NCAA SUCCESS

Under Sheffield, Wisconsin has won on the NCAA level unrivaled by any other team. The Badgers are one of only three teams to compete in the Sweet 16 the last 12 years in a row.

The Badgers won the 2021 NCAA Championship, the first in program history. UW also finished as the NCAA runner-up in 2019 and 2013 while advancing to the final four three times, including 2023 most recently. Wisconsin qualified for the Elite Eight in 2024, 2022, 2018, 2016 and 2014 and the Sweet 16 in 2017 and 2015. Wisconsin is 39-10 in the last 11 years of NCAA play.

ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

Over the last 12 seasons, 20 Badger athletes have earned 44 All-Americans, including 13 first-team honorees. That total ties for the fifth-most in nation. Dana Rettke wrapped up her career as the only five-time first-team All-American in AVCA history. Sydney Hilley and Lauren Carlini were also three-time first-team All-Americans.

In addition, Sarah Franklin and Rettke were also named the AVCA National Player of the Year in 2023 and 2021.

BIG TEN CHAMPS

Wisconsin has won five Big Ten championships under Sheffield —2022, 2021, 2020, 2019 and 2014. UW is only the second Big Ten school to win four-straight titles.

Sheffield ties for second among all Big Ten coaches for most championships won.

WINNING WAYS

Wisconsin wins on a level unrivaled by few programs, as evidenced by the Badgers' win total and winning percentage over the last 12 years under head coach Kelly Sheffield. UW is 292-61 over the span for a winning percentage of .827, which ranks sixth nationally.

The Badgers have won at least 22 matches in each of the last 12 seasons (except 2020-21), sharing that feat with six other schools.

DRAWING THE FANS

Wisconsin has ranked among the top-five teams in the nation for attendance for 23 straight seasons (excluding 2020). UW has also ranked in the top 10 for attendance for 33 straight years.

In 2021, the Badgers drew a school-record 142,571 fans while in 2023, the Badgers drew an NCAA indoor record at Fiserv Forum. n 2022, the Badgers hosted Florida and at the time, set an NCAA indoor attendance record of 16,833 fans for its first Kohl Center Classic match. Two years later, in 2024, Wisconsin held a total of 15,084 fans at the Kohl Center against

BUILDING DAYTON INTO POWERHOUSE

Sheffield became the 10th head coach in Wisconsin history in December 2012 after five years (2008-12) as head coach at Dayton.

Under Sheffield, Dayton won four straight Atlantic 10 Conference championships and made five straight NCAA tournament appearances.

Sheffield was a three-time A10 Coach of the Year and two-time AVCA Northeast Region Coach of the Year. He coached four conference players of the year as well as three setters of the year. His athletes collected 12 All-America honors as well as 32 first-team all-conference awards. Two athletes were named to the USA Volleyball A2 team while three athletes have played professionally.

Sheffield was 131-33 (.799) in five years at Dayton, including a 68-4 (.944) mark in Atlantic 10 play.

ACADEMICS CRUCIAL TO CAREER

The Sheffield family— Lexi, Kelly, Cathy and Reagan.

Academics are equally important to Sheffield as two Badgers have earned four Academic All-America honors.

Sydney Hilley is a three-time first-team honoree, while Julia Orzol is a two-time Academic All-American earning Second Team in 2024 and Third Team in 2023. Lauren Carlini also earned Third Team honors in 2016.

The Badgers have earned the AVCA's Team Academic Award, presented to teams maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team grade-point average, three times while his Dayton teams earned the honor four times.

Over the last six years, nine-or-more Badgers have earned Academic All-Big Ten, including a record 12 in 2018 and 2019.

At Dayton, Sheffield had seven Academic All-Atlantic 10 honorees as the conference office selected just seven recipients every year.

OFF-THE-COURT INVOLVEMENT

Sheffield served on the AVCA's Board of Directors as the chair of the awards and Division I All-America committee. He also communicated relative rules and regulation for the association's awards and reviews proposals for new awards programs.

Sheffield was one of nine members of the NCAA Women's Volleyball Rules Committee from 2004-07, and was chair of the committee in 2006-07. While at the University of Albany, he also represented the America East Conference on the Division I Head Coaches' Committee.

