About Last Week

UWF took care of Auburn Montgomery to improve to 16-1 overall and 6-0 in the Gulf South Conference with a series sweep over the weekend. The Argonauts pitching staff did not allow a run all weekend on the way to outscoring the Warhawks 14-0 over three games.

Rachel Wright and Teala Howard were the stars at the top of the lineup, each batting .500 in the series. Wright had a pair of triples in the series finale on Saturday and led UWF with 10 total bases for the weekend, while Howard matched Wright's team-high 5 hits and stole three bases. Mika Garcia came in clutch on Saturday and tallied four RBIs while going 3-for-6 in the doubleheader.

All three of West Florida's pitchers -- Grace Gilbert, Kelsey Sweatt, and Tori Perkins -- threw complete game shutouts in the series. The trio held AUM to a .116 batting average and shutout the Warhawks for the first time. AUM entered the weekend hitting .373 and averaging 8.3 runs per game.

Goodness, Our Pitchers

UWF's dominant performances in the circle last weekend should have come as no surprise. The team is second in the GSC and eighth in Division II with a 1.21 ERA and the team has put together 6 shutouts.

Kelsey Sweatt (.121) and Tori Perkins (.138) have each been close to unhittable, ranking first and fourth in the conference in opponent batting average, and Grace Gilbert's .258 opponent batting average is just outside the top 20 in the conference.
