WHAT'S NEW

The Milwaukee men's basketball team plays its final game of the non-conference portion of the season Saturday, traveling west on I-94 to battle in-state rival Wisconsin. LOOKING AT THE BADGERS

Wisconsin returns six of its top eight scorers from a 2019 NCAA Tournament team that went 23-11 last winter, falling to Oregon in the postseason. A total of 61.9 percent (1,443 of 2,333 points) of 2018-19 scoring is back, led by returning starters Brad Davison, Nate Reuvers and D'Mitrik Trice. The team was tabbed sixth in the Big Ten media poll.

The Badgers are 5-5 in 2019-20, entering play Saturday having dropped four of their past five, including a 72-65 loss at Rutgers in their most recent game Dec. 11. Three players average double-figures, led by Reuvers at 14.5 ppg. He also paces the team in rebounds (5.2 rpg). Kobe King (12.8 ppg) and Allem Ford (10.3 ppg) join the list of double-figure scorers, with Davison just behind (9.9 ppg).

SERIES HISTORY

This is the 35th all-time meeting between the Panthers and Badgers (dating all the way back to 1901), but one that Wisconsin has dominated to the tune of a 32-2 lead. Milwaukee did make a recent meeting memorable, coming into the Kohl Center to clip a Badger squad that had gone 91-3 (.968) against its last 94 unranked non-conference foes on December 9 of 2015. Milwaukee claimed a 68-67 win that night (snapping a 22-game skid that dated to 1992), its first victory against a Big Ten foe since January 26, 2005, when they knocked off Purdue, 73-68 in West Lafayette, Ind. (They would add a win over Minnesota just 14 days later in 2015-16). Milwaukee is 12-50 (.194) all-time versus current members of the Big Ten Conference, with seven of those wins coming versus Northwestern.

UP NEXT

The Panthers take a short break for the holidays, starting back up again with the first Horizon League games of the season. That two-game road trip start with a visit to Northern Kentucky Dec. 28.

Head Coach Pat Baldwin

Third Season Northwestern, 1994

Patrick Baldwin was named head coach of the Milwaukee men's basketball team on June 20, 2017. In his first season on the bench, he led the Panthers to 16 victories, an improvement of five wins over the prior season while also finishing four spots higher in the final Horizon League regular season standings.

Included in that record was an impressive 17-point (73-56) victory over a Loyola Chicago team that finished the season ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll, advanced to the Final Four and posted 32 wins including contests over No. 5 Florida, No. 13 Tennessee, No. 22 Miami and No. 24 Nevada. MKE also handed Iowa State its first loss in a home opener in 20 years when it upended the Cyclones, 74-56, in Baldwin's second official game as head coach.

In the classroom, the team was honored as part of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) Public Recognition Awards for outstanding academic achievement. Milwaukee was one of just 35 men's basketball programs recognized nationwide and the only member of the Horizon League on the list after posting a perfect 1,000 four-year rate. The program achieved the same distinction in May 2019 for this past school year.

Five different school records were set over the course of the campaign, with Milwaukee advancing to the semifinals at Motor City Madness - the only league school to advance that far in each of the past two seasons.

Baldwin joined Milwaukee from Northwestern University and became the seventh head coach since Milwaukee's 1990 move to NCAA Division I.

Baldwin spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Northwestern, helping rebuild his alma mater into a force in the Big Ten. A key member of the Northwestern coaching staff under head coach Chris Collins, Baldwin saw the Wildcats increase their win total in each of his four years there.

That culminated in the 2016-17 season with a school-record 24 victories and the first NCAA tournament berth in school history. NU's campaign also included 10 wins in Big Ten play for the first time since the 1930s. That followed what was a school-record 20 wins during the 2015-16 campaign.

As an assistant coach at NU, where he worked primarily with the guards, Baldwin helped the Wildcats land recruiting classes ranked in the nation's top 30.