HEAD COACHING CAREER BEGINS

A native of Muncie, Indiana, Sheffield served as the head coach at Albany from 2001-07. A two-time America East Coach of the Year, Sheffield led the Great Danes to three trips to the NCAA Tournament. Albany also won back-to-back conference tournament championships under Sheffield.

Sheffield mentored the first player in NCAA history to win a conference player of the year and setter of the year award for three consecutive seasons. That talent helped his 2006 squad to become the first team in school history in any sport to host an NCAA tournament contest.

"The goal is to compete for Big Ten championships at Wisconsin. If you are competing for Big Ten championships, that puts you in the top echelon of teams in the country, and that's where we want to be. But there's also a clear understanding that you have to immerse yourself in the process of getting better—that's where the daily focus has to be."

Sheffield's first team at Albany was just 4-20 while he finished with a seven-year record of 142-79 (.643).

COACHING START

Sheffield spent one season as the top assistant at Clemson and from 1998-2000, Sheffield was a first assistant coach at Virginia, aiding the Cavaliers to their first two appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Prior to Virginia, Sheffield served as an assistant at the in 1997 when the Cougars captured their seventh consecutive NCAA berth and won the Conference USA Tournament.

He also served as the head coach of the Houston Juniors from 1997-98 and Munciana (Ind.) Volleyball Club from 1989-97. Sheffield began his coaching career at Muncie Burris High School where he was a varsity assistant for a squad that won two state championships and a national championship.

Sheffield earned his bachelor's degree in general studies from Ball State in 2001 after coaching for several years.

Sheffield and his wife Cathy are the parents of two daughters—Lexi (12) and Reagan (10). Cathy (Arnette) lettered for two seasons each at Villanova and Virginia as a setter and defensive specialist.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH BRITTANY DILDINE

The 2021 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Brittany Dildine has spent the last 12 years working as the Badgers' recruiting coordinator and on-court assistant. She specializes in coaching the UW's back-row defenders and passers.

"Brittany is a great trainer in the gym and does a fantastic job of recruiting," said head coach Kelly Sheffield. "Her passion for the game, her unbelievable work ethic, and how she relates to people absolutely set her apart."

"I believe that Kelly has the drive, knowledge, and leadership skills to keep this program at the top of the Big Ten and win a national championship one day," said Dildine. "I would not miss this journey for anything."

ALL-AMERICANS

Dildine has coached three All-American liberos at Wisconsin.

In 2021, libero Lauren Barnes earned her second-straight, second-team All-America honor. She joins two-time All-American Taylor Morey (2014 and 2015), and 2018 All-American Tiffany Clark.

Barnes was also a two-time second-team All-Big Ten selection while Morey earned first-team honors in 2014 while also being named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year.

TOP DEFENSIVE TEAMS

In 2013 and 2014, Wisconsin led the Big Ten in digs per set. In 2014, Taylor Morey led the conference with 5.12 digs per set. The Badgers also led the Big Ten in digs per set in 2016. Wisconsin also allowed only 0.54 service aces per set that season, which was tops in the conference.

In 2019, the Badgers were one of the nation's top teams on serve receive, allowing only 0.85 service aces per set.

In 2023, Dildine played a pivotal role in transitioning former outside hitter Julia Orzoł to starting libero. Orzol started 28 matches at libero, leading the team with 3.46 digs per set.

"The University of Wisconsin is a recruiting coordinator's dream job. It's the whole package between the academic prowess, the beautiful lakefront campus, and an athletic department that has laid the foundation for multiple programs to find success at an elite level. Recruits will not have to choose only one of these things; at Wisconsin they can have it all."

TOP RECRUITS

On the recruiting trail, Dildine has brought in seven top-20 classes to Wisconsin, including the No. 2 class in 2017, the No. 3 class in 2015 and the No. 4 class in 2013 and 2020.

AWARD WINNER

In 2014, Dildine was named one of the AVCA's Thirty under 30 award winners, recognizing up-and-coming coaching talent at all levels of the sport under the age of 30. In 2021, she became the first Badger to be named the AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year.

CAREER START AT DAYTON

In four seasons at Dayton, Dildine aided the Flyers to a 110-20 (.846) mark, including a 57-2 (.967) mark in Atlantic 10 Conference play. Dayton won four straight A-10 titles and also advanced to four straight NCAA tournaments.

