Since 2001-02, Wisconsin owns a 273-39 record at the venue. UW is the only team to clinch a top-four finish in the Big Ten in 17 of the last 18 seasons. The Badgers rank fifth nationally in fewest turnovers (10.3) and 17th in scoring defense (61.9). Myles Mack scored 21 points and Kadeem Jack added 20 points to deal UW one of four losses during its national finalist campaign.

Forget Quad 1, Rutgers men's basketball is playing 90% of its Big Ten games away from the RAC in Quad 1/3. Quadrant 1 is defined as games with an opponent NCAA NET ranking of 30 or better at home, 50 or better at a neutral site, and 75 or better on the road. The Scarlet Knights are one of three teams nationally (Michigan State, Maryland) with all their remaining games designated as Quadrant 1 opportunities.

On the road in conference, other than Rutgers' game at Nebraska, the nine games are against opponents with Net rankings of 33 or lower. Collectively, the teams boast an average NCAA Net score of 23.5, placing them in the top third of the Quad 1 road game parameters. Including Nebraska, the average NET of RU's Big Ten opponents on the road is 39.5.

PACK THE RAC

The Scarlet Knights have sold-out a program-record 10 games this season at the RAC. RU has hosted capacity crowds versus No. 22 Seton Hall (Dec. 14), No. 20 Penn State (Jan. 7), Indiana (Jan. 15), Minnesota (Jan. 19), Nebraska (Jan. 25), Purdue (Jan. 28), Northwestern (Feb. 9), Illinois (Feb. 15) and Michigan (Feb. 19), as well as the Senior Knight game against Maryland (March 3). Rutgers streak of nine consecutive sold-out games is also a program record. Last season, RU had five sell-outs, its most since 2004-05 (7). The RAC has been sold-out 17 times in the past three seasons. The prior 17 sell-outs spanned 11 seasons, from 2004-05 to 2014-15.

TRAPEZOID OF TERROR

Rutgers began the home season with a nation's best 17 wins at The RAC prior to a loss to Michigan. The mark signaled RU's best home start to a season. The 1975-76 Final Four team boasted an undefeated regular season, but played only 10 home games at the College Avenue Gym. The most home wins prior to this season was also 17 (17-1) in 1977-78, the season the RAC opened. The 17 home wins remain the most in the nation. South Dakota State, Gonzaga and Maryland each have 15.

BUILDING A RESUME

Rutgers has a strong resume in the NCAA metrics, at 35th in the NET. RU has done so via seven wins versus Quad 1 + Quad 2 opponents, defeating Seton Hall (16), Penn State (25), Wisconsin (29), Purdue (32), Illinois (33), Minnesota (54) and Indiana (59). The Scarlet Knights are one of three teams nationally (Michigan State, Maryland) with all their remaining games designated as Quadrant 1 opportunities.

BUILT ON DEFENSE

Rutgers has built a legacy of tough defense under head coach Steve Pikiell. After Pikiell inherited a team that ranked 236th the season prior in Ken Pom's adjusted defense metric, he raised that number 166 spots the following season. RU has rated among the top-50 in the nation ever since. Currently, the program ranks 9th nationally in adjusted defense. Rutgers ranks first in the Big Ten in scoring defense (61.7), and second in field goal percentage defense (37.9) and rebounding (40.5). Five of the seven lowest ever field goal percentages against RU in Big Ten play have come this season.

HISTORIC START

As this season has progressed, the Scarlet Knight have eclipsed some historic markers for success along the way.

- Earned first national ranking in 41 years, since concluding 1978-79 No. 18 in the AP Poll.
- 17-0 home start was best in the nation and tops in program history.
- 17 home wins ties for the most (17-1; 1977-78) in a season in program history.
- Has sold-out 10 home games at the RAC, the most in program history.
- 12-3 start was its best through 15 games since the 1975-76 undefeated regular season.
- Held opponents to 65 points or fewer in nine straight games, RU's longest stretch in 70 years, since 1949-50 season.
- Opened conference play 3-1 for the first time since 1994-95 (4-1) as a member of the Atlantic 10.
- Four games over .500 in conference play (7-3) for the first time in 21 years, since the 1998-99 Big East campaign (9-5).
- Defeated three ranked teams, its most ranked wins since 2001-02 (4).
- Defeated three ranked teams by double digits for the first time in school history.
- Clinched its first winning season since 2005-06 (19-14).
- Earned nine conference wins for the first time since 1998-99 (9-9; Big East).

- Earned its largest comeback victory in 24 years, overcoming an 18-point deficit to defeat Northwestern at the RAC on Feb. 9.
- Have earned multiple ranked wins in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2001-02 and 2002-03 campaigns.

