MONTANA BASKETBALL

The 1974-75 team was the first in school history to play in the NCAA tournament. The Griz advanced to the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) before losing to John Wooden's UCLA Bruins, who went on to the win the national championship that year.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

NOTES

BIG SKY CHAMPS AGAIN

Montana won the Big Sky Conference Tournament for a record-extending 12th time this season. The Grizzlies have more Big Sky Tournament Championships than any other school, and have also won the most games (51) at the tournament.

This is the third title under DeCuire in six appearances in the championship game. He's reached the title game in 60 percent of his appearances, winning it in 30 percent.

The Grizzlies have 18 wins at the Big Sky Conference Tournament under Coach DeCuire. It's the 14th most conference tourney wins in the NCAA in that time.

Montana also shared the regular season championship with Northern Colorado. It was the 13th regular season Big Sky Championship for Montana, the 2nd most in league history.

The Grizzlies have now won seven Big Sky Regular Season Championships this century, more than any other school in the Big Sky. The 13 titles trail only Weber State, who have the most all time with 22. The Wildcats won eight of the first 10 championships from 1964-73.

This is the longest time between trophies for Montana since going eight years from 1978 to 1986.

GRIZ SHOTS: BETTER ODDS THAN A COIN FLIP

Montana is shooting 50.2 percent from the floor this season, the 2nd best percentage in the entire country. They are one of only two teams that have made at least half of their attempts from the field entering the NCAA Tournament, and the only team that reached the tournament to do so. (Gonzaga is shooting 50.0 percent, but have made 1,049-of-2,100 attempts).

The Grizzlies won the Big Sky Championship behind a field goal percentage of .652, outpacing the top shooting team in the country on that night in Boise. It's the best shooting performance by a Grizzly team (vs. D1) since 2011, and the 42nd best in the NCAA this year. At one point in the game, Montana had made 14 straight field goals over 13:09 of game time and 46:14 of real time.

Montana has 21 single-game shooting percentages over 50 percent this season, tied for the most in the country. It's the most in a single season in program history.

The Big Sky Championship game was Montana's 4th time shooting 60 percent or better, the 2nd most in the NCAA this year behind only Northern Colorado.

RED HOT SHOOTING IN 2025

Since the calendar flipped to 2025, Montana has been the 2nd best shooting team in the country at 51.7 percent. The Grizzlies are 18-3 in the calendar year 2025. The 18 wins are also tied for 4th most in the country this calendar year.

SHORT SUMMARY OF THE SEASON

Montana played an incredibly difficult non-conference schedule (19th NC SOS), winning all seven home games while dropping all six road contests. The six road games were against teams that combined to go 87-12 (.879) at home this year.

The Griz started 4-2 in conference play, but had a negative scoring margin after two blowout losses to Northern Colorado (24 points) and Idaho State (25 points). From that point on, Montana would go 14-1 with the only loss coming in overtime on the road to Portland State.

Malik Moore made his season debut after the three road games at Oregon, Tennessee, and Utah State. The Grizzlies made a big change to the starting lineup on Jan. 25 against Montana State, swapping Kai Johnson in for Money Williams. They are 13-1 since that change.

Montana has won behind hot shooting, ranking 2nd in the country in field goal percentage (.502). They have been great at holding halftime leads (19-2), and have won a lot of close games (15-3 in games decided by single digits). They've had a balanced offense with six players scoring at least 20 in a game and no player leading Montana in scoring more than 9 times.

WHITNEY BREAKS DeCUIRE'S RECORD

Brandon Whitney made history on the final game of the regular season by recording his 426th career assist. It moved him past his own head coach and into first place all-time in Montana's history.

He did it in dramatic fashion, setting up Malik Moore for a three-pointer with 2:42 remaining. The play broke a 70-70 tie, and set Montana off on a 13-2 run to close out the game and clinch the regular season championship.

He passed Shane "Scooter" Christensen, who played for and now coaches the Harlem Globetrotters, for second place against Sacramento State (2/27).

Whitney has averaged 2.8 assists per game in his five years at Montana. DeCuire, who played at Montana from 1991-94, had 435 career assists in 87 career games, averaging 5.0 per game.

In the Big Sky Championship game, Whitney climbed into 9th place all-time in program history in scoring with 1,618 points. He also made his 150th career start in that game, the most in Big Sky Conference history, while appearing in a Montana record 156th game.

Whitney has started more games in the same uniform than any player in the country, and has played the most minutes in Big Sky history. He is also in the top 100 in minutes in NCAA D-1 history.

BIG SKY CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

It was a battle three months in the making. Montana and Northern Colorado, the co-regular season champions, had separated from the rest of the Big Sky Conference over the league's 18-game regular season and arrived in Boise as the heavy favorites.

The two teams rolled into the championship game with blowout semifinal victories, setting the ultimate stage inside Idaho Central Arena. Two of the three best shooting teams in the country put on one of the best offensive displays possible to a national stage on ESPN 2.

In the end, Montana (25-9) soared past Northern Colorado (25-9) 91-83 for a Big Sky record extending 12th tournament title and the first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2019. It's the third Big Sky Tournament Championship for head coach Travis DeCuire, and the first for Montana since 2019.

"They all feel great," DeCuire said. "Every championship has its own storyline. I love every player I've ever coached, I'll never say I loved any one individual any more than the other because they all were special in my heart."

This year's team reaches the Big Dance by way of shooting 65.2 percent from the field over the course of 40 minutes and putting up 91 points in a conference championship game. It's the best shooting percentage for Montana against a D-1 opponent since 2011.

Montana opened the game with six straight made field goals, ended the first half with nine straight makes, and carried that into the second half for a grand total of 14 straight shots that found the bottom of the net.

From the time the clock read 9:31 in the first half to the 16:22 minute mark of the second half, Montana was perfect from the floor. They didn't miss a shot for over 13 minutes of game time, which equated to well over a half an hour of real time for those in attendance in Boise or watching at home.

The Grizzlies missed consecutive shots just four times throughout the entire 40 minutes, dominating on the offensive end on their way to a title.

Brandon Whitney brought home the Tournament MVP honors behind an 18 points performance on Wednesday night. The 5th year guard returned to Montana after falling short in this game one year prior, and saw his decision pay off all season long.

The decorated veteran of the Grizzly program, starting his Big Sky record 150th career game, made seven of his nine shots from the floor. He connected on two three pointers in the first two minutes of the game to set the tone early.

Whitney led Montana over the three games, averaging 16.3 points per game on 72.0 percent shooting. He made 18 of his 25 shot attempts in Boise, including 4-of-6 from three-point range.

The Grizzly veteran claimed MVP honors, but he was joined on the All-Tournament team by Kai Johnson and Money Williams.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

DeCUIRE BREAKS DAHLBERG'S RECORD
Head coach Travis DeCuire won his 222nd career game at Sacramento State on Feb. 27. The win pushed DeCuire ahead of George "Jiggs" Dahlberg for the program record.

In 11 seasons, DeCuire's teams have averaged over 20.5 wins per year, and they have reached the 20-win mark for the sixth time under DeCuire this season.

ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM
Montana had three players named to the Big Sky Conference All-Tournament team, highlighted by the MVP Brandon Whitney. Whitney led Montana in scoring over the three games, averaging 16.3 points on 72.0 percent shooting. He also averaged 2.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists.

Whitney scored 24 points in the Second Round win over Northern Arizona, sparking Montana to victory with 20 second-half points.

Kai Johnson earned a place on the All-Tournament team after leading Montana to a win in the championship game. Johnson scored 23 in the title game, going 7-of-10 from the floor, 2-of-2 from three-point range, and 7-of-8 from the free throw line.

Money Williams also earned a spot on the All-Tournament team after averaging 12.0 points, 3.0 assists, 2.7 rebounds, and 1.3 steals per game at the tournament. Williams was steady in all three games for the Griz on their path to a title.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS
Montana's balance has been a strength all season long, but it became a detriment to them in the individual awards at the end of the year. The Grizzlies had just one First Team All-Big Sky Conference selection (Joe Pridgen) with three players on the Second Team (Brandon Whitney, Money Williams, Malik Moore).

Williams also earned the league's Top Reserve award after moving to a sixth-man role with 11 games remaining in the season.

DeCUIRE WINS BIG SKY COACH OF THE YEAR
Travis DeCuire was named the 2025 Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year. It's just his second career honor despite winning four regular season titles and three Big Sky Tournament championships.

DeCuire took a team with nine newcomers and just one returner that had started at least 15 games and turned them into Big Sky Champions. Montana improved throughout the season, ending the year on a 11-1 stretch that carried into three more wins at the Big Sky Tournament.

