opponent.
- Jordan is now 2-0 against Wilson, as he pinned the then-20th-ranked Cornhusker 32 seconds into last year's match.

FUN AT THE KOHL

- The dual on January 15 marked just the second time that the Wisconsin wrestling team hosted a dual in the Kohl Center, as 2,571 fans were in attendance for the special occasion. The Badgers had 3,761 total fans in attendance in 2014-15 and had more than half of that in one night.

- Wisconsin's only previous dual in the Kohl Center came in 2008, when the Badgers hosted Iowa State in a match that the Cyclones claimed by a 27-7 score. For perspective on how long it's been since wrestling was held in the Kohl Center, current UW assistant coach Kyle Ruschell was wrestling at 141 pounds in the match, and defeated his opponent with a major decision.
- The Kohl Center averaged nearly 10,000 fans per day when UW hosted the 2014 Big Ten Championships, with the Badgers sending eight wrestlers -- including two freshmen -- to the podium. Both freshmen -- Isaac Jordan and Ryan Taylor -- finished third at the Big Ten meet that year.

BADGERS IN THE POLLS

- Four Wisconsin athletes appeared in the RPI rankings, released by the NCAA on Feb. 11. In order to qualify, a wrestler must have a minimum of 17 Division I matches. The Badgers included were: No. 25 Johnny Jimenez (125), No. 21 Andrew Crone (149), No. 3 Isaac Jordan (165), No. 20 Ricky Robertson (174) and No. 31 Ryan Christensen (184).
- In addition to the RPI rankings, the NCAA also released its Division I coaches rankings. Among the 10 weight classes, six included Wisconsin wrestlers. The rankings included No. 14 Ryan Taylor (133), No. 2 Isaac Jordan (165), No. 25 Ricky Robertson (174), No. 32 Ryan Christensen (184) and No. 33 Brock Horwath (HWT).
- The Badgers began the season ranked 14th in the USA Today/NWCA Coaches poll. UW is currently unranked. Eight other Big Ten schools are ranked in the top 25, including No. 1 Penn State, No. 4 Iowa, No. 7 Ohio State, No. 8 Michigan, No. 10 Rutgers, No. 12 Nebraska, No. 13 Illinois and No. 16 Minnesota. Purdue dropped out of the rankings but is receiving 12 votes.
- Two wrestlers are ranked by InterMat. Ryan Taylor comes in at No. 7 in the 133-pound weight class and undefeated Isaac Jordan is ranked at No. 2 behind Oklahoma State's Alex Dieringer in the 165-pound weight class. Isaac jumped one spot after defeating his cousin, then-No. 2 Bo Jordan of Ohio State, on Feb. 12.
- Jordan is ranked second by FloWrestling and The Open Mat, while Taylor is ranked seventh by FloWrestling.

DU YOU

- At the Duhawk Open, all six Badgers that competed earned a placing of fifth or better.
- Michael Cullen went 3-2 to take fifth in the 133-pound weight class.
- At heavyweight, Ben Stone lost in the third-place match to take fourth. He went 4-2 at the event, picking up all of his victories by fall.
- Eli Stickley (141) and Mason Reinhardt (184) both took third in their respective weight classes. Of their combined nine wins (Stickley 5, Reinhardt 4), five of them came by major decision (one), technical fall (one) or pin (three).

- Cole Martin (141) and Hunter Ritter (184) received second-place recognition. Martin lost to Iowa's Vince Turk, 6-3, in the 141-pound championship, while Ritter was defeated by the Hawkeyes' Cash Wilke, 8-7.

FLASH INTO VIEW

- Three Badgers brought home first-place crowns from the Pat Flash Flanagan Open.
- Cole Martin, Hunter Ritter and Nic Veling each placed at the top of their weight classes.
- Every Badger that competed placed in the tournament. Michael Cullen finished in second place while Eli Stickley took fourth, and Ben Stone and Mason Reinhardt both claimed sixth-place finishes.