Dildine, who coached the Flyers' defensive specialists and passers, proved to be one of the top assistant coaches in the country after Dayton was named College Volleyball Update's Defensive Team of the Year in 2010. The Flyers led the Atlantic 10 in opponent hitting percentage and blocks in 2010 and 2011, as well as digs in 2010.

During her four seasons, Dayton had five All-Americans, four conference players of the year and seven first-team all-conference honorees. Included in the list of award winners under Dildine's tutelage were Amanda Cowdrey, a first-team all-conference honoree in 2010, who ranked fourth in the A-10 in digs per set during conference play. Paige Vargas earned second-team honors in 2011, ranking second in the league in digs per set, and Janna Krafka was named to the all-rookie team in 2012 after leading Dayton with 4.47 digs per set.

Dildine came to Dayton after serving as a volunteer assistant coach for her alma mater, Purdue, during the 2008 season. She began her coaching career with the Performance Point Volleyball Club and Harrison High School Volleyball Club that same year.

TWO-SPORT STAR AT PURDUE

The Lafayette, Indiana, native excelled in two sports as a student-athlete for the Boilermaker's nationally ranked volleyball and women's basketball programs. Dildine guided the volleyball team to two NCAA Regional appearances as a libero/outside hitter and helped the basketball team to an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2007.

As a player, Dildine became the 10th Boilermaker in program history to reach 1,000 digs and finished her career ranked fifth in career digs with 1,243. Dildine also notched double-digit dig tallies 60 times in her career, including 20-or-more digs on eight occasions.

"Big Ten volleyball is arguably the toughest, most competitive conference in the country," said Dildine. "Being a Big Ten athlete, I understand that the battles across the net come at you full steam ahead and I want it no other way. I have tremendous respect for the coaches in this conference and am honored to join such an elite group of professionals."

In the classroom, she earned a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership and supervision in 2007 and a bachelor's degree in health promotion in the spring of 2009. Dildine was one of three in her graduating class to earn the Outstanding Achievement Award.

Dildine married Jessica Cohen in June 2022. Cohen works as a physical therapist with the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

ASSISTANT COACH LAUREN CARLINI

Lauren Carlini is no stranger to Wisconsin Badger volleyball as she returns to her alma matter, but this time as part of the volleyball staff. In 2024, Carlini was named as an Offensive Analyst Strategy Consultant. As of July 2025, Carlini has been eleveated and named as a full-time Assistant Coach.

"Today is a great day for Wisconsin Volleyball," Badger head coach Kelly Sheffield said. "I am so excited to bring Lauren back to be a member of our staff. Her love and knowledge of this university, city, and program run deep. Lauren had as big of an impact on the Wisconsin Volleyball program as anyone who has ever come through here, and she has continued to elevate the teams she has been a part of throughout her professional career – including setting her team to a Champions League title, winning an Olympic Silver Medal, and now being a founding member of the new professional team here in Wisconsin. She has played the game for more than 20 years and I'm looking forward to her bringing all of that knowledge and passion back to Madison."

As a collegiate athlete here at Wisconsin, Carlini became one of the most decorated athletes in program history. The six-foot-two setter starred from 2013-16 and racked up four American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-American awards, including three First Team honors as a sophomore, junior, and senior, and Second Team honors as a freshman. In the Big Ten, Carlini totaled four First Team All-Big Ten, and was named 2014 and 2015 Big Ten Setter of the Year, and 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year. Lastly, in her final year as a Badger, Carlini was recognized with the Sullivan Awards for best amateur athlete in any sport.

After her time at UW, Carlini went on to play professionally in Italy, Russia and Turkey. During her seven years overseas, Carlini earned one Champions League title (2019 with Igor Gorgonzola Novara of Italy) and six domestic cup medals. She was named to the U.S. Women's National Team in 2016. In 2017 and 2019, she earned Gold at the Pan American Cup. On top of that, she earned MVP and Best Setter in 2018. Carlini was named to the 2024 Paris Olympic roster, where she helped the U.S. to a silver medal.

In 2024-25, Carlini became a founding athlete of LOVB Madison in LOVB's inaugural season. Carlini led the league with 695 assists and was named Setter of the Year.

ASSISTANT COACH JOHN SHONDELL

John Shondell enters his first season with the Badgers as of July 2025. No stranger to the game of volleyball, Shondells brings 20+ years of coaching experience to the Badgers.