TWO-YEAR STRETCH OF SUCCESS
Montana has won 49 games over the previous two seasons. It is the fourth most in a two-year span in program history. The 2018 and 2019 teams won 52 games, followed by 50 wins from the teams in '91 & '92 and '12 & '13.

The 49 wins are tied for the 29th most in the NCAA during that time, and it is the 16th among mid-major teams.

THE .500 STREAK
Montana is one of just 14 teams in the entire country that has been .500 or better in 16 straight seasons. They extended that streak to 17 seasons with the win over Northern Colorado on Feb. 6.

The Grizzlies have reached 20 wins 10 times in the previous 16 years, and have reached the 20 win mark 26 times in program history.

Montana has had just one losing season in the last 20 years, and they have also had just five losing seasons in the previous half century. Since 1970, Montana has gone .500 or better 48 times.

MONTANA IN MARCH
The Grizzlies claimed the Big Sky Tournament for the 3rd time under head coach Travis DeCuire. Since DeCuire started at Montana, the Grizzlies are 33-19 in games played in March. The 33 wins are 31st most in the NCAA during the time.

MONTANA VS. RANKED OPPONENTS
This will be the second time this season that Montana has faced an opponent ranked in the top 25 of the AP Poll. The Grizzlies have lost 18 straight games against ranked opponents, including the 92-57 loss at #11 Tennessee back on Nov. 13.

The last win for Montana against a ranked opponent was also its last NCAA Tournament win. The Grizzlies beat #20 Nevada 87-79 in a First Round game in 2006.

SUCCESS WITH THE NEW STARTERS
Since Montana made a change to its starting lineup on Jan. 25 vs. Montana State, the Grizzlies are 13-1. Kai Johnson and Money Williams have both excelled in their new roles as the Grizzlies rolled to nine straight wins at one point with this starting unit.

Money Williams won the Top Reserve Award in the Big Sky Conference after averaging 14.5 points per game and has shot 20-of-50 (.400) from three-point range off the bench. He was also 2nd on the team in rebounding in those games with 5.3 per game.

Johnson was Montana's second leading scorer after re-entering the lineup, averaging 12.8 points per game on 55.2 percent shooting and 36.4 percent from the arc. He also averaged 3.3 rebounds with 19 assists

MONTANA VS. THE BIG TEN

This will be Montana's 14th all-time meeting with a Big Ten opponent, and the second this year. Montana is 1-12 all-time against the league.

The Grizzlies lost at Oregon in the first road game of the season back on Nov. 8, 2024. The previous two meetings against the Big Ten both came in the NCAA Tournament when Montana fell to Michigan in back-to-back appearances in 2018 and 2019. They lost on the road to Penn State 70-57 in 2017, making Coach DeCuire 0-4 in his career against the Big Ten.

Montana's lone win came on Nov. 26, 2006 when they defeated Minnesota 72-65 at the Old Spice Classic in Orlando, Fla.

QUICK SCOUT OF THE BADGERS

• The Badgers enter the NCAA Tournament after making a run to the Big 10 Championship game. They fell to Michigan 59-53 in the title game. It's the fewest points in a game this season for Wisconsin.
• Wisconsin ranks 13th in offensive efficiency and 27th in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com. They average over 80 points per game and outscore opponents by 9.7, the 28th best margin in the country.
• They are 24th in the country with 10.0 threes per game, making them at a 35.6 percent clip.
• Guard John Tonje is an All-Big Ten performer and semifinalist for the Naismith Men's College Player of the Year. Tonje averages 19.2 points and 5.3 rebounds per game, and leads the Badgers with 80 made threes.
• Montana and Wisconsin have two similar opponents this year. The Badgers beat Montana State 79-67 back on Nov. 7. They also lost to Oregon 77-73 in overtime on Feb. 22. Montana swept the season series with Montana State and lost to Oregon 79-48.

and 16 steals since entering the starting lineup.

Montana outscored opponents by 8.9 points per game over the 11 regular season games, scoring 79.9 and holding opponents to 71.0 per game. The Grizzlies also made more threes, had more rebounds, assists, steals, blocks, and recorded fewer turnovers than their opponent since changing the first five.

JOHNSON SHINES IN BIG SKY TITLE GAME

Kai Johnson scored 23 points to lead Montana to victory in the Big Sky Championship game. Johnson's 23 points are the 2nd most points by a Grizzly in a conference title game all-time, trailing only Anthony Johnson's 42-point performance in 2010.

Johnson's performance is tied with Martin Breunig, Kareem Jamar, and Mathias Ward for 2nd in program history. It's also the most points in a win in a Big Sky Championship game since Quinton Hooker scored 28 in leading North Dakota to a title in 2018.

JOE PRIDGEN: FROM WALK-ON TO ALL-CONFERENCE

Joe Pridgen was the final addition to the Montana roster this offseason, joining the Grizzlies as a walk-on. He had a connection to Montana through his wife, who is from Kalispell, and wanted another year of college basketball.

The pair got married in the summer, giving Pridgen in-state tuition. He may be the most impactful walk-on in all of college basketball.

Pridgen, who Coach DeCuire describes as the heart and soul of the team, earned First Team All-Big Sky honors after averaging 10.5 points and 6.3 rebounds this season.

ENDING A TITLE DROUGHT

This is the first time since 2019 that Montana has reached the NCAA Tournament, ending the longest drought for the Montana program since having a 16-year drought that ended with a tournament appearance in 1991.

20-WIN SEASONS

Montana reached 20 wins on the season with a rivalry win on the road against Montana State on Feb. 22. It's the sixth time under DeCuire that the Grizzlies have won at least 20 games in a season, and the second straight time they've done it.

It's the 10th time since 2010 that they've reached the total, and the 26th time in program history that Montana has won 20 games.

THE 10-GAME WINNING STREAK

• Montana won 10 straight games from January 20 through February 27.
• It matched the longest winning streak for Montana since 2018-19 when they won 10 straight games. The program record is 14 straight wins, last done in 2013.
• It was the 12th time in program history that Montana has won at least 10 games in a row.
• It was the 4th longest active streak in the country at the time
• Six of the wins were at home with four on the road.
• The Grizzlies averaged 79.2 points per game during the streak and won by an average margin of 9.5 points.
• Montana shot 55.6 percent from the floor and 45.1 percent from three point range during the streak.
• The top six scorers for Montana all averaged over 10 points per game during the streak. Kai Johnson has led Montana during the stretch with 13.4 points on 58.3 percent shooting.
• They averaged 14.6 assists per game, 4.3 more than their opponents.
• Three players (Moore, Patterson, Williams) attempted at least 20 three pointers during the stretch and all three shot better than 41 percent from the arc.
• Malik Moore led Montana in minutes during the winning streak, playing 30.0 per game. He also shot 23-of-46 (.500) from three during the 10 games.
• Montana scored at least 80 points as a team in six of the 10 games.

WILLIAMS SCORES 36 AT PORTLAND STATE

Sophomore guard Money Williams had the best game of his impressive career on March 1 at Portland State, scoring a career high 36 points for Montana in an overtime loss. Williams scored 33 of his points after the halftime buzzer, including the final 15 points of regulation for the Grizzlies.

It's the most points by a Grizzly in a Big Sky game since Michael Oguine had 39 at Portland State in January of 2018.

FEELS A LOT LIKE 2018-19…

Montana's last Big Sky Championship came in 2018-19 as they finished off back-to-back regular season championships with a second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. This season's team has hit some marks that haven't been seen in Missoula since that 2019 run.

• Longest winning streak (10) since winning 10 straight in 2019.
• Two Big Sky Conference road trip sweeps.
• 15-3 record is the best through 18 games in Big Sky play since 2018.
• The final road trip of the season in 2019 was also the Portland State-Sacramento State trip.
• The .710 winning percentage for Montana is the best since the 2018-19 team went 26-9 (.743).
• Montana reached 15 wins in Big Sky play for the first time since 2019.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

EMBRACING THE LATE-NIGHT TIP
Montana endured some very late nights over the final stretch of the season. The Grizzlies played three games starting later than 9:00 p.m. local over the final four games of the season.

The Grizzlies closed out the regular season with a 9:00 p.m. start on ESPN2 against Eastern Washington, which they won to clinch a Big Sky Championship. In Boise, Montana played two games at 9:30 p.m., both on ESPN2, in their run to the tournament title.

Montana doesn't mind a late start. The Grizzlies are 23-5 in night games this year. In games that tipped before 5:00 p.m. local time, they are just 2-4.

RED-HOT SHOOTING
Montana had one of the best offenses in the entire country over a month-long stretch. From Jan. 30 through the end of February, the Grizzlies led the NCAA in both field goal percentage (.559) and ranked fourth in three-point percentage (.444) over the nine-game stretch.