PITT/PENN STATE RUNDOWN

- The Badgers traveled to Pennsylvania to take on Pittsburgh and No. 1-ranked Penn State. Wisconsin dropped both meets, winning five of its 19 matches.
- UW lost to Pittsburgh by a score of 25-9 on Dec. 12. The Badgers picked up their nine points by winning the 149-, 165- and 184-pound matches.
- Rylan Lubeck picked up his ninth win of the season in the 149-pound grapple, defeating Robert Lee. After two periods with goose eggs on the board, Lubeck took a 2-0 lead with a last-minute takedown. He then surrendered an escape point to Lee but the junior had racked up plenty of riding time to clinch a 3-1 decision.
- Isaac Jordan maintained his perfect record, narrowly defeating Cody Wierioch in the 165-pound match. Jordan used a late takedown in the first period to go up 2-0. Wierioch answered with a takedown of his own in the second period but Jordan escaped for a 3-2 advantage going into the final period. Jordan eventually squeaked out a close 4-3 victory over Wierioch to continue his spotless 12-match winning streak.
- Ryan Christensen earned Wisconsin's third win by edging out Zach Bruce in the 184-pound match. Going into the third period, Christensen led, 1-0, but earned another point to finish out the match with a 2-0 decision.
- At Penn State, the Badgers were upended, 36-7. Wisconsin picked up wins in the 165-pound and heavyweight match.
- Trailing, 4-2, with about 20 seconds left, Jordan escaped Geno Morelli's hold and popped to his feet. The undefeated Badgers wrestler proceeded to aggressively lunge at his opponent before grabbing a hold of his legs and forcing to the ground to pick up a takedown as time expired.
- Brock Horwath handled Devon Van Cura in a 10-0 major decision in the heavyweight grapple. Other than his 16-0 domination of Jordan Festege in the Badger's first dual meet against UW-Whitewater, the triumph was Horwath's most dominant decision to date.
- In all, Wisconsin faced five ranked Nittany Lions opponents, including two who were at the top of their weight class (Zain Retherford 149, Morgan McIntosh 197).

CLIFF KEEN INVITATIONAL

- Among the seven Badgers competing at the Cliff Keen Invitational, three earned placements--Isaac Jordan, Ricky Robertson and Ryan Christensen.
- Jordan took first in the 165-pound bracket, winning six-straight matches to take the title. He won four matches by decision (9-3, 1-0, 8-1, 5-3), while the other two victories came by major decision (13-3) and fall (1:10). Jordan's tightest match came in the quarterfinal, as he beat eighth-seeded Garrett Sutton of Michigan in a 1-0 result. The No. 3-ranked 165-pounder grappled with two ranked opponents--16th-ranked Sutton and No. 11 George Pickett of Cornell in the semifinal (8-1)--en route to his title.
- Robertson and Christensen finished fifth and eighth, respectively. At 174 pounds, Robertson won his first three matches but fell in the quarterfinal, which sent him to the consolation bracket. He wrapped up the tournament with three more wins, including a 12-4 major decision in the fifth-place match, to finish just outside the top four.

NAVY CLASSIC

- Wisconsin had an impressive showing at the Navy Classic, as the Badgers picked up two first-, one second- and fourth-, three fifth- and two sixth-place finishes.
- Isaac Jordan took first at 165 pounds and Brock Horwath won at heavyweight, while 125-pounder Johnny Jimenez earned a second-place result.
- Horwath had arguably the most dominant showing, winning once by fall (1:38) and three times by at least five points. In the trio of decisions he allowed just two points in total.
- Ryan Christensen was fourth in the 184-pound weight class. He won his first three matches of the tournament before dropping a result to No. 10 Abram Ayala of Princeton. Christensen responded by winning the consolation semifinal, but came up just short in the third-place match, losing, 2-0, in sudden victory-1 to Kent State's No. 19 Cole Baxter, who he had previously beaten.
- UW's fifth-place wrestlers were Luke Rowh (141), Jared Scharenbrock (157) and Seth Liegel (165).

