Wisconsin student-athletes have an addition to their uniforms across all sports during the 2020-21 season

— the school's iconic crest logo with the central "W" changed from its traditional white to black.

An initiative started by Wisconsin's student-athletes of color, the Black Crest is displayed in a show of solidarity between UW's student-athletes and the athletic department as well as minority students across campus. The Black Crest also symbolizes student-athletes' efforts to enhance the campus experience for all students of color by providing additional resources and creating a platform for their voices to be heard.

Among the initiatives of recent months:

- An on-campus rally for unity and equality organized by student-athletes in September Senior forward Aleem Ford, pictured above, was a key leader of this event.
- Creation of an Equity & Diversity Council made up of alumni that is built to assist with UW Athletics' Diversity and Inclusion Strategic Plan
- Big Ten voter registration initiative featuring educational outreach for all Badgers teams is closing in on 100 percent registration rate across population of 800-plus student-athletes
- Partnering with 100 Black Men of Madison to raise funds for technical solutions to assure 3,000 limited-income families have academic success in the current virtual school setting

A coaching veteran of 30 years, Greg Gard will enter his sixth season atop the Wisconsin men's basketball program in 2020-21 after proving himself as one of the best head coaches in the Big Ten. Gard earned 2020 Big Ten Coach of the Year honors after leading the Badgers to the regular season conference championship last season.

Wisconsin's incredible postseason success hasn't wavered on Gard's watch either, participating in the NCAA tournament in three of his first four seasons and earning the Big Ten's automatic qualifier status in the canceled 2020 Big Dance. Gard's postseason ledger includes a pair of Sweet 16 appearances in each of his first two seasons at the helm.

In just five seasons as head coach, Gard has posted a record of 101-57, becoming the second-fastest (157 games) Wisconsin coach to 100 overall wins in the NCAA tournament era. He has also guided the Badgers to a conference record of 59-35, and his .628 conference win percentage ranks sixth among Big Ten coaches of the last 40 years.

After initially taking over on an interim basis midway through the 2015-16 season, Gard would go on to win the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award that season and was officially named head coach of the Badgers on March 7, 2016. Through five seasons, Gard has already risen to fifth on the school's all-time wins list and owns the third-best win percentage at UW.

Gard's most recent season leading the Badgers might have been his best. After opening the season 5-5 overall and then 5-5 in the Big Ten, Wisconsin won nine of its last 10 games, including its final eight games of the season to win a share of the 2020 conference title and claim the No. 1 seed for the later canceled Big Ten tournament. During that run, UW knocked off No. 14 Michigan State, won at No. 19 Michigan and closed the season with a win at Indiana to clinch the title.

In his inaugural season as head coach, Gard led the Badgers to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, becoming just the second-ever first-year coach to win the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. He followed that up by leading UW to the fifth-highest single-season win total in school history (27-10) and making a second-consecutive visit to the Sweet 16.

Gard is just the third coach in the last 20 years to pilot his team to the Sweet 16 in each of his first two seasons, joining UCLA's Steve Lavin (1996-97) and Gonzaga's Mark Few (2000-01).

Gard's Badgers would follow that up with another

12-6 conference campaign in 2017, finishing second in both the regular season and the Big Ten tournament. Wisconsin would cap off its 27-win season with a signature win in the NCAA tournament, knocking off the nation's No. 1 team Villanova, 65-62, to advance to the Sweet 16.

In 2018-19, Gard piloted the Badgers back to the Big Dance, posting a 23-11 overall record. Wisconsin also boasted a mark of 14-6 in Big Ten play, winning 14 conference games for just the 3rd time in school history, joining 16-win seasons in 2008 and 2015.

In 19 total seasons on the Badgers' bench, Gard has seen the Badgers finish lower than fourth in the Big Ten standings just once while amassing a combined mark of 231-103 (.692) in league play.

During his tenure as head coach, Gard has helped a pair of players reach first-team All-Big Ten status: Nigel Hayes earned the nod in 2016 and third-team All-American Ethan Happ received the distinction in both 2017, 2018 and 2019.

Long considered one of the top assistant coaches in the game, Gard served as an assistant at Wisconsin for 14-plus seasons, including the final seven as the associate head coach. During that time, Gard served as the Badgers' recruiting coordinator in addition to on-floor coaching duties, opponent scouting and game preparation, and the constructing of future game schedules. He was also the director of the Badger Boys Basketball Summer Camps.

Gard helped guide the Badgers to back-to-back Final Fours in 2014 and 2015, and in 2015 UW reached its first national championship game since 1941. UW shattered the school's single-season wins record (36) in 2015, becoming one of just 10 teams with at least 36 wins in DI history. In 2014, UW finished 30-8 and won at least 30 games for just the third time in school history.

In fact, Gard has been on the bench for each of the top 13 winningest seasons at Wisconsin.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin in 2001, Gard spent the previous two seasons as Ryan's assistant at UW-Milwaukee. Previously, Gard served as an assistant coach to Ryan at UW-Platteville from 1993-99. During Gard's years on the Pioneer staff, UW-Platteville compiled a 161-13 (.925) record and won three NCAA Division III titles, five straight Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) championships and appeared in six consecutive NCAA tournaments.