Shondell recently spent a season with the Indy Ignite, of the Pro Volleyball Federation, as an assistant coach. Prior to the Ignite, Shondell spent 19 seasons at Purdue as an assistant coach.

"John brings an enormous amount of coaching knowledge and experience, and I'm thrilled about adding him to the Wisconsin staff," said head coach Kelly Shefield. "His passion for the game, commitment to the student-athlete and teaching ability are second to none."

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL AND ANALYTICS GARY WHITE

Gary White has spent the last 12 seasons at Wisconsin, including the last three years as an associate head coach. He followed head coach Kelly Sheffield from Dayton as an assistant coach for the first nine seasons. As of July 2025, White has been elevated as the program's Director of Player Personnel and Analytics where he will help oversee roster management, player personnel, and revene sharing strategy.

ALL-AMERICANS

White has aided six Badger middle blockers to All-America honors, including five-time first-team selection and 2017 National Freshman of the Year and 2021 National Player of the Year Dana Rettke. Haleigh Nelson and Tionna Williams both earned three All-America honors. Carter Booth and Danielle Hart collected third team honors in 2023 and 2022 while Dominique Thompson earned honorable mention accolades in 2014.

"Gary has proven to be invaluable," said head coach Kelly Sheffield. "First of all, nobody outworks him. He is constantly thinking of ways to make the program better and is a real student of the game. Secondly, he is really good in the gym. He is a great trainer and players love playing for, and working with him."

VOLUNTEERING AT DAYTON

White served as a volunteer assistant coach at Dayton for two seasons where his duties included on-court training, opponent video breakdown, and overseeing the program's statistical and video analysis systems. White also aided Samantha Selsky to two All-America honors. Selsky was also named the Atlantic 10 Conference Setter of the Year in 2011 and 2012.

"I'm ecstatic to continue working at Wisconsin," said White. "This city is exciting and has a strong sense of community, and has a university that supports everything it means to become the best you can be.

"Wisconsin offers the best of what a college experience is all about—a world-class education, an excellent athletic department, being a part of a capital city, and on top of all that, being surrounded by a community that supports us in our push for greatness."

"I've been able to follow the Badgers since I was in college and to be able to become part of the great traditions here is amazing. Wisconsin offers the best of what a college experience is all about—a world-class education, an excellent athletic department, being a part of a capital city, and on top of all that, being surrounded by a community that supports us in our push for greatness."

In White's two seasons at Dayton, the Flyers won two A10 titles and advanced to the NCAA tournament both seasons. During his time, UD compiled a 52-12 overall record and a 28-1 conference mark.

White served as a head coach and setting coordinator with the Kingdom Volleyball Club in Springfield, Ohio, for one season and with the Virginia Elite Volleyball Club in Great Falls. Virginia, for three years. While coaching with those clubs, White trained more than 20 future college athletes while overseeing all aspects of training including team and individual development.

White earned his bachelor's degree in information sciences and technology from Penn State in 2007 while playing on the club volleyball team. He has a master's degree in systems engineering from George Washington in 2010. Prior to joining Dayton, the Perkasie, Pennsylvania, native spent five years as a systems engineer for Lockheed Martin and The SI Organization in the Washington, D.C., area.

Gary and his wife, Amy, live in Oregon. They have one daughter named Callie born in the spring of 2024.

SUPPORT STAFF

Jessica (Yanz) Williams has served as Wisconsin's Director of Volleyball Operations since January 2018, returning to the role she also held from 2013–15 as part of Head Coach Kelly Sheffield's initial staff.

Since her return, Wisconsin has experienced one of the most successful stretches in program history. The Badgers have won four Big Ten championships (2019, 2020, 2021, 2023), advanced to four NCAA Final Fours (2019, 2020, 2021, 2022), finished as the NCAA runner-up in 2019, and captured the 2021 NCAA National Championship — the first in program history.

Williams previously served as Sheffield's director of operations for two seasons at the University of Dayton (2011 and 2012) before moving into the same role at Wisconsin in 2013.