MSU OPEN

- In its first tournament of the year at the MSU Open in East Lansing, Michigan, UW entered 23 wrestlers total, eight of which were unattached.
- Four of the eight unattached competitors placed fifth or better. Hunter Ritter won at 184 pounds, while Cole Martin finished third in the 141-pound bracket. Mason Reinhardt (184) and Eli Stickley (141) were behind their teammates in fifth.
- Johnny Jimenez was Wisconsin's top competitor, as the 125-pound grappler earned a second-place finish.
- Three Badgers had fourth-place results, including Rylan Lubeck (149), TJ Ruschell (157) and Ryan Christensen (184). Ruschell had the narrowest loss of the third-place matches, as Ohio's 12th-ranked Sparty Chino edged him, 3-2.

UNI OPEN

- A total of 10 Badgers placed at the UNI Open.
- Seth Liegel (165) and Hunter Ritter (197) earned first-place crowns, while Eli Stickley (141), Jake Stilling (174) and Jared Scharenbrock (157) picked up second-place finishes.
- Cole Martin and Nic Veling were third at 141 and 184 pounds, respectively.

ON POINT

- Wisconsin freshmen had a big showing at the Pointer Open on Nov. 7, finishing with three first-place finishes, three runner-ups and one third-place finisher.
- Eli Stickley, Eric Schmid and Izaec Quintanilla all brought home first-place crowns from the Pointer Open.

Head Coach Barry Davis

Barry Davis begins his 22nd season officially at the helm of the Wisconsin wrestling program, but enters his 23rd season as part of the Wisconsin wrestling program after serving as interim head coach during the 1993-94 season. Davis has an overall dual record of 216-154-11.

The 2015 season saw Davis help sophomore Isaac Jordan earn his first Big Ten championship and second All-America honor. Davis also helped sophomore Ryan Taylor and junior Connor Medbery to claim their first All-America honors. Under Davis, three of the seven NCAA qualifiers clinched All-American status, tying for the fifth-most All-America honors in a single season and the most for the program since 2011.

In his 20th season at the pinnacle of the program, Davis' squad received multiple All-America honors for the first time since 2011. Senior Tyler Graff (133) became the program's fourth four-time All-American after a second-place finish at the NCAA championships. Freshman Isaac Jordan (157) earned an All-America honor after seventh-place finish, becoming the fourth member of his family to acquire the accolade while wrestling at Wisconsin.

The 2013 season saw Davis help Tyler Graff earn the third, and highest, All-America honor of his career, placing third at 133 lbs. Under Davis, Graff became the ninth three-time All-American in Wisconsin history. Davis also helped Jackson Hein and Connor Medbery qualify for their first NCAA championships appearances.

In 2012, Davis helped Ben Jordan become an All-American at 165 lbs., joining his father, Jim Jordan, and uncle, Jeff Jordan, on the prestigious list.

Davis led the Badgers to their third-straight top 10 finish at the NCAA Division I Championships in 2011, and coached four of the seven wrestlers who qualified to All-America honors.

In 2010, Davis won the biggest accolade of his coaching career when he was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Wrestling Coaches Association. Davis helped Wisconsin to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, tying for best finish in school history and best under his reign. In addition, he helped aid then-sophomore Andrew Howe to his first NCAA Division I title at 165 lbs. and a perfect 37-0 overall record.

His Badgers finished the 2008-09 dual season with a 9-8-0 overall mark and 3-5 mark in the Big Ten. The 2008-09 season marked the 11th time (and 10th-consecutive year) Davis's teams have won at least nine duals. More impressive, Davis's 2008-09 squad finished ninth at the NCAA championships, tying for the best finish in his 15-year tenure. Five wrestlers qualified for the 2009 NCAA Championships and Wisconsin brought home three All-Americans including runner-up at 165 lbs., Andrew Howe, Kyle Ruschell (3rd at 149 lbs.) and Zach Tanelli (4th at 141 lbs.).

Davis reached a milestone during the 2007-08 season by recording his 150th career win with an 18-15 victory over Oklahoma on Feb. 21, 2008. This made him just the second UW coach to do so, joining George Martin who coached for 32 years and finished 182-163-12.