They shot better than 60 percent in three of the last nine games, and were above 50 percent in all of them.

CLOSE GAME SUCCESS
In games decided by single digits this season, Montana is 15-3. Montana is 6-2 in games decided by 1-4 points, and 9-1 in games decided by 5-9 points.

In Big Sky play they had even more success in close games. Montana went 10-1 in games decided by single digits. They were 4-1 in games decided by fewer than four points in league play. They were 6-1 in games decided by five or fewer points.

HANDLED BUSINESS AT HOME
Montana went 15-1 inside Dahlberg Arena this year. It's tied for the third-most wins in program history, trailing only the 1991-92 and 2011-12 teams that both went a perfect 16-0 at home.

The Grizzlies are one of only 28 teams nationally to win at least 15 home games this season.

SWEEPING THE BRAWL
Montana swept the regular season rivalry against Montana State for the second straight year and seventh time in 10 attempts under Coach DeCuire. Montana is 16-5 against Montana State since DeCuire took over in 2014.

The teams didn't play each other in the 2021 season, but in seven of the other 10 years that DeCuire has been in charge Montana has won in both Missoula and Bozeman.

KAI JOHNSON'S BRAWL DOMINANCE
In his first season as a Grizzly, Kai Johnson fully embraced the rivalry with two dominant performances against Montana State in a pair of Grizzly wins. Johnson returned to the starting lineup for the first time in Big Sky play in the first meeting, and has stuck ever since.

Johnson averaged 24.0 points per game in the Brawl this year, shooting 63.3 percent from the floor and 40.0 percent from three point range. He also went 8-of-11 (.727) from the free throw line.

The transfer guard embraced the energy of the rivalry game and stepped up to the big moment, grabbing eight rebounds and five steals across the two games.

PRIDGEN'S POSTERS
Montana basketball games have been unofficial dunk contests this season, and Joe Pridgen has been at the center of it all. Pridgen has electrified crowds all season with his physical, athletic displays at the rim.

He earned the No. 2 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 on Dec. 10 with his fastbreak poster against Montana Tech.

NO BAD LOSSES
The Grizzlies have taken care of business in the games that they have been expected to win this season. Montana's nine losses have come against opponents with a combined record of 204-90 (.694).

Every loss has come to a team with a winning record, and eight of them have at least 19 wins. Six of the non-power four teams are in the top three of their respective conferences with Oregon and Tennessee also in the mix. Montana went 17-0 in Quad 4 games this season, the 4th most wins in the country.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

MONTANA NOTES

• Since Jan. 20, Montana has gone 14-1. The 14 wins are tied for the most in the NCAA during that time.

• Montana shot over 60 percent from three-point range for the third time this season in the Big Sky title game. It's the 2nd-most games in the NCAA shooting at least 60 percent from the arc.

   o The Grizzlies are 21-1 when shooting a better percentage from three-point range than their opponents.

• DeCuire has equal-or-more title game appearances (6) as head coach than five of the other nine Big Sky programs do in their histories.

• Three different Grizzlies had at least 7 made field goals on 60 percent shooting in the Big Sky title game. It's tied for the most players in a game this season in the NCAA.

• Montana has shot better than its opponent in 25 of the 34 games this season. They are 21-4 with a better field goal percentage.

• The Grizzlies rank 2nd in the NCAA in field goal percentage this season, making 50.2 percent of their attempts. They have an effective field goal percentage of .568, which ranks 9th nationally.

   o UM has shot better than 55 percent from the floor in eight of the last 13 games, and above 50 percent in 12 out of 14.

   o They have shot better than 55 percent in 10 total games this year.

• Montana has scored at least 80 points in 17 different games this season. It's the most 80-point games in a single season in program history. They are 15-2 when scoring at least 80 points.

• Montana's 23-point semifinal win was the largest tournament win for the program since beating Weber State by 29 in the 2019 semifinal game. Tuesday night was the 3rd largest tournament win all-time for Montana.

• The 55 points allowed to Idaho in the semifinal were the second-fewest vs. a D1 opponent this season, and the fewest allowed in a tournament game for Montana since 2019.

• Brandon Whitney became the league's all-time leader in career minutes played on Tuesday night. He now has over 4,700 minutes in a Montana uniform, passing Northern Colorado's Jonah Radebaugh for the league record. It also moves him into the top 100 in minutes played in NCAA history, according to Stathead.com.

• The Grizzlies have won at least 24 games for the second straight season. They are one of 19 teams in the country with at least 24 wins in each of the last two years.

• The Big Sky semifinal was the fifth time this season that Montana won a game by 20+ points. They are 5-5 in games decided by 20-or-more points, and 20-4 in games decided by fewer than 20 points.

• Montana has held its opponent under 60 points six times this season. They are 6-0 in those games, and 13-0 when keeping their opponent below 70 points.

• Idaho shot just 30.9 percent from the field in the Big Sky semifinal (3/11), the lowest shooting percentage by a Grizzly opponent this year. It was the first time they've held a D1 opponent under 31 percent from the floor since Jan. 25, 2018 against Southern Utah.

• Montana improved to 9-1 when holding opponents below 40 percent shooting. They are 16-2 when keeping them below 45 percent, and 19-3 when holding them below 50 percent.

• The Griz had 19 assists to just 6 turnovers last Tuesday night. They improved to 10-0 when committing fewer than 10 turnovers this season.

• The Grizzlies went 15-3 in league play, and the .833 winning percentage was the best for the program since 2017-18 (.889). Montana's 22-9 (.710) overall record has led to the best total winning percentage since 2018-19 (.743).

• This is the 7th time in program history that Montana has won at least 15 games in Big Sky Conference play.

• Montana has trailed for a majority of the game and ended up winning just twice this season.

• Montana's win against Eastern Washington (3/3) after trailing by 14 points is the largest deficit overcome this year.

• Montana is 21-1 when shooting a better three-point percentage than its opponent. The Griz are 14-2 when making more threes than their opponent, and 20-2 when limiting opponents to fewer than 8 made threes.

• DeCuire's team is 16-1 when making more free throws than its opponent.

• The Grizzlies are 18-3 when shooting better than 50 percent from the floor. They have also shot over 55 percent in 10 games, and are undefeated in those games.

• The same player has led Montana in scoring in three consecutive games just once this season (Malik Moore back in early December). The same player has led in back-to-back games just twice since the start of conference play.

• Head coach Travis DeCuire has been named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award. The award is presented annually to the top minority head coach in Division I college basketball.

• Money Williams leads Montana in scoring on the road this season, averaging 16.1 points per game. His shooting splits are 41.6/37.4/80.3 on the road.

• Montana has won 20 games in a season for the 26th time in program history and the 6th time under DeCuire.

• When Montana loses, it tends to lose big. Five of their nine losses have come by 20-plus points.

• In the first half this year, Montana has outscored its opponents by 121 points. It has been much closer in the second half, where Montana has just a 16-point advantage on its opponents.

• The top six Grizzly scorers in Big Sky play all averaged at least 9.6 points per game. They did not have any players in the top 10 of the league in scoring.

• Malik Moore was the only Grizzly in the top 15 in the conference in minutes this season.

• Montana's .735 winning percentage is the 10th best in program history. The Grizzlies have won over 70 percent of their games in a single season 17 times in program history.

• This is the 5th best season in program history in field goal percentage, and the best that Montana has shot from the floor since 1987. The Grizzlies shot 51.5 percent that year, which is the single season program record. They have four seasons in program history shooting over 50 percent.

• This is the best single season effective field goal percentage in program history (.568).

• Montana has 18 scoring runs of at least 10 points this season. They are 14-2 in games when they score at least 10 straight, and have done so in six straight games. They've been streaky lately, going on a run of at least 9-0 in each of the last 12 games.

• The offense is averaging 76.9 points per game this season, the 7th best mark in program history.

• Montana swept two Big Sky road trips this season. It's the first time that Montana has swept multiple road trips in the same season since 2019.

• Montana had at least one win against each of the nine opponents in the Big Sky Conference.

• DeCuire has the program record for wins, but associate head coach Chris Cobb has been there for every single one of them. He's been associate head coach for the last 9 years, and was an assistant for 2 years.

COLLEGEINSIDER.COM MID-MAJOR TOP 25

For the first time since 2019, Montana entered the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 poll. In the version released on Monday, Feb. 24, Montana entered the rankings at 23rd. It's the first time Montana has been in the poll since being ranked 19th in the final poll of the 2018-19 season. They dropped to receiving votes in the following poll after losing at Portland State.