Williams played for Sheffield at Dayton, where she built a decorated career as the Flyers' setter. She earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2010, was named Atlantic 10 Setter of the Year, and received the A-10 Championship's Most Outstanding Player award. That season, she guided Dayton to an undefeated conference record, an A-10 tournament title, and a trip to the NCAA second round. She helped the Flyers set a program record for hitting percentage while leading the league in hitting percentage, kills, and assists.

Williams began her collegiate career at Penn State, reaching the NCAA Elite Eight in 2006 and winning the NCAA Championship in 2007 while helping the Nittany Lions to back-to-back Big Ten titles. She then transferred to Nebraska, where she contributed to the Huskers' run to the 2008 national semifinals and 2009 Elite Eight, while also winning the 2008 Big 12 championship. She closed her career at Dayton in 2010, leading the Flyers to the NCAA second round and winning the Atlantic 10 championship. In total, she was part of five NCAA Tournament teams and four conference championship squads across three programs.

She graduated with a degree in business administration from Nebraska in 2010 and completed her master's degree in education with a concentration in interdisciplinary studies at Dayton in 2012.

Kristen Walker is in her 20th season as the volleyball athletic trainer. Walker joined the UW sports medicine staff in the summer of 2004 after serving as a staff athletic trainer at Purdue from 1998-2004, working with the volleyball and softball teams.

A native of Tustin, California, Walker received her bachelor of science degree in biological sciences at UC-Irvine while participating on the women's basketball team. She received her master's degree in sports medicine from Oregon with an emphasis in human anatomy and exercise physiology.

With over 20 years of experience providing sports medicine coverage for Division I volleyball teams, Walker's training is an emphasis in manual therapy with coursework in Active Release Technique (ART), muscle energy, and kinesiotaping. She is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and currently resides in Madison.

Walker and her wife, Jen, live in Madison. They have two daughters, Lennon and Micah.

Kevin Schultz enters his 11th season as the Badgers strength and conditioning coach.

Schultz came to Wisconsin after serving as the director of sports performance and assistant football coach at UW-La Crosse for four seasons.

Prior to UW-L, Schultz served as the director of strength and conditioning at Carnegie Mellon University from 2008-11. He also served as an assistant football coach and assistant track and field coach for the Tartans.

Schultz received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science teaching with concentrations in strength and conditioning and coaching competitive athletics from UW-L in 2006. He was also a fullback on the Eagles football team, aiding UWL to three conference championships. Schultz earned his master's degree in exercise and sport science human performance with an emphasis in strength and conditioning also from UWL in 2008.

In 2010, Schultz received a post-masters certificate in rehabilitation sciences with an emphasis in corrective exercises from California University of Pennsylvania. In 2011, he received an associates certificate in massage therapy from the Community College of Allegheny County. In 2012 Schultz received a post-masters certificate in rehabilitation sciences with and emphasis in sport psychology from California University of Pennsylvania. He is currently pursuing his doctorate of philosophy in sports leadership.

Schultz is a registered strength and conditioning coach and a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength Coaches Association, a Level 1 certified weightlifting club coach and sports performance coach by USA Weightlifting, a certified corrective exercise specialist, certified performance enhancement specialist and certified fitness nutrition specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM), a certified strength and conditioning coach and certified technical coach by U.S. Cross Country and Track & Field, a registered level 1 coach by USA Track & Field, a certified sports nutritionist by the International Society of Sports Nutrition, a BioSignature level 1 practitioner by the Poliquin Group, a certified Kinesio taping practitioner by Kinesio Taping Association, is trained as an upper body active release therapy practitioner, is certified as a myofascial decompression practitioner, and is licensed by the state of Wisconsin as a massage therapist.

Jonathan Pulver is in his first season as a graduate assistant with Wisconsin Volleyball. He worked as a student manager for the Badgers during the 2023 and 2024 seasons, assisting with practice coding, statistical analysis, and daily gym operations while supporting the needs of coaches, players, and staff. Pulver also spent time with League One Volleyball (LOVB) in Madison as an assistant to the Director of Volleyball Operations, where he contributed to scouting, coding, and statistical projects for the team.

In addition to his statistical experience, Pulver played for Wisconsin's men's club volleyball team from 2021–24. He served as team captain his senior year, helping lead the Badgers to the 2024 NCVF Men's Division III National Championship, where he was named tournament MVP.

A native of Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, Pulver graduated from Sun Prairie High School before earning bachelor's degrees in Communication Arts (Radio–Television–Film) and Mathematics, along with a certificate in Digital Studies, from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in December 2024. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in Sports Leadership.

