SERIES INFORMATION

198th Meeting (98-99 all time)*

At Wisconsin: 34-61*

Minnesota vs. Big Ten: 782-874*

* - excludes vacated games

STARTING FIVE

• The University of Minnesota men's basketball team is back on the road Sunday for the first time since Jan. 12 when it travels to Madison, Wis., to face the No. 11 Wisconsin Badgers. The Golden Gophers are 98-99 all-time against the Badgers, including a 34-61 mark at Wisconsin. The two teams battled just once last season, also in Madison, Wis., where the Badgers won, 71-59.

• Minnesota went through the first 14 games with the same starting five. Since the last road trip (Michigan State, Jan. 12), Minnesota has experienced a couple different lineups due to COVID-19 protocols, injuries and illness. In fact, Minnesota had to postpone the Penn State (Jan. 19) game due to falling under the Big Ten rule of seven available scholarship athletes to compete. Eric Curry has missed the past two weeks with an injury, while the Gophers were without starters Jamison Battle and Elijah Stephens during the Rutgers game. After missing one game, Battle and Stephens returned to the lineup for OSU.

• A veteran group, the Gophers turn over the ball very few times, 15.9, which ranks first in the league and second nationally. The Gophers have had six games in which they committed five or fewer turnovers a game. Of the six games, four have come against Big Ten opponents in Michigan State, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio State.

• Payton Willis was named Co-Big Ten Player of the Week after his outstanding performance against Rutgers. His 32 points marked a new career high for the senior. Willis hit eight three-pointers in the game, which was a new career best and tied a program record. He finished the game 11-of-17, 8-of-13 from three (4-4 in the second half), had three rebounds, seven assists and a steal.

• Minnesota had one of its best shooting displays in the Rutgers win as the Gophers made 26-of-48 (.542) field goals, including a season-best 13-of-24 (.542) from three. It marked the sixth time the Gophers have shot 50 percent or better this season and second time from long-range. The Gophers had 13 threes and shot 54.2 percent, both season-highs. Last season, Minnesota failed to shoot 50 percent in any of its 29 games. Saturday's 54.2 percent overall and from three-point range were both season-bests in Big Ten play. The Gophers have shot better than 50 percent three times in conference games this season, including the past two.

- The temporary policy, which reflects the University's vaccination announcement made earlier, started on Wednesday, Jan. 26, 2022, and ends on Wednesday, Feb. 9, 2022. This policy may be extended, and Athletics will work with campus leadership to determine if an extension is needed.
- Any extension of this policy will be announced prior to Feb. 9. The COVID-19 vaccine requirement applies to all attendees age five and older. Minnesota's indoor mask / face covering mandate also remains in effect for all home athletic indoor events.

Not only did Willis reach his 1,000th career point, he also had 10 assists in the win, a career high. Willis was the first Gopher since 2020 to have a double-double in points (14) and assists (10).

CURRY SETTING CAREER BESTS

- This season, Eric Curry has set career best games in points (19 vs. Michigan State), field goals made and attempted (9-of-14 against MSU), rebounds (12 vs. Texas A&M CC) and tied career bests in assists. ROAD TESTED

- Minnesota is 3-2 on the road this season and 5-12 away from Williams Arena. The wins signified a few firsts: The Pitt win was Minnesota's first true road win since Feb. 23, 2020 (at Northwestern, 83-57). It also marked the first true non-conference road win since Nov. 13, 2017 at Providence.

SIGNING DAY

University of Minnesota head men's basketball coach Ben Johnson announced in November the addition of future Gophers Braeden Carrington, Joshua Ola-Joseph and Pharrel Payne. Each signed their National Letter of Intent to join the men's basketball program for the 2022-23 season.

BRAEDEN CARRINGTON

6-4 • BROOKLYN PARK, MINN.

Carrington, a 6-4, 170-pound guard, hails from Brooklyn Park, Minn. Playing for former Gopher assistant James Ware at Park Center High School, Carrington averaged 18.1 points as a junior last season. Despite missing games due to injury, Carrington still maintained four 30-point performances. He also scored in double figures 15 of 19 times as the Pirates went 16-5 last year. For his efforts, Carrington was also named to the Star Tribune All-Metro Second Team. This past summer with Grassroots Sizzle, Carrington guided the team to a successful season. Carrington is ranked as the 140th recruit nationally in the 2022 class.

JOHNSON ON CARRINGTON:

"We're so excited to have Braeden as a Gopher. He was the first to commit to our program and really bought into what we're trying to do here. He's an unbelievable kid and competes at a high level and loves to win. Coming from a great high school program, he's really skilled, can shoot the ball and has a knack for scoring. He understands and loves the game. Being close to home is special to him and excited to get him on campus."

JOSHUA OLA-JOSEPH

6-6 • OSSEO, MINN.

Ola-Joseph, a 6-6, 200-pound forward, hails from Osseo, Minn. Last year with Osseo High School with coach Tim Theisen, Ola-Joseph averaged 16.7 points per game, 6.7 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 3.0 blocks. He also shot 56 percent from the field and scored double-digit points in 18 of 20 games last season. Ola-Joseph produced 20-plus points in five games and a 30-point game last season. As a sophomore, he averaged 13.5 points per game and held a 36-point game that season. He also played with D1 Minnesota's AAU program and is listed as the 166th recruit nationally.