WHITNEY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-BIG SKY

Graduate guard Brandon Whitney was named one of six members of the Preseason All-Big Sky Conference team as voted on by the league's coaches and media. Whitney had high expectations after averaging at least 10.0 points per game all four seasons with 116 career starts entering the year.

The Mission Hills, Calif. product broke his head coach's program record for career assists this season and entered the top 10 in career scoring as well. He's one of just two Grizzlies all-time with 1,500 points, 400 assists, and 300 rebounds.

FANTASTIC IN FEBRUARY

Montana finished the month of February undefeated, going 7-0 in the month. It's the third time in program history that Montana has been perfect in February, and first time since 2012.

Montana has typically improved as the season progresses under Coach DeCuire, as is evident by the head coach's record in games played in the month of February. Now in his 11th season, DeCuire is 58-23 (.716). The 58 wins are the 24th most in the NCAA during the span, and the .716 winning percentage is 19th best in the NCAA and best in the Big Sky in that time.

JOLLY JANUARY

Montana went 7-2 in the month of January, starting the first half of Big Sky play off in impressive fashion. The seven wins is tied for the 9th most in the NCAA during the month of January.

It's a month that, historically speaking, has been good to Coach DeCuire and the Grizzlies. They have 62 total wins in the first month of the year dating back to his first season in charge, tied for the 30th most in the NCAA during that span.

NOVEMBER TO REMEMBER

For just the second time in program history, Montana entered the month of December with five wins. November was a busy month for the Grizzlies with eight total contests. It's just the third time ever that Montana has played that many games in the first month of the season.

The last time Montana had five wins on Dec. 1 was in 2007-08. The Grizzlies were also 5-3 that year. This year's team will hope for a better finish to the season than the 07-08 Grizzlies as they were the last Montana team to finish under .500.

GRIZ ON ESPN2

Montana ended the season playing well in front of a national audience. The Grizzlies finished the season with three of their final four games on ESPN2, all of them Montana wins.

This is the first time that Montana has been on a primary ESPN channel at home since the 2022 Brawl of the Wild game in Missoula, and the first game under DeCuire in Missoula that was on ESPN 2.

SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

Joe Pridgen earned a place on SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays of the Day on Dec. 10 for his poster slam against Montana Tech. Malik Moore threw a no-look pass in transition to Pridgen, and he rose up and flushed it past the Tech defender. The play was No. 2 on the nightly countdown.

It's the second straight season that Montana has been featured on the Top 10. Laolu Oke had the No. 1 play on the top 10 last year with a similar dunk.

PUTTING A BOW ON 2024

Montana finished up the 2024 calendar year with a 23-13 overall record. The 23 wins were tied for the 42nd most in the NCAA during 2024, and led the Big Sky Conference.

The Grizzlies had one of the best offenses in the country during that time. Montana ranked 31st in the NCAA with 2,784 total points, and were 8th in the country with a .491 field goal percentage.

The 23 wins were the most in a calendar year for Montana since 2019, and tied for the second most in any calendar year under DeCuire.

BRINGING JOE BACK

Prior to Montana's Senior Night win over Weber State, Joe Pridgen announced to the crowd inside Dahlberg Arena that he will be returning for one more season in 2025-26.

The transfer has been a breakout star this season in Missoula, averaging 11.7 points and 6.9 rebounds in his first season as a Grizzly. He is shooting 63.6 percent from the floor, which ranks 10th nationally.

Pridgen has thrilled Montana fans this season, registering 37 dunks that include some massive poster slams. He earned the No. 2 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 earlier this season.

STEW MORRILL CLASSIC ALL-TOURNEY HONORS

Joe Pridgen, Brandon Whitney, and Kai Johnson were named to the All-Tournament Team at the Stew Morrill Classic. Pridgen earned MVP honors for his performances, but Johnson and Whitney were critical in Montana's 3-0 week as well.

Whitney averaged 10.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, and 1.3 assists in 32.5 minutes per game. Johnson averaged 12.3 points, 4.7 rebounds, and 1.3 steals per game, scoring the game-winning bucket in Montana's win over Utah Tech.

SUPER SCHEDULE

Montana's non-conference schedule was one of the most difficult in the country in 2024-25. The Grizzlies finished with a 7-6 record, and entered Big Sky play at .500 or better for the fifth straight season and 7th time overall under DeCuire.

The Grizzlies ranked 7th in strength of schedule according to the NCAA NET Rankings heading into conference play, and had the hardest schedule in the Big Sky Conference. KenPom ranked Montana's schedule the 19th most difficult in the NCAA at the end of non-conference play.

All seven of Montana's wins came at home. It's the sixth time under DeCuire that Montana finished undefeated at home in the non-conference. The Grizzlies went 0-6 on the road in the non-conference, finishing winless in such games for the fourth time under DeCuire. The six opponents that Montana faced on the road had a combined 42-3 (.933) home record in the non-conference.

Montana faced eight teams ranked 111th or better in the NET Rankings during the non-conference, going 2-6 against them. The Griz played four Quad-1 games in the non-conference, the most of any Big Sky team. They were also the only conference team to finish undefeated in Q3 and Q4 games, going 4-0 in such contests.

50th ANNIVERSARY OF 1ST BIG SKY CHAMPS AND 1ST NCAA TOURNEY WIN

The 2024-25 season is the 50th anniversary of one of the greatest teams in Griz history. The 1974-75 men's basketball team is the only team in program history that has been enshrined in the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame, and for good reason. Head coach Jud Heathcote's team won the first-ever NCAA Tournament game, beating Utah State 69-63 in the first round. The win moved them onto the "Sweet 16" in the 32-team version of the tournament.

Once there, Montana nearly did the impossible, pushing a UCLA team that had won nine of the previous 11 national championships to the brink. The Griz fell 67-64, and the Bruins would proceed to win their 10th title in 12 years, and the last under John Wooden. They went 21-8 overall and 13-1 in Big Sky play to win the team's first league title. Heathcote's team featured several notable players in program history including Ken McKenzie, Eric Hays, Michael Ray Richardson, and Tom Peck.

STORY FROM THE STRIPE

The Grizzlies haven't been able to maintain a very impressive streak at the free throw line this season. Montana is shooting just 73.6 percent.

Montana had been historically good from the free throw line over the previous four seasons. The Grizzlies broke the school record for single season free throw percentage in 2020-21, and have proceeded to improve upon the number every year since.

Last season's team shot 79.2 percent from the stripe, which ranked 7th in the NCAA. They shot 78.7 percent in 2021-22, which was 6th best in all of college basketball. The 2020-21 Grizzlies shot 78.5 percent, which ranked 10th.

Over the last five years, Montana ranks second nationally by shooting 77.6 percent from the free throw line. Villanova (79.9 percent) is the only team better than the Grizzlies during the stretch.

Montana is shooting 74.1 percent from the free throw line in 10 years under DeCuire, which is the 13th best mark in all of college basketball.

FROM THE BAY TO THE ZOO

Montana has a long-line of successful players that call the Bay Area home, and this year is no different. There are four Montana players from the area in California on this year's roster; Te'Jon Sawyer (San Francisco), Money Williams (Oakland), Tyler Thompson (Fairfield), and Jeremiah Dargan (Concord). Several other Griz greats, including Sayeed Pridgett, Will Cherry and David Bell, have come from Oakland. Sawyer is the first Montana player to have called San Francisco home since Griz legend Delvon Anderson.

Sayeed Pridgett (18-19), Will Cherry (12-13), and Delvon Anderson (91-92) were all impactful players on those six championships. DeCuire also spent six seasons as an assistant coach at the University of California in Berkeley, and staffers Chris Cobb and DJ Broome were both born and raised in the Bay Area.

NOTABLE DEBUTS

Montana had plenty of new faces on campus this year, and several of them made great first impressions with their new squad. Kai Johnson set a program record for a debut with 27 points against Hawaii Hilo in his first game as a Grizzly, but he's not the only Montana player to go off in his first game in a Griz uniform.

Joe Pridgen had 14 points and eight rebounds in his first-ever game in a Montana jersey. Austin Patterson also scored 12 points in his debut, with both he and Pridgen playing against Hawaii Hilo.

GENERAL PROGRAM NOTES

• There are plenty of new faces for Montana basketball in 2024-25. The Grizzlies brought in eight transfers and nine total newcomers. It's the largest transfer class in program history.
• There are three 1,000-point scorers on Montana's roster this season. Brandon Whitney has 1,618 points in his four years at Montana, and is joined by Kai Johnson (1,509 points in three season) and Joe Pridgen (1,422 points) in the exclusive club.
• The Montana coaching staff had no change this offseason. DeCuire is joined, as he has been for all 11 seasons, by associate head coach Chris Cobb. Jay Flores is in his 9th season with Montana, Anderson Clarke his 7th, DJ Broome his 4th, and Reuben Williams his 2nd.
• In the preseason Pomeroy College Basketball Ratings, Montana sat at 178th.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

DeCADE OF DeCUIRE

Head coach Travis DeCuire is in his 11th season at the University of Montana with a 226-133 overall record, and a 140-61 record in Big Sky play. He's the winningest coach in university history and one of the best in league history.