Davis was installed as the 15th head coach in Wisconsin history on March 4, 1994, after serving as the program's interim head coach for the 1993-94 season. In his 18 seasons leading the Badgers, Davis has firmly instilled his values of commitment, intensity, loyalty and energy on the UW program.

During his tenure, Davis has coached seven individuals to 11 Big Ten titles, including the latest, Andrew Howe, who captured the 165 lbs. title as a true freshman in 2009. Howe is the only true freshman during Davis's tenure to win a Big Ten title. Davis also coached Donny Pritzlaff (165 pounds, 1999, 2000, '01), Keith Davison (190 pounds, 1994), Matt Hanutke (118 pounds, 1994), Eric Jetton (126 pounds, 1997, '98) and Kevin Wilmot (167 pounds, 1997) Tom Clum (125 pounds in 2004 and 133 pounds in 2006) to conference championships.

Additionally, 21 of Davis' wrestlers have earned All-America honors while two have claimed NCAA titles. Pritzlaff won back-to-back national championships in 2000 and 2001 and Jeff Walter won the 1996 heavyweight title. Sixty-two wrestlers have qualified for the NCAA championships under Davis' direction, including current Badgers Tyler Graff, Jackson Hein, Connor Medbery and Cole Tobin.

CHAMPIONSHIP MENTALITY

As a collegian at the University of Iowa, Davis was the winningest wrestler at the winningest program at the university level. Davis graduated in 1985 with a career record of 162-9-1 (.945). He still holds school records for wins in a season (46 in 1982) and career wins (162) and is fourth in career-winning percentage. For his accomplishments, Davis was inducted into the National Iowa Varsity Club Athletic Hall of Fame in September of 1998.

Davis competed at 118 pounds in 1981-82, at 126 pounds in both the 1982-83 and 1984-85 seasons, and was a redshirt during the 1983-84 season to compete in the Olympics. He dominated the Big Ten, becoming one of only nine wrestlers in history to win four league titles.

The Iowa teams on which he competed were equally dominant, winning Big Ten championships in each of Davis' four years. The 1983 Iowa team had an unprecedented nine Big Ten titlists. After his senior season, Davis was honored as the Big Ten's Athlete of the Year, one of only two wrestlers to win the prestigious award.

On the national level, Davis was a four-time All-American and a three-time NCAA champion. After placing seventh as a freshman, Davis won national titles in 1982, 1983 and 1985. Iowa won NCAA team titles all four years that Davis competed. Following the 1985 NCAA Championships, Davis was named Outstanding Wrestler of the Tournament.

THE NEXT LEVEL

Taking a year off from collegiate competition paid off for the senior-to-be when he earned a silver medal (125.5 pounds) at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Davis was also a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic team that competed in Seoul, South Korea. He attempted to make his third Olympic team in 1992, but was eliminated at the U.S. Trials. Davis was also runner-up at the 1987 World Championships after winning the Olympic Sports Festival.

COACH DAVIS' BEGINNING

A 1985 graduate of the University of Iowa, Davis began his coaching career as a graduate assistant to legendary head coach Dan Gable from 1986-87. Davis was an assistant coach at Iowa from 1988-92, helping guide the Hawkeyes to four top-six finishes, including NCAA championships in 1991 and 1992. He coached former UW assistant coach Bart Chelesvig from 1987-92.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he captured three state titles and posted a 102-6-1 career record at Prairie High School, Davis was born on Sept. 17, 1961. He married the former Nan Doak in 1986. Nan is a former NCAA champion long distance runner at Iowa and was an alternate on the 1988 United States Olympic team (10,000 meters). Barry and Nan are the parents of two daughters, Amanda and Amy and the Davis family currently resides in Madison.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"I would like to commend Barry Davis for his relentless pursuit of serving, promoting, and protecting the sport of amateur wrestling. He has been extremely supportive of many National Wrestling Coaches Association initiatives that have positioned amateur wrestling to thrive in this new Millennium."

-Mike Moyer, National Wrestling Coaches Association

"What I like about Barry is he has a quiet intensity. I've never met anyone that appears to have as much energy as him. I believe Barry Davis and Wisconsin can win a national championship together."

-Pat Christenson, former UW NCAA champion