JOHNSON ON OLA-JOSEPH:

"Joshua has a blue-collar, warrior mindset," Johnson said. "He's athletic, tough, hard nosed and versatile. His best basketball is ahead of him and competes every day. High energy and passion for the game, he's driven to get better and win. He's looking at this opportunity to be able to build this program to where we want it to be and has a lot of state pride."

PHARREL PAYNE

6-9 • COTTAGE GROVE, MINN.

Payne, a 6-9, 230-pound forward, hails from Cottage Grove, Minn. Playing for Mike Weah at Park High School Cottage Grove, Payne averaged 15 points per game and 10 rebounds last season. Payne had a breakout AAU season this past summer with Minnesota Select under the direction of former Gopher Mitch Ohnstad. Last season with the Wolfpack, he scored double-digits in 16 of 20 games as he helped the team to an 11-10 record. Payne is listed as the 83rd recruit nationally.

JOHNSON ON PAYNE:

"Pharrel is extremely underrated and undervalued in my opinion," Johnson said. "He stuck out immediately when we saw him and has tremendous upside. He's physically going to be ready to play as a true freshman. He can play inside, out and has an unbelievable motor. The sky's the limit for Pharrel."

On March 22, 2021, Ben Johnson was named head men's basketball coach at the University of Minnesota. Johnson, 41, is Minnesota's 18th head coach in program history.

Johnson, who graduated from Minnesota in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in sociology, returns to his alma mater after spending three seasons at Xavier as an assistant coach. Johnson previously served as an assistant coach at Minnesota from 2013-18 and was a two-time captain during his playing career for the Gophers.

"Ben is a proven coach who is ready to lead his own program," said Coyle. "He has earned this opportunity and is a tremendous teacher, recruiter and relationship builder. I am thrilled for him to lead his alma mater, and I am excited for the future of our men's basketball program."

"Athletics is such an inviting 'front porch' for so much of the great work we do here at the University. Few programs are more visible or closely followed than Gopher men's basketball," said University of Minnesota President Joan Gabel. "To have someone like Ben Johnson leading this program — an ambassador for our University who grew up here, went to school here and knows what the University is all about — is tremendous, for our basketball program and our institution. Like so many Minnesotans, I'm excited to welcome Ben home and look forward to our team's success under his leadership."

Johnson helped lead Xavier to consecutive top-30 recruiting classes in 2019 and 2020 and the Musketeers posted a collective record of 51-37 in three seasons with him on the bench.

"The University of Minnesota is such a special place and has impacted me in immeasurable ways on and off the court," said Johnson. "I want to thank President Joan Gabel, Mark Coyle, Julie Manning and everyone involved in the search process for believing in me and trusting me to lead this historic program. I am ready to get to work."

In his previous stint at Minnesota, Johnson helped recruit local standouts and current NBA athletes in Daniel Oturu and Amir Coffey to the Gophers. Johnson was instrumental in recruiting and developing Jordan Murphy, who finished his career atop the Gopher record books in rebounds (1,307), free throws made (460), free throws attempted (698) and second in scoring (1,802 points).

Prior to returning to Minnesota in 2013, he spent one season as an assistant coach under Tim Miles at the University of Nebraska. While with the Huskers, Johnson assisted in all-day-to-day basketball-related duties while also serving as recruiting coordinator. Johnson also led the development of Nebraska's backcourt players.

Johnson spent 2008-12 as an assistant coach at Northern Iowa. The Panthers went a combined 93-77 in that timeframe, winning at least 20 games in all four years. Northern Iowa reached post-season play in all four years and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2009-10. That year, UNI won a school-record 30 games and upset top-seeded Kansas in the second round. During his tenure at UNI, the Panthers boasted three first-team All-MVC selections, including 2010 Missouri Valley Conference MVP Adam Koch in 2010. Four players were named to the MVC All-Freshmen or All-Newcomer teams, including a pair in 2011-12.

Prior to his stay at Northern Iowa, Johnson served as an assistant coach for two seasons at the University of Texas-Pan American. He was heavily involved in recruiting, worked with the Broncos perimeter players and coordinated UTPA's summer camps.

Johnson's coaching career began at the University of Dayton, where he served as a graduate assistant during the 2005-06 season.

Johnson started his collegiate playing career at Northwestern and played two seasons before returning to the Twin Cities to finish his career. He finished with 533 points in 59 games in Maroon and Gold and scored a total of 1,202 career points between the two Big Ten Conference institutions.

The Minneapolis native enjoyed a standout prep career, leading DeLaSalle High School to a pair of state championships. He was a two-time first-team all-state selection in both football and basketball, and as a senior, was named a Street & Smith All-American, as well as an honorable mention Nike All-American.

He was listed as the 60th-best basketball player in the country by Bob Gibbons in his senior season, totaling more than 2,200 points during his high school career. Johnson also was listed on Tom Lemming's High School Football All-American list as a top-20 national recruit and was a two-time all-state performer on the gridiron.