HONORS

- 2-23 Academic All-MAC Team

Why Wisconsin?

"For my fifth year, I didn't just choose a school, I chose home. This place means something deeper to me. My parents both played here as well as my brother, so I grew up knowing what it meant to wear Badger red. It's in my blood. I've walked these halls and watched this team long before I ever wore the jersey myself. It's tradition. It's family. It's pride. But more than that, I get the feeling of being part of something bigger than myself. Every day I get to grow as a player and a person alongside people I trust and believe in. Wisconsin isn't just where I play volleyball, it's where I was always meant to be."

Personal:

Why Wisconsin?

"I chose Wisconsin because of the program's winning mentality and the way the coaching staff truly sees me as a person, not just a player. The competitive spirit here is unmatched, and there's a vibe around this program that's like no other. The support from the community, both on and off the court, is something really special. I feel so blessed to be able to call this place home."

Why Wisconsin?

"I chose the University of Wisconsin because the second I stepped onto campus; Madison felt like home. I was welcomed with open arms by not only my future teammates, but by people who did not even know me. This kindness allowed me to feel comfortable in an unfamiliar environment which is something I tend to struggle with. Wisconsin is a place that allows its students to feel like they can be themselves no matter what, and that is why this school was the place I am choosing to call my home."

WISCONSIN FIELD HOUSE

It's a landmark building in a number of ways. From being listed on the National Register of Historic Places to the record-setting attendances and the momentous wins, the Wisconsin Field House is a memorable place steeped in a rich history.

Since it was built, the Field House has been the site of numerous sporting events, including basketball, boxing, track and field, and wrestling. It also hosted UW commencement exercises, carnivals and speakers, including John F. Kennedy.

The Badgers first competed in the Field House in 1977 when they hosted the Big Ten Tournament. UW didn't return to the building until 1980, hosting two tournaments. Wisconsin's play in the Field House was sporadic until 1986 when it became the permanent home of the volleyball team. With the construction of the Kohl Center in 1998, volleyball took over sole possession of the Field House in the fall. The building is also used as the competition site for the wrestling team.

Wisconsin has made the building one of the finest volleyball facilities in the country. Over the past 20 years, improvements have included new facilities for media, visiting teams, restrooms and a new wood floor.

For the team, the Badger locker room was completely remodeled in 2016 and features a team room for relaxing, studying and watching video, separate from locker rooms for the team and coaches. The room features a large television, leather sofas, study tables and chairs, and kitchenette.

During the summer of 2022, seating areas were improved, including a chairback section and a balcony on the north end for special events.

Fans can enjoy the storied history of the Badgers with NCAA and Big Ten championship banners hanging over the court as well as a photo display on the west side of the building, featuring photos of Badger greats as well as NCAA and Big Ten teams.

Fans also enjoy the full-service concessions stands and can shop for souvenirs in the Bucky's Locker Room store.

• Muhammad Ali suffered one of his few losses as an amateur boxer during the 1959 Pan American Games trials
• Notable speakers included then-presidential candidate John F. Kennedy in 1960, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Reverend Jesse Jackson, and the Dalai Lama
• Notable performers included Bob Hope, Tony Bennett, Grateful Dead, Diana Ross, Gladys Knight and Pips, and Johnny Mathis.

STEVE LOWE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

When Steve Lowe unexpectedly passed away on Aug. 22, 1991, the UW and Madison community lost an outstanding coach and a winner on and off the court.

With Lowe at the helm, the Badgers burst onto the national scene. In 1989, he directed Wisconsin to the inaugural National Invitational Volleyball Championship, their first postseason appearance ever.

The following year he steered Wisconsin to its first Big Ten title, its first NCAA tournament appearance and first national ranking. Lowe also produced Wisconsin's first volleyball All-American with Lisa Boyd earning second-team honors.

Lowe, who had a 108-64 career record in five years at Wisconsin, earned 1990 Big Ten and AVCA Mideast Coach of the Year honors.

Every year Wisconsin's Big Ten home opener is designated "Steve Lowe Night" in honor of the former coach. In addition, a Badger volleyball player who exemplifies Steve's love of the game is named the recipient of the Steve Lowe Memorial Scholarship.