DeCuire's teams have been .500 or better in all 11 seasons and he's now had six 20-win years after reaching the mark on Feb. 22 at Montana State. In a lineage of great coaches, he has more 20-win seasons than any previous Grizzly mentor.

He is second in Big Sky history with 140 league wins, trailing only Weber State's Randy Rahe (198). He's also third in league history in overall wins.

Montana All-Time Wins Leaders

1. Travis DeCuire (2014-Present)   226-133 (.629)
2. George "Jiggs" Dahlberg (1937-42, 45-55)   221-223 (.498)
3. Wayne Tinkle (2006-14)   158-91 (.635)

5. Blaine Taylor (1991-98)   141-66 (.680)

Big Sky All-Time Wins Leaders

1. Randy Rahe, Weber State (316)
2. Mick Durham, Montana State (246)
3. Travis DeCuire, Montana (226)
4. Bobby Dye, Boise State (214)
5. Neil McCarthy, Weber State (205)

DeCuire is just the third coach in Grizzly history to coach for 10 seasons, joining all-time wins leader George "Jiggs" Dahlberg (16 season) and J.W. Stewart (10 seasons). In a decade at Montana, DeCuire is averaging 20.5 wins per year.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

THE MONEY WILLIAMS STORY

Sophomore guard Money Williams is playing through tragedy this season having lost his mother one month before the start of the season. The star guard also lost his father last season the night that Montana played Nevada, learning in the locker room following the game.

The rest of the Grizzly team and staff attended his father's funeral in December last year, but Williams and his family are now working through the unimaginable, dealing with the loss of two parents within a year.

The 19-year old, and his older sister Mo'Ney, are now responsible for their three younger siblings, Joanna, Jermaine, and Jeremiah Benson.

Williams set up a GoFundMe page for his family in their time of need. The page can be found HERE.

He made the decision to return to basketball this year, missing stretches of fall camp but returning for the season opener. On the floor, Williams should be one of the top players in the Big Sky Conference and is expected to help lead Montana to a potential Big Sky Championship.

The lefty playmaker has a complete skill-set, and was on pace for perhaps the best freshman season in Montana history before being injured in 2023-24. He returns at full health for a sophomore year that could be one for the books.

30 POINTS AT #11 TENNESSEE
• Money Williams scored 30 points on 8-of-15 shooting, including 4-of-7 from beyond the arc, in the loss at #11 Tennessee. Williams was aggressive, getting to the free throw line to go 10-of-13 from the stripe.
• Williams is the first Big Sky player since Weber State's Harold Arceneaux (3/13/99) to score 30 points on an SEC opponent. Arceneaux did it against Florida during an overtime loss in the NCAA Tournament.
• He's the first Grizzly in the 21st century to score 30 points against a Power 4 opponent. The last known 30-point game against any school from the current P4 was Eric Hays' 32-point outing in the near upset of UCLA in the 1975 NCAA Tournament.
• It's also only the second known 30-point game by a Grizzly against a ranked opponent, joining Hays.
• Against Rick Barnes' Tennessee teams over the last decade, it's just the 10th 30-point game in regulation, 8th in the regular season, 5th from outside of the SEC, and 3rd in Knoxville.
• Williams was the first player since Auburn's Samir Doughty (32) in 2020 to score 30+ against the Volunteers, and the first non-SEC player since Mercer's Ike Nwamu (30) on Dec. 22, 2014, according to Tennessee.
• He's the first Big Sky player to score 30 against a ranked opponent since Daylen Kountz (Northern Colorado) scored 33 against #8 Arizona on Dec. 15, 2021.

BIG SKY HONORS
• Big Sky Top Reserve
   o Williams came off the bench for the final 11 games of the regular season and earned the league's Top Reserve Award.
   o His production increased after moving to the bench, scoring 14.5 points as a reserve. He has scored in double figures eight times off the bench for the Griz.
• Second Team All-Big Sky
   o Williams earned a place on the All-Conference Second Team after leading co-champion Montana in scoring during league play.
   o Williams averaged 13.4 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 3.5 assists per game in Big Sky games.
• All-Tournament Team
   o He was 1 of 3 Grizzlies to be named to the Big Sky All-Tournament Team, as voted on by the media.
   o Averaged 12.0 points, 3.0 assists, 2.7 rebounds, and 1.3 steals at the tournament.

MORE ON MONEY
Money Williams caught the attention of many around the league, and the country, with his play as a true freshman in 2023-24 prior to his injury. He is expected to be one of the top players in the conference in 2024-25, and has already garnered some national attention.

Williams' name appeared in a Bleacher Report NBA Mock Draft. They had him going 46th overall to the Charlotte Hornets, and had his pro comparison as Cameron Payne.

The website NBABigBoard.com lists Williams as a "favorite deep sleeper, under-the-radar prostpects to watch" this year.

SLAM recently shared Williams' story to their 1.3 million followers.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK (x2)
Money Williams was named the Big Sky Conference Player of the Week on Tuesday, Nov. 19 following his road performances against Tennessee and Utah State. It's the second time that Williams has earned the honor in his career.

He averaged 27.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists, and 2.0 steals during the week. He got hot from three-point range, making 7-of-16 (.438) while also making 16 total free throws in the two games.

Williams scored 30 points at Tennessee to become the first non-SEC player to do so in Knoxville since 2014. Williams backed that performance up with 25 points at Utah State, helping to lead a second-half charge that cut the Aggie lead to just two points on multiple occasions.
Williams led the league in scoring at 22.0 points per game during the first week of league action.

Williams also led the conference with seven steals through two games while averaging 4.5 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game as well. Williams is the first Grizzly since Sayeed Pridgett to win multiple POTW honors in the same season.

CHAMPIONSHIP CULTURE

25 BIG SKY CHAMPIONSHIPS · 13 REGULAR SEASON TITLES · 13 NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

WINNING WAYS

- Entering 2024-25, Montana is one of 14 schools nationally to post a .500 or better record in 16 consecutive seasons (Arizona, Baylor, Belmont, Cincinnati, Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Memphis, Michigan State, Montana, Saint Mary's, San Diego State, Vermont, VCU). Head Coach Travis DeCuire has never had a losing season at Montana.
- From 2012-13 through 2021-22, the Grizzlies were one of 40 programs nationally to win at least 65 percent of their games (202-118, .612). During a two-year span from 2017-18 through 2018-19, Montana went to back-to-back NCAA tournaments and won 75.4 percent of its games (52-17, 24th nationally).
- Montana has won 226 games over the previous 11 seasons, tied for the 55th most in the NCAA during that stretch. It's also the most wins in the Big Sky in the time. The Griz have more wins than notable programs Illinois, Indiana, and Syracuse during DeCuire's tenure.
- Montana has won 80.7 percent of its home games (130-31) under head coach Travis DeCuire. They are 43rd in the NCAA in home winning percentage during his tenure.

CHAMPIONSHIP CULTURE

- Montana has won more Big Sky tournament titles than any other school (12). The Grizzlies also have won the regular-season title 13 times.
- From 1991-2019, every four-year player won a conference championship at Montana.
- Montana has now won six regular-season Big Sky titles in the past 13 seasons, and has finished in the top three all but twice dating back to 2008-09.
- DeCuire has won 17 conference tournament games at Montana. The Griz have the most wins in the Big Sky during the time, and the 18th-most in the NCAA.

DANCING IN MARCH

- Montana will play in the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time, and a 3rd time under Coach DeCuire.
- The Grizzlies' first NCAA Tournament appearance came in 1975, earning a win over Utah State in the Round-of-32 before narrowly falling to John Wooden's final national championship team at UCLA. Montana also earned an NCAA Tournament win in 2006, knocking off No. 5 seed Nevada.
- Montana will play in the NCAA Tournament for the 6th time in the past 16 seasons. The Grizzlies have played in the NIT four times and CBI twice.
- The Griz won a game at the 2024 CBI Tournament. It was the first postseason victory for the Grizzlies since 2006.