Baldwin, a 1994 graduate of Northwestern, was one of the top players in school history. He still stands among the top 20 scorers, was a three-time team captain, graduated as the school's all-time leader in steals and assists, and was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Baldwin played professionally in Bosnia and Croatia before joining the coaching ranks. He has valuable firsthand experience in the Horizon League, beginning with two seasons as an assistant at UW-Green Bay before a seven-year stop at Loyola Chicago, where he finished as the associate head coach. Prior to arriving at Northwestern, he spent two seasons at Missouri State, where he recruited Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Marcus Marshall.

A native of Leavenworth, Kansas, Baldwin got his coaching start during the 2001-02 season at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri.

Baldwin was a standout player for Northwestern from 1990-94. He still ranks first in school history with 272 career steals, second all-time with 452 assists and 20th with 1,189 points. His 90 steals as a freshman in 1990-91 are the school's single-season record, while his 154 assists as a senior in 1993-94 rank third in school history.

Patrick and Shawn (née Karey - herself a former Northwestern volleyball player) have four children: Patrick, Tatum, Brooke and Claire.

LAST GAME

Milwaukee cut a 20-point first-half deficit down to just one in the final minute, but Eastern Illinois went 6-for-6 from the line over the final 15.8 seconds to escape with the 75-68 victory Dec. 14 at UWM Panther Arena.

The Panthers (5-6) had the chance to draw even with the visiting Panthers (6-4) with just under three minutes remaining. Darius Roy hit back-to-back 3's in the final minute to draw within one at 69-68, only to see EIU seal the win from the free throw line the rest of the way.

Roy led the way with 24 points, adding three rebounds and four steals. Josh Thomas finished with 13 points and a team-best eight rebounds. Te'Jon Lucas chipped in 11 points, five assists and four rebounds.

SHINING ON THE BIG STAGE

With a sellout crowd of 16,300 in attendance at historic Phog Allen Fieldhouse, Darius Roy gave a second-ranked Kansas squad one of his best efforts Dec. 10. He poured in a game-high 25 points on 9-of-16 shooting, adding 4 rebounds and 3 assists. The 25-point effort marked the third-most for Roy in his career, trailing only 29 and 27-point games.

PANTHERS AND THE POLLS

Milwaukee was attempting to earn its first victory over a nationally ranked opponent since a 63-60 decision against No. 21 Butler on February 18, 2009 when it took on No. 2/3 Kansas Dec. 10. The Panthers actually outscored the Jayhawks, 51-42, from the 6-minute mark of the first half until the final media timeout of the contest. However, the early deficit was just too much to overcome.

Wins over ranked teams include Milwaukee beating 21st-ranked Alabama and 14th-ranked Boston College in 2005 and 24th-ranked Oklahoma in 2006. The Panthers do also own a win at Butler in 2001-02 when the Bulldogs were ranked 25th in the ESPN/USA Today poll but were not ranked by the AP. Their record all-time now checks in at 4-45, with the victory over BC at #14 the biggest upset. Milwaukee has played the No. 1 team in the country just once - when it took on Illinois in the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament in 2005. The next-highest was Kansas at No. 2 back in 2004-05.

JUST CALL HIM "TB3"

Tyler Behrendt provided quite a spark off the bench against Drake Dec. 3. Foul trouble for MKE provided the opportunity and Behrendt was up to the task. He swished his first three-pointer to stop a 7-0 Bulldog spurt and buried another three minutes later to put Milwaukee up 43-38. His layup and free throw with just under six minutes left also had the Panthers in front at 49-47. All told, he finished with a career-high 9 points (in just 10 minutes), topping the 8 he had against WLC earlier this season. For the year, the sharpshooter is now averaging a career-best 4.0 ppg and has still not missed from three-point range (5-for-5). He has 20 total points in just 37 minutes.