GIVING BACK

A commitment to the community has been emblematic of Rutgers basketball under Steve Pikiell, with all student-athletes participating in Leadership Development and Strategic Partnerships community service initiatives. The team participated in the annual Tunnel to Towers 5K Run & Walk on Sept. 29 for the third consecutive year. The team has also volunteered at Elijah's Promise Soup Kitchen in New Brunswick, participated in the SAAC Holiday Toy Giveaway and visited children at RWJBarnabas Health facilities around the state.

PERFORMING IN THE CLASSROOM

Rutgers entered the spring semester with a team cumulative GPA of 3.04, an APR score of 984 (4th in the conference) and a GSR score of 82. In each of the past three semesters, over half of the roster earned GPAs of 3.0. This fall, 60% of the roster reached above a 3.0 for the semester, led by Akwasi Yeboah with a 3.667 semester GPA. Every student-athlete on the roster now holds a cumulative GPA above 2.50 and 53% of roster has cumulative GPA above 3.00. The team has continued to improve, as from the fall of 2018 to fall of 2019, the team's term GPA improved by 0.228 and the cumulative GPA improved 0.167

The program was recognized with two Dean's List honorees last spring (Joey Downes and Myles Johnson). Downes was named a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar for 2018-2019 and was recently inducted into Chi Alpha Sigma – the National Scholar Athlete Honor Society.

RUTGERS MOURNS PASSING OF ALUM DAVID STERN

David J. Stern, a Dean's List history student and a Henry Rutgers Scholar at Rutgers who became the National Basketball Association's longest-serving commissioner, passed away on Jan. 1 at the age of 77. A 1963 graduate of The State University of New Jersey who was inducted into the school's Hall of Distinguished Alumni in 1999 and served on its Board of Overseers, Stern was instrumental in the NBA's growth into a global powerhouse.

"We are all deeply saddened by the passing of Commissioner Stern," said Director of Athletics Pat Hobbs. "We extend our deepest sympathies to Dianne and his family. I will forever treasure his guidance and counsel, and his humor. He was a very proud Rutgers alum. His was a remarkable life." Rutgers before earning his law degree from Columbia University in 1966.

HOLDING FOES UNDER 40

In the shot clock era, Rutgers has held an opponent under 40 points nine times. Steve Pikiell has been the head coach in five(*) of those contests.

UTILIZING THE LATEST TRAINING TECHNOLOGIES

Assistant Athletics Director-Strength and Conditioning David VanDyke and Athletic trainer Rich Campbell have made a significant impact on the health and well-being of men's basketball student-athletes. In their initial three seasons, men's basketball players had been sidelined a total of 17 combined games due to injury. The Scarlet Knights had three total games missed among players in 2018-19, 11 in 2017-18 and three in 2016-17.

Rutgers strives to implement the latest technologies to benefit its programs and student-athletes. In that effort, men's basketball utilizes Sparta Science, Catapult, Polar Team Pro and GymAware. Sparta Science provides an objective measure of how players react to gravity with validated scientific assessments and provides evidence-based training prescriptions. Catapult replaces laboratory-based performance testing with microtechnology to obtain actionable data in real time regarding performance. Polar Team Pro provides real-time heart rate data to make objective decisions. GymAware is the gold standard Linear Positional Transducer (LPT with angle measurement) for measuring performance, implementing Velocity Based Training and monitoring power.

Before and after every season, men's basketball welcomes BAM (Basic Athletic Measurement) to the RAC to conduct player testing. A team of strength and conditioning coaches and technology professionals who utilize the most reliable methods and precise measuring tools, BAM has conducted the NBA Draft combine since 2009. Results are registered to a BAMScore™, a proprietary index for reliably measuring athletic performance, and placed in a requisite category. As a result, players receive the information necessary to gauge personal and professional aspirations.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

The 2019-20 season marks the 100th anniversary of the 1919-20 team, the first Rutgers basketball team to play in a postseason tournament. The team played in the National Amateur Athletic Union basketball tournament in Atlanta, the lone national postseason tournament at the time, and finished as runner-up. The squad was inducted into the Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame in October as part of the class of 2019.