GRIZ HISTORY

- Notable former head coaches include College Basketball Hall of Famers Jud Heathcote and Mike Montgomery, in addition to Montana alums Blaine Taylor, Larry Krystkowiak and Wayne Tinkle.
- Krystkowiak is Montana's all-time leading scorer (2,017) and rebounder (1,105). He is one of 123 Division-I players in NCAA history with more than 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.
- Montana has had seven NBA Draft picks, including first-round selections Michael Ray Richardson and Lee Johnson. Currently, more than a dozen former players are playing professionally overseas. At least 75 players total have continued their playing careers after college.

Now in his 11th season as head coach of the Montana men's basketball program, Travis DeCuire continues to etch his name into the Grizzlies' record book. DeCuire has led Montana to four Big Sky Conference regular-season championships (2015, 2018, 2019, 2025), three Big Sky tournament titles (2018, 2019, 2025) and three NCAA tournament berths (2018, 2019, 2025).

In a lineage of historic coaches, DeCuire (pronounced: duh-CURE) is the only one to lead Montana to four Big Sky regular-season titles, winning in 2015 – his first season – despite Montana being picked eighth in the preseason poll, and going back-to-back in 2018 and 2019. That dominant two-year stretch saw the Grizzlies win regular-season and tournament titles both years, winning a school-record 52 games over the two seasons. He was named coach of the year by the Big Sky and NABC District 6 in 2018. He added another ring to his collection in 2025 after a 15-3 regular season record.

DeCuire's 226-133 record (.629 winning percentage) is historic on many levels. On February 27, 2025 DeCuire passed George 'Jiggs' Dahlberg, who won 221 games across two stints and whom the arena is named after, for the most wins in program history with his 222nd victory. In January 2022, DeCuire passed College Basketball Hall of Famer Mike Montgomery and his predecessor, Wayne Tinkle, on the school's all-time wins lists. Only George

On a conference level, DeCuire is the Big Sky's active leader for wins, owning a 140-61 league mark (.697 winning percentage), including a .500 or better record against every Big Sky opponent. His 201 overall wins rank fifth in Big Sky history. His 125 Big Sky wins rank second all-time, trailing only Weber State's Randy Rahe.

DeCuire was the fastest coach in league history to win 50 Big Sky games, needing just 65 games to do so, and the second-fastest to 100 wins.

Montana has had a winning record each season under DeCuire, including five 20-win seasons and five postseason berths (2018 NCAA, 2019 NCAA, 2015 NIT, 2016 CBI, 2024 CBI). At the Big Sky tournament, DeCuire has produced an impressive 15-7 record, including five appearances in the title game and a league-record eight straight wins from 2018 through 2021.

DeCuire has coached nine first-team All-Big Sky selections, in addition to six second-team honorees, plus the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year, Newcomer of the Year (twice), Top Reserve (twice) and tournament MVP (twice). He has developed three of the top-eight scorers in school history in Sayeed Pridgett, Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine.

He has coached eight of Montana's 37 1,000-point scorers in his time in Missoula. In addition to the previously mentioned trio, he has also coached Brandon Whitney, Jordan Gregory, Josh Bannan, Martin Breunig, and Aanen Moody as they reached 1,000 career points. Moody and Breunig were able to achieve this historic feat in just two seasons under DeCuire.

Rorie, the 2019 Big Sky tournament MVP, reached 1,500 career points faster than any player in Montana history, doing so in his third season with the program. Oguine was the 2018 tournament MVP and league's top defender, and finished his career ranked in the top 10 for scoring, steals and games started.

Pridgett was a two-time All-Big Sky first-team selection who finished his career ranked fourth for career scoring, sixth for steals and in the top 15 for assists and rebounds. DeCuire also coached big man Martin Breunig, a two-time first-team all-league pick, and Jordan Gregory, who earned first-team honors in 2015.

Josh Bannan earned first-team honors in 2023 and second-team in 2022 before leaving Montana to go pro prior to his senior season and establishing himself immediately as one of the top players in the highly competitive NBL in his native Australia.

The latest All-Conference player in DeCuire's resume is Aanen Moody. The transfer player scored 1,040 points in just two years at Montana, averaging 16.8 per game as a senior while leading Montana to 24 wins and a Big Sky Championship appearance.

Off the court, DeCuire proudly boasts a 100-percent graduation rate, in addition to earning the NABC Team Academic Award six times (2016, 2017, 2020, 2021, 2022, and 2023). Montana has obtained a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average for eight consecutive semesters, and in 2020-21, Montana earned a 3.30 team grade-point average, with 10 student-athletes earning Academic All-Big Sky recognition and zero falling below a 2.0 GPA. DeCuire has mentored two of Montana's eight Academic All-Americans in Gregory (2015) and Josh Bannan (2022, 2023).

Also off the court, multiple team conversations about social and racial injustices led to action in 2020, including 100-percent voter registration, a solidarity message on the backs of each jersey and the launch of a Free Little Library on campus. The library, which was funded and established by the men's basketball program, features minority-themed literature that the community can freely take from or add to.

2023-24: Montana won a postseason game for just the third time in program history as the Griz reached the quarterfinals of the CBI. The 24 wins were tied for eighth-most in program history as DeCuire led his team to the Big Sky title game for the fifth time in 10 seasons. The Grizzlies were 12-6 in Big Sky play to finish in a tie for second, and built much of their success around a terrific offense that set a program record for total points with 2,768. Aanen Moody earned first-team All-Conference honors and reached the 1,000-point mark as a Grizzly, while Brandon Whitney and Dischon Thomas also scored their 1,000th collegiate points during the year.

2022-23: The Griz won 17 games and reached the semifinals of the Big Sky Conference tournament. After a slow start to Big Sky play, Montana turned things around by winning seven of the final eight games of the regular season. The Grizzlies set school record for the third year in a row with a .788 percentage, which ranked 6th in the NCAA. Bannan and transfer Aanen Moody both reached 1,000 career points during the season. Montana were elite from beyond the arc offensively (.372 percentage, 32nd nationally) and defensively (.322 percentage, 81st nationally).

2021-22: Montana earned 18 wins, including a 7-4 mark in non-conference play, which saw the Grizzlies win the Zootown Classic tournament title. Paced by Bannan, Montana then started 8-2 in Big Sky play, helping DeCuire become the fourth coach in Big Sky history to win 100 league games. Montana set a school record from the free-throw line for the second year in a row (.782, 10th in NCAA in 2021-22) and was among the nation's leaders for turnovers per game (10.2, 20th), turnover margin (+2.9, 35th) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.28, 46th).

2020-21: Montana continued to develop young talent, with a trio of freshmen setting school records for scoring, minutes played and starts by a freshman class. Montana was the only school in the nation to have three true freshmen average at least 25.0 minute per game and was one of only two schools to have its freshman class total 2,000 minutes played. Despite all of that, Montana earned a Pac-12 road win over Washington before peaking at the right time and winning its final four games of the regular season, followed by a pair of victories in the Big Sky tournament, including an upset win over No. 3-seed Weber State. Montana set a then-school record from the charity stripe, making 78.2 percent of its free-throw attempts.

2019-20: Following back-to-back championship seasons, Montana began developing its next wave of talent, with true freshmen – including the Big Sky Freshman of the Year – accounting for a then-school-record 40 starts. The Grizzlies ranked 21st nationally for shooting (.498) and led the Big Sky for field-goal percentage, 3-point field-goal percentage and turnover margin, also ranking in the top three for seven additional categories. Led by Pridgett, an MVP candidate, Montana entered the final week of the regular season in first place and would have been a legitimate Big Sky tournament contender had the tournament and postseason not been wiped out due to the emergence of the COVID-19 pandemic.

2018-19: After graduating just one senior from the 2018 championship team, Montana was an overwhelming favorite to repeat as champions in 2019. The Grizzlies, led by Rorie and Oguine, didn't disappoint, winning 26 games, tied for the third-most in school history. During non-conference, the Grizzlies beat a pair of NCA tournament teams in Georgia State and North Dakota State, and snapped South Dakota State's nation-leading 26-game home winning streak. After beginning Big Sky play just 3-2, Montana then won 16 of its next 18 games to repeat as Big Sky regular-season and tournament champions.

2017-18: The 2017-18 season was historic on many levels, with the Grizzlies winning 26 games and winning both the Big Sky regular-season and tournament titles to advance to the NCAA tournament. The team's record included a road win at Pitt of the ACC and a perfect 14-0 mark on its home court.

Montana won its first 13 Big Sky games, the third-longest winning streak in school history and the third-longest active streak in the NCAA at that time, including a program-record seven consecutive road victories. Montana used the same starting lineup in all 34 contests and led the Big Sky in five statistical categories while ranking in the top 30 nationally for turnovers forced, steals and turnover margin.

2016-17: Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies earned a .500 record and a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition.

2015-16: In DeCuire's second season, he posted another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by Breunig. DeCuire's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 record. DeCuire is the only coach in Montana history to win at least 20 games in each of his first two seasons.