HE DID IT AGAIN

Te'Jon Lucas put together another brilliant outing against Morgan State Nov. 23, setting a new career-high with 26 points while also grabbing a team-best 7 rebounds. He was at his best when it mattered the most, scoring nine straight by himself to turn a 47-46 MKE advantage into a 56-49 lead to take control of the contest. His 26 points topped the 23 he netted against Western Michigan Nov. 9. He used 5 three-pointers to power the day, also setting a new career-high in that category - easily eclipsing his prior best of three triples in a game.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

The balance of the MKE offense has been on display so far this season, with the team finishing with at least four players in double-figures in five of 11 games - with the list getting to five with 10-plus against both North Dakota Nov. 19 and Wisconsin Lutheran Nov. 12. In addition, four different players have already been the leading scorer to this point. For comparison, the team had 10 games (of 31) a year ago in which at least four players finished in double-figures. Six different players went down as the team's high scorer over the course of the season.

WELCOME TO CREAM CITY

Grant Coleman, Donovan Newby and Kaleim Taylor of Milwaukee, Wis., have all signed their National Letters of Intent to play next season for the Milwaukee men's basketball team.

Coleman, a 6-foot, 7-inch senior at Mahomet-Seymour High School, is coming off a very impressive junior campaign where he was named First-Team All-Apollo Conference after averaging over 20 points a game. Newby, a 6-foot, 1-inch guard from Bloom High School, was a key piece of a ranked Blazing Trojans squad that finished 26-4 before falling in the sectional semifinals. Newby, who plays AAU for the Illinois Wolves, is among the City/Suburban Hoops Report's Top 25 prospects in the class and averaged double-figures as a junior. Taylor, a 6-foot, 3-inch guard at Milwaukee Academy of Sciences, enjoyed a breakout season as a junior. He improved his rebounding from 5.8 per game to 10.5 while also setting career-highs with his 22.7 point and 5.5 assists per-game averages. He was named Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Fourth-Team All-Area.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Some fun facts about Te'Jon Lucas' stat-line against Kansas City Nov. 15, which included a double-double of 15 points and 10 rebounds, as well as a near-triple double with seven boards.

*The 10 assists were a career-high, topping the former high-water mark of 8 that he had reached on three prior occasions.

*It marked the first game of 10-plus assists for a Panther since Jordan Johnson's school-record 15 against UIC back in February of 2016 - a span of 104 games.

*If Lucas would have pulled off the triple-double, it would have been the fifth in school history and the first since Johnson went for 10 pts/10 asst/10 reb against Youngstown State on February 22, 2016.

RUN & GUN

It has been a solid start to the season for the offense, which comes into play against Eastern Illinois fourth in the Horizon League with its 73.5 ppg scoring average. The two games against Western Michigan Nov. 9 and Wisconsin Lutheran Nov. 12 were actually unprecedented, seeing Milwaukee top 100 points in back-to-back games for the first time in the NCAA Division I era (since 1990-91). The last time the Panthers put up consecutive games above 100 points was back in January of 1989, topping SIUE (101-89) and Lakeland (125-79). That 1988-89 team also put together a stretch of three in a row in mid-February.

WINNING BIG

The Panthers put on quite an offensive show against Wisconsin Lutheran Nov. 12, putting new entries into the record book for biggest halftime lead as well as final winning margin. MKE grabbed a 50-19 lead at the break in the 103-53 decision.

HALFTIME

1. 39 against Mount Senario (50-11) on Dec. 27, 2000.
2. 33 against Prairie View A&M (53-23) on Nov. 20, 2004
3. 31 against WLC (50-19)

WINNING MARGIN

1. 79: Mount Senario (100-21)
2. 62: Prairie View A&M (117-55)
3. 52: Sacramento State (96-44) 1/23/93
4. 51: Judson (125-74) 12/13/15
5. 50 against WLC (103-53)

TE'JON OFF AND RUNNING

After a season sitting out due to NCAA transfer regulations, the much-awaited debut of Milwaukee-native Te'Jon Lucas certainly met expectations. He led the team with 19 points against Concordia Wisconsin Nov. 5, easily eclipsing his former high of 14 set against both Northwestern (12/1/17) and New Mexico State (12/16/17). His seven rebounds also tied his career-high first established against Longwood (12/13/17). In addition, he just missed new marks with 7 assists (career-best is 8, twice) and minutes with 34 (just off his collegiate high of 35).