MENTORING NBA PLAYERS

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT RUTGERS

- "I think Rutgers is a legitimate Big Ten title contender because they play great defense. The plethora of wings that Rutgers has gives them tremendous defensive balance. Offense sells tickets. Defense wins championships and defense can travel."
Stephen Bardo, BTN
- "Sold out crowd. Fans are bought in. Obviously, Coach Pikiell's doing a great job. Rutgers, they absolutely manhandled us on the offensive glass. Rutgers is big, they're a really big team, a physical team. They're one of the best defensive teams in the country."
Minnesota Head Coach Richard Pitino
- "Rutgers is a tremendous team. They've been great all season and they've been great in the Big Ten. They are a team that's never going to go away, that's just the culture that they have."
Luke Garza, Iowa Hawkeyes
- "Rutgers hasn't been to the tournament since 1991 and they're going to snap that streak. It's going to be a great story when they go to the tournament. The RAC is hopping."
Andy Katz, BTN
- "The RAC is a key ingredient. Rutgers plays as a team. It's a team-oriented defense."
Mike DeCourcy, BTN

- "They don't really have a superstar, but that's kind of the genius of it. They have seven players averaging between 6.5 and 12 points per game, you don't know who it's going to be on any given night and it makes them difficult to defend and fun to watch. It's turning into truly one of the great stories in college basketball."
Dave Revsine, BTN
- "Rutgers is a very good basketball team. I hope for Pikes that they make the tournament. It'd been great to see him punch his ticket. They have a good team and good depth, so that bodes well for them."
Penn State Head Coach Pat Chambers
- "I think by far this is the best atmosphere I've seen here. I really do. Steve Pikiell has done a phenomenal job here. Pat Hobbs has done a phenomenal job. But this is by far the best atmosphere I've seen it. It was a great atmosphere."
Seton Hall Head Coach Kevin Willard
- "The Scarlet Knights have become a thing in college basketball for the first time in a very long time. Pikiell has had to build his roster the hard way, not by out-recruiting his competitors so much as out-evaluating them. The resources for sustained success are now in place. They know they have a lot more room to rise."
Seth Davis, The Athletic
- "Breaking into the AP poll in year four is a huge accomplishment for Steve Pikiell, who is one of the nicest men in the industry. Just a kind and humble man. Coaches always talk about building it the right way, brick by brick, and here's an example of a guy really doing that."
Gary Parrish, CBS Sports
- "Steve Pikiell has already proved a lot of doubters wrong."
John Feinstein, Washington Post
- "Steve Pikiell, with his defensive approach, they are deep and they wear opponents out. They'll change defenses to give you different looks. The RAC has become one of the more difficult places to play in all of college basketball. That's really energized the program."
Steve Lavin, Fox Sports
- "The Rutgers rejuvenation has been one of college basketball's best stories this season"
Jay Bilas, ESPN
- "The growth of the Rutgers program under Steve Pikiell is paying off with the atmospheres they gotten at The RAC. They applaud how hard this program plays day in and day out."
Shon Morris, BTN
- "It's great to see them playing well. I'm looking forward to going to see them play in person. That's what makes this conference so great, is that we have so much depth top to bottom."
Kevin Warren, Big Ten Commissioner
- "If you expect to win on the road, you've got to be 10 points better. And The RAC is definitely a place like that. You have to be 10 points better than them to have a chance to beat them at the buzzer. Now the fans are great, they're right on top of you. But they've got to cheer a product. Steve Pikiell's worked and they've got a good product, they have good players. He's done a good job of getting some guys in here with some grit and toughness."
Purdue Head Coach Matt Painter
- "Steve Pikiell, the job he's done, they're ranked in the top-25. This is an elite defensive group. Their offense has gotten better every year. They've come such a long way under coach Pikiell. They've got great size. They can crush you on the glass. Rutgers has been terrific and Steve Pikiell deserves a lot of the credit for what they've done."
Robbie Hummell, BTN
- "Give a lot of credit to Steve Pikiell and this Rutgers program. It's a great environment. They're 17-0 at home and it's one of the loudest buildings we've seen all year. They have a great basketball team. Ron Harper Jr. was sensational. Geo Baker is the best closer in college basketball. He is a difference maker."
Illinois Head Coach Brad Underwood
- "Steve Pikiell didn't take shortcuts. He came in here; he has his philosophy of how he wants to play and the kind of players he wants to recruit. They've done a great job in evaluation. You look out there and there are a lot of guys who maybe by the star rankings and all of that, but they found guys that fit how they want to play and they've developed them. They've done a great job with that and now they're getting a lot of confidence. I sensed it with us when we did our build to get to the tournament. The difference from hoping you're going to win versus believing you're going to win and you see that in their kids' eyes, especially at home. This has been such a good home court for them, they've built this up. I've been a big fan of Steve (Pikiell), I've always been. He's a terrific coach and his kids play really hard. He's done a great job building this program."
Northwestern Head Coach Chris Collins