2014-15: In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCuire's Grizzlies started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by Gregory, Montana would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to play Texas A&M in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). At the time, DeCuire became only the second coach in Montana history to notch 20 victories in his first season – a feat also accomplished by his former coach Blaine Taylor, in 1991-92 when DeCuire was a player for the Griz.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCuire spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCuire helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley.

DeCuire spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor.

DeCuire's roots remain in the Seattle area, where he grew up, started his non-profit and broke into the coaching profession. He served as the head coach at both Sammamish High School and Green River Community College.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCuire was named All-Big Sky as a junior and senior. He set a school record, despite playing just three seasons, with 435 career assists – a mark which still stands today. He also established Montana's single-season record with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists per game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eaheart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year. Montana won a pair of Big Sky championships during his Griz career, advancing to the NCAA tournament in both 1991 and 1992.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii in 1989-90, he was a starter and team MVP. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. As a prep, DeCuire starred in the Rainier Valley and at Mercer Island High School, where he was a three-year starter and all-state selection, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick.

DeCuire has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he was a counselor the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Washington, from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCuire graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna and Tamia.

*Williams was the Big Sky's Top Reserve and a Second Team All-Conference Selection in 2025. He also earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team at the Big Sky Championship.
*The sophomore has received NBA Draft buzz already. He was projected as a second round pick in a Bleacher Report 2025 NBA Mock Draft, and has had scouts attend several games this season.
*Williams is playing this season through unimaginable tragedy. His father passed away last season, and his mother passed away in October.
*Attended the same high school as Damian Lillard, leading Oakland HS to their first ever state title.

2024-25 NOTES AND GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Williams was named the Big Sky's Top Reserve this year after coming off the bench for the final 11 games of the season. He also earned Second Team All-Conference honors.

• He was a member of the All-Tournament Team at the Big Sky Championship in Boise as the Grizzlies won the title. Williams scored in double figures twice, averaging 12.0 points per game and going 15-of-16 at the free throw line.

• Since moving to the sixth-man role, he has led Montana in scoring with 14.5 points per game. He shot 40 percent from three and 82.2 percent from the free throw line in the 11 games off the bench.

• Williams scored a career-high 36 points at Portland State on March 1. It's the most points in a game by a Big Sky player this season, and the most by a Grizzly in a conference game since 2018.

• Became only the 3rd player to score 30 points against a Rick Barnes coached Tennessee team in Knoxville.

• He averaged 22.0 points per game and 5.3 rebounds during the three game stretch across the final five days of the regular season to help Montana close out a championship.

• Has scored in double figures 17 times, 20+ points six times, and 30+ points twice. He ended the regular season averaging 29.5 points per game over the final two contests.

• Has led Montana in scoring nine times this season and assists 17 times, both the most on the team.

• Williams' 36 points at Portland State on March 1 are tied for the 18th most in a road game in the NCAA this season. He's only the 4th Grizzly since 2010 to score at least 35 points in a road game, joining Aanen Moody (x2), Michael Oguine, and Jordan Gregory.

• Led Montana in scoring during the regular season, averaging 13.5 points per game.

• Williams has been named Big Sky Player of the Week twice this season. He earned the honor on Nov. 19 after a 30-point outing at Tennessee, and did so again the first week of conference play after leading the lead with 22.0 points per game.

• First Grizzly since Sayeed Pridgett to win multiple Player of the Week awards in the same season.

• Regular season Big Sky ranks in conference play
  o 8th in FT% (.739)
  o 9th in assists (3.5 APG)
  o 9th in steals (1.22 SPG)
  o 10th in assist/turnover ratio (1.37)

o 12th in scoring (13.4 PPG)
• set new career high with 9 assists against Idaho (1/20).
• Recorded his 100th career assist against Idaho (1/20).
• Set a new career high with four steals at Eastern Washington (1/2).
• Made 10 field goals in the win over Eastern Washington (1/2), setting a new career high for makes on another career high (20) attempts.

*Johnson was an All-Tournament Team member at the Big Sky Championship after scoring 23 points in the title game victory.

*Johnson has been a high impact starter for Montana in 2024-25 as an all-around guard. In a deep rotation of guards, he has left his mark by leading Montana in steals and scoring in double figures 18 times.

*Originally a walk-on at D-II Western Washington.

*Scored 27 points in his first game at Montana, setting a new program record for points in a debut.

*Sustained a slight lower leg injury at Sacramento State, and was limited in the final three games of the regular season as a result.

2024-25 NOTES AND GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Named to the All-Tournament Team at the Big Sky Championship after scoring 23 points on 70 percent shooting in the title game. He went 7-of-8 at the free throw line and made both his three-point attempts.

• Johnson was snubbed of any Big Sky All-Conference honors despite being the catalyst to the Grizzlies' hot finish to the season. The Grizzlies were 5-2 in conference play when he was on the bench, and finished 10-1 in the final 11 games with Johnson as a starter.

• Scored his 1,500th career point in the Big Sky Championship Game.

• Has scored in double figures nine times since re-entering the starting lineup on Jan. 25 vs. Montana State. He's had 10+ 18 times this season, and Montana is 16-2 when he scores in double figures.

• Since rejoining the starting unit, ranks second on Montana in scoring with 12.8 points per game. He is shooting 55.2 percent from the floor and 36.4 percent from three in the 11 games, and also averages 3.3 rebounds per game with 16 total steals.

• had 25 points in his first-ever Brawl of the Wild. It's the most points by a Grizzly in their first rivalry game since Ahmaad Rorie had 28 points in a win over the Cats on Feb. 4, 2017.

• the 25 points against MSU were a career high against D-1 opponents.

• Regular season Big Sky ranks in conference play
  o 4th in steals (1.44 SPG)

• Made 11 field goals against Montana State (1/25), a season-high. It's the second time this year he's made 10+ field goals.

• Has at least one block or steal in 28 games this year.
  o Has a steal in 21 games.
  o Has a block in 13 games.
  o Has both in in 7 games.

• Played in his 100th career game on Jan. 9 against Northern Arizona.

• Recorded season-high five steals at Eastern Washington (1/2), and has at least 3 steals in six games this year.

• Johnson averaged 24.0 points per game in the Brawl this year, shooting 63.3 percent from the floor and 40.0 percent from three point range. He also went 8-of-11 (.727) from the free throw line.

• A minor injury slowed his production down to end the year. Averaged just 4.3 points per game over the final three contests, playing fewer than 24 minutes in all of them.

• His dad is 5'9" and his mom 5'3". He was 5'3" as a freshman, 5'5" as a sophomore and grew to over 6'0" as a junior.

•Has led Montana in scoring a co-team-high nine times. Has also led Montana in steals 14 times and blocks 8 times.

*Moore, who says he models his game after Devon Booker, provided some smooth scoring for the Griz in 2024-25. The Pepperdine transfer finished the regular season second on Montana with 13.2 points per game, and led them with 55 made three pointers.

*Second Team All-Big Sky Selection in 2025.

*He's a career 39.3 percent three-point shooter, making a career best 60 shots from the arc this season. He is shooting 41.1 percent from three as a Grizzly.

*Missed the start of the season with a shoulder injury, making his season debut in the Stew Morrill Classic on Nov. 24.

2024-25 NOTES AND GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Named a finalist for the CollegeInsider.com Riley Wallace Award, which is given annually to the most impactful transfer in D-1 college basketball.

• Montana is 15-3 when he makes multiple threes in a game, and 9-1 when he makes at least three shots from the arc. They have won 9 straight games in which Moore makes 3-or-more threes.

• Has been the most consistent scorer for Montana, scoring at least seven points in every Big Sky game this year.

• Has scored in double figures 20 times, and did so 13 times in Montana's 18 Big Sky Conference games.

• Leads Montana with 60 made threes, shooting 41.1 percent from the arc this season. He has multiple made threes in 18 of his 29 appearances this season.

• Moore is having the 8th best three-point shooting season in program history in terms of make percentage (min. 50 3PM).

• Regular season Big Sky ranks in conference play
  o 14th in scoring (12.8 PPG)
  o 14th in minutes (30.5 MPG)
  o 15th in assists (2.3 APG)

• Made a game-winning three-pointer in the final minute on the road against Weber State (1/16) as part of an 18-point game.

• Scored his 800th career point in the Big Sky Semifinal win over Idaho.

• Has scored 20+ points four times this season. The Griz are 3-1 in those games.

• Dished out a career-high 7 assists in the win over Montana Tech (12.10.24).

• Has led Montana in scoring eight times, and assists 12 times.