One game later, he raised the bar again, scoring all 23 of his points in the second half to help Milwaukee erase what was a 15-point deficit to get the contest to overtime against Western Michigan Nov. 9. He set (and reset) career-highs with the 23 points, the 9 rebounds (was 7) three made 3's, 8 made free throws (was 7) and 45 minutes played (was 35). It also marked just the eighth time since 2005 that a Panther netted 20-or-more points in a single half of play.

OT MADNESS

If a triple overtime game for the Panthers sounds unusual, it's because it is. It's just the second game in the 121-year history of the program to get past a second overtime. The only one longer happened in January of 2001, a four-overtime thriller that saw UIC edge MKE, 112-106. In all, just 12 games have even made it to double-overtime, a number that represents just .005 percent of the over 2,655 games played since program's inception.

MINUTES MONSTERS

With it being just the second-ever game to even get past double-overtime in program history, one of the most obvious records did get broken. The new mark for minutes played in a game belongs to Darius Roy, who logged 52 of the 55 on the evening. The former mark of 47 - held by three players (most recently Brock Stull in 2016) - was also eclipsed by Josh Thomas, who ended the night with 51. Most amazing part for Roy? He wasn't even in the starting lineup against the Broncos.

POINTS PALOOZA

The Panthers lit up the scoreboard against Western Michigan Nov. 9, eventually seeing their point total land at 110, the fifth-most points scored in a game in program history. The record? The 125 that Milwaukee put up against Judson back in December of 2015. The teams also combined for the most in a game in program history, with the 225 topping the 218 scored in a game between MKE (106) and UIC (112) in that four-OT epic back in January of 2001.

WHY STOP THERE

More school standards were threatened against the Broncos Nov. 9, starting with personal fouls. The Panthers had six players foul out of the contest - the most ever, including four starters - and ended up with 42 total fouls. The former mark was essentially shattered, topping the 37 that Milwaukee and UIC recorded back on January 11, 2001. Other marks that came close included the 85 field goal attempts, which comes in third all-time behind the top mark of 97 (against Illinois in 1990) and 86 (against Oshkosh in 1991). Free throw attempts were given a run, with the 51 tries from the charity stripe now sitting third behind 54 against UIC (2001) and 52 against Cleveland State (2000). In addition, the 54 rebounds now ranks sixth on the list, with the record of 59 established against Loyola Chicago in 2009.

TOP THAT

Darius Roy made quite the season debut against Western Michigan Nov. 9, pouring in a career-high 29 points to edge out his former best of 27 against LIU Brooklyn last year. He added 8 rebounds, 5 assists and 2 steals, coming in that program record 52 minutes on the court. In addition, his 10 made FG's also eclipsed his former best of 7, which he did twice last year.

C.J. SEEING HIS NAME IN LIGHTS

C.J. Wilbourn was a member of the starting lineup in the season opener against Concordia Wisconsin Nov. 5, a big moment for the freshman. It marks just the third time a frosh has been a starter in a season opener in the past decade for the Panthers, joining August Haas (against MSOE, 11/11/16) and Thierno Niang (against Mary, 11/9/12).

JUNIORS IN EVERY CLASS

In a unique first for the program, the roster now consists of four different student-athletes to carry the suffix "Jr." following their last name. The list includes senior Bobby Arthur-Williams, Jr., sophomore Jamar Madge, Jr., freshman Courtney Brown, Jr., and transfer Vin Baker, Jr., who all have the honor to carry on their father's first names.

IT BEING IT

Junior newcomer Josh Thomas made quite the splash in his Milwaukee debut against Concordia Wisconsin Nov. 5, finishing second on the squad with an 18-point night in his first game in a Panther uniform. He also led the team with 8 rebounds and added a pair of assists in 35 minutes on the court.

