■ TWO-TIME BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

A coaching veteran of more than 30 years, Greg Gard heads into his 12th season leading the Wisconsin men's basketball program in 2026-27 and has proven himself to be one of the best head coaches in the Big Ten. A finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 2022, Gard has guided the Badgers to Big Ten regular season championships in two of the last six seasons. Gard was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in each of those title-winning campaigns (2020 and 2022).

Wisconsin's postseason success hasn't wavered on Gard's watch either, qualifying for the NCAA tournament in eight of his 11 seasons (Big Ten automatic qualifier status in canceled 2020 Big Dance, due to COVID pandemic). His postseason ledger includes Sweet 16 appearances his first two seasons at the helm.

In his first 11 seasons as head coach, Gard has amassed a record of 237-128 (.649), owning the third-highest win percentage in school history behind only Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame members Bo Ryan (.737) and Walter Meanwell (.712). Gard has led the Badgers to six of the top-20 winningest seasons in program history.

Gard entered the 2026-27 season with a conference record of 131-83. During the 2023-24 season, he became the sixth-fastest coach to reach 100 Big Ten wins in the last 50 years trailing only Bob Knight, Bo Ryan, Thad Matta, Tom Izzo and Gene Keady.

Gard had arguably his most impressive coaching job in 2021-22. Picked to finish preseason 10th in the Big Ten, UW went 25-8 overall and 15-5 in league play, claiming a share of the Big Ten regular season title for the second time in the past three seasons. Gard was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. Sophomore guard Johnny Davis garnered consensus first-team All-America honors and won Lute Olson National Player of the Year, the Jerry West Award and Big Ten Player of the Year.

Gard's leadership during the 2019-20 season is among his best. After opening 5-5 in the Big Ten, Wisconsin won nine of its last 10 games, including its final eight games of the season to win a share of the 2020 conference championship and claim the No. 1 seed for the later canceled Big Ten tournament.

In his inaugural season as head coach, Gard led the Badgers to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, becoming just the second-ever first-year coach to win the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. He followed that up by leading UW to the fifth-highest single-season win total in school history (27-10) and making a second-consecutive visit to the Sweet 16.

Long considered one of the top assistant coaches in the game, Gard served as an assistant at Wisconsin for 14-plus seasons. During that time he helped guide the Badgers to back-to-back Final Fours in 2014 and 2015, and in 2015 UW reached its first national championship game since 1941.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin in 2001, Gard spent two seasons as Bo Ryan's assistant at UW-Milwaukee (2000-01) and six seasons as an assistant to Ryan at UW-Platteville (1993-99). During Gard's years on the Pioneer staff, UW-Platteville went 161-13 (.925) and won three NCAA Division III national titles.

Gard and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Peyton, and a son Isaac, who played at Wisconsin from 2023-26.

During the 2025–26 campaign, he scored six points at Penn State and dished out four assists in seven minutes against Maryland. WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"I think that he has had some great mentors. Going against Nick Boyd every single day gave Zach an inside look at the highest level of basketball on this stage. He competed, and learned what it would take every day, to play against guys like that. And now, here comes Owen Foxwell. Different speed, different game, but a very high level point guard that Zach's picked up some things, maybe some vision and some, you know, just mental reps that he talks over with Owen, too." - Associate Head Coach Joe Krabbenhoft

SR	SR	4TH

Jack Janicki returns for his fourth year with Wisconsin. A native of White Bear Lake, Minnesota, Janicki appeared in 26 games during the 2025–26 season before a February injury against Ohio State cut his year short. He recorded 17 steals and logged six games with at least five points on the season. The guard played crucial roles in ranked wins during the 2024–25 campaign, scoring 11 points at No. 7 Purdue (Feb. 15) and 9 points against No. 9 Arizona (Nov. 15). Originally joining Wisconsin as a preferred walk-on, he has appeared in 63 career games for the Badgers across two active seasons of play.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"Just his experience, you can tell he's right place, right time. He's correcting, grabbing other guys. So you always want your older players, specifically if they've been here, they understand what's going on, to be able to drag guys along with him and push them into the right spots. He's done a good job of that." - Head Coach Greg Gard

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"He's a little slower than a Nick Boyd, but at the same time, he's sneaky quick when you're guarding him. He can get around you easy. ... His vision has been outstanding. The way he can find guys from anywhere on the court – it's been a lot of fun to be able to play with, especially as a big for him to get me the ball in the right spots and make plays out of it." - Senior Nolan Winter

I think in terms of looking at a guy like that, as he gets more comfortable as he kind of settles in in year two in Madison playing alongside Nolan, you've got an athletic big that can score on the basket, that can put it on the floor." - Robbie Hummel, NBC Sports/BTN

"He's a winner. I think that's the most important thing when you go to recruit players as a former coach out of the transfer portal, you're not looking for players whose coaches have been fired, who was on a losing team. You want guys that are coming into a culture that's used to winning. You want guys like that. He's the perfect fit because of who he is, not just as a player, but he's all about winning. He proved that on one of the better teams in the country to go undefeated through the regular season. That's impressive and he'll fit right in with Coach Gard's culture." - Matt McCall, NBC Sports/Field of 68