TYLER THOMPSON

FRESHMAN

GUARD | 6-6 / 190

FAIRFIELD, CALIFORNIA

(VANDEN HS)

*Thompson is a highly touted recruit out of Vanden HS in California. A small forward in high school, he will likely transition to more of a big-guard role at the collegiate level. As the only true freshman on Montana's roster, and at a position that is deep with talent, he spent 2024-25 as redshirt to get used to the collegiate level.

*The freshman was a three-star prospect in high school and was the 19th ranked player in the state of California, according to ESPN.com.

*Thompson will be redshirting the 2024-25 season.

*Jedkins is an elite level athlete at the forward position, and provided plenty of highlights for Montana this year as a key rotation player. The 6-7 transfer from Green Bay has incredible hops, but can also stretch the floor.
*He redshirted his first season at Green Bay and was injured last year, but is 100% healthy going into 2024-25. He did suffer a different injury at St. Thomas on Dec. 7, 2024 and missed the next six games, but has appeared in every game this season for Montana when healthy.
*His uncle, Jim Chones, is the radio analyst for the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was an All-American at Marquette before playing 10 years professionally.

2024-25 NOTES AND GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Montana's "eighth man," appearing in more games than anyone on the team outside of the top seven rotation players.
• Has scored in 12 of 28 appearances this year, but hasn't recorded a point in the previous eight games.
• Has a rebound in 19 of 28 appearances.
• Injured his ankle on Dec. 7 at St. Thomas, and missed six games.
• Returned to the floor for the first time in over a month against Northern Colorado (1/11), playing 7 minutes.

*Dargan is one of three non-D-1 transfers on Montana's roster this year. He played his last two years at West Valley College, starting 62 games as a jack-of-all-trades guard.

*He is an excellent athlete with high-flying ability, and can also defend and share the ball. He was a good re-bounder for his size at the community college level, and could possibly see minutes in 2024-25.

*Dargan loves the outdoors, which was part of the reason he moved to Montana. He's also worn size 17 shoes since middle school.

2024-25 GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Has appeared in 11 total games, and five Big Sky games.

*First Team All-Conference selection this year after walking on at UM over the summer.
*He's in his fifth season of college basketball and has over 1,300 points and 750 rebounds.
*He started his career at Holy Cross, where he was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year after averaging 17.4 points and 6.8 rebounds as a true freshman.
*He will return to Montana in 2025-26 for his final season of collegiate eligibility.
*Pridgen and his wife Grace welcomed a baby girl, Samarra, in 2024.

2024-25 GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

- Will be making his 100th career start.
- Montana's lone member of the All-Big Sky First Team. Averaged 10.5 points and 6.3 rebounds while shooting over 60 percent from the floor in league play.
- Pridgen has shot above 50 percent in 31 games this season. It's the second most in the country behind only Ven-Allen Lubin of North Carolina.
- had his second double-double in Big Sky Conference play this season in the regular season finale against Eastern Washington, recording 11 points and 11 rebounds.
- Has five double-doubles this season, tied for the 10th most by a Grizzly in the last 45 years.
- Has led Montana in rebounding a team-high 20 times.
- The Griz are 6-1 when he has at least 10 rebounds, and were undefeated in league play when he reached the mark.
- Ranks 14th nationally and leads the Big Sky by shooting 63.6 percent from the floor this season.
- Regular season Big Sky ranks in conference play
  - o 6th in rebounding (6.3 RPG)
  - o 8th in blocks (0.72 BPG)
- Has 10+ rebounds in four of Montana's Big Sky Conference games.
- is shooting the best field goal percentage (min. 200 FGA) by a Grizzly since Andrew Strait shot 64.0 percent in 2007-08.
- Has scored his most points (391) in a single year since scoring 521 as a freshman at Holy Cross in 2019-20.
- Has made at least 10 field goals in three games this year.
- Had the No. 2 play on Sportscenter's Top 10 for his poster slam on Dec. 10 against Montana Tech.
- Pridgen was named the MVP of the Stew Morrill Classic this year, averaging 17.3 points and 8.7 rebounds across Montana's three wins. He was also named the Big Sky Player of the Week following his performance.

*Whitney is 9th in program history in scoring with 1,618 points. He has more minutes (4,727) and starts (150) than any other player in Big Sky history. He has played in more games than any other player in Montana history.

*Big Sky Tournament MVP, Second Team All-Big Sky, Big Sky All-Defensive Team, and Preseason All-Big Sky this season.

*He averaged 10.0+ PPG in his first four seasons at Montana. He's just the 3rd player in program history with four seasons of double-digit scoring.

2024-25 GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Broke head coach Travis DeCuire's career assist record at Montana in the regular season finale, recording his 436th assist. Is up to 442 now.

• Made his 150th career start, the most in Big Sky history, in the conference championship game.

• Second Team All-Big Sky and a member of the league's All-Defensive Team this season.

• Montana is 15-0 when Brandon Whitney scores in double figures this season. They are 10-9 when he's held to single digits.

  o Whitney averages 11.2 points on nearly seven shots per game in wins.

  o He is held to just 4.7 points on fewer than four shots per game in losses.

• Ranks 9th in program history with 1,618 career points. He trails Michael Oguine by 29 points for 8th.

• More starts (150) and minutes (4,727) than any player in Big Sky history. Ranks in the top 100 in minutes played in NCAA history.

• Has scored in double figures in 6 of the last 9 games. He's been in double figures 15 times this season with a high of 24 points vs. Northern Arizona in the Big Sky Second Round.

• He has played at least 30 minutes in seven straight games, and has eclipsed the half-hour mark 18 times this season.

• Made multiple threes in the Big Sky championship game. Just the 13th time in his career with 2+ threes in a game. He's made 3+ just three times.

• Regular season Big Sky ranks in conference play
  o 13th in assists (2.7 APG)

• Has shot above 50 percent 22 times this season, including six of the previous seven games.

• Has led Montana in minutes 13 times this season, most on the team. Has also led in scoring 6 times and assists 10.

• averaged 10.8 PPG at home, but just 5.8 PPG on the road. In 3 neutral site games, he's averaging 16.3 PPG.

• Averaging career low 9.5 points per game. Averaged at least 10.0 PPG in first four seasons at Montana.

• Recorded 100th career steal against Northern Colorado (1/11).

• Held Preseason Big Sky MVP Trent McLaughlin without a made three and limited him to just 28 percent shooting in the first meeting with NAU. Also didn't allow McLaughlin to make a three for the first time this season.

• Made his 500th field goal in the win over Montana Tech (12/10). He's just the 12th player in program history with at least 500 career baskets.

*Davidson redshirted in 2023-24.
*The forward saw limited minutes this season in Montana's post rotation. He's a skilled big man with his back to the basket, and has a good array of post moves.
*Davidson's parents were both D-I athletes at the University of Nevada, and his older brother Nick is currently on the Nevada roster. He was a preseason All-Mountain West selection this year.

2024-25 GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Has appeared in 15 games this year, and eight Big Sky Conference games.

*Patterson is no stranger to the Big Sky, transferring to Montana after two years at Saramento St. He averaged 9.5 points per game last year, and led a surprising tourney run that saw the 10th-seeded Hornets reach semifinals.
*The guard has been a key rotation player for Montana this season as the 7th man off the bench, averaging 20 minutes per contest as a three-point threat.
*Now in his third school, Patterson originally talked with Montana before his transfer to Sacramento St. and said that he came to UM to win a Big Sky title, a goal he has achieved.

2024-25 GAME-BY-GAME STATISTICS

• Had his best game of the season in the Big Sky Semifinal win over Idaho, scoring a team-high 20 points on 5-of-10 shooting from three.
• Held scoreless in four of the last five games of the regular season, but went on to average 10.0 points per game at the Big Sky Tournament.
• Scored in double figures six times this season, including twice in Big Sky play.
• Has made a three pointer in 24 of the 34 games this season.
• Needs 18 more points to reach 1,000 in his career.
• Has 38 made three pointers this season, shooting 38-of-96 (.396) from three-point range.
• Over half of his made field goals this year have been from beyond the arc.
• Made his 200th career three pointer in the Big Sky semifinal win over Idaho.
• Against his former team (Sacramento State), Patterson had one of his best performances of the season with 11 points, 3 assists and 3 made three pointers. He scored all 11 of his points in the first half as Montana raced ahead and cruised to a 28-point win.
• Will be making his 149th career appearance.
• Has appeared in every game this season for Montana, and has scored in 28 of the 34 games.
• Assistant coach Jay Flores gave Patterson and Kai Johnson the nickname "Bash Bros" this year after Fulton Reed and Dean Portman from D2: The Mighty Ducks.