AND WE'RE OFF

A couple of different looks to the season opener, which saw Milwaukee playing its opening game of the season at the UWM Panther Arena for the third time in four years after not doing so since a win over SW Minnesota State to kick off the 2011-12 campaign. The team is now 18-12 in season openers since returning to the NCAA Division I ranks full-time in 1990-91, which includes the 72-62 victory over Concordia Wisconsin to start the 2019-20 slate. More impressively, the team is now 25-5 in that same span in home openers, claiming wins in 18 of the past 20 (13 in a row at one point). Also, the Panthers have not lost the season opener when it was played at home since dropping an 80-79 decision to Platteville in November of 1994 (have won the previous 12 in that scenario).

WELCOME TO THE CLUB

The Panthers start the season with one of the largest rosters they have had in recent memory, with 18 players currently on the squad. It's an interesting mix of newcomers and returners, led by a graduating class of five student-athletes. Darius Roy, Bobby Arthur-Williams and Wil Sessoms are fourth-year seniors, DeAndre Abram is a redshirt senior and newcomer Lincoln Wieseman is a graduate transfer with immediate eligibility for the Panthers.

A trio of student-athletes are eligible this season after redshirt campaigns. Milwaukee gets to see Te'Jon Lucas (Jr.), Harrison Henderson (Jr.) and Shae Mitchell (R-Fr.) compete for the first time as Panthers this winter. The team also welcomes junior-college transfers Josh Thomas and Arturro Bingham as well as a group of four true freshmen: C.J. Wilbourn, Courtney Brown, Jr., Tyler Ellingson and Ryan Waddell.

PUT A RIBBON ON IT

The Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook ranked the Panthers No. 7 in its preseason poll, but also selected a familiar name for its "Newcomer of the Year" - they tabbed Te'Jon Lucas for the potential honor.

Lucas has had a long-awaited debut for the Panthers following two seasons at Illinois. While in the Big Ten, he averaged 5.7 points, 2.2 rebounds and 3.2 assists in 29 games as a sophomore, making 19 starts over the course the season. He shot 47.8 percent (64-of-134) from the field, leading the Illini in assists-per-game. The No. 138 prospect in the Class of 2016 according to the Composite Ranking, the former Milwaukee Washington High School standout averaged 20.5 points, 5.3 rebounds, 7.8 assists and 2.8 steals per game his last prep season, earning unanimous Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association First-Team D2 All-State honors despite having his final season cut short with a leg injury. The runner-up for Mr. Basketball chose Illinois over offers from USC, Purdue and Old Dominion while also being recruited by Michigan.

SOLID FOUNDATION

Darius Roy was a welcome addition to the Milwaukee roster a season ago, leading the team with a scoring average of 15.8 points that finished eighth in the Horizon League. He led the team in scoring a team-high 16 times - including the first three games of the season. He topped the 20-point plateau a team-best seven times, which topped out with his 27 points against LIU Brooklyn Nov. 20. He shot 44.9 percent from the field, 40.5 percent from three-point range and 84.3 percent from the line, while adding 4.1 rebounds per game and a team-high 118 assists.

POINTS AND BOARDS

DeAndre Abram is coming off an impressive first season with the Panthers and heads into the 2019-20 season as one of just five returning Horizon League players to rank in the Top 20 in both points and rebounds a year ago. Abram averaged 12.1 points (19th in the conference) and 6.9 rebounds (fifth in the league) while also recording a team-best six double-doubles.

He also starts the season at 619 points in his collegiate career. With a similar season in scoring average, Abram will be on pace to collect his 1,000th point before the conclusion of the campaign.

CLOSE ONLY COUNTS IN HORSESHOES

It was a frustrating stretch run for the Panthers to close out last season, but one look at the box scores shows just how close it had been over the final month: Milwaukee held second-half leads in eight of the final 11 games, including each of the final four of the campaign.

MAKING THE FREE ONES COUNT

The Panthers were one of the better free throw shooting teams in the country last winter. Despite cooling down the stretch, the team still led the Horizon League with its .746 clip, connecting on 379-of-508 charity stripe tosses to finish second in school history - trailing only the school-record .772 (554-of-718) set back in the 2015-16 campaign. Milwaukee topped out nationally at No. 8 mid-season, finishing the winter at No. 42 for free throws at the NCAA DI level.

Among the individual Horizon League leaders, team-leader Vance Johnson (.860) would finish first, while Darius Roy (.843) was close behind in fifth place. Jake Wright hit on 34-of-36 (.944), but did not have enough attempts to qualify for the leader board.

CHASING DOWN THE RECORD

With that in mind, the season record for free-throw percentage was given a run by a trio of Panthers during the 2018-19 season. That record is currently the 87.0 percent (40-of-46) that Pat East-erlin connected on back in the 1993-94 campaign. Both Johnson and Roy would go on to crack the Top 10, with Wright coming up just short on enough attempts to qualify.

- 3. Vance Johnson: .860 (80-of-93)
- 8. Darius Roy: .843 (86-of-102)

BARELY A MISS

Darius Roy put together an impressive shooting display against IUPUI Jan. 19 of last season, with his 9-of-11 showing from the floor (.818) overall just missing the record book (10 makes is the minimum for inclusion). That showing came close to a Top-5 mark, and also included a 4-for-4 effort from the free throw line and a perfect 3-for-3 effort from three-point range. His 25 points tied for the second-most in his career (his high finished at 27), marking his fifth 20-point showing of the year.

IT WAS DRE'S DAY

The 31 points DeAndre Abram poured in against Detroit Mercy Jan. 12 last season not only marked a career high, but was also the first game of 30-or-more points scored by a Panther since Jeremiah Bell netted 31 - also against the Titans - in the Horizon League Tournament back on March 3, 2017. That marked a span of 55 games, as Abram went 12-of-19 from the floor, tying a career-high with 6 made 3's while also adding a team-best 7 boards. That topped his former high-water mark of 27 points, which came against Wagner in December of 2015.

GETTING SOME TV TIME

The Milwaukee Athletic Department will continue its partnership with My24 Sports to air games during the 2019-20 Milwaukee basketball season.

IT'S "MILWAUKEE"

- A lot has been made of the correct way to talk about the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, especially in the area of collegiate athletics. It would be appreciated if you would refer to the athletics teams as "Milwaukee". Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

- Milwaukee Athletics is continuing to make the effort to brand itself as "Milwaukee" instead of other references. Please avoid UW-Milwaukee, UW-M, Wisc.-Mil, UWMIL, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, etc.

- "MKE" is preferred for athletics. "University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee" can be used as a first reference of the school and "UWM" is also acceptable.

We certainly appreciate your assistance with this effort in advance.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

Former Milwaukee forward Demetrius Harris (2011-13) is once again on the active roster in the National Football League, now playing with the Cleveland Browns following five seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. An undrafted free agent to start his career, he has caught 14 passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns this season, making five starts in 13 appearances. Coming into 2019, Harris had caught 57 passes for 605 yards, including six touchdowns. The first Panther to play in the NFL since 1983, Harris played two seasons at Milwaukee and helped the team to a College Basketball Invitational appearance in 2012 before putting up 9.1 ppg and 5.3 rpg in 2012-13. The 6-foot-7 Harris made his NFL debut when he appeared in eight games as a tight end for the Chiefs in 2014 and hauled in three passes for 20 yards before suffering a season-ending foot injury during warm-ups against Buffalo in early November.

IT'S OUR HOUSE

Although the building is not new and has been the site to many historic basketball moments in Milwaukee history, this is Milwaukee's sixth season in an arena that bears its name - UW-Milwaukee Panther Arena. In July of 2014, the University and Wisconsin Center District entered into a 10-year partnership that included naming rights to the facility formerly known as The MECCA and U.S. Cellular Arena.
